DOMINION TIRES

Royal Cord Construction

TENS OF THOUSANDS of slender cords in many compact layers, each cord and each layer laid parallel one to another, and each embedded in pure rubber so they cannot touch — each separate cord and layer bringing its individual strength to the tremendous sum total of power and resistance—so is built the tire structure of the Dominion Royal Cord Tire. The key principle is the slender cord and the many layers or plies; thus the enormous strength to the structure and the heavier side walls make practical immunity from blow-out, puncture and the bruise.

Dominion Tires, Inner Tubes and Accessories are distributed through Dominion Rubber System Branches and sold by the Best Dealers throughout Canada.

Why "Royal Cord"?

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" make possible Lower Gas Consumption, more miles per gallon than the same car can get on fabric tires. This saving alone pays the difference in cost, within the life of an ordinary set of tires.

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" afford More Mileage than is possible from fabric tires. The carcass of the "Royal Cord," as well as the tread, absorbs the road shocks, and the carcass, in absorbing these road shocks, relieves the tread of a portion of its strain, giving longer life to the tread than is possible in fabric tires.

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" are Non-Skid, and are so designed to be equally desirable for all four wheels, and their construction reduces side-slipping without impairing the ease in steering.

BECAUSE—"Royal Cords" eliminate Interior Friction. There's no chance for friction in them.

In "Royal Cords" each individual cord is coated with rubber, which prevents the parallel cords from rubbing each other.

And a layer of live, stretchable rubber separates each of the transverse layers of cords, preventing any friction there. No internal friction means Longer Life to the Tire.

BECAUSE—Lower Air Pressure is possible, and this means more comfort and easier riding.

Dominion Tire Accessories include everything you need to close a hole, plug up a bruise, or heal a cut in your tire. These helps will make your tires last longer. Carry a supply in your car.

Dominion Inner Tubes fit all Dominion Tires and ensure perfectly balanced tires. To add comfort to your car and mileage to your tires, always insist on having Dominion Inner Tubes.

MOTORISTS WILL CAMP THIS YEAR IN MANY PLACES

TOURING WITH TENT OUTFITS INCREASING IN POPULARITY; GOOD WAY OF SEEING THE COUNTRY IN COMFORT.

Writing in the March number of "American Motorist" on the growth of motor car camping, the increasing establishment of municipal camp sites and the mutual advantages therof, A. L. Westgard, field representative of the A.A.A., says:

"During the past summer the city of Walla Walla, Wash., entertained 2,791 motor car parties in the free camping grounds set aside for their use by the municipality. It is claimed that these tourists spent about $50,000 a month with the city's merchants and that forty-six parties located permanently in the city or the immediate vicinity.

"At Springville, Ariz., 6,068 cars registered during the last season. No estimate is given as to the amount the occupants of these cars spent in the community but it is safe to say that it was at least $100,000."

"The West, however, did not have a tight monopoly on this traffic of motor car campers. Along the highways of the East, in the lake region, the Adirondack and the Catskill mountains or New York, on the hillsides and summits of the Green and White mountains of New England, the Blue Ridge of Pennsylvania and Virginia, the Appalachin Mountain range as far as Georgia; yes, among the palms of Florida and on the plains of Texas, everywhere thousands of camp fires glittered nightly during the last year.

"As for the coming season all signs point to a tremendous movement of automobile tourists over the nation's highways and byways. This is as it should be. There is no greater antidote for ignorance than the modern automobile and because this antidote is 'easy to take' it will be generally partaken of in liberal doses, thus promoting health and pleasure at the same time that it furnishes a broad and general education.

HORSES INCREASE DESPITE MOTORS

OLD DOBBIN HASN'T BEEN DRIVEN OFF THE EARTH.

Since 1899 the United States has produced over 7,900,000 automobiles, according to Government statistics. Over half of this number were manufactured since the end of 1915. It has been stated that manufacturers propose to put out over 2,000,000 cars valued at $1,500,000,000 in 1920. Some motoring enthusiasts think the horse is doomed to the fate of the mastodon or, at the best, a cage in the Bronx Park. But the country horses are on the increase. There are 21,534,000 in the United States now, and of their poor relations, the mules, there are 4,295,000, and the total value is $2,[illegible]-000... Horses or mules were never more numerous or valuable. In Europe the horse is very popular. The reason that automobiles do not supersede horses is that the growth of the country has been so great that all existing methods of transportation, either animal or mechanical, are not adequate for the requirements. Horses have a place on the small farm that mechanical appliances developed to date cannot fill until the small farmer becomes familiar with and appreciates the value of mechanical power.

There is no telling to what an extent the idea will spread in Toronto. New York City started the move in much the same way, and now. Fifth Avenue is a "one-way" street—up one way in the morning and down in the afternoon.

Another point agreed on at the conference was that vehicles, horse-drawn as well as automobiles, should not be permitted to stand within 60 feet of a street corner. The Toronto Street Railway wanted 100 feet set as the limit, and the Ontario Motor League 50 feet. So the matter was compromised.

Vehicles standing near street corners not only interfered with people getting on and off street cars, but hold up traffic coming along behind street cars. Brief stops to load or unload passengers are not objected to. It is likely that a regulation putting this proposal into effect will also be passed by the Police Commissioners.

PETERBORO HITS NEW CAR RECORD

OVER TWO THOUSAND LICENSES WILL BE ISSUED THIS YEAR.

Peterboro broke all previous records for automobile ownership last year when some 800 licenses were sold to owners of city cars. It is expected that this year will bring even bigger results in the fact that all dealers claim to have unusually heavy orders on hand. So far, however, the sale of licenses has been retarded due to snow which has lasted farther into the spring than in most seasons and only about 200 licenses have been secured as yet. During 1919, 2800 licenses were disposed of by the local license vendor, the majority of which were for cars owned in Peterboro county and city.

Judging by the number of cars sold this year by local dealers a new record will be made in the number of cars owned locally.

AERIAL FLIVVER TO COST $2500

HAS TWO-CYLINDER HORIZONTALLY OPPOSED ENGINE AND 20-FEET WING SPREAD.

America's smallest flying craft—the "Butterfly" monoplane of the L. W. F. Engineering Corporation, took the air in a successful trial flight at College Point, Long Island, recently. It fulfilled all of the predictions made for it after wind tunnel tests of a model.

The Butterfly, a veritable aerial flivver, made its bow to the public at the aeronautical show of the Manufacturers' Aircraft Association in the Seventy-first Regiment Armory New York, March 6 to 13. It will be put on a quantity production basis and will sell for $2,500.

The new craft was wheeled out into the snow-covered field and Chief Test Pilot Captain Jack Foote climbed in. The two cylinder opposed motor with which it is engined, started on a half spin of the propeller and the plane rolled across the snow. It gathered speed rapidly and went into the air at about 75 feet from the starting point. Pilot Foote sailed off towards the Sound, made a wide turn, came back to the field and landed. The plane stopped within sixty feet of the point at which its wheels first touched the ground.

Additional trial flights will be made for speed, gasoline consumption and climbing ability. Laboratory tests give the plane a maximum speed of 72 miles per hour and a minimum without losing altitude of 22 miles.

—two husky men can lift it from the ground. It is only twenty-nine feet and nine inches wide and nineteen feet long. The motor is smaller and weighs less than the motors in even the lowest powered automobiles, yet it develops 35 to 70 horsepower. The maximum carrying capacity is 265 pounds.

The "Butterfly" was designed to satisfy the desires of sportsmen for a machine of low operating expense and low garage cost. Its wings afterons and tail surfaces are detachable and many of the parts are interchangeable.

WHEN STREAM-LINE IS OFTEN MISNOMER

DISCLOSES CONDITION WHERE STREAM OF AIR CREATED BY CAR IS UNBROKEN.

One hears a great deal nowadays about "stream line" bodies. This term is not well understood, even in the motor car industry, as many people apply the adjective "stream line" to cars which do not really possess the characteristics embodied in that description.

A stream line car is one in which the currents of air rushing past it as it travels are not broken. An eye under the bonnet and forward presents a stream line. A fish is said to be perfect example of the stream line because the body, behind the head, presents no resistance or obstruction to the water, which closes upon it gradually down to the point of its tail.

If the fish were cut in half across the body and could still swim, the abrupt ending of the body would create a vacuum behind it which would exert a dragging effect and greatly retard its progress.

The only true stream line cars are some of the racing machines on which long tapering tails have been built to lead the air currents to the rear in an unbroken stream. But cars with high backs or abrupt endings are comparable to the fish cut in half.

TO ETCH STEEL.

The car owner may occasionally desire to place his name or initials on some metal part or surface. This is best done by etching, and if it is iron or steel mix an ounce of nitric acid and one ounce of muriatic acid. Shake these well, when they are ready to use. Cover the place to be etched with beeswax melted, and when this is cold write what is desired in the wax, clear down to the metal using a sharp instrument for the purpose. Now apply the acid mixture with a feather, being careful to fill each letter. Let the acid stand for ten minutes and pour water on it. This stops the etching and the

WILL WORK AGAINST YOU ALL THE TIME.

Possibly you think because his station in life is down at the bottom, where there are mud and mire, that the tire is not the aristocrat of the auto world. But you may be perfectly sure that Sir Serviceable Tire is worthy not only of your respect—if not veneration—but of your intimate companionship. Get acquainted with him at the first opportunity, for he is a friend—if you make him a friend—who goes with you through all kinds of [illegible] that does not "tire out" [illegible] neglect him badly or [illegible] old age overtakes him.

From auto tire standards of a generation ago—the thinner fabric tube—the thinner to resist the hard wear of road service and the [illegible] the required flexibility for withstanding the wheels. These two essentials were combined in the single tube tire in the early days of automobiling, but the increasing weights of cars and speed at which they are driven made the single tube impossible. The shoe is not elastic to any great degree, except for the thick rubber tread. The tube is elastic, confining the air which makes the cushion between bump and driver. It stretches taut the shoe, giving a firm, flexible contact with the roadway for traction, and absorbing the road shocks in large measure.

Abuse Shortens Service.

Now, tires are really wonderful pieces of work. It is remarkable that they stand up as well as they do when you consider the car weight, speed and rough roads encountered. Yet the average driver is apt to say that tires make him tired—especially after he has to invest in one or more. He should realize their good qualities and not think they should stand any amount of abuse and still give maximum service. Having learned this proper respect, the next thing is a proper care through their lengthened career.

The rather marvelous development of the tire in the last fifteen years or so, through improved methods of manufacture and experience in meeting road conditions, has not been at the expense of the car owner. Tires are cheaper, even with war prices in vogue, than ten years ago. Of course, a cheap tire is not the sole desideratum. First cost, plus repairs and actual mileage given, alone will tell the tale of economy or waste—the cost per mile, the only safe guide in buying tires.

To keep down the cost per mile there are some things the owner must do. The manufacturers of most tires issue a pamphlet telling how the tire is made and how to take care of it. Get it and read carefully and follow the advice given. Some things it does not say, however. Perhaps the most important of these is that you should learn to favor the tires at times of great strains, such as in turning corners, going over rough roads, new broken stone, railroad crossings and street car tracks and where the surface is rutty or dried or frozen when all cut up. Go easy. Spend a moment extra and save dollars.

Look After Small Cuts.

But, despite your care, there will be cuts in the rubber tread. Go over the tires regularly once a week or oftener and look for these cuts. Small ones should be sealed with cement before they get big. Larger cuts may need the putty-like repair material to be had of the supply dealer or may need vulcanizing. But it should be attended to at once. Water will get into the fabric and it rots in amazingly short time, and then vulcanizing does no good, for the strength of the fabric is gone. Sand works in as well as water and makes "blisters" alongside the tread.

Pressure on tires should be kept at the figure given by the manufacturer, not by guessing, but by gauge, and the reserve tire must be tested as well as those in use. If you have oodles of gold and do not care for expense you may prefer comfort to tire mileage, for the pressure demanded by some manufacturers makes the car ride hard—solid rubber would be no more anyielding. A car systematically overloaded will wear out tires faster; procure oversize tires to correct this evil.

Grease softens rubber. Keep the tires free.

Fast driving heats the tires, with faster wear, besides magnifying the bumps and giving a side swing which grinds the tires over the road.

If the front wheels are out of alignment it also grinds off the tread.

A harsh clutch does the same thing in starting abruptly, and brakes applied too rapidly thus slide the wheels.

Brakes unevenly adjusted cause one tire to slide and grind.

Whirling around corners sometimes makes all four tires slide, even when there is no bad skid.

Here is a Good Tip.

On a wet day avoid roads where crushed stone has been newly applied. Rubber workers in our vulcanizing school wet the knives with which they cut the rubber. Wet stones with sharp corners slice a tire like a knife.

Inner tubes puncture, but may be patched easily with the handy kits sold in tire stores, and the [illegible] handy vulcanizing outfits for larger cuts which may be carried in the car. Blowouts should be taken to the vulcanizer. New methods enable the expert to do wonders with tubes we used to throw away.

I do not want to recommend anything which will take all the joy out of life, but the owner who keeps a record of what his tires do and know to a mile and to a penny their story will buy more intelligently than the hit-or-miss fellow. Because the tires during the life of a car cost about as much as the original price of the car, certainly one ought to be as particular about the tires as about the car. The manufacturer tries to show you how to save tire cost, and along with this the fellow who follows his advice generally has less road troubles with tires than he who neglects them persistently.

GAS ECONOMY IN WINTER DRIVING

MOTOR FUNCTIONS MOST EFFICIENTLY WHEN WATER IN COOLING SYSTEM IS AT 170 DEGREES.

BY C. H. DAVIES.

A matter of considerable interest for every one, particularly in this cold weather and in these days of low grade gasoline, is that of obtaining the greatest possible number of miles per gallon of gasoline from your car. Of course, there are many conditions controlling the mileage that is obtainable from gasoline on any car.

First, a great deal can be saved thru care being used by the driver of the car in different ways, such as throttling down the motor whenever possible, or permitting the motor to idle at the curb for extended periods of time, and not attempting to make the motor work under extremely difficult pulling conditions or picking up on high gear in traffic.

Second, various derangements about the motor should be promptly eliminated. If the motor misses, a condition is produced which is not conducive to gasoline economy.

Oftimes an owner will find it necessary, due to extremely cold weather or some condition about his car, to prime the motor before starting, particularly on mornings when the car has remained standing over night. In drawing out the gasoline to accomplish this priming, there is considerable gasoline used, which oftimes an owner does not take into consideration when figuring the mileage he is obtaining.

Of course, the proper adjustment of the carburetor is responsible to quite a large extent for the mileage obtained, but it is necessary in order to obtain the most economical adjustment of the carburetor, that the different adjustments about the ignition system be correctly made.

In cold weather particularly, you may occasionally notice indications of water in the carburetor in gasoline. This may be brought about thru condensation in changes of temperature. Water in the gasoline is very disagreeable and may be serious. It doesn't take any longer and doesn't cost any more to be served with filtered gas. Bowser gasoline pumps have a water separater or filter built right into the pump which takes all of the water and dirt out of the gasoline as it is delivered to your car. It really pays to play safe and buy only filtered gasoline.

In winter weather the motor should be kept in a warm garage if possible. It can easily be realized that with the motor warm the gasoline economy will be the greatest. We have experimented extensively in order to determine the best running temperature for the motor, and have found with the water at a temperature of 170 degrees F. that the best results are secured in regard to the economy of gasoline. In cold weather with the temperature 10 to 20 degrees above zero, we have found that without the hood covered or some portion of the radiator that the temperature of the water is on an average of 120 degrees F. For this reason the owner should cover up a sufficient portion of the radiator and hood to insure running at a temperature of 170 degrees F.

TO PREVENT SHORT CIRCUITS.

There is frequently danger of short circuits in the battery, because of the fact that one of the terminals is located near the metal handle used for lifting the battery. To obviate this, it is only necessary to slip a short length of rubber tubing over the wire at the point where the contact might be made.

To do this the tubing should be slit lengthwise, slipped over the wire an taped firmly in place. It is a good plan to follow this practice wherever there is danger of the wires rubing off their insulation and so establishing a short circuit.

One day I was driving down George Street and saw a small fox terrier just stepping off the curb. I sounded the horn and he stopped and stepped back off the road. He knew how to be safe.

DO YOU

Briscoe

Leader of All Light Weight Cars

The elimination of superfluous weight has been for years the ambition of Briscoe engineers. Their aim has been to build for Economy—without sacrificing strength, sturdiness, or Comfort. The scientific development of this ideal has culminated in a car which we can offer with every assurance that it is the highest expression of light weight construction—the last word motor car design for the man who seeks the combination of Service and Economy.

Briscoe records are replete with wonderful—almost unbelievable—testimony as to gasoline and tire economy. Our own official ten-day non-stop test run has established a record of over 20 miles to the gallon of gasoline. And day after day we receive letters from owners enthusiastically recording the gasoline or Tire Mileage, and expressing deep satisfaction with the wonderful motor. Just a few days ago we had a letter from the publisher of one of the largest daily newspapers in Canada expressing regret that we could not accept his offer for six cars to be used in a special Subscription Contest. Just read his praise of the Briscoe:

"You were the first one to whom we submitted our order for six automobiles. I did so because I knew the value of the car. Last year I bought a Briscoe car for my daughter, and we covered over 5,000 miles since last May, and with the greatest satisfaction. The car is A1, so I would have been proud to offer it to our readers."

BRISCOE REFINEMENTS

After you have satisfied yourself that the Briscoe has all the power you can ever call on your car to deliver—and the stamina to give you service and satisfaction long after other cars have found their way to the scrap-heap—then examine the car for those added features which make for pride and comfort in the car you drive.

Note its lines and finish—how carefully the upholstering is done, how smoothly the door-locks work—how easily the top goes up and down.

Examine the Instrument Board—as complete a one as you will find on most cars of vastly greater price.

The slanting windshield adds greatly to the car's appearance—as does the plate-glass window in the rear of its Gipsy-style Top. The side curtains open with the doors. The rear compartment is provided with a tonneau light, which makes it possible to enter the car at night without tripping, and also lights up the compartment under the seat where the parcels are usually stored.

A DEMONSTRATION Will Prove Its Claim

No mere examination of this car can prepare you for the thrill of satisfaction which awaits you when for the first time you sit at the wheel of a Briscoe. A Demonstration will satisfy you of its power, flexibility, and hill-climbing ability.

Let a Briscoe salesman take you out for a drive and let him convince you—not by argument, but by the car's own incontrovertible showing under every driving test you can think of.

Arrested and Shot

FOREIGN OFFICE WORKED UP OVER KILLING OF AMERICAN CITIZEN.

United Press.

BERLIN, April 13. — (By Carl D. Groat.) — The Foreign Office to-day was visibly agitated over the possible results of the killing of Paul D. DeMott, an American citizen, who was shot by the guards while "trying to escape" from a prison at Wesel.

The report of De Mott's death came after several messages telling of the rough treatment of foreigners by the Reichswehr troops in the Ruhr district as well as the reports of many Germans "shot while trying to escape."

De Mott had been arrested for illegal implication in the Ruhr revolt.

THEFT CASE WAS DISMISSED

"Dismissed," pronounced Magistrate Dumble after hearing the case against a returned soldier, with three different alias names taken on at different occasions as circumstances demanded.

He was chargd with the theft of $25.00 from an employee of a local butcher shop, and the only evidence for a conviction was the finding of two Royal Bank ten dollar bills on him, to all appearances the same bills as those stolen.

"It is a very extraordinary coincidence. You could search ten thousand pockets and not find two bills like that. That is the only evidence there is for a conviction."

Bird of Passage.

Crown Attorney Hatton pointed out the damaging evidence and the slimness of the excuses made by the accused. "He is a bird of passage—we don't know where he came from or where he is." The Crown Attorney admitted the slimness of the evidence for a conviction.

Mr. G. N. Gordon, representing the defendant, contended the man changed his name originally because of its German character. The evidence would justify an investigation, but not sufficient to find him guilty of such a serious offence.

Mystery Soldier

IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS SAY HE IS GEORGE DENSHAM, CLEVER SNEAK THIEF.

TORONTO, April 13.—The mystery soldier at the Dominion Orthopaedic Hospital is a mystery no longer. At least the officers of the hospital and Dominion Immigration officials declared last night that they were positive that the man is George Densham, who, after serving four sentences for theft, was deported to England in June, 1915. The soldier is now in Toronto Jail awaiting the final clearing up the whole matter and, unless the unforeseen happens, he will be on his way back to England before many days more. The man himself continues to deny that he is Densham, but Immigration Officer J. G. Mitchell of the local branch is positive that there is no mistake. All question in the matter will be removed, it is expected, as soon as his finger prints, taken at the City Hall yesterday, can be compared with those on record at Ottawa.

What the officers regard as the solution of the mystery was due to the long memory of an official of the Immigration Department Headquarters at Ottawa, who recognized the photographs published in the newspapers as those of George Densham, whom he had deported five years ago. Details as to Densham's case were at once forwarded to the Toronto office of the Department, and Mr. Mitchell's visit to the hospital yesterday followed.

Densham's records describe him as an unusually clever sneak thief and convey the information that, as "Clyde Densham," he was sentenced to a term of from one to eight years in the Indiana State Reformatory at Jeffersonville, Ind., on December 24, 1909; was paroled in 1910, and finally discharged on April 29, 1911. The following year Densham, still as "Clyde Densham," was sentenced on February 8 at Brantford, Ont., to six months in the Central Prison for theft. It was as "Carmen M. De Enon" that the same man was sentenced at Hamilton on February 13, 1913, to a term of nine months and another of six months, to run concurrently. Theft was again the charge preferred.

Then in St. Thomas on August 20, 1914, Densham, under the alias "Royce DeEnon," was sentenced to 24 months less one day in the Ontario Reformatory. However, because he continually professed illness, he was deported back to his home in Exeter, England, in June, 1915.

Enters a Denial.

That the possibility of mistake is hardly to be considered in view of the evidence at hand, was the opinion expressed by officials concerned yesterday. It was stated that the photograph of Densham, taken while he was in the Central Prison, and which were brought to the hospital yesterday by Mr. Mitchell, were excellent likenesses of the man claiming loss of memory. Moreover, when questioned as to where he worked in St. Thomas, he replied, "The Monarch Knitting Mills," which happens to be the firm with which Densham's record shows he worked while in that city. While denying that he was Densham, the man claimed to have known Densham while in Brantford, and thought the latter's Christian name was "Arnold," which was one of the aliases cited in the records.

Rough measurements made at the hospital proved to correspond with the Bertillon figures for Densham, while scars and vaccination marks were also found to be identical. Mr. Mitchell stated last night that more careful measurements made subsequently had shown an exact similarity as to height, one of the most reliable indications.

Besides the identification of the immigration officials, a number of private citizens in Toronto, Brantford and other places throughout Ontario have expressed the conviction that the man in the hospital was George Densham.

May Have Been Shell Shocked.

At the Orthopaedic Hospital the belief was expressed that the supposed patient could not have been in the Canadian army, but it was thought possible that he landed in England in 1915 in time to be conscripted for the Imperial Army, and may have served in the war. It is quite possible also that he was actually shell-shocked. The doctors are uncertain as to whether the claimed loss of memory is real or not.

How the man got back to Canada as a Canadian soldier is something of a mystery. It is believed, however, that he "put one over" on the London headquarters.

An interesting coincidence which may have had a distinct bearing on

$35,000 IS THE ESTIMATED EXPENDITURE ON ROADS IN THE SOUTHERN TOWNSHIPS

SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF THE COUNTY COUNCIL FIXED TAX RATE FOR THIS PURPOSE AT 2 1-2 MILLS—WILL BUY MACHINERY, BUT NOT TRACTORS.

REEVE DARLING CHAIRMAN

The expenditure on road improvements this season in the southern block of Peterboro county, was estimated at $35,000 this morning by the Special Committee of the Reeves of the municipalities who have adopted the Provincial Good Roads System. Of this sum the government will contribute forty per cent., and the remainder, aproximately $22,000, will be raised by a tax levy of two and one-half mills.

In the discussion on this rate some of the townships were unwilling to exceed two mills, and others declared that even three mills would be insufficient to cover the cost of the work that they were planning for this year. The committee divided evenly in the vote, and Reeve Darling, presiding, decided in favor of two mills. This was subsequently increased one half a mill when Warden Nicholls proposed to "split the difference."

"I'll agree to any increase," said Reeve Eason, "for Otonabee could stand five mills."

The amendment to two and a half mills was accepted when it was explained that there was no alternative.

"Is there no way in which each township could levy its own rate?" Reeve Grifith of Belmont enquired. "Two mills are not much use to our township."

The flat rate system was previously adopted and the advantage of this particular provision was explained by County Clerk Elliott.

Reeve Darling Appointed

John Darling, Reeve of Dummer, was appointed chairman of the Committee and on Reeve Eason's motion, seconded by Reeve Strickland of Lakefield, the Warden, the Chairman, and the Road Superintendent, Mr. Duncan McFarlane, were authorized to buy all the machinery deemed necessary for this years operations.

The Committee designated the machinery required and the list as prepared this morning includes ten small graders at $175 each, five large graders at $500 each and a stone crusher at $3500, makng a total of $7750. Each township is buying a small grader, and Smith and Otonabee are taking two each.

Will Rent Not Buy.

The question of tractive power was discussed at some length. Mr. McFarlane intimated that he intended renting a caterpillar tractor which was offered him at $17 a day. The owner assured him that it would easily do the work of three teams, and in that respect would prove satisfactory and economical. The Reeves agreed that the purchase of tractors would be a drain on their funds this year and although the proposed rental seemed high it was actually expected to provide a saving.

"We can experimeht on the other fellow's tractor and see how it works out," Mr. McFarlane remarked.

Reeve Eason moved, seconded by Reeve McIntosh, that no tractive power be bought this year.

At the noon adjournment the committee had the wage scale under consideration.

Uniform Wages.

This afternoon the committee fixed its scale of wages at 30 cents and 60 cents an hour for man and team respectively to be paid uniformly throughout the good roads townships.

Employees of the municipalities will be paid in cash by Mr. McFarland, the superintendent, who will give a bond of $2,000 to the county.

The sub-committee deputed to buy the machinery will visit Toronto and Guelph in a few days.

GENERAL STRIKE IN IRELAND WAS SLATED TO GO INTO EFFECT TO-DAY

Sinn Feiners Stand Pat Despite Intense Suffering Due to Hunger Strike.

(United Press.)

DUBLIN, April 13.—The general strike called by the Irish Labour Union in protest against British treatment of hunger-strikers, Sinn Fein prisoners, was to go into effect to-day.

All work except those in the most essential industries will be called out, it was said.

"You are called on to act swiftly and suddenly to save a hundred dauntless men whose lives have been hanging by a thread for eight days," the strike call said.

"They have continued their hunger strike although many are at the point of death, while their jailers shriek, 'Let them die.'

"Workers, dare not allow this tragedy to happen."

Lord-Lieutenant French last night declined to see a deputation, headed by the Lord Mayor, regarding the prisoners.

Popular excitement has been greatly increased by the story of one prisoner who was released on the expiration of his sentence. The released man said attempts were made on Sunday to feed the strikers, confined in Mount Joy Prison, by force, but that the effort failed, all the Sinn Feiners standing pat, despite intense suffering.

CITIZENS OF PETERBORO BID "BON VOYAGE" TO HIS LORDSHIP BISHOP O'BRIEN

THE BISHOP WAS THE GUEST OF HONOUR AT A CITIZENS' BANQUET HELD LAST EVENING—WILL LEAVE SHORTLY FOR ROME.

"His Lordship Bishop O'Brien has always appealed to me as a man. Some way or other to me the man has hidden the bishop and I see only the man"— a simple testimonial, yet a deeply expressive one of the respect in which he is held, eloquent in its simplicity was this tribute pad last evening to His Lordship Bishop M. J. O'Brien by the Rev. F. E. Malott at the complimentary banquet, under the patronage of the Peterborough Board of Trade, tendered to the Bishop on the eve of his departure for Europe to report to the Holy Father.

The chair, in the absence of Mr. J. W. Worth, was filled by Alderman J. J. Turner, ex-President of the Board of Trade. At 7.30 a large representation of citizens, irrespective of class or creed gathered together. During the course of the banquet Otto Glidden's three-piece orchestra dispensed very enjoyable music and added materially to the success of the banquet at the Empress Hotel.

Following the toast to the King, Mr. D. Carlisle was heard in a vocal solo. Ald. Turner in proposing the toast to the guest, paid great tribute to His Lordship. "It would have been easy to have had two or three times the gathering here to-night to banquet with the Bishop and bid him 'bon voyage.' It is a proud pleasure for me to act as chairman to-night." The work of the bishop in his diocese and the community were highly praised and the temporary loss the city is incurring in the bishop's journey to Rome.

First Sunday.

On the fourth of August, 1918, I spent my first Sunday in our fair city of Peterborough, said Rev. F. E. Malott, in seconding the toast. I was a stranger in the city, but a three days' resident. I felt myself already a citizen of Peterborough, and on the evening of August 4th I was invited by the Mayor to attend a public gathering on the anniversary of the war, in the park. Three able addresses, one by Judge Huycke, Archdeacon Davidson and Bishop O'Brien were heard.

Bond of Brotherhood.

"We were there as one, united on a common ground as citizens of Peterborough, of the Dominion, of the British Empire. We were all interested in the war, which was still in progress." Continuing, Rev. Mafott said he felt a thrill of pleasure at that meeting when he thought of the men he was linked up with, and the pleasure felt at any meeting where he was present with other men when all distinctions of class or creed are forgotten.

"We are gathered here again as citizens on another occasion — a happier occasion. The war is over. We are happy in being at peace to-night as we do honour to one of the sons of Peterborough and one of her notable citizens honored by the church and the citizens."

VISIT PETERBORO

Mr. Swayzie, M.P.P., Niagara Labor whip, Dr. H. Stevenson, M.P.P., London, Ont., and Mrs. Hoodet Preston, Toronto, will be in Peterborough on Wednesday, April 21st.

Mr. Swayzie will discuss his bill to tax government utilities, etc. This bill is creating a great amount of interest throughout the province, and Mr. T. Tooms, M.P.P., has invited Mr. Swayzie to Peterborough to explain its various angles.

Dr. Stevenson, of London, has introduced a bill similar to that which Alderman J. Crowe brought before the Peterborough City Council, providing means for the City Clerk to handle marriage licenses and the fees to go into the city treasury. The government will take over the bill and introduce it as a government measure as its affects finance.

Mrs. Preston was an active worker in the old country suffrage movement.

LATE SESSIONS.

The House is to have a late sitting every night this week in order to hurry up the work, with a view to closing the House by May 1st, but this is considered highly improbable.

The Peterborough Private Bill will go to committee some time next week.

THE WEATHER

As an instance of the wide-spread course of some storms across the country, the present disturbance is a good example. On Saturday morning the Toronto Weather Bureau said an important low pressure (of bad weather) area was then over the State of Utah and would likely travel towards the Great Lakes. Since then it has been travelling day and night across the continent, a circular form of probably three or four hundred miles across. As it approached Ontario the wind shifted to the east and blew from that direction. (When a storm is passing over the wind always blows towards the centre of the storm area.) This explains the seeming paradox which is a mystery to many how a storm can be travelling east and the wind blow from the east at the same time. After the centre of the storm passes, the wind changes to the west, and still blows towards the centre. It is usually then but a short time until better weather ensues. As the storm passes the northern half usually gives snow and the southern portion rain. In a high pressure area, the winds take another course, which perhaps will be explained later.—W. P.

Eternal Torment

THIS IS PROMISED TO THE NATIONALISTS IN TURKEY— CLOSING IN.

(Canadian Press)

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 13.—Sultan Member sixth of Turkey has thrown all his political and religious power into the balance as a final measure in combatting the Nationalist movement in Asia-Minor. Observers here declare that the next fort night will determine whether he can rally any real force to oppose Mustapha Kemal, head of the National movement, who is virtual ruler of the most of the Turkish possessions east of the Dardanelles.

"Wrath of Heaven and Eternal torments of hell," are called down on heads of all Moslems who do not support the Sultan by the new Sheikul-Islam. "All Musselmans who kill Nationalists will be blessed by allah and all who die fighting rebels will earn eternal glory here after."

Mobilization of the Sultan's forces has begun in the Island's of sea of Marmora and along the shores of the Black Sea. Anzevour Passa, formerly Circassian Bandit has organized several thousand opponents of Nationalists at Bigha and Panorma, on the southern shore of the sea of Marmora and is to-day an important supporter of Sultan.

Nationalists forces are reported to be closing in on Anzevour to cut him off from Constantinople and capture the city of Brussa, southeast of here. They are also said to be approaching the British base at Ismid, but it is doubtful if any engagement will be fought there, as a formidable fleet is supporting British inland forces.

Strikers Still Out

STRIKE SITUATION IN SOME PARTS SHOW SIGNS OF IMPROVING—A SUMMARY.

(Canadian Press.)

CHICAGO, April 13.— The main strength of the striking railroad workers to-day was exerted in the section east of Pittsburg and in the Pacific north-west, with conditions, according to Railroad Brotherhood leaders and railway officials in the remainder of the country pointing toward a return to normal. Around New York the passenger service was hard hit, and in Pennsylvania steel and iron regions thousands of workers were threatened with enforced idleness unless the situation quickly changed.

As epitomized by Brotherhood leaders to-day the entire situation was:

West—Vastly worse.
Chicago—Much improved.
East—Vastly worse.

From the Ohio river west to the coast the Brotherhood leaders said the strike was "burning out."

At Jersey city, armed soldiers with army motor trucks were called in to handle the mail halted by the strike.

Military Leader Resumes Duties.

(Canadian Press.)

BOSTON, April 13.—Major General Leonard Wood to-day cancelled leave of absence which he obtained to make a campaign for the Republican nomination for President, and said he would leave later in the day for Chicago to resume his duties as commanding general of the Central Department. He stated the action was due to railroad strike conditions.

HOW NEWLY RICH TEXANS SPEND THE FORTUNES MADE FROM OIL

They are still human, these newrich people in the oil country of Burkburnett, Tex. They haven't had their money long enough to be spoiled. A dollar is still something with which things can be bought, instead of a magic disc which can be put out at compound interest until it is able to ruin a grandchild. They spend their easy riches on precisely the principle on which a boy blows his circus-day dollar.

"I want a diamond for ma, here," said a bonanza millionaire in a Dallas jewellery store. The salesman wanted to know what sort of a diamond. He already knew, of course. The bonanza rich man wants the largest and shiniest diamond he can buy. A yellow diamond is just as good as any other diamond to him.

"I judge I want one about the size of a nickle," said "ma." "The lady on the next ranch got one the other day that was mighty near that big, and I wanta outhold her."

No other town of 150,000 inhabitants in the world has sold as many silk shirts as Dallas, perhaps, since the oil excitement began a year ago. Or more brilliant shirts. The shuddering sun goes into an eclipse when their wearers meet. The bonanza rich man is a secessionist in the use of colour. What he wants is lots of it. The more different colours he can get on the same shirt the better he is pleased. Sometimes he displays his new affluence in a way that qualifies him as an entrant for the Newport set.

"There's one of the new millionaires," I was told in another city. An intensely shiny limousine rolled slowly by. The interior was padded like a cozy corner, and there were many lights arranged to display the human exhibit within. He sat in a corner, smoking a large black cigar, and evidently satisfied with himself.

"What does he do with his money?"

"Just rides around in his limousine," I was told. "As long as there is anyone on the street. Never invites anyone to ride with him. He enjoys it all alone."

That may be called the apex of exclusiveness, but some go to the other extreme. In one of the small towns of the oil field an old banker and his wife lived. The old man used to run the sort of a bank which prevailed in the small towns of the south-west. It was a constant temptation to any felon who was willing to take a chance with the old man's "gat."

When oil was found on his property he became worth perhaps $15,000,000, but he is still running his bank. And his aged wife — they have no children — still runs a boarding house.

"I am worried about my money," she confided to a friend. "I'm getting so much of it. I can't lend it out any more."

Of another well-to-do couple it is related that when the first dividends came in, and the realty of their good luck finally sank in, the old farmer went to his wife.

"We're rich now, me," said he. "We've got plenty of money. I'll get you anything you want now, no matter what it costs."

The old lady deliberated for a long time. Finally she said:

"Well, pa, I think I'd like to have a new axe."

Sometimes the end is tragic. One family was actually in the fields, picking cotton around the derrick, when oil was struck. The father was taken to the asylum for the insane the other day. He had become a maniac through worry over his income tax.

Hotel keepers in the big cities of Texas report that when the new-rich come visiting, immediately after touching their fortunes, they are sometimes unable to sleep at night, so worried are they that they new riches will take wings. Usually they are practical. Their eccentricities in the mattle of diamonds and silk shirts and motor cars are mere surface outchroppings of the inner joy.

They have skyrocketed the price of residence property in Dallas and Dichita Falls and Fort Worth and the other towns of the district.

"I like the looks of your house," said an old woman, whose gnarled hands betrayed a life of toil to the mistress of a handsome residence in one of the Texas town. "Do you want to sell it?"

They reached a conclusion on the price in five minutes. The buyer did not haggle over a few thousand dollars, but merely paid. Then she asked permission to look through her new acquisition. By and by she announced that she wanted to buy the furniture.

"I want to move in to-morrow," said she.

That deal was made. But when the buyer came to take possession the next day her keen eyes noted that a dozen or so photographs which had been standing about had disappeared.

"Where's them photographs?" she asked.

The seller explained that she had taken them away. They were all photographs of the members of the family or their friends.

"You bring 'em back," said the buyer. "Photographs is furniture."

PALE, SALLOW WOMEN NEED VINOL

It Makes Rich Red Blood, Creates Natural Strength, the Glow of Health and a Magnetic Personality

Women who are over-worked, weak, all run-down, no energy and hardly able to drag about, if you could only realize what VINOL, our cod liver and iron tonic, will do for you, there would not be enough in Canada to supply the demand.

Miss Phyllis Jones, W. Toronto, Ont., says: "I was run-down, nervous, and losing flesh rapidly, and had fainting spells, so I had to stop work for weeks at a time. My doctor told me to take VINOL. I did and after two or three days I commenced to feel better. I have gained flesh rapidly and feel better in every way since taking it."

What VINOL did for Miss Jones it will do for every pale, sallow, weak, over-worked woman. Every such woman in Canada should ask her druggist for VINOL today and start on the road to a healthy, happy existence. Your druggist will return your money if Vinol fails to help you.

The story of the western miner who ordered $40 worth of ham and eggs at Delmonico's is a classic. But an old cowboy who suddenly struck it rich furnished a parallel the other day. In this country nowadays a cowboy may not ride a horse; but he must be able to handle a flivver. When the aged cattle gentleman got his money he joyously announced:

"No more flivvers for me. I'm never going to set in one of them dang things again."

So he bought five of the most expensive and luxurious cars he could hear about, and now he spends his time luxuriously riding behind a bebuttoned chauffeur in his new car. That's all he does—just ride—changing from car to car all day long.

A stranger riding through the country the other day heard a weird and distressing tumult coming from a farm. The farmer was on the gallery blowing a cowhorn, and around him, many hound dogs were howling solemnly. The farmer's wife was ringing the dinner bell.

"What's the matter, friend?" asked the stranger.

"We're celebrating," explained the farmer. "We just got our first dividend."

Not long ago a major in the regular army received a visit from a Texas boy who had for years been his orderly. The boy came in wearing a Northern Lights silk shirt, some imported clothes, a diamond in his tie and carrying a cane.

"Still got them same old shoes ain't you?" said the boy. "Dang 'em, I reckon I've shined 'em a thousand times. But I'll never shine 'em no more, Maje. I've struck oil." — St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

However slight a cold you have you should never neglect it; if you do it can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

Bronchitis is one of the most common affections of a neglected cold, and neglected bronchitis the most general cause of consumption.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is just the remedy you require to cure the bronchitis. It does this by loosening the phlegm and mucous, and stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts and thus prevents it becoming chronic.

Mr. R. P. Sundblad, Francis, Sask., writes:—"I had a very bad cold which left me with bronchitis. I tried several cough remedies and oils of all kinds, but they all failed. At last I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and after using two bottles I have never had a sign of bronchitis since. I therefore can honestly recommend it for coughs and colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SCHMIDT'S BODY FOUND ON OPPOSITE SHORE

Ill-fated Duck Hunter Was Drowned In November, 30 Miles Across Lake.

TILLBURY, April 13.—The body of John A. Schmidt of Mount Clemens, Mich., who was drowned while duck hunting near Mount Clemens on November 4th, 1919, was found on the shore of Lake St. Clair at Stoney Point Saturday evening by Councillor Emil Chauvin of that village. The identity of the frozen corpse was established by a memo book, a Masonic charm and an identification card in his vest pocket.

A man named Aikenhead was the other occupant of the duck boat when the drowning occurred last November, and his body was recovered near the scene of the fatality a couple of weeks ago. It is about 30 miles in a direct line across the lake from Mount Clemens to Stoney Point.

McGOWAN, SPEED SKATER, WILL TURN PROFESSIONAL

ST. PAUL, Minn., April 13.—Everett McGowan of St. Paul, amateur speed skating champion of the United States, has decided to become a professional, it became known here today. He will continue his studies at St. Thomas College here until next December, when he will leave to skate under the colors of an Eastern club, probably the Malone Skating Club of Malone, N.Y., which is said to have made him an offer.

Next winter efforts will be made to match McGowan with Oscar Mathiesen for a purse of $25,000.

"ROCKETT" POWERS DEAD.

"Rockett" Powers, one of the famous trio of Powers brothers, who were for years premier hockeyists in Quebec city, died at his home Tuesday night in Quebec city. Ottawa hockey followers will recall "Rockie," who played point to Joe Powers' cover on the old Quebec team from 1903 to 1907. He made his last appearance here in Dey's Arena in 1907. The late Mr. Powers was rated as expert defence man in his day. He played an extra defence for a short time in the season of 1913 with Canadiens. He is a brother of "Chubby" Powers, M.P., also a former well-known Quebec athlete.

NEVER WORRIED BY A HUSBAND

Why Sarah Ann McGinnis is Hale and Hearty at 104.

NEW YORK, April 13.—On her 104th birthday, Sarah Ann McGinnis said that she felt younger than she did thirty years ago, and expressed confidence that she will see many more birthdays. She believes that she has lived so long because she never married.

"I was never married, and I never was worried by a husband," she said to-day, between puffs from a pipe at a home for the aged in the Bronx. "Husbands are worrisome things."

Miss McGinnis jested about her spinsterhood, but there was a touch of regret in her voice when she said she had missed the joy of having little ones to bring up. She was born in Dublin. She remembers New York when it was what seemed to be a village and shared the excitement of the inhabitants over the first mule-drawn street car.

KELLY, FAMOUS SPRINTER, SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA

FERNIE, B.C., April 13.—Daniel J. Kelly, aged 53, once a famous amateur athlete, is dead here of pneumonia.

As a member of the University of Oregon track teams of 1905 and 1906, Kelly, whose home was here for a number of years, broke no fewer than fie world's records, including a 9 3-5 seconds record for the 100-yard dash at the P.N.A. meet at Spokane in June, 1906.

Kelly set a record for the 220-yard dash at 21 1-5, and set a coast record in the broad jump in 1906 at 24 feet 2¼ inches.

The "REO" Line AT THE MOTOR SHOW

Where you see the interested crowd gathered round, is sure to be the "Reo Six" and "Jumbo Truck" Exhibit. Have a good look at the three beautiful lines.

The New "Reo" Six

After two years of preparation the "Reo" engineers have perfected the new six-cylinder motor, and fitted it into the 1920 Model Touring Car, which represents the highest degree of refinement in motor design. It must be seen to be appreciated. Lovers of beautiful lines and finish are asked to make a critical examination of this car.

The New Reo Six Roadster, Three Passenger, is Reo designed and Reo made to the last detail. It has been as thoroughly tried and proven as it is humanly possible to do.

The "Reo" Speed Wagon

THE PIONEER — STILL THE LEADER

The "Reo" truck runs with the rugged "Reo" motor can climb the steepest grades on high at full speed, on pneumatic tires. "Reo" management never experiments with its customers' money. The "Reo" truck was tested and tried until the company's engineers themselves were absolutely certain of its superiority over any other type.

The story of the "Reo" speed wagon success is an interesting one. Our salesmen in charge of the exhibit can tell it.

The Jumbo Two-Ton Truck

The truck for general utility. The finished Jumbo truck is AN ASSEMBLY OF PROVEN UNITS

Every unit in Jumbo construction was selected for its proven superiority in years of service on larger and higher priced trucks. The factor of price was entirely subordinated in the adoption of units of highest possible efficiency. The outstanding features of Jumbo units and their relative merits from a purchaser's viewpoint are multitudinous. To describe them all would be to describe every part that goes into its construction.

TUESDAY, APRIL 13TH, 1920.

THE WEEKLY HALF HOLIDAY.

The Lindsay Warder is out with the timely suggestion that the cities and towns of the Midland district and along the lake front should get together and decide upon a uniform half holiday date during the summer months. There is much to commend in the idea, especially from the view point of the commercial men who find the haphazard system of the past few years annoying and inconvenient. Last year Bowmanville, Oshawa, Port Hope and Cobourg selected Wednesday afternoon. Peterboro had Thursday and Friday was Campbellford's choice. Why not agree upon the same day for all the district towns and cities this year and avoid confusion?

LAST NIGHT'S DINNER.

A graceful and a pleasing tribute indeed was the complimentary dinner tendered to His Lordship Bishop O'Brien by the Peterborough Board of Trade last night on the eve of his departure for Rome, where he is to report to His Holiness the Pope on the affairs of his diocese. The representative gathering of citizens left no doubt as to their feelings of respect and esteem for His Lordship, and as to their realisation of the work that he has accomplished in Peterborough and in the diocese generally, not only for the church of which he is such a distinguished member, but for the general welfare of the citizens. His services during the war were not forgotten by the speakers, who referred to Bishop O'Brien's recruiting addresses and the keen interest that he had always displayed in the prosecution of the war and in the welfare of the men who fought and the families they left behind. Rev. F. E. Malott, of Trinity Methodist Church, who addressed the gathering, gave voice to the opinion of Peterborough citizens generally when he remarked, "His Lordship Bishop O'Brien has always appealed to me as a man. Somehow or other, to me the man has hidden the Bishop and I see only the man." No finer tribute could be paid any citizen than that. The people of Peterborough will echo the sentiments that were given utterance to by the speakers, and will unite in wishing His Lordship an enjoyable voyage, a pleasant visit to Rome, and a safe journey home.

THE REAL ISSUE.

The issue in the St Catharines trouble with the fire department is not the question of what salaries should be paid the firemen—the real issue hinges upon the right of the members of the brigade to leave their posts and place the city in a position where it has to depend upon volunteers for protection against fires. If the men are not getting an adequate wage they should be better paid and they should have an opportunity of stating their case. But a general strike of firemen is a calamity that no city should have to face. Firemen and policemen should no more think of deserting their duties than does the soldier who carries on no matter what his grievances. The safety of the public demands that there shall be some method of arbitration provided in the case of contracts between municipalities andt their police force and fire departments that will prevent the property of the citizens being jeopardized by strikes and resignations en masse, as the present situation in St. Catharines. Not only should there be a non-strike clause in the contract, but there should be an understanding that its violation would mean the permanent dismissal of the offending civic servants. But there must on the other hand be justice done to the members of the departments. It is in the interests of the community that they shall be well paid and contented, and that they shall have an opportunity of discussing any grievances that call for correction.

STILL A CHANCE

Although the city council at a meeting of the committee of the whole decided not to take any action in regard to daylight saving there is reason to believe that if popular opinion in favour of the new time is shown to be sufficiently strong the city fathers or enough of them at least to carry the measure might change their minds. There the [illegible] disappointment without [illegible] when the decision of the other night was announced and if those who have been regretting the action of the council would take the trouble of telling the aldermen of their acquaintance what their views are it is possible that the next meeting of the council might record a different vote on the question of daylight saving. The various athletic associations including the city soccer and baseball leagues are considering the advisability of waiting upon the council in a body to urge the local adoption of the new time for four months and there is no doubt that if the proposed deputation materializes its ranks will be swelled by hundreds of other citizens who are anxious to secure the benefits of daylight saving and are ready to put up with whatever inconvenience there may be in the fact that the railways this year will operate on Standard Time. There is a meeting of the council on Thursday night so that the promoters of the deputation should lose no time in organizing. It has been suggested that the players and officers of the different athletic club unite in a demonstration and other citizens with the same views will no doubt co-operate in making the deputation an impressive one.

RECKLESS MOTORISTS

A reckless chauffeur utterly indifferent to the safety of the public has robbed Toronto of one of her best known citizens in the person of Mr. C. A. B. Brown, president of the Toronto Exhibition and for many years a member of the Board of Education. Mr. Brown had just alighted from a street car when a fast moving automobile crashed into him causing injuries that resulted in his death. So rapidly did the car rush by that eye witnesses were unable to identify the number and although a handsome reward is offered for the detection of the driver it is not likely that he will be located.

It will be a matter of regret if the guilty party is not discovered and given the punishment that his murderous carelessness merits. The safety of the people demands that the speed laws and other motor regulations are strictly carried out. It is unfortunately the case that not only in Toronto but in Peterborough and every other centre there are far too many motorists, who are inclined to take chances, the kind of chances that lead to accidents. There are those who do not hesitate to pass a standing street car at a corner that is away from the eyes of the police and as for the speed limit, it is like election promises and pie crust for many drivers—made just to be broken. Only last night the Examiner counted at least a half dozen cars that whizzed down George street north in quick succession at a speed of at least thirty miles an hour. Only a couple of cars were equipped with chains and the rate at which they were travelling on the slippery pavement made them a very poor risk for accident insurance companies. Accidents such as that which brought death to the president of the Toronto Exhibition, are being averted daily in Peterboro, only because Providence has protected people from the possible effect of their own and others folly. Gambling with death seems to have a fascination for some car owners and in most cases they are not only risking their own lives but the lives of others. The man who tries to drive across a level railway crossing in front of a train, the motorist who attempts to race a fast moving street car to the next corner to devoid a moment's delay, the driver who ignores the speed limit and the traffic regulations, who tears around dangerous corners at high speed and often without sounding his horn, are all dangerous to themselves and to the public.

THE GRATUITY DECISION.

In case the local veterans are possessed with the idea that The Examiner was the only paper opposed to the cash bonus scheme, here are extracts from a couple of well-known journals in reference to the Government's announcement, and they are typical of many others that could be quoted, if space permitted.

Says the Hamilton Herald:

There will be much relief in all parts of Canada over the official assurance that the financial resources of the country are not to be further strained at present in the attempt to meet the demands of the soldiers' organisations. However, we believe that public opinion would support generous additional relief to ex-soldiers who are in need of aid and increased pensions to those who have been maimed or otherwise disabled in their country's service.

The Ottawa Journal has the following:

The Government's decision against cash gratuities for war veterans, announced to Parliament yesterday, is dictated by national finances. It is not a question of the returned men needing or deserving a bonus. It is simply and essentially a question of the country's financial capacity. The scheme advanced by the Great War Veterans would have meant an expenditure of at least $400,000,000; that of the United Veterans probably twice that amount. Anyone with even a superficial insight into the financial position must realise that both propositions are impossible.

Canada to-day is facing grave financial problems. To comprehend their gravity it is but necessary to realise that this year, with no war expenditure worth mentioning and with revenues at their very peak, there is already a visible gulf of $70,000,000 between income and expenditure; and this takes no account of capital expenditure, of addtional railway deficits—there is said to be an extra bill of $20,000,000 on the Grand Trunk alone—or of other large but necessary outlays to come with the supplementary estimates. The cold truth is that, counting capital as well as ordinary outlays, Canada this year will have to pay out something like $225,000,000 more than she will receive into the treasury, and all of it will have to be borrowed.

To launch upon any proposal involving addition of half a billion of dollars to such a deficit would be financial madness. For, assuming that the money could be borrowed, which is doubtful—it could not be raised outside Canada—it would mean an addition of $35,000,000 to our annual fixed charges, a further serious depreciation of our credit, and the probability of a procession of national deficits in years to come such as would endanger our entire economic fabric. No returned man, it need hardly be said, desires such a thing. The veterans are not a class which can be separated from the rest of the nation. Whatever visits injury upon Canada visits injury upon them, and while a cash bonus to-day might bring much-needed assistance to many a returned man, its benefits would be more than wiped out by the effect upon the country as a whole.

The Government's decision, however, does not mean that other steps are not to be taken to help the veterans. The re-establishment measures now in existence will undoubtedly have to be altered to meet changing conditions and circumstances; and the fact that the Government has reconstituted the Parliamentary Committee on Re-establishment shows that it is seized of this fact. One change, in the opinion of The Journal, ought to be effected witohut delay; the matter of total disability pensions. These pensions, in our judgment, constitute the weakest point in the Government's whole re-establishment policy, and ought to be substantially increased without delay.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

IRMA BARTON'S STORY

CHAPTER XCV.

When I told Everett that Irma Barton had spent an hour with me, he looked pleased.

Irma is a big-hearted, generous woman. I am glad you are getting beter acquainted with her. She has not really had a square deal in life. But"—

"She told me she was going to be married—to a friend of yours."

"Yes. Her first marriage was very unhappy, yet she did not let it make her sour or unhappy—when with others."

"I wish you would tell me about her."

"She married a man she adored—rather, she loved what she thought the man was. They were on the verge of divorce when the baby came. The love she had given the man, she transferred to the child. He traded on hrta love. He had her watched, her most innocent actions misconstrued, threatening always to take the child, if she opposed him. He took the little girl for a motor ride. Irma could not prevent. Both were brought home dead."

"Oh, how dreadful!"

"For years Irma never saw anyone of her old friends—three years I think it was. She locked herself away from everyone Then because someone told her she was doing wrong—I think it was the old clergyman whose church she sometimes attended in the little town in which she had hidden herself away—for the sake of her mother and others, she put her grief away and once more opened her home and took up her old life—what was left of it. Her mother died some years ago. Since then we have all tried to make up to Irma as far as we could, for what she suffered."

"Oh, the poor thing!"

"Now Sandra," Everet tsaid gently, "I have told you this story of Irma's for two reasons. One is that I want you to like her, and help her—I mean it, help her. You are young. You never have ben seared by unmerited suffering. You can help her to see the brighter things of life thru your young eyes." Then: "Do you think I would lie to you, Sandra?"

I shook my head.

"You perhaps have heard—if not, about Irma Barton and me. I knew you may hear—all sorts of rumors her brute of a husband, her beautiful child. know how she has suffered. I have tried to help her with no thought in my heart but to lighten her sorrow. I want you to know, however, beyond a doubt that there never has been anything in my association with Irma Barton which could make me ashamed to talk of to my wife."

And I believed him! But there was a long minute when I couldn't say anything. I had felt the undercurrent of criticism of their intimacy ever since I had married Everett. I had not realized the full measure of my jealousy until I felt it lifted from me by what he had said.

"Thank you for telling me, Everett. I have heard things, have been unhappy because of them. I am sure you have told me the truth. I will try not to be unhappy over anything I may hear again."

Everett leaned back in his chair then, and said:

"I would have told you long ago, had I thought it would have added to your happiness. But as in so many other things, and perhaps wrongly, I have waited until I felt you would understand, would consider some other view-point than your own."

"Tell me about this man she is going to marry."

"He is a man who tried to help her when things looked blacken for her, and so was drawn into a sort of scandal on her account. It died out after Barton and the baby were killed He has wanted her to marry him, she has refused for fear the world would put its own construction upon her action—say they were right, and that she had been intimate with him. When her mother died Irma was left absolutely alone. He has begged her to marry him ever since—I, too, have pleaded his cause. She has consented to do as he wishes in the Spring. I only hope he may make up to her in part for what she has suffered."

"If he loved her all this time, he has suffered too,' I mused aloud.

"He has loved her, but so unselfishly that if she were happier alone, he was content to efface himself. There is such love—occasionally, Sandra."

"What a wonderful story! Thank you for telling me."

To-morrow—Sandra is Worried.

Tell Your Cobbler You Want Cat's Paw Heels and Rinex Soles

You should insist on this combination, because it means greater economy and they are Dominion Rubber System Products.

You want Cat's Paw Heels because they are real live rubber cushions and have the non-slip, fabric plug. You want Rinex Soles because they will not crack, even when worn thin; because they are tough, resilient, and maintain their shape until worn out.

The first pair of shoes that you have soled with Cat's Paw and Rinex will give you the full realization of the real benefits of this wonderful combination for walking, for they eliminate the cause of tired feet and limbs; they enable you to walk further with greater ease and comfort than you have ever experienced with leather heels and soles, and they are far more economical, because they out-wear leather two-to-one.

You can purchase new shoes with this combination at all good shoe stores, and do away with the agony of breaking them in, for they are comfortable and easy from the first wearing until worn out.

WINTER PRICE FOR MILK IN KENT THIS SUMMER

CHATHAM, April 13.—At a special meeting of Kent Milk Producers' Association held in U.F.O. Hall at Kent Centre, it was decided not to reduce the price of milk during the coming Summer months. The price received by the producers during the Winter months has been 9 cents a quart. They claim they have been losing money at this price, and will therefore try to make up this Summer what they have been losing during the Winter. The high price of feed is given as one of the causes for the action. Milk is now selling in Chatham for 16 cents a quart. It will likely remain at that price during the Summer months.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate To Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh And to Increase Strength Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitrophosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by McDermid & Jury in Peterboro and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes brighten and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION: While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc, those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

PEDIGREED PONIES FOR ROYAL RANCH

Prince Will Also Have Thoroughbred Races, Cattle and Sheep.

MONTREAL, April 12.—W. L. Carlyle, who has been buying stock for the Prince of Wales' ranch in Alberta spent a day in Montreal and sailed for England by the Empress of France. Mr. Carlyle's special mission is to bring back some of the Prince's thoroughbred racing horses, which will at once be put in training at Calgary. It is probable that he will return with them between May 20 and June 1. He must return without the thoroughbred cattle and sheep, which were purchased last November, as the south of England, owing to an outbreak of foot and mouth diseast early in the Winter, is entirely under quarantine, as far as the exportation of live stock to Canada is concerned.

Mr. Carlyle will bring back with him some of the Prince's prize English ponies from Dartmoor. These animals stand from twelve to thirteen hands high and have a remarkable pedigree going back to the horses of old Spain.

AMERICA'S OLDEST WOMAN DIES AT AGE OF 113 YEARS.

BAY CITY, Mich., April 10.—Mrs. Antonina Tuckulska, 113 years old, said to be the oldest woman in the United States, is dead at the home of her daughter, after an illness of two weeks. She was a native of Poland. Mrs. Tuchulska was the mother of five children. In addition she is survived by 26 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

NO MORE LOANS AT FIVE PER CENT.

To Municipalities for the Erection of Dwelling Houses.

TORONTO, April 13.—If the Legislature Hon. H. C. Nixon, speaking on the second reading of the amendment to the Ontario Housing Act, said it was not the intention of the Government to loan any more money at five per cent. to municipalities for the purpose of erecting dwelling houses. On the two million dollars which the Government had already loaned to the municipalities the province had lost one per cent, or $20,000. The Ontario Government would, however, guarantee debentures.

Major Tolmie, Windsor, feared the bill would enable a City Council to raise money for the erection of dwellings without consulting the ratepayers. It was estimated that in the city of Windsor alone fifteen million dollars would be necessary to provide for the demands of the coming year under the Housing Commission.

The Provincial Treasurer said he need not worry that any municipality would be allowed to run wild issuing debentures. Municipalities would only be allowed to issue debentures with the approval of the Director of the Provincial Housing Department. The Government had every confidence in Mr. Ellis as a most efficient director.

VICTORIA FARMERS AND INCOME TAX

Woodville Advocate:—The farmers of Victoria County are putting up a vigorous kick against the absurd and altogether misunderstandable character of the forms of inquiry for the application of the "Income Tax". This is the first formal protest we have observed. Not that such protests are unnecessary, for all of the brain-racking propositions that of filling out correctly these blanks is the limit Evidently the questionaire as compiled by some arm-chair lawyer with a burning desire to exhibit his knowledge of the subject but with little regard for the object in view. Indeed the forms we have seen, are supposed to be adapted to all forms of commercial and industrial occupations but really are adapted to none. We can sympathize with Victoria's farmers, having endeavoured for the past four months to satisfy the gentleman who presides over this department in Ontario by our returns for 1918, but so far having failed to do so.

ENGINEER HOMELESS.

Town Engineer Worden of Oshawa, is homeless at present, the rent of the house in which he has been living on Wellington street, and rented from Dr. Soules of Toronto, having been raised to $50 a month. Engineer Worden, who states that he was previously paying $30 a month, considers the new figure to be exhorbitant, or at least quite beyond his reach, and he says he cannot remain on at that figure. Just where he is going to secure a house to live in is puzzling him at present. He has rented a room in the house for the month of April for $20 for the purpose of storing his furniture.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens so Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural colour and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural colour and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.

"It's one like Bob Harding's.

"He isn't a bit stronger than I am, Dad. But he can always trim me, no matter how hard I strain. My cheap old bike doesn't run as easy as his C.C.M.

"This is the third season for his C.C.M., too, and it runs just like new."

"Is that so, Jimmy?"

"Yes, there's good stuff in the C.C.M., Dad."

"It's a beauty to look at, Jimmy."

"Sure. And the swell nickelling and bright enamelling won't wear off."

"When Bob's C.C.M. gets dusty he wipes her off and she looks just like new."

"Oh, well, Jimmy, I see your heart's set on a C.C.M. If you'll promise to study hard and pass into the next room, I'll give you a C.C.M. Bicycle."

C.C.M. Bicycles are the pride of the boys. They have earned their good reputation by standing up under the extra strain and wear that sturdy, active lads are bound to give a bicycle.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

IRMA BARTON'S STORY

CHAPTER XCV.

When I told Everett that Irma Barton had spent an hour with me, he looked pleased.

Irma is a big-hearted, generous woman. I am glad you are getting beter acquainted with her. She has not really had a square deal in life.

"I wish you would tell me about her."

"She maried a man she adored—rather, she loved what she thought the man was. They were on the verge of divorce when the baby came. The love she had given the man, she transferred to the child. He traded on htta love. He had her watched, her most innocent actions misconstrued, threatening always to take the child, if she opposed him. He took the little girl for a motor ride. Irma could not prevent. Both were brought home dead."

"Oh, how dreadful!"

"For years Irma never saw anyone of her old friends—three years I think it was. She locked herself away from everyone Then because someone told her she was doing wrong—I think it was the old clergyman whose church she sometimes attended in the little town in which she had hidden herself away—for the sake of her mother and others, she put her grief away and once more opened her home and took up her old life—what was left of it. Her mother died some years ago. Since then we have all tried to make up to Irma as far as we could, for what she suffered."

"Oh, the poor thing!"

"Now Sandra," Everet tsaid gently, "I have told you this story of Irma's for two reasons. One is that I want you to like her, and help her—I mean it, help her. You are young. You never have ben seared by unmerited suffering. You can help her to see the brighter things of life thru your young eyes." Then: "Do you think I would lie to you, Sandra?"

I shook my head.

"You perhaps have heard—if not, about Irma Barton and me. I knew you may hear—all sorts of rumors her brute of a husband, her beautiful child. know how she has suffered. I have tried to help her with no thought in my heart but to lighten her sorrow. I want you to know, however, beyond a doubt that there never has been anything in my association with Irma Barton which could make me ashamed to talk of to my wife."

And I believed him! But there was a long minute when I couldn't say anything. I had felt the undercurrent of criticism of their intimacy ever since I had married Everett. I had not realized the full measure of my jealousy until I felt it lifted from me by what he had said.

"Thank you for telling me, Everett. I have heard things, have been unhappy because of them. I am sure you have told me the truth. I will try not to be unhappy over anything I may hear again."

Everett leaned back in his chair then, and said:

"I would have told you long ago, had I thought it would have added to your happiness. But as in so many other things, and perhaps wrongly, I have waited until I felt you would understand, would consider some other view-point than your own."

"Tell me about this man she is going to marry."

"He is a man who tried to help her when things looked blackest for her, and so was drawn into a sort of scandal on her account. It died out after Barton and the baby were killed He has wanted her to marry him, she has refused for fear the world would put its own constuction upon her action—say they were right, and that she had been intimate with him. When her mother died Irma was left absolutely alone. He has begged her to marry him ever since—I, too, have pleaded his cause. She has consented to do as he wishes in the Spring. I only hope he may make up to her in part for what she has suffered."

"If he loved her all this time, he has suffered too,' I mused aloud.

"He has loved her, but so unselfishly that if she were happier alone, he was content to efface himself. There is such love—occasionally, Sandra."

"What a wonderful story! Thank you for telling me."

To-morrow—Sandra is Worried.

Tell Your Cobbler You Want Cat's Paw Heels and Rinex Soles

You should insist on this combination, because it means greater economy and they are Dominion Rubber System Products.

You want Cat's Paw Heels because they are real live rubber cushions and have the non-slip, fabric plug. You want Rinex Soles because they will not crack, even when worn thin; because they are tough, resilient, and maintain their shape until worn out.

The first pair of shoes that you have soled with Cat's Paw and Rinex will give you the full realization of the real benefits of this wonderful combination for walking, for they eliminate the cause of tired feet and limbs; they enable you to walk further with greater ease and comfort than you have ever experienced with leather heels and soles, and they are far more economical, because they out-wear leather two-to-one.

You can purchase new shoes with this combination at all good shoe stores, and do away with the agony of breaking them in, for they are comfortable and easy from the first wearing until worn out.

Tell your cobbler to heel and sole all your old shoes with Cat's Paw and Rinex.

WINTER PRICE FOR MILK IN KENT THIS SUMMER

CHATHAM, April 13.—At a special meeting of Kent Milk Producers' Association held in U.F.O. Hall at Kent Centre, it was decided not to reduce the price of milk during the coming Summer months. The price received by the producers during the Winter months has been 9 cents a quart. They claim they have been losing money at this price, and will therefore try to make up this Summer what they have been losing during the Winter. The high price of feed is given as one of the causes for the action. Milk is now selling in Chatham for 16 cents a quart. It will likely remain at that price during the Summer months.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate To Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh And to Increase Strength Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitrophosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by McDermid & Jury in Peterboro and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes brighten and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION: While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc, those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

PEDIGREED PONIES FOR ROYAL RANCH

Prince Will Also Have Thoroughbred Races, Cattle and Sheep.

MONTREAL, April 12.—W. L. Carlyle, who has been buying stock for the Prince of Wales' ranch in Alberta spent a day in Montreal and sailed for England by the Empress of France. Mr. Carlyle's special mission is to bring back some of the Prince's thoroughbred racing horses, which will at once be put in training at Calgray. It is probable that he will return with them between May 20 and June 1. He must return without the thoroughbred cattle and sheep, which were purchased last November, as the south of England, owing to an outbreak of foot and mouth disease early in the Winter, is entirely under quarantine, as far as the exportation of live stock to Canada is concerned.

Mr. Carlyle will bring back with him some of the Prince's prize English ponies from Dartmoor. These animals stand from twelve to thirteen hands high and have a remarkable pedigree going back to the horses of old Spain.

AMERICA'S OLDEST WOMAN DIES AT AGE OF 113 YEARS.

BAY CITY, Mich., April 10.—Mrs. Antonina Tuckulska, 113 years old, said to be the oldest woman in the United States, is dead at the home of her daughter, after an illness of two weeks. She was a native of Poland. Mrs. Tuckulska was the mother of five children. In addition she is survived by 26 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.

NO MORE LOANS AT FIVE PER CENT.

To Municipalities for the Erection of Dwelling Houses.

TORONTO, April 13.—If the Legislature Hon. H. C. Nixon, speaking on the second reading of the amendment to the Ontario Housing Act, said it was not the intention of the Government to loan any more money at five per cent. to municipalities for the purpose of erecting dwelling houses. On the two million dollars which the Government had already loaned to the municipalities the province had lost one per cent, or $20,000. The Ontario Government would, however, guarantee debentures.

Major Tolmie, Windsor, feared the bill would enable a City Council to raise money for the erection of dwellings without consulting the ratepayers. It was estimated that in the city of Windsor alone fifteen million dollars would be necessary to provide for the demands of the coming year under the Housing Commission.

The Provincial Treasurer said he need not worry that any municipality would be allowed to run wild issuing debentures. Municipalities would only be allowed to issue debentures with the approval of the Director of the Provincial Housing Department. The Government had every confidence in Mr. Ellis as a most efficient director.

VICTORIA FARMERS AND INCOME TAX

Woodville Advocate:—The farmers of Victoria County are putting up a vigorous kick against the absurd and altogether misunderstandable character of the forms of inquiry for the application of the "Income Tax". This is the first formal protest we have observed. Not that such protests are unnecessary, for all of the brain-racking propositions that of filling out correctly these blanks is the limit Evidently the questionaire as compiled by some arm-chair lawyer with a burning desire to exhibit his knowledge of the subject but with little regard for the object in view. Indeed the forms we have seen, are supposed to be adapted to all forms of commercial and industrial occupations but really are adapted to none. We can sympathize with Victoria's farmers, having endeavoured for the past four months to satisfy the gentleman who presides over this department in Ontario by our returns for 1918, but so far having failed to do so.

ENGINEER HOMELESS.

Town Engineer Worden of Oshawa, is homeless at present, the rent of the house in which he has been living on Wellington street, and rented from Dr. Soules of Toronto, having been raised to $50 a month. Engineer Worden, who states that he was previously paying $30 a month, considers the new figure to be exhorbitant, or at least quite beyond his reach, and he says he cannot remain on at that figure. Just where he is going to secure a house to live in is puzzling him at present. He has rented a room in the house for the month of April for $20 for the purpose of storing his furniture.

RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED

A SHELF OF OLD BOOKS

By MARY SUTHERLAND RANTON.

The appended composition is the work of Mary Sutheralnd Ranton, the fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Ranton of Boston, and granddaughter of Mr. James Sutherlan, 352 1-2 Water street. The author o fthe composition is a student in the Somerville High school and a student in the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston. She has completed ten years in piano training. For the followir g composition little Miss Ranton received the maximum number of marks.

A Shelf of Old Books.

As May Norman rode home from her work her usually smiling face bore marks of displeasure. Everything had gone wrong at the office and her employer had not been in a very agreeable mood. Her only pleasant moment that day was when she received an invitation to play a piano solo at a party given by Mrs. Cornelius Astor.

May, a poor working girl, lived with her mother in Ashton. Although her salary was not very large, it would have been sufficient for her mother and herself had her father not died suddenly, leaving no money and a mortgaged home.

When May left the car, she hurried down the street to her home. Her mother opened the door and May hugged her saying: "Mrs. Astor has invited me to play a piano solo at a party that she is giving at the Plaza Hotel a week from Thursday. Oh, mama, please let me go."

'But what dress can you wear, my dear? Even your best blue frock is too shabby to wear at such an affair. You should have an evening gown. I'm awfully sorry, May, but I shall need every cent to pay the interest the first of June. Mr. Smith was here to-day and said that if we didn't agree to pay more money on the mortgage, he'd have to forclose. But if there's any way that I can get you a dress, I will."

"Mama, I'd love to play for Mrs. Astor and it might be a great opportunity for me. But, I must not be selfish."

"May, when your Aunt Judith died, she left me some old furniture which I stored in the attic. She also left me two trunks full of old gowns. You may go and see if there is anything there that could be used to make you a dress."

To May the attic did not seem a very attractive place, for everything wa scovered with dust. Several huge bags were suspei from the beams and the attic was fullof cheap bric-a-brac. May opened one piece of furniture which appeared to be a music cabinet. All of the shelves were empty except one which was filled with old books. These were books writen by Dickens, Irving, Scott and many other well known authors. She opened a very old and much worn book. It appeared to be an English grammar and on the fly leaf was written:

"This book was presented to Thomas Lee Norman, September 9th, 1915, by his father, William L. Norman. It was first owned by Walter McKay and used by him when he was teaching school in Scotland in 1808, and in Nova Scotia in 1811. Walter McKay was my grandfather." William L. Norman.

In the book was newspaper clippings concerning relatives of the Norman family. May turned the book upside down to see if there was anything else in it. A white envelope fluttered to the floor. She picked it up and opened it excitedly. There were ten one hundred dollar bills in it. Why mother ad she could pay off the mortgage and have a tiny sum in the bank besides. May ran and told her mother the good news and they were both very happy.

On Thursday evening, May appeared at the party in a very beautiful gown. Mrs. Astor had never seen her look more beautiful and whispered, "May, why are you so happy tonight?" "Because of a shelf of old books," was the reply.

Paris was amazed

Paris, the sophisticated, was actually astounded when it beheld the wonderful series of life-size biblical studies sculptored entirely of mud and exhibited by the famous sculptor, Mastreianni. Thousands were held spellbound and inspired by the marvellous fidelity of these studies from the "Life of Christ" cast wholly in mud. For the first time in Canada pictures of these remarkable and lifelike scenes will be shown in the April issue of EVERYWOMAN'S WORLD. Scenes from the "Life of Christ" show actual photographs of these wonderfully beautiful statues and is an exclusive pictorial feature you will not want to miss.

ONE-LEGGED ROBIN MAKES ITS THIRD ANNUAL VISIT TO WINGHAM CITIZEN

WINGHAM, April 10.—With the arrival of spring, the countryside fairly vibrates with stories of strange and interesting natural history events, incidents generally connected with the arrival of feathered friends from their winter homes in southern lands, or with the awakening from their hibernation of native animals and their spring activities.

But a resident of this town has a unique story to tell about a feathered visitor with the evidence of the visitor's location in a tree on his lawn. Proudly he will take the doubting Thomas to his home and quietly seated behind a curtained window, allow him to feast his eyes on his prized marvel and welcome visitor—a one-legged robin.

Had Only One Leg.

Three years ago the citizen first noticed his little bird friend on the lawn of his house. The peculiar gait of the bird in hopping first drew his attention, and close watching revealed the fact that it had only one leg. Throughout that summer everything possible was done to make the bird feel at home, and its return last summer was welcomed as proof positive that it had adopted the citizen and his family as his summer hosts and the tree on the lawn as his summer residence.

Makes Third Visit.

Throughout the winter the possibility of the one-legged visitor's return for a third visit was the theme of many a discussion over the meal tables of his friends, with the result that his appearance in his old haunts and his cheery song from the tree in which rests his nest, brought real pleasure to his human friends and hosts, and a regular bird banquet was held in his honour.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was found when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

HOME GARDENERS GENERALLY DEVOTE TOO MUCH SPACE TO LETTUCE AND RADDISH PLOTS

THERE IS NO NECESSITY TO TRY A CONSIDERABLE QUANTITY OF EQUIPMENT TO OPERATE THE GARDEN—INTERESTING COMPETITIONS TIONS AROUSE MUCH BACK-TO-SOIL ENTHUSIASM.

Food prices have reached so high a plane that everyone who has a bit of land should see the advantage of growing as much as possible of his vegetable requirements. In order that the foods grown may leave some profit to the grower the crops put in should be carefully chosen and the tools used should be of the simplest character consistent with the necessary work.

The Crops.

What crops to plant in the home garden will depend upon the size of the garden, the size of the family, and the size of the family appetite. Where the garden space is extremely limited only those crops that will produce a considerable quantity of food on a small area should be included.

As a rule, home gardeners, especially the beginners, devote too much space to lettuce and radishes and too little to beets, carrots, beans, onions and tomatoes. Where the family is small it is easy to overplant most of the garden crops. The surplus of certain vegetables can be saved by canning and drying, others like lettuce and radishes are a loss unless some kind neigbor will use them.

Children eat almost as many fresh vegetables as grown ups and should be counted as "full hands" in estimating the amount of space to devote to any vegetable. The size of the family appetite is liable to expand considerably when the vegetables are brought fresh from the garden, and it is always safe to have plenty of the more stable vegetables. Corn and potatoes occupy too much space for planting in the very small garden. Tomatoes should find a place in every garden, as should spinach, chard and other kinds of greens.

The Tools.

Some gardeners have an idea that they must have a large assortment of hoes and rakes, wheel hose, seed drills, spraying outfits, and special equipment before they can begin to garden. But the tools actually required in the cultivation of a thrift garden are few and simple. A spade or spading fork, a steel rake and a hoe, together with a piece of string and two small wooden stakes, are the chief essentials. There are a number of other tools, such as a trowel, sprinkling can, steel hoe, seed drill and wheelbarrow, that may often be used to advantage, but they are not absolutely necessary.

It is important, however, that the few essential tools be properly cared for and used frequently. Every time they are used they should be cleaned and stored in a dry place. Also, they should be kept sharp so that the work may be done easily and thoroughly. A good job of hoeing cannot be done with dull or rusty hoe.

STRIP KING'S YACHT OF LEAD BALLAST TO MAKE BULLETS

LONDON, April 13.—While a sailing yacht is not generally looked upon as a particularly formidable craft of war in these days, still the following extract from a recent issue of The London Field shows that the British cutter Britannia, belonging to King George, did her bit in one direction toward winning the war: "Decks are being caulked on the Britannia and lead is being cast for the inside ballast to take the place of that which was removed for munition purposes during the war."

Not only the King's yacht, but practically every other large British yacht furnished a considerable quantity of lead for munitions purposes during the war. The Field states that the Britannia is expected to be in commission early in May, and an active yachting season is anticipated in British waters.

A New Harmless Way to Banish Hairy Growths

(Beauty Topics)

By following this suggestion any woman can, in the privacy of her own home, remove every trace of hair or fuzz from her face. With powdered delatone and water mix enough paste to cover the not wanted hairs; apply and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off and wash the skin. This method is unfailing, harmless and quick in results but care should be employed to get the genuine delatone.

SEEDING LATE IN WESTERN PROVINCE

DIFFICULTY IN SECURING LABOUR—WEATHER BAD.

(Special to the Examiner)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 13.—Seeding will be comparatively late this year in Manitoba, Prof. T. J. Harrison, of Field Husbandry Department of the Manitoba Agricultural College announced to-day. With the weather now warmer than that of to-day, he said, seeding would not be general until April 26, considerably later than the average, he said.

However, even a start by April 26 depended on no severe rains or possible snowstorms occurring in the meantime. At the Agricultural College farm seeding would not begin before April 26 at the earliest, Prof. Harrisor said.

Possible slight decrease in wheat acreage might result if seeding is held up until April 26th. Besides comparatively late season there is difficulty in securing labor, he added, competent farm labor wage around $80 month and some farmers feel they are not in position to pay this much for help, consequently they might decrease their acreage.

IMPORT BELGIANS FOR BEET FARMS

PARTY OF THREE HUNDRED BEING BROUGHT TO ONTARIO.

Three hundred Belgian farm workers are to be brought to Ontario to work in the sugar beet district of south-western Ontario. The securing of the Belgian immigrants is being looked after by Major Mowbray, who was Liberal candidate in East Kent in the last Provincial election. Major Mowbray is acting for the Dominion Sugar Company, which in order to encourage a larger number of farmers to grow sugar beets, is setting out to find farm help for them. The problem of transportation threatened to upset the plan, but Hon. Manning Doherty, by taking the matter up with the C.P.R. has got around that difficulty.

The impossiblity of getting passage for immigrants for some time to come will probably prevent the Ontario Department of Agriculture from launching a new immigration policy upon any extended scale. Hon. Mr. Doherty stated last night that it would be June or July before it would be possible to get passage for immigrants. It is likely, therefore that this summer and fall will largely be devoted to preparations for a big movement of farm help next spring, although as many as possible will be brought over in the meantime. Dr. G. C. Creelman under whom, as Ontario Agent General in England, the immigration propaganda will be carried on, will go to London on July first. Until then Brig.-General Sims will continue in charge.

BLACK EYE FOR O.B.U. MOVEMENT AT PEMBROKE

J. J. Thomas Declares It Is Identical in Aims and Methods with I.W.W.

(Canadian Press.)

PEMBROKE, April 13.—Somewhat of a black eye was handed the One Big Union movement around Pembroke at a meeting called by officials of that organization. Mr. Joe Knight, organizer for the O.B.U. was absent, but his place was taken by Organizer McKenzie of Toronto.

At the close of the meeting Organizer J. J. Thomas of the United Textile Workers of America, took the platform to uphold the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Thomas gave an anlysis of the character of the O. B.U., which he classed as identical in aims and methods with the I.W.W. with the exception that the One Big Union name was substituted for the I.W.W.

Organizer McKenzie in his address enlarged on the national spirit, and was questioned by Organizer Pat Green, of Ottawa District Council of Carpenters, who asked if it was not true that the O.B.U. General Executive had made place on its strength for an American O.B.U. representative.

The meeting grew warm about this juncture, and it was adjourned shortly, and at the close a large number of those present who carried O.B.U. cards of membership handed them back, signifying they were through with the organization entirely.

The International will hold a mass meeting in Pembroke Wednesday night. Organizer J. J. Thomas will inaugurate at this meeting to classify all workers. At this meeting the charter of the Textile Workers will be secured.

OXEN ALL SHOT BY CITY PEOPLE, ONLY STONEBOATS LEFT

SHAFTS OF RIDICULE AIMED BY MAYOR AND ALD. GORDON MISS THEIR MARK.

"We drove in on stoneboats this morning," said Reeve Shaw, of Harvey township this morning when the County Good Roads committee was assembling for a special business session.

If Mayor McIntyre and Ald. Gordon fancied that their ridicule would annoy the Peterborough reeves they would have been disappointed at the exchange of pleasantries the City Fathers' strictures aroused.

"All our oxen and bulls have been shot by some of the city people," said another member.

The contrasting conditions of county and city roads was illustrated by a story that a man who had motored twenty miles this morning had no trouble or mishap until he passed the city's border. Reeve Holland of Ennismore found him stalled in the north end and had to render first aid.

Speaking seriously of the censures of the city's Railway committee Reeve Shaw stated that his information was obtained from a government engineer who estimated the cost of building an electric railway from Peterborough to Kinmount at $50,000 a mile.

"It is thirty miles from Buckhorn to Kinmount," said Mr. Shaw, "and at that rate this part of the proposed line would cost $1,500,000. On the other hand, the equalized assessment of the Townships of Galway, Harvey and Cavendish is $310,000. I was informed that the best the government or the Hydro would do was to guarantee the bonds for the money required for that line, but if it did not prove profitable at the end of three years the railway would be unloaded on to the municipalities. It is a simple sum in arithmetic to decide where our townships would get off at if, with a total assessed value of $310,000, they undertook a radial line that would cost a million and a half. Mr. Gordon and I have always been good friends, but I couldn't let Harvey get into a mess like that."

G.W.V.A. TO INVITE 57TH TO CHURCH SERVICE

The Great War Veterans' annual church parade will be held on Sunday next to the Park Street Baptist Church. The members will assemble at their Club on Murray Street at 10 p.m. It was decided at the executive meeting of the G.W.V.A. last night to invite the Machine Gun Company and the 57th Regiment to participate in this year's parade, with the object that by this amalgamation the annual attendance at church may be perpetuated and the memory of the soldiers of the Great War be honoured when the present Veterans have joined those comrades who fell in battle or died of their wounds.

PETERBORO BOY SCOUT PASSES

Passes Difficult Examination With First Class Honours.

The results of the splendid benefit of the training being given the Boy Scouts along the lines of public service in cases of emergency was reflected last evening when Scout H. Bert Bugg the Troop Leader of Vimy Troop of Boy Scouts undertook the examination for the First Aid and Accident requirements under the badge of a First Class Scout, and also the examination for the Ambulance Proficiency Badge, passing both these examinations with first class honours before Mrs. C. E. Jamieson, the examiner appointed by the Local Boy Scout Association, and a member of the St. John's Ambulance Society. The examination undergone shows the thoroughness of the knowledge required, when 81 questions and tests were required. All of these were answered correctly except two, and these two were answered partially correct. The requirements under this badge are that a Scout shall know how to deal with all cases of fractures, bleeding insensibility, electric shock, drowning, poisons, accidents of all sorts; how to fling a life line, fire rescues, Laws of Health and Sanitation, Artificial respiration, etc.

The examiner commented upon the thoroughness of Troop Leader Bugga knowledge which speaks well for the instruction he has received from his Scoutmaster, Mr. W. Deane Tyrer.

the man's case, if he is actually suffering from loss of memory, is that a short time ago a young girl disappeared under very mysterious circumstances in London, England. Her name was Lillian Hall and her father's name was "Frank Hall." The affair gained much notoriety and the soldier's claim to the name of "Frank Hall" may have been due to an association of ideas while suffering from a mental disturbance, it is thought.

The hospital authorities are very anxious to have all possible room for doubt cleared away as soon as possible in order to allay the anxiety of hundreds of people throughout the whole country. Those believing that the unidentified man might be a long mourned relative have written from all over asking for information. Two hundred such letters were received on Saturday, while more came yesterday. In no case, however, could any hope be held out.

CLAIMS CARPENTIER IS HYPNOTIST DESCHAMP'S POWER BEHIND GEORGES

HAS INFLUENCED LIFE OF FRENCH CHAMPION FROM CHILDHOOD—RIPLEY DELVES INTO PAST OF CHAMPION AND UNCOVERS INTERESTING DATA.

By ROBERT L. RIPLEY.

Is Carpentier a hypnotist?

Since his arrival in this country it has been rumored that he is. In England there are many who believe the debonnair Frenchman to be possessed of some mysterious influence since his dramatic and swift defeat of Joe Beckett. They believe Georges hypnotized their champion. Beckett appeared to be in a trance when Carpentier drove in the knockout wallop. There is no question but that Beckett was in a trance for some minutes after the blow landed.

Of course Carpentier and his manager, Francois Deschamps, laugh at the suggestion and delve back into the lean and hungry days of their partnership for the explanation.

Here it is—it is interesting:

About sixteen years ago in the city of Lens a little white-faced, tow-headed boy happened to creep—uninvited—into the gymnasium of the "professor of Lens." The "professor" was an unusual, mysterious man with heavy eyebrows, piercing eyes, and long black hair. He was a physical culturist, gymnast, and conjuror. He even taught la boxe Anglaise, then an unknown art in France. The little pale-faced lad was decidedly interested in the strange sport of fisticuffs and some days later found courage to ask the "professor" to alow him to try on the gloves.

Ah! That moment was the beginning of the career of Georges Carpentier! It was the beginning of the partnership of Carpentier and Deschamps—for the "professor of Lens" was none other than the Frenchman's present manager.

However, Deschamps had but a few pupils and francs were scarce in those days, so the resourceful Deschamps hit on a plan of fattening the bank roll while waiting for Carpentier to become a champion.

Every Sunday morning at an early hour the "professor" and his pupil would go to some neighboring town. They would separate while Deschamps searched out the best and most frequented cafes and quietly took stock of the habitues and gathered local information. This fund of knowledge would be secretly imparted to little Georges and then the show was ready to begin.

Playbills were ready posted in the cafe announcing the performance:

THE ACROBAT SUPERB—
JUGGLER MAGNIFICENT
LA BOXE ANGLAISE—
THE MAN OF MYSTERY
THE HYPNOTIC TRANCE
PROFESSOR DESCHAMPS and His Pupil GEORGES.

The show opened with feats of jugglery by the "professor." Georges would do a few acrobatic turns after the fashion of an organ-grinder's monkey. Then the "professor" and his pupil donned the gloves a la boxe Anglaise. The grand finale followed. "Professor" Deschamps would hypnotize little Carpentier! Anyway the audience thought so. Deschamps would wave his arms while muttering strange and unknown words and gaze intently into Georges' eyes, whereupon little Georges would pretend to swoon—succumb to the "magic spell" wrought by Deschamps—and fall in a trance, during which he would recite the information already imparted to him of things personal and intimate of the folks that made up the audience.

And last—but not least—before the open-mouthed onlookers recovered their composure and before the "magic spell" wore off, little Georges would pass the hat.

Thus did Deschamps and Carpentier start on the road to fame and fortune.

Hypnotists? No!
Smart fellows? Yes!

SCOTLAND LOSE DECIDING GAME

VICTORY BY ENGLAND GIVES ASSOCIATION TITLE TO WALES.

LONDON, April 12.—The association games on Saturday were dominated by a great international match between England and Scotland on Sheffield Wednesday's ground. This remarkable match resulted in a victory for the home eleven five to four. Had Scotland won she would have carried off the championship. The defeat leaves the honors with Wales. The ground was in bad condition, and the weather was extremely unpleasant, but the game was fast and furious, with such thrilling periods as are seldom experienced. The first three goals were scored in five minutes, but at the interval Scotland led by four to two. In the second half the home side played magnificently, and in a period of ten minutes drove the spectators wild with enthusiasm by scoring three goals.

Interest in the league is now much centred in the struggles between the tail-enders, the leaderships of the divisions being now practically settled. West Bromwich will be the champions of the first division, and Tottenham of the second. A keen struggle is going on between Huddersfield and Birmingham for promotion with Tottenham in the second league, with prospects slightly favoring Huddersfield, who are also cup finalists. Both teams won again on Saturday. The positions now are:—Huddersfield 37 matches played and 54 points; Birmingham, 38 played and 53 points.

Sheffield Wednesday are doomed to pass into the second division, and a fight is going on between Preston, Derby, Notts County and Blackburn to get clear of their companionship.

A very similar position exists in the second league, where Lincoln, Coventry and Grimsby are strenuously engaged in compelling one another to seek re-election. Coventry and Grimsby both improved their chances by winning Saturday, but Lincoln received a hard knock at Fulham. First place in the Southern League is still held by Portsmouth, but both Crystal Palace and Watford have chances.

BUYS MANITOBA FARM TO GROW HEMP OR FLAX

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, April 13.—J. Lohr, for many years proprietor of the Jomes J. Hill farm at Northcote, Minn., is reported to have purchased 7,200 acres of land at Gunjon, Man., where he will grow hemp, if conditions warrant the experiment. Otherwise flax will be the crop sown.

BELLEVILLE CHURCHES JOIN NEW ORGANIZATION

BELLEVILLE, April 13.—An important meeting was held in Bridge Street Church, when the pastors of the city and Belleville Sunday School Association gathered to meet Rev. A. T. Halpenny, superintendent of the Ontario Religious Educational Council. The first item discussed was the proposal to change the Belleville Sunday School Association into the Belleville Religious Educational Council. The important point in this is that the denominations become a part of the organization. After a lengthy discussion, this change was adopted.

MR. LEES GAVE AN ADDRESS TO FARMERS' CLUB

CONSOLIDATED SCHOOLS ENDORSED BY LOCAL MEMBER.

Last evening Inspector Richard Lees gave an interesting and instructive address to the Farmers' Club on Consolidated Schools at the regular meeting, held in the S. O. E. Hall, which was heard by a large and appreciative audience.

Mr. Lees illustrated what has been done in Indiana, where there are over 100 consolidated schools in the State, and by means of splendid views proved that they are up-to-date and in line with any city school at the present time, teaching domestic science, manual training, etc. He also pointed out how consolidated schools may be used as community centres, bringing the farmers together as no other factor could. At one place the speaker had been in, due to the influence of consolidated schools, a Farmers' Institute meeting had brought together 2,700 members. He showed how the whole farm life of Indiana had surged far ahead of Ontario farm life, due also to schools, they having given such opportunity for meeting and discussing matters of interest to the farmers.

Address by Mr. Moore.

Previous to Mr. Lees' address, Mr. Charles Moore, who as a delegate had attended a meeting in Toronto re live stock shipments at the Union Stock Yards, gave an interesting address.

Improvements Adopted.

Matters of importance to the farming community were discussed by the club, and a number of improvements suggested and adopted.

Mr. Thomas Tooms, M.P.P., who came down from Toronto to be present at the meeting, gave a graphic account of Parliamentary procedure, and endorsed the idea of consolidated schools, stating that they would undoubtedly help to bring rural education to a very high standard.

Bowden, chief engineer of the Department, has been selected by the government to act as Canadian consulting engineer in the reference to International Joint Commission of the question of further improvement of the St. Lawrence river between Montreal and Lake Ontario. Constipation or Costiveness

Constipation, although generally described as a disease, can never exist unless some of the organs are deranged, which is generally found to be the liver.

There is nothing more productive of general ill health than constipation of the bowels, and a regular action is absolutely essential to general health. One of the most common, painful and troublesome troubles caused by constipation is piles, and unless the bowels are kept open by the use of a good laxative such as Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills the whole system will be poisoned and many different complications of diseases arise, so if you would be well, keep your bowels regular.

Mr. A. Roder, Hastings St. E., Vancouver, B.C., writes:—"I desire to express my thanks for what Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have done for me. I had been suffering from constipation for two years, and also had a bad cough and headaches. I tried all sorts of cures and remedies, but got no relief until I was advised to try your pills. I got great relief after the first few doses."

Get Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills when you ask for them or send 25c. and they will be sent by return of mail by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"Yes, she might have been your daughter. Her name is Legion. You will find her in every hospital in Canada, in every home for incurables; and her ill-fated children whom even her direnest love could not save from the penalty of their father's unspoken heedless sin against the immovable laws of nature, they jabber in the wards for the feeble-minded, and are in that endless procession which, through all the centuries, have crowded the asylums for the insane."

Such is a grim but only too truthful paragraph from an editorial in the Toronto Globe, prompted by a viewing of the remarkable and realistic drama, "The End of the Road," which is on the screen at the Allen for an engagement closing Thursday. None under sixteen are admitted to the performances.

The following were among the comments of those who saw the picture at a private screening Saturday, on the invitation of Dr. A. W. McPherson, Medical Officer of Health, who is co-operating with the Canadian National Council for Combatting Venereal Disease in their campaign, the first gun of which is the showing of "The End of the Road." Says Dr. Harvey: "I cannot speak too highly of the picture. It is a great lesson, a great sermon; I wish everyone could see it." Alderman R. J. Copping says: "This film is one of great educational value for both old and young, and should be seen by all parents, and young people everywhere."

BROKEN IDOLS

There is something very pathetic about the grief of a little child over a broken toy. We have all at some time or other in our lives seen and experienced this. Perhaps it was only a dilapidated, old doll with a broken nose and minus one arm, and a piece chipped off its cheek, but dear (perhaps on this very account) to the heart of the little girl mother. Finally in some way it is smashed, and as the little girl picks up the broken pieces, she weeps scalding tears, realizing it can never be mended. Are we not all more or less grown-up children, but our grief is not now over broken toys, but over broken people, and as we realize how little we can trust even the best we know, we feel almost hopeless in our despair, for if the best we know fail us when we need them most, or forsake us for the least temptation, how can we trust the rest? So we reason, and such is the tragedy of life. It has been said that if we cannot trust we are not to be trusted, but this is not true, or least is only half true, for some of us are too trusting and have put faith in some, only to find our trust was misplaced, and some of us have made idols of some, and after a while our idol has fallen, and great has been the fall thereof, and Oh, how desolata and hopeless we have felt, but love, seemingly cruel, but really kind, has been at the back of all this. There was something better waiting for us, though we knew it not, and when we were tired of idol worship, sick to death of mere showy goodness and virtue, when we were ready to give up all second-rate things, then the best came to us, as it ever will, by and through the working of a never-failing law, the law of attraction: in other words, what we are, what we really desire come to us in time. It may be you have reached a high standard of moral and virtue. If so, it will not be an easy matter to find your own in this imperfect world, but I think I am right when I say you will find it even if, through much patience, you really have to create it. One writer has written some beautiful verses bearing on this subject, some of which are as follows:

Asleep, awake, by night, by day,
The friends I seek are seeking me;
No wind can drive my bark away,
Nor change the tide of destiny.

The stars come nightly to the sky;
Nor time, nor space, nor deep, nor high,
Can keep my own away from me.

MEETING OF THE LOCAL GOLF CLUB

MR. PERCY BOND ELECTED PRESIDENT OF CLUB

The most enthusiastic and largely attended meeting of players in the history of the Peterborough Golf and Country Club took place in the Bank of Montreal Chambers on Friday night last.

The ladies were well represented, and showed great interest in the various matters up for discussion. They elected very strong states to represent them on their committees, and the coming season should be a banner one in their departments of the club.

At present a large number of the members are not shareholders and it was the unanimous opinion of the meeting that all such members would be only too pleased to purchase stock and thus become more interested in the welfare and advancement of Peterborough's only summer club.

The action of the directors in raising the annual fee to $30.00 for men and $15.00 for ladies was heartily endorsed. It was very apparent that it was impossible to finance their club properly with the past rates.

Dr. McPherson, Claud Rogers and Mr. Jos. Wearing were named as a committee to meet the directors and to act on behalf of the new shareholders in regards to ways and means of distributing new stock.

The following officers have been elected to guide the club for this coming season:

President—Mr. J. Percy Bond.
Directors—Mr. W. H. Bradburn, Mr. G. A. Macdonald, Mr. W. G. Morrow.
Secretary-Treasurer—Mr. W. H. Walkey.
Greens Committee—Mr. G. A. Macdonald (chairman), Dr. Wightman, Dr. McPherson.

FIRST WOMAN TRUSTEE

Here Are Some of the Pioneers of the Fair Sex.

TORONTO, April 13.—The simple inquiry, "Who was the first woman school trustee in Ontario?" would appear to be synonymous with the time-honoured conundrum, "How old was Anne?"

An officer of the Public School section of the O. E. A., when questioned, replied: "Toronto had the first woman trustee in the Province when Dr. Caroline-Brown was elected."

When called over the 'phone, Dr. Caroline Brown admitted that she was probably the only woman trustee in the city or Province at the time of her election. "But," she reminded, "there had been women on the Board of Education many years before. There were Dr. Stowe Gullen, Mrs. McDonnell, now dead, and later Miss Clard Brett Martin. I was elected in 1915, and Mrs. Courtice followed me two years later. Miss Boulton and Mrs. Groves now complete the quartette."

Dr. Stowe Gullen cheerfully acceded that she had served as a trustee for four years, beginning in 1892. "The Collegiate Board had two women as members who were appointed in 1891," supplemented Dr. Gullen. "These women, Mrs. O'Connor and Miss Carty, were appointed, so I suppose Mrs. Mary McDonnell, Mrs. Harrison, and myself were the first women to be publicly elected. Mrs. McDonnell and Mrs. Harrison were put up by the temperance workers, and I by the suffragists. Later the National Council of Women urged women to run as trustees and Mrs. Boomer, of London, was elected. Now women trustees are very general throughout the Province."

Mrs. Williams, of London, and Mrs. W. R. Morris, of Peterborough, were among the few women trustees from out of the city to attend the meetings of trustees in connection with the O. E. A.

CITIZENS OF PETERBORO

Quoting a poet, he said, "Before man made us citizens, great nature made us men." On this common ground of manhood we can stand and greet one another as fellowmen." "To meet men and love them is the finest thing I know of. The bond of brotherhood is uniting us to-night. Sometimes the man within us is crushed out by excessive devotion to business or our profession that we lose the manhood in us and cannot meet men as a man."

"His Lordship Bishop O'Brien has always appealed to me as a man and some way or other to me the man has hidden the bishop an I see only the man."

Rev. Malott said he would not soon forget the greeting and many kindnesses shown him by the first men he met in Peterborough. Archdeacon Davidson and Bishop O'Brien. Since then he has been in touch with the Bishop weekly at the Normal School where both he and the Bishop have gone weekly to give religious instruction. "I have very pleasant memories of the weekly meetings and friendly memories of Bishop O'Brien," he said.

"I want to pay my tribute to the work of the man and the Bishop. A big man intellectually, a big hearted man, I can say this, "I like him." With you I wish him health, prosperity and a safe return.

Bishop's Reply.

I can assure you that I am most grateful to the Board of Trade for the splendid banquet given me and to each of you men for gathering here on the eve of my departure for the old country. I can only say that I am most grateful to you, said His Lordship Bishop O'Brien in reply.

Bishop O'Brien dwelt on his long residence in Peterborough. "I have only the dearest memories of the days spent as a youth and young man here. He told of the good will and co-operation shown by the citizens to him since his adulation. "Now, gentlemen, I am about to leave you for the time being. There is not a man or a child in the city for whom I have not the kindest feelings." This kindness, a well known trait of the Bishop, was seen during the war when the habit was formed of speaking to everyone, especially to the boys in khaki. He told how he spoke to and shook hands with a Canadian soldier in Syracuse out of respect for him and the soldiers.

Outlining his trip he said that he and Dr. Gallivan were setting sail from New York a week from that night. From Le Havre they would cross France to Italy where, at Rome, he would give his report to the Pope. These must be made every five years, the first in person, the others in person at least every 10 years. Historical scenes famous in history and shrines will be visited in Italy, when they will return to France. "There are shrines there now will have a dear interest to all. I refer to the Canadian graveyards in France. I will visit them because of gratitude to the men lying in France. It is a pleasure for no one to visit the battlefields, but it will be a pilgrimage of love and piety to visit the cemeteries."

England, and in all probability Scotland, will be on the Bishop's itinerary. "I do not know whether it will be possible to visit Ireland or not. I hope and wish and pray that for the sake of the Empire we may have peace and harmony existing in every part of the Empire."

The pleasure of visiting the monuments of activities of ancient Rome were dwelt on. Monuments are there that conjure up visions of Caesar and Nero, ancient Rome.

"The Colosseum is eloquent in its ruins." Erected to seat 87,000 Romans to witness the gladiator combats with its great dens for wild beasts, it was one of the most magnificent structures of the empire. The starved mad beasts were let loose on these early Christians, who suffered unspeakable martyrdom for their faith. Continuing His Lordship further described the ruins of the great empire.

'A person cannot fai ito ask himself why, despite all the grandeur and wealth the empire fell. All the ancient kingdoms are gone. They had their day, flourished and came to an end. Why is it?

"There is a reason. Their idea of citizenship was too much materialistic. The Roman citizen was loyal only as far as he could gain something for himself. With the de[illegible]ure of religion the state went down."

One Foundation.

"Citizenship must ever have as its foundation religion. Manhood must ever have religion as its foundation. A man who does not believe in God or in the supernatural can have no regard for the laws of citizenship. As soon as the laws of God Almighty cease to be actuated by religious motives, the state goes to pieces."

In a comparison with one thousand Toronto business men at an Empire Club dinner given in Toronto last October on the visit of Cardinal Mercer, Bishop O'Brien said that the men assembled last night were as intelligent, good looking men as the [illegible]. (Hear, hear.)

"You have in your hands the making of Peterborough to-day and in future years, keep in mind that everyone owes a great debt of gratitude to the Creator. Rome forgot that eternal truth and all nations have forgot it at times. The Romans had not the right sense of relationship between man and man."

Bishop O'Brien said there was some underlying cause for all the strikes, lock-outs and labor troubles. He said they were all traceable to an absence of one man's proper dignity for his fellowman, regardless of creed or class. "If we are going to have peace and prosperity we must have a working knowledge of the things of each one's conception. Not till then will we do away with strikes and lock-outs."

"There must be a higher feeling of brotherhood between man and man, neighbor and neighbor. Then and then only will we have better times. These same ideas must permeate the British empire. He told of the sense of security he felt when he reached old England from the continent.

"I would conclude by saying that I am most grateful to you. I will look forward to coming back and seeing you men again. No mater what may be your religious tenents, irrespective of everythig I will pray for your interests, both material and spiritual. I leave you all with all kindness of feelings. I hope you will all be well and happy in my three months' absence."

A vocal solo by Mr. D. Carlisle was very much enjoyed.

Mayor A. A. McIntyre, representing the citizens, wished His Lordship "God speed." Great tribute was paid to Bishop O'Brien, His Worship stating that he had watched the honors conferred on him by his church and would watch his journey to Rome with great interest. In conclusion he wished him great prosperity and a safe return.

Mr. F. Whitehouse gave a well rendered violin selection, followed by a vote of thanks moved by Mr. G. O. Cameron, seconded by Mr. J. W. Fraser and extended to the artists assisting in the programme.

The singing of the National Anthem terminated the very successful banquet.

It Builds You Up

THESE are letters of good cheer. They tell of health restored, of nerves strengthened, of pain and weakness overcome in the only natural way—by building up the vigor of the human system.

These letters tell you better than we can in any other way what you may expect from the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Everywhere you find people enthusiastic over Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. If you do not happen to know any of these people ask your friends about this "food cure." They are sure to know of some cases in which it has proved a blessing.

Clementsport, N.S.

Miss Gertrude M. Burrell, Clementsport, N.S. writes:—"I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with splendid results. For a number of years I was afflicted with nervousness, and six years ago had a complete breakdown. I had no control of my nerves, and had terrible hysterical spells. I could not sleep, had night sweats, awful dreams and nightmare. My physician gave me medicine to put me to sleep every night, and another kind to take every two hours during the day, but it did not seem to do me any good only while I was taking it. I never really expected to get well. Reading about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food one day, I gave it a trial, and the results from the first box encouraged me, so I continued its use, and found my nerves getting steady and stronger. My appetite improved and I gained in strength, ambition and flesh. Now I am able to do considerable work, and can highly recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a good tonic for the whole system."

(Alonzo W. Daniels, J.P. says:—"It gives me great satisfacion to vouch for the testimony of this young lady and the benefit she has received from your wonderful discovery.")

Brockville

Mrs. Marshall Dellabough, 262 Broak St., Brockville, Ont. writes:—"For about a year, I have suffered from nervousness and run down system. I had headaches, neuralgic pains through the body, and my nerves used to twitch and I could not stop them. I was very easily worried or tired, and began to feel that my heart action was becoming weak. I went to see a Doctor, and he told me I was nervous and run down, and needed a tonic. I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and at the end of three weeks I could see an improvement. I took four boxes in all, and now am completely cured. I can sleep well now, and eat a good hearty meal. I can recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to any suffering from nervous trouble of any kind, and I hope my letter will benefit other women suffering from nervousness."

Petrolea

Mrs. R. Thomas, Enniskillen St., Petrolea, Ont. writes:—"For over two years I suffered with my nerves; sometimes I would break down completely and be in bed for a week at a time. I never could get any sleep until about three or four o'clock in the morning. A friend of mine one day advised me to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and a treatment of this medicine proved to be just what I needed. It soothed my nerves, made me sleep at night, and strengthened me in every way. I continued using the Nerve Food until I considered myself cured. Now I would have no hesitation in recommending it to anyone suffering from nervousness or run-down system.

("I am acquainted with Mrs. Thomas, and believe her statement to be correct."—Thos. Kelly, Postmaster.)

Spalding, Sask.

Mrs. Olaus B. Qualie, Spalding, Sask. writes:—"I am glad to say that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a great deal of good. When I commenced using this medicine I was very weak and run down. My memory was poor, and I was gradually going down in weight. My blood was thin, and I was troubled continually with tired feelings and backache. I would hardly get the breakfast over in the morning when I would become so weak that I would have to lie down. One evening my husband read of a case like mine which had been cured by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, so he told me to try it. Inside of a month I began to feel stronger, so I kept right on taking the Nerve Food until I had used fourteen boxes. There is a great change in my condition, and I cannot thank Dr. Chase's Nerve Food enough for all it has done for me."

The old method of treating Nervous diseases was the use of opiates and narcotics to deaden the nerves. Pain was relieved but at terrible expense to the nervous system, because this meant the tearing down of cells and tissues.

With the advent of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the method of treatment was revolutionized because the idea of this "food cure" is to form new, rich blood and build-up the depleted nerve cells. Instead of affording mere relief Dr. Chase's Nerve Food removes the cause of trouble by restoring energy, vigor and vitality to the whole human system.

How to Wave Hair to Appear Naturally Curly

The tight little curls so dear to a woman's heart, the kind that remain in curl under any and all weather conditions, are best acquired by means of the new silmerine method. This simple method enables one to have the prettiest waves and curls imaginable, with all the appearance of "Nature's own". Silmerine is of course perfectly harmless. It leaves no sediment on the hair, nor any sticky or greasy trace. It also serves as a beneficial dressing, imparting a lively lustre and wholesome beauty to the hair. And the hair is fine and fluffy when combed out.

If one will procure a bottle of liquid silmerine from the druggist and follow the easy direction, she will be pleased beyond words with the result —which will be in evidence within three hours, and which will last a long time. The liquid is easily applied with a brush.

THE FRENCH SITUATION

MATTERS TO BE DISCUSSED AT THE ALLIED CONFERENCE

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, April 13.—Although the diplomatic incident regarding the occupation of Frankfort by the French forces is considered here to have been closed, it is pointed out that the main question under which the dispute arose—carrying out of the Treaty of Versailles—remains open in its entirety, forecasts are that it will come up at the San Remo conference of the Allies.

[illegible] will be in connection with the consideration of Germany's request for further time to disarm and demobilise, it is understood in official circles.

PLAUEN, April 13.—Owing to the energy of the Saxon Government against Max Hoelz, Communist leader and former lecturer in a motion picture theatre, Hoelz and his band of marauders have disappeared, and their whereabouts is unknown.

Prior to his departure, Hoelz had sought to instigate a great campaign of arson. He distributed placards calling for the destruction of all public buildings and residences of the wealthy classes on the appearance of the Reichswehr. Only factories and banks were to be left alone.

A GENERAL STRIKE HAS BEEN DECLARED

WILL REMAIN OUT UNTIL SINN FEINERS ARE RELEASED.

(Canadian Press.)

DUBLIN, April 13.—The general strike declared in Ireland in protest over the treatment of the political prisoners, went into effect to-day amid tumultuous scenes in the vicinity of Mount Joy Prison, where the Sinn Feiners are on a hunger strike.

It was announced that the strike, which was originally intended as a one-day celebration, would be continued until the prisoners were released.

All shops, hotels and restaurants of Dublin are closed, and hotel staffs have quit.

No tramcars or trains are running, except a few on the Great North of Ireland Railway.

The strike is not in effect in Belfast and the North of Ireland, but in the West and South business is at a standstill.

The crowd outside Mount Joy Prison grew as the day wore on, until it comprised two thousand persons.

The authorities thought it necessary to augment the defences, and three tanks and several armoured cars, with a large force of police and military, were stationed about the structure.

For Sagging or Hanging Cheeks or Chin

Flabbiness of cheeks, chin or neck was considered very difficult to correct, until the discovery of what has proven to be a veritable wonder-worker for such conditions. The preparation is so simple and harmless any woman can easily make and apply it. It is all the more remarkable in that its beneficial effects are apparent even after the very first application, both as to appearance and the feeling of comfort produced.

The formula is: One ounce powdered saxolite dissolved in one-half pint witch hazel. Use daily as a wash lotion. The solution tends to contract and solidify the loosened, baggy tissue, smoothing out the folds, creases and wrinkles, besides having a refining influence on skin of coarse texture and large pores. As witch hazel and saxolite can be had at any drug store, anyone can try this successful recipe.

LAKEFIELD COUNCIL DISCUSS WAYS AND MEANS OF LIGHTING VILLAGE

COUNCIL WILL GET IN TOUCH WITH THE CEMENT COMPANY—REVISION OF THE HYDRO ESTIMATES.

LAKEFIELD, April 13.—The Village Council held their meeting in the Town Hall last evening. Those present were Reeve J. C. Strickland, and Councillors Marling, Smith, Spence, and Young.

The minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed.

The first question taken up was the lighting of the village, as the power plant was burned on Sunday night, leaving the village in darkness. There were present a number of ratepayers, who expressed their views regarding a solution.

Among them were Mr. S. R. Leggot, the owner of the burned plant, who stated that the only solution he could see out of the difficulty was to get in touch with the Canada Cement Co. and try and secure power from them, and attach it to the present wiring.

Mr. William Leggot, manager of the Colonial Glass Co., gave a lucid explanation of how this could be accomplished very quickly, with very little loss of time if the power could be secured.

Mr. William J. Charlton also spoke on the subject.

It was moved by Coun. Marling, seconded by Coun. Spence, that the Clerk get in touch with Mr. E. W. Bailey, and then with Mr. Jones, the manager of the Canada Cement Co., at the earliest possible moment re the lighting of the village during the interval until Hydro takes it over.—Carried.

Increase in Cost.

The following letter was received from the Hydro Commission:

Mr. W. Sherin, Village Clerk,
Lakefield, Ont.

Dear Sir,—We regret to inform you that a revision of the estimates submitted to you on 1st December shows an increase in cost of construction of $3,154.00. This is due to per centage increases in items as follows:

Poles 20 per cent., wire 10 per cent., labour 20 per cent., board 15 per cent., street lighting equipment 5 per cent.

Owing to these increases, we would like to know the Council's opinion in connection with a reduction of the area covered by the distribution system. We figured on serving the two streets near the Canada Cement Co.'s mill, viz., Oxford and Bishop Streets, with house and street lighting. If we stop at the corner of Concession and Oxford Streets, it will mean a reduction of $1,400.00. Also on Strickland Street, east of the corner where the large house was burned, we figured on extending house and street lighting to Bay Street. If this is stopped at Prospect Street, there is a further saving of $200.00.

These two places seem to be the only possibilities for reduction.

Will you be good enough to let us have the opinion of the Council on this at as early a date as possible, as our construction department are ordering material and making arrangements to start construction.

Yours truly,
F. A. GABY, Chief Engineer,
Per W. G. Ireland.

It was moved and seconded that the village would recommend to the Hydro the cutting off of Oxford and Bishop Streets, making a saving of $1,400.00.

Memorial Hall.

Letters were read re the Memorial Hall, from the Public Building Inspector, and Mr. Kearns, the architect, which will be published in a few days.

Another letter was read re damages to the Memorial Hall, but as it was unsigned it was not considered.

The Council made an appointment to visit the dumping ground of the village on Wednesday afternoon.

Accounts Passed.

The Finance Committee made their recommendation of the payment of the following acounts:

Lakefield Electric Light	$68.31
Wellington Hill	4.00
W. J. Charlton	58.75
F. McConkey	38.18
Dr. J. R. Fraser	1.00
Ira Lennox	62.50
R. Alford	2.00
Bell Telephone Co.	6.80
J. W. Ridpath	17.6.

—which, on the motion of Couns. Spence and Marling, was adopted.

Mr. S. J. Wallace wrote the Council offering to pay one-half of the cost of sidewalk opposite his lot, which was adopted.

A letter was read from Mr. W. A. Nixon and Mr. H. G. Fitzgerald, asking that four boathouses opposite their property on Water Street be removed. This was left over for further consideration.

Moved by Coun. Young, seconded by Coun. Spence, that the Council do now adjourn until next Monday evening at eight o'clock.—Carried.

WERE LOCKED IN PETERBOROUGH POLICE STATION.

Lindsay Warder; Two young Lindsay men had a novel and somewhat exciting experience last week in the city of Peterborough.

Along with three other companions they had assisted in moving a Lindsay man to the Electric City, where he will reside in future, and for a lark one of the crowd, who was acquainted with the policemen in Peterborough, having resided in the city some years ago, had two of the Lindsayites summoned to the police station where they were quietly locked up in the cell.

Their surprise was so great that they were knocked speechless, and were in the same condition when allowed out a few minutes later. However, the joke was taken good-naturedly, although it had a somewhat salutary effect on the spirits of the two who were incarcerated.

Was Tortured For Nearly Two Years

THEN MRS. McNEIL USED DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Nova Scotian Suffering from Rheumatism Tells of the Benefit She Got Through Using Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Hilsborough, N.S., April 12th (Special).—"For nearly two years I suffered the tortures of rheumatism and could get nothing to relieve me. At last I thought of Dodd's Kidney Pills and commenced to take them.

"Before I had used two boxes I felt better. I have been using them for nearly six months and feel ever so much better. I will continue to use them until my rheumatism is gone."

Mrs. James McNeil, who lives here, make sthe above statement. She feels that she owes it to other sufferers from rheumatism to tell them how she found relief from her suffering. She is always ready to say a good word for Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Other sufferers from rheumatism tell of pains relieved and health restored through the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. They act directly on the kidneys. They strengthen the kidnes and put them in shape to strain the uric acid out of the blood. Uric acid crystallizing in the muscles causes the pains known as rheumatism.

Ask your neighbours if Dodd's Kidney Pils do not heal and strengthen the kidneys.

QUEBEC, April 13.—Dr. A. Caron of Fall River, Mass., has served notice upon the city of Quebec to the effect that, as a descendant of a Mr. Berthelot of Quebec city, he will claim ownership of the present site of the Berthelot Market if the city abolishes the market place to turn it into some other use.

Dr. Caron says that his ancestors gave over this property to the city of Quebec, they stipulating that it should perpetually be used as a public market place, and Dr. Caron says he heard the city intended to convert the property to some other use, hence his notice.

CORNER'S JURY SUSPENDED SITTING

Summons Directed to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

(United Press.)

CORK, April 13.—The coroner jury investigating the death of Thomas Maccurtain assassinated Lord Mayor of Cork, has suspended its sitting until Saturday pending reply to summons directed to Lord French, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and Sir John Taylor, under secretary for Ireland.

THE FORMER EMPRESS IS SERIOUSLY ILL.

The Wife of the Ex-Kaiser is not Expected to Live Much Longer.

United Press.

BERLIN, April 13. — The former Empress of Germany is seriously ill at her retreat in Holland and her death is expected shortly, the Deutsche Tages Zeitung" said to-day.

The former Empress of Germany, the Kaiserin Auguste Victoria, has been reported severely ill several times during recent years. Shortly before the close of the war she was under the care of specialists in Berlin.

Her health was said to have become worse when the Imperial family fled from Berlin into Holland. Recent despatches said her old physicians had been called from Berlin to attend her. She was suffering from heart trouble, complicated by other diseases.

KNOX MINSTRELS A SUCCESS

Well versed in every detail, with a dash and a swing which rubbed the amateur corners off the performers, the Knox Minstrels, who played last evening in Knox Church Lecture Hall, under the auspices of the A. S. K. Class, gave a highly amusing concert. The jokes were new, the songs were bright and the music catchy throughout, making in all a satisfactory performance. Ranged in a semi-circle about the interlocutor, Mr. F. D. Lee, who for this important position was a happy choice, possessing the power to bring out the humour in everything, the boys kept things jazzing along with their songs, and showed no hesitation at coming to the front when announced by Mr. Lee. Each song was encored and then encored some more, and had the boys been as generous with their response as the audience was in their appreciation and applause, the entertainment would doubtless have carried on till the small hours.

Local Hits.

The end men, Messrs. Vern. Morphet, director of the production, Jack Bradbury, Jim Turnbull, Art. White, Ken Anderson, and Ted Jackson, each a remarkable and lifelike copy of a coon wearing brilliant costumes and watermelon grins, were on the spot with clever repartee and witty jokes. The Hunter Street Bridge, Mr. Barber's efforts to find bed rock, the city housing scheme, and the radial railway extension made good live targets for the wit of the comedians, who had grasped the vulnerable points in all, and so handled them that the humour was apparent to the most stolid minds. Each sally was greeted with shouts of applause, especially the effort of one of the darkies who, in a poetical moment, had composed a sonnet while sitting near the C. P. R. Station—"Matthews Shall Not Smell To-night!"

The Specialties.

The latter half of the evening was devoted to some real live specialties, which more than brought down the house. The opening number was a selection by the Minstrel Orchestra, which was followed by a very amusing item, in which Mr. Ted Markham (comedian) kept the audience in screams of laughter by his songs and witty hits. Madame Shirley, mysterious and charming, who though billed straight from Paris, has kept her identity a secret in the city, gave a solo dance, which was startlingly Parisian and Bohemian in the extreme. Peterborough's Harry Lauder, Mr. Bob Hendry, was a big hit with his songs and jokes, and Mr. Frank Clarke's banjo selection was, as usual, an important item of the programme. The evening was closed by living statuary by two of the boys representing different phases of athletics.

PURCHASED CHOICE HOLSTEIN CATTLE

Mr. Daniel Murphy, South Onslow, was in Woodstock last week, where he purchased a number of choice Holstein cattle. Included in the lot is a sister of the celebrated Rolo Mercena, which sold for $26,000 last June in Philadelphia; also a daughter of Helbon Beauty, which sold for $41,000 at Philadelphia.

The sale of Holsteins was held by a young farmer of Woodstock county, who is not yet 25 years of age. It brought him nearly $45,000.

Alkali in Soap Bad for the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil [illegible] at any pharmacy. It is very [illegible] a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

CLEVER REMINDER OF MOTOR SHOW

A clever contribution to the Motor Show spirit is the window at Cressman's which combines a tribute to the show with a display of made-in-Peterboro wools featuring Bonner-Worth floss.

The entire front display window has been carpeted with sand, and the central figure is a touring car composed entirely, with the exception of the tires, of balls of brilliant hued wools. Seated in the car is a woman attired in a sweater, knit from the floss advertised, while several other women standing about are similarly attired in contrasting hues.

So attractive is the display that practically no shopper on the street to-day has failed to pause in silent admiration.

THREE MONTHS FOR ALBERT BISHOP

The case of Albert Bishop was concluded this afternoon.

"The accused has deliberately gone on grounds where he has no right and assaulted Windover," said the Magistrate.

The Magistrate had a charge and conviction against Bishop in the fall of 1917, when he was sent to the Ontario Reformatory for one year. Before that he was also convicted on a charge of burning a fence. He has not reformed any apparently since then. The only question is the sentence.

The Crown Attorney favoured an indeterminate sentence in the reformatory.

"I convict you of the charge against you which means that you will serve not less than three months and for an indeterminate thereafter of not more than two years, less one day, in the Ontario reformatory," said the Magistrate.

USED TEETH AND CLUB IN ATTACK ON GEO. WINDOVER

ALBERT BISHOP CHARGED WITH ASSAULT SAID TO HAVE BEEN COMMITTED IN A SUGAR BUSH

The case of Albert Bishop, of Harvey township, who is charged under the Criminal Code with having committed bodily assault on George Windover, Harvey township, on Saturday, March 27, came up again this afternoon before Magistrate Langley in the County Police Court. The accused was represented by Mr. J. F. Strickland, while Crown Attorney Hatton prosecuted for the Crown.

George Windover, the plaintiff, was the first witness. He stated that he lived in Harvey 40 years. He ran timber limits and did some gardening. His home is three miles from Buckhorn. On Saturday, March 27 he was assaulted by the accused in the bush while boiling down sap. He was alone in the woods straining the sap into the kettle when Bishop came up, handing him a letter without a stamp.

"I threw it down. He had a club over my head when I turned around and he said he would kill me. He took up the club and struck me over the head. When I tried to get the club to save myself he got my thumb with his teeth and he chewed my thumb till I got him down. He hit me a pretty heavy clip over the head, and it bled till about 10 o'clock at night. It was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon he struck me."

The thumb still gives Mr. Windover a great deal of pain and is still very sore.

The club, he said, was of hickory, about six feet long about 2 inches thick at the butt and an inch at the top. It was cut for a poker by Mr. Windover.

Why did he do this? asked the Crown Attorney.

"I can soon tell you. He wanted to kill me. He thought I had a few cents or dollars. I never had any trouble with him before."

But you can't give us any particular reasons? No.

In the cross-examination by Mr. Strickland and he said he was hit on the left side and showed the cut on his cranium, the bruise of which still pained him.

Why didn't you stop him?

I couldn't.

What was that letter? I don't know. I never picked it up. I can't read. He said that Mr. Bishop wrote it himself.

Windover's place adjoined Bishop's. Mr. Windover said he had always treated him kindly.

Are you lame? asked the Crown Attorney.

Yes, very. I am what you call a cripple, but am strong and active otherwise.

Since Windover could not read, his mark was taken and witnessed.

Mr. Henry Hynes, a farmer in Harvey township, said he knew Bishop well and had known him for some 8 years. A week ago last Friday Bishop came to his place to get milk for a poultice, and he told Hynes about the row with Windover. "He told me he went into the bush with a letter for Mr. Windover. Mr. Windover threw it down and stooped down and as he thought he was going to get a club to strike him he picked up a club and hit Windover. He told me he knocked Windover down and he wished he had killed him. He told that he got a hold of Mr. Windover's thumb and chewed it till he got one of his teeth out. There were two other men he was going to kill.

Did he give any reason for his animosity to Windover? asked the Crown Attorney.

Well, he hinted that Windover was trying to get his housekeeper away from him.

WILL CENTRALIZE LOCAL MEETINGS

NEW SERVICE CREATED BY BOARD OF TRADE.

A meeting of interest to all citizens, convened in the Board of Trade Chambers last night at which the secretaries of the Y.W.C.A., Y.M.C.A., Women's Art Association, Automobile Association, Belmont Club and Engineering Institutes, attended.

With the object of eliminating the existing difficulty in calling meetings affecting the general membership of the various associations, etc., conflicting with other meetings, etc., a resolution was passed requesting that the Board of Trade act as the central institution for the establishment of a "Meeting Exchange Bureau."

The object of this bureau is to keep a record of all meetings and special functions called in the city, so information is available at a minute's notice for the use of the various institutions, in calling meetings of the general membership.

It is expected that all institutions will avail themselves of this service. This is considered to be a move in the right direction and any information on this subject can be gained by phoning 1360

NO BELLS ON THE NEW PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS

GREYBEARDS IN THE RED CHAMBER AT OTTAWA DISCUSS MOMENTOUS QUESTION—WILL CONFER WITH ARCHITECT.

(Special to the Examiner)

OTTAWA, April 14.—There are no bells on the new Parliament buildings—at least not yet. The Senate talked the thing over yesterday when Senator Bradbury advocated the installation of a magnificient chime in the new tower tower. The cost, he thought, would be about $25,000 and as a device had recently been perfected to facilitate the playing of carols it would be nice to have them in the finest Parliament buildings in the world. Senator Domville thought the country was looking for economy rather than bells, while Senator Boyer favored the installation at the expense of the senators. Mr. Turriff was strong for a clock but feared the chimes would cost more like two hundred thousand dollars than twenty thousand. The government leader, Sir James Lougheed thought it a little premature to pass a resolution and suggested the appointment of a committee to confer with the architect. This the ancient and honorable gentlemen of the Red Chamber finally decided to do.

TELLS OF YEARS OF SUFFERING AND HARDSHIP THROUGH PARENTS

HARROWING TALE TOLD BY A YOUNG GIRL—BRANDED ON THE ARMS.

SISTER BEATEN

NEW YORK, April 14.—The story of two years' suffering and torture, in which she was branded with red hot carving knives and kept a prisoner in a cupboard, was told here by Minnie Gallander, seventeen years old, in the New Jersey Avenue Police Court, Brooklyn. It made such a deep impression on the crowded courtroom that three women spectators fainted and had to be carried out, while Magistrate Walsh was forced to rap for order.

As the child told her story tears trickled down her cheeks. All the while she kept looking at her father, John Gallander, fifty-seven years old, known on the stage as "Gallando, the Clay Modeller," whom she charged with felonious assault. Gallander says his daughter's story is a tissue of falsehoods.

Minnie and her step-sister, Anna, were brought to the court by agents of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. Both have auburn hair and each corroborated the other in the harrowing details which, they say, they suffered at the hands of their father and also their step-mother. The step-mother was not in court.

Ran Away From Home.

"I was so weak from lack of food and from the beating I got that I ran away in May, 1918," said Minnie, who was the first witness called. "But tell the judge about being beaten and all the other tortures," said Miss Helen McCormick, assistant district attorney.

"Well, my father and my stepmother never liked me, I guess, for they would not send me to school and beat me most every day," said the child "When I begged for food they made me stand against a wall

WILL STAND FOR THE PEACE TREATY

(United Press.)
(By Henry Wood.)

PARIS, April 14. — Premier Millerand to-day reiterated the position of his government as firm in its stand for complete execution of the treaty of Versailles.

French and British military heads have agreed on means for technical execution of the treaty. Winston Spencer Churchill, British Secretary of state for war, conferred with Marshal Foch and other French leaders at the War office. One of the plans decided on was an increase in the number of French and British officers on the inter-allied commission in Berlin.

MAY DAY PARADE

(Special to Examiner)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 13.—Trades and Labour Council and the Dominion Labour party will not have anything to do with proposed May Day parade and protest meetings which have been arranged for first day of next month, it was announced to-day.

Officials of Trades and Labour Council declare that parade and meetings have been arranged by One Big Union and similar organizations and by the radical element in labor. "The Trades and Labor Council has nothing whatever to do with the parade," said Alderman Robinson, secretary of the Council.

"The One Big Union and that organization only is responsible for the parade, if it ever comes off. A Dominion wide strike is also suggested to follow the protest meetings on the first of May, but the movement is not likely to be popular. Labour men are mapping out constructive policy for the coming years,' he said.

According to the same source, a meeting of defense committee on Sunday last, which was held behind closed doors, was a failure as far as striking was concerned.

PETERBORO BOY MARRIED TO-DAY IN PORT ARTHUR

At Port Arthur to-day the wedding will be quietly solemnised, in Knox Presbyterian Church—Rev. Norman McLeod officiating—of Lorna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Bridgman, and Arthur Perks, of the Bank of Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Perks, 530 Gilmour Street, Peterborough.

Mr. and Mrs. Perks will spend a short honeymoon in Toronto and Peterborough, and will reside in Port Arthur.

Big Test Strength

DETECTIVE SHOT WHILE WALKING IN DUBLIN—CROWDS GATHER.

United Press.

DUBLIN, April 14. — The first disorder since the general strike was called, occurred to-day.

Harry Kells, a detective, was shot and killed while walking in Camden Street.

Labor executives today ordered a continuation of the general strike called in protest against the alleged British mis-treatment of Sinn Fein prisoners.

More than 50,000 workers were out in Dublin and 300,000 throughout Ireland, the labor leaders claimed.

The strikers staged a huge demonstration in front of Mount Joy prison, where the hunger strike Sinn Feiners, are confined, yesterday afternoon.

Troops with bared bayonets guarded the prison.

As part of the demonstration, 20,000 persons bared their heads in a prayer for the imprisoned Sinn Feiners.

Conditions Serious.

The Lord Mayor, it was announced, had been informed oficially that the condition of many of the hunger strikers was serious. Some of them were said to be unconscious.

Martin McCoy, one of the prisoners, was released on the expiration of his sentence. He was too weak to walk and was rushed to an hospital. His condition was said to be critical.

Commercial activity throughout Ireland was at a standstill.

The leaders were confident the strike would be successful. They pointed out that it was the third big test of strength of a general strike for political purposes within a month.

STRIKE GETTING WORSE

Canadian Press.

DUBLIN, April 14. — A general strike was declared yesterday in protest against the treatment of the Irish hunger strikers in Mount Joy prison, continued to-day with added tenseness and increased fears of serious developments.

Six thousande workrs in Dublin stood are on strike and a feeling of pronounced excitement prevailed throughout the capital.

The day was marked early by a fatality, Constable Harry Kells being shot dead while on plain clothes duty, in Camben street, this morning.

The constable's assailant was an unidentified young man. eH fired two shots from his revolver and then ran away from the scene before he could be apprehended.

The shooting added to the general excitement. Thousands of people are parading the streets and collisions between the populace and the military are feared.

The Fuel Shortage

NO PERCEPTIBLE CHANGE IN THE STRIKE SITUATION—INVESTIGATING STRIKE.

BUFFALO, April 14.—There was no perceptible change in the strike situation here to-day. Frank Hawley, Commissioner of Conciliation of the Department of Labor, held meetings with officers of the Switchmen's Union and with officers of the Switchmen's Association, but what the outcome of the meetings might have been, was not learned.

It was said several operatives of the Department of Justice are in the city investigating the strike but this could not be confirmed.

With the appointment by President Wilson of the Labor Board, the knowledge of Hawley's presence in the city and the rumor that the department of justice is investigating the strike will be over in a short time. th estrike will be over in a short time.

The food situation is a little worse to-day than previously and plans are being made to use automobile trucks in transporting food stuffs from nearby cities it was said. Food prices are soaring as a result of the strike, the most noticeable rise being in potatoes.

It was said the homes are now beginning to feel the pinch of the fuel shortage and many families are entirely without heat. The fuel situation at industrial plants remains about the same.

Very little freight was moved here yesterday and last night but passenger traffic is normal. Transportation of milk to the city continues without interruption.

MUNICIPAL INCOME TAX LAW PERPLEXING MANY CITIZENS

QUESTIONAIRES FROM CITY ASSESSMENT DEPARTMENT HAS GIVEN RISE TO SOME DOUBTS AS TO THE INCLUSIVENESS OF THE CLAUSES OF THE ACT—MR. R. R. HALL'S INTERPRETATION.

For the purpose of enforcing the Assessment Act to its fullest extent, City Assessor Henry recently sent out hundreds of income assessment forms to persons who have up to the present escaped this tax. The circulars have aroused considerable interest, especially among citizens who were doubtful of the meaning of several of the clauses. It should be made clear that this assessment is for municipal purposes, and is entirely separate from the Provincial tax, which has been widely advertised of late. The following letter received about a week ago indicates the perplexity of some of the ratepayers. and in order that an independent interpretation might be secured, The Examiner submitted a correspondent's problem to Mr. R. R. Hall.

To The Examiner, Mr. Henry stated that it was his endeavour to apply the Assessment Act to every person it was contemplated to assess. Of late, salaries and other remuneration have been increasing to the point at which they are included in the Act. In the past it was possible to determine easily who should be assessed for income, and the only method to discover new taxpayers was to send out the questionaires, which Mr. Henry has been distributing.

The letter to The Examiner and Mr. R. R. Hall's reply follow:

Mr. R. R. Hall, Barrister,
City,—

Dear Sir: A great number of our readers have asked us the question as to whether or not:

"The income of any person derived from any investment or from money on deposit in any bank or other financial institution or loaned upon mortgages, promissory notes or other securities" is liable to assessment if it does not exceed $800.00, and if "the income of such person from all sources does not exceed $2,500."

Would you please be good enough to give us an opinion on this point and oblige.

Yours truly,
THE PETERBORO EXAMINER.

MR. HALL'S REPLY TO THE ABOVE LETTER.

Peterboro, April 13, 1920.

The Editor, Examiner:

Sir:—I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. The material parts of the Assessment Act and the amendments thereto, relating to exemption from taxation of income derived from mortgages, etc., etc., are contained in R.S.O. 1914, Chap. 195, Sec. 5, sub-sec. 20, as amended by the Statutes of Ontario, 1913, Chap. 46, Section 4, and the Statutes of Ontario, 1919, Chap. 50, Sec. 3.

The material parts of the Statute affecting the exemption of such income read as follows:

"2. All real property in Ontario and all income derived either within or out of Ontario by any person resident therein or received in Ontario by or on behalf of any person resident out of the same shall be liable to taxation subject to the following exemptions:

"20. ..... the income of any person derived from any investment or from money on deposit in any bank or other financial institution or loaned upon mortgages, promissory notes or other securities, if such income does not exceed $800, and the income of such persons from all sources does not exceed $2500."

If this last section quoted had simply read "the income of any person derived from any investment or from money on deposit in any bank or other financial institution or loaned upon mortgages, promissory notes or other securities," and had stopped there, then there is no doubt whatever that all income derived from any "investment.....mortgages, etc," would be wholly exempt from taxation, no matter what such income might amount to, just in the same way as rent from real estate is exempt from taxation as provided in the following sub-section, No. 21.

But a limit is placed upon "the amount of income derived from any investment.....mortgages, etc.," that is exempt from taxation; because the section goes on to provide for two contingencies, BOTH OF WHICH must occur, and WHEN BOTH DO OCCUR, then there ceases to be any exemption from taxation of income derived from investments, mortgages, 'etc.

These two contingencies are as follows:

1. If such income derived from Mortgages, etc., does exceed $800, AND

12. If the income of such persons from all sources does exceed $1,500;

Then there is no exemption of income from taxation.

If a person's income from mortgages, etc., were $900, and his income from personal earnings were only $500, then his total income "from all sources" would not exceed $1,500, and his total income of $1,400, would be exempt from taxation, because both contingencies have not occurred within the meaning of the clause to deprive such person with a total income of $1400, from exemption from taxation.

In the Assessment Act and its amendments prior to 1919 the amount of income was $400, instead of $800, and the income from all sources was $400, instead of $1500. As the Assessment Act stood prior to 1919, if the income derived from Mortgages, etc., amounted to over $400, then the income of such person from "all sources" exceeded $400; and if it did, such person was liable to assessment for income.

But the change that was made in the Act of 1919 increased the amount of income that was exempt from taxation and in effect provided that even if a person had an income derived from mortgages, etc., to the extent of $1400, and derived no income from any other source, such income would still be exempt from taxation under the amendments, because both contingencies would not occur, namely, "If such income does not exceed $800, AND the the income of such person from all sources does not exceed $1,500." It would not be correct in this case to give the word "and" between the two clauses the same meaning as if it were the word "or."

I would therefore answer the question in your letter by stating that under the circumstances the party would be exempt from municipal taxation for income.

Yours faithfully,
R. R. HALL.

FARMERS WANT FINE WEATHER

COLD WEATHER IS HOLDING SEED BACK.

The fine weather prevailing to-day after a week of slush and snow and mud, is a welcome change, not only to the citizens, but to the farmers whom it concerns more vitally. The roads in the country were good until the change of weather took place over a week ago, but now they have become full of mud holes. The slush and snow is entirely responsible, the farmers claim, the frost being all out of the ground.

The spring ploughing will be well under way in a few days if the warm weather comes, as is all probability it will, and within the next fortnight some seeding will follow.

The scarcity of farm labour is very acute, and despite the good wages offered, the bright lights and counter attractions of the city seem preferable to the tired farm hand than a smoky lantern, and the evening's entertainment with a milk pail amongst the co-boosies.

General reports from the country indicate that the spring wheat is looking very good, and also the clover.

Real Estate.

Many real estate deals are being put through in the country, and farms are being turned over as rapidly as houses in the city.

Prices for farm lands have never been better, and many farmers are retiring prematurely to take advantage of the high prices of land. Throughout the Province there seems to be a trend of farmers in the northern counties and townships moving towards the south and older lands. In Peterborough County several have moved from the northern townships to the southern, and one or two families from Haliburton have come south.

A FIGHT IN LEGISLATURE OVER POLICE COMMISSION; BILL OF LOCAL MEMBER

BY-ELECTION RESULTS IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, April 14.—Right Hon. T. J. McNamara was to-day declared elected for Northwest Campberwell seat in the House of Commons. He sought re-election on assuming office of Labor minister. In Basingstoke constituency Sir Arthur Bolbrook coalition unionist was elected to succeed Sir Auckland Geddes. Liberal and Labor candidates were second and third respectively.

BABIES CLINIC OPENS APRIL 27

"HIS MAJESTY, THE BABY," WILL BE FEATURED.

After many months of preparatory work, the committee in charge of the Well Babies' Clinic announce that the opening has been arranged for Tuesday, April 27th, afternoon and evening. No pains have been spared to make this the biggest day in the year, for the babies of Peterborough, and as the babies are the most important part of the population, that means that it should be the biggest day in the year.

The Provincial Department of Public Health are sending their trained nurse, Miss Knox, for that day, and she, with the assistance of local nurses, will demonstrate the very fine art of properly caring for "His Majesty the Baby." She will show how to wash and dress and feed him, will explain all about how much sleep he needs, and how important fresh air is to him. She will have an exhibit a model Layette, and dozens, almost hundreds of other things, which will help to give a better idea of the babies' importance, and of how to care for them.

Some idea of the size of the exhibit may be gleaned from the fact that Mr. Jones, the government's man in charge of it, in making arrangements with the committee, stated that there would be several tons of material to be unpacked and set up.

In the afternoon, after the demonstration, etc., tea will be served by the King's Daughters.

In the evening, moving pictures will be shown and short addresses on Child Welfare will be given by Dr. Jessie Birrlie, Dr. A. W. McPherson, Dr. Frank Neal and Dr. Malcolm McCulloch.

All this will take place in the G. W.V.A. Hall, Murray street, on Tuesday, April 27th, afternoon and evening.

Plan to be there, and bring your neighbor. Watch the papers for further announcements. Remember, this is only the opening the Clinic will be held every week afterwards.

LEADER, Sask., April 13.—A tooth measuring three by five inches across the grinding surface and six inches in length has been discovered near here in a sand pit. It weighs six pounds. The molar has been sent to the University of Minnesota for inspection and the reply received that it is one of the grinders of a prehistoric elephant.

BILL WILL BE SHELVED AND A MEASURE DRAFTED GIVING MUNICIPALITIES CONTROL OVER ESTIMATES.

(Special to Examiner)

TORONTO, April 14.—Legislation to permit municipalities to elect Police Commissions annually encountered a stormy passage in the municipal law committee in the Legislature to-day. The legislation was sponsored by Thomas Tooms, Labor member for West Peterboro and took the form of an amendment to the Municipal Act. The bill was laid over and will probably be amended so as to give municipalities control over the estimates of the Police Commissions without providing for an elective commission.

"The present system of police commissions", declared Mr. Tooms, speaking in support of his bill, "is nothing more than a relic of by-gone days. The cities should have control of the expenditure of the Police Department." He explained that his bill would make it optional for municipalities to continue the commission in its present form or to have an elective commission.

Opposed Bill.

Mayor Church strongly opposed the bill declaring it to be utterly wrong in principle. There was he, submitted no demand for such legislation.

"If you want to impair the present splendid efficiency of the Toronto police force just pass this bill," he warned. These days of unrest are no time to upset what has been the law for fifty years."

Ald. G. N. Gordon of Peterboro, appearing for the Peterboro City Council opposed the bill, declaring it to be dangerous.

"We are willing that the Attorney General or the Railway Board should have the right to revise the estimates of the police commission,' he stated. "But this bill means that policemen would have to get into politics to hold their jobs."

"As most of the members of this committee are now to the work I have asked that all such contentious measures be laid over until next year" observed Hon. H. C. Nixon, Chairman of The Committee. "I had a man there from the Council of 1919 to present this bill", Mr. Tooms persisted. "The present council defeated it by one vote. It is unfair if we are not to have a voice."

"The bill is lost," Mr. Nixon ruled.

"Just because a little group up in one corner shout "No, No, No," demanded Hon. Walter Rollo, springing to his feet and advancing towards the table. "If that's the way your going to run business we might as well stay away."

"Closure", shouted another member of the committee, C. F. Swayze, Niagara Falls, pressed for a vote.

"Toronto has a police force it may well be proud of," declared J. W. Curry, for South East Toronto. "Toronto would not have been so law adding in the past, under an elective commission. This bill would open the door to a vicious principle."

"Why tinker with such legislation when there is no demand for it," demanded. Hon. Thos. Crawford.

"There is a demand for it," persisted J. N. Cunningham of the Soo, perhaps not in Toronto but elsewhere."

"The Province is bigger than the city of Toronto, don't forget that," added Hon. Walter Rollo.

Karl Smith, South Waterloo, resented the suggestion that police forces would take advantage of elective commission.

N. Asmussen, South Waterloo, of-

THIRTEEN REASONS FOR OIL DILUTION

THINNING OF LUBRICANT CAUSES POWER LOSS AND WEAR.

If the motorist will but drain his crank case after a trip he will note that the oil is thinner than the new oil which is put into his car. This proves that the oil has been diluted during use. By pouring some of the drained oil into the palm of his hand and rubbing it with his fingers, he will soon perceive the presence of a sediment of grit or dirt. It is this sediment, combined with the diluted oil, which causes wear on the moving parts in a motor that has been run for several thousand miles; hence it is quite obvious that a heavier oil is required to seal or fill up the part or parts that have been worn.

Dilution of motor oil occurs when unburned gasoline escapes past the piston rings into the crank case. This dilution, or thinning out, of the oil may be influenced by the following mechanical or operating conditions:

(1) Piston clearance.
(2) Richness of mixture.
(3) Improper ignition.
(4) Operating temperature of motor affected by weather.
(5) Body of lubricant or thickness of film on walls of cylinders.
(6) Condition ofr cylinder walls.
(7) Condition of piston rings as affecting their all around fit in the grooves and against the cylinder walls.
(8) Intermittent operation.
(9) Priming and using the chocker when engine is cold in starting.
(10) Chocking when overloading.
(11) Character of fuel.
(12) Carbureter out of adjustment.
(13) Vacuum system of adjustment.

Dilution resulting from any or all of these conditions results in loss of fuel, loss of power, wear or motor parts and loss of lubricant.

TO DRILL IN SCHOOLS

Brantford Board of Educatios Votes For Military Exercises.

BRANTFORD, April 13.—The women's organizations of the city, led by the women members of the Board of Education, have won their fight for the re-introduction of drill in the schools. The Board, at a special meeting, heard the Trades and Labor Council protest against it, but only Trustee E. S. Armstrong, a member of the Trades and Labor Council, opposed the move.

Every housekeeper should keep a pair of butchers' cuffs on hand to protect the sleeves in emergencies.

THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY LOCAL WOODMEN

WILL ARRANGE FOR GENERAL GATHERING OF DELEGATES FROM COAST TO COAST IN JUNE NEXT.

A meeting was held last evening in the W.O.W. Hall of the committee in charge of the arrangements for the reception of the members of the Order who will attend the annual convention at which about 300 delegates will be present. Mr. John Edgar was elected chairman and Mr. J. W. Worth secretary.

Sub-committees were appointed to look after billeting, entertaining, financing and welcoming the delegates.

Faint and Dizzy Spells

Weakness and Shortness of Breath

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women becomes run-down and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes:—"I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully as I have improved very much."

while they threw knives and forks at me. Once father told me to stand still and he threw a long stick with a nail in the end at me. The nail stuck in my head right there." The child then showed her scalp, which had more than a dozen marks and cuts.

Branded Her Arms.

"But that's not all. My stepmother, after I had begged for something to eat, heated a large carving knife and branded my arms." The child then rolled up her sleves and showed her arm which had seven scars.

A woman in the audience shrieked and fainted, and in the excitement that followed two others fainted. All three were carried from the courtroom while Magistrate Walsh rapped for order.

When Minnie resumed her story she broke down and wept. Magistrate Walsh asked her if the story she was telling was true. She raised her right arm and said it was true, "so help her God." The remainder of her story had to do with cooking utensils being thrown at her. When she cried in pain, her step-mother, she said, placed a towel in her mouth. She said also that she was kept in a closet for three days and nights aind given only water and hard bread. Her sister Anna brought her some milk and a ham-bone—for this Anna was beaten the girl said.

Sister Beaten Also.

"That's right," said Anna, who is 14 years old.

"Once I remember when I had a scalp disease my step-mother poured a bottle of iodine over me, and when I cried I was beaten and cursed.

"One day when father was beating me I picked up a broom and struck him over the head, and then I was again placed in the cupboard. I finally escaped from there and for three days and nights I wandered about eating from garbage cans, until I fell on the sidewalk exhausted. Then I was taken to the hospital, where I gave a wrong name, so my parents could not find out where I was."

The hearing was then adjourned.

SITUATION IMPROVED IN THE WEST

NEW YORK, April 14.—Switchmen's strike is gaining ground all along the east coast but the situation is much improved in the west.

UNVEILING OF WAR MEMORIAL.

Announcement was made in St. John's church on Sunday last of the public unveiling of a Bronze Tablet procured to commemorate soldiers of the congregation who fell in the late war.

This public ceremony will take place at the evening service next Sunday, 18th inst.

The Great War Veterans, officers and men of the 57th Regiment, the Machine Gun Company and other units of the Peterboro Garrison, Nursing Sisters and any individuals connected with Militia or Overseas Units, or with the Red Cross, are invited to attend. Extra seating accommodation will be provided in the Church.

The address on this occasion will be delivered by Captain (Rev.) C. W. Hedley, who served as Chaplain durin gthe greater part of the war.

It is regretted that the unveiling ceremony is to take place on the Sunday of the G.W.V.A. annual church parade and efforts were made to change the date but it was not found possible. However as the parade to the Park street Baptist Church is to be in the morning, members of the order may attend St. John's in the evening and thus honor their departed comrades, and doubtless many will do so.

APPLE CULTURE EXPERT IS DEAD AT TRENTON.

He was one of the best authorities on apple culture in Canada, was past president of the Ontario Fruit Growers, president of the Northumberland and Durham Fruit Growers, and was in charge of the Bay of Quinte experimental storage of fruits. His own apple orchard contained some of the best varieties in Ontario. He leaves a widow, one son, Peter C. Dempsey, and two daughters, Mrs. E. T. Minaker and Mrs. R. E. Kemp.

1920 Ford Touring Car a Real Bargain

The 1920 Ford Touring Car, with its electric starting and lighting system and its numerous other improvements and equipment, will be one of the interesting features of the Peterborough Motor Show.

This new car at $938 F.O.B. Peterborough is by far the best value that has ever been offered to the buying public.

Other cars have advanced in price, but the price of the new 1920 Ford Touring Car, with its additional equipment, comparatively speaking, is less than last year.

We expect to be able to make delivery of these in reasonable quantities in a few days.

See this wonderful bargain at the Motor Show.

The Expected Has Happened

A year ago we made the statement that before two years 50 per cent. of the cars sold would be Closed cars. To-day we are selling ten closed cars to one we sold a year ago.

Experience has proved that the Closed Car is much more satisfactory all round for comfort, style and practicability.

An examination of the Ford Coupe or Sedan will convince you that you may have all these luxuries and advantages at little over half the price of any other make.

When you invest your money in a Closed Car you will not only use it part of the time or most of the time, but you can use it all the time.

Everybody is Delighted

Prior to the establishing of the new Plant of the Duffus Motor Sales, car owners and garage men were sending their money out of town for accessories and supplies. They are now delighted over the fact that they can buy all supplies, tires, parts, etc., at the same price and without delay at the Duffus Motor Sales, wholesale and retail. City and outside garages are more than pleased to procure parts and supplies without having to carry costly stocks themselves.

"Peterborough Presents Possibilities Unsurpassed."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 14TH, 1920.

ALD. HARRY PHELAN.

The sudden death of Ald. Harry Phelan yesterday has cast a shadow over the whole community. Few citizens of Peterboro were better known or better liked than Mr. Phelan whose never failing good humor and friendliness had won him an unusual place in the affections of every one who knew him. As a member of the city council Ald. Phelan distinguished himself during the years he served in that body by a remarkable interest in the city's affairs. He devoted much more of his time to the duties of his position as alderman than has customarily been the practise of members of the council and it may truthfully be said of him that in dealing with public questions he was guided always by what he considered in the interests of the whole community rather than by consideration for any particular class, faction or creed. Big-hearted, jovial, friendly, he radiated good nature and optimism wherever he was and Peterboro has lost a valuable asset by his demise. The city's losses through the operations of the Grim Reaper have been particularly heavy in the past few weeks. In addition to Ald. Phelan such well-known citizens as Messrs. H. C. Winch, Robert Neill, Adam Hall and William Might have answered the inevitable call. Their passing leaves added responsibilities upon the shoulders of younger citizens who must take their places in the city's activities.

THE PENSIONS COMMITTEE.

The special committee of the House of Commons, appointed to investigate the question of pensions, began its sessions to-day. No feature of the re-establishment of Canada's soldiers is more important than the question that has been entrusted to this committee, and the country will follow its deliberations with keen interest, hopeful that as a result of the present investigation, the defects in Canada's pension system will be removed and a scale that is adequate to the cost of living established. From one end of Canada to the other the newspapers have been calling for improvements in the administration of the pension system, and in the several debates in the House of Commons, members of various shades of politics and representing constituencies from New Brunswick to British Columbia have called attention to many cases of hardships that have been brought to their notice in their own ridings. It is fortunate that a number of the members who have testified are members of the special committee and that there is also a good representation of returned soldiers. The question they are called upon to consider is one of the most important that any parliamentary committee has been asked to deal with, and Canadians generally will hope that as a result of their labours the much needed betterment of the pension conditions will be reached.

A NEW SERVICE.

The new service inaugurated by the Board of Trade in connection with the calling of public meetings, entertainments and other functions of the same kind is a further proof of the Board's desire to be of real help to the community. A Meeting Exchange Bureau is to be operated by the Board of Trade which will keep a record of all meetings arranged with a view to avoid conflicting dates and the confusion that often results when two or three gatherings are called for the one evening. The success of the Bureau obviously depends upon the extent to which the various associations and the public generally co-operate with the Board. Unless those who are responsible for calling meetings will notify the Bureau of the date and place of their particular gathering it is plain that the plan will not be of much avail. It is the hope of the Board that the service may be so perfected that it will be possible for any organization to telephone the bureau at any time and secure definite information as to what functions are called for any particular night. Often information of this kind is in demand, and as a rule is not forthcoming in time to prevent confusion, so that the new service of the Board of Trade promises to be of very real value.

YPRES TAG DAY.

Each year since the organization of the local branch of the Great War Veterans' Association a tag day has been held on the Saturday nearest to the anniversary of the second battle of Ypres for the purpose of securing funds with which to carry on the relief work of the Association. The response of the public has on each occasion been generous, and as a result the G.W.V.A. has been able to afford assistance in many cases of hardship and suffering among Peterborough's soldiers and the dependents of those who did not return. This year the annual tag day will not be conducted by the G.W.V.A. itself, but by the Ladies' Auxiliary who, during the past year, have carried on most of the relief work and have performed an admirable service in the sympathetic and tactful manner that seems to be natural with their sex. There are many calls upon their funds, many cases in which there would be privation and destitution were it not for the help that they are able to give. They therefore appeal confidently to the people of Peterborough for a continuation of their generous patronage on Tag Day, April 24th.

THE POLICE COMMISSION.

In connection with the bill introduced in the Legislature by the member for West Peterborough, providing for the election of police commissions in cities, the Examiner wishes to make its position plain. We are not, as has been charged, suffering from a delusion that if the proposed change takes place the police department will be under the control of the City Council. But we did advance the argument that in towns where the police are under the jurisdiction of the council there has usually been interference with the work of the officers and a force not as efficient as it should be, and that the experience of such places rendered it desirable that police departments should not be controlled by elected commissions. The cities, if Mr. Tooms' bill is passed, would simply be on the same footing as the towns and villages, with the difference that in the former case the department would be governed by elected commissioners, and in the latter by elected councillors. The objection exists in both cases that the control of the police would be a matter of municipal politics, a situation that is to be avoided if possible.

THE TRANSMITTER.

The first number of the "Peterborough Transmitter," published by the Peterborough Board of Trade, "to diffuse pertinent information of, in and for Peterborough," shows that those responsible for its publication have made an earnest and successful effort to live up to the objects as set forth above. The Transmitter, an eight page sheet, gives in concise and crisp language the story of the activities of the Board of Trade during the past year and deals with many questions at present under consideration, or that will be taken up in the near future. A sturdy confidence in the possibilities of Peterborough runs through every paragraph of the publication, and in a foreword, headed "A message to the citizens," the doctrine of a fully developed community spirit is urged upon the people.

"OTHER MEN'S SHOES" 50c. THE PAIR WHERE?

"Never before in the history of the city has the future been so promising and the possibilities so extensive. Developments during the past year give ample evidence as to the possibilities of the city's growth and industrial expansion. Peterborough, with its ideal location, good transportation facilities and cheap electrical energy, needs only the necessary "get-together" movement to make it the most attractive city of its size. The old idea of "wait and see" has been washed away by the tide of commercial and civic rivalry and it is now "see and act."

If we are to attain the objective which the city has long looked for, everybody must "get together, stay together, work together."

The Transmitter will be a welcome monthly visitor if it continues the breezy optimism that permeates its first issue.

THE MUNICIPAL INCOME TAX.

Recognizing the fact that the income tax notices sent out by City Assessor Henry, some three thousand in all it is stated, have mystified many of the recipients, especially as regards the question of exemption from such taxes, the Examiner the other day wrote Mr. R. R. Hall asking for an opinion as whether or not

"The income of any person derived from any investment or from money on deposit in any bank or other financial institution, or loaned on mortgages, promissory notes or other securities is liable to taxation if it does not exceed $800, and if the income of such person from all sources does not exceed $1500.

"I would therefore answer the question in your letter by stating that under the circumstances the party would be exempt from municipal taxation for income," is the conclusion reached by Mr. Hall, whose reply in full is given elsewhere in to-day's issue. His letter will be of great interest to many citizens, and the Examiner hopes that the information it contains will be beneficial to some of those who have been puzzled. At the same time it would be advisable for those whose cases are not covered by Mr. Hall's letter, and who are doubtful as to some point or other in regard to the matter to secure some legal advice on the subject.

THE USEFUL SCOUTS.

How many readers of the Examiner would know what first aid remedies to resort to in the case of an accident? If they had to attempt to resuscitate a person suffering from electric shock or from being nearly drowned, what steps would they take? If they were called upon to assist somebody who had fractured an arm or a leg would they only succeed in aggravating the injury? These and other similar questions occur in the realization of the feat accomplished by Master Bert Bugg, the young troop leader of Vimy Troop of Boy Scouts in passing with first class honours the examination for the First Aid and Accident requirements under the badge of a first-class Scout and also the examination for the St. John's Ambulance Proficiency Badge. For this youngster had to answer no fewer than eighty-one questions dealing with such subjects as have been mentioned, and his success demonstrates the beneficial results of the training that is being given the Boy Scouts. Knowledge of this kind makes every Scout an asset to the community, and the movement could have no finer advertisement than the fine showing of Troop Leader Bugg.

PARIS PLAYS MEAN TRICK ON UNWED GIRLS; TAXES 'EM.

PARIS, April 13.—A 10 per cent. tax on bachelors, "regardless of sex," has been decided on by the Finance Commission of the Chamber of Deputies. SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

SANDRA IS WORRIED.

CHAPTER XCVI.

I do not think it possible to make one understand my feelings when I thought of what Everett had told me of Irma Barton—how I was torn that Everett had told me of his association with her, pity for her ruined life. Then, all suddenly, a great overwhelming jealousy of Irma Barton took possession of me—a far more disturbing jealousy than any I had before experienced.

Why had Everett told me of his knowledge, of the rumors which had so hurt me for three years? If he had known, why had he not told me before Was I to hear something yet more maddening? Had he taken this way to forestall the gossip? I hated myself for the thought, yet it persisted. Was I to blame? Should I have gone to him when I first heard his name linked with that of Irma Barton and demanded what it meant?

"Oh, if only I were older!" I said aloud, the same old plaint which I had constantly voiced since my marriage.

Of one thing I was certain. In my hurt anger I resolved never to have anything more to do with the woman with whom my husband's name was linked—whether innocently or not. I felt a curious sort of fatalism in connection with her, as if she would bring me trouble and sorrow. Yet in spite of myself, I not only admired, but I liked her. I felt as if I were being warned of danger ahead without any means to combat that danger.

Long afterward when I thought of this species of brain storm I went thru at that time, I thought of the old well-worn epigram—thought of it because of Everett's patience and forbearance:

"Heaven help you, madam, if your husband does not love you because of your foibles instead of in spite of them."

Everett at this time certainly had no other reason to love me.

Just one week after my accident I was once more up and dressed. Rose had accepted my invitation, and had promised to be with me on my birthday, She had hintingly said something about being wanted, but as I recalled her hurried retreat on her previous visit, I could scarcely blame her, so replied in a way to put her at ease:

"Everett suggested I write and invite you, so don't worry over your welcome. Barrett Edmonds is also back in town ,and has called. I know he is looking forward to seeing you again. I told him you were coming."

Really I couldn't blame Rose. It had been awfully embarrassing for her as well as for me when Everett had been so stern and cross. But he rarely assumed that manner nowadays, and I made myself believe he would not be so severe now even if the same thing happened.

"He cares a little more for me now," I would say aloud, getting comfort from the sounds of the words.

It was a real gala day for me when I ate my dinner downstairs with Everett for the first time after my accident. Had I known of the long inquisitorial conversation ahead of me, I might not have been quite so happy.

But Everett seemed to enter into my spirit of joy, and we laughed and talked as we seldom did. I thought, and once came very near saying it—I would have been terribly chagrined if I had—that we were just like a boy and girl of the same age. It always seemed to hurt Everett when I spoke of his age, as it did me when he referred to mine. It was really rather ludicrous—only then I didn't see it— I wanted to be older. he was anxious to appear young, I for his sake, he for mine.

After dinner Barrett Edmonds called. Then Alice Sloane and her husband came in. We had a really jolly evening, and Everett was so nice that I couldn t help telling him so after they were gone. Then, too, no one had referred to the 'first Mrs. Graham' which was quite unusual. Most of our callers failed to leave until they had done so.

"I have been so happy tonight."

"We are all glad you are able to be downstairs again," Everett answered, and I noticed that Mrs. Gray and James fairly beamed.

"It is nice that they like me," I returned, and went happily to bed, never dreaming that all my good feeling was to be changed and my happiness in Everett's new attitude destroyed.

(To be Continued.)

TO TAKE UP PENSION REQUEST OF G.W.V.A.

COMMITTEE TO CONSIDER AMENDMENTS TO PENSION ACT.

OTTAWA, April 13. — When the special committee on Pensions and Re-establishment meets to-day it is expected to have before it several proposed amendments to the Pensions Act which have been drafted by the members of the Board of Pensions Commissioners. Just what these proposed changes are has not yet been divulged.

Members of the Board have stated they will give no inkling of the changes until their proposals have been placed before the committee.

The Great War Veterans' Association, through its secretary, C. G. MacNeil, will, it is stated, introduce before the committee the resolution on pensions which was passed at the annual meeting of the association in Montreal, and as the committee sittings progres will introduce evidence showing the need of better pension regulations for the former Canadian soldiers and their dependents.

Says Pensions Inadequate.

The resolution passed at Montreal sets forth that the pensions now granted to widows and dependent parents of former C. E. F. men are inadequate to provide for pensioners living according to the accepted standards of the country; that there now exists a difference in the scale of disability pensions determined by the previous rank of the pensioner: that deductions have been made because of the possession of certain assets or income by pensions; and that it is against the principles of genuine re-establishment to discontinue the payment of pensions to major amputation cases during the process of re-establishment training.

It further asks that the pension of a widow without children be $75 per month, with an additional $25 in the case of a dependent child, without regard to income from any other source, and that the scale of pensions for disabled pensions be fixed at the monthly rate of $1 per one per cent. of disability. The Veterans further ask that a former member of the forces suffering from 100 per cent. disability be granted a yearly allowance of $500 in addition to pensions, for payment of an attendant where such is required.

Would Equalize All.

Among other changes, it is asked that the principle that all pensions should be equalized without consideration of rank, be re-affirmed in accordance with the requirements set forth in the resolution. It is further asked that pensions resident in the United Kingdom shall receive the benefit of the exchange rate instead of that being retained by the Government.

The G.W.V.A. also asks that in the case of dependents who are now receiving by way of charity, allowances in respect to the death of soldiers who died subsequent to discharge, these allowances be continued for ten years.

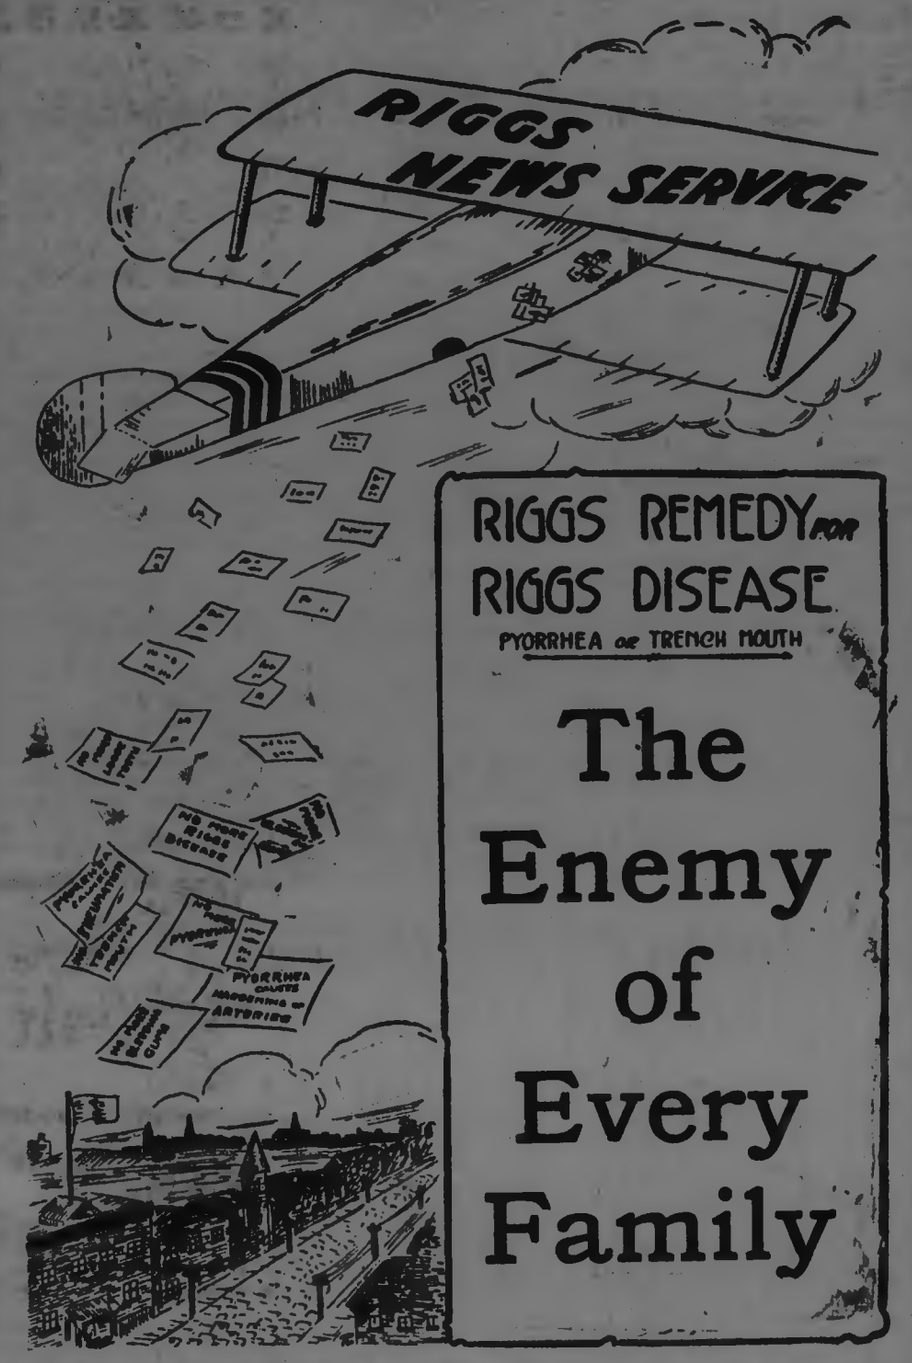
The Veterans further ask that the discrimination now existing through the placing of insanity cases in three categories be discontinued, and the regulations now applied to Class "A" be applicable to the three classes specified in the order-in-council.

It is proposed by the G.W.V.A. to introduce evidence as the sittings proceed, to support their claim that the present regulations are inadequate.

THE LAST DAYS OF QUEEN ELIZABETH

DESIRED NO OTHER THAN A ROYAL SUCCESSOR

The last days of Queen Elizabeth formed a dark close to an illustrious reign. Tradition has ascribed the profound melancholy with which she was afflicted to compunction for the fate of Essex her last favourite, who had been executed for rebellion; but probably disease and old age were sufficient causes. At all events, it is certain that she spent her time in a gloomy apathy, from which nothing could rouse her. Then it became evident that the end drew near, the Council deputed the Keeper, Admiral, and Secretary to learn her will as to the successor, and she answered in a faint voice that he had held a regal sceptre and desired no other than a royal successor. On Cecil desiring her to be more explicit, she added that she would have none but a king to succeed her, and who should that be but her nearest kinsman the King of Scots? Then the Archbishop of Canterbury advised her to fix her thoughts on God ;to which she replied that she did so, nor did her mind in the least wander from Him. Soon afterwards, her voice left her; her senses failed; and she lapsed into a lethargic slumber, which lasted for some hours and from which she did not emerge, expiring without struggle or convulsion on March 24, 1603, in the seventieth year of her age, and the forty-fifth of her reign. Calumny and adulation alike have drawn strange caricatures of her character, but posterity, while admitting her faults, recognizes the difficulties faced and overcome by her, and justly has awarded to her the title of a great Queen, while the era to which she has given her name, ranks, particularly for its literary achievements, as one of the greatest in our annals. It is to Elizabeth that we owe complete freedom of religious opinion; she restored the coin of the realm to its just value; settled the state of the kingdom, and became a terror to Europe. It was her policy to select ministers of ability, but weak will, and whilst she listened to their counsels, never allower herself to be overruled, sifting every person's qualifications through her mental sieve and, as she was undoubtedly gifted with remarkable penetration her judgment seldom failed. Her emissaries searched all known countries for the picturesque national garb of the people, for Elizabeth loved dress to a greater degree than any other queen. After her death three thousand various robes, collected during the five and forty years of her reign, were found in her numerous wardrobes.



RIGGS NEWS SERVICE
RIGGS REMEDY FOR RIGGS DISEASE
PYORRHEA or TRENCH MOUTH
The Enemy of Every Family
NO MORE RIGGS DISEASE
PYORRHEA CAUSES HARDENING OF ARTERIES

Yes, even in your family there is some member who, consciously or unconsciously, is harbouring the germs of pyorrhoea—the worst enemy of mankind, because hitherto it has been the least understood. Its ways are not the ways of other diseases. Its symptoms in the early stages are so slight that they are frequently overlooked, and when the gums become increasingly tender the cause is wrongfully attributed to a disordered stomach. Other symptoms follow—anaemia, rheumatism, hardening of the arteries, and in the majority of cases these conditions are treated without recognition of the probable origin in the little cavities at the roots of the teeth.

Many a baby is born into the world with the germs of pyorrhoea in its system. Inconsiderate parents say that it is natural for children to cry, but there are no tears without a reason behind them, there is no pain without a cause.

Nature does not in the early stages of pyrrhoea offer you any violent symptoms of the presence of disease, but that the gums are tender and inflamed should be sufficient. In the later stages of the disease, the symptoms are frequently not of a local character, coming in the form of swollen joints of the hands, knees and ankles, a pinched anaemic face, general debility, irregular heart action and a hundred other ways that, to the unscientific mind, are never associated with disease of the gums.

There was a time when the medical and dental professions paid little attention to this ghastly disease. So little was known of its far-reaching effects that thousands of precious lives paid the penalty of ignorance, and their passing was attributed to anything but the rightful cause. Thanks to the successful efforts of Dr. Riggs, in his forty years of experiment and research as a leading Canadian dentist, pyorrhoea no longer requires painful treatment with uncertain results.

Dr. Riggs has made a life study of this disease—known to physicians as Riggs' disease—he has treated thousands of cases effectually where others had abandoned hope of establishing a remedy, he has brought health and happiness to patients who have come to him from all parts of this continent in even the most advanced stages of the disease.

Because the early symptoms of pyorrhoea are not extremely painful, don't neglect them. Learn what it means to you to be free of this dread disease. Dr. Riggs' booklet, "The Inheritance," shows you the history and symptoms of this and also the means of a painless treatment in the privacy of your home.

Write for the booklet to-day.

Warsaw Correspondence

WARSAW, April 14.—The regular meeting of the U.F.O. was held in the Town Hall, Wednesday evening. $20.00 was voted to help the School Fair. The U.F.O. wants to help in the school work and education all it possibly can. Their meetings are regularly held in the Town Hall the first Wednesday evening of each month.

Women's Institute.

The Warsaw Women's Institute held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon. The attendance was below the average. Several subjects were discussed. Every woman present considered consolidated schools necessary now and that the time is ripe for getting to work and so far as possible they will endeavour to find out how the whole sections in this neighborhood stand. There are several schools in this district now that really are not up even to present government standards and should not have grants.

The memorial fund also was discussed and all present were of the opinion that the project should be carried out and that those opposed were very few. Some of the largest taxpayers in the township are more than willing to have the full amount come out of the taxes.

$10 was voted towards the School Fair and the district representative is again being reminded that it is necessary for the teachers to have prize lists by May 1st.

The subject for the day was: "A Flower as the National Emblem of Canada." No particular flower was mentioned, but characteristics possessed by or desired by Canadians were spoken of and the flower which is our emblem should have the same.

The subject for the next meeting is a roll call on "Canadian authors." Each member is to reply to her name by a selection, prose or poetry from a Canadian author. The members of the executive are responsible that the women in their districts come prepared. The Canadian Home Journal always has some splendid articles by some of Canada's best writers.

Practically nothing was done in the sugar bushes last week. Those who work in the sugar bush will fully appreciate the articles on "Sugar Making by Peter McArthur.

WERE DISGUSTED.

Six Englishmen sent out by the Church Army were expected in the neighborhood last week. Two of them arrived on Thursday afternoon. After seeing the country and the roads (they were brought down the near road from Lakefield to Warsaw, it was with difficulty they were persuaded to have supper and remain over night.

IN THE CHURCHES

There were the regular services in the Methodist Church last Sunday.

Rev. Jull, of Lakefield, occupied the Presbyterian pulpit on Sunday and read the announcement proclaiming the pulpit vacant. He went to Cotersloe in the afternoon.

Ther were services in the Baptist Church yesterday but many did not know there would be and did not go.

Master Hiram Anderson visited friends in Peterboro a few days last week.

Miss Windsor is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. MacIlvena.

Rev. Hugh Brown spent Sunday in Norwood.

Master Grover Choate visited his grandmother in Peterboro last week.

Miss Ada Dunford spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Bowen.

Mr. Allan Taylor spent the week-end at his home.

The plaque is an artistic bronze plaque of emblematic design, measures 4 3-4 inches in diameter and 1-8 of an inch thick, and will bear the deceased's Christian name and surname and regiment.

The letter from His Majesty, mentioning the regulations governing the award, is a note, signed by the King and bearing the crest of Buckingham Palace. It reads: "I join with my grateful people in sending you this memorial of a brave life given for others in the Great War."

The date of the end of the war for the purpose of the issue of this award is the 10th of January 1920.

MOVEMENT FOR CHEAPER CLOTHES

OVERALLS ARE BECOMING POPULAR

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 14.—Birmingham newspaper publishers have flatly denied the request of a committee of retail clothiers that news of the "overall" movement throughout the South be suppressed on the ground that it was damaging the retail clothing business.

The publishers informed the clothiers' committee that their papers would continue to report the overall movement, which they considered legitimate news.

The "Tampa idea" of wearing overalls as a means of fighting the high cost of clothing, which originated in the city bearing that name, has spread to many cities throughout the South, where business and professional men, as well as other workers, are going about in blue. It was reported here on Saturday that when the demand for overalls began, some retailers raised the prices from $2.00 to $6.00 pair.

Mass meetings and public demonstrations are being held in connection with the movement in many places throughout the South. It was reported to-day that there were 4,000 members of the Overall Club in Birmingham alone, all pledged to wear blue.

RICE LAKE INDIANS WILL SELL PELTS BY AUCTION

HAVE 15,000 MUSKRATS AND EXPECT TORONTO AND PETERBORO BUYERS TO SUBMIT BIDS---PRICE IS REPORTED DOWN 75c BY LOCAL JOBBERS.

TRAPPERS MAY LOSE

Holding their muskrat pelts for a "long pull," to use an expression of the stock market, instead of "taking their profits" at what in retrospect seems to have been the peak, the Rice Lake Indians have arranged to sell their season's catch by auction at Hiawatha on Friday, and from reliable sources it is learned that the price has dropped from $5 to $4.25.

Not all the trappers have joined the group who decided to emulate the methods of the Canadian fur auction recently held at Montreal. From the information received, some of them, after consulting local dealers with whom they had done business for years, decided to sell at $5 a pelt, delivering them weekly. As a result they have disposed of all their skins, but the other trappers on both sides of the lake have some 1500 pelts to offer the buyers, who will include not only Peterborough men but some from Toronto. It is understood that the sale will be by sealed bids on Friday afternoon, but with the decline in price reported on Monday one dealer who has loaded up with nearly four thousand muskrat skins, stated that he would probably attend the sale but was not eager to bid for the 1,500 that have been held for a top price. He said he had all the rats he could handle, and although satisfied at having paid the $5 which has prevailed up to this week, he was not interested in taking any more at the lower level.

If the auction fails to attract a five dollar price the Indians who held out until near the close of the season expecting a further upward swing will experience some of the bitterness that comes to stock traders when hanging on hopefully for a higher level, they discover that their forecasts discounted the bear forces, and that they have to unload at a lower pride and take their losses instead of gains.

Facing a Serious Loss.

The reports of a declining market were doubly verified by several of Peterboorugh's prominent furriers.

"We are now paying $4 a pelt and the price may go lower," said one dealer. "The drop was not unexpected, but we have bought a large supply at the five dollar price."

The obvious inference is that dealers at the present time, unless there is a subsequent recovery in the market price, are facing a serious loss. The local purchases run into thousands of pelts, and at to-day's quotations every pelt bought before this week represents the loss of one dollar to the buyer. While an accurate estimate of the total sales already made is not available it may not be an exaggeration to place the total loss to the trade at $10,000, that is under the sudden and rapid decline of the last three days.

MANY SHOT DEAD DURING RIOTING

Soldiers Got Beyond Control of their Officers.

(Canadian Press.)

ESSEN, April 14.—Twenty-six persons were shot dead and two seriously wounded by members of the Reichswer who got beyond the control of their officers last week in the triangular district between Botrop, Essen and Mulheim according to statement made by Col. Von. Baumbach, Reichswehr commander. Troops were incensed by reports that Red Army had mistreated prisoners and also by abolition of military tribunals by orders of Berlin Authorities.

MYSTERY SOLDIER ADMITS IDENTITY

HIS NERVE BROKE DOWN IN FACE OF ARRAY OF EVIDENCE.

TORONTO, April 14.—Confronted by an unanswerable array of evidence in Toronto Jail yesterday, the "mystery soldier" admitted that he was George Denaham, four times convicted on charges of sneak thieving, according to a statement made last night by Dominion Immigration Officer J. G. Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell said that within the next day or so he would institute a Board of Inquiry as provided for under the new immigration regulations and it is probable that Denaham will be on his way back to England whither he was deported in 1915, within a week or so.

Yesterday a telegram was received from Ottawa, stating that a comparison had shown the finger prints of the man in custody here to be identical with those of George Denaham on record at the Immigration headquarters. On top of that Mayor MacBride, M.P.P., of Brantford, brought a deputation of citizens of that city with whom the supposed soldier had said he worked, to Toronto. Two of the visitors, Messrs. G. McKlin and A. Lundy, both of the Massey-Harris Company's Brantford plant, positively identified the man as having worked as a checker under Mr. Lundy, under the name of Arnold Denham, Miss Nellie Diamond, also of Brantford, who knew Denaham in Exeter, England, where he was born, brought photos of places and people in Exeter all of which he readily named.

Subsequently Denaham's remarkable nerve broke down, Mr. Mitchell stated, and he admitted that he was Denaham. He was not disposed to own Denaham's record, however, and declared that he wanted the officials to "get me out of here." He asked to be removed from the jail as soon as possible, as the food there was not to his liking.

The immigration officer is very much disposed to believe that Denaham's "paralysis" is much more assumed than actual and that his illness is shammed.

For gums, biscuits and cake the flour and baking powder should always be sifted together five times.

DR. G. CLINTON GAVE ADDRESS

At the second showing of "The End of the Road" at the Allen Theatre last night, Dr. George Clinton of Belleville, District M.O.H., spoke briefly highly endorsing the picture, its educational merits and the campaign it is linked up with to combat venereal diseases and the clinics it is proposed to establish throughout Canada to fight this fourth scourge disease. The policy of the government in voting $500,000 towards this end was highly commended and the good that will result out of the establishment of clinics eulogized.

Ex-Mayor G. H. Duncan in a few words endorsed the film and the campaign being carried on by the National Council for combatting venereal disease.

The picture has been greeted by a crowded house on every showing and all who have seen it are unstinted in their praise of it as an educational feature.

PROFITEER ENDS HIS LIFE WHEN ARRESTED

POLICE OF NEW YORK HAD PENETRATED HIS PRICE CODE.

NEW YORK, April 13. — Arrested on Saturday by the Department of Justice flying squadron, whose members said his "God Help Us," price code proved him a profiteer, Joseph Nichthauser, the proprietor of one of Brooklyn's best known haberdasheries, killed himself yesterday.

His is said to be the first suicide resulting from the Government's war on profiteering.

Nichthauser was seized in his store at Court and Montague streets, opposite Borough Hall, and then taken to the Federal Building. He was released on $2000 bail, and went home silent and brooding. He kept his arrest a secret from his wife and his three children until they read it in the afternoon papers.

Was Found Dead.

When he and his wife Regina retired, Mrs. Nichthauser tried to get him to discuss the case with her. Though he tossed wakefully all night he would not say a word about it. At last Mrs. Nichthauser rose to prepare breakfast. No sooner had she stepped from the room than Nichthauser seized a pistol which his family now think he had kept concealed all night under his pillow, put the muzzle to his forehead and pressed the trigger. His wife then rushed to the room but it was too late. A physician hurried to the room, but said he was dead

Made Big Profits.

Nichthauser's arrest followed an investigation which Edward Williams and Shelby Williams, members of the flying squad, said showed that besides paying himself a salary of $6,000 a year he had made a profit of $17,000 a year on a limited capital.

The agents learned that the price code with which he marked his goods at their wholesale cost was "God help us X," each letter standing for a numeral from 1 to 9, the X being a zero. They examined raincoats in a window and said they were marked "OO" and "DD" showing that they had cost $22 and $33 each. Then they selected a coat marked "OO" said they wanted to buy it, and asked the price. Nichthauser, they reported, demanded $45, more than 100% profit for it. Thereupon the agents charged him with violating the Lever Act and arrested him.

ST. PAUL'S CHOIR CONCERT

In their annual concert last night St. Paul's church choir gave a highly creditable and satisfying performance. Departing from the not infrequent practice of engaging such artists as the Adanac Quartette, whose talents and attractive powers assured both a musical and finacial success, the choir depended this year upon its own resources and, without attempting a pretentious choral work, entertained a fairly large audience with a varied programme that was uniformly pleasing.

Mr. Frank Tattersall, the conductor of the choir, and organist, refrained too from enlisting the aid of soloists from the other churches to improve the occasion, preferring to afford his own vocalists the opportunity of displaying their abilities in a public recital and under conditions somewhat different to those to which they are accustomed.

The choral numbers were the features of the concert. In other words the honours of the evening must be given to the conductor and his organization rather than to any of the soloists. The thirty voices blended smoothly, and with surprising depth and body. There were fine effects of shading, especially in "Saviour, Thy Children Keep," in which the choir responded to the test of soft piano passages and broke into a sweeping crescendo in which its full power was loosed. Its volume was perhaps more strikingly displayed in the concluding anthem, "Arm Soldiers of the Lord." The anthem in the first part "Morning and Evening" was also exacting, and in this and the other numbers the harmonies were rich, the enunciation good and precision never faltered. The uniform development of the choir was noteworthy; all the essential qualities were present enhanced by intelligent reading of the conductor's interpretation. Mr. Tattersall's leadership of the choir seemed more appealing than his organ solos, largely for the reason that his choice of choral subjects were happier than in his instrumental numbers. His first selection was "Sunrise and Sunset on the Alps," obviously descriptiove, and the second was a "Russian Patrol," likewise descriptive, but portraying action rather than panorama and an Alpine scene.

Mr. Tattersall literally responded to an insistent encore to the latter number by repeating it. Evidently his audience appreciated his musical "movie" of a march past, but some organs do not yield the same vividness with which concert bands play patrols. The Alpine representation was unfolded with skilfull and sympathetic touches, the recurring motif threading through the successive scenes and over the entire range of the instrument from the pedals to the farthest keys. Mr. Tattersall's accompaniments to the vocal soloists could not have been improved. His restraint actually heightened the effect, and his appreciation of the thought was never at fault.

Of the vocalists special mention should be made of Mrs. Frank Ellis. She possesses a strong and pleasing contralto, luscious in its lower tones, and always in good command. Her technique is also notable. Mrs. R. W. F. Davidson and Miss Hinchliffe, soprani, were also prominent. Mr. Humpage vocally showed decided development, although there was a suggestion of a tremolo from which he has always been free. If the criticism may be offered, Mr. Humpage would make a better impression if he sang without notes, or with only one sheet. His unconscious handling of the pages tended to detract from the effect of his singing. It is scarcely a fault, and can be easily avoided.

Miss Hazel Davidson's recitations were a bright feature. She has pronounced histrionic ability, her expression is natural and her enunciation is clear in its imitations. She is graceful, reserved and convincing in her portrayals and is endowed with a gift that invites its fullest development.

HAD ECZEMA For Over 28 Years

Eczema or Salt Rheum manifests itself in little round blisters, which contain an extremely irritating fluid. These break and subsequently a crust is formed, and the intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the part is exposed to any strong heat is almost unbearable.

The success which Burdock Blood Bitters has met with in skin diseases of such severity is due to its wonderful blood cleansing and purifying properties, and we know of no other remedy that has done or can do, so much for those who are almost driven to distraction with the terrible torture.

Mr. James Walker, 182 Niagara St. Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I have been using Burdock Blood Bitters for some months past, and find it an excellent remedy for skin eruptions. I have suffered with eczema for over 28 years, and have tried almost everything you could think of. I was recommended to use Burdock Blood Bitters, and I am now clear of my skin trouble. It is certainly a good remedy and I shall recommend it to all my friends."

A WOMAN WAS BURNED TO DEATH

STRANGE CASE OF SUPERSTITION IN ENGLAND.

As recently as Monday, March 25, 1895, five men were tried on a charge of having in the British Isles burned to death a woman, because they believed her to be a witch, on the 15th of that month. This crime was committed at Ballyvadlea, near Clonmel, a market and assize town on the borders of the counties Tipperary and Waterford, in Ireland. The woman was Bridget Cleery, aged only twenty-seven, the wife of one of the murderers, who were not, however, condemned to execution, but on July 5 her husband was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment, and the others on various terms of such confinement. On Sept. 17, 1875 an old woman, named Ann Turner, was killed as a witch at Long Compton, in Warwickshire, but in this case the murderer was half mad. But on August 4, 1863 at Castle Hedingham, in Essex, a poor old deaf and dumb Frenchman was ducked as a wizard, having practised fortune-telling to a little extent, but refusing to heal the ailments of his neighbors. A mob of small shopkeepers and women, of whim two were tried as the ring-leaders, had half suffocated him in a ditch, and then struck him severly. In 1602 after the restoration of Charles the 2nd, Sir Matthew Hale, the eminent barrister and judge, condemned for witchcraft two women, who were therefore burned to death About 1676 at least seventeen persons were thus burned at St. Osyth's parish in Essex, for this and other offences. In 1706 two pretended witches were execute at Northampton, and five others seven years afterwards, and in 1716, Mrs. Hicks and her daughter, aged nine years, were hanged for witchcraft at Huntingdon. The law of Moses decreed "Thou shalt not suffer a witch to live" (Exodus xxii. 18.) But when in 1736, during the reign of George the Second an old woman was accused of this crime, the British law was repealed and abolished.

ATTEMPTED STAGE HOLD-UP.

Robber's Bullets Saved Mails, Says Northern Ontario Driver.

COBALT, April 13. — Alex. Demarco, driver of the mail stage between Gowganda and Wigwam, says a lone bandit made an attempt to hold him up by firing a couple of shots at the coach. The first scared the horses, started them running, and probably saved the coach. The Provincial Police are investigating.

A SURE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

THISTLES ROUNDING UP A STAR TEAM

"HAP" HARRISON, SWANSTON, KIRN AND HOLYMAN AMONG THOSE ALREADY SIGNED UP.

Manager Louis Yeotes and his Thistles promise to cut a wide swath in the City League this season, judging by the calibre of the players whose autographs have been already attached to Thistle certificates. Manager Yeotes has secured Max Swanston to do the back-stopping for his team, while he is well supplied with twirling strength in "Hap" Harrison, who pitched for the Moose team in Toronto last year, and Howard Kirn, box artist of last year's Peterborough Central League team. Tommy, Holyman, shortstop of the Matthews-Blackwell team last season, has also signed with the Thistles, as have Cunningham, Shaughnessy and Butcher, who were all members of last year's City League champions. Several of last year's Orientals will also be with the Thistles, who will probably line up with the pick of the strength of the two leading teams of last year's League. The other City League managers had better step lively, for the Thistle aggregation looms up, on paper at least, as a dangerous combination.

ADDRESS ON THE NAVY LEAGUE BY COL. G. WILLIAMS

MR. J. J. DUFFUS OCCUPIED THE CHAIR—OBJECT OF LEAGUE.

The basic idea of co-operation with the Navy League for the good of Canada was the message brought to the city by Lieut.-Colonel G. C. Williams, who gave an interesting illustrated address on the "Surrender of the German Navy," in the Great War Veterans Hall last evening, under the auspices of the Navy League.

The speaker was introduced to the large and representative audience by Mr. J. J. Duffus, who, in presenting Colonel Williams, pointed out that after the experience of the past five five years it would be folly to elaborate on the Navy League. It is, he said, a well recognised fact that but for the Navy of Great Britain the country would undoubtedly have ceased to exist. He referred in conclusion to the interest the city and the City Council had taken in the Navy League during the War.

Harvest of Protection.

Colonel Williams drew the attention of his audience to the fact that had the British public never given thought to the extension of the Navy years ago, the present generation would not have reaped the harvest of protection during the War. The British Navy had to be constructed to go the world over and comfortable quarters had to be provided for the men, while the German navy had the benefit of using practically all space in the ships for armament, its longest objective being England.

After showing some very interesting slides of the German Navy before and after its ignoble surrender, the speaker dwelt upon the lamentable scarcity of men to man the merchant marine, and upon the merchant seamen's wonderful record during the War, every one in the British Isles having, though the most poorly paid men in the Empire, rallied to the call to the colours at the outbreak of the War. Not one merchant sailor refused to go to sea. He also showed photos of Sailors' Homes throughout the Dominion kept up by the Navy League, and of the part Canada, through the League, is playing to-day in materially showing her gratitude to the Empire's sailor heroes.

Patriotism.

Patriotism, he continued, is not merely shouting hurrah to the flag. It is a passion to uplift. A practical demonstration of true patriotism Col. Williams found was in a penitentiary in the United States where after speaking to the prisoners on the subject of the Navy, the sum of $1038.36 was contributed by the men, collected from their daily pay of one and a half cents a day.

Develop Boy Life.

With a number of clear slides the speaker showed Canadian boys, to whom Admiral Beatty recently paid a warm tribute, in training for the Navy. He stated that at the different training stations in the Dominion there are classes of boys numbering from 39 to 450. He referred, in conclusion—after making a stirring appeal for assistance for the Navy League in order to develop the boy life of the Dominion and make men of the lads — to the well-rewarded efforts of the Navy League in England, who laboured to bring the Navy, the safeguard of the nation, to the perfection it stood at when challenged by the Germans.

Musical Programme.

Previous to Colonel Williams' address, a short musical programme was given, to which Mr. Harold Follis contributed a piano solo and Mr. Walter Batley some vocal selections, which were thoroughly appreciated.

NEW CITIZENS FOR PETERBORO

CONTINGENT OF SCOTSMEN REACH THE CITY.

A large number of Scotsmen arrived in the city on Monday from the suburbs of Glasgow, Whitelnch, Scotland. They are a fine specimen of manhood and will in due course become very desirable citizens to Canada. Many of the young men will be employed in the various factories throughout the city.

The Caledonian Club will extend a very hearty welcome to these young men if they call at the Woodmen of the World Hall, to-night at 8 o'clock.

Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, April 13. — President Wilson to-day called a meeting of the Cabinet for to-morrow to discuss the general situation.

This is the first Cabinet meeting called by the President since he returned from his western trip last September, "a very sick man." Since his illness he has seen only a few members of his official family.

FI-FI OF THE TOY SHOP STARTED MONDAY EVENING.

Nearly all of the principal characters have been seelcted for Fi Fi of the Toy Shop, which is to be given here April 29-30, under the auspices of the Belmont Club. More than 200 will participate in the play, which is in the nature of a musical extravaganza. An elaborate costuming and scenic equipment is provided by the John B. Rogers Producing Co., of Ohio, under whose direction the production is staged.

Many well known people will take part in the cast and chorus groups. A number of spectacular dances will be introduced ,all of which are said to be decidedly clever and unique. Mr. Allen, the director, arrived Monday, April 12th, and rehearsals are well on the way. Committees and chaperones have been formed and everyone is most enthusiastic over the coming production.

"THE END OF THE ROAD" AT THE ALLEN THEATRE

To-day and to-morrow are the last two days o fthe engagement of the stirring photo-drama, "The End of the Road," which has been attended by such large houses since the beginning of the week. Claire Adams, the beautiful Canadian star, who appears in this production with Richard Bennett, has won her place in the affections of local photoplay patrons, who are likely to see her in the near future in he rlatest production, which is still in the making.

After viewing a private screening of this film, says Dr. E. A. Hammond: "It is a picture that should prove of great benefit to the general public because it puts before them plain facts that everybody should know, and I am sure will give everybody who sees it something to think of."

Be sure to make it a point to see this wonderful drama.—Matinee 2.15, evening 6.45 and 9.

AT THE EMPIRE

Showing at the Empire to-night is a feature of unusual educational merit and a picture that will linger long in the minds of all who see it. It is Anita Stewart in the Sins of the Mothers. Anita's mother is a gambling fiend and through her mania for cards and gaming wrecks her home and her husband's life. Even after her husband's death the evil still clings to her and eventually she becomes proprietress of a fashionable gaming resort. Her daughter is sent away to a convent where she remains until she becomes of age when she returns home.

The innocent young girl is led into the same evil which destroyed her father's home and like her parent is soon a slave to his vicious habit. Her mother is broken hearted over her daughter's downfall and her fiance, the part of whom is carried by Earle Williams, Seemingly love conquers and their marriage takes place but again the mania attacks her and she is soon swept into deeper water with debt comes temptations. She dares not confess to her husband and in despair steals her mother's pearls and pawns them in a last effort to get out even. But she fails and at last goes to her husband confessing everything.

She makes good and true love finally conquers the vicious habit. It is a picture that shows how one of the greatest evils of the day flourishes and undermines the homes of the people causing untold misery and suffering and it is a feature that should be seen by a crowded house to-night.

Elaine Hammerstein "In Greater Than Fame" tells in an appealing picture of pitfalls facing a young girl in seeking a musical career and with Wallace Reid in the leading role makes an interesting picture. The excellent program is balanced up with a Canadian Government scenic that is exceedingly interesting and educative and completes one of the best programmes the Empire has had for some time.

CLOAK OF SECRECY WILL BE REMOVED

TO MAKE RADICAL CHANGE IN THE SYSTEM OF ISSUING MARRIAGE LICENSES.

TORONTO, April 13.—A radical change in the system of issuing marriage licenses in Ontario was forecasted by the Government in the House yesterday when it was intimated, during consideration of a bill introduced by Dr. Stevenson of London, that the Government proposed to take out of the hands of jewellers and others the privilege of issuing marriage licenses and placing it in the hands of municipal clerks. This method wil lbe taken in the smaller municipalities, while in cities it is expected that it will be possible to provide posts for returned soldiers.

This was as far as members of the Government went during the discussion. But the reception given a suggestion that the records be open to the public gave reason for the assumption that henceforth in Ontario there will be no cloak of secrecy around the issuing of marriage licenses.

The matter was brought before the House by the London member who proposed that persons now holding the privilege of issuing marriage licenses be left undisturbed, but that no additional persons be authorized His bill provided that all municipal clerks be ex-officio officers to issue licenses, receiving a fee of 25c for each license issued.

SUGAR BARRELS WHICH HAD LIQUID CONTENTS.

GALT, Ont., April 14.—Albert Lehman, 90 Weber Street, cartage man; Edgar Zuber, and Emil Friedman, 27 Rose Street, baggage agent, charged with breaking and entering a sealed car and stealing nine sugar barrels, each containing a ten-gallon keg of whisky, and John J. Forbes, 49 Elby Street, Grand River Railway agent, charged with being an accomplice, all of Kitchener, apneared before Police Magistrate J. R. Blake here, and were remanded to the 19th, and each released on $2,000.00 bail.

For some time past merchandise, chiefly liquor, has been disappearing from freight cars at Kitchener, and last night Detectives Harner and Gordon, of the C.P.R., caught three men in the act of breaking into a car and unloading nine barrels. When they completed the job they were arrested, and men and booze brought to the police station. The shipment was addressed to McCulloch.

GERMAN PRICES ARE IMPROVING

FOOD CONDITIONS GROW WORSE AND HEALTH OF PEOPLE CONTINUES TO DECLINE.

BERLIN, April 14.—Financial circles in Berlin are recovering their spirits. The mark continues to improve. Today's closing quotation on the Exchange was 316 to the pound sterling. Before the Kapp coup it stood steadily at rather more than 300. The Kapp gamble and the disorders consequent on it have, of course, very greatly restricted imports, and that, prominent bankers assure me, is probably the main reason to the improvement in the rate.

"Perhaps foreign countries see," declares the financial editor of the Berliner Tageblatt, "that the glowing embers of militarism can now be dennitely extinguished. The disorders which had long threatened from the Right and the Left broke loose at one and the same time, and in both cases they have been put down. Now there is more hope of development and consolidation."

Another good sign is the drop in price of some important raw materials, such as copper. But the fall in the mark has been accompanied by an all-around rise in prices and by the exhaustion of some necessaries. There is little or no coal and there has not been a single briquette to be had. The price of leather has increased enormously. Yesterday I paid the nominal equivalent of £3 10s. for soling. Men's shoes simply do not exist. Shoes from the United States costing there from $8 to $10 fetch 1,100 marks, nominally £55, here.

As for food the whole position is decidedly worse than a year ago. Imported foodstuffs are three times dearer than six months ago. Indeed there are few things necessary for the ordinary life which are not dearer here than in London in spite of the rate of exchange. The physical condition of the people, especially the children, goes from bad to worse.

At least 25 per cent. of Berlin's children between 1 and 14 years are badly underfed. In the city's schools 100,000 children are, according to the latest statistics compiled by the authorities, so underfed as to be unfit to receive instruction. At a great hospital the doctors report that a number of cases of rickets has developed and the number of cases of tuberclosis among children trebled in the last fe wmonths. Of 485,000 Berlin children 29,000 are suffering from tuberclosis, and according to the same neutral authorities 77,000 are suffering from various illnesses brought on by long underfeeding, while 120,000 are described as badly underfed.

In January the figures for forty-three big towns of Germany were stated to be over 200,000 children suffering from tuberclosis and nearly 850,000 ill and badly underfed. All great towns report a big increase in the death rate.

MEN WHO HAVE MARRYING MANIAS

Kid McCoy, the famous boxer, is a hero of the ring in a double sense, in that he is just getting married for the seventh time.

The mystic number seven, by the way, seems to be about the limit in matrimonial ventures as regards men.

That is to say, there are several cases on record of seven brides having been led to the altar by the same individual, but there is no instance of this number having been exceeded. Of course bigamists do not count in this connection, otherwise the notorious Witzorff, with his two hundred odd 'wives' romps home an easy-first.

Probably the best known example of a much-married man is afforded by Sir Gervaise Clifton, the historian of Jamaica, who married seven wives, five of them being domestic servants from his own household. His matrimonial ventures all turned out happily.

Nat Goodwin, the actor, was married five times, and was about to repeat the experiment for a sixth time when he died, early in 1919. Not long before he wrote and published a book entitled "Why Beautiful Women Marry Nat Goodwin."

Curiously enough, it is women, and not men, however, who are most prone to indulge in many marriges. There are plenty of American ladies, for instance, who have exceeded the seven limit; the record probably being held by Mrs. Townsend, of Neoraska, who in 1917 wedded her fifteenth husband.

ALBERT B. STEINER, of St. Paul, Minn., who declares he is now able to do twice the work he could before taking Tanlac and that his sister has gained sixteen pounds.

"Talking about things that help people, I have just received a letter from my sister in Waterloo, Iowa, telling me she has gained sixteen pounds in weight by taking Tanlac," said A. B. Steiner, 460 East Page street, St. Paul, Minn., recently.

"My sister was on a visit to me a short while ago, and as she was suffering from stomach trouble some one advised her to try Tanlac, which she did, and as I saw the great benefit she was getting from it I decided to try it myself, for I had been troubled with my stomach for the past two years. I had a very poor appetite, and the little I did manage to eat seemed to lodge right in the pit of my stomach and sour. I would bloat terribly after eating and have the worst sort of cramping pains in my stomach, and at times I had such bad attacks of heartburn I would nearly go wild. My back gave me a lot of trouble, and I had such intense pains in the small of my back I could hardly bend over. To add to my other troubles, about two months ago I began to suffer with rheumatism in my shoulder blades and arms, which got so bad I could hardly do my work and could not even put on my coat without assistance. I was so nervous I could get but little sleep and would roll and toss from one side of the bed to the other all night long, and would get up in the morning all tired out. I was so badly run down and had lost so much weight I was so weak I could hardly get about at all."

"Well, while I have only taken five bottles of Tanlac in all my improvement is simply remarkable. I have such a good appetite I am hungry all the time, and my stomach is in such a splendid condition I can eat anything I want without suffering the least bit from it afterward. The pains have all gone out of my back and I never have the least sign of the rheumatism. In fact, I never have an ache or pain of any kind. I sleep as sound as a log every night and have gained in weight and strength until I can do twice as much work as I could before I began taking Tanlac. Yes, sir, I can recommend Tanlac after what it has done for me, and I know it will do the same for others if they will only give it a fair trial."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd.; in Havelock by A. C. Denike; in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd.; in Fowler's Corner by W. A. Hunter; in Gelert by A. J. Scott; and in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

LOS ANGELES HAS 186 MOTOR STAGE LINES

A striking illustration fo the growth of motor transportation comes from Albert G. Comstock of the California motor vehicle department, who reports that while five years ago there was only one automobile stage line running out of Los Angeles, there are now 186 different lines running to various localities. The capital invested in automobile stages is over $1,500,000 in Los Angeles County alone. One line out of Los Angeles has sixty-seven buses and carries over 800 passengers daily. In 1915 it began with an investment of $3,600.

MISS DONALDSON ADDRESSED CLUB THIS AFTERNOON

INTERESTING ADDRESS BEFORE THE PETERBORO WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB.

Miss Doris Donaldson, a daughter of Peterborough, who for the past ten years has been identified with the press in New York, spoke this afternoon to a large and interested audience at the regular meeting of the Woman's Canadian Club.

The speaker, who is at present the Canadian representative of The English Speaking World, a magazine founded during the war by Mr. Ernest H. Bennett, gave an interesting account of the paper she represents and of the work it aims to accomplish. She told of how Mr. Bennett, not satisfied at having given his two sons to the Empire for overseas service, made a personal donation to the Empire of the English Speaking World to be used as a recruiting organ. The paper which rapidly gained widespread popularity, later became the official organ of the British Commission in the United States and came to the attention of the American Ambassador and later to Lloyd George. Acting upon their solicitation Mr. Bennett decided to continue the publication of the paper as a medium for binding the English speaking public together and to inspire patriotism. It is also a medium to combat the undertow of Reds and all agencies directed at undermining the Empire.

Miss Donaldson told of her part in bringing Canada before Canadians, of the peculiarity of the Canadians, which is to under-estimate their own powers and to fail to realize that things Canadians are equal and superior to products of other countries; illustrating her point by the fact that German Jews were employed by a large company in the Dominion to do photographic work which might have been done as efficiently by Canadians. Her aim is to stimulate confidence in Canada's possibilities, and she is in the city at present gathering information for an "All Canadian" publication of the magazine, which will be edited on the 24th of May. In this Peterborough will figure prominently, being the principal city on the Trent Canal, which district she has covered while in Canada.

TRAFFIC CONDITIONS ARE IMPROVING

Canadian Press.

CHICAGO, April 14. — Improvement of freight traffic conditions in the Central West continued to-day, wth the insurgent railway men returning to work at several points, but the industrial situation in Ohio and Michigan reached a crisis as the result of the stoppage of fuel supplies and in the far west, where a dozen passenger trains were reported stalled in Southern California, the situation is becoming alarmingly serious.

The Government agents are taking a close check on the strike situation, at the various rail centres, and at New Orleans six of the insurgent leaders were held on Federal warrants charging interference with the mails, following a raid on the strikers meeting.

Both the insurgent leaders and the railroad Brotherhood officials said the fight had evolved into a "lingering affairs," but the Brotherhood men declared that the insurgents were gradually losing strength.

The railway officials at Chicago claimed that 50 per cent. of the switching engines in the district were operating.

The American Federation of Labor through its railway department, which represents seven hundred thousand members in eight railroad crafts, has placed its stamp of disapproval on the strike and urges all the members of the affiliated organizations to refuse to obey the walk out.

HOW'S YOUR BLOOD?

Pimples and Eruptions Mean Bad Blood

People who have impure or impoverished blood should be careful to take only a temperance remedy made of wild roots and herbs, such as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is and has been for nearly 50 years. Ingredients printed on wrapper.

The first day you start to take this reliable medicine, impure germs and accumulations begin to separate in the blood and are then expelled through the eliminative organs.

In place of the impurities, the arteries and veins gradually get fresh vitalized blood and the action of this good blood on the skin means that pimples, boils, carbuncles, eczema, rash, acne and many skin blemishes will disappear. Then you must remember that when the blood is right, the liver, stomach, bowels and kidneys become healthy, active and vigorous and you will have no more trouble with indigestion, backache, headache.

Get Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to-day at any medicine dealers, in tablet or liquid form, or send 10c for trial package to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., or branch Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont.

BRAMPTON, ONT.—"A few years ago I was in a nervous and run-down condition and felt greatly in need of a tonic. A friend who was being helped by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery advised me to try it, too. It helped me from the very start and eventually restored me to perfect health. I feel in a position to praise the 'Golden Medical Discovery' very highly and take pleasure in recommending it to all those who are at all nervous, weak or run-down."—Mrs. ESTHER PEATSON.

BIG TAX ON HORSE RACING.

TORONTO, April 14.—The Ontario Government will permit horse racing in the Province for a year at least, but will exact as a consideration a revenue of approximately three quarters of a million dollars, secured through a tax of $5,000 a day on the half-mile tracks and $10,000 a day on the mile tracks.

The announcement was made to the House yesterday by Hon. Peter Smith during his presentation of the financial budget, and was accompanied by a reference to other added taxation the Coalition Government proposes to impose—increased taxes upon banks and insurance companies and a tremendous increase in succession duties, the scope of which has already been explained.

WOMEN CONFESSORS FOR ANGLICAN CHURCH

LONDON, April 14.—It is now suggested that it would be only keeping abreast of the spirit of the times to have women confessors in High Anglican Churches. The subject is to be discussed at the Lambeth Conference this Summer, at which important Church questions will be considered. One objection which has been raised (and there are many) comes from a woman, who says:

"Most women will not confess their sins even to themselves, much less to another woman."

OBITUARY

ALDERMAN HARRY PHELAN.

Few deaths which have occurred in the city have caused such widespread regret as that of Alderman Henry Phelan, who passed away yesterday afternoon at the family residence, 335 Rubidge street, after a few days' illness of pneumonia. He was born in Peterborough on November 21st, 1857, and had resided in the city ever since, taking a keen interest in municipal affairs, the development of the city and in all matters pertaining to sport. In 1895 he was elected to the Council, and was re-elected four consecutive years, retiring from candidacy in 1899. He entered the Council in 1907 and again remained in office for four consecutive years. In 1918, yielding to the insistent demands of the citizens, he again became a candidate for the Council, and remained with it until his death. During his last term he was chairman of the Bridge committee in 1919 and of the Board of Works the same year, and up to the time of his death. His knowledge of municipal affairs and his faultless judgment in such matters had made him an invaluable servant of the city.

Mr. Phelan entered the hardware business in Peterborough a number of years ago, from which he later retired. Later he became interested in the insurance business, which he pursued for a short time.

He was a well known figure in the sporting world, having played lacrosse for many years. In those days the name of Phelan was made prominent by the three brothers, Harry, Joe (Rev. Father Phelan), and Walter, and the characters that have won them all so many friends were not a little influenced by the fair and manly sport that was Canada's national game.

Of recent years Ald. Phelan became a baseball fan and was identified with practically every game played in the city. He was a member of the Curling Club for years and played until illness forbade him continuing the sport.

Mr. Phelan was also identified with many fraternal societies. He was Past District Deputy for this district of the Knights of Columbus, Past Grand Knight of the Peterboro Council and chairman of its trustee board up to the time of his death. He was also a active member of the C.M.B.A. of which he was president in 1906.

In private as well as in public life he was a general favorite and was known by practically every citizen of Peterborough and respected by all. He was a staunch friend and was broadly sympathetic and generous. His death is keenly felt throughout the city and he will not be soon forgotten.

There are left of the immediate family his two brothers, Rev. C. J. Phelan, rector of St. Peter's Cathedral and Walter of Philadelphia, also one son, Nagle, of this city. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phelan, predeceased him some years ago and his wife twelve years ago.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

LONDON, April 14. — Sir Hamar Greenwood is receiving the support of the local Liberal Association in the Sunderland contest consequent upon his promotion, although there is an Independent Liberal candidate, who denounces the Home Rule bill as a travesty of self determination.

Dr. Rutherford, Labor, formerly a Liberal Member of Parliament, will probably seek the miners' vote, estimated at five thousand, by advocating nationalization, but the indications all show that the Irish question will be the supreme issue in the polling Saturday week.

Dominion Railway Commission Heard Local Traffic Case

DISPUTED QUESTION OF LIABILITY FOR MAINTAINING WATCHMAN AT THE SIMCOE STREET CROSSING OF TRACKS TO THE QUAKER OATS COMPANY ARGUED HERE THIS MORNING.

DECISION RESERVED

Tossed about in correspondence between the city, the C.P.R. and the Quaker Oats Company, the question as to who should provide protection at the railway crossing on Simcoe street at the approach to the temporary bridge rested this morning before the Dominion Railway Commission in their hearing in the Council Chamber.

In the previous exchange of communications the three parties concerned repudiated liability, and the C.P.R. finally applied to the Commission for an order directing that the protection furnished at Hunter street by the Quaker Oats company's maintenance of a watchman be continued at Simcoe street until the new bridge is completed and opened for traffic, the expense to be borne by either the municipality or the Quaker Oats company.

The presiding Commissioners were A. S. Goodeve and A. C. Boyce, K.C., and other officials were George A. Mountain, chief engineer, R. Richardson, assistant secretary and Major J. Agnew, official reporter.

Mr. John D. Spence of Toronto, represented the C.P.R., Mr. F. D. Kerr, E. A. Peck and R. W. Cormack appeared for the Quaker Oats Company, and City Solicitor Widdifield presented the city's case.

The commissioners reserved their decision after hearing the argument of the solicitors.

Traffic was Negligible.

Mr. Spence contended that previous to the opening of the temporary bridge the traffic at the east end of Simcoe street was negligible. It was a mere bagatelle. The siding were [illegible] Quaker Oats Company did had always been so. The short spur now used by the Hydro-Electric Company does not reach to Hunter street.

"All the protection required has been made necessary by the Quaker Oats company and the operations of the City of Peterboro," Mr. Spence asserted.

JUSTICE METCALFE IS SERIOUSLY ILL

Strike Trials Proved a Severe Strain for His Lordship.

Special to Examiner.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 15th. Justice Metcalfe, who occupied the bench during the trial of the convicted labor agitators, on the charges of seditious conspiracy, is seriously ill, suffering from high blood pressure, and will remain in bed for at least a month to be followed by a prolonged rest. His Honour's condition is due to the great mental strain which he has been under during the past year in conducting the State trials.

TAKES DRIVE AT POLICE COURT

CURRY CLAIMS COUNTY JUDGES OVERWORKED AND POLICE MAGISTRATES HAVE IT EASY.

TORONTO, April 15.—When progress was reported in the Legislature, Hon. Mr. Raney's Bill to make it illegal for Crown Attorneys to carry on private practice, Mr. Dewart declared that the salary for such a position in Toronto should be at least $10,000. He pointed out the loss of Mr. Bradshaw to the city of Toronto as an instance of good men leaving the public service when they are not sufficiently remunerated.

Col. W. H. Price agreed, and inquired if the time had not arrived when a complete reorganisation of the criminal courts of Toronto should take place. He would oppose Mr. Raney's Bill if it did not provide for a fixed and fair salary for each Crown Attorney in all the cities.

Attorney and Assistants.

"The work in the Sessions is heavier than in the Police Court," [illegible] appointment of one Crown Attorney and two assistants in Toronto, with full responsibility on them for prosecutions of all cases in inquests, police courts, and criminal courts.

"Why is that?" asked Col. Price.

"I will not mince matters," replied Mr. Curry. "I say that too much business is allowed to go over from the Police Court to the Sessions, so that we have seen them sitting often after supper. There are four magistrates in Toronto now, and I venture to say they do not do 25 hours' work a week among them."

Resignations.

"May I ask the Attorney-General if he has the resignation of either the Crown Attorney for Toronto or the County of York?," asked Col. Price.

Mr. Raney expressed himself as pleased that the three members agreed on certain parts of this Bill, but did not answer Col. Price's question. The Bill was referred back for a further report on its progress.

THE LOCAL MANAGER ATTENDED BANQUET

Mr. George Campbell, local manager of the Union Bank of Canada returned this morning from a brief visit to Toronto, having gone there primarily to attend the dinner given last night in honour of Mr. C. C. Balfour, Inspector of Branch Returns Mr. Balfour is leaving Toronto tomorrow for Winnipeg where he will enter upon his new duties as Assistant Chief Accountant, attached to the head office staff of the Union Bank of Canada. The dinner was given by Mr. B. B. Carter, Eastern Superintendent who is well known in Peterborough because of frequent visits to the local branch. Mr. C. H. Pennefather, former Peterborough manager and Mr. Campbell, the present manager were both speakers during the evening.

In his response Mr. Balfour reminisced interestingly over the 23-year period with which he has been associated with the Bank. He stressed the remarkable progress of the Union Bank of Canada stating that when he entered its service in Montreal, the Bank had only 21 branches where as to-day its system has been extended to more than 400 branches in Canada with wide international connections. When he joined the bank's statement showed only $4,000,000 deposits; to-day's figures exceed $135,000,000 or more than 35 times as much.

THE STRIKE SITUATION CONFUSING

FOOD DISTRIBUTION IN NEW YORK SERIOUSLY HAMPERED BY ANOTHER STRIKE.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 15.—Food distribution in New York, already seriously hampered by the strike of the railway employees, was further threatened to-day by a strike call issued by the teamsters and chauffeurs who transport certain classes of produce from the freight cars to the city markets.

Five hundred chauffeurs employed by the wholesale poultry, butter and egg houses, walked out early to-day. They claimed that they would be joined by other chauffeurs, who handle 90% of the vegetables and other products consumed in New York.

The men have demanded increased wages. The Union leaders said that they were not striking in sympathy or in connection with the walk out of the railway employees.

A general improvement of the railway strike situation in the New York District was reported by the railway officials to-day. The strikers were reported to be gradually returning to work. The Brotherhood representatives, who have been fighting the rump strike predicted that nearly all the strikers would be back at work by the end of the week.

Police reserves were sent to the west side market district to-day where several hundred teamsters, chauffeurs and porters had walked out at time when New York was virtually cut off from its food supply by rail. Several trucks were attacked by strike sympathizers.

OFFICIALS ARRESTED.

Canadian Press.

CHICAGO, April 15. — Six officials of the "outlaw" railway unions were arrested to-day by the United States marshals on warrants issued by U. S. Commissioner Mason charging them with violating the Lever Act.

Warrants have been issued for 24 other alleged leaders in the insurgent railway strike, it was said at the Federal building.

Those arrested are Jos. Scott, treasurer of the Chicago Yardmen's Association; A. W. Cassaday, secretary; Martin J. Kenney, vice-president of Lodge No. 2, Chicago Yardsmen's Association; W. L. Arrabell, trustee of the Association; Fred L. Schultz, the vice-president of the United Enginemen's Association, and Michael Ellgas, treasurer of the Enginemen's Association.

Department of Justice Agents were expected to arraign the men to-day before Commissioner Mason.

John Grunau, President of the Chicago Yardmen's Association outlaw organization which started strike of the railroad workers was arrested by Federal Agents who raided a meeting of strikers here to-day. Grunau was arrested while he was addressing a meeting.

STRIKE DYING OUT.

Reports from the rail centres in the Central West and on the Pacific Coast to-day, bore out the assertions of the railway Brotherhoods and the railway officials that the insurgent strike was dying out, and that traffic conditions had improved materially.

In Ohio and Michigan thousands of men were idle as a result of the industrial tie ups caused by the transportation.

The strikers were reported to be returning to work in a number of cities as well as in Chicago, where the unauthorized walk out had its origin. The Brotherhood officials said that the backbone of the strike was apparently broken.

In New York and the vicinity the gradual subsidence of the strike was seen by officials although they admitted that the situation was still serious.

The insurgent leaders, however, continued their claims that the position of the strikers remained unshaken and denied the charges of Attorney General Palmer that Radical influences were behind the strike.

WAGGONS ATTACKED

Waggons of produce merchants, sent to transfer foodstuffs from freight yards to market district were attacked and holding ropes slashed. One horse drawn waggon was attacked by thirty five men. They followed a waggon to its destination where they were dispersed by the police. A strong arm squad of thirty policemen in a patrol waggon went through the district at noon dispersing strikers who had assembled on street corners. There were several minor clashes but only one arrest made.

Mr. J. H. Burnham Takes Flying Tackle at the Y.M.C.A., the U. F.O. and Ex-Premier Hearst

THE PETERBORO MEMBER CALLS UPON THE PEOPLE TO DISARM REV. BEN SPENCE—NOT SHOT FOR THOSE WHO SQUEAL ON ANTI-PROHIBITIONISTS.

FLOOD OF ABUSE

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, April 15.—J. Hampden Burnham, the eccentric member for West Peterborough, who some time ago announced his assertion of the government and is now back supporting them, made a spectacle of himself in the House of Commons yesterday when he let loose a flood of abuse and ridicule of the Y.M.C.A., the Dominion Alliance, Sir William Hearst and prohibitionists in general. Incidentally he handed the United Farmers a few jolts, denouncing them as demagogues, and their policy as "meretricious humbug." It was on a motion to prohibit campaign funds that he unburdened himself; a motion prompted by the statement of Rev. Ben. Spence of the Dominion Alliance that another prohibition referendum in Ontario would cost five million dollars.

Attacked Rev. Ben Spence.

The Peterborough lawyer savagely attacked Mr. Spence, characterized the conduct of that gentleman and his followers as "treasonous," and opined that their activities would most certainly cause civil war and bloodshed. Mr. Burnham seriously contended that the people and the press would be corrupted by the campaign fund of the "drys" and that personal liberty and public morality would be destroyed. He would make it illegal for United Farmers, prohibitionists and other crank organizations to have charge of so much money. Five million dollars in Ontario, he estimated, would be $60,000 for each constituency. It would be money to debauch and corrupt the entire population.

U.F.O. Did Not Escape.

This reminded him that the United Farmers were passing round the hat, and he [illegible] to [illegible] before [illegible] reminded his tirade of abuse of the "splitters," as he sheeringly described them.

The United Farmers, he charged with stirring up discontent and apprehension in order that they might seize the reins of power. "These farmers threw insults at the old parties, contending that they are willingly and deliberately corrupt, and at the same time launched a drive to raise a corruption fund themselves," exclaimed Mr. Burnham.

Then followed his sneers at the Y.M.C.A. and his abuse of ex-Premier Hearst for his prohibition policy.

"The Y.M.C.A. set out to do social service," he said, "but they soon found out the people were fed up on religion, and in the course of time the religious part sank into abeyance. The young people did not want too much religion and they would not have it. You will observe away down in the list of the attractions of the Y.M.C.A. religious teaching, and anybody who knows much about the Y.M.C.A. would know that the Christian meetings, the Bible classes and prayer meetings were attended by barely a corporal's guard, while the gymnasium, the basketball team and things of that kind were very well patronized. Lectures were not looked at. It was impossible to get the young men to attend them. They wanted to enjoy themselves, and nobody would blame them much.

Special Service Idea.

In course of time the Y.M.C.A. extended the special service idea. After having pointed out how detrimental to the welfare of the country billiards and pool were, they adopted billiards and pool in their programme of amusements, and now you can play billiards and pool in the Y.M.C.A. It was pointed out that the Y.M.C.A. did not pay their portion of the taxes, declaring that they were a religious institution and were therefore exempt The people behind the Y.M.C.A. were mean enough to profit by the exemption. I prophesy that the time will come when that small, petty meanness of soul will eat into them and destroy them.

The Convention.

It has destroyed them, because they found that their convention in Toronto last year that they could not get along without the special service end of it, and that they would have to found their future and their whole effort on something else than fees, and then and there resolved and announced that in future they, the Y.M.C.A. and its principals would be founded not upon fees but upon service, in other words the young men, instead of being brought up to believe that they were an example to all the rest of mankind, to the mass of the people, to the ragtag and bobtail, to the poor who play their little games in the ditches or any place they can find—well, these young nabobs maintained partly and very largely at public expense, and as objects of charity, had to give up those ideas. The Y. M. C. A.'s were created for the money they could squeeze out of the

United Farmers Will Continue Campaign For Political Funds Despite Clause 10

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 15th. —"The campaign of the United Farmers of Manitoba for political funds will not cease as a result of the passing of Clause 10 of the Franchise Bill, in the Dominion Parliament, W. R. Wood, the Secretary, said to-day. The policy of future action was founded on expert legal advice formulated at a meeting of the Central Political Executive of the party this afternoon The sum of money contributed by the farmers in Manitoba, since the campaign began on March 8th, was $45,000, the officials said.

The contentious clause, which the United Farmers of Manitoba officials say, is aimed to crush the Farmers' Party Movement, prohibits any unincorporated organization from collecting funds for political purposes.

Referring to the legalization of the clause by Parliament, Wood said: "It is my opinion that the authorities will think twice before applying it in any way which will be detrimental to so purely a democratic and so open a method of political action as is being followed by the United Farmers of Manitoba. Our canvassers will continue their work of solicitation. They will not be disuaded from continuing the campaign."

PETERBORO MOTOR SHOW OPENED LAST EVENING TO LARGEST CROWD ON RECORD

NOTHING HAS BEEN OVERLOOKED TO MAKE THE BIG SHOW A SUCCESS BOOTHS DID BIG BUSINESS.

With all the snap and ginger that has characterized the Peterboro Motor Show in other years, the 1920 show got away to a good start last evening in its three days of gaiety and high class entertainment supplied to the citizens by the Peterboro Health Association.

The armouries had a gala appearance for the show with its flags and booths and prettily decorated exhibits. The variegated colours and the surging crowds presented a scene of unusual beauty. The exhibit of cars is wonderful and the new models were scanned by eager and admiring eyes while attentive and courteous salesmen explained their fine points, and many new additions. The line up of cars is worthy of any city in Canada of this size and include all the well known cars.

The exhibit of motor accessories, oils and supplies, is worthy of the highest commendation and the [illegible] appliances and supplies created much admiration and to all motorists were a source of interest.

The show was opened with a parade of cars led by Sergt. J. Reid, in the absence of Chief Thompson, in the little red "bug," followed by the fire department and a long string of cars. Although the number of cars was not large there was nothing lost in enthusiasm and the bands, mounted on large trucks, assisted by the small boys, of whom there was a small brigade on bicycles, with squawkers and whistles, provided plenty of music and pep. Crowds lined the entire route of the parade from the market square right around to the armouries but it was an orderly if enthusiastic crowd and no disorders occurred.

Last year daylight saving was in force and the parade was held in broad daylight but this year the hour's difference made the use of lights necessary, but instead of detracting from the parade this gave it a more festive and bright appearance than other years.

Arriving at the armouries about 7:30, the show was formally opened by Dr. M. Steele, M.P., for North Perth and the biggest and best motor Show that Peterboro has yet seen, began.

All evening large numbers crowded the armouries and the smiles of real enjoyment and pleasure on the faces of all and the comments expressed, showed that everyone felt that they were getting their money's worth and thoroughly enjoying the show.

The Booths.

The booths did a rushing business, and all report that their sales were greatly in excess of those of last year. The Tea Rooms of the Ashburnham Patriotic eLague, in the first room to the north of the main entrance, was a busy place all the afternoon and evening, the service and the refreshments being praised by all.

The dance room was perhaps the greatest drawing card for the crowd and the I.O.D.E. dances were the best bill on the programme according to the young men and women, to say nothing of the older people who participated. Meher and Fitzegrald furnished the music. So insistent were the dancers that the dances were of necessity run till long after 11 and even then few greeted with approval the closing up. It is expected that a large number will patronize the dances to-night.

Fashion Parade.

The fashion parade of the I.O.D.E., attracted many of the crowd from downtsairs and was as popular as other years. The gowns and newest styles for milady's wardrobe were artistically displayed by twelve living mannequins, who, arrayed in furs, ready to wear clothing and millinery from Barrie's, Robert Fair's, and Turnbull's, paraded before the onlookers and evoked many ejaculations of admiration, not only from the ladies but from the men "So chic and so pretty," as one woman said.

The King's Daughters in their card and lounge room, were well patronized and the exhibit of Miss M. L. McCarthy's paintings and those of her pupils proved a surprise to all art admirers who were unaware of the ability of Miss McCarthy and her pupils.

A special mention should be made Madame Shirley and the work of Vernon Morphet's minstrels, who provided much entertainment and plenty of amusement in their show.

The concerts given by the Conservatory Orchestra were a feature of the programme and under Professor Gliddon's able direction proved a stellar attraction. It is not often that Peterboro audiences can hear such

PRISONERS RELEASED ON PAROLE

CONFUSION ARISES OVER EXACT STATUS OF THE SINN FEINERS RELEASED FROM MOUNT JOY PRISON.

(United Press.)

LONDON, April 15. — Some confusion existed here early to-day as to the exact status of the hunger-striking Sinn Feiners released from Mount Joy prison, near Dublin, late last night.

Despite the despatches from Berlin saying that it had been admitted officially there that the release was without conditions, the officials in Downing Street here declared that the prisoners had merely been paroled for a specific period for medical treatment.

The news of the release was received with general satisfaction here. The newspapers had condemned the government bitterly, pointing out that its treatment of the hunger strikers was making them martyrs in the eyes of the Irish people.

DENIED REPORT

LONDON, April 15.—Bonar Law denied that there had been any reserval of Government's Policy declaring that the present situation of hunger strikers was similar to that of William O'Brien, Dublin Alderman, who was removed from jail to hospital on March 26. Mr. Law said the Government had declined to release O'Brien but had expressed willingness to send him to a nursing home owing to his condition.

Andrew Bonar Law, in answer to questions in the House regarding the release of the Irish Hunger Strikers from Mount Joy Prison stated that they had not been unconditionally released. This statement contraverted reports reecived from Dublin last night.

DUBLIN, April 15. — Three persons are reported to have been killed and 9 others wounded in a shooting affair at Milltown, Malbay, County Clare, this morning. It is alleged the police and the military were involved, Those killed were civilians.

City Solicitor Widdifield said that he had a letter from the Hydro-Electric Commission admitting a liability and signifying their willingness to pay part of the cost of protecton.

Mr. Kerr informed the Board that the Quaker Oats company still maintained a watchman at Hunter street to safeguard their employees, workmen on the bridge and persons visiting the Quaker Oats offices.

Mr. Spence remarked that the C. P. R. was senior to the city in the occupation of the east end of Simcoe street.

Mr. Boyce—"What's involved in this case?"

Mr. Spence—"The Hunter street bridge will likely be re-opened this year."

Mr. Boyce asked whether one watch shift would be sufficient.

Mr. Spence believed it might be. A record of the freight traffic on Simcoe street showed the following:—From 8 a.m. to 9 a.m., 6 engines; 9 to 10, 8 engines; 10 to 11, 2; 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. 5 engines; 4 to 5 p.m. 5 engines; and 5 to 6 p.m. 15 engines.

Not Needed at Hunter street.

Presenting the city's case, Mr. Widdifield argued that Hunter street was closed to the public and for that reason the city considered that there was no necessity of keeping a watchman at that crossing under the present conditions.

Mr. Goodeve—"Why not transfer the watchman from Hunter street to Simcoe street?

Mr. Kerr—"Because if the city is willing to sacrifice the safety of the persons using Hunter street now, the Quaker Oats company feels that it should protect its employees and customers.

Mr .Boyce—"What is the danger at Hunter street."

Mr. Cormack—"We have four crossings there. About 500 employees go in and out four times a day. There is also teaming from Simcoe street along the tracks and into the factory yard."

Mr. Widdifield—"Why should the city be saddled with the cost of protecting the employees and customers of the Quaker Oats Company?

Mr. Cormack estimated the number of persons using the Hunter street crossing daily now at 550.

Mr. Widdifield —"The spur tracks are there for the convenience of the Quaker Oats Company."

Commissioner Boyce—"But the diversion is substantially for the benefit of the citizens. The city shouldn't ignore the protection of the public at Simcoe street, occasioned by this public work. Primarily isn't it the city's obligation to protect the public."

Mr. Widdifield admitted this general responability.

Mr. Goodeve—"If there were no tracks crossing Simcoe street protection would not be required there or on Hunter street. The city says the Quaker Oats company should protect the public at the crossing because the tracks are for the company's benefit and nearly all on their property."

Mr. Widdifield —"The new bridge is a high level one and will do away with the flagman at Hunter street. The Quaker Oats company will get the best of it all around.

Bridge Was Promised Ashburnham

Mr. Kerr said that the new bridge was built in fulfillment of the city's promise and obligation to Ashburnham in consideration of their incorporation with the city ten or twelve years ago.

Mr. Goodeve —"If these tracks were not there the city would have fulfilled all its obligations to its citizens by simply putting up the temporary bridge until the other is completed. Suppose the city had thrown up a temporary bridge alongside the Hunter street bridge and the tracks had to be crossed to reach. do you contend the company would have been relieved of maintaining protection?"

For Public's Benefit.

Mr Kerr avoided the Commissioner's hypothetical question. The opening of Simcoe street as a highway, he said, was never contemplated by the city and is not now so contemplated. The temporary bridge was required for the purposes of the public generally.

Mr. Goodeve asked pointedly if protection was not required because the spur tracks were there.

M. Kerr—"My contention is that the first cause is due to the changing conditions in the municipality.

Mr. Spence remarked that the C.P. Railway was out of the dispute, which he contended, involved only the city and Quaker Oats Company.

Mr. Kerr —"But the C.P.R. gets the advantage.

Mr. Spence—"Yes, the Quaker Oats Company are good customers of ours."

engaged to one of the three musketeers

Although she lived in Quebec, Fanchette told Paul Dubaval she was engaged to D'Artagnan, one of "Three Musketeers" fame. Paul was a simple soul. He had never heard of the "Three Musketeers." He believed Fanchette. He loved her and he greatly feared to lose a rival. What when Fanchette tearfully told him the dashing D'Artagnan had heartily deserted her for a gentle handsome lady, Paul was mighty in his wrath. He would punish this traitor. Paul was brave, you see. Just what Paul did and what happened to the rabbit, Fanchette, is told in a highly amusing manner by Victor Bridges in "The Wooing of Fanchette" appearing in the April issue of

DR. M. STEEL GAVE AN INTERESTING ADDRESS TO THE CANADIAN CLUB

THE CANADIANIZATION OF THE FOREIGNER IN CANADA WAS THE SUBJECT OF SPEAKER'S ADDRESS.

Dr. M. Steele, M.P. for North Perth, addressed the Woman's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon on the Canadianization of the Foreigner in Canada, which was heard with keen interest by the large number of women present.

The fact, he said, of having such a live club is sufficient testimony that the women are concerned in the welfare of the city. He then dwelt on the duties devolving upon women in their having attained full citizenship through the franchise. They must share the responsibilities with men. One outstanding responsibility lies in solving the problems the war has produced, which must be undertaken if women are going to be faithful to their citizenship. Upon the solution of the peace problems the welfare of the Dominion depends and it is not only the duty of women to share the responsibilities of the solution of such problems but the interests of Canada require that they should.

There are women, he continued, in Canada, who are in propaganda work not in the interests of the Dominion. In a recent election one woman advocated not only dispensing with divorce, but that marriage should also be dispensed with. That is being advocated in Canada as in Russia, only in a limited sphere and the tendency and attitude of the Dominion is such that such a doctrine will take root. It rests with the women of Canada to crush such propaganda.

The Immigrant.

In past years the immigrant had had been looked upon by the Canadian as an asset, but when the war broke out we found that the foreigner was unwilling to share the responsibility of defending the country of his adoption. The man who becomes a citizen should take unto himself the responsibility of defending the country. The war laid bare the fact that many in Canada had not become Canadian citizens in spirit. Unless today we take hold of the problem of Canadianizing the immigrants Canada will cease to be an Anglo-Saxon country.

Men and women are the greatest asset of the country and yet comparatively little attention has been paid to developing those who come to the country. The people of the Dominion are laying the foundation of a mighty nation and it is our bounden duty to produce good citizenship. We have splendid banking, railway systems, army, etc., but what we want above all is a high type of citizenship which cannot be attained without a great effort.

Two Sources.

There are two sources of population, the natural increase and immigration, and the latter will furnish the larger share. Previous to the war one third as many immigrants came to the country as were in Canada, and prior to 1917 the laws governing immigration were very lax. Since then the test has changed from "do you want to come to Canada?" to "Does Canada want you?" The new act excluded undesirables but did nothing for the undesirables who were already here who, as all others, had come to better their homes, actuated by the same motive as the pioneers of Canada. The influx previous to 1917 resulted in 53 nationalities being represented in the Dominion, speaking 83 languages and dialects. This motley crowd it is our duty to Canadianize and to teach to conform with our ideals of Canadian civilization. If we can overtake this mighty task we will have accomplished something like the task accomplished by our overseas troops. We must not leave their citizenship to chance.

The Agitator.

There is a large mass of illiterate people knowing nothing of Canadian customs or laws. Combine them with the agitator who is very often educated and who would destroy not only the government, but the religious influence, and we have a state of Bolshevism. Winnipeg, where the strike was not only a strike against the employers, but intended to produce a condition of civil war, is a fair example of such a condition.

Registration discovered the fact that of 561,650 foreign born males in the country, only 200,580 had become naturalized, so we had 361,000 males still aliens. When a man comes to Canada he should come with the intention of becoming naturalized or be directed elsewhere if he spends five years in the country without learning the language.

Square Deal.

Dr. Steele made a plea for a square deal to the immigrant. No provision had been made in the past for teaching the English language. A booklet printed in his own language should be presented to every immigrant coming into the country telling him of the laws and customs of the country. If the immigrant is not taught the Canadian standard of citizenship the standard of the electorate is going to be reduced and the solution of the immigrant problem is going to become more and more intricate as the standard is reduced. We must do something to see that the naturalized Canadian is fitted to exercise the franchise well.

Naturalisation of Women.

Statistics show that foreign born women rear twice as many children as Canadian women, therefore the foreign woman in the Dominion rocks the cradle of the vast majority of the future population. It rests with the women of the country to see that the foreign mother passes on to the children the right spirit. Mr. Steele concluded with helpful hints in the training of the naturalized citizen in proper methods of living.

A hearty vote of thanks was moved by Miss Archer and seconded by Mrs. A. Mowat. A solo by Miss Phyllis Dawson was very much enjoyed.

THE KAPUSKASING FAILURE.

Whatever blunders were made in connection with the soldiers' colony at Kapuskasing, and undoubtedly there were serious mistakes made in carrying out the scheme, the government should see to it that a false impression is not spread broadcast as to the conditions in the north country. The present administration, of course, is not responsible for the Kapuskasing failure, but they will be responsible for injuring the prosperity of North Ontario if they do not try to counteract the effect of the condemnation of the colony made by the commission who investigated the conditions. The blame for the failure of many of the soldier farmers to make good should not be charged against the section of the country in which they located, for settlers have been markedly successful in the same district. The trouble was that the late government did not exercise sufficient care in selecting men for the colony who were capable of coping with the unusual conditions. As a result they failed to make good and most of them will have to be removed. But there is no reason to doubt that the Kapuskasing district possesses possibilities for men who can quickly accustom themselves to the different conditions to be found there. There is no reason to condemn Northern Ontario because a few score badly selected men have not made a success of their venture.

PRECAUTIONS NEEDED.

Police Magistrate G. T. Denison, of Toronto, who has to deal with more automobile cases than any dozen magistrates in the province, does the public a commendable service by calling the attention of the Attorney-General to the necessity of taking further precaution against motor accidents. Col. Denison, like many other citizens, believes that a mistake was made in raising the speed limit and that the old limit of fifteen miles an hour should be restored as soon as possible. More important still, however, he suggests that the punishment for men who attempt to drive motors while intoxicated should be "drastic and certain," and that the Act should be amended so that the magistrate or judge shall have no other option than to imprison those guilty of the offence. A fine he does not consider sufficient punishment. In his letter Col. Denison also draws attention to the fact that the man who commits an offence under the Ontario Temperance Act is often more severely punished than the drunken motorist. "The carrying of a bottle of liquir in the pocket of a sober man is not such a danger to the community as the drunken man with a motor," declares the Toronto magistrate, and there will be general agreement with this statement. The increasing number of motor car accidents renders it imperative that conditions be made safer for the public, and the present session of the Legislature should see some improvements made in the regulations. A return to the fifteen mile speed limit in towns and cities is one step in the public interest that should be unhesitatingly taken. Even Mr. Geo. H. Gooderham, ex-M.P.P., who was responsible for increasing the limit is convinced now that a mistake was made.

RACE TRACK GAMBLING.

According to the budget speech of the Provincial Treasurer, Hon. Peter Smith, the U.F.O. government is not only going to allow gambling on the race tracks of the province, but is to become to a considerable extent partners in such a gambling transaction, for the mile tracks are to be taxed $10,000 per day and the half-mile tracks $5,000 per day. That the latitude allowed will be profitable to the province is evidenced by the fact that the increase in revenue from this source is estimated at three-quarters of a million dollars. But there will be considerable curiosity as to the reasoning that led the new government to allow race track gambling to go on this year. The mere fact that it is profitable was surely not the only reason for the course adopted, for there are other sources of possible revenue that might be taken advantage of, if profit, and not the interests of public morality, were the only point to be considered. Hon. Mr. Smith says that "that for certain reasons which I do not care to mention to-day," the government has decided to permit the operation of race tracks and the gambling that goes with racing, for this year at least. The announcement of 'these certain reasons' will be awaited with much interest.

Opinion of racing men on the increased taxation proposed, indicates that there is a possibility that the revenue from the race tracks will not be nearly as great as anticipated, because the tax is regarded by many of those connected with the racing game as prohibitive.

It is significant, too, that some of the Labor members are opposed to the proposed taxation. "The principle of the measure is vicious and entirely wrong," is the opinion of Chas. Swayze, Labor member for Niagara Falls.

A DANGER AVERTED.

Mr. Thomas Tooms' amendment to the Municipal Act, to provide for the election of police commissions in cities, failed to weather the opposition it encounter the Municipal Law committee of the Legislature yesterday and will be shelved, although it is possible that there will be legislation adopted to give municipalities control over the estimates of Police Commissions. The measure proposed by Mr. Tooms was assailed by Mayor Church and other speakers as utterly wrong in principle, while Ald. Gordon who, on behalf of the Peterborough City Council, opposed the measure, declared that the bill was dangerous. Other speakers remarked that there was no demand for such legislation, and the opposition was so strong that the bill was laid over until next year. The police departments of every city in the province will be delighted at the result. There was not a police chief in Ontario who was not bitterly opposed to the principle involved in the bill, a principle that dragged the police department into municipal politics and threatened to interfere with the discipline and efficiency of the police force. "If you want to impair the present splendid efficiency of the Toronto police force, just pass this bill," was the warning that Mayor Church of Toronto, gave the committee, and that voiced the opinion of police chiefs everywhere. There is not the same objection perhaps to giving municipalities control of police estimates, although there are risks involved in that policy that are apparent to everyone. At all events the committee has shown sound judgment in shelving the measure. That course was in the best interests of the cities of Ontario.

THE ONTARIO HOUSING WORK.

It would be unfortunate, in view of the very great need for house building in the cities and towns of Ontario, if the operations under the provincial housing scheme should be subject to the delay that would be involved by the submission of municipal housing bylaws to the decision of the ratepayers, the advisability of which was suggested in the Legislature on Friday by Mr. Hartley Dewart and Mr. Tolmie, of Windsor. There seems to be some chance of the suggestion being adopted and incorporated in the Provincial Secretary's new housing measure, however, for Premier Drury has stated his inclination to favor it.

Nothing is more urgently needed this year than the construction of as many new houses as possible. The matter is not one of concern only to those who are without suitable housing accomodation, but is of far-reaching importance. Any public money that is spent under the Ontario housing scheme is spent not merely for those who will acquire homes, but is the general interests of the community. It is surely reasonable, therefore, to entrust the question to those who have been chosen to direct public affairs, both in the municipalities and for the province as a whole. The safe-guards against extravagance are ample under Mr. Nixon's new measure. First the municipal councils must pass the bylaws for the housing debenture loans; then the Provincial Housing Director must approve of them, and finally the Provincial Government must give its consent.

At the very least, a provision that the ratepayers must give their assent would delay housing work, and, as has been suggested to the Legislature, it might bring the work to an end entirely in some municipalities.

It is to be hoped that when the Legislature comes to consider the new Housing Bill in committee it will not add a rider that might very seriously affect its usefulness.—Ottawa Journal.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

EVERETT HAS A TALK WITH SANDRA.

CHAPTER XCVII ....

I was not permanently injured although some of the burns had been painful. Fortunately the flames had not had time to reach my face before Mrs. Gray smothered them in the rug. Often I have shuddered at the thought that but for her quickness, her presence of mind, my curiosity would have caused my death—a horrible one.

Everett was very tender, very loving, yet unusually serious in the days that followed my accident. Not once had he mentioned the attic, or now I received the burns, until I was able to get around again, and the pain had ceased. But then he said:

"Now, Sandra, I want to know just why you thought it necessary to read letters not intended for your eyes. I know because of finding them beside the trunk that that was your errand to the attic."

"I wanted to see if I could find out something —about her," I replied lamely.

"Why?"

"Because you loved her so much—and do yet!" I burst out weeping I had held the thought in my heart so long, had grieved over my failure to win my husband—as I thought Leola had won him—that once I gave the thought expression I poured out my very heart to him in a storm of words which fairly tumbled over each other.

Not once did Everett interrupt me, not once did he move until, almost exhausted by my emotion and sobbing bitterly, I stopped for breath Then:

"Poor Sandra! why didn't you tell me all this long ago?"

"Because—because —I couldn't." I stammered between sobs. "I—I—thought—you still—loved— her better than you do me. Everybody—said so."

"You mean people told you such a thing?" sternly.

"Well—not exactly. But ever so many have told me—or said it so I heard — that you loved her so you never interfered with her— and let her do just as —she wanted to—and —everything!" I knew my reply was almost foolishly childish, but I was so sure Everett was going to be cross with me I could not collect my thoughts at all. "You let her go places— and have—company — and sit up and go out with you"—I went on making things worse.

"Poor little girl! Has it been so terrible? I'm sorry, Sandra—my only wish was to make our home one of happiness, not of distraction. I thought after my explanation when we were first married that you would be reasonable. But I counted without considering how very young you were and— I left gossip out altogether."

"And you wouldn't let me take down—her picture, and"—

"No, Sandra, that would have been very childish. Leola never harmed you. She had been gone long before I met you. That is a very lovely picture of her; most of my friends were her friends also. It would cause some comment if I had allowed you to be foolish enough to remove her picture." He waited a moment; then, as I made no reply, asked:

"Was that the first time you had been in the attic?"

"No." Then once more I made full confession. I told of finding Leola's lovely clothes packed away, of my failure to open the black trunk, of finding the keys in his chiffonier drawer, and then I stopped suddenly, as I remembered the letters I had taken and the two I had read.

"What else? Tell me all now, Sandra."

"I took some letters—one before—they are in my room."

"You read them?"

"Only two—they made me feel so badly I couldn't read any more."

"Bring them to me."

"I went upstairs to my room and got the letters. I had now no thought or wish to read more of them. My terrible accident in which I not only might have been burned to death, but might also have destroyed our home, had effectually quelled all curiosity I might have—at least for the time.

I gave them to Everett without a word. He laid them on the table, Then before I realized it, with a cry I was sobbing out all my love for him, my terrible jealousy of the dead wife, my resentment at being called 'number two'—while he listened without trying to comfort me.

"They said you only married me because I was young and you wanted a family—that you had no love to give me because it was all given to Leola, and"—

"You have believed that— all of it?" he was very serious, but I was so excited I really did not mind so I replied honestly:

"Yes, Everett, and I made up my mind we wouldn't have any family — or anything."

WOULD PRESERVE MARK TWAIN'S HOME

HARTFORD, Conn., April 15.—A campaign has been launched here to preserve the former home of Mark Twain from threatened destruction by real estate operators. Governor Holcolm, speaking at a meeting of citizens interested in the movement here, declared the real estate men who planned to destroy the old house "belong in the same class as radical agitaors," and should be deported.

ONE THOUSAND HOMES TO BE ERECTED IN THE BORDER CITIES

CIVIC AUTHORITIES TAKE LEAD IN ATTACK ON RENT PROFITEERS.

WINDSOR, April 14.—The erection of 1,00 homes involving an expenditure of approximately $5,000,000 will be undertaken immediately in Windsor, Walkerville, Ford, Sandwich and adjoining townships, as the result of a joint conference held in Windsor City Hall, when all interests concerned in the shortage of housing accomodation in the municipalities in the northern section of Essex County combined forces to solve the problem in a definite way.

Have Solved Problem.

Mayors of the various councils and represematives of different governing bodies, the local housing commission, manufacturers and the real estate board believe that in authorizing an issue of debentures for the amount required and commencing work immediately they have solved the perplexing question that has hitherto baffled, not only Canada and the United States, but the old countries as well.

Windsor 200 Houses.

Under allotment, Windsor is to erect 200 homes; Walkerville, 150; the Border Housing Company, with municipal asistance, 200; Ford and Sandwich, 50 each, and the balance will be constructed by various townships and private interests. Work will be commenced immediately to put the new plan into effect, W. E.Gundy, said to-night.

Beat Rent Profiteers.

This program will leave the high-priced places vacant, Mayor Winter declared in advocating immediate action. "The landlords are profiteering here, and are driving people out on the streets. We're going to stop it. Some of these landlords are making as high as 300 per cent. profit." Mayor Winter, himself the head of a large real estate firm here, cited one instance of a sign in a realty broker's window advertising a modest home to rent for $100 monthly, as an example of local conditions.

PRISON BARBER HAS NEMESIS IN CHAIR

Officer Not in a Hurry To Be Shaved by Quarry.

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., April 14—"I think I need a shave and haircut," remarked Captain P. D. Clarkson at San Quentin Prison.

"Step right into our barber shop," invited Mark Noon, state clerk.

Clarkson, Illinois superintendent of parole agents, arrived at the prison with a warrant for the arrest of "Slats," a Joliet prison parole violator, who has eleven years and one month of an old sentence to serve there.

"Leave it full in the back and cut it to part in the middle," directed Clarkson to the head barber as he settled himself comfortably in the chair. Ensued a one-man discussion of the prison topics of the day, to which Clarkson submitted without comment.

"Well, anyway, Mr. Clarkson, I hope we'll have a pleasant trip back," the barber said, suddenly changing the subject. Clarkson started, peered closely at "Slats," and whisked the cloth from his person.

"Beg pardon, 'Slats,' didn't recognize you. Guess I'll postpone the shave for our stopover in San Francisco."

DISAPPEARANCE OF WHISKEY PROVIDES REAL DETECTIVE WORK

Over 5,000 Cases Alleged To Have Been Stolen in Windsor.

WINDSOR, April 14.—Within the past three months over 100 thefts of liquor involving over 5,000 cases have been reported to Windsor police department. In every case the owner making the complaint is held under close surveilance, and his charges thoroughly investigated, for rum runners operating between the Border Cities and Detroit on a large scale have adopted this method to account for the disappearance of whiskey shipped to their homes. Careful checking-up methods of License Inspector Mousseau have rendered this device necessary.

Claimed 95 Cases Stolen.

As an instance of a situation prevailing here Sam Gluckman was arraigned in court to-day to show cause why 81 cases of liquor seized on a truck in Sandwich West Township some time ago by Provincial Officers Smith and Hannah, and bearing Gluckman's name, should not be confiscated.

Defendant claimed 95 cases had been stolen from his home on the night of the seizure, and that apparently bandits had themselves been relieved by the officers. The case, which is to be a test one, on which dozens of similar court actions are now pending, was adjourned.

BOVRIL

ST. THOMAS COUNCIL REFUSES TO REDUCE $50 ICE CREAM FEE

ST. THOMAS, April 14.-An appeal was made to the city council by Ald. Taylor that the license fee of $50 a wagon, decided upon by No. 4 committee, be eliminated from the report of the committee as being excessive, uncalled for and an outrage on the poor people's pleasures. The alderman asked that the permit be left at the old figure of $5, and give boys and old men a chance to make a living during the summer.

Ald. Penhale thought ten wagons were too many for the city, and the alderman had a decided objection to some of the drivers licking the spoons after the delivery of the cones.

On resolution the figure recommended by the committee remained.

ELECTROCUTING WALES.

The denizens of the deep have another enemy to face. Electrocution has been adopted in whaling, off the coast of Labrador, the current being transmitted through the line and harpoon. A hit almost anywhere in the body, so long as the harpoon penetrates the blubber that surrounds the flesh of the animal is sufficient for the electricity to do its work. The whale when struck, leaps into the air drops back into the water, and floats on its back. If the system could be adopted to some of our political land sharks the country might be happier for the experiment.

WALT MASON ON INFLUENZA

Last year I had the well-known flu, and now I have the flu once more; I lie in bed and say "Kerchoo," and other words I have in store. My dome of thought is full of ache, and pain through all my system wends, and busy druggists strive to make the pills the sawbones recommend. 'Twas war that brought this punk disease, that threatens now my useful life; and Wilhelm, with his war-lord wheeze, was at the bottom of the strife. I cannot think of any ill in all this sorry world so wide that can't be charged to old ex-Bill—and now they say he won't be tried. Ah, woe is me! This tin horn sport won't reap the punishment that's due; he'll not appear in any Court, for having ushered in the flu. If I should spring some punk disease that made your pills of no avail, how long before the cops would seize my frame, and put the same in jail? This lack of justice makes me blue, my anguished breast with wrath it fills, and so I cry, "Kerswoosh! Kerchoo!" and take another mess of pills.

GAME WARDEN CAPTURES AVIATORS WHO WERE HUNTING GEESE IN AIR

ONE OF THE AIRMEN TELLS OFFICER OF THE THRILLS OF SHOOTING FROM A SEAPLANE, NOT KNOWING HE WAS IN HANDS OF LAW.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., April 15—A flock of geese pursued by a seaplane, from which shots were being fired, 1,000 feet over Absecon inlet, held the attention of Game Warden P. K. Hilliard. A few minutes later he arrested Kenneth Jacquith, aviator, and his mechanician, Bennett E. Severs, when their plane alighted to pick up a dead goose that had fallen near the warden's rowboat ten two miles from shore.

Warden Hilliard told United States Commissioner Lewis, before whom the prisoners were arraigned, that Jacquith, not knowing his identity, had related to him all the thrills of the shoot, whereupon, the warden said, he informed the aviator he was under arrest for violating a federal game law which carries a penalty of $50 fine and six months in jail. Jacquith, who is said to be the son of a Chicago banker, and his mechanician, each were held in $200 bail for a hearing later.

SAYS PETERBORO LICENSE INSPECTOR TALKED TOO MUCH

STORY OF PETERBORO INVESTIGATION TOLD TO PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE.

TORONTO, April 15.—Some disclosures connected with the enforcement of the Ontario Temperance Act in Peterborough were made before the Public Accounts Committee of the Legislature yesterday, and Mr. J. D. Flavelle admitted that the inspector for the county, Joseph Stewart, though a good officer, had been unwise and injudicious. It had been apparent that there was friction between the inspector and the police in Peterborough, which culminated in an investigation which was raised, as Mr. Flavelle declared, "out of our inspector having too long a tongue and being unwise and injudicious."

The inspector, said the chairman of the License Board, seemed to have it on his mind that the police were crooked. The investigation resulted in favour of the police. The License Board had a lawyer representing Stewart, and the fees came to $700, which the Board, after deliberation, favoured paying.

It was also stated that there had been an arrangement between the inspector and a man named Dunford, whereby the latter was to get 20 per cent. of the fine in laying information in connection with a liquor prosecution. It seemed the Board had been urging on the inspector in connection with certain illegal traffic and the latter had made an arrangement with Dunford, who had previously been convicted and a portion of whose fines had been previously remitted. The Board were unaware of the percentage payment arrangement, and later warned the inspector it must not occur again. The payment to Dunford by the Board in this respect was $200.00.

In answer to W. N. Sinclair, Liberal member for South Ontario, who conducted the investigation, Mr. Flavelle said with reference to having counsel representing Stewart and paying the fee, the Board acted in good faith. Stewart had been a good officer, though it had been shown he acted unwisely and injudiciously. The Board did not claim to be infallible.

M. M. MacBride, South Brant, asked if the inspector was still with the Department, and Mr. Flavelle replied in the affirmative. Better co-operation with the police had been urged.

How You Can Quickly Remove Hairy Growths

(Aids to Beauty.)

A well known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face. Mix into a paste some powdered delatone and water, apply to the hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. This method is quick and entirely safe. To avoid disappointment however it is well to make certain you get genuine delatone.

PRICE OF COAL LIKELY TO DROP DECLARE DEALERS

ST. THOMAS COAL MERCHANTS WARN CUSTOMERS AGAINST PANIC BUYING.

ST. THOMAS, April 15.—The coal deliveries demanded by provident householders of St. Thomas for the coming winter season are being refused by the local merchants. A limited quantity is promised until the danger of scarcity by reason of the lack of transportation from the mines is passed. When railway labor returns to normal conditions an assurance is given that the full quota of coal will reach the householders.

An old established firm has advised some of their customers to go slow, that instead of coal going up the outlook appears to be that the heating material was coming down. "The $17 a ton price put upon prospective deliveries next season is purely speculative and without any present condition to warrant so big a raise," declared a local coal dealer.

Famine Point Passed.

Although coal merchants of the city are finding the coal barons somewhat reluctant to fill their orders to the full capacity, the local gas works have secured three cars of bituminous coal, and these will put the department over until navigation opens. This satisfactory condition will not be affected to much extent by the switchmen's strike if the disturbance be not long continued. A shortage was looked for, and the manager was looking for relief by cutting down consumption. Now the danger of a famine in the supply of gas is passed.

SCOTSMEN HELD SOCIAL EVENING

To welcome the new arrivals to the city of Peterborough, the Caledonian Club members, wives and friends, met in a social capacity last evening in the Woodmen of the World Hall.

Previous to the regular business meeting the ladies decided that they would run a leap-year dance on April 30th, hoping on that occasion they may be able to form a ladies' association of some kind. The chairman extended a cordial welcome to the young ladies and young gentlemen who had just arrived from "auld Scotia." One of the men gave a brief account of the state of the old country in every sphere of life, and on behalf of the remaining number he thanked the club for such a hearty welcome. Throughout the proceedings the new arrivals provided songs and stories along with many of the musical members of the club. Piper Lorne MacDonald and Piper Thorn rendered a number of bagpipe selections. The evening came to a finish by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Voice Of The People

DAYLIGHT SAVING.

Sir,—Daylight saving — how can daylight be saved? If it were possible our rural friends would have a very great surplus in storage now. But to satisfy the whim of our so-called "sports," the working man and numberless young girls who go to factories must needs get up before daylight the year around, which necessitates the burning of extra light and fuel. Where is the saving in times like these?

If our "sports" desire more daylight, why not get up at five, stroll down to your business at seven or eight, instead o fnine or ten, and close at three or four. Last year our daylight saving advocates maintained it was impractical to have the city on one time while the railroads had another; but this year inconsistency grows anon, and the scheme is apparently quite possible!

It is simply one of the many fads of a discontented and pleasure-seeking world. Incidentally, labour men elected representatives to the Counil who they expect, when voting on laws, will at least consider the interests of the labouring man.

Should the labour man be obliged to get up at three or four o'clock to comply with a law, enforced for the pleasure of athletic clubs? Labour men are solidly opposed to so-called daylight saving. Leave the clocks alone.—Yours. Opposition.

BEWARE OF TENDER GUMS

Unhealthy soil kills the best of wheat. Unhealthy gums kill the best of teeth. To keep the teeth sound keep the gums well. Watch for tender and bleeding gums. This is a symptom of Pyorrhea, which afflicts four out of five people over forty.

Pyorrhea menaces the body as well as the teeth. Not only do the gums recede and cause the teeth to decay, loosen and fall out, but the infecting Pyorrhea germs lower the body's vitality and cause many serious ills.

To avoid Pyorrhea, visit your dentist frequently for teeth and gum inspection. And use Forhan's For the Gums.

Forhan's For the Gums will prevent Pyorrhea—or check its progress, if used in time and used consistently. Ordinary dentifrices cannot do this. Forhan's will keep the gums firm and healthy, the teeth white and clean. Start using it today. If gum-shrinkage has set in, use Forhan's according to directions, and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

Keeping the House Clean

When a Vacuum Cleaner Enters Your Home Dust and Dirt Depart

The most welcome news for the housekeeper is that an EUREKA VACUUM cleaner is coming. Just to think that the old dusty broom that raises such a dust around the house and fills the air with germs, just to float around and settle again somewhere else, and the brush and whisk that do the same, are a thing of the past. And in their places the EUREKA VACUUM cleaner will do the work with less strain on the user, no dust and germs flying around in the air after a rug has been cleaned, even to the cushions, draperies, sofas, chesterfields, under the beds, in the cracks of the radiators and every place where dust and dirt lodge will be cleaned without the slightest effort on the housekeeper; and, best of all, it is all gathered into a bag, where it may be emptied outside, thereby really cleaning the house, instead of just stirring it up to lodge again in another spot.

The Eureka Gets the Dirt Not the Carpet

Free Demonstration on Our Fourth Floor

Or in Your Own Home Any Time You Wish to Compare This Cleaner With Others

The Eureka Supremacy

The Eureka supremacy is based upon the fact that there is a greater volume of air passes through the rug into the cleaner, thus removing all dirt and dust at a higher velocity than in any other vacuum cleaner. It gets the dirt, not the carpet. By means of this greater volume of air passing through the rug or carpet, whatever it may be, it is thoroughly cleaned by the best purifier possible. The Eureka does not beat or ruffle or spoil the pile of your expensive rug whatever. It simply sucks the dust and dirt out of it and is caught in a capacious bag, from which it cannot escape.

Higher velocity, this is where the Eureka excells, the velocity is of much greater force with this Vacuum Cleaner than in any other cleaner. The motor travelling at such a high speed forms a much greater vacuum, thereby also giving greater velocity, and it is this force that cleans most thoroughly your rugs, draperies, cushions, etc.

With pleasure we will demonstrate this marvellous cleaner at any time you wish, either in your home or in the store.

CHOIR CONCERT GEORGE STREET

AUGMENTED CHOIR WILL PROVIDE A GOOD PROGRAMME.

Following thee excellent program rendered by the choir at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church last evening, all powers of music will again have an opportunity of listening to a concert to be given by the augmented choir at the George Street Methodist Church on Tuesday, April 20th at 8.15 p.m., under the direction of Mr. John H Renwick.

The choir has been augmented by local talent to eightyvoices and there is no doubt that the 'Soldiers' Chorus from Faust' and the 'Hallelujah Chorus' by Handel and similar choruses hould appeal to all.

It has been said very often that the Peterborough citizens are not appreciative of good music. Surely that is an incorrect statement. However, this will be demonstrated by the enthusiasm shown by the attendance at this concert, which will consist of mixed choruses, ladies' and men's choruses, male quartettes, instrumental selections and readings.

LONDON COLORED GIRL ARRESTED IN ST. THOMAS

Alice Lindsay Alleged To Have "Pinched" Syrian's Roll.

ST. THOMAS, April 15.—The colored lass from London, Alice Lindsay, who is alleged to have "pinched" Nick Khoury, Syrian, for $42 while he was assisting her to the L. and P. S. car, was arrested here by Officer Geddes as she was returning to London. Miss Lindsay, it will be remembered, fell fainting at the feet of the Syrian. He picked her up, and when she was sufficiently recovered escorted her to the car. When Nick recovered from his act of gallantry he alleges that he found a roll of newspaper in his pocket instead of a bundle of bills. Miss Lindsay will be heard in the police court tomorrow morning.

Use Cocoanut Oil For Washing Hair

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy, lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

QUEEN ALEANDRA SCHOOL PARENTS' CIRCLE

The Parents' Circle of Queen Alexandra School held its first regular meeting on Monday evening. The main feature of the program was a very comprehensive and interesting address by Dr. McCullough explaining the system of medical inspection recently inaugurated in the public schools. He urged the parents to co-operate with him in this work otherwise it would fail to serve the purpose for which it was adopted.

Mrs. Morris also gave an excellent report of the convention of Home and School Association in Toronto.

Other features f the program were musical numbers by Florence Walton Betty Massey-Cooke and a recitation by Evelyn Roberts.

Mrs. Rathbone, Mrs. Copping and Mrs. Kendry were appointed a committee to arrange for a rummage sale the last week in April.

Plans were also made for a social evening for the parents and teachers the first Friday in May.

ROUGH TREATMENT GROUND OF DIVORCE

ENGLISH WOMAN GRANTED DECREE FOR CRUELTY AND NEGLECT,

LONDON, April 15.—Justice McCardie, in the Divorce Court, gave a disquisition on how to treat a wife.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Robey, daughter of a clergyman, petitioned for a divorce from her husband, Dr. W. C. T. Robey. She accused him of cruelty and misconduct. Dr. Robey denied the allegations and sought restitution of conjugal rights.

The question arose whether the husband had been guilty of a course of conduct, which, although not amounting to cruelty, was yet just cause for the wife to refuse to live with her husband.

Mrs. Robey, however, said he was habitually cruel and neglected her. She was corroborated by her two sisters, whose evidence the court accepted.

On one occasion, it was said Dr. Robey never spoke to his wife for about a fortnight, and when she spoke to him he merely stared at her.

"Traded on Her Sweetness."

"I think," the court summed up, in granting the decree to Mrs. Robey, "that the doctor traded on the sweetness of his wife's temper, her patience, and her willingness to help him.

"He forgot the courtesies of married life, and wholly ignored the duties of sympathy and kindness. He treated her as a mere servant, rather than as a wife.

"He applied the methods of the barracks to the conduct of his domestic life.

"He roughly demanded what he should have courteously requested.

"He thought his wife was a proper subject for gross abuse. He sapped her affection—even destroyed it—and created repugnance where there had once been love.

Then the husband's jealousy and unkindness, consequent upon that, deepened his gross discourtesy and cruelty of conduct.

"This was what in 1917 apparently led Mrs. Robey to seek relief in the courtesy and attention of other men.

LETTER FROM MR. TOOMS

Toronto, April 13th, 1920.

Mr. Editor:—

On thinking over the remarks made by Col. McMillan on the great progress made by the religious organization to which he belonged and how it came about, the secret seemed to be in the fact, "We live among the people," to use his words, we have churches that are sincerely anxious to help and to be of use.

No one can question the sincerity of a great many church workers, to help the apparently degraded, but these good people know very little of the labour movement, and the fundamental cause of what we call slums, their environment does not put them in touch with the poor, they are not familiar with the foundation cause. This is not said in disparagement, but to help the really sincere people to focus the situation from the point that will meet with the most beneficial results.

First, let me say it is little good for some district visitor to call on a family living in a couple of rooms, and to try and persuade the father or mother that this is not healthy or congenial, unless we can find a more congenial dwelling for them, therefore we should busy ourselves in building homes for them, before work in this line can have any effect. It is tiresome to the worker all the time to have people moralizing without genuine effort to relieve. It is amusing to send Mrs So and So to instruct mothers how to bring up her children in health and comfort. Our effort should be, to ascertain under whom the father is working, for whom, the pay he receives, and why. It might then be discovered that a lot of the social work of the church is being directly paid for by the poor workman whose employer is a pillar of the church. Our efforts should not only be directed against the household of the poor family but against the unscrupulous employer

Let our poor see this kind of interest in their welfare and your motives and efforts will not be open to question or ridicule.

Church and Labour have indeed a great work to perform, they must eventually join forces.

T. TOOMS, Peterboro.

RUSSIAN WIFE MUST SUPPORT HUSBAND

DIVORCE MAY BE OBTAINED BY MUTUAL CONSENT.

LONDON, April 15.—A Russian wife is required to support her husband if she be able to do so and he is unable to work and in need of her support, under the marriage laws of Soviet Russia. A copy of this code, translated into English has just reached London from the Russian People's Commissariat of Justice.

It provides that married persons shall be expected to support each other. Should one refuse and the other be what is classed as a "needful," unfit to work, the latter has the right to apply to the Department of Social Security to compel the husband or wife, as the case may be, to pay support.

Mutual consent of husband and wife or merely the desire of one of them to be freed from the other may be considered as grounds for divorce. Local judges are authorized to hear divorce cases but their decisions are subject to appeal.

The matrimonial age is fixed at 18 for men and 16 for girls. Both must be of sound mind and mutually desirous of marriage. Differences of religion or vows of celibacy are no impediment. Married persons may choose to bear the surname of the bride or of the bridegroom or their joint names. Marriages contracted in accordance with religious forms are not binding unless the union is registered under the prescribed form of civil, or Sovietist marriages. Old forms of marriage law or, as it is termed, "the legalized forging together of men and women" are abolished.

Under the laws of succession in the Soviet code, none but the "needful" and the state may inherit property. The estates of emigrants and of rebels are subject to confiscation by the state.

The World Of Sport

"HAP" HARRISON MAY OPEN THE SEASON ON FIRST BASE AND DO SLAB WORK IN CENTRAL LEAGUE

THE THISTLES ARE A LITTLE HEAVY FOR CITY LEAGUE COMPANY—SPORT COMMENT OF INTEREST TO LOCAL FANS.

After perusing the list of players credited to the Thistles in Wednesday's Examiner, many fans want to hand the City Baseball League honors to Thistles and call off the race. With Swanston, Kirn, Harrison, Helyman, Shaughnessy, Butcher and others signed up, the Yeotesmen look to have a team much too strong for an organization of five clubs, where the field is somewhat limited as to pitchers and backstops. It is stated, however, that Thistles do not propose to use Harrison, the newcomer from the Moose Club of Toronto, as a pitcher in City League games. He is slated for first base and Kirn for the mound, this keeping the former fresh for slab work in the Central League. That point is well taken. It has been demonstrated that it is as unwise as it is unfair to ask a twirler to work regularly in City League games and also do a turn in higher company. Whoever is selected as slabman for the Central Leaguers should not be asked to do mound duty in the minor organization.

Roy Cherrett, who at Riverside Park established the habit of making life miserable for hitters into short field, has been invited to don a Thistles' uniform. But as other invitations are to hand, "Cherry" is not breaking any speed rules in signing up.

With the Petes grouped with Campbellford, Hastings and Norwood, the national game has a fine chance of coming back to these parts this season.

Giving weight in every bout, Jimmy Wilde continues to bowl 'em over as fast as they come along, and the end is not yet. The Britisher will be 28 years old on May 12. Local fans will have a chance to watch the little fellow in action at Toronto on Victoria Day. He will appear in the Queen City under the auspices of the Grand Army of Canada.

The Central League will make its 1920 bow to Peterborough fans on Saturday, June 5, with Port Hope as the visiting club. The local dates are:
June 5—Port Hope at Peterborough.
June 12—Oshawa at Peterborough.
July 1—Belleville at Peterborough.
July 12—Cobourg at Peterborough.
July 31—Lindsay at Peterborough.

The team to be entered in the City League by the City League by the Canadian Woollens Ltd., is keeping them all guessing. The Auburn section of the squad will be there when the bell rings, and the lads who helped to make the "Woodpile Wonders" famous will take some watching.

The major leagues are off again, and as usual some familiar names are missing from the batting order. As the average fan was unable to pronounce many of them, the alterations may bring satisfaction.

Now it is known why Jake Solomon decided against piloting a ball team this season. With his usual eye to business, Jake had his optics on a snow-ploughing contract. Feels as though the peerless one will have a long and remunerative job.

Champion Jimmy Wilde, it is said, does not appear in the glare of the white lights. As the mit phenom is also an enthusiastic golf player, the explanation may be that he never gets back in time.

There may be some mystery about "Cannon Ball" Ed. Scott, but he ought to get away with it in Lindsay. Port Hope Guide please copy.

Ward Patterson will attend a meeting of the O.A.B.A. sub-committee in Toronto to-morrow, when arrangements will be made for the annual meeting of the Association. Applications for affiliation and re-instatement will be considered, and one or more matters in the interest of baseball locally will be discussed.

Port Hope Guide: It will be be pleasing news when Scott finally announces where he intends to summer. So much of this same kind of twaddle about Scott was carried on last year that it was a foregone conclusion in the Central League that Lindsay was the only team that had a chance for the championship. But Canon Ball proved easy picking for all the Central Leaguers and should be even easier this summer.

ANNUAL MEETING BASEBALL LEAGUE

PETERBORO WILL BE REPRESENTED AT THE GATHERING.

The annual meeting of the Ontario Baseball Amateur Asociation, to be held in Foresters' Hall, 22 College street, Toronto, on Saturday afternoon, April 24th, will be the most representative gathering of baseball men ever held in this Provinde. The East will send delegates from the Central Ontario League, the Peterboro and Lindsay town leagues. With them they will bring three new members, viz: the Trent Valley, Bay of Quinte and the Whitby Leagues. In the west the old members, including Inter-County and the Brantford, Guelph and Woodstock town leagues, will have for company the proposed Haldimand County League being organized by Cecil Shaw, the former Hamilton city league catcher; the Highway League, composed of Oakville, Bronte, Lorne Park, Port Credit and Cooksville; also the North Wellington League, and possibly the Owen Sound town league. In the north, Collingwood, Barrie, Orillia and Midland are organizing a strong league and are anxious for affiliation. The Big Four, with Beaverton, Sunderland, Uxbridge and Stouffville will be among the applicants for membership. The Niagara district have yet to be heard from, but will doubtless fall in line. The Hamilton and Toronto associations will have their usual strong delegations on hand and the convention is bound to be a lively one.

MUST CUT OUT PROFANITY ON THE BALL FIELDS

CHICAGO, April 15.—Profanity on the baseball fields will not be tolerated in the American Association this season. President Hickey told his staff of umpires at a conference here.

The umpires were instructed to order any player or manager off the field at the first offense and to report subsequent violations to President Hickey, who said he intended to fine and perhaps suspend the offending player.

"We have determined to give the game a thorough cleaning," President Hickey said, "so that the sport will be made safe for women and children. Swearing will not be tolerated. I have instructed the umpires to enforce the rule to the letter, and players violating it will feel the force of it."

Curing a Mean Drive

Practically every factory of any size has one or more mean drives which seem to defy all attempts to correct them.

Up to date you're beaten—but that's because you want to solve the problem yourself.

Our transmission experts take more real satisfaction in solving mean drives than in selling belts.

Dominion Friction Surface Belting

has helped to solve many transmission problems, and we have yet to find a drive where it will not provide efficient satisfactory service.

Don't continue to waste your time and money on experiments. No matter how much experience you may have had, it is quite probable that our engineers have cured the identical kind of drive that has been worrying you for months.

It will cost you nothing to have one of our belting experts study your problem.

If he can't help you he will tell you so. If he can help you it will cost you only the price of a belt that will give a longer and more satisfactory service than any other belt has given on that particular drive.

The first step to that satisfactory service is a phone or wire to our nearest service branch.

LACROSSE CLUB HELD A MEETING

SUPPLIES WILL BE PURCHASED FOR THE CLUB.

At the meeting of the Lacrosse Club last night at the Empress Hotel much important business was discussed. Secretary H Johnston, was authorized to purchase eighteen sticks and a set of goal nets. A little more assistance will be required from the public but judging from the report of the subscripiton committee little difficulty will be experienced in getting enough financial assistance to start the club right and there is no doubt the club will finance itself after the first game.

It was decided to hold the first practice a week from Saturday at the Exhibition grounds and any new players in the city, who have not yet made themselves known are asked to do so as soon as possible. A list of all subscribers will be published in this paper as soon as completed.

MACHINE GUNNERS WANT FOOTBALLERS

Unattached football players will find a warm welcome with the Machine Gunners, who desire to present as strong a team as possible in the City League. Any players who have not joined the other clubs are requested to telephone or to meet Mr. Leonard Fraser at the Board of Trade Rooms. This should be done at once, as the names of the players must be filed with the League secretary by Monday, 19th April.

SOCCER SOLONS WILL INSIST ON PUNCTUAL KICK OFF IN ALL GAMES

PENALTY OF ONE DOLLAR FOR EVERY FIVE MINUTES DELAY, TO DISCOURAGE TARDINESS—SCHEDULE READY NEXT MONDAY.

TEAMS REGISTERING

The City Football League executive decided last night to play their scheduled games on Thursday evenings, beginning at 6.30 o'clock and on Saturday afternoons at 3 o'clock. The officers are anxious that the teams shall be punctual in order that the public may be encouraged by prompt kick-offs to patronise the games. To this end, a fine of one dollar for every five minutes' delay will be imposed upon offending clubs.

It is expected that the schedule will be ready for next Monday night's meeting, which the referees will be invited to attend.

Secretary F. M. McKinley was instructed to prepare the set of rules in order that they might be communicated to all the clubs and to the officials.

Want Daylight Saving.

The executive is keenly in favour of daylight saving, and are confident that they voice the opinions of all the football players. Another hour in the evening would assure them sufficient time for practices and regular games without hurrying after work.

A committee, composed of President Parkins, Secretary McKinley, and Mr. J. W. Worth, was appointed to wait upon the City Council to-night and urge the passing of a daylight saving measure for Peterborough.

Mr. Worth was reluctant to act, explaining that the Trades and Labour Council had opposed the idea, and questioned the results of the factory vote on this question. There was apparently an impression, he said, that the manufacturers had in some way influenced the vote, and if he appeared with the committee, his motive might be similarly misconstrued.

The executive, however, insisted that he accept the duty as one of the footballers' advocates to the Council.

Where are the Mugs?

Since the League was organised, it was recalled that in the days before the War there were a number of soccer trophies in Peterborough, all trace of which has been lost. It was generally believed that permanent possession of all of them had not been secured by any of the teams of the old days, but inquiry failed to discover their whereabouts.

Alex. McArthur reported that by Monday night it would be definitely known whether a gift of eleven medals for the season's winners would be secured. They were as good as promised now.

Regarding a cup trophy, the secretary suggested that the most satisfactory plan would be to get a new one. If the merchants were each asked to contribute a dollar or two, a silver cup could be obtained with but slight cost to the donors, and it could be called the Merchants' Cup. No difficulty is anticipated in securing a trophy from some source or other.

The revival of interest in football is general, and it is believed that many citizens would be glad to contribute small sums, the aggregate of which would buy a splendid trophy.

Players Registered.

Three clubs registered players last night as follows:

C. G. E.—B. Mason, H. Turner, J. McDonald, Ed. Barkley, C. Hotson, A. Gash, H. Bestard, H. Cowie, A. Parkins, J. Williamson, J. Naples, A. Manders, J. Young, and J. Bills (captain).

"THE END OF THE ROAD" AT THE ALLEN THEATRE

To-day the last showing of the feature drama, "The End of the Road," will be given at the Allen, one in the afternoon and two in the evening. It will be Peterboro's last chance to see the splendid drama which all Toronto is still talking about, after its showing two weeks ago at Massey Hall.

It is a terrible yet a beautiful drama enacted by Richard Bennett, the well known character man, starring with Claire Adams, a beautiful Canadian girl, who has achieved a great name in the American centres of the motion picture industry, and who is now starring in an Eminent Authors production that will shortly be released for showing.

Characterized as the "most praised and abused of pictures," "The End of the Road" is starting on the Ontario circuit of an all Canadian tour, carrying with it the endorsation of the Canadian National Council for Combating Venereal Disease, and of men and women who appear in the public eye in every city. It is a picture with a message, written by a master hand, with a plot that makes it a thoroughly consistent drama that will leave food for thought with everyone who sees it.

It has been endorsed in the following terms by Dr. G. Clinton, D.O.H., who says, "I recommend it most highly for all adults."

Dr. Newton Greer says, "I quite approve of and endorse this frank method of awakening public interest in the efforts being undertaken to combat this great evil." It is also very strongly endorsed by the local Executive of the National Council of Women.

MR. J. H. BURNHAM TAKES FLYING TACKLE AT Y. M. C. A. & U. F. O.

public, they ignored the fact that if they had been worth anything at all and had had any manhood they would have offered the advantages of their institutions to the poor, who were not able to afford to pay for them. But no, their teachings had not been that. They had in their hearts that meanness and canker which would shrivel them up and destroy them, and it did. Though millions had been collected, though to all intents and purposes the movement is increasing and becoming exceedingly strong, yet at their convention last year they changed the basis of their whole system because one ounce of merited blame could blow their whole structure to pieces and it did so.

The Farmers.

Then take these pious and pretentious schemes in other directions for the welfare say, of the farmer, the farmers' organization have adopted the rule that no nobody who is not a farmer could join their organization, simply to protect their own interests. They do not say come along with us and seize the reins of government. No, they unfurl the flag of some benevolent scheme, some meritricious humbug and say, subscribe largely to the great capaign against corruption, and by means of the campaign against corruption they will get into power and then they will promote their own agricultural interests, and they will tell us all the time it was for the benefit of Canada, while at the same time they would not allow any one who is not a farmer to join them, lest some small portion of their effort might be for the general benefit of Canada and the farmer would not have it all. That is one of the singular things that is presented in this movement at the present day, but if anybody wants to get any little peep into the action of this kind of people, and see how ready they are to destroy the liberties of the people for their own ends, they have only to look at the Ontario Temperance Act, which is now being promulgated and amended to perfection, and is double copper bottomed and rivetted so that there is no escape.

The Squealers.

Some benevolent people connected with the movement would have flogging provided as a penalty, and I think it should be, because then some of these people would be the first to be flogged. Mr. Burnham added that 'any mean, sneaking informer or other blackguard is good enough to bring a complaint against the finest lady or gentleman in the land under section 61 of the O.T.A. Anyone that knows or cares about British liberty would not tolerate any such thing for a moment. While the people of Ontario do not understand it. By a sort of nemesis Sir Wm. Hearst met his fate and went down to that disgrace which he well deserved. After the case had been brought to court on the information of somebody who need not say that he was speaking the truth, because if he was one he was not, there is no [illegible] getting back at the writer for such an impious information."

Mr. Burnham called upon the people to disown Rev. Best Speace "and all persons of that ilk who think they are their brothers keepers whether their brothers want it or not."

The Seconder.

The Peterborough member evidently was regarded as a man who was merely "blowing off steam" for no one took his speech seriously and his seconder, Thomas Hay, of Selkirk, took particular pains to inform the House that he did not agree with the sentiments expressed by Brother Burnham. He did agree, however, with the view that campaign funds raised for the purpose of corrupting the electors were a menace to the country and should be prohibited.

The United Farmers made light of the charges levelled against them and ignored completely Burnham's sneers at prohibitionists and the so-called "uplift" organizations. Mr. Caldwell, President of the New Brunswick farmers, said the agrarians merely contemplated campaign funds for local constituencies and had no thought of a national war chest. Maharg, of the Saskatchewan Grain Growers, laughed Burnham out of court. While Rev. B. Stacey of Fraser Valley, said that although he sat on the same side of the House as the Peterborough Tory he would consider himself in better company with those who were the target of Burnham's abuse.

THOS. TINDLE MUST PAY COST

Thomas Tindle was arrigned before Magistrate Dumble this morning under the Motor Vehicles Act.

According to several bystanders, it is alleged that Tindle was trying to emulate the records of Barney Oldfield or Ralph de Palma, on Water Street.

Tindle was charged with, on Thursday, 8th April, driving car No. 118223, and running into a car driven by Dr. W. N. Hayes and contrary to the Act, did not return to the scene of the accident to render assistance and give in writing to the person suffering or injured his name and address, the name of the owner of the car, his address, and number of permit.

The Magistrate consented to Dr. Hayes withdrawing the information if the accused made good the damage to the car, which he promised to do. If they are not, the accused will appear again in one week and bear the brunt of the law.

The Frequent Cause of Nervous Breakdown

NOTHING so certainly breaks down the nervous system as constant straining of the eyes.

You may think that sewing is light work and wonder why it tires you.

It is the strain on the eyes.

The controlling of the sight is the most delicate work of the nervous system and when there is strain on the eyes there is an enormous waste of nervous energy.

There are times when it seems necessary to stick at this work for long hours and to sew by artificial light, but you may have to pay for it by a nervous breakdown.

It is then well to know about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, as a means of restoring a run-down nervous system.

Whatever may be the cause of your nervous breakdown, it has been demonstrated in many thousands of cases that there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to restore the depleted nerve cells.

Headaches, tired feelings, sleeplessness, indigestion, lack of energy and appetite are some of the indications of an exhausted condition of the nerves.

Your digestive system is failing to supply the necessary nutrition to the blood and nerves, so it becomes necessary to employ such restorative treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Rest will help. Eating only wholesome, nutritious food will help. But restoration is very greatly hastened and assured by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50 cts. a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd. Toronto. Observe the portrait and signature of A. 48 MAJORITY FOR GOVERNMENT ON ELECTION CHANGE

FIRST SHOW OF STRENGTH BY U. F. O.-LABOUR FORCES ON PROPERTY QUALIFICATIONS.

TORONTO, April 15. — For the first time the Drury government last night concluded to make a test of strength and divided the House. They were overwhelmingly upheld—the vote was 71 to 23—and the result was interesting. Strict party lines were not adhered to.

The division took place over an amendment by the Conservative member for Sudbury, Charles McCrae, to give a six months' hoist to a government measure to reduce property qualifications for candidates for membership in municipal councils.

Property Qualifications.

Hon. Mr. Raney's bill, which was responsible for the division, provides that everybody shall be qualified to be elected a member of a municipal council of a local municipality who is a householder residing in the municipality and is entered on the voters' list as qualified to vote, who is a British subject of 21 years of age, and not disqualified.

The debate was largely participated in by members of all the various groups.

Hon. Howard Ferguson thought the bill was an undesirable one and should be withdrawn. He could see no reason for interfering with the existing conditions and did not think the municipalities desired the proposed change.

Mr. McCrae (Sudbury) moved a 6 months' hoist.

Hon. George S. Henry viewed with alarm any attempt to change the present system of municipal government by such means as the bill proposed. The bill should be allowed to stand.

L. W. Oke, (Lambton East) favored the bill, while Hon. Thomas Crawford insisted that there was no demand for a change in the law regarding property qualifications for municipal office. The House should guard against men in this province, "who are living by their chin music, being too lazy to work."

The bill was described as being a measu towards extreme socialism.

This was characterized by G. E. Watson (North Victoria,) as being nonsense. The bill was a move in the right direction; there is a demand for it that was insistent.

R. M. Waters (North Renfrew) J. C. Brown (North Middlesex) both championed the bill as being a "measure of democracy."

Mr. McCrae (Sudbury) then moved for a six months' hoist of the bill, but his amendment was lost and the bill was advanced a stage.

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers you.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or the kidneys are not acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal action; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder troubles.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and the urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

DR. C. B. AMYS GAVE AN ADDRESS

Dr. C. H. Amys spoke at the presentation of "The End of the Road" last evening at the Allen Theatre. He dwelt on the good work being carried on by the National Council for Combatting Venereal Disease. Dr. Amys spoke of the honour and respect the name Canadian had been endowed with by the sacrifice of the boys in France. With ignorance and superstition, China and Japan, on the west, and the slums of Europe on the east, Canada has a name to uphold, and if we are to bring forth degenerates, where will our name go to? We will lose our national existence, said Dr. Amys.

Dr. Amys outlined the Government's plan in establishing free laboratories and treatment and the results it would be possible to attain.

To show the deadly effect of syphilis, he said, we have read of the propaganda carried on by the Germans who, when they evacuated cities, they are reported to have spread the disease, knowing it was more deadly than their bullets.

NIGHT COUGHS PREVENT SLEEP
WEAR OUT THE SYSTEM

The dry, hacking cough, cough, day and night is very wearing on the system. The constant coughing disturbs the rest and keeps the lungs and bronchial tubes in such an irritated and inflamed condition they get no chance to heal.

You will find in Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup a remedy without an equal for curing coughs and colds, soothing the lungs, loosening the phlegm, strengthening and healing the breathing organs, and fortifying them against serious pulmonary disease.

Mrs. Fred. Fairburn, Copper Cliff, Ont., writes:—"I caught a heavy cold, got a sore throat and had a terrible hacking cough that I could not get rid of. I could not sleep at night. I had tried quite a few remedies, but they did not seem to do me much good until I took Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. By the time I had taken two bottles my cough was all gone.

"It seemed to loosen the cough right away so that I could spit up the phlegm that gathered in my throat, and also took that hot, raw, burning fever out of my bronchial tubes. I feel that Dr. Wood's has no equal."

THE FUNERAL OF ALD. HARRY PHELAN

REPRESENTATIVE BODY OF CITIZENS ATTENDED THE SERVICE.

The remains of the late Alderman Henry Phelan were laid to rest in St. Peter's cemetery this morning at 11 o'clock. The funeral was attended by a representative body of citizens. At 9 o'clock a solemn Requiem mass was celebrated in St. Peter's Cathedral by Rev. C. J. Phelan, brother of Alderman Phelan, and rector of the Cathedral, assisted by Rev. J. V. McAuley as deacon, and Rev. Peter Maguire as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Costello was master of ceremonies, and the priests in the Sanctuary were Fathers Cantillon, Guiry, Brethertón of Hastings, J. J. O'Brien and O'Gorman.

The solemn cortege entered the church headed by the pallbearers, Dr. F. McNulty, Mr. R. Sheehy, Dr. J. V. Gallivan, Dr. A. J. Robertson, Mayor A. A. McIntyre, and Mr. Alex. Elliott, while the choir sang "Nearer My God to Thee." The casket was followed by the mourners, after which the City Council and City officials marched in a body to the front of the Cathedral. Numbered amongst the congregation which filled the church were Messrs. C. C. Abbott, Wm. Medill, G. Giroux, Joseph Stewart, J. J. Lynch, George Lynch, J. Lynch, P. Thompson, George King, Ex-Mayor Duncan, Robert Hicks, Ross Dobbin, Frank Fairen, Wm. Buller, Murty, Walter Worth, Alex. Kay, C. H. Clementi, Conroy, Wm. Bradburn, W. S. Merrill, John Craig.

Bishop's Address.

In a short address His Lordship Bishop M. J. O'Brien referred to the infinite mercy of God, which makes us look forward to a happy eternity. Instead of condemning man who He had made in His own image, and into whom He had breathed an immortal soul, He showed His mercy in sending His Son whose mission in the earth was consummated in His death. The deceased has gone, His Lordship concluded, and is at present rendering an account of his stewardship on earth. The Scripture has taught us that it is a holy thought to pray for the spirit of the departed. We can all assist him who has gone by our prayers.

At the Cemetery.

While the bell of the Cathedral tolled the large concourse of citizens who had come to pay their last respects to a man who had been loved and respected by all, left the church and the remains were taken to their last resting place in St. Peter's cemetery. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. C. J. Phelan.

CHAIRMAN OF THE LEGAL COMMITTEE WAS OVERLOOKED

The departing of Ald. Gordon to represent the City Council before the Legal committee of the Legislature yesterday when Mr. Tooms' bill providing for the election of Police Commissions was under discussion is likely to call forth a protest from some members of the Council at its next meeting. It is contended that Ald. Crowe, as chairman of the City's Legal committee, should have been appointed if any representative was to be sent, and from the reported statement of Mr. Tooms he had expected one of the aldermen who had been a member of both last year's and the present Council, and who had supported the agitation for the change which originated here.

Ald. Crowe, however, was overlooked in some way or other, and it is stated on the other hand that Ald. Gordon was kept acquainted of the progress of affairs in Toronto by the Hon. Mr. Raney, Attorney-General, and had been apprised of the meeting of the Committee on Legislation.

Whether the present feelings of resentment break into denunciation of the oversight of the chairman of the Council's Legal committee by whoever authorized Ald. Gordon to represent the Council depends upon the present criticisms flourishing until the next meeting is called. They may vaporize in the meantime.

CONTRACTORS AT WORK ON CLINIC

DIFFICULTY IN SECURING BUILDING MATERIAL.

Ephgrave & Barrett, local contractors, have been given the contract for the erection of the medical and surgical clinic at the corner of Reid and Charlotte Streets, at a figure approximating $45,000. The foundation work has been begun, and is off to a good start.

The structure will be two storeys and basement, 44 by 80 feet, and will be of pressed brick, with a concrete foundation. W. H. Barry is the architect, and the building will be a handsome structure, worthy of the fine property on which it will be erected.

The company has purchased the entire property right up to the school house and running east as far as the lane back of Dr. Wightman's residence.

Mr. Ephgrave this morning, when seen by The Examiner, said there was great difficulty in getting material. Orders had to be placed months ahead, and then no definite date can be given for delivery. "Fortunately," Mr. Ephgrave said, "we have the material for the clinic guaranteed, but we do not know what we are going to do about our other contracts." He stated that their policy had always been to buy as much material locally as was possible, but they had to go out of town for some.

"We expect to have the building completed by the middle of November," he said.

Besides the renovating of the Bell Apartments, Ephgrave & Barrett have just completed the erection of scaffolding in St. Andrew's Church, the erection of a bank building at Oakwood, and are now engaged in alterations to the Farmers' Dairy at Indian River, where Mr. Barrett is in charge.

CHIEF THOMPSON WAS IN TORONTO

Chief of Police Thompson was in Toronto yesterday and during the day visited the Parliament Buildings while the bill to make the Police Commission an elective body was being disposed of.

CADILLAC MOTOR CAR HELD UP

On account of the recent and unexpected congestion in railway transport, Hyslop Bros., Ltd., of Toronto, the distributors of Cadillac Motor Cars, have been unable to place on exhibit at the Motor Show, with their local dealers, the Duffus Motor Sales Co., as they had planned to do. This they regret very much, and they will have at as early a date as possible, a Cadillac car on exhibit with the above mentioned firm, when those who are interested and who realize all that Cadillac uality means, will have an opportunity for inspection and demonstration.

THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

Guaranteed to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that the best nerve food is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

Weak, tired people regain strength and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks.

CAUTION:— While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

WILL REMIT ALL TUITION FEES

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION FOR RETURNED SOLDIERS.

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, April 15.—Remission of all tuition fees to returned soldiers attending the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph this year has been decided upon by Ontario Government, Hon. Manning Doherty, announced to-day. This does not apply to soldiers who are receiving vocational training from Government. It is expected that over a hundred veterans will benefit by decision of Government. Total amount of fees remitted is estimated at four thousand dollars. Government's action is explained by desire to aid veterans to settle on farms in Ontario.

BEAVER TRUCK CANADIAN MADE

INTERESTING TRUCK EXHIBIT AT THE MOTOR SHOW—DUFFUS MOTOR SALES BOOTH.

The big Beaver Worm Drive, Canadian-made Truck has arrived for the exhibit of the Duffus Motor Sales. Truly this is a real truck. The frame much heavier than those usually seen. The rear spring supported by three clips instead of one or two. The rear axle is supported by a heavy beam. It has an armored radiator. Altogether the truck is most complete.

Surely the object of the builders of this truck was to meet the exacting requirements of motor truck buyers whose knowledge of value is based on economical constancy and durability. Anyone with any mechanical knowledge whatever will admit that this new line which was chosen by the Duffus Motor Sales is sure to meet the demands of the truck buying public.

The Beaver Worm Drive axle is of special military type and affords an unusual amount of road clearance. The mechanical constructions is based on experience of the allied government with trucks during the war. Incorporated in its construction are such marked features as forced lubrication to the worm. Bock adjustable tapered roller bearings, etc. Automatic adjustable worm to car for elongation due to heat. Id-89-8863 worth the price of admission.

The band of Shamrock-Llanrhystyd provided music together to all in the strains its produced, and wandering around the hall and wandering a little from the music at times, it was a notable feature. The raffle booths were a great centre of attraction and the pageant held at 8.30 made up of floats and representatives from all the booths, although not approximating the motor parade closely aproached it in colors and excitement.

All those attending the show tonight are urged to come early so that the entire programme may be taken in. Seven o'clock is the proper hour if you don't want to miss anything.

LOCAL FACTORIES MORE SANITARY, DR. CLINTON FINDS

Sanitary conditions in Peterborough factories have improved considerably during the last year, Dr. Clinton, District Officer of Health, said this morning after completing the inspection upon which he was engaged for two days.

In some of the shops there is still need for drinking fountains, and in some other respects the sanitation has not reached an ideal state.

Dr. Clinton, however, was pleased with the signs of progress, especially in some factories, superintendents of which have evidently set themselves out to make the sanitary equipment more efficient and protective of the health of the employees.

In his visits he was accompanied by Sanitary Inspector Stapleton, and left at noon to-day to investigate a reported outbreak of smallpox.

ENGINEERS ARE OUT ON STRIKE

Eight stationary engineers at the Quaker Oats plant walked out yesterday as a result of a disagreement with the company over wages. The men asked for a 15 per cent. increase and better working conditions. Two days were given to the company, not necessarily for the increase, but for an answer at least; but as none was forthcoming, the walkout took place yesterday at noon.

No agreement has yet been reached between the men and the company.

NO COUNCIL MEETING TO-NIGHT.

There will be no meeting of the City Council to-night, at which deputations representing Sunlight sewing intended to be present. There is a meeting of the Property committee at 8 o'clock and the Manufacturers' committee at 8.30.

ROY-CRAFT AT THE MOTOR SHOW

THIS NEW SERIES OF ART PICTURES GREATLY ADMIRED BY VISITORS TO THE ARMOURIES.

The Roy Studio have on exhibit at the Motor Show the first of the new "Roy-Craft" series. "Roy-Craft" is an oil painting—that is, a Roy photograph which has been coloured in oils. They combine all the beauty of an oil painting, with the truthful rendering of a photograph.

For some time past there has been a demand for pictures typical of Peterborough for gifts and remembrances. The "Roy-Craft" will fill this long-felt want, as the photographs have been taken in and around Peterborough. From an artistic standpoint, they leave little to be desired, as the atmospheric and colour effects are very beautiful. Special frames, in a deep Roman gold, harmonise with the general colour scheme of the pictures. This series as a whole is one of the most attractive productions of this old-established studio.

MR. GORDON MAKES A STATEMENT ON RADIAL RAILWAY

SAID IT WAS NOT THE INTENTION TO BURDEN NORTHERN TOWNSHIPS.

Mr. G. N. Gordon said that Reeve Shaw's idea that a radial railway into the north country from Peterborough would cost more than the whole assessment of the northern townships, was not according to the plan at all. Mr. Gordon said the Dominion Government now owned the Canadian Northern running from Trenton into Coe Hill, and the Grand Trunk into Haliburton, and the Irondale line had some arrangement with the Canadian Northern also, so the scheme was to attempt to connect Peterborough city with the Irondale and Bancroft and the Grand Trunk going into Haliburton at the cost of the government, and not have it assessed against any of the townships, as the Hydro Radials are now constructed. Mr. Gordon said he quite understood that the townships could not afford to pay the cost of any such railway scheme, and it was never the intention of asking the Hydro to do otherwise than to advocate the construction of the railway as a government project.

THE DODGE CAR HAS MANY ADMIRERS

DUFFUS MOTOR SALES SHOWING OF THE DODGE CAR RECEIVING MANY FAVOURABLE COMMENTS.

Judging from the numerous expressions of approval of Dodge Brothers' car, by those attending the Motor Show, no other car enjoys such an enviable reputation.

Scores of owners and others were heard to say that the Dodge is the one car of all cars that is so thoroughly made and so mechanically correct that every owner of a Dodge Brothers car is not only satisfied, but is truly proud of his car and his investment.

Dodge Brothers never experienced the difficulties that some manufacturers of automobiles did. Being thorough mechanics, and having had a wide knowledge of car building prior to going into it themselves, obviated this usual unpleasant feature. Consequently its good name from the first has made it extremely popular, and the opinion usually expressed is highly commendable.

This, together with the reputation and service of the Duffus Motor Sales, who are its distributors in this section, makes it an extremely attractive proposition, and is resulting in many sales.

ADDRESSED THE POULTRY SHOW

The best attendance the local Poultry Association have had for some years turned out last evening to hear Mr. Harry Lush the well known local poultryman address them on the feeding and raising of chicks. President G. M. Dickensen presided.

Mr. Lush is an authority on poultry and his experiences proved not only interesting but very instructive to all and the subject was very well handled. Mr. Lush has handled all varieties of fowl and although it is not generally known he is the largest dealer in all varities of birds in America. In his own yards on Dublin street he has 600 exhibition boards and has made a life study of poultry raising. It is hoped that Mr. Lush will address the poultrymen again.

Some of the members brought birds to compare and invaluable information and pointers were given by Mr. Lush on the better care of these.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Richard Greene, 277 National Avenue, Detroit, Mich., and formerly of 288 Rubidge street, Peterboro, when Nellie Mae Hounslow, the adopted daughter of Mrs. Greene, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Charles Edwards of Detroit, of Walkers Catering and Baking Company.

The bride was attired in her travelling suit of blue serge, with a blue sailor hat, and flowing veil, and wore a corsage boquet of sweet peas, carnations and roses.

Miss Ella Olson acted as bridesmaid and wore a blue suit and pink voile blouse and held a corsage bouquet of sweet peas, carnations and roses.

Mr. Ross Greene, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

After a sumptuous wedding supper, the bride and groom left for an extended trip through northern Michigan. After their return they will reside at 367½ Grand River Avenue, Detroit, where the bride will receive her friends every other Wednesday.

Cammandant Coutin of the Salvation Army, performed the ceremony.

VOL. XLVI NO. 91 PETERBOROUGH SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1920 PRICE TWO CENTS

AGGRESSIVE OPERATIONS RESTRICTED

DEVELOPMENTS OF THE WEEK IN THE STOCK MARKET—CALL MONEY UP.

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, April 17.—Developments of the week in the securities market were governed largely by tighter credits and the railroad strike. Neither of these factors acted as a deterrent, however to the aggressive operations of bull pools.

Call money rose to fifteen per cent. when the demand was at its height, albeit most of the weeks loans were made at 8, marked relaxation being shown when interior banks came into the market. Time money lost none of its stringency, slightly higher bids being made for short time accomodations, with few acceptions. The railroad strike had little or no effect on transportation beyond reducing dealings in that quarter to a minimum, but reports from industrial centres indicated serious curtailment of production, due to the scarcity of coal and other raw materials.

On the surface the investment market derived further strength from the success of the Pennsylvania railroad bond offering, this being followed by announcement of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, of an additional issue of $100,000,000 preferred stock.

The effect of these new undertakings upon previous issues with less attractive interest returns was most obvious in Liberty bonds and Victory notes, nearly all of which suffered depreciation to new loan records.

Additional reasons for the weakness of the government's war flotations were found in the higher interest rates attached to new treasury certificates and involving railroad liquidation from sections of the country where industrial unrest has been most conspicuous.

THE McLAUGHLIN IN GREATER DEMAND THAN EVER

The McLaughlin dealers in this city, Messrs. A. Brown & Co., of 388 Water Street, report a most gratifying demand during the Motor Show for their popular cars. It is stated that the local sales of McLaughlan cars during the show alone amounted to $7,000, with an additional $11,000 sales for the past week. There has always been a steady demand for McLaughlin cars in Peterborough,—greater at times than the production could properly take care of. One of the real reasons for this steady demand has been the growing appreciation of the value of the valve-in-head engine in these cars. 1d-91-1w-17

AUCTIONED OFF THE REMAINING ARTICLES

Motor Show Came to Conclusion Last Evening.

Last evening the biggest and best Motor Show yet held in the City closed with as big a flourish as the show opened and with reluctance the huge assembly left the Armouries which has provided many happy and interesting hours for the citizens during the past week. Late in the evening, Mr. J. G. Campazzi acting as auctioneer, the last of the articles in the booths were auctioned off and practically everyone left with a souvenir of the show.

Cabinet Changes

BENIAH BOWMAN MAY GO—DIFFERENCE AMONG SOME OF THE MEMBERS.

"In the very near future there may be changes in the Cabinet. Some of us may measure up to the required efficiency and some may not. Some of us may not be in the Cabinet very long."

This statement of Hon. Peter Smith, provincial treasurer, made in the introduction of his budget speech seems to bear out the rumors that have been going rounds for some time that it would not be long before there were some changes on the Government side. It is quite evident that some of the Cabinet picked out by Premier Drury have not come up to the mark

Hon. Beniah Bowman, Minister of Lands and Forests, it is said, is booked to go. Mr. Bowman was the first U.F.O. member elected to the Ontario Legislature, and sat for the first time during the 1919 session. Apparently this was one of his qualifications for a Cabinet job.

Although faithful in his attendance in the House, Mr. Bowman has done nothing but answer a few questions regarding his department. While the other Ministers have taken part in the debates, Mr. Bowman has remained silent. Even on Thursday last, when there was a debate on the Pic River and Black Sturgeon limits, a matter affecting his department, it was left to Hon. W. E. Raney to say what the Government intended to do in this regard, instead of Mr. Bowman saying what his department would do in the matter.

Just when Mr. Bowman will step out is not known, and none of the Ministers will drop a hint that he is going, but the signs all point to the departure of the Minister. Just who will take place his place has not been decided on, and probably this is the reason that no announcement has been made.

Difference Among Labor Section.

Then again in the Labor section of the Government all is not going smoothly. Hon. Walter Rollo, though chosen by Hon. E. C. Drury as Minister of Labor, and presumably head of the Labor group, is not by any means sure of his position. The Labor group are gradually dividing into two parts, and it must be stated that Hon. Walter Rollo has the smaller following.

Mayor MacBride, of Brantford, and Charles Swayze, of Niagara Falls have more to do with the labor section than has Hon. Walter Rollo, and it is claimed that this section by no means recognize the Minister of Labor as head of the Labor section. There has been no open break yet, but from reading the signs in the House, a break is coming.

Won't Dovilely Follow Government

And that the Labor group under MacBride and Swayze are not going to docilely follow the U.F.O. Government has also been shown. There have been two or three speeches made which show that the Labor men are going to act on their own on certain matters.

Just a couple of nights ago a sample was given by the Labor member for South Waterloo that when he wanted information from a U. F. O. member he didn't want to take it from the Attorney-General.

The House has now been in session since March 9th., and among the features of the session has been the activitiy of the Labor men in discussing matters coming before the House and the almost absolute silence among the U.F.O. members. Of cou se there have been about three U.F.O. members outside of the Cabinet, who have made speeches, but the reset take it out in desk thumping. And, believe me, those U.F.O. members are a great little body of dask-thumpers.

Personal Attacks.

Then there are the attacks of Hon. G. H. Ferguson on H. H. Dewart and vice versa. Mostly the speeches made on different subjects by these leaders of the two Opposition parties, are made up of personal attacks on each other. And when Hon. E. C. Drury takes a little slam at the Conservative leader H. H. Dewart's face registers great glee. He smiles, nods his head and mentally says "ataboy."

And so it has been going on for

EXCESSIVE SOMNOLENCE IS EVIDENT

MEMBERS EXCHANGE PLEASANTRIES WITH SURPRISING FREQUENCY.

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, April 17.—An excessive somnolence, and lethargy with scarcely a thrill worth the mentioning have characterized the session to date, and there is little prospect of any change. It is as thought members have found the magnificent New Chamber too big for them and that the awe of it has restrained them fro mengaging in the rough and tumble o fpolitical controversy as in days gone by. Acrimony has been lacking throughout, and the division bell rang but for the second time last night, when A. R. MacMaster of Brome, appealed against the ruling of the chair, and the members were called in to vote. Pleasantries have been passed across the floor of the House with surprising frequency, Sir George Foster, leader of the government, who has wonderfully mellowd in his later years, vying wirh Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King, leader of the Opposition in cordial courtesies. In fact everything has been as placid as possible.

Fighting Spirit Lacking.

There was a day when Opposition members did not have to be whipped to their feet to engage in debate. But the fighting spirit of William Pugsley, who more than anyone else was responsible for the great naval blockade of 1912, the biting sarcasm of Ned MacDonald, the bull dog tendency of Frank Oliver and the joy in debate simply for the joy's sake which characterized many more of these who sat to Mr. Speaker's left in other times are missing to-day. Men do "their bit" on whatever issue is before the House and then sit back and cease to be very much interested. A round dozen members of the Opposition have borne the brunt of the housework since the session started. The leader of the Opposition has made two very considerable speeches, but while an assiduous attendant at all hours in the House has not flung himself into the debates as much as last year. Hon. W. S. Fielding, MacMaster of Brome, Beland of Beauce, Duff of Lunenburg, Cahill of Pontiac, Lapointe of East Quebec, McKenzie of Cape Breton, Power of South Quebec, Euler of North Waterloo—these and a few others have been in the forefront.

Clark Laid Up.

The "Natoinal Progressive" opposition has been unfortunate in that at the present time it lacks both its leader, and first lieutenant, Hon. T. stubborn effects of a carbuncle and stubborn effetcs of a carbuncle and has not been in the House for over 3 weeks. Dr. M. Clark of Red Deer, who has added during the session to his already heavy contributions to the pages of Hansard, several speeches of high merit, and who still stands out as the best and readiest orator in the House, has been laid up with a severe cold, which is epidemic these days at the capital. And so the new party is practically leaderless. To date it has initialed nothing, and in most cases has been found in agreement with, and voting with the official Opposition. But it is young, and contains some promising members.

LUMBERMEN AFTER A WAGE INCREASE

STRIKE STAGED FOR MAY THE FOURTH NEXT.

(Special to The Examiner.)

MENOMINEE, Mich., April 17.—Paper mills, lumber mills and all other wood-working manufacturing plants of the nation will suffer on May 4, when many thousand timber workers of all kinds throughout the upper peninsula of Michigan go on strike for eight hours' work and ten hours' pay. This is the greatest timber-producing section in the United States so that when the strike breaks the paper shortage as well as all other products depending upon wood will be greatly augmented. Employers assert that they will close down permanently rather than meet the demands. They are showing fight by shipping out more lumber than has ever been known here. Great lumber piles which have not been depleted for fifty years to-day stand nearly empty.

SOVIET SUGGESTS PEACE CONFERENCE

Is Prepared to Make Concessions to Poland.

Special to Examiner.

WARSAW, April 13.— On its latest note to Poland with regard to the proposed peace conference the Russian Soviet Government reiterates the advisability of holding a conference in Esthonia. While making certain concessions to Poland, the Soviets reject the Polish suggestion for a local armistice around Borisov, which the Poland authorities proposed as a place for the peace meeting.

"We cannot understand," says the note, "how Poland suggested such a place as the centre of the fighting front. The ideal of a local armistice appears perhaps to conceal strategic designs of the Polish general staff.

Captured Children

MAN AND WOMEN TAKE PART IN KIDNAPPING AT SCHOOL.

(Special to The Examiner.)

CORNWALL, April 17.—People in the vicinity of the South Branch School House were greatly excited to-day over the disappearance of Mrs. Christopher Whilford at the school in company with a man armed with a revolver, with the object of securing possession of her two children, James Whilford, aged nine years, and Gertie Whilford, aged seven.

It appears that the father of the children died a few months ago and left the children in care of their grandfather, Edward Whilford. They have been attending the school nearby, where Miss Grace M. Cameron is the teacher.

When the children returned for the afternoon session, they told Miss Cameron that someone was after them, and she recognized the woman as the mother. The children clung to their teacher, and asked her to save them, that they did not want to go.

The mother said she had the law in her hands and Miss Cameron replied that while [illegible] the children were in [illegible]

At this juncture a man unknown to the teacher, walked in with a revolver in his hand, and between them the boy and girl were marched off to a buggy on the road, which was in charge of another man.

At sight of the revolver, the children raised a hubbub, and Donald L. McLennan, who was driving by, attempted to interfere in the kidnapping. He was threatened with the revolver, and the party drove off.

It was learned later that Mrs. Whilford had bought a ticket for Valleyfield, Que., at Summerstown Station, and stated that she intended crossing into the United States.

May Drop the Case.

W. H. Stringer, of Toronto, a member of the Ontario Provincial Police, who was in this section in connection with depredations at one of the neighbouring islands, was put on the case, but it is doubtful if any further effort will bemade to trace the woman.

It is said that one of the men in the case is the husband of Mrs. Whilford, who did not like the disposition made of the children by her late husband, and took this means of securing them.

SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT IN FAST TIME

COVERED TRIP FROM WASHINGTON TO OTTAWA IN A LITTLE OVER FOUR HOURS.

(Special to Examiner)

OTTAWA, April 17.—One of the most unique flights in the annals of flying on this continent was brought to a conclusion yesterday afternoon by the arrival in Ottawa of two airmen attached to the United States Army Aviation Corps. They were Lieut. Col. Harold E. Hartney and Capt. H T. Douglas, both Canadians, with fine war records They flew from Washington to Ottawa, a distance of 450 miles as the crow flies, in exactly four hours and two minutes. Which according to air experts in the capital is regarded as unusually fast time. They had no mishaps enroute outside of running into a severe rain storm which compelled them to slow up and delayed them considerably. The two flyers are in Ottawa for two days to consult with officials of the Canadian airboard on matters pertaining to flying and while no particulars will be divulged by the Canadian Air Board, it is felt that the facts will be of particular interest when released. Lt. Col. Hartney is a well known Saskatoon lawyer, a crack rifle shot and well known in Canada. He has carried off high honors on several occasions at D. R. A. meets at Rockcliffe, Ottawa and has an enviable war record. Having elisted in Canada early in the war. The flight to Ottawa from Washington constitutes a record, no other direct flight between the two capitals having ever been attempted before.

HEAVY DAMAGE DUE TO FLOOD

PROPERTY DAMAGE WILL EXCEED A MILLION DOLLARS.

Special to Examiner.

MANISTIQUE, Mich., April 17. — More than $1,500,000 property damage was done here when the Manistique river became a raging current, over ran its banks and buried many main streets beneath from one to four feet of water.

The Goodwillie factory was completely wiped out, a paper mill was practically destroyed, a lime works, a chemical plant and many saw mills were badly damaged.

Huge piles of timber to be cut into lumber, pulp wood for paper and other wood for chemicals were swept into Lake Huron and lost. A dozen houses were ruined, while 20 more were under water to the second floor for several days thereby ruining the household effects. Much merchandize in home and store basements were destroyed.

Warm rains and sunshine melted the unusual heavy snow in the forests north of here and caused the worst flood that the city has known in 50 years.

IMPROVEMENT OF FREIGHT SERVICE

PETERBORO SHIPPERS WILL BENEFIT BY THE CHANGE.

Through the efforts of W. S. Campbell, secretary of the Transportation Committee, Board of Trade, for last year, and Mr. James E. Walsh, general manager of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association the following advice has been received from Mr. Allan Purvis, general superintendent of the Canadian Pacific Railway Co. (Ontario):

"West-bound traffic from Montreal for Peterborough will be handled on our No. 905, due to leave Montreal late in the evening, arriving Smiths Falls 7.45 a.m. the following morning, and we will arrange to set our way freight back out of Smiths Falls until 9 a.m. to connect. This will mean that traffic for Peterborough leaving Montreal on Monday night would reach Peterborough on Wednesday. East-bound traffic will be handled by wayfreight to Smiths Falls to connect there with train No. 910, which is the Toronto-Montreal merchandise train. This train is due to leave Smiths Falls in the evening about 6.30 o'clock."

Negotiations have been under way for a considerable time in connection with the improvement of the freight service between Montreal and Peterborough, and Mr. Campbell deserves appreciation for his valuable assistance in succeeding to acquire this improved service.

LOW-NECK DRESSES FORBIDDEN IN CHURCH

PHOENIX, Ariz., April 17.—The doors of St. Mary's Catholic Church here bore notices saying: "Entrance into this church is forbiuden to women wearing low-necked dresses." The notices were signed by the rector, who has frequently protested against the extreme styles in women's attire.

BRITISH COLUMBIA DRY REFERENDUM

Matter Will Be Dealt With in the Legislature To-day.

Canadian Press.

VANCOUVER, April 17.—Fifty fifty is the betting whether or not there will be bone dry referendum under the Federal Act in British Columbia this year. Before the Legislature closes on Saturday it will pass a resolution calling for such a referendum under certain conditions.

Provincial referendum has already been arranged to be held in August The electors will be asked if they desire continuance of the present prohibition law or if they wish the system of sale from Government stores.

Upon which way this vote goes the question whether bone dry referendum will be submitted will be settled. If the vote favours prohibition a bone dry plan will then go before the electors, but if the decision is for government sale, that will settle the question permanently.

Coercive Measures

ALLIES HAVE AGREED ON A DEFINITE POLICY REGARDING GERMANY.

By Henry Wood.

(United Press.)

PARIS, April 17.—"The Allies are going to San Remo solidly re-united in thier determination to force Germany to fulfill all her obligations, especially immediate disarmament," Premier Millerand said last night just before he departed for the conference of the Council of Premiers which opens in the Italian city Monday.

Millerand's train left Paris shortly before midnight. He was accompanied by Marshal Foch, General Berthelot, Premier Venizelos of Greece, Earl Curson, the British Foreign Minister and other officials.

"Recent divergencies, which caused a crisis in the life of the Versailles Treaty have been settled," the French Premier asserted. "The Allies have agreed unanimously on a positive policy of enforcement. At San Remo they will lay down measures of coercion to be employed in case of continued default.

"These measures probably will include reimposition of the blockade and breaking off of relations."

HEAVY FIGHTING ON RUSSIAN FRONT

(Canadian Press).

VLADIVISTOCK, April 17 — Heavy fighting between Russian and Japanese forces continues at Khabarovsk on a Mur River, and casualities suffered by each side are heavy, according to reports received here.

Towns along Ussuri River branch of trans-Siberian Railway North of here are all in hands of Japanese, but hundreds of Russians are fleeing to hills and have again started Guerilla warfare. Arrests of Russians by Japanese in this city continues, but government buildings are being returned.

BOLSHEVIST PLOTTERS TO BE ARRESTED

THREE CIVILIANS AND THREE ARMY OFFICERS INVOLVED.

(United Press)

BERLIN, April 17.—Arrest of six alleged Bolshevist plotters was ordered by Dr. Gessler, Minister of Defence in Chancellor Mueller's Cabinet

Gessler said he had been informed that three civillans and three army officers had been meeting in Government building to foment a plot. Names of the men were not revealed since they had not been apprehended.

The position of the government to-night seemed more secure. The general conviction prevailed that the threatened monarchist coup had been averted at least for the time being.

Governmtnt officials believed the hostile attitude of the people toward any outbreak had caused the reactionaries to abandon their plans. The situation in pomerania; headquarters of the plotters was reported quiet.

THE STRIKE IS NEARLY OVER

LARGE NUMBER OF STRIKERS HAVE RETURNED TO WORK.

(Canadian Press.)

The speedy termination of transportation tie-up wrought by unauthorized strikes of railroad workers throughout the United States seemed assured to-day.

Switchmen, yardmen and other employes of Pennsylvania, Reading and Baltimore and Ohio lines in Philadelphia district, one of the eastern strongholds of the strike, were returning to work this morning under orders of their strike leaders.

Strikers at Baltimore also were returning this morning, having voted last night to end the strike.

In New York district, railroad officials declared, men were returning rapidly and reports from all sections of the country indicated that the swing back to work was fast gaining momentum.

This was reflected both in the increased amount of traffic handled by lines and loss of enthusiasm for strike apparent in attitude of many of the strikers.

Philadelphia settlement was effected on basis of promise from Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio officials that returning strikers would be permitted to retain seniority ranking and would be free from dismissal because of their action.

MUSKRAT PELTS SOLD AT $4.55 EACH

Thos. Barrie's bid of $4.55 was the highest offered at the muskrat pelt auction at Hiawatha yesterday afternoon, and was accepted by the Indians who had pooled their catch to the number of about 1500. The sale was considered successful under the conditions that developed during the week, and the decline from the $5 mark was expected.

Four Famous Treatments For Improving Your Skin

DO YOU ever feel dissatisfied with your appearance—wish this or that were different, and long to change it?

One thing you can change—and that is your skin.

Any girl can improve her appearance by improving her complexion. With the right care you can make your skin so lovely in its softness, its smooth, fine texture and brilliant color, that it will outweigh almost any other advantage you could possess.

Remember that your skin changes in spite of you. Each day old skin dies and new skin takes its place. No matter what defects your complexion has suffered from in the past—by regular treatment you can give this new skin the loveliness and charm it should have.

Read the four treatments given on this page. Each one of them tells you some special way of improving your complexion. If your skin is too oily—you can make it smoother and drier by using the famous Woodbury treatment given here. If you are troubled with blemishes—with conspicuous nose pores—use the special treatment indicated for your condition, and see how quickly your skin gains the clearness it has lacked. Is your complexion pale and sallow? By the new steam treatment you can make it glow with radiant color.

Don't neglect your skin—begin today to make it as smooth, clear, and flawless as it should be. In the famous booklet wrapped around each cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap, you will find not only the four treatments given here—but additional treatments for all the commoner skin troubles. Find the treatment your individual type of skin demands, and begin using it tonight.

The very first treatment with Woodbury's will leave your skin with a slightly drawn, tight feeling. This only means that your skin is responding to a more thorough and stimulating kind of cleansing than it has been accustomed to. After a few treatments this drawn sensation will disappear, and your skin will emerge with such a soft, clean, healthful feeling, that you will never again want to use any other method of cleansing your face.

Woodbury's Facial Soap is on sale at all drug stores and toilet goods counters in the United States and Canada. The famous booklet of treatments is wrapped around each cake. Get a cake today and begin your treatment tonight. A 25-cent cake lasts for a month or six weeks of any treatment or for general cleansing use.

SKIN BLEMISHES—
How to get rid of them

Just before retiring, wash in your usual way with warm water and Woodbury's Facial Soap and then dry your face. Now dip the tips of your fingers in warm water and rub them on the cake of Woodbury's until they are covered with a heavy, cream-like lather. Cover each blemish with a thick coat of this soap cream and leave it on for ten minutes. Then rinse very carefully, first with clear, hot water, then with cold.

The regular use of Woodbury's in cleansing your skin will discourage the tendency for new blemishes to form.

Sample cake of soap, booklet of famous treatments, and samples of Woodbury's Facial Powder, Facial Cream and Cold Cream sent to you for 15 cents.

For 6 cents, we will send you a trial size cake (enough for a week or ten days of any Woodbury treatment) together with the booklet of treatments, "A Skin You Love to Touch." Or for 15 cents we will send you the treatment booklet and samples of Woodbury's Facial Soap, Facial Powder, Facial Cream and Cold Cream. Address The Andrew Jergens Co., Limited, 000 Sherbrooke St., Perth, Ontario.

OILY SKINS—
How to correct them

First cleanse your skin thoroughly by washing it in your usual way with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water. Wipe off the surplus moisture, but leave the skin slightly damp. Now with warm water work up a heavy lather of Woodbury's Facial Soap in your hands. Apply it to your face and rub it into the pores thoroughly—always with an upward and outward motion. Rinse with warm water, then with cold—the colder the better. If possible, rub your face for a few minutes with a piece of ice.

This treatment will make your skin fresher and clearer the first time you use it. Make it a nightly habit, and before long you will see a marked improvement—a promise of that lovelier complexion which the steady use of Woodbury's always brings.

CONSPICUOUS NOSE PORES
How to reduce them

Dip a cloth in very hot water; lather it with Woodbury's Facial Soap, then hold it to your face. When the heat has expanded the pores, rub in very gently a fresh lather of Woodbury's. Repeat this hot water and lather application several times, stopping at once if your nose feels sensitive. Finish by rubbing the nose for thirty seconds with a lump of ice.

Do not expect to change in a week a condition resulting from long neglect. But use this treatment persistently, and it will gradually reduce the enlarged pores until they are inconspicuous.

The booklet containing the famous Woodbury treatments for all the commoner skin troubles, is wrapped around each cake of Woodbury's Facial Soap. Find the treatment for your skin—begin using it tonight.

PALE, SALLOW SKINS—
The new steam treatment for them

One or two nights a week, fill your wash bowl full of hot water—almost boiling hot. Stand over the top of the bowl and cover your head and the basin with a heavy bath towel, so that no steam can escape. Steam your face for thirty seconds.

Now lather a hot cloth with Woodbury's Facial Soap. With this, wash your face thoroughly, rubbing the lather well into the skin with an upward and outward motion. Then rinse the skin well, first with warm water, then with cold, and finish by rubbing it for thirty seconds with a piece of ice.

The other nights of the week, wash your face thoroughly in the Woodbury way, with Woodbury's Facial Soap and warm water, finishing with a dash of cold water.

The very first time you use this treatment your skin will gain in loveliness and color.

ELECTING AN ALDERMAN.

The question of appointing an alderman to fill the vacancy caused in the City Council by the death of Ald. Phelan will shortly be considered by the Council. Last year a similar duty had to be performed, owing to the resignation of Ald. Murray. On that occasion the Labour members of the Council took the position that because Ald. Murray had been a Labour nominee he should be succeeded by another representative of organized Labour, and their views prevailing, Ald. Joseph Crowe was appointed. No attention was paid to the practice that has often been followed in similar cases of selecting the candidate who headed the defeated list at the previous elections. If the same policy is adopted on this occasion and the Labour members cannot, in view of their stand last year, very consistently oppose such a course, then it would not be in order to choose a Labour nominee for the vacancy, because Ald. Phelan was not a Labour candidate. The matter has not been discussed by the Council, and it is too early to predict what will happen, but it will be interesting nevertheless to see if consistency is exemplified in the attitude of some of the aldermen towards the question.

SUNDAY CARS.

The way is now open for Sunday street cars in Peterborough. An amendment to the Railway Act, fathered by Ald. Gordon and recommended by a resolution of the local City Council, giving the people of cities of 20,000 population and over the right to vote on the question of the operation of street railways on Sunday, was yesterday adopted by the Railway Committee of the Legislature. Hitherto only cities of at least 50,000 inhabitants have had this privilege. The extending of the right to smaller centres to declare their views on Sunday cars is a move that will be popular with the majority of the people. In some quarters there will be objection raised to Sunday cars, viewing the measure as the thin edge of the wedge in the hastening of a more open Sunday, but it is not thought likely that if a by-law is submitted in Peterborough, that the opposition will be strong enough to prevent the measure from being easily carried. Most people will see no more harm in riding in a street car than riding in a motor car on the Sabbath, and if those possessed of enough of this world's goods to be able to afford automobiles can use their cars all day Sunday, unrebuked and unashamed, there is no logical reason why the rest of the city's population should not have some means of transportation at their service that is not beyond their financial resources. There is of course the fact that the Sunday operation of the street cars will mean that a number of the street railway employees will have to work on the Sabbath, but the service need not be so extensive as during the week, and it should be possible to divide up the Sunday work so as not to be a heavy burden on the staff. Undoubtedly the local council will lose no time in submitting the question to the people, and there seems little doubt of the result, although the legislation cannot take effect until next August at least.

THE GOVERNMENT'S TROUBLES.

The attitude of the Labour group in the Legislature is causing Premier Drury and his ministers some very anxious moments. The Labour members are not only kicking over the traces in regard to the license referendum, but they are at variance with the U.F.O. on other points and, according to news despatches, are not a unit in following the leadership of Hon. W. Rollo, Minister of Labour. The caucus held yesterday is described as a very stormy affair, and following upon the clash between Hon. Mr. Rollo and the Provincial Secretary when the elective police commission bill was under consideration, the storm signals are flying. Were there any likelihood of the Liberal and Conservative groups getting together Premier Drury's position would be a far from pleasant one, with his Labour allies in a mood that cannot be described as tractable. The old parties, however, are for the most part training their guns on each other and while they continue to do so the government is safe despite the lack of harmony between its two wings. The predictions made early in the life of the new government that a permanent alliance between the Farmer and Labour groups was an impossibility are being borne out by the present bickering.

PENSION CHANGES.

The amendments to the Pension regulations recommended for the consideration of the Special Pensions committee of the Commons by the Board of Pension Commissioners, represent a very radical change in policy. Among the most important suggestions advanced is that the disability of pensioners shall be considered permanent after three years have elapsed from the date of the adoption of the amendment. The effect of this would be to do away with the Medical Boards before which pensioners have to present themselves at stated intervals for re-examination. There would be a great saving in the administration of pensions and the change would be appreciated by the pensioners as it would do away with the inconvenience and worry of the medical examinations. It is thought by the commissioners that at the end of three years disabled soldiers will either have so far recovered from their injuries as to make further disability allowances unnecessary or that their disablement will have proved itself permanent and they will remain in receipt of their allowances without having to bother with any further medical boards or examinations. If the decision lately reached is finally made the change in the regulations will undoubtedly be well received by the men affected. Another suggestion that has economy in administration in view is the proposal that all soldiers who are in receipt of less than a 20 per cent. disability shall be given the option of accepting a lump sum gratuity istead of a yearly pension. The advantage of this scheme is apparent, for if accepted by the less badly injured men, as it undoubtedly would be by the majority of them, nearly forty-one thousand pension cases would be wiped out at once. The expense of administering these particular pensions would be done away with, and the men would undoubtedly prefer to have a lump sum of respectable proportions than a yearly pittance.

SAFETY FIRST.

At the closing session of the Ontario Safety League, the suggestion was made by one of the speakers that a half an hour a week should be devoted in the public schools to teaching the children the necessity of paying attention to safety first rules. Undoubtedly the plan would be an excellent one, although the obvious objection arises, as was pointed out by another speaker, that the school curriculum is so crowded now that there is no room for anything more. That difficulty is not insurmountable. There must be subjects that could be curtailed sufficiently to make it possible for the teachers to employ a few minutes each week in telling the pupils of the perils that lie in wait for them in their daily life. There are many simple rules that could be made clear to the youngsters, the observance of which might be the means of preventing the loss of many valuable lives. Similarly first aid methods might also have a place on the school list. Instruction of this kind would better fit the children for their battle with life than many of the subjects with which their youthful minds are at present over-burdened. The Safety League, which has done a great work in the Province, may yet succeed in finding a place in the school curriculum for the teaching of some of their principles. Canada's children are her most valuable asset; every means should be taken of preserving them.

ANNUAL POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

The development of the new crop of Labour politicians is well illustrated by the bill on police commissions. A bill has been presented by the Labour member for West Peterborough, which provides for annual election of police commissioners. For half a century the police commissioners have been the mayor, the police magistrate and senior judge of the county. The Labour pusher of the bill does not seem dissatisfied with the existing method of selecting the personnel of the commission, but wishes to give city councils control of police expenditures. But instead of having a bill which would require police commissioners' estimates to be approved by the city councils, he would uproot a system which has been tried and tasted for years. Perhaps we shall have some other member coming forward with a bill for the election of judges or county Crown attorneys, because in the United States there is an elective system for part of the judiciary and attorneys. What would be the effect of annual elections of police commissioners? Simply the opening up of the whole administration to all the influences, and pulling and hauling that mark regular municipal administration. In such issues as a police union, affiliated with Trades Unionism, the commissioners would not be free and independent, and able to think only of the efficiency of the force, as they are now, but would have to combat attempts at Labour Temple pressure, as well as other influences not at all consistent with proper administration.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

Long jet carriage are worn in the evening.

REVOLUTION.

When I behold barbed wire around the City Hall
And see across the streets grim barricades,
And in the twilight streets
Stout men with bayonets fixed,
And at the station, engines standing dead,
And in the high buildings windows standing wide:
Wide and menacing windows in high buildings,
And poking out of one the fascinating snout of a gun,
And at another, a white face, showing terror:
And in the dirty gutter a little trickle of slow blood,
Ah, then I know that Hell is breaking loose
And that the place for me is somewhere else.
I do not like barbed wire around the City Hall,
For I have seen mile upon mile of just such wire,
With empty tunics flapping in the breeze
And down below the tunics, bits of rotten men;
And I have seen bright flares show up a little file of men
Tearing with frenzy at the wire,
And in the morning just a little huddled heap of men,
And slow blood hardening on the torn grass.
So when a man shouts "Revolution,"
I whisper "Peace,"
And pack a few old trifles in a bag,
And walk with it out into the cool country,
Looking always over my shoulder
To guage the wisdom of more haste.
I do not think that I am quite a coward,
But, stout barbed wire makes funny furrows in my soul:
No, never again, if I can help it.
—John Storm.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The fact that Hon. James Calder "warmly congratulated" Mr. Burnham on his sensational speech of the other day, may only mean that the Hon. Jim is still a candidate for the Premiership.

AIRPLANE PROPELLOR USED TO DRIVE STREET CAR

Timorous folk who have vowed that they never will ride in the propeller-driven airplane may retract enough to take a trip in the propeller-driven street car.

In the city of Burbank, Cal., a steel and aluminum car, built to accommodate 56 people, hangs from a single track, along which it runs supported by overhead wheels. A gasoline engine of 26 horse-power drives a powerful propeller, the shape of the car being constructed on the plan of a torpedo, cutting through the wind when speeding along at a lively rate.

The passengers are thus afforded an opportunity to realise how it feels to ride behind a powerful airplane propeller without being in danger of falling when the propeller stops.—Popular Science Monthly.

For Flat Roofs

FLAT roofs of wooden or concrete construction require special treatment. For such, we advise laying Brantford Rubber Roofing or Brantford Asphalt Roofing according to what we term Brantford Specification.

The 60 lb. roll roofing is used and is laid into our special Branroco Cement. A top coat of superior Roof Coating is then applied. The completed job furnishes an absolutely watertight roof and one that is also unaffected by frost. It is a permanent form of construction the same as the walls of a building.

Brantford Specification Roofs

are suitable for factories, stores, public buildings, apartment houses, warehouses—any class of building with a flat roof. Particulars and estimates of cost will be furnished on application to our local branch.

ROSE COMES.

CHAPTER XCIV

Everett came in with new writte all over his face.

"What is it?" I asked the moment I saw him.

"They have caught the fellow away."

"Then I'll get my sapphires and other things back"!

"I am not so sure you will. But just before I left the office the insurance company telephoned they had caught him The only disagreeable things about it is that you will have to appear in court."

"I shall be frightened to death."

"There's no need to feel that way, and I don't imagine you will have to do more than just to identify him. You remember how he looked?"

"I never could forget. I was so frightened that his features were fairly printed on my mind." I shuddered when I recalled his white face and staring eyes as he crouched back of the curtains.

"James and Mrs. Gray will probably be called also."

"I shall be glad to have Mrs. Gray with me."

"You didn't imagine I would allow you to go without her?"

When Everett used that tone—the one when he said 'allow you'—I always resented it.

"It took the insurance company a long time to find him," I remarked "I—how they got him. Had I not been insuring against theft, we not only would not have recovered either the things or their cost, but a criminal would have gone unpunished."

"I hate to think of that—his punishment. He was rather young Will they send him to jail for a long time"

"Probably—he may be an old hand at it. I rather imagine he is."

I did have to go to court, but only to identify the man whom I would have known anywhere. He stared at me with is hard wicked eyes while I said he was the man hidden back of the curtains. If his looks could kill, I would have died right there. James also identified him as the man who shot him.

Everett was right. He was an old offender, and so received a long sentence. I felt sort of guilty when Everett told me, as if I were to blame. It did seem dreadful to be in any way responsible for locking even such a thief away from every one.

We didn't get the sapphires. But Everett took the insurance money and bought me some others. I would rather have had emeralds or rubies; but when I said so, he declared the only jewels suitable for my coloring were pearls and sapphires. I thought of Leola—that he always bought her the same stone—and it took all pleasure from his gift.

Rose came the day after I had been to court. I had made out a list of things to do to entertain her, and she was delighted when I read it over to her. Of course I had included Barrett Edmonds in my plans, so adding immensely to her pleasure.

Everett had suggested a dinner for her, also that I give one or two afternoon affairs for her.

"It will help you pay your obligations at the same time you are entertaining your guest," he had said.

Had I known Rose was going to be so troublesome, I never would have invited her. What possessed me to introduce her to Walter Kemp I don't know. I guess I thought she was so fascinated with Barrett Edmonds that Walter would not excite her interest.

We met him the day after she came. We were shopping and ran into him n front of the store. I presented him to Rose, and right then and there the fickle girl fell madly in love with him.

"You must have him too," she said speaking of the dinner I was to give for her.

"I can't invite him, Rose. Everett doesn't like him to come to the house. He hasn't a very good reputation—nothing dreadful, just makes love to everyone he meets."

"I only hope he will make love to me! He is charming."

LAKEFIELD NEWS

LAKEFIELD, April 16.—Mr. Morphet, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Archbold, at the Rectory, returned to Peterborough on Thursday.

Mr. S. R. Leggott was in Peterborough on business on Thursday.

A Presentation.

The A. Y. P. A. met on Thursday evening for "Ladies' Night," which proved a great success, in spite of the dark condition in the village. The evening was a social one, and very little business was transacted. There were about thirty-five present, and all had a pleasant evening, playing games and taking part in contests. A very important and pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation of a handsome leather writing-case to Miss Hilliard, who has been a vice-president of the society for nearly five years, and who is now leaving the village. The gift was a simple token of the deep regard which each and every member feels for her. In all the war work of the society, she was in the forefront, and in peace time activities she played a leading part, and it is with deep regret that her friends regard her departure. After the informal presentation, which was a surprise to Miss Hilliard, those present joined lastily in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." Miss Hilliard expressed her thanks and appreciation of the gift in a witty little speech. After a beautiful supper, the party broke up after singing "Auld Lang Syne" and giving three hearty cheers for Miss Hilliard.

The Electric Lighting.

Mr. Iler, one of the Hydro engineers, who was in the village on Thursday, stated to Mr. Sherin, the village clerk, that he expected Hydro power in the village by 1st June.

STRANGE TALES OF MME. TUSSAND

WHEN JOHN BURNS STRUCK A BARGAIN.

Few children, perhaps, are so simple to-day as the little girl who, when taken some years ago to the famous waxworks of Mme. Tussaud, whispered to her mother, as she glanced down the long array of likelike effigies, "How are they killed before they are stuffed?"

The most amazing fact, however, in the story of Tussaud's is that its founder, when a young girl and working as a wax modeller with her uncle, was forced during the French Revolution to mould heads of victims of the guillotine. Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette, Robespierre, Danton, and the beautiful Charlotte Corday were all modelled by Mme. Tussaud after their heads were no longer theirs.

It is her great-grandson, Mr. John Tussaud, who tells the story in "The Romance of Mme. Tussaud."

Long before the waxworks became so famous and popular Mme. Tussaud had come to this country, which she toured, modelling celebrities as she went. Her enterprise and originality were remarkable.

One of the earliest visitors to the Portman Rooms, where the exhibition was first staged, was the Duke of Wellington. A few years later he was seen one morning with bared head reverently inspecting the effigy of his great adversary lying in state. Mme. Tussaud saw her opportunity at once, and the group now forms one of their best tableaux.

It was a Cambridge don who suggested the "Chamber of Horrors," which was originally known as the Dead Room. The more popular name was bestowed by 'Punch' many years later, and the Chamber provides Mr. Tussaud with some of his most interesting recollections.

One of his grim memories is of Marwood, the hangman who succeded the famous Calcraft. Marwood, after he had sat for his model, would often visit the Chamber of Horrors to see some of his old acquaintances, around whose necks he had so delicately adjusted the fatal noose. He would stop before each one with a grim look, while his lips moved tremulously.

"Put me there,' he once said, after he had given a siting. It was a man choosing the site of his grave.

Stories of the comments of visitors to the exhibition are legion. One, told by Lady Bland-Sutton, concerns a little girl who, when asked where she would like to go for a treat, promptly replied, "To Mme. Tussaud's."

"But you went there last year," it was objected

"Oh, yes, I know," said the child, "but father wasn't in the Chamber of Horrors then."

She must have been a relative of the parlour maid who told her mistress that she always went to Mme. Tussaud's on her "day off," and added: "You see, having an uncle in the Chamber of Horrors gives the place a family interest, so to speak."

Mr. Tussaud, by the way, again contradicts the apparently immortal legend that a sum of money, ranging from £5 to £5,000, awaits anyone who will spend a night alone in the Chamber of Horrors.

No such ridiculous challenge was ever issued to the public, says Mr. Tussaud; but he is not hopeful that even that flat disclaimer will overtake the chimerical story of a reward.

Talking of famous sitters, Mr. Tussaud says that it was always his aim to secure the sitter's own clothes for a model, and in this connection he tells an amusing story of John Burns, whom he modelled during the great Dock Strike. Mr. Tussaud asked the dockers' champion, at the time of the sitting, to part with the suit he was wearing.

Mr. Burns demurred at first, and then it appeared that he had an extremely good reason for doing so. It was the only suit he possessed, and we agreed that I should have it as soon as I provided him with a new one to take its place.

Mr. Burns, added Mr. Tussaud, told the story of the transaction in reply to a heckler at a public meeting, who asked: "Where did you get that suit?"

"I got it," said Mr. Burns frankly, "from Mme. Tussaud's. When my portrait was put in the exhibition you may have noticed that it was wearing my old suit. As I had no other clothes the management gave me the suit I am wearing now, and I hope you will agree that I made a pretty good bargain."

Lace is used for both day and evening wear.

He had only one, it is true, but he hastily admitted it was one too many. As a Professor of Science, he married to a moment of distraction and then forgot all about it. But his wife was human. She resented being an experiment. She desired to be loved. Poor Professor! What could he do? What did he do? Did he find matrimony a delightful experiment after all? Or did the experiment of having a wife prove the Professor's undoing? It's well worth while finding out, both about the story and about men who so carelessly forget. OVER NINE THOUSAND INTERMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE IN LITTLE LAKE CEMETERY SINCE IT WAS OPENED

SOME STRANGE AND CURIOUS INSCRIPTIONS ON THE STONES—THE FIRST CEMETERY WAS LOCATED IN CENTRAL PARK.

(By F. H. Dobbin.)

Persons of an antiquarian turn of mind, and who visit, for instance, the British Isles, return to tell us of the many curious inscriptions and letterings on the stones of the cemeteries visited. England has had centuries—six or seven of them—in which to cultivate that sort of thing, and and has excelled in putting together quaint and interesting memorial inscriptions of the departed. At points in Canada, where the remote years of the settlement and occupation has given time for several generations to live and pass away, something of the sort is found.

Peterborough, as noted in its burial places, has not much of antiquity to go back to. A bare hundred is but a week of years as compared with the countries of the Old World. But the visitor to the Little Lake cemetery, who wishes to note record of the people who lived and were active in this town and district will find many stones, heading the graves, that display, as cut into the marble, brief statements of birth and death and sometimes, curious facts in regard to the departed.

The first interments of those who died in and about the town plot and district were made in the ground now known as Central Park. The site had not been chosen with care or judgment. The growth of the town tended that way, and afterwards it was seen that burials in the plot would have to be discontinued. In the early fifties the Little Lake cemetery was opened up as the care of a newly formed company, or syndicate, the beautiful grounds being the gift at a nominal price of the Upper Canada House of Assembly to the town.

Remains Removed.

Many of the old headstones were removed to the new cemetery, along with such remains as could be transferred. At, say along in the early thirties, there was not much of marble accessable to use as headstones. Only those well off could afford to provide such. But for anyone there was a profusion of the very finest of pine timber, and a plank could be cut that would measure all of thirty inches in width and three inches thick. These were given many coats of white paint and lettered in black, and supported in another block, made an acceptable headstone or grave marker. As years passed on the wind and rain, frost and sun obliterated the lettering and gnawed at the wood. When the removals from the cemetery were in order, few of the old head boards were worth taking away. Indeed many of the marble stones had been overturned and broken, the versatile youth of the town delighting to work mischief among the lots.

Laid on Turf.

Many of the marble stones were what one might call frail. As transportation from "The Front" was by waggon, and over an indifferent road, the thinner the stone the larger the number in a load and the less cost. Stones of one inch and one and one-quarter inches in thickness were common. So on removing to the new cemetery the largest of the old stones they were wisely laid on the turf and tucked into a border of sods, with some provision to take away the water of rains or snows. But the visitor to the cemetery, of a summer Sunday afternoon, if he prowl about may find much to interest in deciphering the old inscriptions, telling of the personality of those who have passed away, after being identified with the town and its interests.

Fought at Trafalgar.

East of the drinking fountain, adjoining the chapel on the cemetery grounds can be found the stone, flat on the turf, identifying the resting place of Commander (Capt.) Robert M. Forbes, R.N. He saw service under Lord Nelson at Trafalgar Bay, was a participant in the naval engagement at Aboukir Bay and in other seas engagements. Died on Jan. 26th, 1812. He was not a resident of Peterborough in the early days, but being father-in-law of late James Wallis (of Merino Farm), the body was removed from where first interred and brought to Peterborough. For many years it rested in the old cemetery opposite the Public Library. The old headstone, a slab of marble, much discolored with age and the elements, rests on the grave. Following a brief statement of the birth, service and date of death, the following lines are cut in the stone, said to have been composed by the man, himself:

"Tho' Borean blasts and wintry winds have tossed me to and fro,
Yet spite of all by God's decree, I harbour here below.
Full fifty years I've often braved the battle and the breeze,
But now on terra firma moored 'till
Doomsday I'm at ease.
Where calmly I at anchor lay, till
God my soul shall greet,
And call me to His heavenly home,
our Saviour, Christ, to meet."

A Strong Man.

Turn to the left on entering the cemetery, just at top of entrance grade, and along the centre line of lots will be found two grave stones of interest. One is erected to the memory of Daniel Macdonald, born in the Scotch Village (East City) in 1838. A son of Daniel Macdonald, the elder, tailor and pioneer. The son followed in early manhood the employment of clerk and afterwards became interested in the lumbering business. While a man of no unusual proportions physically, he was noted for his feats of strength, which exceeded that of any one in the district or indeed in the province. Many stories were told of his gift in his occupation and in the woods. On occasion he had lifted with apparent ease and carried the length of the store four barrels of flour, at one time, the flour being tied with a rope. He carried on his shoulder a good-sized horse for a distance. His death was said to have resulted from over exertion in attempting to exceed records he had already made. Died Oct. 27th, 1871. On the headstone standing at the grave is carved the following:

"Ye weak beware, here lies the strong,
A victim of his strength,
He lifted sixteen hundred pounds,
And here he lies at length."

It will be observed that the cautionery appeal and admonition is addressed to the weak, and not to others who might attempt to overdo their strength. The lifting of the sixteen hundred pounds, refererred to was done by arranging on a long plank, bags of flour to the weight indicated. The load was arranged in the centre of the plank from end to end. One end of the plank rested on a block of wood. The other end Macdonald took hold of and raised from the ground. He won a bet and paid the forfeit. Only thirty years old at time of his death.

Prepared a Model.

Standing up for observation at the head of a grave on the same range of lots is the stone that marks the last resting place of the late Thomas Lannin. He engaged, on coming to Peterborough, in the stove business, afterwards acquired by late Adam Hall. Being a practical tinsmith, among other works done, he had made a full sized model of the memorial stone, or rather structure that he intended should stand at the grave where he would be interred. This model he kept for many years. On his death the design was faithfully executed by the stone cutter. The design is unique among designs for such memorials, and the lettering typifys the faith of the man in his belief.

Paid Girl's Passage.

A curious and personal point of view is expressed in the lettering of an old tombstone in the Methodist cemetery on the rise of the hill-side, Hilliard street. A young man of the town, in the early days, having come to Canada and to Peterborough, and leaving in England his best girl to whom he was engaged, had the young lady cross the ocean and join him in town. Before the couple could be married the girl took ill, the ultimate end being her death. The young man with the greatest respect caused to be cut and erected at the grave a neat stone setting out the usual facts as to name, date of death, etc. But he spoiled the whole thing by having inscribed at the foot of the stone the financial fact that he had paid the passage of the girl to Peterborough at an expense of eight pounds, English currency. The old stone is one of many, now overturned and broken.

As at times it is a matter of speculation as to the number of interments made at the Little Lake cemetery, the following facts may be of interest. The first interment was that of Samuel W. Albro, (uncle of Sheriff James Hall, now in office.) Samuel Albro was born in Halifax, N.S., and died April 29th, 1851, the funeral following two days after. It was held under the auspices of Otonabee Lodge, Oddfellows, No. 13. At that time the Lodge was in the heights of its popularity, the membership including all of the prominent men of the town. It occupied the stone building, afterwards the home of late Robert Nicholls, and now the residence of Mr. W.H. Hamilton, on Rubidge street.

The "span of life" as it is termed, is often longer than we take it to be. Many instances of longevity are shown on a consultation of the old headstones. Take this example, as an illustration.

It is doubtful if any man has been more prominent in town and city affairs than the late James Stevenson. A man now passing out of mind, and wholly unknown to the younger generation. He was born in Fermanagh, Ireland, and came with his parents to Canada in 1840. He left Port Hope, where he was living, at the age of fifteen years to go into business as manager for the hardware store of Richard Barrett, one of the six stores at that time in Peterborough. At the age of nineteen he was in business for himself, and successful. His life afterwards was woven into the life of the town, city and country, as merchant, business man, citizen, politician, member of Parliament and mayor of the town and city. Another prominent and valued citizen was John Carnegie, who died in January 1910. Mr. Stevenson was one of the pallbearers at the funeral. Getting out of the vehicle, he looked about over the snowy landscape, and pointing to the spot said, "just over there is the first grave opened in this cemetery, and I, as a full grown young man, was a pall bearer at the funeral." The funeral referred to was that of Samuel W. Albro, as previously related.

(Next Week—Transferred.)

Carnegie, and passing the residence of the steward of the cemetery, inquiry was made as to the number of interments that had taken place in the interval of fifty-nine years. The register showed something over eight thousand. And further inquiry, recently, to verify a fact, shows that up to April 12th of this year, 9,503 interments have been made in the cemetery plots. It is assumed that at the farthest within fifteen years additional, other ground will have to be found to serve the purpose. It is satisfactory and re-assuring to find that when that day arrives the cemetery company, as termed, or really Trust, has in hand a reserve fund, accrued as the results of wise management to take care of the property for all time, keeping it in shape as a well ordered public inheritance to the city, and in respect to the feelings and wishes of all who have friends there interred.

"I think it my duty to tell you how much your medicine has done for me. I suffered for three years with terrible Eczema. I consulted several doctors and they did not do me any good.

Then, I used one box of 'Zoothe-Salve' and two boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives' and my hands are now clear. The pain is gone and there has been no return. I think it is a marvellous cure because no other medicine did me any good and I tried all the remedies I ever heard of, without benefit until I used 'Zoothe-Salve' and 'Fruit-a-tives.'

'Fruit-a-tives' cooled the blood and removed the cause of the disease, and 'Zoothe-Salve' completed the cure."

"So This Is Your Birthday, Grandmother"

"YES, dearie, I am seventy-five years old to-day. It doesn't seem possible, for I don't feel old."

"And you certainly do not look old."

"Were you never sick, grandmother?"

"Oh, yes, indeed, there was a time in my life when I never expected to live to be fifty, say nothing about seventy-five. When your mother and my other children were small I had my hands full and got run down in health. I got so nervous that I could not sleep and had frequent headaches. Every little thing the children would do seemed to annoy and worry me until, finally, I gave out entirely, and was in bed for months with nervous prostration."

"Did you have a doctor?"

"Yes, dearie, I had two or three doctors, but they only told me that it would take a long time for me to regain strength. One day your grandfather came in with some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Foods. He said some one told him that it would cure me, and he went away to the drug store and bought half a dozen boxes."

"What did your doctor say about using it?"

"Well, what could he say? He only said that he had done all he could, and that he had run across a great many cases in which the Nerve Food had been used with excellent results. So I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it was not long before I was on the way to health and strength."

"And did it cure you?"

"Well, the best evidence is that I am here to-day, well and happy, after all these years. And I am more than ever enthusiastic for Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, for I have used it several times during the last few years when I felt that I needed some assistance to keep up vitality. As a person gets older I think their blood gets thinner, and they seem to need something like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to increase their strength and vigor."

"That is something worth knowing, grandmother."

"If you will take my advice, dearie, you will not forget about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food when you get run down, tired out and nervous. This has been my advice to a great many people, and I know that it has done them good."

TRAINS ARE BEING OPERATED BY AMERICAN MILLIONAIRES

WORLD AND ITS ORDER ARE REVERSED BY U.S. RAILWAY STRIKE —WEALTHY FIREMEN HAVE HANDS FULL IN OPERATING LOCOMOTIVES.

NOW SHOVEL COAL

NEW YORK, April 17. (By William Stevens McNutt, United Press). —The world is upside down. Millionaires are out of luck and pauperism will soon become popular. The man with money is being laughed at by the man who used to be "the man with the hoe," because the man with the hoe is not hoeing any more and the millionaire is. The world and its order was reversed by the railway strike and as a result wishes have become club cars in which beggars ride while millionaires get all messed up with soot while shovelling coal to make the mare go.

The commuters from New Jersey are operating their own Five-Fifteens while waiting for the regular trainmen to be stricken with a spontaneous impulse to return to work. The trains are being fired by mayors, millionaires, American Legion veterans and certain slightly obese officials of the Lackawana evidently more accustomed to desk work and big dinners than to dirty work with a coal shovel.

I went over to Hobokenn this afternoon to watch the volunteer firemen fire. The American Legion veterans did pretty well. The mayors and millionaires and slightly obese officials did the best they could. They probably did as well at firing a locomotive as the regular locomotive firemen would do at running a bank or being mayor of a town or dealing largely in stocks and bonds.

The Millionaire's Special for Morristown, New Jersey, was scheduled to leave the Lackawana Station at Hoboken at five-fifteen. At fifteen minutes of five I walked up to the panting locomotive to see what made it pant. The millionaire fireman had not arrived yet, but Shorty was on the job.

Shorty is a roustabout in normal times. When things are running according to schedule Shorty bears the same relation to a locomotive that a boot-black bears to a shoe. He shines 'em up. He is short and dumpy and wears—in addition to other things—a Derby hat and a serious expression.

Shorty Prepares.

Shorty was on the job getting up steam; sort of getting the job ready for the millionaires to work at.

A few minutes before five some of the millionaire firemen arrived. They stood beside the tender and held a very solemn conference—while Shorty shovelled in some more coal and got the job ready for the milionaires to work at.

About five o'clock some mote millionaires—or mayors, I didn't find out which—arrived and participated in the solemn conference alongside the tender—while Shorty shovelled in some more coal.

A few minutes after five all the millionaire firemen—six in number—swing bodily up into the cab beside Shorty—who was shovelling in some more coal.

When Shorty opened the door to shovel in some more coal two of the milionaire firemen stooped over and looked into the firebox. Two others took off their coats and handed them down to asistants on the platform below. The assistants ran back with the millionaires' coats. I don't know what the remainding two of the six firemen did just then. The tender was so crowded with milionaire firemen—and Shorty—that it was difficule to keep track of them all.

A few minutes later—near to zero hour-two more of the millionaire firemen took off their coats and handed them to assistants on the platform below, who rushed them back to the coaches; the two who had already taken off their coats, rolled up their sleeves—and Shorty shovelled some more coal into the firebox. He was getting it almost in shape to be worked at by the millionaire firemen, who were rapidly getting themselves almost in shape to work at it.

More Preparations

But there were yet preparations to be made—both by Shorty and the milionaires. Some one of the assistants who had been carrying millionaire firemen's coats back to the coaches came running up breathlessly with several pairs of nice clean overals, which he handed up into the tender. The millionaire firemen hurriedly clambered into the overalls while Shorty shovelled on a final few shovelsful of coal and wiped the perspiration from his brow. It had been hot work for Shorty shovelling coal all this while all squeezed in by millionaires who are getting ready to shovel coal.

But the end was at hand. It was the zero hour. It wa five-fifteen. The job was all ready for the millionaires to work at; the milionires were already to work at the job. Shorty put on his coat, heaved a long sigh, crawled wearily down from tender and went back to the first coach to rest. One of the millionaires—or maybe he was a mayor-planted himself in the gangway, spreading his arms so his comrades would not fall out; another opened the firebox; another peered in to see how the fire was getting along; two others grabbed shovels by the throat and shoved them into the shrinking coal. The drive wheels of the engine revolved. The train moved. The Milionaire Special was on its way. All the millionaire firemen were working feverishly, either opening and shutting the door of the firebox, peering in to see how the fire was getting along, shovelling in coal os standing in the gangway to prevent others from falling out.

The crowded coaches were drawn slowly out of the dim shed into the bright sunlight of a warm spring afternoon. Smutty-faced workingmen sat in soft seats in the coaches and grinned blissfully in enjoyment of the millennium that permitted them to ride in idle ease, while up ahead the once haughty money-master toiled to serve them: humble stenographers leaned from the windows and in excellent burlesque of a haughty manner said: "Home James." The hour of the poor man was at hand. Not even Bolshevik Russia could offer a more striking example of the reversal of class and custom.

Another Change.

The millionaires' special was not the only example of the topsy-tary condition created by the strike. Earlier in the afternoon I went into a restaurant in the Lackawana Station.

"You railroad man, ain't you?" the colored waiter asked.

"No," I said. "Why?"

"Railroad men they all eats free here while the strike's on," he explained. "Yassuh! An' Boss, dey sho'tinly does eat! Men, oh man! Dey stahts in wid oysters, goes on to soup, has some fish, picks deyselves out the best steak on the bill, ordehs whatver vegetables we got, eats some salad, tackles a little pie a la mode, samples some crackers an' cheese, an' jus' naturally has to have a lot o' coffee to wet it down. Yassuh! It do beat all what a human bein' kin eat an' still live when he's gittin' his eats free. Yassuh! An' some of 'em brings in dey wife an' chillun and dey wife and chillun eats mo' dan de men deyself. Yassuh! An' some of 'em passes dey cards on to dey friends dat ain't workin' an' dey friends come up heah an' eats most of all. Yassuh! Dey friends dat ain't wohkin' dey eat de most of all."

PALE ANAEMIC GIRLS AND BOYS

Need the Tissue Building, Blood Making, Strength-Creating Elements Contained in Vinol

Druggists Guarantee Vinol Will Make Them Strong, Robust and Rosy, or Return Your Money

It is not natural for a child to be pale, sallow, thin, ailing and puny, with no appetite, and with little energy, thin and scrawney.

What such children need is more iron in the blood and the strengthening, tissue, and body building elements of good old-fashioned cod liver oil, without the oil, such as is contained in VINOL, together with other vitality-making ingredients.

VINOL increases the red corpuscles and enriches the blood, quickens the circulation, improves the appetite, aids digestion; soon the cheeks regain their rosy hue and the little limbs fill out round and shapely and instead of being thin, fretful, ailing, your child is transformed into a happy, healthy child, strong, robust and rosy.

Mrs. L. Andrews, of Rutherdale, N. Y., says: "My little daughter, 10 years old, overworked and was run-down, tired all the time, nervous, had headaches, couldn't eat and had to stay out of school. VINOL has built her up. She has a good appetite, no more headaches and has returned to school."

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children there is no remedy like VINOL.

FROM A CHILD WAS CONSTIPATED

According to the best medical authorities, fully three fourths of the people of the civilized world suffer in some form from constipation or irregular action of the bowels. There is no doubt that many distressing diseases are caused by constipation. It gives rise to sick and bilious headaches, jaundice, heartburn, floating specks before the eyes, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness and the painful, troublesome piles. Therefore it is of supreme importance to health that the bowels be kept regular. Simple food, fruit, etc., should be used and rich food and stimulants of all kinds avoided. This with the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills to regulate and establish healthy action of the bowels cannot fail to give permanent relief in the most obstinate cases.

Mrs. Letitia Wainman, Orillia, Ont., writes: "From a child I was always very badly constipated and I can well remember when quite young my mother giving me senna tea nearly every morning and I got to dread it. After taking Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a while I am not troubled with constipation any more."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ITALIAN LEADER'S TONSORIAL STYLE

D'ANNUNZIO'S ADORNMENTS COPIED BY OFFICERS.

FIUME, April 17.—Gabriele d'Annunzio's bald head has set the fashion for the officers of his little army, many of whom have shaved their craniums and are endeavoring to grow miniature Vandyke beards as copies of the poet's chin adornment.

The Fiume aviators have adopted the craze with greater zeal than any other branches and call themselves "Iron Heads." Youthful officers in their teens and early twenties have shaved their heads and are wearing little pointed beards in an effort to look as much like the poet as they can.

Mixed uniforms of French horizon blue and Italian grey-green are worn by d'Annunzio's men with great pride.

$1,000,000 ATHLETIC FIELD FOR NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, April 17.—The first step toward the acquiring of a $1,000,000 athletic field and playground for New York City came with the passing of the Dunnigan-McDonald Bill by the Assembly in Albany Wednesday. The field is bequeathed by Mrs. Isaac L. Rice, of this city, as a memorial to her husband. It is intended to build the recreation grounds at Pelham Bay Park, the Bronx.

It is understood that the members of the Senate are also in favor of giving to the city this playground, while Governor Smith has promised to do all he can in the matter. At first it was planned to build the field on the sit of the abandoned aqueducts in Central Park, but this met with objection from the Parks and Playgrounds Commission.

DETROIT WOMEN PUT BAN UPON POTATO PRICE

HAVE STARTED CAMPAIGN TO BEAT PROFITEERS—RESTAURANTS TO HELP.

DETROIT, Mich., April 17.—A two weeks' boycott on potatoes has been declared here by the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs and Detroit Stewards' Club in a drastic effort to restore lower prices. The same means are to be employed by which the housewives of Chicago hammered down the price of eggs.

Mrs. Frederick G. Ray, President of the Federation, has addressed an appeal to the Presidents of the 95 women's organizations connected with the Federation asking them in turn to request their members to refrain for two weeks' period from eating potatoes.

Cut From Menus.

Slides are to be shown in all large motion picture theatres and neighborhood houses urging people individually to cut tubers from their bills of fare.

"Resolved: At present the market price of potatoes is extremely inflated and unreasonable. Therefore, omit potatoes and help beat the market," is the way the women's resolution reads.

This much was decided at a meeting of representatives of the Federation and the Stewards Club Tuesday night. A fair price for potatoes was said to be 75 cents a peck.

Holding Cars of Tubers.

George Nedtweg, President of the Stewards, whose organization does the buying for practically all hotels and restaurants in Detroit, charged that the railroad yards were filled with carloads of tubers, that profiteers willingly paid demurrage costs and that he knew of one car which had changed hands six times in one day, with each trader making at least $75, and that none of the six ever saw the car. 'They simply sold the bill of lading," he answered.

DRUGS IN SMALL DOSES.

Dandelion roots yield a medicinal extract.

Rhubarb was originally introduced into this country in 1573 under the names of Turkey, Chinese and Russian rhubarb. It is actually the root of the "Rheum," and the beneficial effects of our own cultivated rhubarb are well known.

Liquordice is an extract prepared from the roots of the Glycyrrhiza Glabra. At the close of three years the roots become first fit for use. Liquorice is largely imported from Spain but its flavor is not reckoned as good as the English grown liquorice.

Samomile Flowers, from their tonic properties, were originally much used in fevers. The ancients used to call them "Cinchona." They are the dried blossoms of the "Anthemis Nobilis," found in the dry pasture-land in England.

Hemlock affords a useful medicine—and resembles sheep's parsley. This plant, incidentally, was the one with which Socrates is said to have committed suicide.

Sarsaparilla is the root of a plant which grows chiefly in America and the West Indies. It is sent to this country in bales and the long twigs are covered with a brownish, crinkly bark. It is in this bark that the medicinal proneity is to be found but the Sarsaparilla one sees in bottles is a very strong decoction of the drug boiled down with several different ingredients.

WHITTLING IT DOWN.

Among a host of good stories in Captain Evan's "Keeping the Seas," is one relating to an incident that occurred on board the monitor Terror during a bombardment of Ostend.

A number of American naval officers were on board (writes Captain Evans) when suddenly a 15-inch shell from one of the German shore batteries came whistling through the air, and fell two hundred yards or so from our ship.

One of the American officers, seeing the huge splash made by the falling shell, turned to the first lieutenant and said:

"How far do you think that shell fell from the ship?"

"About fifty yards," replied the sub.

The two American officers looked at one another and then back to the sub, who began to feel uncomfortable, in that he had much underestimated the distance from the danger.

But he was soon put at his ease, for the younger American said:

"I guess that will have whittled down to five yards before I get home to Philadelphia."

It is so easy to find fault that self-respecting persons ought to be ashamed to waste their energies in that way.

The continued high cost of foodstuffs and household supplies require the strictest economy.

The most expensive foodstuffs are used in baking, so always be careful to use the right kind of Baking Powder, otherwise great waste may result.

Many thousands of people recommend

EGG-O Baking Powder

because it effects the greatest economy.

Its double action absolutely assures perfect baking at all times.

Egg-O also helps save fuel because it does not require so hot an oven as is required by other powders.

Always follow the directions—one level teaspoonful to one level cup of well sifted flour. You use from a quarter to a half less powder when you use Egg-O.

When buying Egg-O the larger tins are the most economical size for family use.

IN THE LITERARY WORLD

INTERESTING ARTICLE BY MR. F. M. DELA FOSSE—CHATS ABOUT BOOKS—LITERARY NOTES.

(By F. M. Dela Fosse).

Not the least interesting part of work in a library is to ferret out books that have been written by men and women one has known. It is an education in itself. Looking through the biographical section, my eye chanced to light upon the name of A. M. Baumann as the author of a book entitled "Persons and Politics of the Transition." The author had been a prefect at my school, and had been regarded as the most eloquent speaker who had ever declaimed within its walls. When he left he entered Balliol College, Oxford, and in due time was elected to the position of President of the University Union, which counts in its membership those who aspire to shine in public speaking. He entered Parliament some years later, but although he was in public life for some time, he never fulfilled the promise of his youth. His book, written in 1916, is interesting, as it throws light on a good many problems that have faced British statesmen during the last thirty years. His viewpoint is clear, and his comments on such well-known characters as Lord Randolph Churchill, Mr. Balfour, Sir Edward Carson and others, and on democracy and the House of Lords, are well worth reading.

Wonderful Wealth.

Not very many people realize what wonderful wealth of material there is in our old magazines. Owing to pressure on our space, our bound copies have had to be removed temporarily to the basement, but they are there for public use, and anybody desirous of obtaining any of them for home reading is at liberty to borrow them. The old copies of Scribner's and Harper's are especially valuable, and there are also some good tales to be found in the numbers of Lippincott's Magazine that we possess. In the only volume of the London Quarterly Review (1869) that we have there are fine articles on Browning and Tennyson, on the religious wars in France and on the Disestablishment of the Irish Church. To those who are students of history or to those who worship at the shrines of the poets mentioned, these articles should have a special appeal. They were all written by experienced and widely-known writers of that day. There is another excellent article in the same magazine on John Keble. We have Coleridge's Life of John Keble in the Library, and from this, read in conjunction with the article in the Quarterly, an illuminating description of the causes which led up to the launching of the Tractarian movement can be obtained.

Keble, as most of us know, was the author of "The Christian Year," a work which was published anonymously in 1827. Its popularity may be judged from the fact that it ran through 109 editions in less than two years, each edition containing from three to five thousand copies. It was a remarkable work, no less an authority than Thomas Arnold declaring that nothing equal to it existed in the language. He was perhaps prejudiced because then, as now, opinion was by no means unanimous on that point. Wordsworth, who was a friend of Keble's, was so much concerned about its unevenness and awkwardness of construction, that he actually proposed to him that they should go over the work together with a view to correcting the English. But where it failed in parts, it amply made up in others, as witness those magnificent hymns. "There is a book who runs may read," "When God of old came down from Heaven," "New every morning is the love," and "Sun of my soul, Thou Saviour dear." All these hymns are excerpts from poems, the verses having been picked out to suit the needs of the Church service. Mention of the name of Coleridge brings to mind that quaint old Devonshire town of Tiverton, famous for its clotted cream, its junket, and its widely-known educational institution, Blundell's School. The writer of Keble's Life lived at Tiverton.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

In the Edinburgh Review of April, 1853, is a long article on "Uncle Tom's Cabin." Mrs. Stowe's book appeared in 1852, and over a million copies were sold in England alone inside of eighteen months. The writer of the article begins it by saying "The sale of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' is the most marvellous literary phenomenon that the world has witnessed." Probably there is no book outside of the Bible that has had such a wide field of readers. It has been translated into most of the languages of the civilized portions of the globe. The first part published was the death of Uncle Tom, and this created such interest that Mrs. Stowe added a beginning and a middle to her end, composing and printing the story tain way that even here in Canada one half of our world does not know how the other half lives. There is many a monument in our cities commemorating the deeds of statesmen, of soldiers and of philanthropists, but where is there to be found one raised to the honour of the real father of our country, the Canadian pioneer?"

Canadian Life.

There are other phases of Canadian life which might easily be dilated upon, and of which we learn little save from Government publications and hearsay. There are few tales dealing with life on a survey, and yet there is little that can compare with it in stirring incident. Many a tale of hardships successfully encountered and dangers overcome have I listened to in the wilds of prairie and woodland alike, tales that made one feel that one's own amateurish attempts at pioneering were like a summer picnic in comparison. A picturesque figure looms up in my mind as I write—a man of slight frame and wonderful endurance, whom I met years ago in Port Arthur. Many a chat did we have as we sat by the campfire in the grimly desolate region lying beyond the Kakabeka Falls. When I knew him he was close upon sixty years of age. That was in 1884. He had almost gone from my memory until I saw his name as figuring in a strange misadventure in that same district a few years ago. He got lost in the woods, and for over a month subsisted on whatever herbs and berries he could pick in his wanderings. He was over eighty years old at the time, and yet he emerged safely from the tremendous strain on his vitality. Walpole Roland's adventures would fill more than one book. He fought, as a British officer, under Gordon at the capture of the Tae-Ping forts. He was the only man left alive of a surveying party near James Bay, when a land-slide occurred and carried away all but him to destruction, and on another occasion, when he was at Nipigon, he attempted to reach Red Rock from the mainland on pieces of floating ice. He succeeded in doing so, but his dog was drowned.

Make a real job of it.

PAINTING becomes necessary as your property increases in value, and as property was never so valuable as today there is a greater need than ever for that kind of paint which actually preserves the surface and thus saves the entire house.

This spring, to make a real job of it, use

because it combines permanence, covering capacity and economy.

If B-H "English Paint" was dearer than it is, it would still be the most economical—the shorter life of other cheaper brands makes them more expensive in the end.

It contains the famous Brandram's Genuine B.B. finely-ground white lead—70%—to which is put 30% of pure zinc—a guaranteed formula that no other paint can boast. To this mixture is added fine turpentine and linseed oil from the B-H mills, which is of a quality in keeping with the other ingredients.

When you use B-H Paint you will notice its "body" and brilliance—you will compare the extreme covering capability with other brands—the permanence you will be able to prove by other exteriors painted with B-H, paint years ago.

GINGHAM PROTEST AGAINST PRICES

MOVEMENT HAS STARTED AS SEQUEL TO OVERALL CAMPAIGN.

NEW YORK, April 17.—The gingham protest against present high prices of clothing was endorsed here by several hundred women, who declared their intention of getting in the fight on profiteers in wearing apparel.

Society and club women, writers, attorneys and other professional women, stenographers and housewives, joined in a gigantic pledge to don gingham dresses and wear them until prices of hats, shoes, coats, suits, blouses, and other articles of clothing are reduced to a figure within reach of the moderately circumstanced purse. Many of the women said that their husbands, brothers and fathers already had promised to wear overalls and jumpers as long as the protest is necessary.

Some of the women, in offering their opinions, explained that they spoke for various clubs or other organizations of which they are officers or members. Among these was Mrs. Clarice M. Baright, attorney and figure in political affairs. Mrs. Baright will explain the overalls and gingham movement during the course of an address she is delivering before the Dramatir Art Society at theAstor to-night, at which will be present presidents of practically all women's clubs in New York.

Strong and Long Pull.

"What we need now," Mrs. Baright declared, "is concerted action. We have found out what to do, and experience has taught that if our pull is strong enough and long enough it will win. I believe that if 50 per cent. of the women and men of New York will wear the raiment of protest all others will follow, and clothing manufacturers and dealers will be obliged to become reasonable for their own protection."

"This is not a faddist movement; it is much too serious. It is the protest of a long-suffering people who almost have been driven beyond the power of protest."

Mrs. Baright will deliver a second address to-morrow before a women's organization of large membership, in which she will explain the movement.

Mrs. Howard Chandler Christie, wife of the artist, also endorsed the movement. She said:

"It is to be hoped that this public action will reach beyond the price of clothing to the price of food and nearly everything else. Or if it doesn't and is successful we then may consider a boycott of high-priced foodstuffs, together with elimination of every sort of luxury."

"I to believe that concerted action is all that is necessary for making this gingham and overall movement all that we would wish for it."

Mrs. Edward N. Breitung, figure in one of the city's wealthiest social sets, who attracted much comment by the extent of her war-time activities, added to the statements of others her own opinion concerning the lack or real hardship in the part women will take in the protest.

"You see," she explained, "there really isn't anything more attractive than a gingham dress, becomingly fashioned. It is youthful and neat, and I shall be glad to wear mine. We women really should ask for something more difficult to do."

Nearly Insane From Leg Ulcers

She tells of suffering and brief story of her cure.

Read these two letters from Sarah B. Lawrence of Rexbank, Lancaster: "My cure sleep at night from leg ulcers. I am in pain most of the time. I have doctored but no use. A lady friend of mine says that D. D. D. would be of a real cure of ulcers. That has come and am limited. Can you help me?"

Now a few words from a later letter. "I have used D. D. D. as directed, and my leg is completely well."

Why not be convinced and try this remedy today for any form of skin disease. One application and the pain is gone. You'll enjoy such relief directly upon using the first bottle. $1.25 a bottle. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

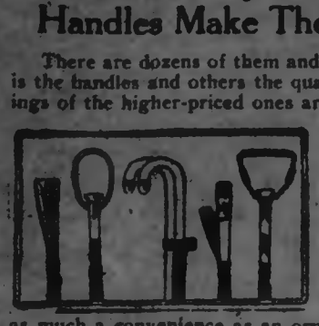
A Variety of Things That Are Receiving the Attention of Many Women Just Now

WHEN we walk about the four floors of this store to prepare one of these advertisements we are often puzzled to know just what to mention. There is so much that people want, so much that is new and space and time prevent us from mentioning everything. For this advertisement we have selected several items that we think are uppermost in the minds of Peterboro shoppers and we hope they will be beneficial to she who reads this column. As we have often said before we strive to make our advertisements an information bureau regarding our stocks.

Parasols for April Showers—Novelty Handles Make Them Quite Smart

There are dozens of them and all are different—in some it is the handles and others the quality of the top. The coverings of the higher-priced ones are fine silk and wool and the black is sun and rain-proof. Those lower in price have tops of specially prepared umbrella covering. They will shed water as readily as a duck's back.



The stems are straight and the bakelite rings are round. These rings are as much a convenience as an ornament, for they permit you to carry your parasol easily and gracefully. The colours of some of the rings are: black, white, purple, navy, lighter blue and amber. Often they are relieved by the addition of another colour worked into the composition. They are priced from $3.85 to $10.75.

Straight stems in black and colours, capped with bakelite, and in place of a ring a heavy carry cord. Priced from $3.25 to $7.50.

Children's Umbrellas at $2.35

In these you will also find some with bakelite rings and others with nickel ones. They have an 18-inch top, and the length of the handle is suited to little children.

This one is of fine white voile, with a dainty hemstitched yoke and a smocked front with pale blue stitching, pale blue collar and pale blue turn-back cuffs. It can also be had with pale yellow trimming. The price is $4.25.

Another has a deep hem that is embroidered with pink motifs of birds and sprigs. The yoke is outlined with pink hemstitching and the collar and turnback cuffs are of pink. It can also be had in blue. The price is $4.25. Without the embroidered motifs on the hem the price is $3.85.

Bonnets of white bengaline silk with white French knots can be had at $2.95.

Of cream crepe de chine with elaborate lace trimming at $3.19

Baby Sets of Imitation Ivory with Hand Painted Flowers

They contain a powder jar, soap box and a brush and comb. The price is $5. Also rattles in various shapes from 75c to $1.19.

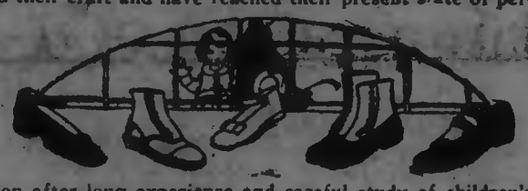
They were off the market during the war, and, like many other pre-war articles, they are coming into their own once more. There Are But Two Answers to Good Footwear for Children—Hurlbut Welts Is One and Macfarlane Welts the Other

These two celebrated makers stand pre-eminent in the manufacture of children's boots and shoes. They have mastered their craft and have reached their present state of perfection after long experience and careful study of children's footwear requirements. Furthermore, they have put quality into their goods and they wear twice as long. Many mothers are thankful that such footwear can be had. We are glad to offer them to our patrons, for we have unlimited confidence in them and know that they will maintain the high standard of our shoe department.



To Lessen the Disagreeableness and Labor of House Cleaning Is the Purpose of Several Articles on Our Third Floor

For instance, there is the Hoover Electric Suction Sweeper that makes it unnecessary to even lift the rug or carpet from the floor. We will demonstrate it on our main floor or in your home—which ever you prefer. Then there is the Tar Box Mop for dry dusting. Lint and coarse dirt can be shaken out of it, but the dust is held until it is washed out. You can readily see how this will assist you in the important task of dusting. It is priced at 65c, 85c, $1.50, $2 and $2.25. If it is a floor that is to be done over an O-Cedar Mop is the proper things. They are priced at $1.50. O-Cedar Oil at 25c and 50c bottle. We might also mention Bissel Carpet Sweepers from $4.75 to $6.50. The Keystone Vacuum Sweeper at $9.95.

Some real handsome frilling that is ten inches deep is formed of a series of lace frills and is designed for dress fronts. The price is $7 yard, but so little is required that it is really inexpensive. In the three-inch width it is $2 yard.

Other three-inch frillings for edging the yoke can be had of embroidered organdie and is priced at $1.50 yard. A pleated net with a scalloped lace edge is priced at $1.25 yard.

A collar and cuff set of white organdie has pleated cross bars and is edged with a white net. It is priced at $2.50.

A dainty roll collar formed of alternate rows of georgette and val lace is $1.75.

Another roll collar is of cream lace and has a pleated hemstitched net edge. The price is $2.

Stamped Table Scarfs of Pure Linen

They have a true decorative value and, like all stamped goods, they permit you to exercise your own taste in the working. The colour is the natural shade and the length is 1¼ yards long and the width is 18 inches. The stamping is on the ends and some of the patterns are floral and others conventional. Both edges are selvedged, and this permits it to lay flat on the table. The price is $1.95.

A linen lace in the natural colour will make a pretty finish for the edges and can be had in two widths. The narrow at 25c yard and the wider one at 40c yard.

Several Pieces of Chintz That Formerly Sold For $1.25 Yard, Are Now Marked at 89c Yard

The patterns are all-over effects and the lightness of their colour makes them suitable for bedroom purposes. They are printed on a good fabric and the width is 36 ins.

A Great Variety of Chintz at $1.10 Yard

If your desire is to instill a bit of brightness into the room or subdue too brilliant a colour scheme or to just complete a decorative effect, and you want to do it without great expense, then this range of floral chintz will assist. The width is 36 inches, and the colours range the way from the deep tones that suggest tapestry effects to the light, airy flower laden grounds that are suitable for boudoir use. The fabric is good and the printings are perfect.

GAVE ADDRESS AT SPRINGVILLE

MR. R. LEE AND MR. W. I. CHISHOLM AMONG THE SPEAKERS.

Inspector R. Lees, Inspector O'Dell of Northumberland, and Mr. W. I. Chisholm of Toronto, formerly of the Normal School staff addressed a large meeting at Springville last evening on the subject of Consolidated Schools, outlining the benefit such would be to the district in the fact that better schools, better teachers and better service generally would be secured.

The system was endorsed by the assembly and a committee was appointed to look further into the subject with the object of obtaining data towards taking further action.

BIRTHDAY TEA WAS A SUCCESS

Splendid success attended the "Birthday Tea" given last evening in St. John's Sunday school and a very happy evening was spent by all who attended. Tables representing the twelve different months of the year were ranged about the Sunday School and each was prettily and suitably decorated.

During the evening Rev. Mr. Milman, recently returned from Korea on furlough, gave an interesting address on his work among the heathen. Miss May Perry gave a guitar selection, Mrs. Foster, a violin solo, and Miss Ruby Young a vocal solo.

Mrs. Evans made an able accompanist to all numbers.

LOCAL COUNCIL HELD A MEETING

PROTEST AGAINST ADMISSION OF HEARST PAPERS.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Local Council of Women was held on April 15th. Reports of committees were received, also the nominations of the Executive of the National Council of Women for the coming year.

The convenor of the Committee on Objectionable Printed Matter and Films reported favourably on the children's section of the Public Library. Objectionable posters noted had been passed by the Board of Censors, but local authorities are willing to co-operate in eliminating undesirable posters. A new committee under the Board of Censors will deal directly with theatrical posters.

It was decided to forward to the Provincial Government an emphatic protest against the admission of the Hearst publications into Canada, because of their anti-British tone.

A resolution is to be forwarded to the Provincial Committee of the National Council of Women, requesting that a committee be appointed to prepare and publish a list of films which can be recommended to the general public.

The Executive of the National Council will be invited to hold a fall Executive meeting in Peterborough, probably in October.

The President, Mrs. Harstone, gave a brief but comprehensive outline of the proceedings of the National Council Executive meeting held in Ottawa in March.

With one or two exceptions, the nominations of the Executive of the National Council were endorsed.

The Local Council of Women will recommend to the Board of Trade that that body will recognize the visit of the Historical Society to the Kawartha Lakes this summer in some fitting manner, the Local Council to co-operate.

A RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

At a meeting of Welington L.O.L. No. 457, held at Nassau, on April 11th, the following resolution was unanimously passed:

Mr. Thomas Mitchell:

Dear Sir and Brother: Whereas it has pleased our Heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom to remove from you your dearly beloved wife, be it resolved—

That we the officers and members of the Wellington L.O.L. No. 457, desire to express our deep sympathy with you in your affliction. You have been called upon to mourn the loss of your dear wife whose excellent qualities we believe won her the friendship of all who knew her.

Accept our sympathy and may God in His infinite mercy sustain and comfort you and may He fill the void places in your heart with His love, joy and gladness, in the hope of a glorious re-union in our heavenly home above where parting will be no more.

Signed on behalf of the officers and members.

UNVEIL MEMORIAL TABLET SUNDAY

The memorial Tablet to St. John's fallen soldiers will be unveiled in that church to-morrow (18th) at the 7 p.m. service. All men or women who have served in any capacity during the late war are particularly invited as well as the relatives of those who have fallen.

While the G.W.V.A. find themselves unable to arrange a formal Church Parade owing to their own Parade in the morning, it is confidently expected that the members will generally attend at 7 p.m. individually to do honour to their fallen Comrades. It is understood that uniform may be worn.

Seats will be reserved for soldiers. All members of the different militia units are also invited.

Capt. (Rev.) C W. Hedley, late of the 94th Battalion C.E.F. and now of the S.C.R in Toronto will give the address.

To Absorb Freckles And Other Blemishe

Every spring numerous inquiries are made by girls seeking some reliable recipe for removing freckles. Very favorable reports have been received from many who have used ordinary mercolized wax during the freckling season. The wax seems to possess unusual properties which completely absorb the freckles, with no harmful effect whatever. The complexion improves wonderfully, becoming as soft as a rose petal, and as delicately tinted. Get an ounce of ordinary mercolized wax at any druggists, spread a thin layer of it over the entire face every night for a while, washing this off in the morning. For rough, spotty skin, sallowness, black-heads, pimples and all cutaneous blemishes, this treatment is superior to any other.

THE HUDSON SUPER 6

ONE OF THE ATTRACTIVE EXHIBITS AT THE MOTOR SHOW.

One of the spots of special interest at the Motor Show was the exhibit of Messrs. White and Ackford, who showed two handsome Hudson Super Six Models.

The seven-passenger phaeton divided the attention of interested parties with the four passenger sport model, and judging by the many enquiries, the prospects for a record season for Hudson Super Six Cars is exceedingly bright.

The beauty of the models and their graceful lines was abundantly commented on and the firm are very proud of the splendid machines they have to offer to the public for 1920.

It's alright to hug a delusion, but you needn't necessarily get engaged to it.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or are even just a little hard of hearing or have head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce ow Parmint (double strength), and add to it 1-4 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone losing hearing or who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

D'ANNUNZIO WILL SOON BE ON OUTSIDE LOOKING IN.

FIUME, April 17. — Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio has been completely ignored by the Fiume National Council in the formulation of the demands for settlement of problems relative to the future status of this city.

Delegates appointed by the council will meet Premier Nitti and carry on direct negotiations with the Italian Government. Three of these delegates are already in Rome.

Hungarian Bolsheviki have been gathering here recently, some of them being brought into the city in Capt. D'Annunzio's motor cars. Charges were made in the National Council that the will of the majority had been thwarted and that of a minority carried out. One member declared the problem of the city's future must be settled immediately.

"We are in the midst of terrible unrest," he said. "The city is in danger of being swept by Bolshevism, the organizers of which are already preparing their plans for the seizure."

In fact, the end of the session will probably be about the middle of May at the earliest. And then what about the farmer member and his crops?

"What are the farmers going to do regarding sowing their grain if the session doesn't end till near the latter part of May?" a Farmer member was asked the other night.

"Well, what I am going to do, and what I expect others will do, is to sow buckwheat. We can sow that in June and get a good crop."

"Oh, we will seed our buckwheat and buy our oats."

Therefore, the Farmer members say, "We should worry."

THE TEACHERS' SPRING FESTIVAL

Over two hundred persons were turned away from the Spring Festival given last evening by the Women Teachers' Guild, as long before the time scheduled for opening every available chair had been filled in the Collegiate Hall, where the entertainment was held.

The programme was more than usually entertaining, and was a revelation of the talent amongst the public school children in the city, and of the results to be obtained by careful training. The first item was two patriotic songs, "When Johnny Comes Marching Home" and "John Bull's Children," by the Festival Chorus, composed of the school children of the city, which was particularly pleasing. This was followed by Oxdansen (Swedish), a mock fight by the Normal School pupils. "Soldiers' Chorus" from "Faust," and Hymn trio, "Hark, Hark, My Soul," by Books 3 and 4 of King George School; Clap Dance by tiny pupils from Queen Alexandra School which was a charming feature; choruses, "Mountain Boy," "If You Are a Dunce," and "Patter, Patter, Patter" by Book 2 pupils.

A Feature.

A feature of the evening which was clever and novel in the extreme, was the reproductions of famous pictures by pupils of King Edward School. The pupils taking part were:

Age of Innocence (Reynolds)—Adeline Wigg.
Infant Samuel (Reynolds) — Lilian Lacey.
Strawberry Girl (Reynolds) — Florence Cripps.
Little Miss Bowles (Reynolds) — Gwen. Stinson.
Girl with Apple (Greuze)—Frances Andrews.
Lilacs (Millais)—Grace Irvine.
Cherry Ripe (Millais) — Doris Ackford.
Cherry Girl (Champney) — Mary McLeod.
John (Andrea Del Sarto) — Jack Cuffe.
Suzanne Huygens (Hanneman) — Mamie Hardy.

Graceful Dancing.

The balance of the programme was principally devoted to dances by the pupils of the different schools, and each was a revelation of grace and expert training. Special mention might be made of the Minuet by the junior pupils of St. Mary's Convent, which was very prettily presented, all the little girls wearing French costumes. Other numbers were:

Dance—"Spring" ..... Pupils of King George School
Two Part Songs—
"Sun Shower" .....
"Where the Warbling Waters Flow"
"Welcome the Spring Time" ..... Book 3 Pupils
Hymn Trio—"Holy, Holy, Holy" ..... Junior Book 4, Central School
Two Dances—
"Greek Maidens Playing Ball"
"Humoresque" .....
Miss Sanderson's Pupils, Collegiate Institute.

River Dennis, N.S., April 16th (Special).—"Dodd's Kidney Pills helped me wonderfully. My back is better, and as I haven't taken any other medicine since starting to take them, they must have done me a lot of good."

In these words Alexander J. MacLeod, a well-known resident here, gives his reason why he praises Dodd's Kidney Pills and why he says, "I would advise anybody who has kidney trouble to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial."

The reason Dodd's Kidney Pills are popular all over Canada is that people have tried them and found them good. Dodd's Kidney Pills have been in use in Canada for more than thirty years. They have been used by thousands of people suffering from various forms of kidney trouble, such as rheumatism, dropsy, sore back, weakness, diabetes, and Bright's disease.

Ask any one of these thousands to give you his opinion of Dodd's Kidney Pills. It is on the relief afforded sufferers from kidney trouble that Dodd's Kidney Pills have built their reputation as the sovereign remedy for sick kidneys.

THE COUNCIL WILL CONSIDER TREATY

LARGE NUMBER OF MEN REQUIRED FOR TURKEY.

SANREMO, April 17.—Allied Nations would be called upon to maintain a force of 300,000 men in Turkey to insure execution of the terms of the treaty with that country which was framed at London recently, it is understood, this treaty will be considered by the Supreme Allied Council when it opens its sessions here next Monday and announcements that Marshal Foch of France and Field Marshal Wilson of Great Britain, would be present at the meeting, are regarded as having said that military experts will be called upon by the Council before it decides finally on the terms to be submitted to the Sulton. The draft of the treaty which has been prepared is looked upon as being susceptable to important modifications with a view to removing obstacles to execution.

None of the Entente Powers is disposed to furnish large numbers of soldiers to impose the treaty terms on the Turks. Greece, it is understood is ready to send an army to Asia Minor, but there are serious objection to the presence of Greeks there, as it would probably intensify Turkish resistance. Sense there is a strong undercurrent of opinion in favor softening the terms and sparing Turkish pride as far as possible in order that the treaty may be accepted by a Turkish Government strong enough to overcome Nationalist opposition.

Armenia under the treaty as it stands at present, would be given the territory comprised within the boundry roughly outlined by the towns of Erzerum Bitlis, Van and Mush, and the corridor leading to the Black Sea.

THE "B AVER" TRUCK ATTRACTION AT THE MOTOR SHOW

The big Beaver worm-drive Canadian-made truck in the exhibit of the Duffus Motor Sales proved to be one of the most attractive features of the Motor Show last night. Judging from the crowd of interesting spectators and their many favourable comments, this new Canadian-made product will meet with the general approval of the truck-buying public, particularly at this time, when corporations and individuals are insisting more and more on buying goods made in our own country, where they can obtain 100 cents worth of value for every dollar expended. 1d-91-8923

ALWAYS REMEMBER YOUR MOTHER

And manifest an interest in whatever interests or amuses her.

Seek her comfort and pleasure in all things before your own.

Don't forget that, though she is old and wrinkled ,she still loves pretty things.

Remember that she is still a girl at heart as far as delicate little attentions are concerned.

Give her your full confidence, and never do anything of which you think she would disapprove.

Make her a partner, so far as your different ages will permit, in all your pleasures and recreations.

Lift all the burdens you can from shoulders that have grown stooped in waiting upon and working for you.

Never intimate by word or deed that your world and hers are different, or that you feel in any way superior to her.

Treat her with the unvarying courtesy and deference you accord to those who are above you in rank or position.

Study her tastes and habits, her likes and dislikes, and cater for them as far as possible in an unobtrusive way.

Bear patiently with all her peculiarities or infirmities of temper or disposition, which may be the result of a life of care and toil.

Consult her and ask her advice in regard to whatever you are about to do, even though you have no doubt as to what your course should be.

Be on the look-out for every occasion to make whatever return you can for her years of sacrifice and planning for your happiness and well-being.

Introduce all your friends to her, and enlist her sympathies in youthful projects, hopes, and plans, so that she may carry her own youth into old age.

Talk to her about your work, your studies, your friends, your amusements, the books you read, the places you visit, for everything that concerns you is of interest to her.

Remember that her life is monotonous compared with yours and to take her to some suitable place of amusement, or for a little trip to the country, or to the city if your home is in the country, as frequently as possible.

JOHN A. BRUCE & CO., LIMITED

HAMILTON Established 70 Years ONTARIO

A FINE DISPLAY AT MOTOR SHOW

CANADIAN PACKING COMPANY EXHIBIT HEARTILY APPROVED.

Entering into the spirit of the affair with an enthusiasm that was manifested in different avenues, the local plant of the Canadian Packing Co., through Mr. Gordon Matthews, manager, made an exhibit of the products of their factory at the motor show that was most creditable, and a very pleasing feature of the show.

There was sufficient to stock a good-sized store with counters, refrigerators, and all the necessary charge of a staff of capable and obliging salesmen.

In addition to the exhibit, the company has contributed to the prize-list almost numberless sides of bacon and hams.

THE ORCHESTRA AT THE MOTOR SHOW

HELPED GREATLY IN ENTERTAINING THE CROWDS IN THE MAIN HALL.

The Conservatory Orchestra rendered another good service to the community in their appearances at the motor show each evening. The programmes they presented were excellently rendered and highly appreciated by the large crowds. The following composed the Orchestra for the occasion:

First violin, C. J. Seymour, Dr. Park, Mrs. Hooper, Miss Harrington, and Mr. Steinberg; second violin, Misses Helen Weatherhead, W. Evans, Jean Hill, Ruth McLeish, and Messrs. Kenneth Lang and Harold Pease; viola, Mr. W. E. Lech; bass, Mr. W. E. Chambers; French horn, Mr. S. Hetherington; trombone, Mr. H. Lancashire; flute, Mr. G. H. Benson; cornets, Messrs. J. Minnicola, A Simmons, and George Ross; clarionets, Messrs. Otto Gliddon, Orville Crowe, and S. Rooke; pianist, Miss Stewart.

WHY THE FLATFISH IS BROWN ON ONE SIDE

According to the Egyptians, there is an excellent reason why the flatfish is brown on one side and white on the other.

Moses, they say, was one day cooking a flatfish. At that time these fishes were white on both sides. When the lawgiver had patiently broiled his specimen on one side, his fire, or else his oil, gave out, and sage though he is supposed to have been, he quickly lost his temper and angrily tossed the fish back into the sea.

In spite of the fact that it was half cooked, the flatfish became very lively on finding itself once more in its native element, and soon turned its attention to the business of life, which, for a fish, is to eat heartily, to avoid its enemies, and to reproduce its species.

The flatfish succeeded so well in all these enterprises that it eventually came to have many descendants, and these, it is noticed, retain to this very day the appearance of their half broiled ancestor, being brown or black on one side, and white on the other.

NEW SCALE OF SALARIES SHOWS GOOD INCREASES—ESTIMATES TABLED.

OTTAWA, April 17.—The salaries of letter carriers have been increased. The new scale is as follows:—

Heads of households receiving present maximum of $939 plus bonus, will receive a salary of $1,140 plus a bonus of $420; total, $1,560.

Heads of households receiving present maximum of $939 for over five years, will receive a salary of $1,260, plus a bonus of $395; total $1,656.

Single men, receiving present maximum of $939, will receive a salary of $1,140, plus a bonus of $190; total $1,332.

Single men, receiving present maximum of $939 for over five years, will receive a salary of $1,260, plus bonus of $162; total $1,422.

The supplementary estimate of $12,500,000 for bonuses for the inside and outside civil service, tabled in the House this afternoon, is for the same amount as voted last year. It is understood, however, that the application of the vote will this year be varied in some respects to secure more equitable distribution.

OF THE SAME OPINION.

Jones and Smith were two old bachelors who lived on the most intimate terms, constantly dined together and smoked the peaceful pipe, and occasionally went off together for a week's holiday. But a change came over the spirit of Smith's dream. Well on in the fifties he got married, and on his return from the honeymoon invited Jones to come and dine with him and be a witness of his happiness.

Dinner over, the old friends sat down in front of the fire after Mrs. Smith had gone up stairs.

"Well, my dear Jones, said the Benedict, "now tell me, quite candidly, what do you think of my dear wife?"

Jones hesitated for a moment, then replied, "Well, Smith, if I must speak quite candidly, I don't tihnk much of her."

Smith patted him on his knee as he replied, confidentially:

"Neither do I, my dear Jones."

SAFE AND EFFICIENT HOME TREATMENT FOR WEAK PEOPLE

Many Weak and Ailing People Who Have Been Helped Strongly Recommend Dr. Williams Pink Pills

There is only one way to build up a run down system if the blood is pale and thin. Many diseases are caused by thin blood. Other diseases such as influenza and rheumatism cause the blood to become thin and the wasting effect of these disorders cannot be combatted successfully until the blood is restored to its normal condition.

Pallor, nervousness, indigestion, sleeplessness, headaches, dizzy spells, shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, these are a few of the symptons of an anaemic bloodless condition. Some of them are not naturally associated with thin blood, but the quickest way to over come them is to make the blood rich and red.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills do one thing and do it well. They build up the blood increasing the number of red corpuscles. As this is done the blood becomes a richer red and is able to carry more oxygen, the great supporter of human life. As the blood improves in quality the tissues of the body are better nourished and the functions of the body are better performed. The glands of the stomach are stimulated and the first sign of improvement is usually a better appetite and better digestion.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills have been used for years as a bloodmaking tonic and system builder with such good results that in every community there are many people who are recommending this remedy to their friends and to others who are afflicted.

SEVERE INDIGESTION

Here is the statement of one person among thousands who have used Dr. Williams Pink Pills to their own great advantage. Mrs. A. Veniot, Hemford, N.S., says:—"For about two years I was a great sufferer from indigestion, which seemed to carry with it a complication of other troubles. Every meal I took brought with it misery, as it was followed by pain, and sometimes nausea and vomiting. At other times gas would form in the stomach to such an extent that my heart would palpitate at an alarming rate. These conditions brought on extreme nervousness and irritability and I found my general health so much affected, that the least exertion would tire me and I slept but poorly. I had been doctoring for several months, with no result beyond slight temporary relief, when I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills. I decided to follow this advice and got a half dozen boxes. Good results soon began to show from this treatment, and the further continued use of the pills have made me a well woman. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams Pink Pills to similar sufferers."

ALWAYS FELT TIRED

Many causes may contribute to the condition of thin blood known as anaemia. Care of the home, overwork, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient rest and sleep, improper diet are a few of them. The important thing is to restore the blood, to build it up so that the color will return to the cheeks and lips, brightness to the eyes and lightness to the step. To do this nothing else can equal Dr. Williams Pink Pills. They begin at once to increase the red corpuscles in the blood, and this new blood carries strength and health to every part of the body. The appetite improves, digestion becomes perfect, and energy and ambition return. Proof of this is given in the statement of Mrs. Alex. Archambo, Cornwall, Ont., who says:—"Two years ago my health began to fail. I was suffering from headaches, pains in the back and sides, and a constant tired out feeling. I had used a lot of medicine, but instead of it helping me I seemed to be growing weaker. My friends urged me to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and while I felt disheartened at my experience with other medicines, I decided to do so. To my great joy I soon found the pills were helping me, and their continued use for a time fully restored my health. I feel that I would be ungrateful if I did not give my experience with Dr. Williams Pink Pills, in the hope that it may point the way to health to some other poor sufferer."

RHEUMATIC PAINS

There is only one way to cure rheumatism, and that is through the blood. Liniments, hot applications and rubbing may give temporary ease, but cannot possibly root the trouble out of the system. That can only be done by the rich, red blood which Dr. Williams Pink Pills make. This new blood drives out the poisonous acids and impurities and the rheumatism disappears. If you are a sufferer from this painful malady try Dr. Williams Pink Pills, and see how soon the pains and stiffness of the joints fade away leaving behind new energy and new health. As an example Miss Annie S. Dedrick, R.R. No. 2, St. Thomas, Ont., says:—"Dr. Williams Pink Pills cured me of rheumatism after other remedies had failed. The pain in my arms and shoulders was so great that I could scarcely sleep. I could not raise my arms to comb my hair and could not dress myself without help. In this condition I read of a cure of rheumatism through the use of Dr. Williams Pink Pills and decided to try them. I got half a dozen boxes and I am thankful to say they not only cured my rheumatism but that my general health was greatly improved. My appetite was increased and I gained in weight. I shall always speak a good word for Dr. Williams Pink Pills."

AFTER INFLUENZA

Following a wide-spread epidemic of influenza, general debility is on the increase, and its effects may be noticed in the worn, listless appearance of so many of the men and women you meet. The symptoms of debility vary, but weakness is always present. There is poor digestion, languour, weak, aching back, wakefulness at night, often distressing headaches and a feeling of fatigue. These symptoms indicate impure and impoverished blood. It is significant of nearly every attack of influenza that it is followed by anaemia and debility. Among those who have used Dr. Williams Pink Pills with great benefit following an attack of influenza is Mrs. S. E. Baxter Dunboyne, Ont., who says:—"An attack of influenza left me in a terribly run down condition, and I was left so weak that I was unable to do my housework, and had to lie down most of the time. I had no desire for food and slept poorly. I had read so much about Dr. Williams Pink Pills that I decided to try them. By the time I had taken two boxes I could feel an improvement in my condition, and by the time I had used eight boxes I was again enjoying the best of health. They are the best medicine I know for renewing strength after an attack of this debilitating disease."

BUILD UP THE BLOOD

The purpose of Dr. Williams Pink Pills is to build up the blood. They do this one thing and they do it well. They are an invaluable remedy in diseases arising from bad or deficient blood, as rheumatism, neuralgia, after effects of the grip and fevers. The pills are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any harmful drug and cannot injure the most delicate system.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brokville, Ont."

BRIDE MAY VISIT PARENTS BUT HUBBY NOT WELCOME

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., April 17.—Charles Hubbard, of Ponthill, married a girl on Tuesday of last week, but he told the parents only Sunday night. The father at once put his new son-in-law out, and locked the girl up, and would not let her join her husband. Hubbard laid an information against H. Simpson, the father, and to-day in the Police Court he agreed to let the girl go. She will be allowed to visit her parents if she is alone. The husband is taboo.

CHATHAM PLANTS OF GRAY-DORT MOTORS LIMITED

You Can Buy the Best Gray-Dort Ever Built

THE Gray-Dort which your dealer has to-day is the best Gray-Dort ever built.

More than that. It is the greatest Gray-Dort value.

For $1,365 you get a Gray-Dort with ten major improvements and a dozen refinements.

With a bigger gas tank, placed in the rear, with a new, extra-heavy, extra-safe steering gear. With the emergency brake on a lever—and with Thermoid brake linings.

A more convenient Gray-Dort, the side curtains opening with the doors, with very much more leg-room in the tonneau and with more in the driving compartment because of the shorter and smarter cowl.

A Gray-Dort which has the good-looks of a smarter top, hand-tailored in our own shops, a smarter hood, with many long, narrow louvres.

There are many more refinements which you will find when you drive the new Gray-Dort.

Here you have the same powerful, finely-built motor with its big bore and long stroke. The same heavy crankshaft, many pounds heavier than on other light cars. A rear axle built specially for us right here in Chatham. Long springs, built here, too. Westinghouse starting and lighting. Improved Carter carburetor. Every unit of motor and chassis is bigger and stronger and higher quality than is usually considered for light cars.

Gray-Dort production has been doubled for this year. But our dealers tell us that this will not be sufficient to meet the demand. It would be wise to see the Gray-Dort dealer to-day.

PRICES

5-Passenger Car—$1365, f.o.b. Chatham, war tax extra.
2-Passenger Roadster is the same price.

"BUSINESS BEFORE PLEASURE," SAYS THE FATHER OF THE ILLUSIVE CANNON BALL SCOTT

PITCHER IS NOW GETTING READY TO LINE UP WITH THE HILLCRESTS OF TORONTO.

Lindsay Warder—As was prematurely announced in a local paper there is a possibility of "Cannon Ball" Ed. Scott, who twirled such good ball for the Lindsay Club last season, lining up with Hillcrests of Toronto this season.

For some time the local baseball officers have been camping on Scott's trail, and "Scotty" wants to play with the Greybirds in preference to Toronto, but for business reasons it is stated that he will remain in Toronto. Mr. Scott, sr., is of the opinion that his clever-pitching son should follow in dad's footsteps and take up his business career in the firm. Ed's sporting instincts call him to Lindsay, but business calls him to Toronto, and, according to the common law of things, "business comes before pleasure."

Lindsay baseball fans and the players will be heartily sorry to lose the services of "Cannon Ball," who pitched great ball last season, and with good support might have succeeded in winning the pennant for Lindsay. "Scotty" was popular with all. He himself enjoyed his sojourn in Lindsay as it was but a stone's throw to his summer home on Lake Cameron, where he spent considerable of his time. All winter he has been holding down a good position with a lumber firm in the northern part of the County and is as fit as a veteran for the game this year. He had figured on lining up with Lindsay Greybirds, with whom he is eligible to play in the Central League and in the Ontario championships if it came to Lindsay having a chance.

Officials of the Central Ontario League are watching the movements of "Cannon Ball," and claim that although he may be able to qualify under the residence rule to play with Hillcrests, yet if they should win out the City Championships, they would be unable to use Scott in the play-down for the Ontario championship as he could not qualify under the O. B.A.A. Jan. 1st residence rule.

In Lindsay, baseball fans, and friends of "Scotty" want to see him in a Lindsay uniform, and even if this is not to be they would like to see him go right through to the Ontario championships should the link up with a Toronto team.

On top of it all Lindsay fans have not given up the hope of seeing Scott turn out with the Greybirds.

LOCAL FOOTBALL GOSSIP

DE LAVAL VS. C.G.E. TO-DAY—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST

The C. G. E. and De Laval teams had practice games last evening in preparation for the Exhibition game at the Exhibition grounds on Saturday (to-day) afternoon at 2.30. A good number of people were present, which looks as if there will be a large attendance to-day.

The Caledonians will have a thorough practise game at 3 o'clock to-day. A few of the Scotsmen who arrived from Scotland will continue the national game in Canada.

Mr. Frank McKinley expects to have the G.W.V.A. team down to the Exhibition grounds in the afternoon so as to get a definite line-up, because the opening game is on Saturday, April 24th.

If youth has anything to do with making progress in having a good football team, the De Laval manager produced a good standard of promising players in the practice game.

To the many admirers of Bowness, the Caledonian right back, who met with the unfortunate accident during the exhibition game last Saturday, they will be sorry to hear that he has had to confine himself to his home so as to enable the small bone in his ankle that was broken to get into proper place. He had decided not to participate in football this season, and the local enthusiasts regret this necessity, wishing him a speedy recovery.

TROUBLE AMONG OSHAWA BASEBALLISTS.

Reformer: Mr. George Miller has tendered his resignation from the Oshawa Ball Club in the C.O.B.A. His reason for doing so has not yet been ascertained but in his letter to the officers he has given them the assurance that he will give his support to boost amateur baseball in Oshawa.

A certain amount of discord at present exists between the players and the club executive, and this lack of harmony will not help the club any. To get matters threshed out on these difficult points a meeting of all the players and fans has been called.

BOY CHESS PLAYER STARTLES BERLIN

DEFEATS CHAMPIONS ALTHOUGH ONLY EIGHT YEARS OF AGE.

A youthful chess prodigy recently made his debut in Berlin. A boy by the name of R. Rzeschewski, eight years of age, dared to play in the Berlin Chess Society 20 or more games simultaneously against more or less classy chess players, winning 18 games, losing one and drawing the rest. Furthermore, the little fellow undertook to play blindfolded against the famous master player, Kurt von Bardeleben, an expert of over 40 years' standing and many times a prize winner in national and intenational tournaments. Marvelous to relate, the boy had the satisfaction of drawing this game after 20 moves.

It was startling to see the little boy, whose head barely reached above the level of the tables, step from board to board and watch him make rejoinders to the moves of his older adversaries. The fact that the performance lasted five consecutive hours, without his play suffering any deterioration, made it all the more astonishing. Fortunately, the combined physical and mental strain was in no way harmful, for upon reaching his hotel he retired at once and slept soundly all night. When visitors called the following morning, he was just a cheerful, happy child, busy with his toys, paying scarcely any attention to the congratulations offered him.

Upon being asked how he came to lose a particular game, he promptly got out his chess set, placed them in the right position and said: "You see, here I should have played this way and I would have drawn or won the game. But I made a blunder and lost instead." At the request of the visitors, he showed about ten or twelve positions from some of the other games and demonstrated where his adversaries in each had gone wrong. Not having the scores of the games with him, he did all this from memory. He even offered to play over for his callers every one of the 22 games from memory, but he was prevailed upon to desist.

The consensus of opinion of all those who have seen the boy at play is that he is destined to become one of the greatest masters of chess, provided he develops the necessary stamina to enable him to bear the exceptional strain upon the faculties.

SWUNG THREE TIMES DID MR. BABE RUTH

YANKEES' SLUGGING STAR GOT A NEW HAT AND LOST EYESIGHT.

Big league accredited stars are having tough sledding in the first few days of the 1920 season. "Babe" Ruth dropped a line drive and lost the Yanks' first game on Wednesday. Yesterday he was presented with a hat before the game, but the topper must have been a few sizes too large and slipped down over the "Babe's" eyes. The former Dunnite whipped three times.

Walter Johnson, of speed fame, fell before a fusilade of Boston base hits yesterday. The Barrow Hopes fell on the swift offerings of the Washington star for five runs in two innings. Walter retired to the shower.

Jawn McGraw's Giants stubbed their tootsies again yesterday. Oescher, a Giant cast-off and former Philly hurler, held the famous Gothamites scoreless. The Braves scored one and the game was theirs.

The Dodgers and the Phillies had a barrel of fun across the Brooklyn bridge. Twenty-seven hits were rung up in a wild-eyed contest and it took Cy Williams' clout over the fence to give the Phillies an 8 to 7 victory. Seven pitchers had a whirl in this merry muss.

George Gibson's Pirates failed to break into the win column at St. Louis. Schupp's wildness was the only reason for the Pittsburgers crossing the plate and Cooper was no puzzle to the Cardinals.

Fred Mitchell's Cubs were away below form yesterday, and as a result the champion Reds won their second game of the year.

Hugh Duffy has sent out a call for heavers. The Leaf pilot is far from satisfied with his hurling flock and has notified local baseball headquarters that he must have two good dependable twirlers at once. If they can be secured Hughy will get them.

Frank Baker will return to third base for the Yankees it is reported. He had a conference yesterday in Philadelphia with Manager Huggins, following which the New York manager said his retired star had decided practcally to return to the club.

President William Klepper, of the Seattle Baseball Club, of the Pacific Coast League, announced yesterday he had telegraphed to Manager John McGraw of the New York Giants, offering to purchase Hal Chase, provided the first baseman could be obtained at a reasonable price.

Cutty, of Buffalo, last year's Brantford Red Sox third sacker, has entered the hold-out club. While the Brantford Club hope he will come to terms they have signed up McElligot to cover this position.

YOUR HOLIDAY THIS SUMMER

Make your reservations early for accommodation in the "Highlands of Ontario" this summer if you do not want to be disappointed. There will be a large influx of tourists from the United States this year and our cousins across the border are picking up the desirable places. Algonquin Park is one of the most attractive of these resorts and the "Highland Inn" (open all year) and Camp Minnesing and Nominigan Camp (open July and August, and probably September) offer most comfortable accomodation at reasonable rates. The hotels are owned and operated by the Grand Trunk Railway. Write N. T. Clarke, Manager, Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Ont., for illustrated folder telling you all about it, or apply to any Grand Trunk Agent, or C. E. Horning, D.P.A., Toronto, Ont.

GIANTS NEW FIND FAST AND CLEVER

There may be no such thing as luck—but McGraw has Frisch just the same. The Giants appeared to be badly shattered this season with Chase and Zimmerman out of it. Those outside corners are hard to fill.

But McGraw has Frisch to take Zim's place. He also has Kelly to play first base. Lucky.

Frank Frisch—a real New Yorker by the way, the only native on the team, is a real find. He is one of those rare real things that break into baseball now and then.

McGraw says that this young college boy will make the fans forget Zim and every other third baseman. Certainly Frisch's showing in the south this spring has justified McGraw's prediction.

Frisch was recommended to McGraw by Arthur Devlin who used to star at third base for the Giants ten years ago. Devlin was the baseball coach at Fordham university and developed Frisch.

It was not a difficult job. Things athletic are just in young Frisch's line. Frank was not only a star baseball player but one of the greatest all round athletes ever developed at Fordham. Frisch won a name for himself on the gridiron, boardfloor, and the cinderpath. He was an all-American football selection in 1917. He ran the 100 yard dash in 10 flat, and was such a good baseball player that he turned professional player last winter.

Although Frisch played a few games at second base for the Giants at the close of last season he is practically accomplishing the rare feat of winning a place on the team in his first professional season. He is just 21.

'OTHER MEN'S SHOES' COMING TO PETERBORO

FEATURE AT THE GRAND NEXT WEEK.

Edgar Lewis' newest picture, "Other Men's Shoes," is the feature attraction at the Grand Theatre for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. This Pathe feature presents Craufurd Kent, the popular leading man, in the dual role of twin brothers. One is a preacher, sensitive and meek. The other is a wanderer, vigorous, honhearted and just. Circumstances force the strong brother to wear the shoes of the weak one, and things begin to happen in earnest in the community when their minister suddenly develops two-fisted propensities that work miracles.

Andrew Soutar, novelist and war corespondent, wrote the story which Mr. Lewis has directed with all the power that made his "The Barrier," "The Great Divide," "The Sign Invisible" and many others, such popular successes. "Other Men's Shoes" is entertainment with a potent thought in it and makes a strong appeal to the sympathies. The romance in the story is particularly beautiful in theme. The cast in support of Craufurd Kent includes Irene Boyle, Jean Armour, Harold Forshay, John P. Wade and Bobby Connolly.

LOUIS BENNISON SCORES A HIT IN "SPEEDY MEADE," AT THE GRAND

A play of tremendous interest is Speedy Meade, a new Betzwood production, with all the speed and pep of the west in which Louis Bennison is the star, was received with great enthusiasm yesterday, at the Allen Theatre. Louis Bennison plays himself into the hearts of the people with his wondrous mastery of the saddle and his good naturedness, supported by an all star cast including, Katherine McDonald, the beautiful star. It is a plot so baffling that the climax is certain to keep Bennison audiences guessing until the very last minute.

AMATEUR NIGHT AT THE GRAND

MISS WINNIFRED EVANS WON THE FIRST PRIZE.

Amateur night at the Grand last evening attracted a bumper house and some fairly good specialties were introduced by 14 amateur performers. Miss Winnifred Evans carried off the first prize, $5, for a violin solo, Mr. Philip Taylor second, $3, with a concertino solo, and Mr. Everett third for a vocal solo, "The Bells of St. Marys." The affair was staged under the auspices of Marks Brothers. See to-night's show at the Grand.

BASEBALL NOTES

Walter Keating, at one time shortstop for the Chicago Cubs, is to play with an industrial team this season. Several other ex-major leaguers will be with the same team at Lebanon, Pa.

Bob Hart, one of the new umpires on th National League staff, has been playing roller polo in New England during the off-season. Hart is one of the shining lights of this strenuous game.

Joe Harris has persisted in his hold-out against the terms offered him by Cleveland, and Tris Speaker plans to start the season with Doc Johnston on first base.

Thormahlen has been troubled this spring with a lame arm, and he is not likely to be called upon for much work until the weather warms up considerably.

* * *

Babe Ruth is not the only slugger added to the Yankee cast since last season. Bob Meusel, Huggins's new third baseman, can drive a ball about as far as any other player in the game, excepting Ruth.

Jimmy Johnston, of the Robins, has been used in the outfield and at first and second bases, but in none of these positions did he display such skill as he showed as a third baseman in the South this spring.

Ray Fisher reported late at the training camp of the Reds and then developed a sore arm in one of the games of the Washington series. As a result, he is not ready for the opening of the season.

Walter Barbare, of the Pirates, is not likely to play any ball for three weeks at least. A pitched ball broke his jawbone in two places and knocked out several teeth.

Counting the White Sox out of the pennant race is a popular pastime with the experts this spring, but any team with Cicotte, Williams, Kerr, Schalk, Edie Collins Weaver Jackson and Felsch, not to mention other players of class, is anything but "out" before the race begins.

Johnny Walker, one of Connie Mack's young catchers, has been showing fine form with the stick in the South and is to be retained. He also is a capable receiver as well as a dangerous hitter.

Charley Risberg has reported to the White Sox, but Chick Gandil has declined all offers and will remain with his independent team in Idaho.

Rabbit Maranville has recovered from the spike wound on his riaht hand, and is again playing good ball for the Boston Braves.

Joe Wood has not given up hope of staging a comeback as a pitcher. Smoky Joe has tried out his arm at the training camp and he believes that he will be able to do some pitching in the coming campaign.

TO SAVE HER FROM A WICKED WORLD

AGED MAN MURDERS GRANDCHILD IN SIGHT OF SCORES OF HER FELLOW-PUPILS.

MUSKEGON, Mich., April 15.—Scores of children attending the Glendale schoole here to-day witnessed the murder of Irma Moon, 10 years old, their classmate and playfellow by Stuart C. Moon, her grandfather, in front of the building.

His eyes blazing with maniacal fury and his voice husky as he called on the Lord to witness that he was sending to Him a tender young soul to save her from the misery of a wicked world, the aged man crushed the head of his innocent kinswoman and then calmly sat down and watched her die.

As the children within the school house watched the tragedy their faces grew white with terror and shriek after shriek sounded through the structure as Mrs. Elizabeth McLeod, principal of the school, attempted in vain to quiet them. Several of the little ones are prostrated by shock. "I killed her because I loved her and wished her out of this life of misery and this world of wickedness," said Mr. Moon, who is 72 years old and a Civil War Veteran, in his cell in the county jail to-night "My only regret is that I could not go with her into the realms of happiness."

Mr. Moon, who is a retired lumberman and weathly, lives in Muskegon Heights, a suburb, with his son, Edwin B. Moon, the father of Irma. When he appeared at the schoolhouse to-day and asked to see his granddaughter, of whom he always has been very fond, the little one was called from her class by Mrs. McLeod. As the child appeared and ran to greet her grandfathtr, he raised an axe which he carried behind his back and stuck down the child.

Mr. Moon who has for many years been prominent in Michigan business circles, retired from active business life several years ago, and since then has spent most of his time at the home of his son. He has long been regarded as eccentric, but there never was even a suspicion that his eccentricity would take a homicidal turn.

CONCRETE SHIPS COMPLETE FAILURE

Their Construction Discontinued for Good by British Firm.

LONDON, April 17.—Concrete ships are a complete failure, is the verdict of Sir G. B. Hunter, managing director of one of the biggest ship-building firms in Britain.

"They cost twice as much as steel vessels and take tiwce the time to build; and we have discontinued their construction for good," he said.

ANOTHER FRENCH SCANDAL OPENED

ONE MAN MADE $40,000,000 CLEAR PROFIT.

PARIS, April 17.—A war-profiteering scandal has been opened in the Chamber of Deputies by Baron de Castellane. In a stirring speech, he revealed that amazing sums were piled up during the war by profiteers under the cloak of "patriotism."

The Baron asserted the Hotchkiss Company, which is said to be largely controlled by United States interests, realized a net profit of 43 per cent. while a well-known French maker of engines was quoted as having admitted he made $40,000,000 clear profit. An automobile manufacturer was scathingly denounced by Castellane on similar grounds.

As a result of these disclosures, the tax on war fortunes is expected to be still further increased, possibly to 50 per cen. of the net profit figures. A sweeping Goverament investigation is urged.

WOULD WAGE WAR ON STRAY DOGS

PROPOSAL MUNICIPALTIES BE AUTHORIZED TO TAX ALL CANINES SUBMITTED.

TORONTO, April 17.—The necessity for protecting sheep from dogs was emphasized in the Agricultural Committee of the Legislature, when a proposal that municipalities be authorized to tax all dogs was submitted. There was a good deal of difference on the matter in committee, and it was finally allowed to stand for further consideration. At the present time only dogs running at large are subject to the tax, but the proposal is to make even dogs kept upon the farm liable. The wiping out of stray dogs that roam about, a constant menace to sheep, was also discussed, one member remarking that the offering of $2 bonus in one township in his riding had resulted in many stray dogs being caught.

The committee also considered the subject of Government assistance to encourage athletic events in connection with community hall grounds. The discussion drew from Hon. Mr. Doherty the admission that he had been thinking of the advisability of the Province giving grants for prizes for athletic competitions in the counties at which teams from various townships might compete.

PROCEEDINGS OVER PROHIBITION ACTS

AMERICAN STATES INVOLVED IN PROCEEDINGS OVER ENFORCEMENT IN THIS JURISDICTION.

WASHINGTON, April 17.—Validity of the prohibition Amendment and portions of the Enforcement Act was involved in seven separate proceedings before the Supreme Court. Two of these were original suits brought by Rhode Island and New Jersey as sovereign states to enjoin enforcement in their jurisdictions upon the grounds that both enactments were unconstitutional. The other cases were direct appeals from lower court decrees.

Steps to institute the suits were taken immediately after the amendment became effective on January 16 and on motion of counsel their consideration was expedited.

In both the Rhode Island and New Jersey suits the validty of the Eighteenth Amendment was attacked, but the New Jersey case also alleged that even if the amendment were valid, the enforcement act, was unconstitutional because it had not been concurred in by New Jersey under provisions of the amendment giving the federal and state governments concurrent power to enforce prohibition. New Jersey also contended that if the entire enforcement act were not unconstitutional, the portions of it limiting the alcoholic content of beverages to less than one-half of one per cent. and relating to the dispensing of liquors for medicinal purposes were invalid.

The cases reaching the court of appeals were those of the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company, Christian Feigenspan, a Newark, N.J., brewer, the St. Louis Brewing Association and George C. Dempsey, a whole sale liquor dealer in Boston, Mass., who lost injunction proceedings in the lower court. The other case before the court was an appeal by the government from a decision of Federal Judge Geiger enjoining federal officials from intesfering with the Manitopar Products Company, a Wisconsin corporation, in the manufacture of beer containing 2.5 per cent. alcohol.

FEDERAL BONUS TO CIVIL SERVICE

ONE-HALF THE SUM ASKED PASSED BY DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 17.—In the House of Commons here a motion to provide $12,500,000 for civil service bonuses was introduced by the Minister of Finance.

Sir Henry Drayton, in urging that the resolution be carried said the cheques were ready for mailing. Every effort had been made to get rid of the bonus and it was only a few days ago that the Government, after anxious debate, decided that a bonus must be granted. It would have been an injustice to the civil servants if a bonus had not been granted.

Finally, at half past twelve, and on the suggestion of Sir Henry Drayton, the House allowed one-half of the amount to go through. This leaves the matter open for further discussion.

BELGIUM'S RECOVERY SINCE ARMISTICE

INDUSTRIES AND TRADE GETTING BACK TO PRE-WAR STATUS.

BRUSSELS, April 17.—Belgium has made rapid progress toward industrial recovery since the armistice largely owing to the fact that the country has had no serious strikes, says M. Jaspar, Minister of Economic Affairs. He estimates that the nation's industrial output has now attained perhaps 70 per cent. of its prewar record and that its mines are producing as much coal as in the year before the war.

"About 70 per cent. of our material which was taken out by the Germans has been returned to us," added M. Jaspar. "The money taken by the Germans from the Belgian treasury has been returned but Belgium has thus far received no indemnity from Germany. At the beginning of the armistice 800,000 of our people were without work. Our recovery has been made in spite of the fact that more than one-half of the Belgians who had to flee before the Germans are still in France unable to return because they have no homes here."

Belgian villages destroyed in the war are being rebuilt, said M. Jaspar. In the district of Ypres 18 villages have been restored to such an extent that local administration has been resumed. "If the United States would do for Belgium what she has just done for Poland, establish a credit for her, most of our problems would be solved," declared the Minister of Economics.

A PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS TO MR. H. EDMONSON

On Friday last a presentation an address was made by the employees of the Bonner-Worth Mills of the Canadian Woollens to Mr. H. Edmonson. Tea was served in the dining room of the Company's plant and a social hour spent. The presentation took the form of a chair. The address follows:

Dear Mr. H. Edmonson.—It is with regret that we, your fellow workers, learn that owing to personal reasons you are about to leave us.

We assure you that your absence will be felt by all. During the four years you have laboured with us we have found you a friend in many ways, and as you are senior to practically all of us we have been able to come for advice which you have always been willing to bestow, and the place which "Daddy" filled will greatly be missed.

However, as the time has come for us to part we could not let the opportunity pass without showing our appreciation in a practical way and we ask you to accept this chair as a small token of our good will. Our best wishes go with it and when you sit in it may many happy reflections of bye gone days come back to you.

We wish your wife and yourself the very best of luck and may God's blessing rest on you both.

We are

CHAPELS ON GORE AS WAR MEMORIAL

NOVEL SUGGESTION AMONG MANY MADE AT LARGE MEETING AT HAMILTON.

HAMILTON, April 17.—A gathering that filled the City Council chambers was held here to receive suggestions as to the form Hamilton's war memorial should take. George Coppley presided. A great many suggestions were received, and the meeting agreed to leave the matter open until June 3. Sir John Gibson thought they should take their time in reaching a decision. A majority seemed to favor a memorial hall. Ald. McQuesten suggested a park and stadium on the Mountain brow, and C. W. Heming wanted a building on the Gore Park or some other central place, providing chapels for the different religious denominations. Major-Gen. Mewburn, who made the first contribution to the fund, said he had first favored a memorial hall, but was now undecided. Dr. Smith advocated a children's hospital. A. H. Peart, a war veteran, thought they should not spend any money on a memorial until all soldiers' widows and children were taken care of. Another suggestion was a bridge at the west end of the city.

23 CENTS A POUND NEW SUGAR PRICE

Refineries Increase Charge From $2 to $2.50 Per Hundred Pounds

(Canadian Press.)

MONTREAL, April 17.—Advanced prices on sugar became effective yesterday when the Canada Sugar Refinery increased their charge by $2 per 100 lbs., making their price now $18.50 per 100 lbs., and the St. Lawrence and Atlantic Sugar Refineries each advanced $2.50 per 100 lbs., bringing their sale price to $19 per 100 lbs., these being prices at the factory.

Retail merchants here say that their prices will now range from a minimum of 20 cents to a maximum of 23 cents per lb.

"Instead of Going to the Hospital"— writes Mr. Lewis MacPherson, from Halifax, N.S., "I sent for a box of Gin Pills—with the result that I am a well man. I recommend Gin Pills to everyone suffering from kidney trouble."

Mr. MacPherson had suffered untold misery, and, after treating with the best medical help available for 10 months he decided to go to Victoria Hospital, Halifax. He had inflammation of the kidneys and bladder. Two days before his intended departure a neighbour called and gave him some Gin Pills. "Six hours after taking the first dose", he writes, "the effects were simply miraculous". Then he sent for a box of Gin Pills and was cured.

This is just one of the many instances which are being brought to our notice continually. People, out of pure joy and gratitude for release from pain, write these letters to us. What Gin Pills have done for them they can do for you.

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

The formula on which Gin Pills are prepared was attained only after long and profound study and experimenting. It is unique. It embraces the beneficent properties of the Juniper in the Gin, but eliminates all the alcohol. Combined with seven other diuretics and antiseptics, it goes right to the seat of the trouble, allaying the congested kidneys, healing inflammation, restoring weak tissues, and enabling these delicate organs to resume their work of purifying the blood. Thus the poisons are soon taken out of the system, the pain is stopped, and the debilitated body becomes strong and healthful.

If you have a backache, gravel or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble, get a box of Gin Pills at once. Your druggist or dealer has them at 50c a box with money-back guarantee. Gin Pills taken now may help you to avoid an operation. Do not delay.

WORK OF PULLING AN ELEPHANT'S TOOTH

It does not require much imagination to realize that pulling an elephant's tooth is something of an engineering as well as a dental job.

An example of this was when Albert, one of the biggest elephants in the Ringling herd at Madison Square Gardens, New York, had refused to eat, and the circus veterinary found a great tooth cavity which was beyond remedy by filling.

The tooth that was giving Albert so much discomfort was as large as a man's fist. After a liberal dose of cocaine had been injected, forceps as big as ice tongs were clamped to the tooth, a rope attached to the forceps, and a squad of trainers made ready to supply the pulling power.

TRY TO AVOID SPLIT

If Borden Retires Foster Will Carry on For a Time.

OTTAWA, April 17.—If circumstances necessitate the retirement of Sir Robert Borden, and no one, not even himself, is yet in a position to say, the indications are against the selection of any leader till near the end of the present Parliament. There will be a tendency to have Sir George Foster carry on in the role of Acting Premier. Upon him there would be an agreement in the Cabinet, which no other could possibly command, and the great desire is to avoid a split and thus defer an election till it becomes a constitutional necessity.

THOU WILT KEEP HIM IN PERFECT PEACE WHOSE MIND IS STAYED ON THEE.

What though the shades of night descend,
And falls the solemn darkness drear,
And near thee is no earthly friend,
The lonely silent hours to cheer.

Grim phantoms round thee seem to to steal,
Mysterious sounds affright thy ear,
And chilling on your heart you feel,
The hand of paralyzing fear.

Then lift confiding eyes above,
And list the voice of truth divine,
Sweet as blest angel's songs of love,
Speak to that timorous heart of thine.

Let not thy spirit be dismayed,
Thee, shall no lurking foe molest,
For round, in warlike gear arrayed,
Celestial legions guard thy rest.

Then calmly lay thee down to sleep,
For safely will He make thee dwell,
And those who trust Him safe will keep
Despite of all the powers of Hell.

All waking, watching are but vain,
Except thy dwelling He defends,
Then ever let thy heart be fain,
To place thy trust in earthly friends
—Mrs. A. F. Calder.

The War's Aftermath

Through no fault of their own, six million people, 800,000 of whom are children, are starving to death in Eastern and Central Europe.

Canadians, red-blooded, charitable, humanitarian Canadians of every religion and creed, are asked to join in saving these human lives and in remedying the horrible conditions that now exist.

Hunger knows no nationality.
Will you, for humanity's sake, help to send relief?

Newspaper reports, confirmed by the stories of eye-witnesses who have returned to Canada, have brought into being a Dominion-wide organization which has set one million dollars as Canada's share in a great relief campaign.

Your own individual help is needed to-day as it never was needed before.

Representative men and women in this community will call upon you for a subscription. Let your response be in the measure of your gratefulness that your home is safe—that you and yours live in a land of plenty.

HERE ARE THE FACTS:

$200 will save one child's life for a whole year.
$20 will feed one little girl for a month.
25 cents will buy a boy more food than he has had at any one time during five years.
One change of clothes may save a boy or girl from the terrible typhus epidemic which is raging now in Eastern Europe.
Poland is crowded with children of eight or ten years old, no larger than infants of a few months, who cannot walk because of lack of food.
There are hundreds of thousands of children in Poland, Palestine, Czecho-Slovakia, Lithuania, Rumania, Siberia and the Orient left helpless and homeless by the war. Thousands of them, unable to get in to the already overcrowded orphanages, beg on the streets by day and sleep on the streets by night. And this, but for the Grace of God, might have been the plight of your own little boy or girl.

MAKES HIS MARK IN CAR PAINTING

A. V. SHADGETT'S EXHIBIT AT MOTOR SHOW A WORK OF ART.

The biggest surprise at the Motor Show is a beautiful, stately $9,000 five passenger McFarlane touring car standing just inside the entrance to Armouries, on the south side. It is a perfect dream in exterior finish, and irresistably arrests and holds one's attention. Visitors take this car for a new one, like the others on exhibit, and are quite surprised to learn that it is a used car just out of A. V. Shadgett's paint shop, and on exhibition as a specimen of his work. The body is finished in deep maroon and the remainder of the vehicle, including its top is in black—a harmony of coloring refreshingly soft and quiet. As an example of local car painting and varnishing, Mr. Shadgett has earned by this work of his skilfully directed brush, credit for repainting and revarnishing cars with a measure of efficiency heaped up and overflowing. In fact it is difficult to conceive of his work being excelled in any car factory, and of a certainty no new car in the show shines more resplendidly in its exqueenly specimen of automobile product. A. V. Shadgett's sign on his premises, corner of Aylmer and Charlotte streets, conveys the announcement that car painting within is a specialty and no truer claim was ever made by a business man; for his exhibit of his own handiwork demonstartes that in car painting he can measure up to the ideal quality work called for in the highest priced automobiles on the market.

Mr. Shadgett takes this opportunity of thanking Mr. R. Copping for the use of the car which he painted.

COSTLY EXPERIMENT.

ST. CATHERINES, April 15.—W. Norman Counsell, a prominent fruit grower here, is convinced that experimenting is sometimes an expensive business. Today he was fined $200 for having liquor other than in a private dwelling. Several months ago Counsell obtained a license to manufacture native wine with grapes from his own vineyards. Having heard that a considerable quantity of wine had gone from his place to a certain quarter in Thorold, License Inspector King and Inspector Putnam of the Provincial Department paid a visit to the Counsell manufacturing plant. There they found some barrels of fermenting pear juice. Asked about it, Counsell said he was experimenting. He wanted to use the pear juice to sweeten the native wine. A sample of the pear juice was sent to Toronto for analysis, and the Government analyst reported it over 7 per cent. alcohol. A charge of having liquor for sale was then laid against him. He repeated his explanation in the witness box today, and through his counsel, A. C. Kingstone, agreed to plead guilty to having the liquor in an unlawful place. It is understood the case may be appealed to test the law.

UNABLE TO PASS LITERARY TEST

Greek Grocer Can Speak Six Languages.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Although he speaks fluently six languages and had lived in New York City ten years, George Arsenis, a Greek grocer, has been held with his wife at Ellis Island since February 20, because he is unable to pass the literacy test.

Arsenis speaks French, English, Spanish, Italian, Greek and Rumanian, but could not read the required 40 words of any language that would re-admit him to this country after a long stay abroad. Arsenis and his wife, who is English, and able to read, went to Europe several years ago on a long vacation. Legislation putting into effect the literacy test was passed during their absence.

BY WATER SPOUT.

Three Hundred Houses and Warehouses Wrecked.

HAVANA, April 15.—Three hundred houses and a number of tobacco warehouses and wrecked when a water spout and hail storm struck the village of Baez, Santa Clara province. Two persons are reported killed, a large number were injured, and 150 families are homeless as a result of the storm.

EASTER AT THE COBOURG GOAL

Sam Ferguson's Easter services at the Counties' Gaol, Cobourg, had the largest congregation that has heard Sam do the honors for years—just 20 lining up for their Easter eggs that morning. Eleven of the twenty were let go on Monday, while four more are due for their release this week-end. Twenty prisoners is the most that has been in goal since the O.T.A. came into effect. The only female prisoner at the goal was taken to the hospital last week suffering from pneumonia.

Mothers! NEVER NEGLECT WHOOPING COUGH

Many mothers make the mistake of thinking that whooping cough is not of serious importance, but unfortunately this mistake often leads to the neglect of this dangerous child's disease.

Never neglect whooping cough, for it may be followed by some serious lung trouble.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is highly recommended by mothers everywhere for the relief of this trouble. It will clear the clogged-up air passage of the mucous and phlegm that has collected in in this way bring on the "whoop" which bring the so-much-sought-for relief.

Mrs. Francis Burlingham, New Gate, B.C., writes: "This spring three of my children took the whooping cough, and they had it so bad I thought they would choke. I was getting pretty worried when my sister wrote me, telling me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I sent for some right away, and, believe me, I will never forget how it worked. I will always have it in my house."

There are many imitations of Dr. Wood's on the market. Get the genuine when you ask for it. It will pay in the end. Put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

EAT SOFT FOOD.

"Tommy" Fuller, automobile salesman in San Francisco, sick abed at the Press Club, was told by the doctor that he must eat only soft food, easily digested; according to a menu which the dotor put down thus: 1, clear soup; 2, celery soup salad; 3, oyster stew; 4, green tea; 5, rice pudding. Half an hour later the Chinese boy, grinning from ear to ear, struggled up the stairs and lugged into Fuller's room five rice puddings, four pots of green tea, three oyster stews, two celery root salads, and one lone cup of clear soup. The bill was something awful.

Feed Up a Child in the Way It Should Grow

In the Spring, more than at any other time, children should have a well-balanced diet.

Proper nourishment fortifies children against the changeable Spring weather.

What is proper nourishment? It is food that is easily digested—it is food that does not overtax the stomach—it is food that supplies the elements of nourishment in balanced proportion.

Your own doctor will tell you that milk is nature's finest food. That it is essentially a health giving nourishment. That you can keep your kiddies in constant good health during the trying Spring season by giving them as much milk as possible.

Now is the time to double your regular milk supply. Don't try to make a pint do the duty of a quart.

Serve extra milk with cereals, in puddings, in creamed vegetables, as a beverage at meals, and as an in-between-meals drink, too.

And be sure you get Peterborough Milk Products Milk. Rich, Pure Milk, fresh from the Countryside. WHOLESOME MILK PASTEURIZED AND CLARIFIED. CLEAN EVERY DROP.

He Quits Cathartics--Finds the Internal Bath Relieves Him Permanently.

Mr. Joseph A. Wells, Hotel Vendome, Washington, D.C., writes Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute of New York as follows:

'On the 15th of June, 1915, I purchased a 'J. B. L. Cascade.' The results it has produced are simply marvellous. For 20 years I used cathartics, but have used nothing but the Cascade for almost a month. I feel like a new man; I want to be pleasant to everybody. Before I used the Cascade I was a grouch. Did not like anybody and could not be pleasant."

"If you bathe internally with the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable. Poisonous waste in the lower intestine makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for constipation — just antiseptic warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

It is the invention of Charles A. Tyrrell, M.D., of New York, who specialized on Internal Bathing for 25 years, and will be shown and explained to you by Warne Drug Company, who will also be glad to give you free on request an interesting booklet, called "Why Man of To-day Is Only 50% Efficient," which covers the subject in a very thorough way.

OBITUARY

ISAAC PRESTON.

Peterborough friends learned with a great deal of regret to-day of the death of one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of Manvers Township, Mr. Isaac Preston. The deceased gentleman was in his 86th year, and had resided in Manvers practically all his life, following the honorable occupation of a farmer until some 6 or 7 years ago, when he moved to Bethany.

The late Mr. Preston was a man of noble and outstanding character, and a very useful man in community affairs. He was a life-long worker in the cause of temperance, and in his day saw many reforms enacted. He along with Mr. Henry Tims, father of Mr. Sandy Tims of Lindsay, were the first to establish the Sunday School at St .Mary's church, Manvers Township, and for a number of years the deceased gentleman was Superintendent of the Sunday school.

He is survived by his second wife and a family; also one brother David Preston of Napanee.

The funeral will take place on Sunday next, interment to take place at St. Mary's cemetery

LOCAL TALENT MINSTREL SHOW

The minstrel show put on in Lindsay on Wednesday evening, under the direction of Mr. Asa Huycke, proved one of the most successful amateur events ever held in that enterprising town, and everything went with the customary dash and swing Mr. Huycke invariably injects into a production in which he is interested. Some of the musical numbers presented were Mr. Huycke's own composition, and each gained instantaneous popularity. Lindsay talent was augmented by selections by Mr. George Logan, Mr. George Wesley and Mrs. Foster, each of which made a big hit.

Strange Murder Of a Doctor In New York City

A MEMORIAL TABLET WAS UNVEILED IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH LAST EVENING

IN MEMORY OF NINETEEN MEMBERS OF ST. JOHN'S WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES IN THE GREAT WAR.

THE SERMON

In the presence of a large congregation, including the Great War Veterans, officers of the Peterborough Rangers, Machine Gun Corps, His Honour Judge Haycke, Mayor A. A. McIntyre and members of the City Council ,the splendid bronze memorial tablet, bearing the names of these nineteen non-returning brave, members of St. John's Church, who gave their lives during the Great War, was unveiled in St. John's Church last evening. The memorial, which was given to the church by the congregation, bears the inscription:

"1914-1919—To the Glory of God and in Honoured Memory of the Following Members of St. John's Who Gave Their Lives in the Great War."

It is erected beside the vestry door.

The Service.

Previous to the unveiling, Archdeacon J. C. Davidson said he need scarcely welcome the visitors among the congregation. The service was a joint effort to pay respect to those who have gone before. He hoped the meeting would prove a benediction, and draw the assembly into closer fellowship. In speaking of the presence of the City Council he referred feelingly to the death of Alderman Harry Phelan and later to the death of Mr. R. A. Morrow. He said the tablet which he dedicated, and which was unveiled by Colonel E. B. Clegg, included in intention all who have gone before.

Immediately following the unveiling, with all lights out in the church except those in the sanctuary the Last Post was sounded from the vestry by Bandmaster Hughes.

The Sermon.

An [illegible] was preached by Canon C. W. Hedley, chaplain of the 39th Battalion, who saw service overseas. His text was Exodus xii., 4: "This shall be unto you for a memorial." Our human life, he said, is full of memorials. There are family memorials, such as birthdays wedding days, etc., which help bind a family together, and there are national days which are memorials, binding the past to the present. In the Old Country, more than in this, splendid monuments have been erected to men who have been a help and strength to their time, while in Canada splendid buildings serve the same purpose. Human life grows by holding the past in the memory of the present and grows richer year by year by such. To-day we keep a memorial of the splendid deeds and beautiful lives of those who have enriched our history. This whole month has been particularly rich in memorials, commencing, as it did,

CONVINCED THE MAN COMMUNIST OUTLAW

(Canadian Press.)

PRAGUE, April 19.—There is no question in the minds of the Czecho-Slovak authorities that the man they succeeded in arresting at Marienbad on Saturday is Max Hoelz, the notorious Communist leader. Although a prisoner he refuses to make a statement. Other Communists who are under arrest declare positively he is the much wanted Saxon outlaw who for several weeks past has been terrorizing Plauen district by raids of his band of several hundred men. He had 130,000 marks in his belt when captured.

British Product

INTERVIEW WITH MEMBER OF TURKISH ARMISTICE COMMISSION.

(United Press.)

SAN REMO, April 19th.—"Everyone of President Wilson's principles have been violated in the Allies treaty of peace with Turkey" Chalib Kemal Bey, member of the Turkish Armistice Commission, and former Ambassador to Berlin said in an interview yesterday. Asked whether the terms of the treaty had been communicated to him the Turk said;

"Not officially. Probably the Peace Conferees consider that action superfluous.

"The world, however, will be surprised to hear them. Everyone of President Wilson's principles has been violated.

"The treaty is essentially a British product, it aims to surround Turkey, cutting the communications of the Moslem World." But what use is talk? Our fate was decided in London. The whole world is prejudiced against Turkey, we are accused of every indignity under the sun, from racial degeneration, to bloody hate of Christians. We are called "Barbarians" for our alleged misgovernment.

The whole world knows Turkey massacred Armenian Christians but nobody reads the results of the Carnegie investigation, charging Armenians, Bulgarians and Greeks with massacreing hundreds of thousands of Mohammodans in Epirus, Thrace and Macedonia during the Balkan war.

REASONS FOR THE MAY DAY STRIKE

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, April 19.— Demands for withdrawal of French forces sent to German cities east of the Rhine, abandonment of new colonial expeditions, such as that in Syria at present and the release of the 1918 class from the colours, are made in a manifesto issued by the General Federation of Labor in calling upon workmen to join in May day strike. These measures should be adopted, it is said, to show the world that France wishes for peace.

CITY MAY ENTER ON WILSON FARM

ONTARIO RAILWAY BOARD ISSUED ORDER TO THAT EFFECT.

Last Friday the City of Peterborough made an application to the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board in Toronto for an order giving directions as to how the City Council should proceed with the erection of its sewage disposal plant and permitting the city to enter upon the land of A. R. Wilson in order to finally complete the plans.

The Board made an order as asked for by the city, and the city now has the right to enter upon the land owned by Wilson and to do whatever they desire in order to dig test pits and to otherwise complete their plans and specifications. While the Board has jurisdiction to fix the compensation to be paid to any residents on account of their lands being injured, the question was left open and will be taken up at a later date.

C. R. Widdifield appeared in the interests of the City, F. D. Kerr for the various townships and J. F. Strickland for certain residents in that neighborhood.

BEATTY ATTENDS THE CONFERENCE

(United Press.)

LONDON, April 19.—Summoning of Earl Beatty, hero of the Battle of Jutland, to the conference of the Council of Premiers in San Remo, was attributed by the press here to-day to arrangements for the threatened renewed blockade on Germany. Beatty went to the conference at Prime Minister Lloyd George's request. The press continued to attach the greatest importance to the conference opening to-day. There was almost universal insistance on a vigorous enforcement of the clauses of the Treaty of Versailles providing for German disarmament.

Housing Dormant

ACTION WAITS ON GOVERNMENT'S NEW LEGISLATION—LOCAL COMMISSION BUSY.

Interest in the proposed activities under the auspices of the Housing Commission has lapsed and is lagging until definite regulations are passed by the Ontario government. It is now mooted that the municipal undertaking to relieve the scarcity of houses will hale to be approved by a vote of the people instead of simply the sanction of the City Council.

Mr. F. H. Dobbin said this morning that nothing could be done until the Government disclosed its plans of support. New legislation to this effect has been promised for some time, and its delay tends to retard local operations. Questionaires have been mailed to residents who formerly signified their desire to build homes of their own. These letters brought inquiries for further particulars from some of these citizens, but there is not yet a single definite project under the Commission's supervision. The Commission is engaged in securing estimates of the cost of building materials and expect to have complete information for prospective home builders.

BISHOP O'BRIEN DEPARTS TO-NIGHT

ADDRESS FROM CLERGY AT ST. PETER'S CATHEDRAL.

In a pastoral letter read in all the churches of the diocese of Peterborough yesterday, Bishop O'Brien outlined the purposes of his visit to Rome and requested the people to remember him in their prayers. His Lordship will leave to-night on the 9 o'clock G.T.R. train, following his farewell to the clergy and laity at St. Peter's Cathedral at 7.30 o'clock. All the priests of the diocese are expected to foregather and will present His Lordship with an address. The people of the three Catholic churches of the city have been invited to attend and many of them will doubtless assemble at the station in a parting expression of God-speed and a safe and pleasant journey. In the absence of Bishop O'Brien Ven. Archdeacon Casey will be the administrator of the diocese with Rev. C. J. Phelan continuing as chancellor.

OVERALL CAMPAIGN OPENS IN BRANTFORD

CHURCHGOER SHOCKED HIS DAUGHTER AND LATER STAGED A FAINTING FIT.

(Canadian Press.)

BRANTFORD, April 19. — The overall campaign was introduced last night when a local churchgoer attended in the raw costume. His wife and daughter preceded him to the church.

The first hymn was being sung, when the daughter noted the style of her father's attire, and the shock was so great that she fainted, and had to be taken home in a taxicab.

HEAVY FIGHTING WITH BOLSHEVIK

(Canadian Press.)

WARSAW, April 19.—Important concentrating of Bolshevik troops at Zhmerika Podolia are reported in a communique issued by the general staff which says concentrations were revealed by reconnaissance of airmen. "Violent attacks by enemy, supported by artillery, continue," communication says "Our detachments have defeated Bolshevik regiment on the River Slawczenka, capturing much war material."

Trip to Toronto

AMERICAN FLYERS WILL MAKE THE TRIP IN ONE "FLIP," IF POSSIBLE.

(Special to The Examiner.)

OTTAWA, April 19.— Lieut.-Col. H. E. Hartney and Capt. H. T. Douglas, American Army Air Service officers, who arrived in Ottawa on Friday afternoon after completing the first successful flight between the capitals of Canada and the United States, will leave this afternoon for Toronto. Col. Hartney stated that they hoped to get off the ground about two o'clock and in view of the fact that all previous flights between Toronto and Ottawa have been made in machines incapable of establishing records for the distance, they will attempt to accomplish the trip in minimum time.

During the time they have spent in the city, Col. Martney and Capt. Douglas have been closeted with Col. Leckie and other officials of the Air Board and matters of International flying regulations have been thoroughly discussed. They will complete their conference with the Air Board this morning.

Col. Hartney is travelling to Toronto to meet Col. W. A. Bishop, V.C., and Col. W. Barker, V.C., both of whom he became acquainted with while serving in France with the Royal Flying Corps. The journey from Toronto to Washington will probably e accomplished in one "flip" if the flying men are fortunate enough to encounter good flying conditions on their journey. Col. Hartney is anxious to establish a record for that journey, as a demonstration of what may be expected from commercialized aviation as a means of transportation.

SUPREME COUNCIL MEETING TO-DAY

JOINT DECLARATION TO BE SENT TO GERMANY.

(Canadian Press.)

SAN REMO, April 19.—The Inter-Allied Supreme Council began its formal sessions here to-day.

While the Turkish question was on the programme for the first consideration, it develops that there already had been a discussion over the question of enforcing the execution of the Peace Treaty with Germany. There seems no doubt that the Premiers are agreed that a joint declaration must be sent to Germany requiring her to fulfill conditions, and that if she does not do so, the Allies will take compulsory measures.

The Premiers, however, have not yet agreed upon the form of pressure to be used should Germany continue negligent. They were agreed, without a moment's discussion, that Germany should be told in most positive manner, that she must observe the Treaty, that the Allies were firmly united upon this, and that she should be warned of punitive consequences should she refuse or fail to observe the Treaty.

Premier Lloyd-George suggested economic pressure, depriving Germany of food, raw materials, and intercourse with Allied countries.

Premier Millerand is described as having said that such pressure, without the use of naval or military aid, would in effect be no pressure at all. He declared it would be another "make believe," and that Germany could conduct her economic business through neutral countries just the same. The only warning that would be respected, the only pressure that would be effective, he asserted, would be force. Application of such force as military and naval advisers might deem sufficient.

Premier Lloyd-George, it is said, resisted this conclusion.

Premier Nitti inclined towards the British Prime Minister's view, and the matter rests there for the present.

The compromise may take the form of an ultimatum to Germany, with a threat of applying effective compulsion without indicating what form the compulsion might take.

DR. GALLIVAN'S LEAVING FOR EUROPE

ASSASSIN OF NEW YORK DOCTOR A CALGARY MAN AND IS BELIEVED INSANE

THOMAS W. SHELLEY ARRAIGNED IN NEW YORK FOR THE MURDER OF CELEBRATED PHYSICIAN DURING CHURCH SERVICE ON SUNDAY.

WAS TAKING UP OFFERING

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, April 19.—Thomas W. Shelley, formerly of Calgary, faced arraignment in court to-day for shooting Dr. J. W. Markoe, eminent physician in St. George's Episcopal church yesterday. Police officials said they would ask for the appointment of a commission to examine Shelley as to his sanity. He told the police he had escaped from a lunatic asylum last week.

NEW YORK, April 18. — Dr. James Markoe, a well known surgeon, was shot and instantly killed to-day while taking up the offering at the morning service in the fashionable St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church, 15th street, and Stuyvesant Place, in the old aristocratic district of New York.

His assailant was captured after a short chase by a group of parishioners, headed by William Fellowes Morgan, president of the Merchants' Association of New York; George E. Brewer and J. Morgan Jones. At the East 22nd street police station the prisoner gave his name first as Thos. W. Shelley and later as Thomas W. Simpkins. The police said he told them he has escaped Thursday from the Eastern State Hospital for the Insane at Williamsburg, West Virginia. The man was born in London, England, and despatches received to-night indicated that he had been a printer in Calgary on the Morning Albertan staff and also in Duluth. He joined a Canadian regiment during the war but only got as far as the seaboard. The despatches said that he was always considered a bit "queer."

Church Crowded.

The church was crowded with parishioners, many of them representatives of the wealthiest families in New York, when the shooting took place Dr. Markoe was walking down the left aisle taking up the collection while the choir was singing an anthem. As he reached the twelfth pew from the rear and leaned over to pass the plate, Shelley, who was seated next to the aisle, whipped out a revolver and fired at the physician. The bullet struck him over the left eye, and he collapsed in the aisle.

Several women screamed and men rushed from their seats, some to the aid of the physician and others in pursuit of his assailant. Shelley, with the revolver in his hand, leaped over the body of the physician and started to run out of the church. The choir, led by Charles Safford, continued singing in an effort to quiet the congregation.

Fired Number of Shots.

Shelley continued shooting. His second shot, directed at members of the congregation who were pursuing him, went wide. John Tiedman, the sexton, dropped to the floor in time to escape the third bullet, which grazed the cheek of J. Morgan Jones.

Shelley then ran from the church into Stuyvesant Square. Dr. Brewer was the first man to reach him. He grabbed the man's arm but Shelley managed to wiggle himself loose long enough to fire another shot, which grazed Dr. Brewer's thigh. By that time several other members of the congregation had thrown Shelley to the ground and were holding him down when a policeman arrived, put the handcuffs on the prisoner and took him to the police station.

Meanwhile Dr. Markoe had been carried out of the church and placed in an automobile. As he was being lifted into the car he regained consciousness long enough to say, "I will be all right," and then he collapsed. He was rushed to the Lying in Hospital at Eighteenth Street and Second avenue, but denies beingdrgarm ond avenue, but was dead when he was brought into that institution.

Shelley freely admitted that he had shot Dr. Markoe, according to the police. "There are a lot more who are going to get it too," he is reported to have said when questioned by the police detectives.

Search of a suitcase Shelley had checked at the Pennsylvania terminal, revealed, the police say, several radical papers and pamphlets. He also had a draft card showing he had registered September 12, 1918, under the name of Thomas W. Simpkins, 203 Fourth Street, Sauk City, Wis. There were also several business cards reading "Thomas W. Simpkins," and in the lower corner, "representing the Swift County Printing Company." "Kerkhoven Banner." A letter addressed to him and found in his suitcase, had the address 5118 Peabody Street, Duluth, Minn. The police believe it was from his wife.

Denies Being I. W. W.

Shelley told the detectives he had

REDUCTION IN BRITAIN'S DEBT

BUDGET IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THIS AFTERNOON.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, April 19.— J. Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, introducing the budget in the House of Commons to-day, said the expenditures for 1920 were approximately a hundred and forty-four million pounds in excess of budget estimate of last year, but sixty-three million pounds below the revised estimate he made last October, regarding revenue. He declared that the result was not only more favorable than had been anticipated, but receipts were nearly 138,500,000 pounds in excess of budget estimate on present basis of taxation. Chancellor calculated revenue for next year at 1,341,650,000 pounds. Last year there had been an addition to the country's debt, but this year there must be a substantial reduction, the Chancellor said. The Government had decided that there should be no more borrowing to balance revenue and expenditure. The only borrowing would be to meet the floating debt.

THE DEATH OF MR. R. A. MORROW

DECEASED WAS WELL KNOWN IN THE COMMUNITY.

Death claimed another prominent citizen of Peterborough yesterday morning at five o'clock in the person of Robert Archibald Morrow, who passed away at the family residence, "Clonsilla," after an illness of several months' duration.

Deceased was born in the city on 26th July, 1843, and had resided all his life in Peterborough, taking an active interest in municipal affairs and in politics. He was prominently iedntified with the Conservative party. He served on the City Council a short time, but latterly did not run for office. He was president of the old Peterborough Water Works Company, a member of the Corinthian Lodge A. F. and A. M., and the Royal Arch Masons. He was also a member of the Oddfellows.

He is survived by his wife and two sons, Harold A. Morrow at home and R. A. Morrow in New Mexico. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oughtry, predeceased him several years ago.

The funeral (private) will take place to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock to the Little Lake Cemetery. Service will be conducted at the family residence by Archdeacon J. C. Davidson and Rev. R. B. Grobb before leaving for the Cemetery.

BISHOP O'BRIEN HONOURED BY THE PUPILS OF ST. PETER'S SCHOOL.

A very enjoyable morning was spent at St. Peter's School on Friday last, when the pupils took the opportunity of thanking His Lordship Bishop O'Brien for his deep interest in them and their school, and bade him God-speed on his journey to Europe. The Bishop was then given a handsome sum of money, donated by the school, to be presented to the Pope on His Lordship's visit to Rome. The Bishop fittingly replied to this testimonial of goodwill, and thanked the pupils for the sentiments expressed by them in an address read by Charles Bagley. Then several songs were rendered by the children in an admirable manner, two noticeable features of the programme being a vocal solo creditably given by Dorothy Gardon and an appropriate boys' quartette by H. Rudkins, E. Welsh, V. O'Brien and R. McCabe, of which the Bishop made special mention, saying that he was considerably surprised at the real talent displayed. Miss Mary MacPherson presented the purse, which amounted to $138.65

"SMILING PRINCE" TAKES OVER THE OTHER MAN'S JOB

London Daily Mail:— Sir Charles Frederick, Master of the Pytchley Hounds, in proposing the health of the Prince of Wales at the Pytchley Hunt dinner, said: "When the Prince came down to the hunt in the Pytchley country, I asked Captain Drummond to pilot his Royal Highness.

"Later I heard the Prince had fallen over a stile into the road. I said to Captain Drummond, 'You've done a nice thing,' and Captain Drummond replied, 'I started off to pilot the Prince round, but before we had gone very far he was piloting me.'"

THE TURK'S PLACE.

In the past Europe has learned to her cost the fatal consequences of all attempts to solve the Turkish problem upon the basis of mere expediency. For three hundred years or more the presence of the Turks at Constantinople has been the real source of most European strife. They were one of the principal causes of the recent unprecedented war, for if Germany struck her greatest blows in the west, she found her chief incentive in the wild conception of a German Confederation stretching through Constantinople to the shores of the Persan Gulf. Europe can never again know lasting peace until the Turks return into the uplands of Anatolia from whence they came.—London Times.

BUSY BELGIANS SET PACE IN PRODUCTION.

BRUSSELS, April —For the first time since the signing of the armistice the exportation of manufactured goods has surpassed imports.

The February returns give 286,000,000 francs in exports, an increase of 51,000,000 francs, as compared with a total for the year 1918 of only 330,000,000 francs.

The exports of January and February reached 59 per cent. of the imports, against only 5 per cent. for the same months of 1919.

The production of coal and of iron goods is now higher than before the war.

OUR OPPORTUNITY.

If we only knew the good we'd do
By speaking each day a kind word or two,
If we only knew a merry smile
Would travel on mile after mile.
If we only knew that honest praise
Makes glad the heart for days and days;
If we only knew a restraining arm
Keeps one so often from endless harm,
If we only knew what we could do,
By a little pains—myself and you,
Would we ever say, to make excuse—
As we often do, "Oh, what's the use?"

FASHION'S FADS AND FANCIES.

The short sleeve is still in favor.
Side tunics are new and fetching
The high Medici collar has returned.
Real laces are used on tailored lingerie.
Scotch heather sweaters are prominent.
The new Balkan blouse has a high collar.
The entire hat to-day is expressed in the crown.
Figured net is the latest lingerie material.
Colored cotton embroideries are very charming.
Shot taffetas are printed in pompadour patterns.
The new up-and-down trimming is much in vogue.
Eccentric trimmings are features of the over-blouse.

MRS. R. T. BUTTS, of Kansas City, who says her life was miserable for two long years before she began taking Tanlac. She now declares she is enjoying the best of health and that she has gained twenty pounds.

"If it had not been for Tanlac I would still be a sick woman, so I feel like I ought to tell everyone what this wonderful medicine has done for me," was the sincere statement made recently by Mrs. R. T. Butts, 1924 Troost Avenue, Kansas City, Mo.

"By the help of Tanlac I have gotten rid of a severe case of nervous indigestion that had made my life miserable for the past two years. I could not eat anything without suffering afterward. The gas on my stomach would rise up into my chest and press on my heart and at times would almost cut off my breath. My nerves were so up-set that the least unexpected noise would almost distract me. I seldom slep well and was so nervous I would often roll and toss until after midnight and what little sleep I did get seemed to me no good. I was also a great sufferer from headaches and would often get so dizzy I would have to hold on to something to keep from falling.

"One day I happened to see a testimonial for Tanlac, describing a case like mine, so I bought a bottle and before I had finished it I began to feel just like a different person. Those terrible headaches disappeared and my appetite returned. When my first bottle was gone I got another and I kept on improving until now I can eat just anything I want and I never suffer any more from indigestion. I am not the least bit nervous and rest well at night and never know what it is to have a headache or a dizzy spell.

"Tanlac has not only relieved me of my suffering, but I have actually gained 20 pounds in weight and have not enjoyed such good health for years. Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine and I will always feel grateful for what it has done for me. I want to recommend this medicine to all my friends because I believe it will benefit anyone who is suffering as I did."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Warnick by A. C. Deslke in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd., in Fowlers Corners by W. A. Hunter, in Gelert by A. J. Scott, in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

THE COMING SOCIAL ORDER

(By REV. R. POGUE)

Rev. R. Pogue, pastor of St. Paul's Church preached the first of a series of sermons Sabbath evening on "God's Purpose For the Race". He based his remarks on two texts. The first was 1 John 3:8 "That He might destroy the works of the devil". The second was 1 Cor. 15:25. "He must reign until he has put all enemies under his feet."

He began by asking a number of questions: Did God have a purpose when He created the world? What was his thought for man as it related to the different departments of his nature—physical, intellectual, spiritual and social? Under what conception did He intend him to live his life?

Then: Was God's purpose for the race in anyway frustrated? And if so, in what way did God undertake to meet the new situation created by man's failure to live according to the Divine program? Having regard to the complex nature of man, how does God intend him to live his life as an individual, and as a member of Society? What is the ideal Social order? Which of the many, if any, of the different forms of government which men have tried is to be the final and perfect one? Shall we ever have a perfect social order? Will there ever be a time when there shall be no sickness, no hatred, no grinding poverty, no tyranny of the strong over the weak, or of the rich over the poor? Will the time ever come when nothing shall hurt or destroy in all the earth?

The only authoritative source of information on all these questions is the revelation God has given us in His word. If the light here fails, there is no light from any other source. Some think they can discover in the trend of human history the probable destiny of the race. Others think they can find it in the Spencerian System of Philosophy which undertakes to tell us how everything came into existence, animate and inanimate, and how everything has developed from the simplest forms of life until the perfection of man was reached. The Bible has a theory of the universe and of man's origin, and his destiny on this planet all its own. It alone can give us true information on social conditions as they exist in the world to-day, concerning the origin of the human family, or what is to be the end toward which the world movements are hastening.

Man's Condition.

Mr. Pogue then stated that in this first sermon he would give special attention to man's condition as he came from the hand of His Creator, to the Fall, and to the results of the Fall as it affected man's social well being. The Bible makes it clear that man was created, not evolved; that he was created in the image of God; that he was placed in a perfect environment, and that abundant provision was made for his social, his physical and also his spiritual nature. Life in the garden of Eden was the Golden Age of the race. Between Him and the world system there was nothing in common. When the time arrived for Him to say: "This is your hour and the power of darkness," the leaders and representatives of the world's culture, the world's intelligence, the world's progress, the world's power, and the world's religion led Him with expressive ceremony outside the camp and nailed Him to a tree.

That is what the world system did to God's Son and Representative who came on earth to usher in the Golden Age and establish His Kingdom. It had no room for Him then it has no room for Him to-day. Nowhere is His voice the deciding factor in the councils of the nations. It was not the deciding factor in 1914 when the world was plunged into the most awful and most degrading war in all history. It was not the deciding factor when the victorious nations gathered round the Peace Table to decide the spoils. Nor is it the voice to which the statesmen of the world are bowing in lowly submission. The world has accepted its own program, and it has rejected God's, and it has been busy trying to create a social order in which there is no room for God, and where no voice is heard save the voice of human reason and human wisdom.

And we shall not have a perfect world, a perfect social order, until the world realizes its mistake in substituting the human for the Divine, and accepts its long rejected King and Ruler. This is man's day, not God's "This is your hour and the power of darkness," said Jesus. "The days will come". He said, "when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man and ye shall not see it." Ever since the multitudes cried out, "Away with Him, Crucify Him, Crucify Him", men have striven to see one day of the Son of Man. They have wished for it again and again during the long night of Satan's reign. The desire has not been granted thus far, But the world has not long to wait. As surely as we have had Satan's leadership and the very best world that man could fashion upon his principles. So surely shall we have the leadership of Jesus Christ, and a world arranged and governed upon His principles. In view of all this—the certainty and the hope of it—let us heed the exhortation of James "Be patient, therefore brethren, unto the coming of the Lord."

A MEMORIAL TABLET WAS UNVEILED IN ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

with the memorial of the death of Christ, followed by His resurrection. Later we commemorated a day of sacrifice and victory, and I make no apology in yoking the memorials together, as the war we have won was for right, and was part of the great battle through all ages for the cause. The sacrifice of the men who laid down their lives during the War is part and is kin to His sacrifice. The victory they share is the victory of Christ over death. St. Julien commemorates the death of those who gave their lives in the first great engagement in which the Canadians made a name for themselves.

Lipsett's Report.

Continuing, the speaker referred to General Lipsett's report on the Battle of St. Julien, when the Canadians held the line, and commented all honour is due to the Originals who fought under such conditions, and set such a standard. "Thank God," he said, "those who followed kept up the reputation and name made by the Originals." He referred to subsequent battles in which Canadians figured prominently, particularly to the Battle of the Somme, the value of which, in the demoralisation of the German army we little knew until recently. He gave a graphic first-hand description of the Easter morning preceding the Battle of Vimy Ridge. These two battles, he said, are typical of those in which the Canadians figured. After referring to the day when word came to this country that the enemy sought an armistice, he said that the victory we commemorate to-day is not only the victory over death, over the enemy, the victory of the flag and the cause, but the victory over selfishness and love of ease. Bare your heads and hearts, he continued, to the memory of those who gave their lives to sustain your peace, home, and freedom, and don't forget the cost. Sixty thousand of the flower of Canada's manhood laid the world aside and laid down their lives for us.

The Battlefield.

It is hard to exaggerate the stupendous sacrifice made by our men, but it is easy to exaggerate the horrors of the battlefield. There was there a spirit of courageous cheer, the joy of sacrifice and spirit of brotherhood which lifted the commonplace to the heroic. But it seems we are getting back to the commonplace, and greed is entering into our lives. We hear the insistent demand for the $2,000.00 gratuity which falls far short of what we heard of the men during the war. It is hard, naturally, for the man who has served to come back to find his place filled, that others have grown rich while he fought, and it is little wonder that he drops to the level of those about him. But it is not characteristic of the majority.

Canon Heddy appealed to the men to keep up the honour won, and the good name made, to keep the spirit of self-sacrifice and service. It is selfishness that is robbing the earth of its peace. We do not know what in this crisis the next moment will bring forth. There is need of the spirit of Christ in the turmoil.

The men at the Front may not have been religious apparently, but back of all, there was that characteristic Christian virtue, the spirit of service and self-sacrifice which is the only element which will reveal to us God's Kingdom. For the sake of the men, for His sake, let us, in keeping our memorial, consecrate ourselves to carry on in the spirit of service and sacrifice which is the only way in which we can bring the Kingdom of God to earth out of the present chaos.

MOTOR TRUCKS AND THE PASSING OF THE HORSE

WILL EASILY SAVE FIVE ACRES OF LAND REQUIRED TO MAINTAIN EACH HORSE.

The Motor Show developed some interesting practical lessons worthy of careful consideration. For instance, it was stated by Mr. Jos. J. Duffus, proprietor of The Duffus Motor Sales in discussing the value of the motor truck that "it takes the product of five acres of land to maintain a horse." Pressed for some further views regarding motor trucks, he gave the Examiner the following well considered views on this important subject:—

An era of unprecedented expansion is being entered upon in motor truck transportation. The need of locomotives and railway cars by railroads generally has caused a great demand for trucks. The demands of the times generally are for more and more motor trucks in keeping pace with business. The country is more and more dependant upon motor transportation, and careful analysis of the situation will show any one that the maker of motor trucks must prepare for the deluge of business now so near at hand.

What applies to other countries in use of motor trucks, will apply to this section of the country. The future of the motor truck in all sections where good roads are to be found is exceedingly bright and every additional mile of good roads will increase the demand to such an extent that before long the motor truck business will be larger by far than that of the passenger car.

All motorists want good roads and a large percentage are tillers of the soil in one line or other. With the comparatively small number of motor trucks in use in Canada to-day and with several millions of farmers who need motor trucks, the building of good roads means a market for millions of trucks, the elimination of the horse entirely from the farms by use of the tractor and other automotive appliances and the use of five acres of land for the growing of produce for the human race whenever a horse is eliminated. The opening of millions of acres of land, now required to keep horses will do more to reduce the high cost of living than anything else I know of, and the building of roads will aid in the motorization of millions of farms and make motor truck manufacturing one of the greatest industries of the world to-day.

With the dawn of peace we stand on the threshold of a new era. The broad expanse of water washing the shores of the two hemispheres no longer controls the pathway of commerce and transportation; for, through the heavens mighty monsters of the air spread their wings in open defiance. The mule pack trains of South America must now give way to more speedy and more efficient means of transportation. To the mind of the Chinese coolie comes a sense of freedom never before entertained as he is pushed aside by the thundering vehicles of motor trucks. The caravans of Northern Africa, the oxen of Egypt, the jinrickshaws of Japan, the caribou of the Phillipines are doomed to become obsolete.

Giants with iron hearts will replace more and more these beasts of burden until they cease to have a part in modern transportation. The humane laws will guarantee forever their liberty. And as these antiquated burden carriers lay down their task Motor Trucks will take up their duties on their shoulders of steel and discharge their obligation unfalteringly.

A SPLENDID SPRING OPTION PLANT LIST

The Peterborough Horticultural Society are looking for a Membership of a 1,000—The $1.00 Gets Double Value.

Following is a copy of the 1920 Option List being sent out now in the Campaign for New Members:

The Society is formed with a definite purpose, to make Peterborough the beauty spot of Eastern Ontario—

As the home of the world's greatest Lift Lock.

As the central point in the Kawartha Lake district, a mecca for summer tourists.

As a city that must keep pace in attractiveness with its rapid past and more rapid future growth.

As our home town, whose best interests we all have at heart.

Peterborough must have its Home Grounds, its Boulevards, and its Parks made a little more attractive than any other town or city in Canada.

The Horticultural Society needs 1000 live working members in 1920 to do this.

MEMBERSHIP

Open to any resident of the County of Peterborough, on payment of the entry fee of One Dollar.

OUR OPTIONS OR PREMIUMS

Every member is entitled to One selection from the list on the following two pages, and also to the fall delivery of bulbs. These two distributions give a full dollar's worth alone.

WE WANT 1,000 MEMBERS IN 1920

The Society acts as purchasing agent for its members. The more we have to buy for the better rate we can get and the more each member will receive. Let each old member try for at least one new one and more, if possible. You can promise them the best value for $1.00 that money can buy.

Each Member is entitled to select ONE of these twenty-eight options for Spring delivery, and, in addition, will receive the Bulb Premium in the fall.

CO-OPERATION

These are the days of co-operation. As a Society, the Horticulturists have an influence that is denied them as individuals. The example of one man who beautifies his lawn and grounds is felt by and acts as a stimulus to his neighbours. How much more good would 1,000 such men and women do for Peterborough?

This applies to the surrounding villages where our Society also has a representative membership.

The unity of a strong society is also a big factor in buying the supplies for the options. The more we buy the lower the cost.

ASSASSIN OF NEW YORK DOCTOR A CALGARY MAN

been given the literature by a man named Miller, whose first name he could not remember.

"My memory is very bad," he said.

"Are you an I.W.W.?" he was asked.

"No," he replied.

Shelley said one of the things he was certain about was that he had never seen Dr. Markoe before. He told a rambling story of his movements covering the seven years he has been in Canada and the United States.

He said he had been in St. George's Church on a previous visit to New York on February 8, 1919. After arriving here this morning from Richmond, W. Va., he said he had breakfast and then went to the church.

Deserted Army.

Shelley later told the police he brought his wife and two children to Canada seven years ago. He enlisted in the Canadian army and was about to sail overseas, he said, when he asked for a transfer to an organization stationed near his wife's home but was refused as being "too valuable a man," he said.

"I figured," he explained, "that if I was too good a man for the outfit to lose, I was also too good for my wife to lose. I jumped the outfit and entered the United States and later on bought my wife and children over."

About two years ago, Shelley added he escaped from the insane asylum at Fergus Falls, Minn., after three unsuccessful attempts. Six months later he went to Gary, Ind, he said, and there bought a revolver which he has carried ever since, with which he did the shooting.

Pleads Physical Causes.

"They say there is a physical cause for every mental reaction,' said Shelley. "I was tubercular and they cured me. Then I got cancer, and I was operated on for that. So I guess that these are the causes.

"The preacher in his sermon at the church," he continued, "told them to be good to strangers, but no one spoke to me, and I resent-d it."

Rev. Dr. Karl Reiland, rector of St. George's, in a part of his sermon, had urged the wealthy congregation to befriend the strangers and show Christian courtesy.

In addition to the prominence achieved as physician to the family of J. Pierpont Morgan, Dr. Markoe was noted for his philanthropies to the poor of New York. The Lying-in Hospital, first established on the lower East Side, was the result of his influence, and later he induced the elder Morgan to endow and erect a modern institution. The financier gave $1,000,000 to the charitable project. His son had maintained the hospital. Dr. Markoe was its attendant surgeon and consultant head.

Dr. Markoe was physician to the elder Mr. Morgan until his death and continued to be the family physician When J. P. Morgan, Junior was shot by Frank Holt, who later committed suicide, Dr. Markoe attended the financier, and a few months afterwards the surgeon performed an operation on Mr. Morgan for appendicitis.

A widow and a daughter, Mrs. Chas. Sargeat, survive him.

Fringe appears on wide-brimmed hats.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

HOUSE BUILDING FOR THE PEOPLE.

The City Council has got the notion that they can afford to borrow money to lend to the "Lord's Poor" to supply them with houses to live in. We have one such building and it is well spoken of, but the question is, can the citizens afford to build dozens—nay, hundreds more? The one we have has not paid big dividends, at any rate in this world. We may be laying up treasure in Heaven, but the trouble is, many of us may never get there. If the city builds houses we will all be taxed to raise the money to repay the government, but there is great uncertainty as to whether the people who live in the houses will pay up. Some of them will die, some will move away, some will flunk. The city is taking all the chances. It is said that corporations have no bodies to be kicked and no souls to be damned. Yet if the city had some family so situated that they could not keep up the payment, wages had gone down, values of property had gone down and there was nothing for it but to take over the property and turn the occupants out, the city would find itself in an unenviable situation. Harsh methods would bring down condemnation of the people and the Council will cry, "Who will deliver us from this dead body?" If the Council is wise it will keep out of trouble. Let the people paddle their own canoes. Everyone who works for the city will use this opportunity to do the city. Material is dear, labor is dear, yet prices may drop and leave on the city's hands houses that the people won't buy because they are too high priced.

The city has no money. They must borrow, and if they do it will cost them for sinking fund and interest not less than ten per cent. to be raised off the people by taxes during the next twenty years. If they ask why their taxes are so high the city will point to a row of $1,000 houses that the now groaning taxpayers built for the laboring man, and on which the lawyers are busy foreclosing mortgages. Fine comfort for the over-burdened ratepayers. Stick to your own business and let the people do the same.

SENEX.

C. G. E. BASEBALL TEAM HAS PRELIMINARY WORK-OUT AT EXHIBITION GROUNDS.

Enough players to make three good ball teams turned out at the Exhibition Grounds on Saturday afternoon at Manager Rahmel's first call.

Any pessimism that may have prevailed would surely have been dispelled after aSturday's performance—real ball players from the Business College and other institutions in the city were in evidence all over the lot, all eager to don the uniform, probably regardless of whose monogram it might bear.

A little enthusiastic hustling on the part of the several managers should produce a brand of baseball that will be a joy to the fans of this city and a credit to the City League.

Manager Rahmel is prepared to introduce some new players in his line-up that will prove an eye-opener.

Baseball Notes.

The C. G. E. Club is prepared to boost the Peterborough senior team in the O. B. A. A.

If the City League officials deem it advisable for the best interests of the game to enter a team in the Intermediate O. B. A. A., the C. G. E. Club will fall in line.

It is a foregone conclusion, however, that players playing in the senior team will not be allowed to play intermediate.

Apparently the question to decide is, can Peterborough produce two teams strong enough to compete for the O. B. A. A trophies?

HAMILTON, Ont., April 19.—Overall craze has hit this city as a protest against the high cost of living. City Hall employees arrived at work in overalls to-day and this led to calling of a special meeting this afternoon when it is intended to pledge all members of City Hall Employees Association to wear denim until clothing drops in price.

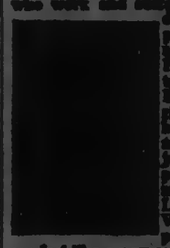
MRS. DOOLEY'S ADVICE TO WORKING GIRLS



Milwaukee, Wis.—"I wish all girls who work and suffer from functional disorders would profit by my advice and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I was married, when I came home from work all night, I would be just worn out with pains which dragged me down. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I can work from morning until night and it does not bother me, and I wish all girls who suffer as I did would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. H. DOOLEY, 1125 20th Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Working girls everywhere should profit by Mrs. Dooley's experience, and instead of dragging along from day to day with life a burden, give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It has overcome just such conditions for thousands of others, and why not for you? For special advice, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

STEAMER EXUDES ODORS OF LILIES AND ONIONS

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Fort Hamilton, of the Bermuda Line arrived here from Bermuda wafting ashore a mingled odor of Easter lilies and Bermuda onions. She carried 290 passengers.

The Bermuda onion will figure prominently in the season's shortages according to the passengers, who said a heavy rainstorm last month, lasting ten days, had virtually destroyed the crop. The lily crop suffered equally and the only lilies on board were those worn by the women passengers.

The failure of these two Bermuda staples, passengers said, is also due to a labor shortage. Farmers are unable to get sufficient help.

"Peterborough Presents Possibilities Unsurpassed."

MONDAY, APRIL 19TH, 1920.

To the already long list of well-known residents of Peterboro, who have recently answered the last great call, must be added the name of Mr. R. A. Morrow, the news of whose death was heard with deep regret throughout the city yesterday. Mr. Morrow had a host of friends in Peterboro, and was regarded as a citizen of sterling merit, whose passing leaves another gap in the ranks of the city's most esteemed residents. The Peterboro Industrial Exhibition loses in his death one of its most useful and warm-hearted friends. The late Mr. Morrow had always taken a deep interest in the Exhibition, and by lasing the grounds to the directors on the most generous terms for past twenty years has made it possible for the Exhibition to grow to its splendid present proportions—a success that could not have been reached had it not been for the public-spirited attitude of Mr. Morrow. Athletic sports have also lost an enthusiastic patron in his passing, for Mr. Morrow was always ready with a donation to help in the promotion of the city's athletic clubs.

NOT HIGH ENOUGH.

The proposed change in the pension regulations by which in cases of less than twenty per cent. disability a lump-sum gratuity is to be offered instead of a yearly allowance is regarded by officers of the various veterans' associations as more in the interests of the government than of the pensioners. It is argued, and with much reason, too, that the proposed gratuity should be based on the expectations that the pensioner will live at least twenty years, whereas the plan suggested only allows for four years of life. That is pensioners who suffering with disabilities less than twenty per cent. are being offered what amounts to four years of their present pensions, with the addition of a slight surplus. For instance, a private soldier suffering from a 5 per cent. disability is paid a yearly allowance of $36. Under the new system it is proposed to give a lump sum gratuity of $150, thus discharging all liability in his case. The soldier, however, is to have the option of choosing whichever plan he prefers and under the circumstances it is not likely that many of them will accept the gratuity. If it were made to cover a longer period, however, it would be generally preferred, and a considerable saving in the administration of pensions would be achieved. A four year pension will hardly appeal to the majority of the pensioners.

LEST WE FORGET.

The church parade of the Great War Veterans' Association yesterday was in commemoration of the 2nd Battle of Ypres and of the gallant comrades who gave their lives in that first great test of Canadian valour. It is well that such services should be held for the public memory is unfortunately short, and the anniversary of one of the greatest events in Canadian history would pass unnoticed were it not for parades such as that of yesterday and references in the newspapers.

The mind of every citizen should this week go back to April, 1915, and the glorious stand made by the 1st Canadian Division when "the gallantry and determination of the Canadians," to quote from the official records, "saved the situation." Peterborough people will have an opportunity on Saturday of testifying to their gratitude in a practical form by contributing generously to the tag day campaign of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Great War Veterans' Association. The proceeds are to be devoted to relief work among the soldiers and their families and among the dependents of the returning brave. The cause is an excellent one, the record of the G. W.V.A. in regard to relief work merits every confidence in the administration of the fund and there should be a liberal response.

REMAKING THE BOOK.

The refusal of the Drury government to accept responsibility either for the Sandy bill to prevent short-circuiting, or the resolution calling upon the Dominion government to take a referendum in Ontario on the question of liquor legislation, has resulted in considerable loss of prestige for the Administration. Newspapers that have been friendly to the Drury government are pointing out that in issues of this kind the people have a right to look for leadership on the part of those in authority and are condemning the Premier and his associates for the apparent attempt to dodge responsibility. Probably the chief reason that has actuated the course of the government in the opposition of the Labour wing to the proposed legislation. The majority of the Labour members, although the principle of referendum is one of the planks in their platform, are not in favour of the McCreary resolution, and the government has been forced to side-step the issue by introducing the legislation through private members. The result is that there is very great doubt as to whether either the Sandy bill or the resolution will be carried by the Legislature.

BREAKING UP.

Signs of the gradual disintegration of the Union government are becoming more numerous, and the indications are that in spite of the frantic efforts of the leaders of the present administration the Union forces will split so badly that dissolution will become necessary. The activities of the Hon. Robert Rogers, former Minister of Public Works, furnish one reason for the alarm that is felt in government circles. The Hon. Bob has been busy lobbying among the Conservative members, blooming a Tory convention, the details of which are to be arranged at a preliminary conference to be held in Toronto next month, and it is said that his efforts have been so successful that the Government leaders are panic stricken. The resuscitation of the Liberal-Conservative party under the high protection policy of Sir John A. Macdonald, to the Rogers programme, and his work is made the easier for him by the conviction of the Conservative members that the Union government has not a chance to be returned and that their prospects of keeping their seats in the House will be as bright at least under the old party flag. There promises to be some interesting developments in the situation during the next few weeks, with the increase increasing with the return to Ottawa of Sir Robert Borden.

A WINDSOR "TRIBUTE."

Under the heading, "A Disgraceful Attack," the Border Cities Star, published in Windsor, pays the following "tribute to the member for West Peterboro:

If reports of his speech in the House of Commons on Wednesday are accurate, Mr. J. J. Burnham, the member for West Peterboro, has laid himself open to censure and ridicule—from which ever standpoint one may see fit to view it. The Y. M. C. A., the W.C.T.U., the Dominion Alliance, Rev. Ben Spence, prohibition and prohibitionists, farmers and campaign funds, are mentioned by the correspondents as having been objects of his venom. It is to be hoped that Mr. Burnham, having lifted such a load from his chest in one session, is feeling better, though one finds it difficult to explain the line of thinking that prompts a supposedly responsible member of the Canadian Parliament to rise in his place and give vent to such sentences as are credited to Mr. Burnham this week. Listen to the following from a report of the Burnham speech:

"The Y.M.C.A.'s were created for the money they could squeeze out of the public."

Could anything be more absurd? Could anything be further from the actual facts of the case? One might go on at length, quoting similar extracts from the Peterboro member's wild oration. He accuses the Dominion Alliance of being determined to seize power and useit, "and in this respect it would be just as reasonable as any other body which wished to overturn a constitution."

What arrant nonsense! Along the same line is the attack on the Ontario Temperance Act, characterized by Mr. Burnham as an instrument designed to "destroy the liberties of the people.' And this in face of the fact that the people of Ontario voted overwhelmingly in favor of the measure. Mr. Burnham is an Ontario man, and should know more of the conditions in his provine than his speech would seem to indicate.

It is satisfactory to note that government members gave an immediate rebuke to Mr. Burnham. Probably the electors of West Peterboro will be glad to second the motion if they are given an opportunity at the next federal election.

A STRIKE BY DECEPTION.

Whatever else is still mysterious about this singular strike, it has become thoroughly clear that many, of not most, of the men who struck were deceived by the persons who ordered the strike, by a small army of agitators who talked personally to the men. The leaders of the four great railroad Brotherhoods strongly denounced the strike. Members were instructed and informed by the instigators of trouble and many of them still believe that the Brotherhood leaders were talking insincerely—that they were thoroughly in sympathy with the strike. "The statements given out by the leaders denouncing us as 'outlaws,'" says one of the strikers, "are for the benefit of the newspapers, and are not intended for us."

A great many of the Brotherhood members have been deceived shamefully. They have been persuaded that the course which they were taking to destroy the Brotherhoods had the private approval of their leaders. Leaving out of account the number of radicals, probably not great in these associations, it appears that a large number of straightforward and well-meaning men, especially young men, have been drawn into this strike by trick and device. It would be difficult for the economist or the statesman to speak more lucidly or more wisely about the real purpose, and inevitable result, of this strike, could it prove successful, than the chiefs of the great Brotherhoods have spoken. One would like to quote from all of them, but this statement of President Carter of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, must suffice. It is a fatal indictment:

The present strike of men engaged in switching service was originated in Chicago, being a new organization which has for its purpose the destruction of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and Switchmen's Union, and in its inception had nothing to do with wage questions, but was a demand for the reinstatement of this leader of the Opposition organization. After this strike was instituted for this purpose, the leaders of the new organization then injected the wage question for the sole purpose of deceiving the yardmen throughout the United States and promoted the "One Big Union" idea. There can be no settlement of the pending wage question while this illegal action continues.

"The life of organized labor is at stake in this strike," says Mr. Gompers. Amid all the discomforts of the strike it is a solid satisfaction to Americans in general to see that they and the great successful and hitherto conservative unions are in accord for the common interest. The unions must be saved, and will be saved, from the treacherous inroads of roads of revolutionists, who have no hope, as this strike has again shown us, save in deceit and a propaganda of radicalism.—New York Tribune.

WHEN APRIL CAME.

I used to feel the sap rise in my bones,
When April came.
And, like a transformation scene of old,
The gray mists rose, revealing loveliness untold;
Each hour held sweeter joys for me to claim
When April came.

I used to feel the thrill a gambler knows
When April came,
And when the year spread out before my eyes
Her chances and wild hazards for my enterprise,
Love laughed with me; life was a glorious game,
When April came.

Closely I huddled o'er the blazing fire,
When April came,
Again the south wind swayed the waking trees,
The robin's mating song was borne upon the breeze,
But nevermore returned youth's magic flame,
When April came.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

COMPLICATIONS

CHAPTER C.

Some way I seemed much older than Rose, although really there was only a few months' difference in our ages. I suppose it was being married, having a home of my own, etc. So I tried to explain to her that it would be impossible for her to see anything of Walter Kemp because of Everett's restrictions.

"There are other places than your house. We can lunch with him or go to a matinee, can't we? I am just dying to know him better."

"I thought Barret Edmonds?——"

"Barrett is all right, he's a dear! But that Mr. Kemp is the most fascinating man I ever met. Probably that's the reason Mr. Graham objects to him. He is so much older, and so is jealous."

I came very near saying I wished Everett were jealous of me. He had forbidden me to do things, but I never had imagined it because of love or jealousy. I had in some way offended his amour propre, that was all. But I didn't say anything of this to Rose. I lifted her to think that my handsome, distinguished husband was jealous of me. I was like most women—jealousy was to me a sign of love. I was so jealous myself that I could not conceive of a great love where faith and trust were the component parts, and where jealousy had no place.

"What in the world are you thinking about, Sandra? You haven't spoken for five minutes." Rose interrupted my thoughts.

"Oh, that some people never are jealous."

"Everybody is jealous when they care a lot for anyone," Rose retorted with all the erudition of twenty.

"Yes, I guess they are — if they care."

Fate played into Rose's hands. The very next day we stopped for some soda, and who should follow us in but Walter Kemp. He ignored upon treating us, and sat beside us as we all three drank what we had ordered.

Rose acted disgracefully — yet before I was married I would not have thought so perhaps. She flirted astonishingly, and made what my brothers called "goo-goo eyes" at him the whole blessed time. I could see that he was attracted, and my jealous nature flared up again. I knew I could not be with Walter Kemp, that I could not entertain him in my home, yet I felt twinges of jealousy as I saw him turn to Rose, laugh and joke with her, admiration on his face.

Rose was bright. She often used slangy expressions, but she used them in such a way they were not offensive. And no one could deny she was pretty. She had style, too, and dressed well. I was really proud of her as a guest, yet I did not want my men friends to show her more attention than they did me.

A lady I knew came into the store—a friend of Everett's. I turned to respond to her greeting, so leaving Rose and Mr. Kemp for a moment. When I turned back to them, I saw I had interrupted something Rose was saying which she did not want me to hear, for she blushed violently. I pretended not to notice, and we soon left.

As we reached the street, and Thomas drove the car up to the curb for us, I overheard Walter Kemp say:

"Don't forget," and Rose smiled her answer.

About three o'clock that same afternoon I saw Rose going downstairs, dressed for the street, and looking lovely. We were going out that evening. Everett had telephoned that he had theatre tickets, and I had proposed to lie down a little while, as we had shopped all the morning, and I was rather tired. Some way, since my accident I tired easily.

"Why, Rose, where are you going?" I asked, surprised.

"Ask me no questions, I'll tell you no lies," she responded blithly.

"Do tell me! Do you want me to go with you? Shall I order the car for you?"

"No, to both! There's a taxi at the door for me, and I am going to tea with Walter Kemp. I didn't tell him to ask you too. I thought after what you had said—about Mr. Graham not liking him, it was better to go without you. I'll be back in time to dress for dinner."

I looked from the window, and as she tripped down the steps to the waiting taxi, hot tears filled my eyes. "I was always the one left!" I thought as I brushed them away.

SHORT OF BREATH

Could Hardly Walk Without Resting

When you go to a physician to be examined for any heart trouble one of the first questions he asks is: "Are you short of breath?"

Now, when the heart becomes affected there ensues a feeling of a choking sensation, a shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensation, dizziness and a weak, sinking, allgone feeling of oppression and anxiety.

On the first sign of the heart becoming weakened or the nerves unstrung, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy you require. They regulate and stimulate the heart and strengthen and restore the whole nerve system.

Mr. Stephen Crouse, East Clifford, N.B., writes:—"I suffered for five years with heart trouble. I could hardly walk from the house to the barn without resting as I used to get so short of breath. Doctors could not help me. My wife told me to get a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and I felt better after taking them; three boxes made me quite well. I am now helping my son to work the farm, and can truthfully say I feel like a different man."

Price 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CHANGES IN PENSION PLAN

THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE SUGGEST SCHEME BY WHICH 20 PER CENT. DISABILITIES MAY COMMUTE FOR CASH GRANT.

OTTAWA, April 17.—Several striking changes in the pension laws were recommended to the Special Pensions Committee of Commons yesterday, in a statement submitted by the Board of Pensions Commissioners. Consideration of the proposed amendments is now under way.

Among the important changes suggested was one whereby a pensioner's disability would be considered permanent after three years had elapsed from the date of the amendments being adopted.

Lump Sum in Lieu.

Another important suggested amendment was to the effect that all pensioners of less than 20 per cent. disability be given the option of accepting a lump sum gratuity in lieu of pension. The amount of money involved would be between $8,000,000, and $12,000,000, and some 40000 men would be affected by this decision.

Average Gratuities.

In support of this idea the commissioners submitted in a table estimating the number of men in each class, probable average gratuity, and total sum needed for the purpose as follows:

Disability	No. pensioners	Ave. gratuity	Total
5 to 9%	8,319	$150	$1,247,850
10 to 14%	22,955	$300	$6,616,500
15 to 19%	10,548	$450	$4,746,600
Totals.	..40,922		$12,610,950

12½ Millions This Year.

The commissioners pointed out that it was impossible to make a very clear estimate of the probable cost, but if all men now receiving pensions accepted the gratuity offer, there would be an outlay of about $12,500,000 this year, and the annual pension bill would be reduced by something over $1,000,000.

$1,000 Gratuity.

Suggested amending clauses would provide that a disabled man with less than 5 per cent. disability could at his own wish accept as final payment of his pensions claim a sum not in excess of $100. A pensioner with disability ranging from 5 to 19 per cent. would be entitled to elect to receive a cash gratuity not to exceed $1,000. This would be a final payment of all his claims.

In support of the suggested amendment allowing men of less than twenty per cent. disability to commute their pensions and accept cash gratuities, it was pointed out that the greater number of pensioners are in this class. The cause which would provide for permanent disability basis after three years, it was stated, would do away with a huge amount of re-examination. Medical re-examinations were now costing the country $600,000 per year and it was thought that by the insertion of such a clause in the act, the charges for this work could be reduced to $50,000 by the end of three years.

SALTS IF BACKACHY AND KIDNEYS HURT

Stop eating meats for a while if your Bladder is troubling you.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the Kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. Then your kidneys get sluggish and then you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.

A LITTLE GHOST.

There's the spatter of sleet on the window pane,
As I enter the old room once again,
I shut the door on the windy hall,
And keep in the shadow against the wall.

Black on its cushion of crimson hue
The kitten dozes, and filtering through
An open door comes a laughing call,
And the clear-cut click of a billiard ball.

The collie waits with his lordly air
Till I have taken my old-time chair,
But the kitten wakens to crouch and spring
At the gleam of my frock and my beads aswing.

The smell of leather, the firelit room,
Shadows of dreams in the mellow gloom,
Madonna eyes from the sombre wall,
And the haze of tobacco that shrouds it all.

Old pictures, old books, old chairs—no tears
Between can keep me apart from these
So often I creep to the firelit gloom;
Do you never dream I am in the room?

Voice Of The People

"God is love," I John 4:8; "God is light," I John 1:5.

Take note, the above statements do not express partial love and light but definitely state that He is the very essential substance itself. Man can to a certain degree manifest love to others and in a limited sense impart light to his fellow man. Love delights in contributing to the happiness of others, is exercised cheerfully in granting their wishes, supplying their wants, alleviating their distresses, is disposed to forgive offences and impart unmerited blessings.

Light is knowledge, and is so expansive and varied that it is not hard to accept the statement "God is light." The light received by us through the revelation of the mercy, love and goodness of God to man, made known to us by the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, is of paramount importance. Jesus was God manifest in the flesh. He Himself said, "He that seeth me seeth the Father." He also said that He was the light of the world, and he that followeth Him, shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. Those who receive Jesus or believe or trust on Him are at one with God the Father, and become children of God. In order to grasp the simplicity of receiving Jesus or trusting in Him we must become as a little child. Receiving Jesus is simply receiving Him in His entirety. Believing on Jesus is simply trusting Him as Saviour sufficient for our care. Receiving Jesus certainly implies that we come under His control. It is a blessed fact that God gave Jesus to show His love and goodwill towards man; and it is a blessed truth that it is the work of the Holy Spirit to reveal Jesus. It is also a glorious thing to know that Jesus, "the Word," and the Holy Spirit, agree. When we are taught of the Holy Spirit, we are really being taught of Jesus. When we come under the control of Jesus, we come under the control of the blessed Holy Spirit. Paul says, the law of the Spirit makes us free from the law of sin and death (the law of the ten commandments) that the righteousness or requirements of the law were fulfilled in us, who walk after the Spirit; that as many as are led by the Spirit they are the children of God. He also says, "There is no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus." The phrase "in Christ Jesus," at first mention seems ambiguous. The similitude expressed by Jesus, when He said He was the vine and His followers were the branches, make the words "in Christ Jesus," very plain.

John says: "If we walk in the light as He is in the light we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, cleanseth us from all sin. This statement makes it positive that we can be made righteous and kept righteous. Walking in the light means walking in the knowledge of His will concerning us. The words "as He is the light," seem to say, the light is of God. To have fellowship one with another, we must be of the same mind, each walking after the Spirit. How true this is in the experience of every one who are led by the Spirit. Walking in the light, living under the control of the Spirit, being under the control of Jesus, is one and the same thing, and brings the blessed result—freedom from sin.

In what sense can we understand the statement, "the blood of Jesus cleanseth us from all sin." The blood is the life. Jesus gave himself a ransom for all to be made manifest in due time. In this sense the blood or the life of the Lord Jesus cleanses us and keeps us from all sin, when His life is lived out in our life. Righteousness is knowing God's will, and doing it. Jesus is the light of the world, and those that follow Him shall not walk in darkness. Jesus said His yoke was easy and His burden was light; it must be so when it gives us rest and not weariness.

The commandments or requirements of the Spirit are not grievous. Living under the law of the Spirit makes us free. No doubt, no fear, no bondage, no legalism, no condemnation to those who live in the centre of God's will. Jesus is the giver of the life that satisfies God and satisfies ourselves.

THE CHANGING DREAM

By H. F. GADSBY

By H. F. GADSBY

Having made up its mind to die in two years or less the Government naturally wants Parliament sitting around as little as possible. It can put a better face on the sad occasion, and choose its last words with more deliberation if only the immediate family is at the bedside.

This means short sessions—like the present one which promises to be over by the middle of May—and gentle measures which will not start quarrels to embitter the last moments of the sufferer. It is hard enough to die in public, with everybody looking on, but much harder to die with riot raging over one's bed.

So the Government will get Parliament out of the way as quickly as may be and meanwhile do nothing that will furnish an excuse to mess the solemn scene up. It is even trying to be good enough to show that it repents and hopes to be forgiven. If you have any doubt that the Government realizes that the end is inevitable all you have to do is to listen to the soft answers Mr. Guthrie makes to criticism of the Franchise Act. "Do with it what you like" the Government seems to say. "It may as well be a good act as a bad one. We are past caring." As a consequence the chances are that the act will be a fair one, and the Government will go down to its grave with some fragrance of good deeds behind it. If it were in perfect health it wouldn't behave that way.

Moreover Parliament feels that it is in the presence of death. Hushed voices, muffled footsteps, baited breath. Not a rough word anywhere—not a twitter in the whole two hundred and thirty. No arguments to disturb the sick man. Long faces, rolled-up eyes—everything subdued to the note of sorrow. A funeral is noisy beside the general mildness of debate. "Me too" is perhaps the cruelest thing anyone whispers.

THE DEEPENING GLOOM

It is natural that the Government's approaching fate should cast a gloom over the community on Parliament Hill. It is natural that Liberals and Liberal-Unionists and Conservatives and Conservative-Unionists and others who don't know whether they will ever come back should go about with mournful countenances but why should this melancholy invade the little band of farmers headed by Mr. Crerar—that heroic squadron—fourteen I think—which is dedicated to free trade and victory? Why should this cupboard grief affect patriots so cock-a-whoop six months ago—about killing the tariff and saving the country? One imagines them speeding the parting soul, doing everything they can to help Union Government put off this corruptible and the Farmer's Government to rise up incorruptible in its place. But the truth is that they don't lift a finger. They are as silent and subdued as those other coarser natures who see in the dissolution of Union Government the resurrection of the old political parties for which they yearn but for which they were not quite prepared just at the moment.

How are we to explain this chastened mood of the farmers? The suggestion has been made that they are becoming junkers in spirit—junkers are recruited the world over from the land-owning classes—but I prefer to believe that less selfish influences are at work. It is conceivable that the farmers don't want to take over the task of governing Canada until they know their book a little better. The hastiest glance at the Auditor-General's report—two enormous tomes packed with the most detailed information—is enough to convince the average newcomer to Ottawa that he has a lot to learn. When I look over the blue-books—which I seldom do—I cease to wonder that the farmer is bewildered by the mass of heterogeneous knowledge.

Of course there is always the explanation that the U.F. is subdued by his Gothic environment, the aspiring arch, the uplifting window and all that sort of thing, don't you know, but if that is the case why didn't it have a similar affect on the Goths themselves? I cannot find anywhere in history where the Goths were restrained by their architecture from taking what they wanted. Look what they did to the Roman Empire—took it over their knee a couple of times and then took it over for good. Similarly I don't see anything in the new Parliament buildings which inhibits the farmer of his free trade and other pretty fancies—nothing that is to say but a viligant and persistent majority of some thirty odd.

On the whole I rather discount the daunting effect of good architecture—even architecture as good as John Pearson's—on our farmer legislators. A farmer who can look up at the jewelled firmament without batting an eye has no cause to feel like a worm in the presence of mere stone and mortar. No, that is not the matter. If the farmer is not as blithe and gay, as he was six months ago, if he isn't quite as sure that he knows it all, if he doesn't feel the same confidence in his substitutes for the tariff as he used to do, if he doesn't see as much nourishment in direct taxation as he once did, if he discovers about twenty five per cent fluctuation in Mr. Crerar's free trade doctine—if in short he has decided to keep his mouth shut while he looks around a bit I wouldn't say, it's the architecture that does it. It's reason, or something like it, resuming its throne.

It may be that the U.F. brotherhood will proclaim its opinions freely in the budget debate but I doubt it. These opinions may not be softening down but at least they are not being played with the loud pedal, just now. It is part of the atmosphere at Ottawa which does not change one's opinions, perhaps, but which certainly modifies one's enthusiasm toward them. Many a crusader has come to this town with a message to put over and a will to fight for it to the bitter end who has gone away a strong friend of expediency. If Ottawa has any lesson for the farmer militant it is that compromise wins the battle—not hard knocks and straight thrusts. The whole gospel of party government is that a half loaf is better than no bread. If the farmer's movement loses impetus at Ottawa we must not blame the farmer—he is the victim of a system that would mollify the very devil.

Six months ago almost anyone of M. Crerar's faithful fourteen would have guaranteed to lift Canada by the tail and swing it over his shoulder, making no more of it than a pound of feathers. But there is a distinct loss of faith now. The work of governing Canada, viewed at close range, is not the light chore it looked from the farm. The responsibilities are great. The experience of their brother rustice in Toronto is not such as to sustain or encourage a high demeanor toward the cares of office. If the small field cannot be tilled, what of the greater? Q.E.D.—as Euclid would say, with his brusque but salutary logic. What's more there are farmers in the House of Commons, who do not sit with Mr. Crerar—farmers who believe in protection, as most Ontario farmers do. That in itself is a saddening thought for Mr. Crerar's little band—that the Farmer's Party, bears the seeds of death in its own bosom, that it must fight its own tendency to burst into East and West or go up the spout like all the other thirty parties in Canadian politics.

MUSICAL EXTRAVAGANZA

A gay musical extravaganza is "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop," it is said, for it is the kind of play that will take everyone back to his childhood days, and yet it has, too, really clever lines, with amusing situations. The little people, such of them as are allowed to sit up for the performance, will find it the most delightful treat they ever had, and will have the greatest fun over the antics of the jumping jacks, the clowns, the Noah's Ark animals, and all the rest of the toys which are brought to life by the magic wand of the fairy. Gay groups of Peterborough's most attractive people will play an important part in the chorus of the production while the cast is to be made up of clever amateur performers. Miss Helen McLaren will have the title role in the production, that of the Parisian doll, and her lovely voice, her charming stage presence and youthful grace and vivacity will lend themselves to a most delightful interpretation, Miss Hazel Davidson, too, has a most important role, as Bonnie, the toymaker's daughter, and a better selection for the part could hardly have been made. Miss Mabel Patterson is to be Loosey, a rag doll, and Miss Gene Herbison will play Ink Spot, the Topsy role of the piece. Miss Daisy Stocker is certain to make a very lovely fairy queen. Miss Greta LeBarr is to be Bo-Peep, Miss Lenore Lyle will play the picturesque Japanese doll, while Miss Helen Bulmer is to be the talking doll, and Miss Elizabeth McDonald has been assigned the role of Puddin' Head, and Miss Mamie Cottingham will have an important role as the witch. The masculine roles are also in capable hands, Mr. Robt. Langford is to be the Man in the Moon, an interpretation which he may be relied upon to make a telling one. Mr. Norman Laing and Mr. Harold Snelgrove will play the parts of Lieutenant Tinheart and Prince Lollypop, rival suitors for the hand of Fi-Fi, and Mr. Walter Fitzgerald is to be Capt. Barnacle, the toy sailor, while Fraser Skinner is to be one of the clowns.

PRESENTATION OF SERVICE MEDALS

On Friday night last the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen Lodge No. 508 held a most successful banquet at the Elsmere Hotel, Lindsay on the occasion of the presentation of service medals to the members of the lodge who served overseas. The chairman Superintendent J. D. McMillan of Belleville, was introduced by Mr. George Jobbitt of this city. Toasts and a musical programme preceded the presentations which were made by Mrs. J. D. McMillan. Some 16 members were entitled to medals but not all were present. Amongst those decorated were Leo Houlihan, Harvey Staunton, Earl Johnston, R. Willis, F. Broom, H. Clarke, D. J. Morrison, R. Sandercock and Samuel Scott.

The introductory speech parliamentarians expected would require about two hours, but they did not look for sensational developments since a second budget bill will be introduced later in the year.

PARIS, April 17.—The price of artificial hair has gone up so greatly that soon only millionaires will be able to provide the means to follow the fashion of having large, soft chignons twisted high at the back of the head.

There are sorrowful regrets among the thousands of women who followed the fad of last year and had their locks bobbed. To-day the hair they sacrificed is worth ten times its weight in gold.

RACE ACROSS THE ATLANTIC

The following account of the race of the C.P.O.S. Empress of France from St. John to Liverpool against time, to enable the Governor-General to reach London in order to preside at a banquet given to Sir Auckland Geddes on the night of March 22nd, is taken from the Liverpool Echo of that date: "The Duke of Devonshire, the Governor-General of Canada, has won a big race — a race against time. His Excellency arrived at Liverpool this morning from Canada in the C.P.O.S. liner Empress of France. The importance to the duke of reaching England today is explained by a pledge he gave, per cable, that he would preside to-night at the dinner to be given to Sir Auckland Geddes, the new British Ambassador at Washington, by the Canada Club, at the Prince's restaurant, Piccadilly, London.

"He was unlucky at the outset of his voyage, which began at St. John, N.B. The Empress of France was scheduled to leave that port on Saturday, the 13th. At the time she was ready to sail, however, a terrific gale was in progress. Such was the fury of the storm that it was deemed advisable to delay the start of the voyage for twenty-four hours. Accordingly the liner did not leave the harbor at St. John until Sunday morning, the 14th instant. Thus the duke began his race under handicap conditions —a full day lopped of the time originally allowed for the Atlantic run.

"Captain E. Cook, who commands the Empress of France, was consulted by the duke, and gave a solemn undertaking that if the engines of his steamer could possibly manage it, His Excellency would be in Liverpool by March 22nd.

"It is probable that never before has such interest been displayed in the steam gauges of this famous C.P.O.S. liner as on this trip. Every pound of steam pressure was extracted that could be coaxed out of the boilers by the most skilful firing of the stokers, who entered into the spirit of the adventure with true British zest. Fortunately, the sea and climatic conditions were eminently favorable, and, driven for all she was worth, the majestic liner ploughed through the ocean with a rare turn of speed, and, making the port of Liverpool at an early hour this morning enabled the duke to have the pleasant reflection that he would fulfil his promise to take the chair at the Canada Club dinner in London to-night.

"A dense fog prevailed when the Empress of France "made" the Mersey soon after midnight. By cautious navigation Captain Cook crept up the river with his great vessel, and at six o'clock this morning was safely riding at anchor in midstream right opposite the Prince's landing stage. The fog was too thick to allow of the liner coming alongside the stage. Therefore, at seven o'clock a tender went out to her and brought the duke and his party ashore in time to catch the forenoon train from Lnme street station to London.

"His Excellency's party consisted of his two youngest daughters, Lady Rachel and Lady Anne Cavendish, Miss Alix Cavendish, Lady Helen Baillie Hamilton, Miss Saunders, Capt. D. E. Wallace, A.D.C., Captain the Early of Haddington, A.D.C., and Mr. David Boyle."

THE SERVICES AT GEORGE STREET

The services at George Street Methodist Church yesterday, were well attended. The pastor preached at both services, making vigorous appeals for better Christian living.

At the evening service, he took as his theme, "The eye that is Evil", selecting his text from Matthew 6: 22-23. "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, the whole body, shall be full of light, But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness."

This chapter shows the attitude of Christ to the World, to emphasize which, he said, "Lay not up for yourselves, treasures on earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." The same spirit of worldiness existed as to-day, though not on such a big scale, and Jesus sought to counteract it. He saw many people laying up treasures on earth, their ideas of values being awry. He saw the lust for riches, spoiling the brotherhood of God's children. He saw the beginnings of the spiritual life being crowded out.

This spirit was among both rich and poor, and his words were spoken to the poor peasants of Galilee. Here he tried to reconstruct their ideas of values.

A Timely Warning.

The warning of Jesus is timely today. Prosperity, pleasure and power are monopolising the time of very many to a greater extent than ever, since the Great World struggle. Jesus does not want us to look with scorn on the world. He did not condemn a man because he was rich, but because he did not put his riches in right relationship to God. Jesus said there was one high purpose and everything else must be subordinated. That was to (1) Lay up treasure in Heaven and (2) Seek first the Kingdom of God, and his righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you. In other words, it should be our supreme endeavour to keep our lives in harmony with the supreme will. Our lives should show a due sense of proportion and wealth, for example, should not be allowed to compete with character for the throne in our lives.

Light comes through the eyes, if both are focused, one sees single. If they do not, one sees double and everything is obscured and blurred. That is the meaning of the single eye and the evil eye.

God or Mammon.

"Jesus showed ", said Mr. Thomas "that we cannot serve two ideals, self and Jesus at the same time. If we did so, it would be as though we saw double. We can serve God with mammon with God-given powers, but never both."

Jesus might have advanced many arguments for this, but emphasized but one,— that of the security and permanency of heavenly treasure and the transiency of earthly possessions. If we have laid up treasure in Heaven, and we lose our earthly wealth, we have a satisfaction which cannot be destroyed. There are no pockets in our shrouds, and we can only take our character into the next world.

Warning to Youth.

The warning of Jesus should be heeded especially by youth. Youth is standing on the threshold of life. The world is clamoring for the devotion of youth, offering money, power and wealth,—the constant temptation to worldiness, and it is important that there should be a true conception of values. Nothing but a high, holy ideal can save from disaster.

In choosing a career, settle on an honorable occupation, law, medicine, etc., should not be chosen for their material dividends, but to be carried out to the glory of God.

Nothing in the world compares with the value of a soul. Esau sold his birthright for a mess of pottage, Judas sold his Lord for thirty pieces of silver. Let us all refuse to exchange our souls for the world.

SICK HEADACHE For Last 10 Years

Headaches affect all ages and both sexes alike, but in all cases the treatment should be directed to remove the cause for with the cause removed the headaches vanish for all time.

What is necessary for a permanent cure is something that will go right to the seat of the trouble. For this purpose it is impossible to find a better remedy for headaches of all descriptions than Burdock Blood Bitters acting as it does on every organ of the body to strengthen, purify and regulate the whole system.

Mrs. Flora Hall, Dominion, N.S., writes:—"I have been troubled with sick headache for the last ten years. I had lost faith in all remedies until recently a friend of mine advised me to try Burdock Blood Bitters. This I did, and found relief in a very short time. I would now recommend B.B.B. to anyone who is suffering as I did. I only took 3 bottles, and am never troubled with sick headaches anymore."

B. B. B. has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

NO NIGHT WORK FOR BAKERS.

Bill to Amend Present Law Will Come Before Legislature.

TORONTO, April 17.—George C. Halcrow, M.L.A., will shortly introduce legislation to amend the Factory Act to prohibit master bakers from working their employees either before or after the hours of six in the morning and after six in the evening. The legislation is hailed as a matter for congratulation by the originators of the idea, and spells the elimination of night work in the bakeries of the Province, if carried.

Tom Watt and John Drummond, organizers of the National Union of Journeymen Bakers, have worked on the matter for many months, and the Independent Labour Party is now working heartily in conjunction with the project.

The Act at present reads: "No person shall require any employees in any bakeshop to work on Sunday nor twelve hours in any twenty-four hours." The amendment reads: "No person shall require an employee in any bakeshop to work on Sunday nor over twelve hours in any twenty-four nor before the hour of 6 a.m. on any day nor after the hour of 6 p.m."

EXTRACT TEETH BY ELECTRICITY

A method for making dentistry painless—not for the dentist but for the patient—by the use of electricity, has been invented by a New Jersey man, says Popular Science Monthly.

The use of electricity for producing analgesia, or absence of pain, is not altogether new. The method has been employed occasionally with varying success, but has not become very popular because its effects were too uncertain. If the current is too weak, or otherwise of unsuitable character, it does not remove the pain; if too strong or of too low frequency the application of the current itself causes pain and discomfort.

The inventor of the new method employs an alternating current of fairly high frequency. He finds that these waves, at a frequency of 1,000 to 2,000 cycles a second, give the best results. They cause no shock or other disagreeable sensation. So long as the current is applied there is no pain.

After choosing his own boat many a man is dissatisfied—so the divorce court for him.

BE SUSPICIOUS OF TENDER GUMS

Be suspicious of any tenderness or bleeding of the gums. This is usually the first stage of Pyorrhea—an insidious disease of the gums that destroys the teeth and undermines bodily health.

Gradually the gums become spongy. They inflame, then shrink, thus exposing the unprotected tooth-base to the ravages of decay. Tiny openings in the gums form gateways for germs that enter the system. Medical science has traced many ills to these infecting germs in the gums weakened by Pyorrhea.

They are now known to be a frequent cause of indigestion, anaemia, rheumatism and other serious conditions.

So watch carefully for that first tenderness or bleeding of the gums. Try Forhan's immediately. It positively prevents Pyorrhea (Riggs' Disease) if used in time and used consistently.

And in preventing Pyorrhea—it guards against other ills.

Forhan's (For the Gums) cleans teeth scientifically as well. Brush your teeth with it. It keeps the teeth white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

The Sellers Saves Time, Labour, Trouble and Energy

To save labour, the automatic lowering flour bin, which will contain fifty pounds of flour, is lowered down to a level with the table by simply pulling it towards you, by means of handles, and pushing down. It is held here automatically by two grips, where it is most easily filled. To raise it back into position, you first push down, which releases the grips. It is then raised to its position by means of two large springs, thus eliminating all heavy lifting of flour bags.

To save energy, the lower base shelf is automatically extended by means of an arrangement on the door, so that, when the door is opened the shelf is moved out also, thereby putting all that is on it within easy reach of the housekeeper, thus doing away with all reaching and stooping.

To save trouble and time, there is room for some three hundred articles in these cabinets, which puts them all at your finger-tips and makes it possible to do a day's baking or cooking without moving away from your cabinet, thus saving hundreds of steps going from pantry to work table in a day.

THE MARK STREET CHURCH SERVICE

SPECIAL MUSIC BY THE CHOIR NOTES ON SERMONS.

Large, earnest, and appreciative congregations met at Mark Street Church yesterday, and both services were deeply spiritual. The choir, under the able direction of Mr. Bruce Quinn, did excellent work, and the solos by Mrs. E. Wand in the morning and Miss Peters at night were much enjoyed. The subject of the morning's sermon by Rev. Mr. Ross was "The Great Divide," and the text, "They say no man save Jesus only." Mark ix., 8. The following were the points discussed in th discourse::

First, Peter, James and John represent the Church on earth and stand on the mountain, or the "Great Divide," with Jesus.

Second, Moses and Elijah represent the Church in heaven, and come down and meet the Church militant in the presence of Christ, who represents both.

Third, The disciples have a mighty work to do in the valley below, so they seek the solitude of the mountain for preparation.

Fourth, Nine disciples are fighting devils down in the plain, but they fail. They needed the mountain-top experience, and so do we. If we were more with Jesus on the mount, and saw His glory, and heard the voice of God, we would not be so quick to bow to the devil in the plain.

Fifth, Notice, Moses and Elijah were known to Peter although they had been gone from the earth centuries before the disciples were born, and yet we question our power to know our loved ones in heaven.

Sixth, Notice again, Heaven's visitants meet earth's visitors on the mountain. Heaven's joy meets earth's sorrow, heaven's power meets earth's weakness, and heaven's sympathy meets earth's discouragement on the "Great Divide."

The evening subject was the "Gentleness of True Gianthood," and the text "A little child shall lead them." Points discussed:

First, The Bible a great picture gallery. Here we have the strange picture of a child's power to lead.

Second, Qualities of leadership are childlikeness, not childishness, humility, faith, freedom from guilt, freedom from care, purity of motive, purpose, and character, also a clear grasp of human nature and sympathy for men.

Third, This is a day when leadership is at a premium. No man is fit to lead who cannot follow. No man is fit to lead either in civil or religious life who will not play fair. The man who will scrape and bow and fawn, either in the pulpit or out of it, is despised by both rich and poor. Both rich and poor to-day are hungry for strong leadership.

SPORTING NEWS, VIEWS AND GOSSIP

THE BALL PLAYERS HAD A GOOD FAST WORK OUT AT RIVERSIDE

BATTING AND FIELDING EXERCISES IN ORDER—FIXING UP THE BALL LOT—SPORT COMMENT.

Old Sol's pleasant beams brought out the ball players to Riverside Park on Saturday afternoon. The game is now on in earnest. A mixed combination under C.G.E. auspices worked at the Exhibition grounds, Manager Rahmel sending forth to labor a number of well known players, including Bobby Ross, Paddy Gorham, Jack McCarney Ray and Lornie Ross, Walter Jackson, "Bun" Frost and our versatile friend Dugan. Batting and fielding exercises were the order of the afternoon.

At Riverside Park, Ray Cherrett, Max Swanston, "Hap" Harrison, Cunningham, Coursey and others opened the season with a light workout. Many carloads of real estate have been added to the diamond, and a good binder is required to complete the job. Dr. Wightman is giving the park his attention, and promises to have the ball lot in first class condition.

The 24th Boston Marathon was run this afternoon with seventy entrants. Carl Linder was home first last year in 2 hrs. 29 mins, 13 2-5 secs, and was one of the starters to-day. The record for the 25 miles is 2 hrs. 21 mins. 13 2-5 secs. Some of the winners of recent years were Tom Longboat in 1907, Jimmy Duffy in 1914, and Edouard Fabre in 1915, all three wearing the Maple Leaf.

Toronto Internationals are to ride the Fultz circuit in a special car. Duffy's men need only to lose a pair of the first home games and McCaffery's fans will do the riding.

It is suggested, seriously, by a City player that local baseball talent be pooled, with a view to making a fair distribution of players. But why add to the world's unrest? One club might draw Paddy Gorham and Jake Solomon.

Manager "Pete" Campbell, speaking at a banquet for the Granites, senior O.H.A. champions, attributed the success of the team to the unselfish-ness shown by the individual players. It's a winner or a good loser in every branch of sport.

Guess who is coming back to the City League. None other than Gus Rose, one of the most-feared pitchers of a few years ago, when he did great work for West Ends and Marlboros. He will join the heaving corps of the Veterans. With Allan Wade, Gus Rose and Bobby Ross for battery work, Lew LeBarr's team is rounding out well.

President Denne must be chuckling at the turn of events at Exhibition Park. In years past, the grasshoppers and the cobwebs had it all to themselves. On Saturday there was baseball, football and lacrosse. Add the ponies, the horseshoe throwers, and the former white elephant will shape up as a budding polo grounds.

Percy Baker's feat of eleven strikes and a nine, all in a row, in ten pins at the Water street alleys, is still standing alone, and looks good to last the season. The trundler who beats it has to produce a possible a rare feat among the best in the sport.

CITY LEAGUE MAY YET ENTER ONTARIO B.A.A.

OTHERWISE THREE OF THE TEAMS ARE THREATENING TO DROP OUT OF THE RACE—WARM WEATHER GAVE BALL TOSSERS A CHANCE SATURDAY.

Although the City Baseball League decided not long ago not to affiliate with the O. B. A. A., thus making it possible for players to perform both in the City League and the Central Ontario, there is a possibility of another change of front on the part of the clubs. Louis Yeates' Thistles form one reason why the City League may yet enter the intermediate series of the O.B.A.A. and it may be said the biggest reason. The Thistles have rounded up the majority of the Central League team's players and the rest are with the Canadian General. As a result the two teams look to too strong for the other three City League outfits, and the latter, realizing that fact, threaten to drop out of the race, thus wrecking the League.

The only other alternative is for the City League to enter the O.B.A.A. in the intermediate series, which will automatically bar Central Leaguers from participation in the City League and even up the teams in the City League. The De Laval, G.W.V.A. and Canadian Woollens are said to be in favour of this move, and are asking for a meeting of the City League to consider the question. It will have to be settled this week, for the annual meeting of the O.B.A.A. is on Saturday.

Work has commenced on the diamond at Riverside Park, and if the present weather continues it is hoped that the infield will soon be ready for fast fielding.

Corley Burns, the former Peterborough Midland Leaguer, who is president of the Wellington Club of the Toronto City Amateur League, was an interested spectator at Saturday's ball practice at Riverside Park. He would very much like to add Max Swanston to the catching staff of the Iron Dukes.

The Hamilton Herald says: The time is not far distant when the Ontario Baseball Amateur Association will be called upon to deal with the question of Industrial baseball teams. The governing body has taken its The Century club, of the City league, for instance, is having a grim battle to round out a team The officials say that they can't talk to the players, because they have nothing in the way of positions to give them. And it's the same all over the province. The O. B.A.A. simply has to get moving in the proper direction. We talked the matter over at length last night with Frank Robbins, president of the O.B. A.A., and Secretary George Walker, and both are agreed that something wil have to be done.

first step by stipulating that industrial teams be confined to employees only, but it must do more than that. We believe that, even as early as next year, the various manufacturing concerns will have to be placed in leagues of their own, and apart from the city clubs. They could, in that event, play for the championship of their league, and then saw off in the semi-finals with the winners of the city leagues. The trouble all over Ontario at present is that the city clubs can't compete with the industrial concerns. The city club has nothing to offer a ball player while the team representing a large manufacturing company can always provide a first-class player with a position that will bring in a substantial salary. We have evidence of this right in Hamilton.

DE LAVAL MADE A CREDITABLE DEBUT ON SATURDAY

C.G.E. PRODUCED A NEW TEAM—RESULTS OF EXHIBITION GAME.

C.G.E. VS. DE LAVAL

A last minute arranged Exhibition Game between the C. G. E. and De Laval Football Teams took place on Saturday afternoon at the Exhibition Grounds which accounted for the small attendance of spectators to witness the game. The C. G. E. had a number of new players on hand and they trotted out a new line up altogether, while the De Laval found some difficulty in getting their teams from the non-attendance of promised players. The weather was ideal and Referee Clark, of the C. G. E. executive, got the game started as follows:

The Line-ups.

De Laval—Dick Evans, goal; Styles and Hillman, backs; Brown, Jones and Walker, half-backs; Gordon Hartshorn, Nichols, Humpage, Acres, and Goodman forwards.

C. G. E.—Naples, goal; Mason and McDonald, backs; Gash, Turner, and Alf. Perkins, half-backs; Fred Hartshorn Young, Hotston Williamson and Battley, forwards.

Won the Toss.

C. G. E. won the toss and decided to take advantage of the sun; making the De Laval play against the sun and the difficulty of seeing the ball. The De Laval made a promising raid on the C. G. E. goal and Nichols was slow in parting with the ball giving McDonald clear return to the other end where C. G. E. forwards played havoc around Dick Evans, who made many fine saves repeatedly. Gordon Hartshorn and Humpage carried the ball towards Naples, but were robbed of an opportunity to score by an unlawful offside. After ten minutes' play Ted Battley opened the scoring by a low close-in shot, giving Evans no chance to save. The play was confined to the De Laval goal for next 15 minutes where the C. G. E. forwards became reckless as Williamson, Young and Hotston missed or shot over the bar. Through the excellent judgment and forcing tactics of Jones, the De Laval swept down on the C. G. E. goal that ended in Nichols putting past. The De Laval defence now experienced a gruelling time, but Dick Evans was on top of his form and held shots from almost every member of the C. G. E. team. He had to admit defeat from "Wag" who scored easily on a pass from Sid Young. The De Laval raided the C. G. E. goal after this but their forwards always put the ball too far in front thereby giving Mason and McDonald an easy clearance.

Interval—C. G. E. 2, De Laval 0.

On the exchange of goals the De Laval made things hot for the C.G.E. defence and Referee Clark calling sides against the Humpage and combination spoiled a nice piece of play. At the other end Hotston and Battley rained shot after shot on the De Laval goal until Young lying offside scored an offside goal and the referee allowed it, in spite of the De Laval appeal. The game was spoiled by Gash and Hotston repeatedly getting offside and the play was around the Evans goals who was playing a great game in goal. The new wing of Manders and Hotston put in some nice combination that brought no results because Gash now playing centre was always offside. The efforts of Jones was excellent for he transferred the play to the C. G. E. goal where Hartshorn forced matters and his resulting corner kick brought nothing. Ted Battley and Williamson had a nice run that ended in Williamson missing an open goal by lifting the ball high over the bar. From a corner kick taken by Battley, Wag headed the ball through the goals. A few minutes later Gash put the C. G. E. ahead another goal. The play was confined to mid-field until just before the game ended Turner passed to Wag who beat Evans for the sixth goal. C. G. E. 5; De Laval, 0.

A Summary.

The following analysis shows how the referee decided and the run of the play:

C. G. E.	1st half.	2nd half.	Tl.
Goal-kicks	2	0	4
Corner kicks	0	3	3
Goals	2	4	6
Offside	3	6	9

De Laval.	1st half.	2nd half.	Tl.
Goal-kicks	5	7	12

An Easy Day.

John Naples in the C. G. E. goal had an easy afternoon in goal while Mason and McDonald made an excellent defence, but McDonald did not get a punt at the ball all day. Turner was the best C. G. E. half-back with Sid Young not far behind. The second half Manders played in place of Fred Hartshorn, Young going to left half and Gash into centre forward position. Williamson filled Jim Bill's position, but the play produced by him cannot keep Bills from inside left opsition, as Bills had a better combination with Ted Battley. Gash will pass for this game only. "Wag" scored four goals on Saturday and is getting better every time out.

Promising Team.

Despite the want of training the De Laval made a promising debut under the capable hands of Capt. Jones. Dicks Evans returned to his old time form and it is certainly a pity that his eyesight is not as good as it used to be. Of course, he made a splendid showing in goals. The defence is good, and all it requires is more confidence and plenty of practice. Jones is a tower of strength to his team and the hardest worker on the field. The De Laval team requires is to get some more of the football talent in the De Laval to turn out—what is the matter with Willie McKinley?

G.W.V.A. HAD PRACTICE GAME

THE NECESSARY PLAYERS WILL BE CHOSEN TO-NIGHT.

A good representation of the War Vets were present on Saturday last to witness the prospective players on hand, and Mr. Frank McKinley selected the following teams to do duty on the Caledonian grounds at Exhibition grounds.

A Team:—Griffen, goal; Bishop and Gamble, backs; Burrows, Ryan and Edwards, half-backs; Curtiss, Marks, Norman, McKinley and Sharman, forwards.

B Team:—Whatley, goal; Hawthorne and Saddler, backs; Mallinson, Murphy and Martin, half-backs; Evens, Gant, Jones, Lowe and Piggot, forwards.

Referee:—A. McKinley.

Jones set the ball a rolling and the game went at a fast pace for the first 10 minutes—then it dwindled down to mid-field play. The teams were very evenly matched and under the leadership of Norman, along with McKinley and Sharman, they could not penetrate the defence of Hawthorne and Saddler, backed up by the good goal-keeping of Sid Whatley, who cleared many dangerous shots and seemed to be unbeatable. The game run from end to end with no side claiming any advantage: throughout the first period, with no scoring taking place. A team started the game in earnest in the second half and made a raid on Whatley's goal that led up to Norman beating Whatley. Good football was shown by both sides, but more especially the A team, still it cannot be said that B team was dead, for Bishop and Gamble got a lot of work to do. The contest throughout was very interesting and Scottie McKinley, who had made his first appearance for many years, was overwhelmed with joy when he beat Whatley with a low soft shot. The players showed the lack of necessary training that ultimately pronounced nothing startling after this. A Team 2; B. Team 0.

The eighteen players required to represent the G.W.V.A. teams will be picked to-night and the players not chosen will probably play with the Machine Gun Section.

STRONG VERSUS THE WEAK IS THEME OF "OTHER MEN'S SHOES."

"Other Men's Shoes," the big Edgar Lewis special feature showing today, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Grand Theatre, is a story in which is depicted the struggle of the strong versus the weak. A minister who loses his nerve has his place filled by a brother who has learned much of the ways of humaf nature from twelve years of knocking about the world in search of adventure.

Andrew Soutar, author of "Other Men's Shoes," has hit straight at the heart of things and produced a plot that keeps one guessing at every turn and hanging on breathlessly to see how it turns out. He has also introduced some delightful characters and a romance that is beautiful and tender and noble.

Crauford Kent, one of the screen's most popular leading men, portrays both brothers and is supported by Irene Boyle, Jean Armour, John P. Wade Harold Forshay, Phil Sanford, and young Bobby Connelly.

LINDSAY LEAGUE NOT ORGANIZED

MAY BE REPRESENTED IN THE O.B.A.A.

As yet the Lindsay Town League has not been organized, but if the town wishes representation in the Ontario Baseball Amateur Association, it is high time to organize as the annual meeting of the O.B.A.A. takes place on Saturday next.

There has been some talk of Lindsay organizing a junior or intermediate town league and joining the O.B.A.A. thus allowing the winners of the league to play off with the juniors or intermediates from Whitby, or Toronto.—Lindsay Warder.

LOCAL FOOTBALL GOSSIP

CALEDONIANS, MACHINE GUN AND CANADIAN WOOLENS ALL OUT ON SATURDAY.

The Machine Gun Section football team along with the Caledonians had a game amongst themselves on Saturday. Capt. L. Fraser had his first game and says that any football player who has not associated himself with any club, would get a hearty welcome from the machine gun team. The Caledonians had the Rev. J. A. McKenzie try out for a place, but he felt the game too strenuous and retired after the first period. The new Caledonian players in the person of McDowell, Hannah, McMillian, and Thom made promising recruits, although every one of them are at present feeling the effects of the war as they carry a few souvenirs of the great war. At any rate, President Dick is getting a good team together for his first game next Saturday.

Canadian Woollens.

The Canadian Woollens team is getting into proper shape under the careful tuition of J. W. Worth who says he has got the best team in the League. They practised at the Canadian Woollen Grounds on Saturday last.

RANDOM SPORT

The warm weather Saturday was welcomed by the ball players, who took advantage of the sunshine to get the kinks out of their arms. Hap Harrison, Swanston, Chernett, Mickey Murray and a bunch of other ball tossers worked out at Riverside Park, while down at the Exhibition grounds there per a score or more tossing the horseshide around and getting ready for the season.

Dick Crittenden, former catcher in the Western League and the Western Association, will manage the Drumright team in the new Western Association.

Chick Shorten, Detroit outfielder, who was in a Macon hospital for a time, as a result of stepping on a rusty nail, is again playing in the Tigers' outfield.

The Reds will miss Jake Daubert in the early games of the season. Jake was hit on the hand by George Mogridge of the Yankees, and a small bone was broken.

Lucky Harrison, Birmingham catcher, has decided to pass up baseball this year and stick to the hardware business in St. Louis.

Latest report is that Jimmy Hickman, outfielder sold by Brooklyn to Toledo, has decided to play with the independent team at Oil City, Pa.

The Mobile club has signed a second base tryout named E. C. Lemasters, who hails from Evansville, In., where he has had semi-pro experience.

George Clink, pitcher secured from Regina by Milwaukee, and given his release when he refused to report to the Brewers, has signed with Seattle.

Larry Cheney announced his positive retirement from baseball one day—and the next signed to pitch for the Columbia team of the South Atlantic League.

GREAT WAR VETERANS HELD THEIR ANNUAL CHURCH PARADE

REV. DOUGALD BROWN PREACHED AN APPROPRIATE SERMON— THE MUSIC.

Yesterday morning the Great War Veterans Association held its annual church parade to Park street Baptist Church. About one hundred Veterans turned out and marched to the church led by the G.W.V.A. band.

Rev. Dougald Brown, the pastor, in opening spoke of the great pleasure which it gave him to welcome the Vetrans to the church and stated that it was not his purpose to preach about the war as he thought that they had seen and heard enough war. He wanted to speak to them as men for they had proven themselves to be men.

Referring to the 17th chapter of Jeremiah Rev. Mr. Brown said that God is our refuge our security, and our sanctuary. Sin writes indelibly upon a man's heart and life and upon the altar which each man has set up in his left and at which he worships. God has always been man's refuge and mercy and forgiveness have always been found in him. Man perishes because he does not use that refuge.

A Defense

Continuing, Mr Brown stated that, God constitutes our defence from the assaults of our enemy, incarnate evil and extends an invitation to us all. His omnipotent power offers us security and sustains and protects us. A God that will lift me through time and embrace me through eternity is enough for me, Mr. Brown stated. He thought that some might say that this is an evangelistic sermon but it is only the truth. Like the ark; God not only provides safety from death but provision for life.

Music.

Appropriate music was ably rendered by the choir.

Carry Lanterns.

Lakefield has returned to the custom of its pioneers as, owing to the dark streets, lanterns are commonly seen in the evenings. Some have adopted the more modern flashlight but the lantern has attained to remarkable popularity. The people have settled down more or less contentedly to endure present conditions till the Hyodro comes about June 1st.

Successful Tea.

The W. M. S. of the Methodist church held a successful afternoon tea and sale of home cooking on Friday afternoon in the store lately occupied by Mr. J. Riddle. The ladies of the Society spared no pains to make the room attractive and they received splendid patronage. So successful were the ladies that they were sold out soon after five o'clock. The neat sum of $55 was cleared and all the ladies had a delightful afternoon.

Attended Dance.

A number of local young people attended the Warsaw dance on Tuesday evening last.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cullen entertained about 70 or 80 young people at their home in Smith on Thursday evening last. Quite a number of local young folks were among the guests.

GOOSE WAS SHOT— TROUBLE AHEAD.

On Easter Saturday a goose and gander, the property of Mr. Thomas Wilson of Ops, was shot and killed on Mr. Wilsons farm, by a party from Lindsay. The same day one of Mr. Wilsons neighbors saw a goose wrapped in a gray sweater alongside of his fence. Later in the day a resident of Lindsay was seen going along Elgin street with the goose wrapped in the sweater. The case has been placed in the hands of County Constable Conquergood and a few days grace is being allowed the accused to settle before action is taken in the Police Court.

RAILROAD COURTESY WINS PRAISE

MONTREAL, April 19.—"The Observant Citizen," who writes a widely read weekly feature in the "Boston Post" has this to say of Grand Trunk service:

"Returning from Gorham, N.H., to Portland, Me., on a train of the Grand Trunk railroad recently, I was sitting behind a party of Boston people, when a woman, with her husband and baby, started to leave the car at a small station. The brakeman called out the station, and as he saw the woman start to rise he came into the car, took her suitcase and then helped her out, while her husband carried the other bags. The same procedure occurred. I noticed, at several stations at which we stopped, the brakeman courteously assisting every woman with her luggage. 'That makes friends,' said one of the party of Bostonians, and they continued to comment on it. 'If we had more of that same politeness and courtesy on other railroads, travelling would be robbed of much of its discomforts for women.'"

Discuss British Problem

SIR AUCKLAND GEDDES CLAIMS IRISH DIFFICULTY IS ONE FOR IRISHMEN IN IRELAND.

OTHERS KEEP OFF

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 20.—Sir Auckland Geddes, the newly appointed British Ambassador to the United States, arrived in New York late yesterday, and left immediately for Washington.

Sir Auckland gave out a statement in which he said the British Government is convinced the only solution of the Irish question is "to place fairly and squarely on the shoulders of Irishmen in Ireland the constitutional responsibility of finding for themselves within the frame work of the British Empire the solution of their political differences.

"Under the new Home Rule Bill," the Ambassador said, "it will be the duty of all British subjects who are not domiciled in Ireland to stand aside and leave all who live there to solve the problem.

"It will also be helpful if the men in all parts of the world, who are not British subjects, but are interested in Ireland, likewise to stand aside." he concluded.

OPENING OF WELL BABIES CLINIC NEXT TUESDAY

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the "Well Babies Clinic" next Tuesday afternoon and evening, in the G.W.V.A. Hall

The committee have done their part well, and have spared no trouble to make the whole enterprise an immense success. Dr. Birnie and Mrs. A. E. Coulthard have spent much time and effort in getting together the necessary equipment, and they have been so successful that everything is in readiness, [illegible] and for the work to be carried on each week afterwards.

Mrs. Hardtone, Mrs. Kendry, and Mrs. Thomas, have with their splendid workers covered the whole city, in a canvass to ascertain the addresses and etc., of each child under four years of age. This has meant an enormous amount of work, but it has been well and cheerfully done.

Mrs Carmichael has organized the nurses and V.A.D.'s for work, and in fact every committee has done splendid work.

Now gentle reader, your part is to be there at the opening next Tuesday afternoon and evening.

The exhibit and demonstration on the opening day, will do more to make the whole matter clear to you, than any amount of reading, and you will come away, filled with enthusiasm for Baby Welfare work.

Bring your baby, if you have one, if not help somebody to come who has.

ENTHUSIASTIC SEND-OFF FOR BISHOP M. J. O'BRIEN

BIG INCREASE IN THE POPULATION OF GREATER WINNIPEG

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 20.—Winnipeg's official population is 192,571, an increase of 9,130 over last year, according to a statement prepared by the City Assessor. This does not include half a dozen adjoining towns. The population of Greater Winnipeg is estimated at 240,000.

G.T.R. STATION WAS PACKED WITH REPRESENTATIVE GATHERING OF CITIZENS OF ALL CREEDS AND CLASSES.

A PRESENTATION

Amid cheers which shook the platform and yet which covered many a sorrowful heart, His Lordship Bishop M. J. O'Brien departed last evening at 9.45 for Rome, where he will present to His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV., a report of the Diocese of Peterboro.

Previous to leaving for the station large representations from the three Catholic Churches in the city assembled in the Cathedral, where the priests of the diocese, including Fathers McFadden, of Parry Sound; McCarthy, of Norwood; Ferguson, of Warkworth; John Leonard, of Galway; McGuire, of Keene; Michael O'Brien, of Lindsay; Meagher, of Lakefield; J. Sullivan, of Woolet; and Rev. C. J. Phelan, and Fathers Cote, Cantillon, Costello, J. J. O'Brien, Guiry and O'Brien, presented His Lordship with a purse containing $2,800.

The presentation was made by Monsignor Murray of Cobourg, while Monsignor Casey of Lindsay, read an address, saying in part:

Your Lordship: We have assembled to wish you Godspeed on your journey to the Holy City, after your seven years with us as Bishop, a duty which you would have performed some years ago had it not been for the war It brings us near to the heart of the Catholic Church to realize that the object of your visit is to present to Pope Benedict a report of your stewardship in this portion of the Lord's dominion, and we beg to express to your Lordship our appreciation of your efforts to further the spiritual and temporal welfare of your subjects. We have appreciated your quick grasp of the needs and possibilities of the diocese. We have ever been keenly alert to the needs for increased ranks of clergy to meet the needs of the diocese, helping in all ways possible in equipping the young men for the sacred ministry. Due to your efforts the ranks of the Sisterhood have been enlarged. Other works, forwarded by your Lordship, are the establishment of the Holy Name Society, the increased number at the Holy Eucharist, the increase in efficiency of the Primary school, and the establishment of the High School which has been the means of inducing an increased number of the young people to undertake the higher education so necessary in equipping themselves for the world.

Referring to the Pope, to whom His Lordship will report the loyalty of the diocese, the address said: The most sacred trust ever in the heart of man has been given to him, especially in the past six years, when through false accusations he has shown himself to be the Father and Ruler, not only of the Church but of all nations. Wherever there has been suffering or injustice—whether on one side or the other—there went his pity, protection and help. His labors have truly set up an imperishable record.

Your trip brings joy to the hearts of your priests who will be with you in spirit throughout your trip when you go to ask the blessing of the Holy Father, to witness the canonization of the Holy Saints, and to renew your happy associations of former visits in the Canadian College at Rome.

We ask you to accept this purse as a token of our reverence, devotion and esteem. It is our earnest hope and prayer that your journey may be without mishap and that you may return to us with renewed vigor.

The address was signed on behalf of the clergy of the Diocese.

Bishop's Reply.

In replying to the address His Lordship said in part:

Dear Fathers: I am grateful to you for your expression of good will as is evidenced not only in words but in the fact that you have seen to it that the expenses of my trip have been defrayed by yourselves. From your goodness of heart you have made this trip financially easy. I am also grateful for the response to Peter's Pence, which would not have been possible had it not been for your wonderful efforts.

He expressed his gratitude, not only for the words of the priests but for their cooperation with him during the years he had been their Bishop. You have referred, he said, to certain works of zeal and piety which you say are the result of my all too feeble efforts. These would have been impossible had it not been for your cooperation and the people's loyalty. All organizations must have a head but without members they would avail but little—without both little could be undertaken and brought to a successful conclusion. Nothing that has been undertaken by us has not been carried out. Go where you may you could not find a better body of priests than in my diocese. Though your efforts souls are going to be saved and brought near to God.

My trip to Rome is the first as Bishop and I am to tell the Holy Father of the conditions which ex-

GEDDES LANDS IN WASHINGTON

CONFRONTED WITH STACKS OF LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS.

(United Press.)

WASHINGTON, April 20. —For the first time in months a British Ambassador was in Washington today.

Sir Auckland Geddes, accompanied by Lady Geddes and attaches arrived from New York last night.

Geddes to-day was confronted by stacks of letters and telegrams from all parts of the United States, welcoming him to America and wishing him well in his efforts to strengthen friendship between this country and the British Empire.

DRUMMERS ARE MORE NUMEROUS

PETERBORO HOTEL ACCOMMODATION TAXED TO CAPACITY.

The influx of commercial men into the city this spring has been phenomenal according to proprietors of local hotels. There are a large number of returned men on the road this year and these together with the shut down of plants devoted to war work and their return to manufacturing staple commodities, has necessitated the reestablishment of their corps of salesmen.

There is probably 25 or 30 per cent. more men on the road this year than a couple of years ago, said a traveller to the Examiner to-day.

While the army of commercial men has increased, hotel accommodation has decreased considerably since the licenses were taken away, an dth high cost of building has also curtailed any building along this line.

Throughout the entire Dominion the situation seems to be the same, and it is a common occurrence for them to have to spend the night on a cot in the shelter of a screen in a hotel corridor, or in some other available space.

The general good business conditions have increased the number of business men travelling. The high cost of keeping house, the servant problem, have driven families to the refuge of the hotel, adding to the number of guests, and when the tourist rtade opens up in this district, as it is expected to do in unprecedented numbers soon, our hotels will be taxed to capacity.

4TH BATTERY TO BEGIN RECRUITING

CAPT. DOUGLAS HUYCKE, OF PETERBORO, IS TO COMMAND POPULAR ARTILLERY UNIT.

The organisation of the 4th Battery, C.F.A., is now well under way, and recruiting for this popular artillery unit, which bears the number of one of the most famous batteries that served in France will commence at the Artillery Orderly Room in the Armouries to-morrow (Wednesday) night.

All former members of the 4th Battery, as well as all former artillerymen in the city, and any young men anxious to join this attractive branch of the service, are cordially invited to identify themselves with this unit.

Capt. Douglas Huycke will be the officer commanding the 4th Battery, while the other officers include Lieut. Mervin Huycke, Lieut. D. Lawrie, M.C., Lieut. J. L. Kenneally, D.C.M., Lieut. W. Stevenson, and Lieut. A. L. Wilson—all of whom saw service in France

The 4th Battery expects to go into camp at Pettewawa this summer.

Four limber waggons have arrived in town, and are being unloaded today, while the guns are expected immediately. Undoubtedly the 4th Battery will prove a very attractive unit, and will have little difficulty in securing its complement of men.

CONFERENCE OF THE SUPREME COUNCIL

Italian Press Comment Indicates Confidence in Outcome.

(United Press.)

ROME, April 20. — The San Remo Conference of the Supreme Council "absolutely must end in a just solution of the vital problems confronting Italy," said La Epocha to-day, adding that only through such action could Italy hope to complete the demobilisation of the Army, and so effect a saving of about seven billion lire.

"La Tribuna published an interview with Premier Nitti, in which he expressed optimism regarding the domestic situation, and said he was firmly convinced the San Remo conference would end the present unrest.

The Corriere D'Italia said the conference is worthy of economic value.

Housing Matters

WILL PROVIDE FOR THE SALE OF BUILDING DEBENTURES.

The finance Committee of the City Council met last night with Alderman J. J. Turner in the chair, Mayor McIntyre, Aldermen Hamilton and Alderman Morrison present. Messrs. J. W. Worth and John Edgar represening the Woodmen of the World asked for a grant of $200 towards the expenses of entertaining the Head Camp of the Woodmen of the World which meets in Peterboro in June with about 300 delegates from all parts of the Dominion present. The committee moved that a cheque for $200 be issued to Sherwood Camp by the Treasurer.

Housing Problem.

Messrs. G. H. Duncan, G. A. Gillespie, J. W. [illegible] and G. A. Cameron who were appointed a committee several weeks ago at the joint meeting of the Board of Trade to look into the matter of the sale of the debentures for building houses under the Ontario Housing Act met the committee. The matter was discussed and the committee were authorized to make arrangements for the sale of the debentures.

It was moved by Alderman Hamilton seconded by Alderman Morrison that the chairman be authorized to advertise or invite tenders for the sale of the Hunter street bridge, Public School and Nashua Gummed and Coated Paper Co. debentures. The motion carried. These debentures represent respectively $260,000, $240,000 and $57,000.

The Mayor moved seconded by Alderman Hamilton that $50 be placed at the disposal of the Housing Commission for expenses and that the accounts be paid when certified by the chairman of the commission and the chairman of the Finance Committee The motion was endorsed by the members and carried.

GOOD PRICES FOR THE FARMERS

WILL TAKE TWO BIG CROPS TO CATCH UP.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 20. — Farmers throughout Canada will continue to get good prices for their products during the next two years, according to the opinion of Dr. W. J. Robertson, who addressed the Parliamentary Committee on Agricultural and Colonization to-day. It would take at least two big crops to catch up to anything like normal supplies of breadstuffs, ten years to attain pre-war statutes on milk products, and four or five years for beef products. Dr. Robertson reiterated statements that prices were entirely dependent upon world conditions. Announcement was made that the Federal government intends to send representatives overseas to watch European markets.

ANGRY MAN THREATENS TO SHOOT UP THE YORK COUNCILLORS AT MEETING

INCENSED BY REBUKE OF REEVE MILLER, WHIPS OUT REVOLVER —ONE COUNCILLOR HIDES BEHIND UPTURNED OFFICE CHAIR —OTHERS BREAK FROM THE ROOM.

POLICE CALLED IN

TORONTO, April 20. — With a shout of, "This is a forty-four. Now I will get justice," Harry Hayes of 167 Rosethorn avenue yesterday afternoon whipped out a revolver and held up the entire Council of York Township. There was a hasty scramble for cover among the members of the Council and the reporters present, and had Reeve Fred Miller not been fortunate enough to make his escape from the Council chamber into the outer office it is possible that a tragedy might have occurred. One staid member of the Council sought refuge behind an upturned office chair, through the perforated bottom of which he viewed the entire proceedings.

After waving his gun for a minute or two at the Council, Hayes slipped it again into his pocket, and this action was the signal for a general exodus of members from the Council chamber, made with more haste than decorum. Locking the door so that he could not escape, they immediately notified the police. Police Constables Jarvis and Gibson from No. 1 Station were rushed to the scene, and Hayes was immediately arrested on a charge of pointing a revolved. His only statement when arrested was: "This is not the end of this. There was a purpose in this."

Asked for Reeve.

The reason for Hayes' action is at present a mystery, unless it be that he is mentally unbalanced. Yesterday morning at ten o'clock he had appeared at the office of York Township and inquired when the Chairman of the Council would be in. On being told by Mr. Martin, the Assistant Clerk, that Reeve Miller would be at the meeting of the Township Council at 2.30, Hayes went off, to appear again punctually at 2.30 o'clock.

After sitting quietly in the Council chamber for about half an hour while the ordinary routine business of the Council proceeded, Hayes was invited by Reeve Miller to state his case to the Council. On receiving this invitation, Hayes' first request was that the lady typist might be sent out of the Council chamber. Though the request was somewhat unusual, Reeve Miller complied with it, and the girl was told to go into the outer office.

Aggrieved Over Culvert.

"I am going back to 1914," were the next words of Hayes, "when I installed at my own expense, a culvert at my house on Rosethorn avenue, after you had refused to put in for me." Following this statement was a mass of irrelevant detail regarding the installation of the culvert its construction and its size.

"We are not interested in that," said Second Deputy Reeve Graham. "So far as we can see it has no bearing on the question, and our time is precious. Omit that and get down to business." This rebuke evidently nettled Hayes. He fell to abusing the council and was immediately ordered by Miller to take his seat, as he could not cast aspersions on the Council.

"I will not sit down," said Hayes. "I came here for justice, and justice I will have."

"If you do not conduct yourself in a proper manner," replied Reeve Miller, "we will send for a policeman, and have you arrested."

Produces Revolver.

"Send for him then," yelled Hayes, as he slipped his hand into the pocket of his overcoat. "This is a forty-four. Now I will have justice."

And the astonished members of the Council found themselves looking down the barrel of the weapon. His action seemed chiefly directed against Reeves Miller and Graham, against whom he evidently thought he had a grudge and had they not escaped into the outer office it is difficult to say what might have occurred.

On February 23 Hayes became involved in a law suit with two of his neighbors over the culvert he had installed, Hayes claiming that his neighbors had by the erection of an obstruction, flooded him out and rendered the culvert inoperative. The statement was not supported by the facts and Hayes lost the case.

Apparently Maniac Reeves.

It is thought he had conceived the idea that the Council were in some way responsible for his defeat, particularly as Reeves Miller and Graham happened to be present in the court when the case was tried, and he had apparently been nursing his wrath ever since.

While waiting for the police Hayes raved and stormed that it was justice that he wanted. "Justice for what?" said Councillor Macdonald, who had stayed in the Council Chamber. "You have not told us yet what you want." "You know well enough what I want," shrieked Hayes, "and I'll get it—I'll get him yet. You have defrauded me of my rights."

Hayes is a man of about 35 or 40, clean shaven and with jet black hair and black eyes.

CALGARY'S PUBLIC UTILITIES HAD A SUCCESSFUL YEAR

(Special to The Examiner.)

CALGARY, Alta., April 20.—Calgary's mutually owned public utilities made money last year. The Light and Power Department reports a net surplus of $24,210; the Street Railway $42,232; and the Water Department $9,742.

All three departments made considerable capital expenditures during the year, meeting the costs as they developed.

WILL HEED THE ALLIED DEMAND

THE GERMAN CIVIC GUARDS TO BE DISBANDED.

(Canadian Press)

BERLIN, April 20.—The disbandment of German civic guards demanded in the Allied note of 13th March has been decided upon by the Berlin Government.

In a note to General Nollet, head of the Allied Commission of Control here, the Government states it is taking this step "under pressure exercised by those who ignore actual facts."

The assertion is also made that there was no idea of using civic guards for military purposes. Every precaution had been taken to avoid employing them in this way, while the guards during the recent troubles performed valuable protective services, the note says.

"The Government," it continues, "cannot but recognise that stipulations of the Peace Treaty compel it to deny to the population every possibility of protection which in the present extraordinary circumstances, is essential for the maintenance of Germany's internal security and the fulfillment of the terms of the Treaty." In conclusion, the Government says it will examine what permissible organisations can serve to this end, and will maintain local protective character of such forces, avoiding centralisation of military organisations.

SETBACK FOR STRIKE FEVER

BOARD WILL HEAR WAGE DEMANDS —TRAFFIC IMPROVES.

(United Press.)

CHICAGO, April 20.—Strike fever among railroad employees suffered a setback to-day when thirty thousand railroad clerks and eight thousand freight handlers in the Chicago district, announced their decision to permit a hearing of their wage demands by the Railroad Labor Board at Washington. Freight movement in Chicago district continued to increase to-day and elsewhere in the middle west and far west, traffic conditions were returning to normal. Possibility of another serious blow to railroads in Chicago loomed with the threat that a hundred thousand members of the Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way and Railroad Shop Laborers would quit work on April 28, unless demands for temporary increase of a dollar a day and other benefits were granted.

CATTLE MARKET

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, April 20.—Cattle receipts light, trade quiet. Heavy beef steers, $14 to $15.25. Butcher steers, choice, $13.50 to $14.50. Butcher cows, medium, $8 to $10.50. Calves, $17 to $21.50. Ewes, $10 to $16. Lambs, $17 to $21. Hogs fed and watered, $20.50 to $21.

Allied Powers Approve

WILL USE THE BIG STICK ON GERMANY IF PEACE TREATY IS NOT CARRIED OUT.

WITHHOLD FOOD

(Canadian Press.)

SAN REMO, April 20.—All Allied powers concerned now have approved the form of collective representations to be made to the Berlin government regarding the execution of the Versailles treaty. The declaration is regarded as an ultimatum, and probably no time limit will be set for Germany's reply. If she refuses to comply with the terms of the treaty regarding disarmament, the Allies will be unable to continue relations re-established by the peace treaty. Strong representations will be made likewise regarding continuance of insurrections in Germany and the prospect will be held out of withholding of food and other necessities in event of development of a counter-revolutionary movement. The Charge D'Affaires of the Allies nations will probably be instructed to call at once at the Wilhelmstrasse, and deliver the declaration. Italy's approval of representations, which had not been immediately forthcoming was received today.

Turkish Treaty.

(United Press.)

SAN REMO, April 20.—The Turkish Treaty will be presented to the Ottoman delegates in Paris May 10, it was announced officially. Trebizond will remain Turkish and will not be awarded to Armenia, it was learned authoritatively last night. The Allied communication of President Wilson on the Turkish Treaty will be divided into two parts, it was learned. The first section will deal with the general principles insuring the treaty, while the second will give specific reason for each decision and reply to the American President's observations, particularly as to why the Allied leaders have decided Trebizond must remain Turkish.

The Council of Premiers late yesterday took up the financial clauses of the Turkish pact and called in experts to get advice on some sections. The last part of the sitting was devoted to the disposition of Kurdist, which was considered the most difficult, because of the divergence of opinion among the population. Part of the Kurds, the Allied leaders have been advised, demand complete independence, while others wish to remain under Turkish rule. The question probably will be settled by mandates over the district being awarded to one or more powers.

WAX MODEL WRECKED— FIRM SUES RAILWAY

When a Grand Trunk passenger train ran off the rails near Uxbridge a couple of weeks ago it gave grounds for a novel damage claim.

A commercial traveller, representing a millinery firm of the city, had along with him in his sample cases a fine model fashioned in wax, and the possessor of a head of hair usually known as auburn. Although no one on the train was hurt, barring being shaken up, the shaking up proved the ruin of the model, and nothing remained except some sections of wax still clinging to the wig.

The millinery firm now ask $35 damages for the model, and also claim loss of business through the traveller not having with him a suitable model upon which to display his ladies' hats in a manner likely to tempt the discriminating buyers.

FORMER LOCAL MAN HONOURED

WALTER J. FRANCIS RECEIVES APPOINTMENT.

Many men from Peterborough have gone out into the centres of business and professional activity and have risen in the financial and professional world. The names of Cox, Wood, Flavelle and others are familiar. Now comes an addition to the list, in Mr. Walter J. Francis, of Montreal. His many friends in Peterborough will be more than pleased to learn of his recent professional advancement and deserved recognition as a consulting engineer and specialist in hydraulic and constructional propositions.

Mr. Francis left Peterborough fourteen years ago to take up professional work, establishing himself at Montreal, and associating with himself Mr. Frederick B. Brown, M. Sc., operating under the firm title of Walter J. Francis & Company, Consulting Engineers. The firm took over many projects and propositions, including water developments of a power character and also of civic supply. One of these was the establishment of an additional water system for the city of Moose Jaw, Saska

At the time of the fall of the first erected Quebec bridge, Mr. Francis was retained by the Dominion Government as one of the experts to examine and report on the possible causes of failure and to suggest steps to be taken to build a bridge that would meet the conditions and ensure permanent communication. His report was a valuable contribution to the mass of evidence relative to the failure of the structure.

While living in Peterborough Mr. Francis was for a time engaged as specialist in steel construction with the Central Steel and Bridge Works, and afterwards gave service while the Lift Lock was under construction.

In connection with his further preference, the Montreal Star, in a late issue says:—

"Another step in the aqueduct work was taken yesterday afternoon when the Administrative Commission announced the appointment of the Board of Supervising Engineers who will take charge of the work.

They are A. E. Doucet, director of Public Works, Walter J. Francis, President of the Canadian Engineering Institute, and R. S. Lea, one of the experts who has been engaged in drawing up the report on which the proposed work is based. Each of these consulting engineers will receive $10,000 per year. The board will have charge of all plans and supervise the works."

It may be added that this aqueduct proposition is one that has caused anxiety and enormous expense at Montreal, in connection with an efficient water supply, and that it is now proposed to tackel the proposition from a new angle and bring it to completion. The responsibility for the safe completion of the work is thus placed in competent hands.

Mr. Francis has been for years an ardent member of the Masonic Fraternity, and has risen in the Order to receive the gift of many of the most responsible positions. The most recent of these is instanced in his election as Grand First Principal of the Grand Chapter of Province of Quebec (Royal Arch Masons), an honor which is not lightly bestowed and for which there is always an ample field from which to select. The position is one that evidences the fraternal esteem in which he is held.

To those who appreciate the element of continuity in society affiliation and membership it may be noted that on the 17th inst., Mr. Francis journeyed to Toronto to be present at the ceremony in one of the local Masonic Lodges, of the initation of his son, the son's great grandfather, grandfather and father all having been initiated and being members of this lodge. The ceremony of the evening of the 17th completing taking in of the fourth generation.

The Importance of an Easy-Running Bicycle for the Boy

A "BUNCH" of joyous boys and girls on a bicycle ride! How they do breeze along the smooth, level stretches! What fun! What exhilaration!

But pity that poor boy on the hard-running bike. How he has to pull on the handles and push on the pedals to keep up with those on the easy-running C.C.M. Bicycles. It's no joy ride for him.

And the strain is always there, to some extent, even when he only runs errands on his hard-running bike.

Overtaxing the strength of a growing boy or girl is to be avoided. It might lead to serious consequences.

Be safe. Buy your boy a C. C. M.

C. C. M. Bicycles for boys and girls are built of the same high grade materials and with the same skilled workmanship as the adult models.

They have the same special construction that gives the easy-running direct line drive—

The same case-hardened polished bearings that turn so smoothly.

The same strong, safe "Fish-mouth" reinforced frame.

And, of course, they have the new Hercules Positive Drive Brake—the Coaster Brake without a side arm.

There's a light, strong, easy-running bicycle waiting for your boy or girl at the C. C. M. dealer's right now. He will be glad to show it to you.

Also ask to see the new 18-inch Curved Bar Model—the bicycle the boy won't outgrow.

TUESDAY, APRIL 20TH, 1920.

A WISE DECISION.

The extension of the time for the manufacture, importation and sale of oleomargarine in Canada, as proposed by a resolution fathered by Hon. Dr. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, is a step in the right direction. There has been a feeling on the part of some of those directly interested in the butter trade that oleomargarine should be barred, now the country has returned to peace conditions, but the majority of the dairymen have been convinced that their interests have not been injured by the introduction of margarine, and they are not likely to offer any active opposition to the extension of the time. As a matter of fact the price of butter has been so high that many families have been forced to do without it, and oleomargarine has proved an acceptable substitute. The dairy interests have not been affected on this account, for the people in question would not have purchased butter even if a substitute had not been on sale—they would simply have had to get along without butter. Oleomargarine has become a necessity, and the decision to permit its sale until 1922 is in the interests of the people.

A BOXING COMMISSION.

The placing of boxing under the control of an athorized commission in Ontario, which is to be made legal by a bill introduced by Hon. Col. Carmichael, will be hailed with delight by all lovers of the many sport. The feeling in regard to boxing has taken a great change in recent years. There were many who looked upon the sport as degrading and brutalising in its effects—and probably there are still some who hold this opinion—but the majority of the people have found that it possesses many virtues. The suggestion of Dr. Bruce Macdonald that boxing should be taught in Canadian schools shows the transformation that has been made in public opinion.

The creation of a commission to control boxing is a necessary step in the improvement of the sport, for it will ensure that the public shall see legitimate, fairly fought contests. Boxing will be placed on a much higher level as a result, for the fake bouts that have unfortunately injured the prestige of the game will be impossible with a commission in charge. A competent commission should be secured, for much will depend upon the personel of the body that is given control of the sport in the province.

BACK YARD GARDENS.

Those who are in the best position to judge declare that Canada's food production this year should, if possible, exceed the best efforts made by the Dominion during the war years. Greater production is still the advice of the experts and a continuance of the present high prices is prophesied. In view of these facts the general adoption of the back yard garden scheme that proved so effective during the latter years of the war and that was abandoned by many people last year, would seem to be a necessity. No drop in the price of vegetables is to be expected this year, and if the task of raising sufficient food products is left to the farmer and the market gardener there is a possibility that a scale even higher than last year may be looked for. A private vegetable garden would provide not only healthful exercise, but a very welcome addition to the family assets, and the experience of the hundreds of citizens who tried the experiment during the war was sufficiently satisfactory to warrant a repetition of the plan. A back yard garden faithfully looked after will do more to reduce the cost of living than all the overall and calico clubs in existence.

THE OVERALL CAMPAIGN.

The overall epidemic, which, starting in the Southern United States cities as a protest against the high cost of clothing, has swept rapidly northward, has not yet reached Peterborough, but as Ontario has been invaded this city will probably before long be caught by the infection. Although it is too early to prophesy as to whether or not the attack will reach epidemic proportions in this city. The "Don the Denim" campaign has been received with surprising enthusiasm in the centres to which it spread. Bankers, business men, clerks, government employees, men in all walks of life have eagerly joined the local clubs, promising to wear nothing but garments made of overall material until the cost of clothing shows a substantial decrease. So far there has been no sign of a drop in the price of clothing and there has been an increase of 200 per cent. in the cost of overalls, but the enthusiasm of the denim wearers is still high. What the ultimate effect of the movement will be it is difficult to say. Some critics of the scheme pronounce it a passing fad that will soon be forgotten. Others hail it as the dawn of a new era in which less attention will be paid to the dictates of fashion and more to comfort and economy. If it will lead to an elimination to some extent of the carnival of extravagance that has swept over America as a result of a war-created prosperity, the overall campaign will be generally acclaimed.

A PPERPETUAL MEMORIAL.

The suggestion advanced by Secretary Whatley of the Peterborough branch of the Great War Veterans' Association at the regular meeting last night that a memorial church parade on the Sunday nearest to the anniversary of the second battle of Ypres be made a permanent fixture is one that should be heartily endorsed and supported. The Great War Veterans have of their own accord adopted this means of commemorating the bravery of the Canadians at Ypres and the memory of the men who fell in that engagement, but as Secretary Whatley pointed out, the time will come when there will be no veterans of the present war to carry out this duty. Accordingly, he suggests that the co-operation of the various militia units and of the Boy Scouts be secured, and that a union church parade be held each year, if possible in the open air and in the afternoon so as to permit of the largest possible atendance, the offering to be used for relieving cases of distress arising among the dependents of the men who fought. In this way new generations of Canadians will commemorate each year the battle of Ypres, and the story of that epic engagement will be kept ever verdant in the minds of the people. The Peterborough Rangers and other militia units will undoubtedly be glad to cooperate in this splendid plan, and the Ypres day memorial service will be permanently adopted. It should be one of the most important anniversaries in Canadian history, and Secretary Whatley's proposal, which will be developed further at a future meeting, will undoubtedly commend itself to the citizens generally as something that should be enthusiastically supported.

PUBLIC EXPENDITURE.

When the farmers' government assumed office in Ontario last October it pledged itself to a policy of strict economy. The budget brought down on Tuesday is, however, the largest ever presented to the Ontario Legislature, and this with other evidence warrants the conclusion that the new administration has found that the reduction of public expenditures is a reform which can be accomplished only with the greatest difficulty. From the negative position taken last fall the government has switched to a constructive policy. In the words of the provincial treasurer, Hon Peter Smith, "it doesn't make any difference whether the province of Ontario has a deficit this year or not. We show a deficit of a million and a half dollars. But what difference does it make if the government goes on? We have got to go on and do our duty by the province of Ontario, and it is utterly impossible for anybody to estimate what the expenditures are going to be. They are increasing every day."

The administration of the affairs of a Canadian province is now a very complicated undertaking, and it is only from within the Cabinet offices that the most comprehensive view of its extent is obtained. Continuous public expenditure on some line of development creates vested interests in the persons of the employees and others who benefit by the expenditures, and sets up new ways of doing business in the industry to which it relates. The question of finance must however set a limit to the activity of any government department, and the treasury office is, therefore, one which exercises a measure of control over the whole administration. The annual expenditure is a fair measure of the scope of government activity; whether the benefits created are comparable with the expenditure is another question.

Public pressure on a government is almost always in the direction of further expenditures. Plausible arguments in support of new expenditures are easily supplied by the few whose special interest lies in that direction, while the general taxpayers are weak-voiced and many. The economy platform at first presented by the Ontario government was, however, the germ of a wise and possibly successfully administration, for the real problems for the present day are fundamental and cannot be solved by Government action. Public sentiment no longer expects a political solution for difficulties which lie outside the sphere of government control and the state can render the most assistance by reducing the financial strain to the minimum.—Monetary Times.

"DOUG. AND LITTLE MARY"

ACCUSED OF GIVING FALSE TESTIMONY.

RENO, Nev., April 20.—Mary Pickford, Owen E. Moore and Douglas Fairabnks are named as joint conspirators to defeat the objects of the Nexava and California marriage and divorce laws in an action filed in the district court at Minden, Douglas county, by Leonard E. Fowler, attorney-general of Nevada. The court is asked to annul the decree of divorce granted to Miss Pickford on March 2, 1920. The complaint accuses hre of giving false testimony and reciting that the only evidence she gave that bore the stamp of truth was that relative to her marriage to Owen Moore and about her temporary residence in Nevada.

Moore, the complaint alleges, conspired with his wife to defeat the intent of the Nevada law by coming to Minden for the sole purpose of accepting service so as to confer jurisdiction on the coutr.

Fairbanks is brought into the proceedings through allegations that he and Miss Pickford, by engaging and agreeing to wed, sought to defeat the California law on marriage and divorce, which provided that one year shall elapse after an interlocutory decree of divorce is granted before either party to the suit shall be free to wed.

The complaint, which contains 7,000 words, contends that the subsequent marriage of Miss Pickford and Fairbanks at Los Angeles is a circumstance which confirms the allegations of conspiracy and fraud on their part.

Robert Richards, deputy attorney-general, who prepared the complaint, announced that Frank P. Langan, district judge who granted the decree, wil be called as a witness by the state. This will disqualify him from hearing the case, and as a result a judge from another district in the state will be called in to preside at the hearing. Judge Langan will eb asked to substantiate the allegations made the state that Miss Pickford sought to deceive the court by posing under a fictitious identity. The judge will testify that a few minutes before she took the witness stand in the divorce case and while in the court room Mrs. Moore was introduced to him as Miss Gladys Smith.

Service in the case will be made by publication, but California attorneys repreaenting the interested parties, have been in Carson frequently during the last ten days.

Better Belting with Efficiency "Built In"

Efficiency is a result—in our belting it is the culmination of thousands of experiments and tests over a belt-building period of fifty years.

The outstanding factor in creating transmission efficiency in our Dominion Friction Surface Belting is our special friction rubber compound with which the entire belt is saturated. This special friction compound gives our belts a pulley-gripping quality that prevents practically all wastage of power through slippage.

Dominion Friction Surface Belting

will transmit all the power that any belt can be made to transmit.

Every ounce of material that goes into Dominion Friction Surface Belting is carefully tested by our experts to make sure that it is up to our high standard.

Each individual operation is checked as the belt proceeds from one machine to the other, and a sample of the finished belt is tested both chemically and physically to prove that it will efficiently serve the purpose for which it was made. This "Built-in Efficiency" is backed by the service of our belting engineers, who are ready to demonstrate its value without charge or obligation.

ROSE IS TACTLESS

CHAPTER CI

Rose came in about ten minutes before Everett got home. We were chatting in my room, and he called up and asked if he might join us. I was so astonished for a moment I couldn't answer, for altho he had been very nice to Rose this time, I had thought it was simply to make up to her for his actions the time she visited me before.

He had brought us a box of candy, and each of us a lovely corsage bouquet for the evening.

"Now tell me what you have been doing all day, you two. You look as fresh as a rose, Miss Grandon." He gave her an admiring look.

"We shopped all the morning, then this afternoon I proposed we rest as we were going out to-night. "Rose had flashed me a warning glance. But even had she not, I would not have mentioned meeting Walter Kemp, or that she had met him again for tea. I felt hurt that Everett had said nothing complimentary to me after saying something nice to Rose.

Rose was not a tactful girl. After Everett left us to dress for dinner she said:

"I notice you still decorate the wall with Number One."

Everett thinks it would cause comment if I had it taken down.

"I should be more apt to think he loved to see it, than to care what people said. He doesn't strike me like the kind of man to care much about what others think of anything he might do."

"He isn't usually," I admitted flushing.

"Have you got used to being Number two, Sandra?" she asked after a moment. "I don't believe I ever could. I would be thinking of her all the time. If my husband kissed me, or said nice things to me, I would think he used to say the same to her, and first. I guess that is what would hurt me, not being first. It is a good thing you haven't my disposition. I would have thrown those pictures of Number One out the very day I came there."

"Oh, no you wouldn't!" I replied thoughts of Everett in my mind. "You think you would, but when it came right down to it, you would not want to hurt your husband's feelings. But Rose, you must be careful," I changed the subject. "Everyone knows Walter Kemp, and you will get talked about if you go around with him. They say he only admires one woman or girl until another comes along."

"I'll look out for myself as far as he is concerned. No we must go and dress I want to look nice. I told him we were going, and he said"—she blushed and hesitated.

"What did he say that makes you blush so?"

"He said he would have to go also and watch his divinity from afar. Wasn't that a lovely thing to say to me?"

"Perhaps —I guess Everett would think it silly."

"Of course he would. Everett's old!"

Rose ran away then to dress, leaving me with a feeling that I almost hated her. She had made me unhappy first by talking of Leola, calling me Number Two, and then she had expressed what I had felt so many times: that when Everett kissed me or said nice things to me, it was only a repetition of what he had done and said when Leola was with him. I did not mind so much what she said about the pictures. I had overcome that feeling to a certain extent, and n'tt" t,iu foshoc RwaonN 'u h- sometimes would forget all about them—until some one called them to my attention.

Then what she had said just before she left me. She had thought that a wonderful compliment of Kemp's —and, to tell the truth, so did I. I would have been delighted could I have had one like it paid me. But she had said, without in any way softening her words!

"Of course Everett would think such a compliment was silly," and had added: "Everett's old!"

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Don't use prepared shampoos or anything else, that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulsified cocoanut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Dear Editor:—

Just a few words in your paper to ask the citizens of Peterboro one or two questions.

On looking through your paper I find a number of ambitious men who are seeking to start a business of their own, such as painter, carpenter, electrician, plumbers. Now I wonder how many of these men are encouraged and how many receive enough work to keep them going.

For my part I always like to give my work to the fellows just starting out, anyway a trial job, and if he proves satisfactory, alright.

You know, generally people are in the habit of calling up the first one they think of, which naturally is a big firm, well, that's all right, there's nothing I've got to say about the bigger firms but what I mean is why don't people give some of the Little Fellows a chance and so encourage them more. They have to live. So the next time you want something done to your house or store look through the paper and take notice of the small ads—sometime you may want to start a business yourself, or maybe you did make a start and know the struggle at first to get along, so come on, let's help the Little Fellows a little more.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the space in your paper, I remain,

SUCCESS.

YOU WILL NOT GET THE "FLU"

If You Build Up Your Run-Down Condition

It Attacks People Who Are All Worn Out, Anaemic, Devitalized and Weak

Strong People Never Get Influenza

During every epidemic it is the worn out, run-down, overworked, debilitated men, women and children who so quickly fall a prey to the ravages of disease.

When, therefore, an epidemic is imminent why not use a little precaution and build up the tired out, run-down overworked, devitalized members of your family by giving them VINOL.

Vinol is nothing that acts so quickly as a tonic reconstructor. It makes rich corpuscles, enriches the blood, quickens the circulation, sharpens the appetite, promotes sound sleep, and imparts strength, vitality and energy to every organ and muscle in the body.

Your physician recommends VINOL and your druggist agrees to return your money if it fails to benefit.

For all run-down, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children there is no remedy like VINOL.

MANIA FOR DANCE ALREADY ON WANE

Anne Pavlowa Predicts That the World Craze is Doomed.

By ANNE PAVLOWA, the Dancer.

LONDON, April 20.—The world dancing craze is doomed. There will be an early abandonment of the fad in England. In Paris the mania for the dance is already on the wane.

People are still dancing everywhere in this country. They found war very tiring and depressing, and now there is a little moment for joy. The dance is the mirror of the emotions.

Just now people are free, and have a more independent expression. In the past the conception of new things came over so slowly and the old cv. daehanis....dT hmsd Ohba...ea ET dances have lived through the generations. With the inevitable reaction from the present feverish emotion will come a world-wide revulsion from the jazz.

SOONER KNIT AT HOME THAN GO TO THE MOVIES

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., April 20.—A knitting needle and a ball of yarn formed the cause for the most remarkable suit ever brought by a wife in Supreme Court Justice Morschauser's court. Mrs. Polly Willoughby was given a separation from her husband, John B. Willoughby, a Dobbs Ferry merchant, because, as he frankly declared, he could not and would not live with her. His reason for this was that she preferred to knit at home instead of going with him to the movies.

"She told me to go out at night, and then jawed me when I returned home," said Willoughby. He had no objection to paying the $80 monthly alimony the court allowed his wife.

CLEOPATRA

(A PROTEST.)

To the Editor, Examiner:

Dear Sir,—May I voice as briefly as possible in your excellent paper my opinion of this photo-play. I am not a devotee of the picture shows, but my children, in common with the majority of young people, make a practice of going once a week, and it has occurred to me that as parents we should seek to ascertain what our young people have presented to them, so on Saturday evening we accompanied them to the Empire to see Cleopatra. I did not go on purpose to find fault, but I am sorry to feel obliged to do so. The advertising for this photo play describes it as a defing production. Yes, truly! A woman would need to be very bold indeed to act the part of Egypt's ancient queen in the terrible excuse of a covering such as worn. We were pained at heart to have to sit and take in the scenes we did. Here is one remark we heard from a fellow just behind us. There were two of them and as Cleopatra was approaching Julius Caesar with her siren charm, nearer and nearer, in a terribly undressed condition, the situation got too tense for him and he said aloud, "Oh, Jesus Christ, keep quite a minute." This speaks for itself. Egypt's prostitute queen has long since been dead; let her and all such remain dead till the judgment day. Their influence on their own day and generation was bad enough. Why resurrect them to pollute our young people. Surely we parents have enough to contend with in the problem of morals as it is. Can we be surprised at what we read in the Examiner recently at the terrible conditions prevailing in the Public schools of Toronto and elsewhere. Public conscience must be aroused and something must be done, and picture shows and dance halls must be closed if they have nothing decent or uplifting to offer. No Board of Health will allow rotten food to be circulated and eaten. Why then this stuff for the mind.

Yours very truly,
ANXIOUS.

Stomach and Liver Trouble

Once the liver fails to filter the poisonous bile from the blood, there is a clogging up and poisoning of the whole system which causes many troubles to arise. Therefore, upon the liver, more than any other organ of the body, depends the general health.

Carelessness and neglect, and oftentimes wilful disregard of nature's laws will put the system out of sorts. The bowels become constipated, the liver inactive and the stomach upset. To bring the system back to its normal you should take Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. They liven up the liver, get the bowels back to their proper condition and tone up the stomach.

Mrs. G. L. Casbett, Enchant, Alta., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and have found them good for both stomach and liver troubles. I have told others about your valuable medicine and they have used them with good results.

"They are also good for headache."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

HOME CIRCLE COLUMN

Children lost! lost! lost! Hearken to the startled cry. Children lost! lost! Oh, men, your cities are full of them; and they are your children, your own tender little ones; mothers, the babies that lay in smiling innocence upon your bosoms; the dear, brave boys that looked up to you in perfect confidence and warm impulse love. Your homes are lonely without them, your hearts are hungry for their love. Oh, you miss them now; the darlings of other years; you want the little hands in your own once more; you want the warm kiss upon your aching brow. But life hurries on, and lost! lost! ever rings through the darkened aisles of time. One by one the drunkards' graves yawn wide and somebody's darling is gone. The midnight revel and the gambling den covers its ghastly dead, and the homes are in sackcloth and sorrow sits a familiar guest by many a hearthstone. Brave, beloved boys, noble men, fair-browed maidens, and mature womanhood. Oh, how they fall and perish; and the land is full of "Rachels weeping for their children who will not be comforted because they are not."

Parents, through lack of recognition of the individuality of children, often try to force their minds as a burglar opens a safe, using the jimmy of parental command as the dynamite of punishment. It is so much easier, so much more natural, so much more effective, to find the combination of the safe—the individuality of the child that is the key to its moral and mental processes and peculiarities! Then the mind opens the truth naturally, simply, automatically. A bud does not become a flower by irreverent fingers forcing its delicate petals apart; it requires merely self-revelation, self-development through self-activity, natural unfolding, normal growth in harmony with its environment.

With the exercise of much patience the model parent will gain the love and obedience of the child without harshness, or what someone has designated "physical persuasion," and instead of trying to beat goodness into children will make their natural tendencies and possibilities the subject of earnest study; then by kindness and gentleness, so train these as to secure a harmonious development, physical, mental, and moral, the normal activities will be directed into laudable channels and a desire created to do what is required.

HONEST OPINION

The Rev. "My personal opinion of Zam-Buk is that I know of nothing like it! Moving amongst sick people of my charge, I have proved it an absolute fact that for old wounds, cuts, eczema, and skin diseases, Zam-Buk is really marvellous."—Rev. A. D. MacLEOD, Harcourt, N.B.

The Magistrate "Eczema was my trouble, and I suffered for years. Tried practically everything, in vain! Zam-Buk cured me; and from the day the last sore would healed there has been no trace of return of the disease."—J. E. ARMSTRONG, J.P., Wellington, P.E.I.

The Nurse "Speaking professionally, I would apply Zam-Buk to all cases of eczema, ulcers, abscesses and allied diseases. I have proved Zam-Buk able to cure the worst cases"—[illegible]

Every school boy knows that a kite will not fly unless it has a string tying it down. It is just so in life. The man who is tied down by half a dozen blooming responsibilities and their mother, will make a higher and stronger fight than the bachelor, who having nothing to keep him steady is always floundering in the mud. If you want to ascend in the world, tie yourself to somebody.

Do not sit and ponder over trouble; you cannot dispel it by making yourself miserable. Never look into the future with despair; you cannot cross a bridge until you come to it. Don't harrow your mind over things that cannot be helped. Live confiding in the present. The past cannot be remedied, and you have yet to try the future.

We believe many lives are wrecked, not as much by the storms of life as by drifting with the tide and striking these rocks and coming in contact with the hidden sins and dangers along the shore. Push out in the deep water, head your barque up stream, none but lazy, indolent people drift with the tide.

In the family relation every one should always be at his best. The home ought to be a heaven. It ought to be as nearly heaven as is possible on earth. There should be no purposely withered flowers about the hearthstone and no purposely clouded sunbeams. Selfishness alone ought to be sufficient to make home conduct exemplary. Certainly all want a pleasant home. Certainly all want smiles instead of frowns.

* * *

The boy who looks upon his home as a place for the display of nervous irritation that comes from overwork, where everything is sacrificed to the love of show and no place is left for the angel of rest and peace, will leave it at his first opportunity, and at the same time his training has ill-fitted him to meet the great temptations outside.

* * *

It is said that one night, when some soldiers were shivering in the cold of winter a band struck up the familiar tune, "Home, Sweet Home!" then they all burst out sobbing, because the air went straight to their hearts. Yes! "There is no place like home." One of the sweetest words in the English language is that little word, "Home."

When the Nerves Give Out

Perhaps you have never fully realized the immense influence of the nervous system for pain and suffering when exhausted or for health and happiness when properly nourished.

Starved nerves produce brain fag, headache, sleeplessness, indigestion, and weakened functions of all the vital organs.

In healthful condition, the nervous system supplies the energy to run and control the whole machinery of the body.

The helpless, pitiable condition, mentally and physically, of the sufferer from extreme nervous exhaustion is the warning which tells us the importance of maintaining at all times the vigor of the nervous system.

As a restorative for the nerves there is no treatment so popular and so satisfactory as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

The proof of this statement is found in such letters as are quoted below

Headache

Mrs. R. H. Code, 108 John St. East, Smith Falls, Ont. writes:—"For the last few years I had been suffering from headaches and sleeplessness, and could feel that I was in a nervous, run-down condition. The children at times would cause me a great deal of trouble, and sometimes if they were noisy, it would seem as though I could not stand it. For a long time it was impossible for me to go to church or anywhere there was a crowd, because I would get almost blind and feel very dizzy, caused by weakness of the nerves. Some months ago through reading your Almanac, I was induced to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I secured some and found that in a very short time I was being benefitted, so I continued the treatment. Now I feel fine, can go to church or in a crowd anywhere without any difficulty. I can highly recommend the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to anyone suffering from nervousness, sleeplessness or run-down condition."

Twitching Nerves

Mrs. Amy Cooper, Carnegie St., Ingersoll, Ont. writes:—"Some three years ago, my daughter, who was then about thirteen years of age, seemed nervous and run-down. I gave her some medicine, but she did not get entirely well. Later, she got worse, the nervousness taking the form of a twitching and shaking of the arms, limbs and even her face at times. Sometimes these attacks would be so severe she could hardly hold her knife and fork while eating. I tried some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for her, but was so anxious about her that I did not give it a chance to do any good, but took her to the doctor. He gave her some pills, and some time later, as I did not see much difference in her condition, I said I thought the Nerve Food would do her more good, so I started her using it again. After using a few boxes, she was completely cured of her nervous trouble. She has grown, gained much in weight, and is looking fine and healthy. I am very grateful to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for what it has done for us."

Prostration

Mrs. Thomas Williamson, Picton, Ont. writes:—"For the last twenty years I have had trouble with my nerves. I suffered from sleeplessness, and of course my system was often in a run-down condition from nervousness. At different times when I would have severe attacks, I was under the Doctor's care, but this only gave me temporary relief. Twice I was to a Sanitarium in Toronto, where I secured some relief at the time. This past summer, I suffered from another nervous breakdown, and it was then that I commenced using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I took a treatment of this medicine, and can now get up in the morning and do my work, which was something I could not do previously, because I used to get strangely confused. My appetite is good, and I can sleep well, too. Generally speaking, I am so much better that I am proud of my improvement. I cannot speak too highly of the splendid results I have secured through the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

Indigestion

Mr. Judson H. Morse, Lequille, N. S. writes:—"I am glad to be able to say a few words in recommendation of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, because I have found it so very good for me and others. I came by my nervous trouble much by inheritance, and through my work. In '96 I was a nervous wreck, but the Doctor and [illegible] so I got along quite well until five years ago. I got in grippe and put through an awful winter and summer but a friend offered me some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food pills to try, and I found them to help me at once; so I have taken a number of boxes since that time and still find them good. Mother is in her 90th year, and has suffered a lot with neuralgia of the stomach and bowels, and was in a very bad state last summer, but I prevailed upon her to try the Nerve Food and it helped her even in her advanced years. The Doctor called my trouble Nervous Dyspepsia. I know of many who have taken the Nerve Food with good results. Mother thinks your Ointment excellent also."

RICHARD HALL & SON LIMITED

A SPANKING FAIR AT THE MOTOR FAIR

THE "BIG SIX" STUDEBAKER AND THE BRISCOE CARS MADE A SMART SHOWING IN THE ARMOURIES, RESULTING IN SALES.

It was interesting to watch prospective car owners circle round and round the smart exhibit of the "Big Six"-Studebaker and the Briscoe cars at the motor show. Tested and proved by flattering records times without number, both these spanking cars have developed popularity by their strength, riding comfort, beauty of line, quiet running case, and well contained reserve power, to stand as fitting testimonials to fast-growing buyers.

On the local road, speedway, or for for hill climbing, both cars have produced the endurance that thousands of their owners boast about—getting there swiftly—taking the bumps at a rapid rate—and with luxurious comfort and ease, it was little wonder that business visitors got "stalled" round this special exhibit

Among the sales recorded was a "Big Six" Studebaker to Mr. C. W. Cormack the well-known local superintendent of the Quaker Oats Co., and it was gratifying to learn that all the "Big Six" models available by Messrs. Fitzgerald and Eastwood, the local dealers, were disposed of, and that only orders for June delivery could now be booked.

In the Briscoe, there stands out a spirit of youth—alive with "pep"—and that never-say-die action, bred into it by its powerful motor—a car that thoroughly satisfies the year round. Several Briscoes found ready owners and bright prospects were slated for more.

PAYING WAGES INTO SAVINGS BANK ACCOUNT

LORD LEVERHULME ADOPTS IDEA WHICH HAS BEEN EMPLOYED IN CANADA—BENEFITS TO THE BANK.

(Financial Post)

The announcement that the big Lever Soap concern in England has adopted a system whereby wages of employees are paid into their bank accounts instead of in cash or by check is evidently regarded as the inauguration of a novel system to judge by the comments of some Canadian newspapers. Readers of this page may remember, however, that on several occasions I have described this system which has for some time been known and employed in this country, and have suggested that bank managers with accounts of large institutions might well recommend it to such customers. It has advantages to the employer and the employee and is a potent factor in getting into the deposits a larger share of the high wages which are now being paid.

Head office officials with whom I have discussed the matter have taken the attitude that the system has been adopted rather as a convenience to the customer than because it is paying business for the bank. But on this point the branch managers who have had to do with it at first hand do not agree; they consider it a factor in bringing profitable accounts. The head of a Toronto branch who has had experience with the system for some years states that he believes that it can be profitably employed as a business getter. He gave a practical illustration:

"Just recently," he stated, "a company for whom we have been carrying a pay list of about one hundred accounts in this way included another department with over fifty employees. The pay sheet ran about $9,000. The first day, about $2,600 of the total was withdrawn but I estimate from experience that at the end of the month there will be perhaps $3,600 of the total still on deposit."

"The majority of these accounts, perhaps, will not carry themselves," he continued, "but there will be a number which will represent substantial balances. Further, many of the new customers whose acounts are not profitable at present are young people whose earning power is increasing and who in the future will have substantial balances."

Reaching Big Earners

This manager emphasized that a few years ago it might have been a mistake to suggest such a system to big industrial concerns in connection with their pay sheets. But it was different to-day. The wage earners were now the best prospects the bank manager had for savings deposits. They were getting big pay and a service to the bank and the community could be performed in educating them to save. He believed that all managers with industrial accounts might most advisedly discuss the matter with the officers of the concerns looking to the adoption of the idea to the advantage of all concerned. Here is what Lord Leverhulme thinks of the plan:

"I am confident that our staff will find it so much easier to leave money in the bank than to take it to the bank. It will be more convenient to leave it there than to draw it out and spend it, as they no doubt would if they had it in their pockets. This will all tend to facilitate saving, and will be a hindrance to spending, and will make for success of each member of the staff."

The transfer system is quite acceptable to the employees when they once understand it and it has obvious advantages to the employer. There is no making out of checks or making up of pay envelopes with attendant dangers of errors and confusion and there is not the danger of robbery which must be always considered in transferring large sums of money from the bank to the paymaster's office.—J.W.T.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

INVESTIGATING A FIRE.

D. H. Seville, deputy provincial fire marshall, Toronto, was in the city on Friday making a careful investigation into the recent fire at the residence of Lt.-Col. G. H. Gillespie, Kingston. Mr. Seville's action was the result of representations from Kingston regarding the fire, but whether there was sufficient circumstantial evidence to warrant the conclusion that the fire was of incendiary origin, and what further action will be taken Mr. Seville declined to say.

UPWARD MARCH OF COST OF LIVING

Average Family Budget Shows Further Increase for March.

OTTAWA, April 20.—Prices of the commodities of life continued their steady march upward in the past month, increases being recorded in the cost of living branch of the Department of Labor in the prices of all commodities in general. Sugar advanced two cents per pound and potatoes thirty cents per bag. An average family budget in sixty cities of the Dominion is compiled by the Department at $15.98 for the month of March, as compared with $15.77 in February; $13.07 in March, 1919, and $7.68 in March, 1914. A sharp increase in the prices of building materials and metals is noted.

WILL SUIT OF LOCAL INTEREST AT COBOURG ASSIZES THIS WEEK

The following from the Port Hope Guide refers to a will suit which is of interest to many in Peterboro:

At the Assize Court to be held at Cobourg this week the suit instituted by certain heirs of the late Mrs. James Leverich, to have her will declared void, comes up for trial. The presiding Justice originally appointed for this sitting was Chief Justice Sir William Meredith. But it is rumored that this distinguished jurist is ill, in which event this place will be taken by one of the late appointments to the Bench. This case is all more than unusual interest in this part of the judicial district. In fact, it is a long time since an important trial, having its principal characters in this town, has appeared on the list of Supreme Court cases at Cobourg. It is quite likely that interesting phases of private life, long since forgotten, will be in the lime-light again. Altogether, the trial will furnish a subject for local fireside discussion such as seldom falls to any community.

It will be remembered by the older residents of Port Hope, and they are certainly in the minority now, that James Leverich, the husband of the widow whose will is now being contested, came here from the United States less than fifty years ago. The Midland railway was then in course of construction, under the management of Mr. Von Hugel. The object of the promoters was to connect the Georgian Bay with Lake Ontario, and thus make an easy and direct route across the Lake to the lumber markets in the State of New York. The railway tapped considerable lumber traffic at Lakefield and other mills in the northern counties, affording a demand for considerable shipping from this harbor. In fact, at that time there were more than 300 sailors had their homes in Port Hope. But Von Hugel failed to reach Midland, and was compelled to abandon the railway when he was within ten or twelve miles of his objective. The late Geo. A. Cox, of Peterboro, then, through having endorsed about $90,000 of Midland Railway papers, succeeded in getting control of the corporation and he quickly pushed the line to completion.

Then Port Hope boomed as a lumber centre. Georgian Bay, through Midland, poured its lumber down the new railway connection. There was scarcely room at the docks for the vessels passing between here and Rochester. James Leverich became one of the largest lumber exporters on Lake Ontario and quickly amassed what was regarded as a handsome fortune in those days. In politics he was a Liberal, and was a prominent and interesting figure at political gatherings. Suddenly and unexpectedly, because his complaint was not known, he dropped dead in his office, leaving no family except a grief-stricken widow, who revered her husband's memory to the last. In fact, not many weeks before her death she discussed with a friend the personality and characteristics of her husband as if the occurrences were yesterday instead of three decades previously.

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

(Toilet Talks.)

Any woman can keep her skin free from unsightly hair or fuzz if she will follow these simple instructions: When hairy growths appear, apply a simple paste, made by mixing some water with powdered delatone. Apply this to hairy surface and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a harmless treatment, but be sure you get the real delatone.

"Last year I became affected with eczema. It started on the cheeks in a rash, and the water spread and made my face sore all around the ear and partly on my head. "Then I used a free sample of Cuticura. It helped so I bought three cakes of Soap and one box of Ointment, and my face was healed." (Signed) Miss Martha Singer, Spanaway, Wash., Feb. 11, 1919.

Violin obligato, Mrs. P. Hooper
Concerto in G minor, Op. 25, Mendelssohn (two pianos), Norma Moore and Mrs. R. J. Richardson.

Accompaniste—
Mrs. W. A. Greenslade.

The above programme in St. Paul's Church last night introduced to a large audience of music lovers two accomplished pupils of Mrs. W. A. Greenslade — Miss Norma Moore, pianiste, and Miss Florence Emmerson contralto. For both these young artistes and their teacher the recital was a thoroughly gratifying success, winning unstinted praise and congratulations from their friends.

Appearing for the first time in public, Miss Moore and Miss Emmerson both acquitted themselves with a distinction that is generally associated with and is largely a fruit of experience.

Miss Moore's numbers largely composed the group which she will be required to play in Toronto for her degree from the Toronto Academy of Music. This final qualifying examination will be held within a few weeks.

Miss Moore gave a brilliant performance of an exceedingly exacting programme that served to display her remarkably fluent and facile technique, and especially to reveal a keen musical intelligence and fine sensibilities that invested her work with individuality and talent. Miss Moore's ability might be enlarged upon if it were her only resource. It is, however, but a highly efficient medium of expression of her ideas and interpretation. Miss Moore's technical proficiency in itself would be as mechanical as those arrangements that play simply by pedal control, but vitalised by her personality, which will broaden and deepen with maturity, it glowed with light and colour heightened by contrasting shades; it became an art that is all too rarely developed in this as in most cities. Miss Moore's touch is scarcely powerful, but it has compensating qualities of lightness, and a tone that is large and warm and singing, as shown in many parts of her programme. She played the first movement of the Moonlight Sonata with effects of deep beauty, and those who had come to observe the technique of a new virtuoso were soon lost in the enchantment of her music in the feeling she evoked. The third movement brought out Miss Moore's facility of expression, as did "The Nightingale," with its rippling song. Shading and phrasing were prominent features of a recital that was uniformly splendid, and at the close of the brief hour the audience seemed loth to disperse.

The concluding number, the Mendelssohn Concerto, in which Mrs. R. J. Richardson (nee Aileen Braund) accompanied Miss Moore, was an impressive climax, and afforded an example of Mrs. Greenslade's successful teaching — both performers being graduates of hers.

Miss Emmerson also made a very favourable impression in her first appearance in public. She delighted the audience with her opening number, "Irish Eyes of Blue," and also the familiar Berceuse. Her voice is a pure contralto, is evidently robust, and was used with control that made the softer passages very appealing. The middle register was rich and light high note was particularly pleasing. There is a natural beauty to Miss Emmerson's voice, and good judgment behind it. The clarity and fulness of tone, the clear enunciation, form a solid groundwork for even further progress. In "Fairy Pipers" Miss Emmerson indicated a talent for expression that is full of promise.

Both these pupils of Mrs. Greenslade showed little signs of nervousness in their premieres. Miss Moore played from memory, and Miss Emmerson didn't need her notes. Together these young ladies provided a concert that was altogether enjoyable, but unlike so many ran to quality rather than to quantity. However, the fact must not be overlooked that it was Miss Moore's recital, and the knowledge that it gave a great deal of pleasure to a large audience should be some little compensation to her for the earnest and patient study and application to which it formed a bright but surely not the last period.

A FRIEND.

There is no friend like Jesus so loving and true,
Who will pilot us safely life's dark water through,
When storms of adversity round us do roll,
There is no one like Jesus can comfort the soul.

There's no friend like Jesus when the way is clear,
There's no friend like Jesus when dark shadows fall,
Precious loving Saviour, He'll be all in all.

There's no friend like Jesus in joy or in pain,
There's no friend like Jesus when all else is vain,
His arms will His trusting ones ever uphold,
And He'll deck sorrow's curtains with fringes of gold.

There's no friend like Jesus, when deaths solemn call
Has summoned the ones we love best,
There's no friend like Jesus when burning tears fall
O'er the graves where the loved bodies rest.

PRESENTATION IN MANVERS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Porter and Mr. Everett Remembered by Friends and Neighbors.

(Canadian Press)

When friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Porter of Manvers township, gathered a few nights ago at their home to express regret on their departure for Janetville village, it was frequently stated that the community was losing a good citizen, and a family that would be very much missed. Mr. Porter had occupied the farm all his life time, was a good farmer, a producer of good grain and the very best of stock. He was also a good neighbor, a welcomed guest and a staunch friend.

THE CITY'S GOVERNMENT

CONTINUATION OF SERIES OF ARTICLES BY EX-A.D. JOHN EDGAR, DEALING WITH CIVIC DEPARTMENTS AND THEIR ACTIVITIES.

THE BOARD OF WORKS.

This is the largest spending committee of the City Council. Its members usually comprise the whole council, but never less than a majority of the council. It has to do with all matters certaining to roads, bridges, streets, sidewalks, sewers, and is in fact very much similar to the Public Works department of the Provincial Government only on a smaller scale. The chairman of this committee is a very busy man, as his time is so taken up with the duties of the committee that he has very little left for his own business. The work of this committee is not as some might suppose, in fact a great deal is already provided for in the Municipal Statute, for instance the building of a sewer, this cannot be dpne without advertising the same for a period of three weeks, plans have to be drawn, estimates given and the whole proceeding sent to the Provincial Board of Health for approval. Again, a tree cannot be cut down (unless dead) with out the consent of the owner of the property on whose land the tree is without first giving him ten days' notice, and many other things are provided by statute.

SUBJECTED TO CRITICISM.

This committee comes in for more criticism than any other of the committees and is very often unjust, harsh, uncalled for, and were the public more familiar with its work and methods, its powers, etc., they would not criticize so very much. Owing to the very high tax rate it is compelled to keep down the appropriations, even though some very important work may be left undone. These men meet very often, and carefully plan what is best to do with the limited amount of money at their disposal, and while some of the money spent seems to be wasted, yet it is not their fault, the public demand repairs to certain streets, sidewalks, sewers, drains, etc. and with only a small sum at their disposal, these repairs are necessarily very small and only temporary.

A WORD OF ADVICE.

Don't be everlastingly finding fault because that small hole in front of your lot was not filled just the minute you thought it should be. If there is any fault to find be prepared to assume some of the responsibility. Who is responsible for the methods adopted by this committee? Ans—"The Public." So long as you sanction business being carried on in this way, you have absolutely "no kick." If you want a different method adopted, then say so; if you think it better to have your money expended by the Board of Works Committee, by men who give their time gratis, and do the best they can, or have it expended by men elected by you, where you can demand the very best for your money, in fact, our work carried out by experts, then it is time for you to agitate for such a system. More will be said later on, about this system, which is working so well in a great many places in Canada and the United States.

Think of the spectacle presented to you last year in letting the contract for the Hunter Street Bridge. Meetings held night after night, week after week, contracts awarded one night only to be rescinded the following night, until the Board of Works became the laughing stock of the whole community, and contrast it with what might have happened had, say, three or four experts been representing you.

MRS. H. R. H. KENNER GAVE AN ADDRESS

LIFE OF THE AUTHOR OF "IN FLANDERS FIELDS."

Mrs. H. R. H. Kenner addressed the Epworth League of Trinity Church last evening on "Reading," and, continuing, gave a biographical sketch of the life and work of Canada's immortal war poet, Dr. John McCrae, that showed the versatile abilities of this master writer, his life as a physician, and his life with the soldiers, in a concise and interesting manner.

The hall was not as well filled as it should have been, probably on account of the fine weather, but those who listened to the admirable address of Mrs. Kenner, on a subject of which she is well versed, gained what the others lost. Rev. F. E. Malott presided.

Mrs. Kenner showed the difference between reading for reading's sake, and reading for the knowledge, the inspiration and uplifting influence obtained, and characterized the reading of trashy, frothy fiction as one of the greatest sins of the age.

Mrs. Kenner passed on to the life and work of Dr. John McCrae, speaking of his fine strong character, his kindness and his love of children and animals, all of his noble characteristics finding expression in his war poem, "In Flanders Fields," and "The Anxious Dead." His was a strong noble life of service to humanity, but in the height of his service he died from pneumonia, on January 27, 1918. On January 29th he was buried at Boulogne with full military honors. "He died a hero's death."

The chairman, Rev. F. E. Malott, expressed the indebtedness of the League to Mrs. Kenner in giving the address hoping that at some future date they could hear her again.

Several musical selections by Miss Pearl Rehill, Miss Corbett and a reading by Miss Storey, were enjoyable features of the programme.

SMALL SURPLUS ON BRANTFORD ROAD

$2,342 YEAR'S PROFITS OF CIVIC STREET CAR LINE.

BRANTFORD, April 20.—Brantford Municipal Railroad continues to show a surplus, although a small one for the last year, the annual statement for which has just been submitted by the commission. The surplus after all charges except depreciation were met was $2,342. The city lines carried 339,203 more passengers than during the previous year, for an increased revenue of $26,338, while the Paris line carried 30,308 more passengers for an additional revenue of $7,961. Expenditures during the year, on account of a new scale of wages, largely increased, $31,000. The Commissioners have been studying the question of raising the fares to six cents, but have arrived at no decision in the matter, although pointing out in their report that 400 cities in the United States have gone beyond the five cents fare limit.

No Sunday Street Cars.

It was announced here Saturday that Brantford would hardly take advantage of any legislation to run Sunday street cars. Partial service is already provided by the Paris cars which run hourly from the northern end of the city to the extreme east, and this is thought meets all requirements.

POSTAL RATES.

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, April 20.—Meeting of Ontario newspaper publishers was held here this morning, when discussion of the proposed new newspaper postal rates took place. W. B. Burgoyne, of the St. Catharines Standard, presided.

Easier to Remove Than Conceal Wrinkles

"When you try to conceal your wrinkles with paste made from beans, you deceive yourself, not me. Let a defect, which is possibly but small appear undisguised. A fault concealed is presumed to be great."

This little epigram of Martial's suggests the present day tendency to avoid the use of cosmetics which can only conceal or hide facial defects, and to adopt instead rational means of removing the same. For the removal of wrinkles, bagginess of cheeks and chin, the saxolite formula, which goes to the foundation of these troubles, seems to have come into general use since its virtues became known several years ago. One ounce of powdered saxolite, procurable at any drug store, is dissolved in a half pint of witch hazel. Used as a wash lotion this tightens the skin almost immediately, effectually smoothing out wrinkles and "drawing in" hanging skin or folds.

SIR SAM HUGHES TO WRITE MEMOIRS.

General Hughes has returned to Lindsay from the South, where he has been recuperating from his recent illness. He is expected in Ottawa this week. He is reported to be in much improved health.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate To Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh And to Increase Strength Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are often due to starved nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitrophosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by McDermid & Jury in Peterboro and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate should produce a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

Increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy, which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, should soon disappear, dull eyes brighten and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION: While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc, those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

KERENSKY FINDS HIMSELF

London Morning Post—Kerensky, the one-time dictator of Russia, has found his St. Helena in a Paris lecture room. According to the impressions of a French journalist, he is a much better lecturer than a dictator, for he impresses his audience in a way he failed to impress Russia. The lecture hall, it appears, is thronged with an eager, diverse audience, at one end Russian aristocratic emirges, at the other vociferous Bolsheviks, but both bitterly hostile to the man who whom the world thought might save Russia. Yet Kerensky, impassioned, demonic, possessed, holds them all under his spell until he falls exhausted on his chair. He has failed as a man of action, but in his oratory he has the force and attraction of a wild animal at bay.

THE ROCKY MOTOR ROADS TO GALWAY

DEPICTED BY A SILENT PICTURE IN THE SHOW WINDOW OF THE KINGAN HARDWARE CO.

One of the most suggestive and original of window dressings that has caught the attention of George Street pedestrians during the past week is to be seen in the large plate-glass window of The Kingan Hardware Co. Inspired during a dream about the motor show, the brainy artist worked out a window effect apropos of the motor car event. It depicts a sample of rough country road, somewhat identical with our county clerk's hobby. It shows the cedar snake fences along the countryside, the menacing boulders, the mileposts, the stumps, and other mementoes of "the rocky road to Galway." A weary flivver dodges his car in and out over the rocks and bumps on the road, using up the grease and reserve power of the engine and gearing. To save the situation, a sturdy little Graphite Grease demonstrator is to be seen working vigorously to show the action of the grease, like a strong tonic, on the working parts. Poetically inspired, the grease salesman calls out: When your waggon starts to lagging, and its groans disturb your peace, you can banish its spring fever by using Graphite Grease.

In a window on the corner
We all stop and look and wonder
If that car will travel yonder
Without Graphite Grease.

It already has been standin'
'Most a week on that same landin';
It will never start to ramblin'
Without Graphite Grease.

Though the rail fence is quite handy,
And the chauffeur quite a dandy,
Yet to move on roads so sandy
Requires some Graphite Grease.

All the way he has been wearin'
That broad smile, so sweet yet darin';
But now, listen to that rippin'-tearin',
Calling out for Graphite Grease
—By the Artist.

(Canadian Press.)

SEVILLE, Spain, April 20.—Bandits attacked a train last night on which Queen Victoria and her brother, the Marquis of Carisbrooke, were travelling from Madrid to Seville. Robbers made an unsuccesful attempt to carry off the Royal plate which the Queen was taking with her. The robbers who were well armed, opened a regular fusilade when discovered, wounding two of the railwaymen, one of them probably mortally. The bandits escaped in a two horse carriage, leaving no clue to their identity.

OTTAWA, April 20.—The "Denim overall" movement invaded the House of Commons to-day. C. G. The members of the House of Commons this morning stated they intenied to wear either overalls or old clothes. Many of them claim it would be better to wear out old clothes rather than start a rush on overalls.

"OTHER MENS SHOES."

With a plot which hit straight at the heart of things, in which is entwined a tender and beautiful romance, "Other Mens Shoes," featuring Crawford Kent, is one of the strongest picture plays yet shown at the Grand. The story is of the endless struggle of the strong against the weak, a young minister who has lost his nerve typifying the weak and his twin brother, who knows the world as the strong. At the hour of the young minister's greatest trial, when he must make a statement to an antagonistic congregation whose loyalty has been undermined by wealthy members, his twin brother, taking advantage of his brother's illness and disguising himself as the clergyman, brings the meeting of the congregation to a successful conclusion. Greater trials, however, still face the clergyman as his enemies have plotted to show that his brother had recently been released from a prison sentence and at a huge mass meeting at which the twin brother still impersonates the minister the accusations are made and at the same time word of the real clergyman's murder is brought in. The guilty parties are shown up, the wrath of the multitude turning to them and the erstwhile minister accorded an honored place. Excellent comedies supplement the splendid programme.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

"FI-FI OF THE TOY SHOP" TAKES ONE BACK TO MOTHER GOOSE.

The impressions given by "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop" which will appear at the Grand on April 29th and 30th, are such that one feels that he has been whirled back years and years to a time nearly beyond recollection. One feels childish almost to a point of infancy.

One sees the heroes and heroines of his earliest youth come back to the life that had passed with Mother Goose and the nursery rhymes. And with them come the lost loves of the doll's house and the nursery floor.

They dance and sing and make merry as they did before the first faint rays of learning dulled the joy of early childhood.

Bo-Peep, poor little shepherdess, looking for her lost flocks and keeping a crook poised at an artistic angle on her left arm—yes, she is there. And little sprites and a slender fairy and a withered witch of the kind that rode a broomstick, "ever, and ever, and ever so high, to brush the cobwebs off the sky," all flock back and perform as of yore.

The owl and the pussy cat are in love once more and sail away to that long forgoten land where the bong tree grows and there in a wood stands the same old piggy-wig with a ring in the end of his nose.

The dear old limp rag doll with a well-chewed foot, a frail Jap doll holding a fair Jap parasol, spiritless paper dolls for which one's love soon faded, and brand new china dolls dimled in constant smiles — all of them are there.

The man in the moon awakes and walks about, making love to "Fi-Fi" the favorite doll. Topsy is there, of the same Egyptian hue of years ago. The lone tin soldier still retains his head, which is extremely unusual after all this time. Tin soldiers rarely keep their heads a week, but what of that, one loved them better for their battle scars. Ferocious animals from Noah's zoo walk woodenly among the fearless fairies and dolls.

"Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop" is a fountain of youth that transports one back to childhood's days and ways, its people and its pets.

MARY PICKFORD SCORES A HIT AT THE ALLEN

"Stella Maris," the artcraft picture now being shown at the Allen Theatre in which Mary Pickford is the star, is adapted from Wm. J. Locke's novel of the same title. To begin with, Stella Maris was not Stella's real name. She was an orphan, tremendously rich, living with her uncle and aunt, Sir Blount and Lady Eleanor, in a big stone castle by the sea. She was afflicted with a mysterious disease, which had paralysed her from childhood, and her room was always kept lighted, day and night. The twinkling light, seen from far off on the ocean, led John Risca, a distant relative, to name her Stella Maris—Star of the Sea—and by this name she was known for the rest of her life. Mary Pickford is supported by an all-star cast, including Herbert Standing, Ida Waterman, and Conway Tearle.

The Hacking Cough Strains the Lungs

The terrible, hacking, lung-wracking cough that sticks to you in spite of everything you have done to get rid of it is a great source of danger to your health, and the longer it is allowed to stick the more serious the menace becomes.

You can easily get rid of the cough or cold at its inception by using Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a remedy that has been universally used throughout Canada for the past 30 years.

Mrs. Samuel Matthews, Portage, P. E.I., writes:—"Last winter I caught a heavy cold, and was laid up for sometime. I had such a hacking cough I could not sleep at night and did not think I would ever get over it. One day a friend dropped in to see me and was surprised to see how bad my cough was. She advised me to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so the next day I sent for a bottle and soon got relief and by time I had taken two bottles my cough was all gone. I doubt there is anything to equal it."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured only by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"OTHER MEN'S SHOES" AT GRAND THEATRE

TWINS ALIKE IN BODY, BUT DISSIMILAR IN SPIRIT.

The body, psychical researchers tell us, is the garment that clothes the spirit. Stephen and Jim Browning, the prominent figures in "Other Men's Shoes," Edgar Lewis' potent drama of to-day—showing to-day and to-morrow at the Grand Theatre—were twin brothers whose bodies had been cast in the same mould. As to face, form, and voice they were so alike that their most intimate friends could not identify them; but their spirits were vastly different.

Jim Browning was a valiant, chivalrous, lion-hearted soul, while Stephen's spirit was meek, sensitive, and shrinking. The weaker spirit was a minister who had displeased his congregation by his lack of strength. He faced compulsory resignation unless he could make good. Then his wandering brother came home and unknown to everyone, even the minister's sweetheart, he stepped into his brother's shoes and, with his fighting spirit, accomplished big things that his weaker brother had never dreamed of.

This is Edgar Lewis' first picture to be released by Pathe, and he has given it his usual conscientious and lavish production. Over four thousand men, women, and children take part. Craufurd Kent enacts the dual role and Irene Boyle, Jean Armour, Harold Forshay, John P. Wade, Phil Sanford and Bobby Connelly have strong supporting parts. Andrew Soutar, novelist and war correspondent, wrote the story.

HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE PRESIDENT

PETERBORO VETERANS TURN DOWN A RESOLUTION CALLING FOR RESIGNATION OF PRESIDING OFFICER.

The members of the Peterboro branch of the Great War Veteran's Association showed their confidence in President R. H. Muir at the regular meeting last night when they turned down by a very lopsided vote a resolution calling upon him to resign from his position. Only four members voted in favour of insisting upon the president's resignation.

The incident was an aftermath of the last general meeting of the Association when a resolution was introduced by a couple of members suggested the barring of the Examiner from meetings of the Association because of references to the gratuity question made by this paper. At that meeting President Muir spoke strongly against the resolution and stated his position on the gratuity question saying that many of the views expressed by the Examiner were also his views. The resolution to bar the Examiner was almost unanimously rejected only the mover and seconder voting for the motion.

Last night some of the members who had favoured the resolution introduced a motion calling for the resignation of the President because of his views on the gratuity question and because he had discussed the matter from the chair, contrary to the rule of order.

Vacating the chair last night, President Muir emphatically stated his opinion in a fighting speech in which he declared that he stood first for the widow and orphan, the totally disabled and the wounded soldiers. Afterwards came the question of gratuities and President Muir declared that he was against an indiscriminate cash bonus although he was not opposed to gratuity of men who had actually served on the firing line.

Several members warmly endorsed President Muir's conduct since his election to the President's chair and endorsed the members to stand solidly behind him.

An amendment to the resolution to the effect that the President's resignation be not called for but that the members give him every assistance in his work was carried by a huge majority.

Comrade F. Oxley was appointed a member of the Relief Committee to fill a vacancy on that body.

A communication from the Bishop-Barker Aviation Company offering to supply aeroplanes for any celebration the Association might intend holding was referred to the Executive Committee for investigation.

Comrade Archdeacon Davidson thanked the members for their fine turn out at the dedication of the memorial tablet in St. John's Church on Sunday night and for the part they took in the service.

The other business was of a routine nature.

Don't Use Curling Iron! Here's a Better Method

Thousand of ruined heads of hair bear striking testimony to the injurious effects of the heated curling iron. The continued use of such instrument invariably means dull, dry, shriveled hair, with split, broken, uneven ends. If more women only knew it, the hair can be kept beautifully wavy, soft and fluffy —without any harmful result whatever—by the occasional use of plain liquid silmerine. A small quantity is applied before doing up the hair, using a clean toothbrush for the purpose, drawing this down the full length of the hair. The curly effect lasts quite a considerable time. It is so natural looking, and the texture and lustre of the hair are so improved, that the woman who adopts this simple method will never go back to the atrocious waving iron. A few ounces of liquid silmerine from the druggist will last for weeks. The liquid is agreeable to use, and it leaves no gummy, greasy or odorous trace.

Says She Cannot Praise Them Enough

MRS. GAUVIN TELLS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

She Says Her Back Was so Weak She Could Hardly Walk, But Now She is a Different Person.

St. Jeanne d'Arc, N.B., April 19.—(Special.)— Among those in this neighborhood who are enthusiastic in their praises of Dodd's Kidney Pills is Mrs. Joseph Gauvin, a highly respected resident here.

'I cannot praise Dodd's Kidney Pills enough," Mrs. Gauvin states. "My back was so weak I could hardly walk. I took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now I feel a different person.

"Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me a tremendous amount of good."

Of the many persons paying their tribute of praise to Dodd's Kidney Pills, it is noticeable that the great majority are women. The reason given for this is that the great majority of women's ills come from the kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Healing and strengthening them, they enable the kidneys to strain all the impurities out of the blood. Pure blood is the foundation of health.

Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills do not help weak or sick kidneys.

BETRAYED BLEYER FAMILY RETURNS GOOD FOR EVIL

THE CLOSING CHAPTER OF "KITTEN" RANDALL.

CHICAGO, April 20.—Captain Clifford M. Bleyer's crime of disloyalty to his wife and two little daughters is to be repaid him in death—strangely. By good for evil.

Wife and kiddies were cast aside for a poetess-divorcee of cafe notoriety—whose climatic act to an illicit love for a man she stole was to murder him and kill herself.

Death was his penalty. And now Mrs. Bleyer, humbled and heartbroken, is going to show the dead recalcitrant the full measure of real love—mercy.

Mother's Sacrifice for Tots.

It was for the sake of little Paulette and Jacqueline Bleyer.

They can't understand this ghastly thing that has happened to their daddy. But they will some time. And the mother wants to save what few shreds are left of their dad's name. She wants to prove that he, at least, was not a murderer and a suicide—but was the victim of a woman, in life called "Kitten," in death a tigress.

Bleyer, army captain, wealthy advertising man, was shot while he slept in the Randall woman's apartment last Sunday. Her dead body was found beside him, a pistol pointed toward her head.

This tragic discovery and later developments revealed to Mrs. Bleyer the whole story of her husband's three years' unfaithfulness.

In her blind confidence she had worried over his continued absence from home for two days and had asked the police to hunt him.

Love for Children Wins.

Embittered by his crime of disloyalty she first refused to have his body brought home where two little girls talked of Daddy and wrote him letters, sending him "many, many kisses."

But the mother love won, and now the man who gave her evil in counterfeit of love may come home—to be buried.

Meanwhile morbid people discuss the tragedy — especially this death poem "Kitten" Randall left behind:

Sleep, for my hand is sure;
Be patient! We shall keep
Our secret closely hid
Beneath the coffin lid.
Sleep, for my hand is sure;
The cold steel, bright and pure,
Strikes through thy heart and mine
Shedding our blood like wine.
The coffin lid does not hide their secret, nor smother the tragedy's odium. It spreads it broadcast and draws shoiked eyes to this pathetic little letter:

Dearest Daddy:

Yesterday we had a lovely time, grandpa got doles and candy and lunch and little play flower pots too. we went to the movies and we are going today too. he got jacquelin a doll with a print dress and me one in blue. we are going to see WM S hart in branding broadway, mony, mony kisses, Paulette.

It was the last letter of love Bleyer got from his two little girls. It came the day before he died. Cast aside, it lay among the diaries and letters in the Randall woman's apartment, telling of her scarlet past.

JOHN KNOX, SCOTCH REFORMER

LECTURE ON THE TROUBLOUS TIMES OF THE REFORMATION.

Knox Church on Sabbath evening last was well filled to hear a lecture on "John Knox, the Scottish Reformer," by the pastor, Rev. James A. MacKenzie.

At the outset of his remarks, Mr. MacKenzie referred to a picture, a reproduction of a steel engraving, of the famous Scottish Reformer, which was on view, presented by a member of the congregation. This gentleman, he said, wished, like a true Scotsman, to remain anonymous, but he, the speaker, thought the ire of the donor would not be shown should he let the congregation guess his identity by referring to him as Chairman of the Property Committee. Mr. MacKenzie thanked him, on behalf of the congregation, for the handsomely-framed replica, which would find an honoured place on the wall of the vestry.

In dealing with John Knox, he said, very little was known as to his antecedents or his family beyond the fact that he was born in the year 1505, in a suburb of Haddington called Gifford's Gate. His father and grandsires served under the Earls of Bothwell, and were supposed to come of an old and respected family, the Knoxes of Ranfurly, Renfrewshire. He attended Grammar School and Glasgow University, and there proved to be an apt and distinguished scholar in theology. From his masters he is said to have derived his first impulse to that freedom of political opinion and independence of though that afterwards characterised him. He was a papal notary in the Roman Catholic Church. His attachment to the Romish Church is supposed to have been chiefly shaken by the study of the fathers, about 1535, but he did not openly profess himself a Protestant till about 1543. He was degraded from his orders, and being in danger of assassination, took refuge with Douglas of Longniddry, and there remained till the end of 1545. He was said to have been ordained before the year 1530, about which time he went to St. Andrews, and began to teach.

During many centuries Scotland had come through many vicissitudes and the tyranny and persecution of those days was her sole lot. There were many things which made him become more outspoken against the rituals of the Church at that time, when the Roman Catholic Church superceded the old Celtic Church and took over the old customs. Along about the fourteenth century students went to Paris universities, and there carried on their studies amid many difficulties, and away from the troublous times in Scotland. In the year 1703 Scottish students were admitted to Oxford. Here they came under the influence of education, through the blood of the martyrs and of the Church. During the intervening years several martyrs had suffered for the cause of Scotland—Patrick Hamilton, George Wishart, and others.

About the year 1546, John Ruff put forth the claims of the Gospel, and John Knox was asked to join him. Knox reluctantly did so, but ultimately spoke out very vehemently for the cause. But he clearly appears for the first time on the scene of the Reformation as the companion of Wishart, who was murdered in view of Cardinal Beaton, and at his instigation, at St. Andrew's in March, 1546. On 29th May of that same year Cardinal Beaton was murdered in his castle, from which he had contemplated the sufferings of the martyr. St. Andrews became the temporary stronghold of the reforming interest. Knox took refuge in it with his two pupils. His career at this time was cut short by the surrender of the fortress and his imprisonment in the French slave galleys. For two years he remained a prisoner. He was then liberated and allowed to return to England, where he resided for four years. In 1554 he was appointed one of Edward VI.'s chaplains, and lived on intimate intercourse with Cranmer and others of the English reformers.

The accession of Mary or Guise drove him and others to the Continent. He went to Switzerland, and returning, settled for a time at Frankfort-on-Main. In 1555 he made a rapid visit to Scotland, where he did much to encourage the cause of the Reformation. He went then to Geneva, where he remained for nearly three years. Recalled to Scotland in 1559, he then entered upon his triumphant course as a reformer.

The Queen-Regent, Mary of Guise, had later died, and the arrival of the youthful Queen Mary in 1561 brought many forebodings to the Reformer Knox. He apprehended great dangers to the reformed cause from her character and her devotion to the Romish Church. Misunderstandings arose, and very soon there was a rupture with the Queen's party. From 1563 to 1565 Knox retired into comparative privacy.

Queen Elizabeth came to the throne of England after the death of Bloody Mary of Guise, and the reformation in England had more of power to progress under her rule, for a time at least. But the seeds were sown, and its growth was a foregone conclusion, to be followed in later years by the same spirit in Scotland, but to a greater degree. It was a trial of power of the upper classes against the power of the Reformation. Help was called from Spain and the other countries in sympathy with the Reformation to help Knox, and arms, money, and men were sent him.

France, which up to the year 1560 had a hold on Scotland, released her leash. Then in that year a Confession of Faith was drawn up for the Protestants of Scotland, and Papacy was renounced. Laws of the Reformation followed. In 1561, Mary, Queen of Scots, signed the agreement to give Scotland her religious liberties. This stood for twenty days, and then these liberties were signed away! Only one man knew what Mary stood for, and that man was John Knox. The struggle was carnal and unscrupulousness against honesty — Mary and Knox. At one of his interviews, Queen Mary asked Knox who he was, to which he retorted, "a plain subject of Scotland—a subject born within the same." Thus was modern democracy born.

In the end of 1572 Knox returned to Edinburgh to die. His strength was exhausted; he was "weary of the world," he said. And on 24th November of that year he quietly fell asleep.

Those who understood the man, must know the stormy circumstances of that time. He was discharging huge responsibilities thrust on him. These men and martyre have walked with their Lord. Knox was not a perfect man, but he was a man who did his duty. Knox was the "Father of the Presbyterian Church." And we should see to it that our every act be impregnated with the word and the spirit of God, as it was with Knox.

Knox's character is distinguished by firmness and decision, and a plain, somewhat harsh sense of reality. He was a man of strange and even stern convictions. He was shrewd, penetrating, inevitable. No outward show or conventional pretence deceived him; he went straight to the heart of everything. Above all, he was fearless. Nothing daunted him; his spirit rose in the midst of danger.

In Scotland, Knox, no doubt, accomplished a great work. Whether the world would not have been better if it had been less violently done, if the spirit of love and moderation as well as the spirit of power, had presided over it, is a question regarding which there may be much division. But even if we should take exception to some things he did or encouraged, we may admire the consistent boldness, the deep earnestness and the self-denying, unflinching zeal of the great Reformer.

The musical part of the service was under the direction of Mr. F. E. Walden, the organist, and was of an inspiring nature. The choir sang very well the anthem, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and a 'cello solo by Mr. Tom Smith was pleasingly rendered; while the male quartette (Messrs. MacKenzie, Walden, Roy, and Anderson) gave a nice rendition of the selection, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."

A CHALMERS

with a New Beauty of Body

It is new, will no doubt be widely copied in another year, and expresses the finality of beauty. It is "cut" high in the front at the radiator line, and low from the windshield back.

You sit close to the ground; the side line is considerably lower than in any previous Chalmers.

Seats are lower, tilt more; you sink into the seat cushion, and you have abundance of foot room, front and rear.

In detail this new body possesses a completeness, a finality that seems impossible to improve upon.

Underneath the body is the same unchanged Chalmers chassis that is well nigh faultless.

Hot Spot and Ram's-Horn continue in their original and masterly way to get out all the power that nature put into gas, though the complaints against the present grade of gas increase daily.

There's a limit to the supply of the new Chalmers, but there seems to be no limit to the number of those who insist on one.

As a word of warning—see this new Chalmers immediately.

ENTHUSIASTIC SEND-OFF FOR BISHOP M. J. O'BRIEN

ists in this diocese. Just as the Holy Father is Head of the Episcopate and united with the Bishops, are the priests united with the Bishop throughout the diocese.

Addressed the People.

In addressing the people His Lordship referred to the loyalty and goodwill shown. He referred to the wonderful organization God's church is, radiating throughout the entire world. Christ, he said, established the Papacy, the Episcopate, the priesthood, and all factors tending to man's salvation. God created man and gave him the means of sanctifying himself, and saving his soul so all might enter the Kingdom of God. It is a wonderful organization that Christ established that man might have a certain guide to God. So we have the Father in Rome assisted by the priests all building up one magnificent institution established by Christ Himself and dedicated to last throughout all generations.

He referred to his departure saying that Rome is the only objective which could take him from the Diocese and that he placed his trip under the direction and protection of the Divine Lord.

In conclusion, he referred to the unity of the Church, which is the same to-day as 1900 years ago, and will be the same 1900 years hence. I am grateful, he concluded, for the kindnesses that you have shown me during the past seven years, and I hope God Almighty will bless you. I will pray with all zeal and piety that he will bless you both spiritually and temporarily.

The Benediction.

Following the addresses His Lordship pronounced the benediction and departed for the station where hundreds of citizens, representing every class and creed awaited him to say farewell and where he went amongst all with words of encouragement and regret at leaving.

"His departure," one of the priests said, "was, I can only say, like Christ's departure from the world, when the assembled disciples looked up to Him."

SAGE TEA BEAUTIFIES AND DARKENS HA'R

Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So Naturally that Nobody Can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost over night if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

Magic! Just drop a little Freezone on that touchy corn, instantly it stops aching, then you lift the corn off with the fingers. Truly! No humbug!

Try Freezone! Your druggist sells a tiny bottle for a few cents, sufficient to rid your feet of every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and calluses, without one particle of pain, soreness or irritation. Freezone is the discovery of a noted Cincinnati genius.

WEDDING BELLS

MARTIN—LOGAN

On April the 15th., Mr. W. J. Martin and Miss Minnie Logan were married by the Rev. F. G. Plummer of Toronto.

THURSTON—BUSHIE.

Yesterday afternoon, Rev. James A. MacKenzie officiating, the wedding was quietly solemnized of Herbert S. Thurston, of Peterborough, and Mary Bushie, of Lakefield. They were unattended.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston left by the 3.20 train for Toronto, and will, on their return, reside in the city.

O'BRIEN—CAVANAGH.

St. Joseph's church, Douro, was the scene of a very pretty wedding this morning at 9 o'clock, when Miss Irene Cavanagh and Mr. John O'Brien were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Father McGuire.

The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Jos. O'Brien, and Miss Bessie Cavanagh acted as bridesmaid.

After the ceremony the happy couple motored to the home of the bride where a dainty wedding breakfast was partaken of by the immediate friends and relatives.

BREACH BETWEEN BRITAIN AND FRANCE THREATENS TO WIDEN INSTEAD OF CLOSE

DIVERGENT VIEWS OVER THE ENFORCEMENT OF THE PEACE TREATY—FRENCH HOLD OUT FOR STRICT ENFORCEMENT.

OTHER ALLIES WOBBLE

(United Press.)

PARIS, April 21.—Despatches from the correspondents at San Remo indicate that the breach between Great Britain and France brought about by divergent views over the enforcement of the Treaty of Versailles, may be widened instead of closed during the present conferences of the Councils of Premiers.

Some of the correspondents understand that Lloyd George and Nitti propose to demand that Germany fulfill the financial clauses of the treaty immediately. This demand would be accompanied by certain concessions, including reduction of the allied occupied zone, although the reduced area would be held longer than the time originally set.

The French premier according to these despatches, opposes any concessions and will hold out for the strict enforcement of the treaty, as written.

A news despatch from San Remo said the German question would be considered informally until the Premiers have completed their discussions on the Turkish treaty.

THREE MORE NOTES.

(United Press.)

PARIS, April 21. — Dr. Wilhelm Von Mayer ,the German Charge D. Affaires to-day, handed the Council of Ambassadors three notes to be forwarded the Council of Premiers in San Remo.

The first noted a revision of the peace treaty, allowing Germany an army of 200,000 instead of 100,000, with large aviation and heavy artillery.

The second requested the entente for permission to increase the German police forces in the neutral zone, and the third asked that demobilization of the militia be not required, and that Germany be allowed to re-establish her general staff.

French circles characterized the notes as a new proof of their charge that German militarism was becoming more rampant than ever.

CUT OFF GRUB.

(United Press.)

PARIS, April 21. — The allies have sent a new note to Germany warning the people that any political coup d'etat, resulting in the overthrow of the present government and the substitution of an opposed to complete execution of the Treaty of Versailles, will be followed by cutting off of the food supplies and economic assistance.

The note was to be handed the German government by French, British, Italian and Belgian representatives.

JOIN IN WARNING.

(United Press.)

BERLIN, April 21. — Great Britain and France have joined in warning the German people that no government will be allowed to stand in Germany that does not pledge itself to every fulfillment of the Treaty of Versailles, it was reported here last night.

The warning, according to reports was contained in a new note sent the German government. The note presumably was sent in an attempt to quiet the German revolutionary elements.

U. S. WHISKY SHOCKS THE SCOTS.

AMERICAN RYE OFFICIALLY REPORTED AS "TERRIBLE" IN EFFECT.

GREENOCK, Scotland, April 21.—American rye whisky now being imported into this country is said to be of the "shock" variety by the Chief Constable here, who has filed a report on the subject.

The effects of pre-war whisky, he says, even when it had not been bonded for three years before being sold at retail, were nothing in character to those of some of th present-day whiskies, which only recently made their appearance here.

"Whatever their composition is," the officer declares, "their effects are terrible. They not only poison, but madden, and leave persons nervous and depressed after the intoxicating effects have passed away."

These whiskies are known locally as "snake-bite," says the Chief Constable.

MORNING PAPER TO BE STARTED IN WESTERN CITY

Special to Examiner.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 21st. — Another morning paper is to be started in Winnipeg, if the present negotiations for the amalgamation of the Telegram and Tribune go through.

Hon. Arthur Meighen, it is also stated, is taking a deep interest in the Telegram's future.

Aid For Workers

FRENCH TROOPS HAVE ENTERED AINTAB—TURKS CUT RAILWAY.

(Canadian Press.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 21. — French troops equipped with heavy artillery entered Aintab, Asia Minor, on April 14th, and have effectively relieved the situation there, according to a statement made public by the French embassy here.

Messages sent from Aintab on April 12th asking for immediate aid for relief workers there, were received in this city late last week. The French position in the citadel is viewed as extremely difficult.

Railroad communication at Mersida (where the French forces landed last week and Adana were interrupted on April 11th, it is stated by travellers arriving from Southern Asia Minor coast. The railway traverses a level country without important bridges, and the Turks removed the rails thus cutting off the French at Mersina from their chief base of supplies.

Northward in the Interior, the Turks have cut the railroad by wrecking cars in the important tunnels between Adana and Ukukishla. The railway from Adana to Aleppo has also been cut by the Turks.

ST. GEORGE'S PARISH HELD A CONCERT

Twelve Great War Veterans, members of St. George's Parish, last night provided a novel entertainment for the southenders in the playlet, "Life in the Front Line Trench, which accurately depicted the life of the men up the line. The feature scene was the "Y" hut which was extremely ludicrous and kept the large audience in side-splitting roars, and which like the rest of the play, was well seasoned with good live jokes and soldiers' songs.

Each of the veterans entered wholeheartedly into the performance and their acting was most realistic.

ARRIVAL OF GERMAN DYES IN THE STATES

NEW YORK, April 21.—Arrival of German dyes in the American market is expected in the near future. Shipments were held up in Rotterdam for some time, but recent information is to the effect that they are going forward as soon as the dock strike ends in that centre.

Their arrival is anxiously awaited by American consumers, since the situation with regard to dyestuffs is very trying.

In addition to 543 packages held in Rotterdam, there are 438 in German factories that cannot be moved until the congestion at the port is relieved.

The dye and material markets of the United States are short of supplies ,and there is a keen demand that is expected to persist for some time.

Returned Soldiers

RECENT EVICTION ORDER CARRIED OUT BY THE SHERIFF

(Special to The Examiner.)

TORONTO, April 21.—Under an order from the Sheriff's office, two men removed the household goods from the residence of J. H. F. Baun, 355 Wellesley Street, yesterday.

Last night, shortly after ten o'clock, about one hundred and fifty sympathisers, mostly returned soldiers, invaded the place and put all the goods back in the house.

The returned soldiers took action on the ground that Mr. Baun was a former Imperial soldier.

The order for the eviction of Mr. and Mrs. Baun from 355 Wellesley Street has come through a long process of law. For some years the Baums laid claim to the property, but a year ago the contention was considered to be without foundation.

Some time later the old couple were ordered to move out, but by further litigation they were granted six months' extension. Upon the expiration of that time, when there was still no sign of removal, the Sheriff took action.

At last night's disturbance the police were called, but they took no action.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Baun are now well advanced in years, and have lived at 355 Wellesley Street for more than 12 years.

Lackawanna Steel continued to lead the market, and made a new high 84 1-2 up 4 1-4.

The market was again raided by bears around noon. Baldwin General Motors and Punta Alegre Sugar were carried to new lows on the decline.

TEMPERANCE LAW TO BE OBSERVED

CHANGE IN LAW FOR QUEBEC CITY

(Canadian Press.)

QUEBEC, Que., April 21.—Nothing but temperance beer of a legal percentage will in future be sold in restaurants, cafes, and hotels of the ancient capital, following an understanding to that effect reached by the breweries of the Province of Quebec, who will not deliver higher percentage beer to any others but licensed vendors.

This move follows numerous actions taken against violations of the law, and is expected to bring about a reaction which would get the public to ask the recall of the Scott Act as to fall under the P. Q. Temperance Act.

Hon. L. A. Taschereau, acting Premier and Attorney-General of the Province, is reported as having given fair warning that the Temperance law must be observed.

Sell the Property

OLD GOVERNMENT HOUSE IN FREDERICTON TO BE DISPOSED OF.

(Special to The Examiner.)

FREDERICTON, N.B., April 21.—A bill has been introduced in the Legislature by Premier Foster to authorise the sale of the old Government House property here, now occupied as a hospital and vocational school by the D. C. R. to the Federal Government for $50,000, it being provided that the amount realised from the sale shall be placed in a trust fund to be used only for providing a suitable residence for the Lieut.-Governor at Fredericton.

The old Government House property, it is expected, will eventually replace the present quarters of the permanent military force now located in the centre of the business district of the city, and the latter property made suitable for business purposes, for which it is urgently required.

INCREASE IS DUE TO WOMEN SMOKERS

British Chancellor Explains Growth in Tobacco Consumption.

LONDON, April 21.—Growth in the habit of smoking on the part of women has been among the causes for the unprecedented increase in the consumption of tobacco in Great Britain during the past financial year. This announcement was made in the House of Commons by J. Austen Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, in introducing the new budget.

PREDICT MINING REVIVAL.

Lode Mining Replacing Placer.

ATLIN, B.C., April 21.—Revival of mining in this district, famous placer field of pioneer days, is predicted by engineers. Placer mining is on the decline here, but lode mining is assuming a larger importance and some claims are being worked.

TEAM SELLS FOR $1,975.

Record Price Set by Team of Percherons.

EDMONTON, Alta., April 21.—What is thought to be a record price for a team purchased at a farm auction in the province was paid for a fine team of registered percheron mares at Beaver Hills when $1,975 was recently paid.

TORNADO CAUSES MANY

Property Loss of Millions—Supplies and Medical Assistance Needed.

(Canadian Press.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 21.—Assistance from the outside world is urgently needed for the relief of the tornado sufferers in a dozen Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee counties.

With a death-list of 166 already reported, and a property loss which will run into many millions, the tornado has taken rank as one of the most disastrous as well as the most widespread in the annals of the South.

Hundreds of injured require medical attention, and the forces of physicians and nurses available locally are inadequate to cope with the situation.

Tents and other temporary structures must be erected for numerous families whose homes were obliterated, and the shortage of food is foreseen.

LIBERAL LEADER'S REPLY IN HOUSE OF COMMONS TO SLANDERS OF CRITICS

HAD NO ALLIANCE WITH AMERICAN BIG BUSINESS—REVIEWS HIS ACTIVITIES DURING THE WAR—WAS FORTY WHEN WAR BROKE OUT.

SPEECH APPLAUDED

OTTAWA, April 20.— Categorical denial was given in the Commons this afternoon by the Liberal Leader, on. W. L. Mackenzie King, to certain defamatory statements that have been made recently with regard to his connection with the Rockefeller Foundation in the United States and his activities during the war. The statements objected to were made in Montreal by Mr. John McNaughton and Dr. F. W. Gilday. Among other things, they alleged that returned soldiers could expect no concessions from the Liberal Leader, who, it was said, had deserted Canada during the crisis "in search of the Standard Oil millions"; also that there were indications of the relationship continuing.

"The statements are absolutely false in fact and misleading in inference," emphatically declared Mr. King. "They constitute a slander and as undoubted a criminal libel as any statements could be." The statements, he said, were intended to arouse prejudice of most bitter and cruel kind in the minds of Labor, returned soldiers, the business community and patriotic citizens.

The Liberal Leader explained that primarily he rested his defence chiefly on his public work, and he read several testimonials from large American industrial concerns as to his research work while connected with the Rockefeller Foundation. Mr. King also frankly told the House of the heavy personal responsibilities he had to bear during the war. He read this portion of his speech, and several times there was a noticeable break in his voice.

"There remains the statement that I was young and a bachelor," he said. "I am now in my forty-sixth year. When the war commenced I was in my fortieth year. Shortly before that time, my father, a barrister and solicitor, and one of the lecturers at the Law School in Toronto, was stricken with blindness, and obliged to give up the practise of law and lecturing at the Law School. He and my mother and an unmarried sister lived together at our home in Toronto. My brother, who for a number of years was a practising physician in this city, some little time prior to the war, after an attack of influenza complicated by double pneumonia, developed tuberculosis, and was obliged to give up the practice of his profession, and for the greater part of two years spent his time in a sanitarium. Later, he and his wife and little children took up permanent residence in Colorado. There was no one left to share the responsibilities of our home under these sad and trying circumstances but my married sister and myself. My married sister had, as well, her own family to consider.

Deaths in the Family.

"On April 4, 1915, within the first few months of the war, my unmarried sister died. That left my father and mother alone. On August 30, 1916, my father died. After spending a few weeks with my invalid brother in Denver, and two or three months with my married sister, my mother came to reside with me at the Roxborough, here in Ottawa. My mother was critically ill most of the year she was with me, and on December 18, 1917, she, too, died. My brother, I rejoice to say, though still an invalid, has fought his disease so successfully as to be able to publish a book, entitled,

TO STOP SUNDAY MOTORING

Switzerland Will Allow Only Doctors to Run Cars After May 1.

BERNE, April 15.—The Swiss Government has decreed that from May 1 to Sept. 30, no motor cars shall be allowed to run during daylight hours on Sunday. Foreign motorists entering Switzerland from France, Germany, Italy or Austria on Sunday must remain at the frontier till evening, when they will be permitted to proceed on their journey.

This regulation is intended to enable people who do not own motor cars or take their Sunday excursions without being annoyed by dust. Only doctors attending patients and having a Red Cross on their cars will be allowed to travel Sundays.

CONTRACTORS GO INTO PARTNERSHIP

DUMMITT AND EPHGRAVE JOIN FORCES AS BUILDERS.

A new contracting partnership has recently been consumated in this city, when Fred Dummitt and Harold Ephgrave joined forces in the building line. Both men are well known to the citizens and should receive the support and patronage their experience and ability merits.

Harold Ephgrave has been connected with the firm of Ephgrave and Barrett for some years and Mr. Dummitt with Mr. W. H. Barrie, the local architect.

Already the newly-organised firm has several contracts.

High class work and a thorough supervision of all building contracts are guaranteed by the new firm.

MEETING WILL BE HELD HERE

KINGSTON OPPOSED TO WESTERN ONTARIO SCHEME.

(Special to The Examiner.)

KINGSTON, April 21.—The Kingston Utilities Commission, so far as this city is concerned, will not support the proposal to have the Central Ontario Hydro-Electric system operated in the same way as is done in Western Ontario.

A meeting of representatives of the municipalities has been called for in Peterborough.

STRIKERS BACK.

WILL ASK PAPER TO TAKE THEM ON OLD TERMS.

(Canadian Press.)

MONTREAL, April 21.—The outlaw strike of the typographical staff of the Daily Star has collapsed.

Last night the men decided to ask the management of the paper to take them back at the wage scale in force before the strike, but without discriminating against any of them.

BOARD OF EDUCATION SAVED A LOT OF MONEY BY LETTING THE SCHOOL CONTRACT LAST AUTUMN

COST OF BUILDING MATERIAL HAS ADVANCED FROM FIFTEEN TO TWENTY PER CENT.

That the letting of the contracts for the new school last fall was the best business stroke ever done by the Board of Education is the opinion of local builders and the assertion is backed by the fact that all building has advanced at least 15 or 20 per cent since the contract was awarded. The entire contract including the heating plumbing and wiring amounted to $208,000 and had the signing up been delayed until Spring it would probably with a 20 per cent advance have reached $248,000.

Under existing conditions all contractors having signed up in the fall they will feel the advance, but they too have been far sighted enough to have contracted for material and the principal loss to them will be the advanced price of labor. The brick bought from the Curtis Brick yards was secured last fall at $18 and to-day $24 is the price. Tar and gravel roofing has advanced from $14 to $18 per square of 100 feet and flooring which has not been previously ordered has advanced considerably during the winter. The plumbing contractors will lost out only in the labor price as all materials have been bought and are at the school awaiting installation.

Excavation Completed.

So far during the past six weeks the excavation measuring 70 by 200 feet has been completed and if the weather is good the foundation will be commenced next week. The drainage system has been completed. The building will be ready for occupation next March.

Mr Walter Blackwell of the firm of William Blackwell and son, is the architect.

STRONG MEASURES IN UPLIFT WORK LANDS JAP IN POLICE COURT

VANCOUVER, B.C., April 21.—Oratory failing to get results, Masa Shara, a returned Japanese soldier who has been prominent in uplift work among his countrymen, used a revolver to persuade his friends to leave an alleged gaming joint. The method proved wholly successful, but the police arrested Shara. He was allowed to go on suspended sentence on the promise that he would return to peaceful measures of verbal argument.

OLD COUNTRY SOCCER CLUBS FEARED MEN WOULD DESERT

MONTREAL, April 21.— Con Jones returned from the Old Country and ascribes his failure to get a soccer team to visit Canada this summer to two causes. The fear that the men would desert and remain here and the jealousy among the players as to who shall take the trip and who shall remain. His proposition to Newcastle United was defeated by only one vote. He tried Bradford, Glasgow and Chelsea also, but they all refused to send teams. The secretary of the Football Association told him he could not send a team to Canada till 1922.

BIG PRICES ARE PAID FOR GOOD SOCCER PLAYERS

The big deals put through by the baseball magnates in America for securing the services of star players are fast being approached by the huge sums of money which change hands daily among the leading soccer clubs in England in snapping up the shining lights in the football world. The Sheffield Wednesday Club which is struggling hard at the bottom of the first division table of the English League, has bolstered up its team by securing the transfer of George Wilson, the crack centre half-back of the Blackpool Club, for $15,000. The Everton Club paid $27,000 for two players—$15,000 for Downs, the great full-back from Barnsley, and $12,000 for Brewster from Aberdeen. Aston Villa held the record for the largest amount ever paid for a single player when it secured Barson, also of Barnsley, for $17,500. The same club also made an offer of $15,000 for Cresswell of South Shields, but so far has been unsuccessful in landing him. Ten years ago $5,000 was the record transfer fee which Middlesborough paid Sheffield United, but before many days are over a new figure of $20,000 may be announced if a pending deal goes through. The famous Blackburn Rovers team cost thousands of dollars to build up, over $40,000 being paid for four stars—$11,500 for Dawson, $11,250 for Rolo, $10,000 for Danny Shea and $9,000 for Simpson—while Chelsea's team five years ago contained five forwards that cost the club just over $50,000. The reason of the present activity in big deals is that the "close time" for transfers comes into force on March 16 in each year, for clubs that are in no danger of relegation or have no chance of securing honors in the leagues or big cup competitions.

KILLED BY TORNADO

(United Press.)

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 20.—Death list as result of series of tornadoes which swept northwestern Arkansas Sunday to-day was raised to 22 and large strip of country still was unheard from. More than 100 persons were injured and tremendous property damage caused, according to information trickling in over storm impaired wires. Efforts were being made to confirm rumor that 20 persons had been killed near Blaine Logan county.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Thomas W. Shelley, formerly of Calgary, Alta., where he was known as Thomas W. Simpkins, faced arraignment in Yorkville Court for shooting Dr. James Wright Markoe, an eminent surgeon, in fashionable St. George's Episcopal Church yesterday.

Police officials said they would later ask for the appointment of a commission to examine Shelley as to his lunacy. The man worked as a printer in Montreal before going to Calgary.

FUR DEALERS ARE AGAINST NEW PLAN OF FUR ROYALTIES

SUGGEST INSTEAD REVISION OF FUR LICENSES.

TORONTO, April 21.—Fur dealers are opposed to the new system of royalties on the skins of furbearing animals which the department of game and fisheries propose to put into effect. At a meeting of the committee yesterday John Hallam, George Monteith, S. Brazier and W. R. Sweeny put up an argument against the proposal and suggested a revision of the fur licenses for increasing revenue from the fur industry. They were requested by the chairman of the committee, Hon. F. C. Biggs, to put their suggestions into a memorandum and submit at the next meeting.

Licensing System.

The system of licensing would run as follows: Farmers, $1; community trapper, $5; traveling buyer from outside, $250; traveling buyers who were aliens, $500. He also proposed a much higher tax on the buyer from outside, who was not a British subject. Mr. Biggs pointed out that as Quebec and Manitoba had the royalty system that Ontario should or otherwise there would be much fur-smuggling to Ontario to escape the royalty, and Ontario must play fair with the other provinces.

Increase Bonus.

A resolution was passed to recommend to the provincial treasurer that the bonus on wolves be increased from $20 to $30, and that pelts go to the Government as at present. It was pointed out that now the man killing a wolf gets more from selling the pelt than he did by reporting to the Government and getting the bonus.

Representatives from the national railways and the C.P.R. protested against the season for deer being later. They wanted it in October. The committee, however, stuck to their season, only allowing five days of October, and the season decided for the country north of the French and Mattawa Rivers will be from October 25 to November 20.

WHEAT IN SIGHT AT 4 DOLLARS

INDICATIONS OF WORLD-WIDE SHORTAGE AND INCREASED DEMAND.

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Indication of a world-wide shortage of wheat this year, and a world-wide increase in demand, was reported here by the American Agricultural Trade Commissioner at London, who said bread was selling in England at what was generally considered the highest price the workingman would tolerate without grave disorders. With Russia still in a chaotic state, there is little to be expected from that country in the way of wheat exports, and Europe naturally turns to Canada, Australia, India, and the United States and Argentina.

Some European countries will be compelled to import much larger quantities of wheat than in pre-war times, provided they are able to arrange satisfactory credits, the report said.

Conflicting reports in London from Russia place wheat available for export at 35,000,000 to 140,000,000 bushels, but railroad equipment is not sufficient to move any large quantity. England and other European countries will have to depend on Canada, the United States and other wheat-exporting nations.

The British Government has announced the maximum price for the 1920 crop to be the average price of imported wheat of similar quality, provided the price so paid the home grower shall not exceed $2.89 a bushel. United States imports, the Commissioner reported, were ranging from $3.04 to $4.11, or an average of $3.46 a bushel.

STIRRING MESSAGE TO YOUNG CANADIANS

Believes Music Is Way to Hearts of Foreign-born.

(Canadian Press)

REGINA, Sask., April 21.—"Our aim to build character, to make men and women who will look upon life from the right point of view, who will feel the 'still, sad music of humanity,' and who in turn will strive to help others, never faltering until they have reached the ideal—Canada Canadian, and the world a brotherhood of man," declared Miss Irene Thompson, B.A., a teacher among new Canadians at Guernsey, Sask., at the recent convention of the Saskatchewan Educational Association in Saskatoon, and as a means to this end, Miss Thompson dwelt upon the use of music as a way to the hearts of the foreign born.

JAIL PRISONERS TO REPAIR ROADS

LINCOLN COUNTY COUNCIL DECIDES TO PUT THEM TO WORK.

ST. CATHERINES, April 21.—The County of Lincoln has decided no longer to maintain its involuntary guests in blissful idleness. At the suggestion of Dr. Chamberlain, the Provincial Prisons' Inspector, the County Council has decided to put all fit prisoners serving terms in the county jail at work on the county roads. This may act as a deterrent to wrong-doing, as a man may not think much of serving a month or two inside stone walls where no one will see him, but if he has to go out on the public highway in his striped suit where he runs the risk of being seen by the very people he is most anxious to avoid under such circumstances, the penalty for his wrong-doing will be double punishment.

That is not the way the County Councillors view the thing, however. They take the practical ground that the prisoner by honest toil is paying the county for his board and lodging, which will result in considerable saving to the county.

The plan, however, is scarcely likely to result in any great amount of road building being done, as there are very few prisoners in the county jail, especially in Summer, when they could be doing work on the roads. Most prisoners are sent to the Provincial prison farms, and only short termers, in for a month or so, are kept in the county jail. If magistrates sent six months' or year men to the county jail instead of to the farm, considerable benefit might be derived by the county, and it is probable magistrates will be asked to do this.

The greater part of the spring diet should consist of fruit, vegetables, cheese, eggs and fish.

Sweetbreads are most easily digested and make excellent food for those with faulty digestion.

ELECTRICAL DISCOVERIES REVOLUTIONIZE FARMING

Fields Electrified to Grow Two Crops a Year.

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 21.—Electrical discoveries which he claims to be of great importance to the farmers have been announced by Prof. J. W. Dorsey, of the electrical engineering department Manitoba University. The main discovery is a method of transmitting electric power from main transmission lines direct to the farms. The methods is inexpensive and practicable, he declared. It will be practical to serve all farms for 50 miles on each side of a main power line and the farm, he said, "should be as convenient as any city home." He advocates the energizing of farms by electricity, which he said was a well-known scientific fact that it would increase the productivity at least 25 per cent. By means of wires stretched across the fields they could be energized at night when other power demands were negligible and at moderate cost. It might, he declared, be possible with electric energizing to grow two crops in one year.

Sandwiches with filling of finely chopped onion between, eaten before bedtime, are said to induce sleep.

TRACE CRIMINALS IN AEROPLANE

Will Be Valuable in Wild Country Far From Railways.

(Canadian Press)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 21.—Escaped criminals from Manitoba jails will in future be trailed by aeroplanes, Lieut.-Col. J. G. Rattray, chief of the Manitoba provincial police, has decided. In making the announcement, Col. Rattray stated that it would be possible this way to trace prisoners across country not yet served by the railways. Arrangements have been made for a local aeroplane company to hold a plane at the disposal of the provincial police department should the need arise.

Now it is white organdie which is embroidered in raffia.

"Peterborough Presents Possibilities Unsurpassed."

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21ST, 1920

SATURDAY'S TAG DAY.

In assuming the task of conducting the annual Ypres Day tag campaign as they have during the past year had to assume most of the work of administering relief to the soldiers' families who have been in need of assistance, the Ladies' Auxiliary deserve the hearty support and co-operation of the public. There is no one in Peterborough who would not be grieved to hear that among the dependents of Peterborough's soldiers there is suffering, privation and want because of the war. The relief work carried on by the Ladies' Auxiliary has as its aim the prevention of any such conditions existing in Peterborough, so that the people have an opportunity of ensuring that so far as is possible cases of hardship shall be eliminated. The annual tag day will be held on Saturday, and in commemoration of the battle of Ypres, in which the Canadian 1st Division won undying fame for itself and for Canada a hearty and enthusiastic welcome is besought for those who will be in charge of the collection boxes. It is a cause that everyone should be glad to help.

THE 4TH BATTERY.

The recognition of Peterborough's service in providing artillerymen for Canada's forces during the war, by making this city the headquarters of the 4th Battery, Canadian Field Artillery, is appreciated by citizens generally. The 4th Battery won a splendid name for itself in France. As a unit of the 1st Canadian Division, the 4th reached the fighting line with the first of the Canadian forces and fought gloriously throughout the war. It has a record and traditions that should never be forgotten, and Peterborough is fortunate in being selected as the home of the militia unit that is to commemorate the fame of the original 4th.

The command of the battery has been given to a well known young Peterborough officer, Capt. Douglas Huycke, who not only saw service in France, but had an important post with the Siberian Expeditionary Force. Associated with him are a number of zealous, efficient officers with a fine war record to their credit. The battery is therefore starting upon its new career under most favourable auspices and should appeal to the young men of Peterborough who are considering the question of joining one of the militia units. There is no corps with more glorious traditions to preserve than the 4th Battery, and it should be considered a privilege to have an opportunity of serving in such a unit. Recruiting begins this evening at the armouries, and it is expected that the battery will soon be up to its authorized strength.

THE HOUSING QUESTION.

The summary of the housing situation as given by Mr. F. H. Dobbin of the local Commission, in another column of to-day's issue, is a frank facing of a serious state of affairs, and is to be commended on that account, if not welcomed for the disheartening information that it contains. The Commission have reached the conclusion that very little relief can be expected from the citizens who are financially able to build houses as an investment. Appeals to this class, based on civic duty, have failed, and the building that will be done by them will be so small that it will have little effect on the situation. As for the citizen who wants to build a home under the Housing plan, the outlook is evidently far from bright. The new bill to be adopted by the Legislature will be less helpful than last year's measure, for the initial percentage to be paid in land or money is to be raised from ten to fifteen per cent. and the interest rate will be six per cent. These handicaps are bad enough, but the figures prepared by the Commission as to the cost of building as quoted by Mr. Dobbin, are disheartening to say the least. When it is announced that a standard six room house that was built in Hamilton last summer for a little over $2,500 would cost, if duplicated in Peterborough this year, over $4,500, without counting the cost of the lot, the public will get some idea of the difficulties that exist.

Under the circumstances the Commission evidently do not anticipate a rush of applicants anxious to build houses under the provisions of the Housing Act and the situation may resolve itself into a question of whether it is advisable for the local commissioners to proceed with the erection of houses on their own account and sell them to the citizens.

"BOB" IS BUSY.

It would be interesting to know what the Tory members of the Unionist Cabinet think of the activity of their former valued colleague, Hon. "Bob" Rogers, on behalf of the revival of the Conservative party in federal affairs. At least once a month for the last year and a half the Hon. "Bob" has been able to induce some organization in Toronto or elsewhere to have him as its guest, and give him an opportunity to proclaim the need of a return to the sound gospel of which he is an exponent, the gospel chiefly of undiluted protection. The series of feasts of food and oratory have evidently had some effect, because it is now announced that there is to be a real heart-to-heart talk among the faithful in Toronto at an early day. It has not yet been announced how many of the Cabinet Ministers will be present, but at least we can count on that stalwart friend of the people, Colonel Curry, being found not far from the head table on the eventful night.

The Montreal Gazette reports Hon. Robt. Rogers in the capital this week, gives the notice a special place on the front page with as large a heading over it as Gazette taste allows. Further, it records even in its heading, that along with the former minister in Ottawa, was Sir William Mackenzie, of Canadian Northern fame. His mission to the capital, according to the Gazette, is obscure. "He is a keen politician, and a friend of Hon. Robert Rogers," we are rather needlessly informed, "but he has also many friends in the Unionist party and the Cabinet." So here we have another element in the new Conservative party that is to be, Rogers, Curry, Mackenzie. And above all we must remember that Hon. Robert Rogers is the man who knows how to win elections. He admitted that himself on one occasion in the House of Commons. As for Sir William Mackenzie, it appears that he prefers the old Conservative party to any of these new-fangled Unionists ideas. The Conservative party feathered his nest for him year after year, but the Unionists stole the eggs. We rather suspect that his presence in Ottawa is not for the purpose of advising Unionism how to perpetuate itself.

After all the perpetuation of Unionism is rather discounted to-day even by its best friends. Even that faithful friend of the administration, the Ottawa Journal, finds itself unable to keep up steady adulation and occasionally falls from grace. It was only a couple of weeks ago that the Journal, reviewing the session up to the Easter adjournment, was able to persuade itself (it did not persuade anyone else) that the government was stronger than when the session opened. That, however, was before the Temiskaming by-election. When the news of that set-back came into the Journal office there arose a howl that could be heard over in Hull. There were immediate demands for reconstruction, for some decision on the leadership, for clear policies and a nail to facing both ways. Probably by now The Journal has recovered its serene faith in the all-seeing wisdom of Meighen, Reid, Calder and Rowell, but having lapsed from grace over Temiskaming, there is no telling when just such another backsliding may occur.

The latest news is that the Premier will be in Ottawa in time for the budget, and that he will take that occasion to make a pronouncement on the country's problems. In view of the fact that the premier has spent about one-fourth of his time in Canada for the last two years, it is a question how far his judgment may be of value. The people who have been looking to Ottawa for some leadership in the solution of the class of problems that effect every individual life, the high cost of living for instance, will take with a grain of salt any pronouncement that Sir Robert Borden may make. It is not pronouncements that this country needs as much as action. If pronouncements would solve our difficulties we ought to be the most satisfied nation on earth. Meanwhile it will be interesting to wait and see what kind of a "pronouncement" will come from Hon. Robert Rogers at the Toronto tea-party.—London Advertiser.

COMMISSION ON SHELLS SUBJECT OF A LAW SUIT

CONTRACTOR SUES FOR $63,280 ACQUAINTED WITH DIRECTOR GENERAL, HE SAYS

TORONTO, April 21.—Commission on shell contracts is the basis of an action before Mr. Justice Kelly in the Non-Jury Assizes. R. R. Carr-Harris, a general contractor, of Toronto, is the plaintiff, and the Canadian General Electric Company are the defendants. Plaintiff sues for $63,280, alleged to be commission due for obtaining contracts and an accounting. He claims that a contract was made on July 20th, 1915, whereby he was to go to England and get contracts for munitions on which he was to get one per cent. commission. Plaintiff claims he contracted for 2,500,000 primers at $[illegible]; 2,500,000 cartridge cases at $[illegible]; forgings and shells at $2,265,000, and shells for the British Admiralty, $527,000. He claims he received $17,639 on account, and also claims commission on a contract for motors supplied to the Wiliam Beardmore Company, the amount of which is not known.

"He was well acquainted with Sir Percy Girouard, Director-General of Munitions," reads the statement of defence, "and he was related to Lady Buemaster, wife of the Lord Chancellor." Defendants say they agreed to pay $1,000 for travelling expenses and one per cent. commission, to be paid as the money was paid on the contracts. They allege Senator Nicholls, general manager of the defendant company, got contracts for 2,400,000 primers and 2,500,000 cartridge cases, on which $3,527,934 has been paid. These contracts were made with the Shell Committee in Canada, and the plaintiff has been paid $17,620 in full and deny that he had anything to do with any other contracts.

A Maxwell reveals the Wisdom of Light Weight

A MAXWELL car carries the same average passenger weight over the same roads and at the same speed as other cars of greater weight and higher price—BUT, at extremely low cost.

Obviously, a Maxwell must not have one pound of superfluous weight.

To maintain the required strength without increasing weight necessitated the use of the best materials.

Such metals are obviously the quality metals; and a Maxwell car contains them throughout.

An analysis will show that pound for pound the metals that go into a Maxwell car are comparable with the metals in the highest priced cars in the world.

That is the underlying reason why Maxwell cars have given such rare accounts of themselves in every latitude and clime and have responded so well to every task to which they have been committed.

They last long.
They stand brutal treatment.
They cost but little to run.

To date more than 300,000 Maxwells are gracing the highways of the world. These 300,000 have multiplied Maxwell friendships each day until 1920 finds 100,000 Maxwells in process of construction at the eight Maxwell plants.

Those who sell the Maxwell say this number will supply but 60 per cent of the demand.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS

A THEATRE PARTY.

CHAPTER CII

"Everett was old," I thought as I dressed, yet he did not look old in the same way Father did, altho they were almost of the same age. He had the wide-awake air of the city man, was always faultlessly groomed, and while dignified, was never pedantic or bored appearing when out in company. At dinner I looked at him and a thrill of pride ran thru me at his distinguished appearance, followed by an unaccountable wish that he were young, very young like Alice Sloane's husband, yet that he looked just as he did.

We had not been in our seats at the theater but a few minutes when Rose nudged me:

"There's Mr. Kemp—over there in that box." Just then he caught sight of us and bowed. Everett turned to see what we were looking at, and caught him bowing. He scowled the faintest bit, but also acknowledged Kemp's greeting by a faint bow . . .

"I knew he would be here," Rose whispered. I couldn't see why she should be particularly flattered, because there were two lovely women in the box with him, also two men. Afterward Rose said, he was alone because she couldn't be with him. I thought it such nonsense when she had only met him two or three times. But I guess she was right—after events seemed to prove her so "Isn't he handsome?" she added.

"Very," I replied, "Yet I like Everett's style better." Just why I should have said it I do not know—some feeling of standing up for what belongs to me probably.

"He's stunning of course for an old man, especially in evening clothes: but Mr. Kemp is my kind."

There it was again! Would Rose ever stop calling Everett "an "old man?" If she only knew how I envied older women. I must tell her all about how I felt—that older women, women Everett's age were so much more entertaining, so much more atractive, that young girls were not to be mentioned in the same classes. I would tell her of Irma Barton, how jealous I had been until she had told me of Laola and of herself. Perhaps I could make Rose understand that no longer did Everett seem old to me, and that I would be delighted could I add a few years to my own age, so gaining in experience.

We went directly home after the play. I thought Rose was disappointed, but paid no attention, James served us a light supper in the dining room before we retired however."

"I would have gone to some restaurant for supper," Everett said, addressing Rose, "but Sandra has not quite recovered, and I though she looked tired."

"This is very nice," Rose had replied meekly.

My heart was singing for joy.

Everett had thought only of me. I had looked tired so he had made his plans because of that. I didn't care now if Rose had said he looked old, or that she like a young man better. No, indeed! My husband suited me. If only I could hold him. I was so young, so ignorant of all that he knew, it seemed sometimes that I must bore him. And I had once heard him say he could not endure a person who bored him.

Then, after we had bidden Rose goodnight and were talking over the play, one of his emotional surprises came again to me. He caught me in his arms and held me so closely that I was almost breathless.

"Tell me you love me," he said tensely, "better than anyone in the world—even if I am so much older. Tell me, Sandra!" His eyes were glowing and he kissed me again and again. He was in a mood I did not understand, perhaps because he so seldom gave voice to his feeling—any feeling for me.

"I do love you, Everett. Sometimes I am a little afraid of you, but I always love you. I want you to love me too—love me better than anyone inu the world—or out of it."

At once he put me from him. My reference to Leola, altho veiled, had angered him.

At once he put me from him. My reference to Leola, altho veiled, had angered him.

"Good night, Sandra. I hope you will rest well," was his answer.

Why the Cleveland Six is Multiplying its Friends

The Cleveland Six is making new friends every day, thousands of them every month, because it brings them so much more than they had even dared to expect,—so much more of the pleasure of driving, and the ease of driving and of the comfort of riding.

The motor of the Cleveland Six—designed by the Cleveland company's own engineers, tested in road work and engineering shops for three years before being offered to the public, and now built in the company's own great factory—is something new to countless thousands of motorists who prefer the light six type of car.

They have never driven behind just such a motor as this. The wonders of its pick-up and flexibility are exceptional and the brakes sure. Low underslung spring construction and soft restful cushions give the Cleveland unusual qualities of comfort.

Since first sent out on its journey into the big world of motordom, last July, the Cleveland Six has made friends, and multiplied them. Thousands of owners know what a good car it is and they tell their friends.

Suffered With Boils Past Five Years

Boils are simply a breaking out of bad blood and anyone who has suffered from them knows how sick and miserable they make you feel. Just when you think you are cured of one another seems ready to take its place and prolong your misery. All the poulticing and lancing you can do will not get rid of them

While the skin appears to be the cause of the irritation the real disease is rooted in the blood and to get rid of these painful pests it is necessary to get right at the seat of the trouble.

When the blood is purified, cleansed and vitalized by Burdock Blood Bitters, the boils will quickly disappear, you misery is at an end, and health and strength come back again.

Mr. Robert Johnson, Barkway, Ont., writes:—"I hav suffered very much, during the last five years from boils, having as many as five at once. I tried different remedies without any relief. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters which I did and after taking just one bottle I have had no more boils."

THINK MAN MAY ACT AS COMMON CARRIER

How Windsor Views a Liquor Decision by Mr. Justice Middleton.

WINDSOR, Ont., April 21.—That a man may act as his own carrier is the opinion voiced here following the judgement of Mr. Justice Middleton, who orders that a fine of $500, imposed on John Kozak, a foreigner, for bringing two suitcases of liquor from Montreal, be returned to him with the liquor.

The only chance a whiskey carrier takes now, according to views here, is that he might divert his shipment to some other place than his own home.

WINNIPEG CHURCH CENSUS.

Majority of Families Acknowledge Adherence to No Creed.

WINNIPEG, Man., April 21.—Figures resulting from the compilation of the recent church census of Winnipeg, while not complete, inasmuch as a large area of the city, largely populated by foreigners, was not included in the enumeration, throw an interesting light on the religious elements of the city's life. Owing to the lack of organization, this first census is not accepted as being exact in any sense. The total number of families enumerated was 31,628, including 56,232 adults and 16,714 children. Of this number, 1,249 families, including 2,322 adults, reported as not being allied with any church. Of those acknowledging adherence to a particular religious body, 11,002 reported that they had no preference as to which church of their faith they attended.

FLYERS LAND SAFELY AFTER RECORD TRIP.

TORONTO, April 20. — After what is believed to have been a record flight between Ottawa and Toronto, two American Army air service officers, Lt.-Col. H. E. Hartney and Capt. H. T. Douglas, descended at Armour Heights at 4.25 yesterday afternoon. They "did" the 256 miles between the two cities in two hours and five minutes. Col. Hartney is a son of Mr. J. H. Hartney, 41 Roxboro street west this city, with whom he spent the night. He stated that he and Captain Douglas planned to continue their flight to Washington to-day, leaving here about 9 o'clock this morning, and if all went well reaching the United States capital about 1.30 this afternoon. A stop might be made in between, he said, probably at Rochester.

"Fall wheat and grass are looking well," Mr. R. N. Scott of Smith, reports, "and with a warm rain you would soon see a big change in the appearance of the country." Mr. Scott regards the spring as satisfactory and from several trips through the townships he believes the fall crop has come through the winter without serious damage. Grass is showing green everywhere and will soon be fit for pasturage.

HOUSING PROBLEM IN PETERBORO

LITTLE HOPE OF EARLY RELIEF FROM THE PRESENT HIGH COST—FIGURES SUPPLIED BY LOCAL CONTRACTORS.

(By F. H. Dobbin.)

If the number of those who have asked for information, looked at plans, prepared sketches, selected lots, held daily and evening conferences, (men and women) and taken an interest in the possibility of gaining a house were to realize and become fruitful, certainly a marked addition to the housing capacity of the city would result. Many admit the almost hopeless situation when measured —the costs of building— up against income and earnings. Many who have lived in the city for years and serenely paid rent, on the ground that it was of the two propositions the cheaper, realize now that they have left the ownership of a home off too long. And truth to tell, the possibility of numbers owning a home is about as far off as reaching for a flag on top of a flagstaff perched on the top of the spire of St. Paul's church. It simply can't be done.

Is there, it may be asked, a possible remedy. One only, and that partial. That those who may, considering income and intensive economy, build houses and so release for rental the dwellings in which they now live. More houses is what we need. If those living in these houses own them, so much, very much the better. But if even not, then they can be housed in the same old way.

Little Relief.

It is about settled, after strivings and pleadings, and pursuasions and appeals to civic spirit that the so-called "capitalist" class will not now erect houses for rental. At least to only a limited extent. Not enough to cause any perceptible difference and because at present costs of building the rentals to be asked would be a sore distress to the occupants. It is plain that little relief can be looked for from this direction.

Depending on the action of the Legislature, the new bill will presently be ready. It is known that the changes from the terms of last year include no further grants by the province, a guarantee of debentures issued by places, the raising of the initial percentage payable in land or money from ten to fifteen per cent., and in the cases of soldier men to ten per cent., and sure as fate, interest at six per cent. All these are depressing facts to look at and annoying to strive against. It may be permissive for Council to pass a by-law without reference to the property owners, and it may be not so. Let us hope for the latter.

In the meantime the one absorbing question is "what will it cost to build that house," said house being anything from a four room cottage to an eight room dwelling. In order to get at some tangible idea of cost the Commission has had supplied to it real figures, made up by two thoroughly competent builders and contractors estimating independently and afterwards the joint figures gone over for verification, as a matter of comparison the results are startling. We shall avail nothing by concealing exactly what is before us. Rather we should honestly look at the situation just as it is.

"Working Contractor."

The figures are made up on the basis that the contractor is a "working contractor," one who takes off his coat and suspenders, loosens his collar and pitches in with the men to make things hum. In this case the so-called contractor's profit is eliminated, unless there be some expenses to be met in materials and wastage. The estimate is illuminating and we are to take it, convincing. In any event we havn't anything better to snub to, and a public service has been done by the men who made the estimate. Thanks, until they may be better paid.

Among the plans in the hands of the Commission, with the accompanying sheets of details and specifications is what is known as the "Standard Dwelling." It has been built about eighty times already, in other places. Is about as perfect a plan in all ways as may be devised. Reasonable rooms, abbreviated hallways, both up and down stairs, ample closets, side entrance to the cellar and to the kitchen and lower hall, furnace, bath room, and three-piece fittings, fire place, verandah, all in good shape. What is known as a six-room dwelling. Living room, dining room, kitchen and three bedrooms. The halls and bath room do not count as rooms. Built of solid brick, cement floor in cellar. Just the sort of house the decently well off, (in earning capacity) man in the mechanical trades, clerk or office assistant should occupy and hope to own.

This house was built, last July-October, at Hamilton, for a trifle over $2,500. Ground floor plan 23 x 28 ft. Just such a house as could be sold any day. Would suit anybody. We get a shock when we find that the estimates at Peterborough, based on present cost of materials and the prospective wages for the coming season is at $4,512.00, without the lot. Add, say $300.00 for the lot and we have $4,800.00. Why the blessed brick in the house costs $821.52 as laid in the wall. The lumber looms up as about $1,100.00. And yet we wonder at the increase of crime. The heating apparatus provokes, at the price, hot language. It simply means that the values are not there, but one has to pay it, or go without.

It may be put forward that this house is too expensive. It isn't. It has been made expensive, by the same methods that are now at work to see if the price of overalls cannot be shoved up from $1.50 to $6.00. And the overalls will get there if there is any humanly possibility of hoisting the goods. If houses were not in demand, the cost would not be in evidence. You can walk up to Lakefield and buy three houses for the cost of one in Peterborough. Let's all go and live in the village.

The four-room house is suggested as a remedy. Certainly it would partially meet conditions, if one could fit a whole array of families into such houses. For an elderly couple, or a newly married twain the house might be ideal. Let that family expand and there are hindrances. Even to young people growing up in a small four room house the social significance is one not to be lightly passed over. It may suit the old folks, but not the young. And the ultimate cost would not be over $300.00 less, we are told.

A partially completed house may afford some easment. Things could be done without, lessening present outlay, so long as the sanitary requirements are met. It is possible that the urgent necessities of the housing bewilderment may require the local Commission to build houses directly and sell to purchasers on the usual time payments as defined by the Housing Act. This failing the coming forward of individual applicants to build under the provisions as laid down.

GOOD PROGRESS BEING MADE AT REHEARSALS

FOR "GIRL OF THE TOY SHOP"—COSTUMES HAVE ARRIVED FROM THE PRODUCERS, J. B. ROGERS CO., OF OHIO.

Nearly 200 young people have been busily engaged in rehearsals for the past week in preparation for the famous musical spectacle, "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop," which will be staged at the Grand on 29th and 30th April.

The production has been staged more than 1,000 times by amateur talent throughout the country, and press and public everywhere have been most enthusiastic with their praises, declaring "Fi-Fi" one of the most brilliant and fascinating entertainments ever presented.

The story is unique. It deals with a dream of the toymaker's daughter, Bonnie, and the coming to life by the use of smelling salts of a considerable number of toys and dolls in the shop. All sorts of adventures await the newly animated creatures and what they do, and how they are finally restored to their proper places in the toy-shop is to give a most agreeable entertainment with the aid of Peterborough's most attractive and talented young people.

There is an interesting plot in which the love affairs of the flirtatious Fi-Fi, the finest French doll in the shop, who leads the Toy Soldier and the Toy Prince a merry chase for her affections, and then finally elopes on a moonbeam with the Man in the Moon.

"Fi-Fi" is a story like Peter Pan, in which older as well as younger people take keen enjoyment. An elaborate costuming and scenic equipment will be provided for the local presentation.

HAY $100 TON.

Shortage of Feed Has Hit Dairymen.

(Canadian Press)

REGINA, Sask., April 21.—Large numbers of cattle in the northern part of Saskatchewan have died of starvation, owing to the shortage of feed which was brought about by the long winter and the heavy snow fall, according to a report presented at a meeting of creamery men at Saskatoon to discuss dairy matters in the province. Hay has been selling at $100 a ton, and the dairymen have eagerly bought it up in order to provide feed for their stock.

CONFERENCE OF LABOUR INTERESTS

Special to Examiner.

WINNIPEG, April 21. — E. McGrath, secretary of the Bureau of Labour, of the Provincial Government, will leave for Ottawa on Friday, where he will represent the government at a conference to be held between federal officials, representative of labor, and employers, and other provincial governments. The meeting was for the purpose of securing a greater unification of labor legislation, said McGrath.

It would be the endeavor of the conference to eliminate unfair competition between the manufacturers in the different provinces.

He pointed out that if a minimum wage stipulated by statute in Manitoba was higher than that in another province, or if the other provinces did not have such legislation manufacturers could not compete on equal terms. The same argument applied with regard to laws governing the minimum wage for factory employees.

CHANGES ON STAFFS OF FARM PAPERS.

Lose, Editor-in-Chief Who Is Succeeded by Associate Editor.

(United Press.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 21.—In agricultural circles in Western Canada there will be much interest in the change that has taken place in the editorial staff of the Farmers' Advocate and Home Journal of Winnipeg. R. G. Thomson, B.S.A., who has been editor-in-chief for the past seven years has been forced by the condition of his health to give up continuous office work and he is taking up practical farming near Indian Head, Sask. His successor wil be J. H. McCulloch, B.S.A., who has been for the past three years associate editor and live-stock specialist with the Farmers' Advocate. Mr. McCullough is well-known throughout the west, having been superintendent of dry farming station in British Columbia and associate editor of the Farm and Ranch Review of Calgary.

W.O.W. DANCE

The W. O. W. dance last evening (the last to be held this season) was a most successful affair in every way, and a fitting climax to the series of weekly dances.

Excellent music by Tucker's orchestra, kept the seventy-five-odd couples dancing until the wee sma' hours.

Mr. T. H. Ryan as floor manager, carried out his duties in a highly satisfactory manner. The refreshments in fact everything that was necessary for an enjoyable evening, was in evidence, and the dance was the most successful in every way that has been held during the winter and spring.

On April 7th the turkeys came to life again after being buried under the snow for three weeks and two days. One of the turkeys was able to get out of the snow prison and when the other was liberated it flew away as if nothing had happened.

STOP ALDERMEN FROM SMOKING?

ALDERMAN WATKINSON OBJECTS TO SMOKE-SCREENS THROWN OUT BY CHEAP CIGARS.

LONDON, April 21.—A new smoke bylaw may be introduced in the city council. This measure will not seek to eliminate the smoke nuisance resulting from factory chimneys and railroad locomotives. It will seek to do away with the smoks screen created by aldermen themselves by means of long black cigars, jimmy pipes and other smoke machines which are brought into action whenever the city daddies gather in solemn confab.

Ald. F. R. Watkinson is the father of the motion. He thinks that the aldermen and his worship the mayor should refrain from smoking at even such informal gatherings as committee meetings. This extreme opinion is not held by all members of the council, but it is quite possible that he can obtain sufficient support to prevent smoking at council meetings.

The Olden Days.

In the good old days, when everything was done much more properly and much better than anything is done in these preverse times, no alderman would think of polluting the council chambers with smoke. They sat around the long narrow table looking much more dignified than even the members of Parliament who wear their hats in the House of Commons. Ald. Watkinson sees no reason why this old-time dignity could not be restored in the city.

In addition to the dignity, the restriction might have the advantage of shortening council meetings considerably. Comfortably seated in black leather chairs with faithful old pipes going full blast, the aldermen are often content to sit around until midnight listening to long speeches on various minor problems that are much drier than most of the cigars. With the soothing influence of tobacco removed, there would likely be a sudden demand for fewer and shorter speeches and the council chambers would be cleared by 10 o'clock at least.

Feed Up a Child in the Way It Should Grow

In the Spring, more than at any other time, children should have a well-balanced diet.

Proper nourishment fortifies children against the changeable Spring weather.

What is proper nourishment? It is food that is easily digested —it is food that does not overtax the stomach—it is food that supplies the elements of nourishment in balanced proportion.

Your own doctor will tell you that milk is nature's finest food. That it is essentially a health giving nourishment. That you can keep your kiddies in constant good health during the trying Spring season by giving them as much milk as possible.

Now is the time to double your regular milk supply. Don't try to make a pint do the duty of a quart.

PRESENTATION TO MISS RUTH JONES

WAS TELEPHONE OPERATOR AT BAILIEBORO.

On Tuesday, April the nineteenth, Miss Ruth Jones who has for some time past served in the capacity of telephone operator at Bailieboro, was made the recipient of the following letter and presentation in appreciation of her services upon the occasion of her severing her connections with the company and taking up her residence in Peterborough:

MISS R. JONES,
Peterborough, Ont.

"In life hearts need fond words to help them on their way;
Need tender thoughts and gentle sympathy
To cheer each passing day."
"Whatever adds in even the smallest way to the world's brightness and cheer is surely worth while."

With such words do two different writers pay their tribute to thoughtfulness and faithfulness in service in human life. Thoughtfulness is love working in all delicate ways, in its unselfishness that forgets itself, thinking not to be served, to be honoured, to be helped, but continually of serving, honouring and helping others. It manifests itself in such a modification of one's conduct that whatever would give trouble, inconvenience or hurt to others is avoided.

Faithfulness in service not only has its own pecuniary reward and the Divine and individual approval, but also a very helpful and inspiring influence on others. These two characteristics of thoughtfulness and faithfulness in your service to us as subscribers of the Bailieboro Telephone Co. have prompted us to take this means of expressing to you our gratitude for the many valuable and highly-appreciated services you gladly rendered while you so faithfully filled the position of "Central."

With these feeble words of appreciation we combine this cheque for one hundred and seventeen dollars with the hope that as you may use this, our gift, it may be a pleasant reminder of our esteem for you and your loving service while in Bailieboro.

Signed on behalf of the subscribers of the Bailieboro Telephone Co.,
JOSEPH MADILL,
WELFORD DAWSON.

HEART SO BAD

WAS NOT SAFE TO LEAVE HER ALONE

Miss Eva P. Yatem.n, Krugersdorf, Ont., writes: "I feel that I must write and tell you of the great benefit I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. About four years ago I was taken terribly bad with my heart, nerves and fainting spells, and was down in bed for about six months. I doctored with two different doctors and seemed to get better although the fainting spells would not leave me. I would take such terrible falls wherever I was, that it was not safe to leave me alone at any time. At last I decided to resort to proprietary medicines, and took several different kinds but seemed to receive but little benefit from them. One day noticing the advertisement of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I decided to try them. Before I had taken more than two boxes I could see that they were helping me. I have taken about ten boxes and am almost cured of those terrible spells. I sincerely feel that your medicine has proved a blessing to me and I advise anyone troubled with their heart to try them as I am confident they will find relief."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SAY FRANCE MUST MAINTAIN ARMY OF 700,000 MEN FOR SOME TIME YET

PARIS, April 20.—France must maintain an army of 700,000 men until enemy countries "show their good will by executing the terms of their treaties," in the opinion of Government officials, according to newspapers here. Plans under contemplations call for 350,000 conscripts constantly under training, eighteen months' service being required of each man.

Wages equal to those paid industrial workers, less the cost of food and lodging provided by the Government, will be paid enlisted men and conscripts who re-enlist. It is expected bills to carry out this programme will be introduced in the chamber some time in June.

Rules relative to the length of hair, moustache and beard, which since early in the war have been very strict, have been relaxed. In future a soldier may cut his beard in any way his fancy may dictate, and he need not have his hair closely cropped. Old regulations permitted beards but specified they must not be so luxuriant as to hide collar insignia.

FORSEES LONG WINTER

(Canadian Press.)

SASKATOON, Sask., April 21.—"Talking about records for long winters, I thinks that this one is going to create a new record," said W. P. Bates of the Public School Board. "The winter of 1909 was a long one, when the ice didn't go out until April 17. The year 1847 was another bad one. Snow fell in November six to the mth. deep, and then suddenly dropped into weather with the temperature down around 30 to 40 below zero. Cattle died by the hundreds.

BRITAIN BUILDING MYSTERY VESSELS

GIGANTIC EIGHT-ENGINED FLYING BOATS OF STEEL.

LONDON, April 21.—The greatest secrecy attends the construction by Britain of gigantic eight-engined flying boats of steel and airpane, each of six thousand horse-power and able to light on land or sea.

Colonel Alan H. Burgoyne, M.P., editor of the Navy League Annual, has just revealed the fact that these mystery vessels are building, but all details are naturally guarded by the naval authorities.

Britain is engaged in strenuous efforts to speed the improvement of her aerial armament, Mr. Burgoyne said to-day:

'Britain's supremacy on the seas is to-day more complete than ever before. The Hood is the most powerful and fastest fighting unit ever produced. We have a submarine of 26 knots speed and ten thousand horsepower. Others carrying 12-inch guns, and stil others fitted with armoured protection, capable of coping with the seas as long as the large surface fighting ships."

Bugs, Fleas, Flies, Roaches, Mosquitoes, Moths, Ants, Beetles—ALL Killed by KEATING'S POWDER. Sold in cartoons only, at all dealers.

OVERALL FASHION FAILED IN FRANCE

SOLE STOCK IN COUNTRY BOUGHT UP AND PRICES HOISTED OUT OF SIGHT.

PARIS, April 121.— Leaders of fashion here are watching with interest the movement in the United States to fool the clothing profiteers, by wearing overalls. A similar attempt was made here not long ago, but it failed, because the only stock of overalls in France were those of the United States army, and they were bought up by a wholesaler, who promptly put up the price. When he got through "going up" a pair of overalls cost almost as much as a new gown.

Then there was the "Cotton Stocking League," an enthusiastic and very sincere organization of fashionable but sane Parisian women who tried to take the lead in combatting the high cost of living by spurning silk hosiery and all other "fancy" high-priced wearing apparel. Their effort was frustrated by the extravagant section of the smart set insisting upon appearing at the Long Champs races and in the Paris ballrooms in ever costlier and ever more freakish coatumes.

However, it is predicted by the more conservative elements of French society that there will be an inevitable reaction.

TO COMMUNICATE WITH THE PLANET ON FRIDAY NEXT

OMAHA, Neb., April 21.—After five years of preparation Prof. David Todd of Amherst College will attempt this week to get into communication with Mars. The effort is scheduled for April 23 at Fort Omaha. A specially constructed balloon piloted by a great balloon expert, the aid of the War Department, experts from Rockfeller Institute, apparatus from John Hopkins University, latest inventions and specially-built instruments will assist Professor Todd in testing the belief that the Martians are trying to communicate with the earth.

Next Friday Mars will be nearer to the earth than at any other time of the year. Professor Todd believes if the Martians are sufficiently advanced in knowledge they will make their greatest efforts at communicating when nearest the earth.

The plan is for Professor Todd to ascend to agreat height, send out wireless impulses and "listen in" for any wireless impulses which may be passing through the ether. These impulses will be recorded on a super-sensitive plate, and the plates will be developed and the sound intensified so it can be heard.

As for the sending impulses, the plan is to use the balloon as a relay station for wireless impulses sent out from the earth.

The pilot will be Captain Leo Stevens, chief balloon instructor for the United States army. His fame as a balloonist is world-wide. Captain Stevens is building a balloon within a balloon. In the past, as a balloon ascended the hydrogen gas expanded and gradually forced its way out of the mouth of the balloon so the bag lost its ascending power. In Stevens' balloon, with its bag within a bag, as the hydrogen expands it will force only air out of the balloon, and the lifting power of the hydrogen will not be affected.

Captain Stevens believes he can reach a height of 50,000 feet.

CITY DECLINES TO PAY FINES TO PROVINCE

OTTAWA, April 20.—The city has decided to tap a new and profitable source of revenue. At the Board of Control meeting a motion by Mayor Fisher that Police Court Clerk W. F. Lett be instructed to pay no more police court fines into the provincial treasury, but turn them over instead to City Treasurer Corbett, was unanimously carried. The Mayor's proposal caused practically no discussion. It was pointed out by the Mayor and City Solicitor Proctor that several Ontario cities, Hamilton among them, do not hand over police court fines to the province. As to the legality of the course the city intended adopting, the city solicitor gave the opinion: "We ought not to pay over the fines."

WILL SALVAGE WRECKS.

Sea "Will Give UP Its Treasures to Salvagers.

(Canadian Press)

VANCOUVER, B.C., April 21.—To delve into the unknown depths of the sea off the west coast of Vancouver Island and wrest therefrom treasures hidden for many years, is the object of S. Maddison and his party of salvagers, who will begin operations early in May. Last autumn Mr. Maddison [illegible] cruises among the reefs which line the coast of the island and located four large wrecks besides a number of smaller ones. Two of the larger he identified as the Pass-of-Midland and the Valencia and one of the others he thinks is the long lost H.M.S. Condor which disappeared in 1904 and has never been heard of since. Some of the numerous boats which met their fate on the perilous west coast carried cargoes which at the time of sinking did not make it worth while salvaging but under present day conditions thereof freight aboard these boats which must be worth almost its weight in gold.

FRENCH GENERALS ARE NOW ON TRIAL

Charged With Abandoning of Posts by Surrender of Maubeuge

PARIS, April 21.— The trial of Brigadier-Gen. Fournier, commander of the French fortress of Maubeuge at the beginning of the war; General Ville, Colonel Charlier and several other officers accused of abandoning their posts in the face of the enemy by surrendering Maubeuge to the Germans in September, 1914, began for the second time before a court martial here. General Maistre, who commanded the French army which conquered the last remaining German positions in the Chemin-des-Dames presided.

The first trial was commenced in November 1919, but at the first sitting the government applied for a postponement, which was granted

THE J. C. TURNBULL CO. Ltd.

THE GEORGE STREET CHOIR CONCERT

Advance notices and pleasurable anticipations were fully realized in the annual concert given by the George street Methodist church choir last night. The large audience manifested its appreciation of the uniformly entertaining programme by encoring eight of the fifteen numbers. The remaining seven were choruses that were enthusiastically received. Altogether it was another success to heighten the established reputation of Mr. J. H. Renwick, who assured an evening of enjoyment for his expectant admirers by a selection and arrangement of the numbers that could scarcely be improved. And that Mr. Renwick knows the tastes of his audiences was shown by his inclusion of popular or rather well-known works that are always delightful.

The choir, augmented to eighty voices, was imposing in its array of potential strength and, in the Doxology with which the concert opened, offered a foretaste of what was to follow. The quality of the choral tone was excellent, and the harmony was well balanced. Conspicuous Renwick requirements were the firmness of attack, the clearness and precision. The choir seemed particularly rich in basses, and the entire male section was impressive in the Mendelssohn setting of the psalm, 'Judge Me O God." The satisfying texture of the tone was notable from the outset, especially in both the unaccompanied numbers, the psalm and "Watchman What of the Night."

The Soldiers' Chorus from "Faust" was sung with a stirring dash and vigor that swung along into a rousing finale. The "Hallelujah" chorus from the Messiah brought out the choir's volume and succeeded in imparting something of the majesty conceived by Handel and so impressed upon a great audience of a century ago that they instinctively arose to their feet as if the splendor of the composer's vision had been suddenly flashed before them. Hence, the tradition which British audiences have preserved of standing while this chorus is sung.

Pleasing as it was, there seemed something slightly disappointing about the number, "Just a Song at Twilight" for the men's voices alone. There was a suggestion of uneveness in the harmony in places, and the possibilities of expression associated with this familiar song seemed to be sacrificed by the tempo which was faster than in the usual solo presentation, and tended to rout the mood of contemplation. There was no such flaw to "Comrades in Army," in which the blending of the unaccompanied voices found the men at their best. The spirit of the theme was admirably evoked.

The 'Rock-a-bye" chorus by the ladies unaccompanied, was a delightful number. The soprano humming in various passages created the illusion of the soft playing of violins.

Miss Mignon Telgmann's violin solos were outstanding features of the concert. She impressed and charmed her audience by her technical acquirements, the ease with which she employed them, and the beauties she produced from her instrument. In contrast to several other violinistes whose progress local musical lovers have followed with unfailing interest, Miss Telgmann shows a preference for selections that are dynamic rather than reflective. Both her numbers and the encores, and the recollection of some of her former appearances, seem to bear out that opinion. Her steady development and resulting confidence and proficiency are gratifying evidences to those who recognized her first signs of exceptional talent, and not the least interesting in Miss Telgmann's work is the revelation of her spirited temperament. Just to mention one quality of her performance last night was the crispness of the tones in many passages, particularly in both encores.

Mrs. J. H. Renwick renewed the favorable impressions she has gained in the past. She sang "Bid Me Discourse" with an appropriate effect of lightness, and in the encore Tosti's "Good-bye" brought out the sentiment with convincing expression and in splendid voice.

The piano arrangement for the William Tell overture played by Mrs. C. S. Thompson and Misses Isabel Baird, Bessie Elcome and Laura Macfarlane, suggested the hand of Mr. Renwick. Considering the limitations of the piano this quartette was a meritorious performance. The parts fitted with exactness, the subjects were clearly presented and the finale was played with splendid flourish.

Miss Doris Rathbone's rich contralto was well suited to range and sentiment of "The Angel's Serenade," and the effect was improved by the cello obligato played by Mr. Cyril Rathbone. This was a very pleasing number and was warmly encored.

Interspersed with the musical numbers were three readings by Miss Mary Urquhart, who was recalled each time. She won the audience from the outset by her charming presence and by the fidelity of her impersonation. She revealed a marked aptitude and an unstudied humor in her imitations of children.

This concert will be repeated in George street church on Tuesday, May 4th for the benefit of the Playgrounds Association and is highly recommended to those persons who were not present last night. Many of those who did share the pleasure will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity of enjoying it again.

ENID BENNETT GOOD COOK? WELL, TRY HER "AUSTRALIAN GOOSE"

STAR OF "STEPPING OUT" PREPARES DAINTIES FOR MEMBERS OF STUDIO COMPANY.

Enid Bennett, the popular star in Paramount-Ince pictures, is a good cook. She proved this recently to members of the company appearing with her in "Stepping Out," the Paramount picture which comes to the Grand Theatre commencing to-morrow.

Miss Bennett plays the part of a thrifty young housewife who sews, cooks and cleans. So when it came to cooking she agreed to really prepare a meal for the company. The chef d'oeuvre she announced would be "Australian Goose."

Now, as Miss Bennett came from Australia the players were anticipating tasting some rare bird. It turned out that "Australian Goose" is merely a name used for mutton. But it was a dainty dish and all thoroughly relished the delicacy.

"I tell you," said Niles Welch, who plays the part of the discontented husband in the story. "If all wives cooked like this, there never would have been any chance for this picture happening."

FATHER GETS DETAILS OF SON'S DEATH

Heroic Battle Put Up By His Boy Described by Eye-witness.

(Canadian Press.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 21.—There is a stirring of the imagination in a letter that has come to Winnipeg from the battlefields of Belgium. Last September, C. H. Wilson, of this city, inserted an advertisement in the local paper of Roulers, Belgium, asking for information of the grave of his son, Lieut. C. M. Wilson, who met his death while serving with the British Air Force, and whose grave was believed to be located in that district. Mr. Wilson has received a long letter from a Belgian citizen, giving details of the fight in which Lieut. Wilson lost his life. An eye-witness supplied the information that Lieut. Wilson had been killed in an air battle with the Germans on Oct. 7th or 8th, 1918, just before the big German retreat. He was buried where his machine fell on a farm near the little town of Rumbeke.

The eye-witness, the letter states, saw the fight open between three British and four German machines. One of the British machines was surrounded by four Germans, yet he kept up the fight. Two of the Germans were shot down and the British continued battle against the other two, the two other British machines for some unknown reason dropped out of the battle. While engaged in a machine-gun fight the lone British machine must have been damaged or the aviator wounded and the aviator commenced to descend. About 1,000 yards from the earth the machine took fire, but the man apparently kept it under control. This was verified by the eye-witness when he came across the machine, which was not badly damaged. The dead airman was still strapped in his seat with his hands on the control wheel. Apparently he had been shot but lived long enough to bring the plane to earth.

LEPERS SEEK FAITH HEALER.

Two Discovered in New Orleans —City Halts Influx of Sick.

NEW ORLEANS, April 21.—Two men afflicted with leprosy found by city health officers in crowds awaiting "treatment" at the hands of "Brother Isaiah," a faith healer, were to-day awaiting transfer to the leper home at Indian River, La.

The health authorities also took steps to-day to prevent the congregating of afflicted persons in New Orleans, hundreds of whom have been attracted here by stories of the healing power of "Brother Isaiah."

Steamship and railroad companies were notified that prosecutions would result from transportation of more afflicted persons into the city, and tents and shacks near the scene of the "healer's" operations were ordered torn down or burned.

Long-Standing Evil

Effective Measures Taken

Since childhood Mr. A. Call was under the shadow of a great evil, which always menaced his comfort and safety. Read what he says:—

"I was troubled with my kidneys since childhood and spent a large amount of money trying to get cured. Instead of getting better, I kept getting worse until a friend of mine advised me to try Gin Pills. I did so, and after taking one box, I was able to get out of bed and walk around. Two more boxes relieved me completely, and since then I have had no return of the trouble."

Many people have kidney and bladder trouble without knowing it. They think nothing of the backache, the pains in the sides, the constant headaches, the rheumatic, sciatic and neuralgic pains, the floating specks before the eyes, the swollen joints, the highly-coloured urine—all signs of trouble—all signs which should receive immediate attention and treatment with Gin Pills, which are by far the most effective of all preparations, and which may help you to avoid a fatal operation. They quickly relieve pain and heal the congested tissues, bringing the organs back to normal. At druggists and dealers, 50c a box. Money back if no relief. Send for free sample.

HAROLD BRADY FINED $13.10

Harold Brady's infraction of the law on Sunday afternoon last cost him $13.10 in this morning's Police Court.

Brady was driving a motor cycle south on George Street on the Sabbath afternoon. A car was driving east on Charlotte Street, but Brady it is alleged, refused to give it the right of way, with the result that the fender on the left side of the car was severely damaged. He pleaded guilty and the Magistrate set the fine. It was a costly experiment of the motor cyclist to overrule the right of way.

LADIES WILL BE INVITED TO JOIN THE LAWN BOWLING CLUB

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING HELD LAST EVENING—DISTRICT LEAGUE

On a resolution introduced by Mr. J. A. McKone, at a meeting of the Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club, in the Business College rooms last night, the ladies were extended the privilege of using the club's greens, and were invited to play the game this coming season. The fee was fixed at $3.00. As is the case with the ladies who curl at the curling rink, there will be rules at the bowling greens to prevent conflict with the schedule games, league games and tournaments in which the Club members take part. Ladies wishing to accept the invitation may communicate with Mr. Ed. Walton, secretary of the Club, for information.

The President, Dr. E. A. Hammond, was in the chair at the meeting last night. One of the matters brought before the members was the membership fee. As operating expenses had increased, some felt the fee should beadvanced. The outcome of the discussion was the decision to charge a membership fee of $6.00 to applicants for membership who know and have played the game, and a fee of $5.00 to those who seek membership for the first time and have yet to learn the pastime. This arrangement was favored as one calculated to win renewals and encourage others to join. Mr. Walter Oke was first with his renewal last night, beating out Mr. T. C. Elliot who took out the first membership renewal last season.

Another item of interest was the question of entering a bowling league with Port Hope, Cobourg, Oshawa, Belleville and possibly Bowmanville. The Peterborough Club has been invited to join the group, the understanding being that the Belleville and Oshawa Clubs would play their games with Peterborough in Cobourg and Port Hope. It is proposed to play the games on Wednesdays, that day bein observed for the weekly half-holiday by the Lakeshore towns. Peterborough's mid-week recess coming on Thursday, might cause some inconvenience. Secretary Walton was authorized to keep in touch with the promoters of the league and advise the local club as to the progress made.

CARPENTIER THINKS OLD FIGHTERS SHOULD BE GIVEN A CHANCE TO TEACH BOXING

FAVOURS FORMATION OF BOXING ACADEMIES WHERE OLD-TIMERS WOULD BE GIVEN POSTS AS INSTRUCTORS—WOULD MAKE PROFESSION A LUCRATIVE CALLING.

(By GEORGES CARPENTIER)

Out of the testimonial which has recently been raised to Jim Driscoll (and Charles Ledoux tells me the Britisher is a wonder worker), there should spring a world's endeavor to put boxing in such a position that its solidarity will be enough for all time.

When, as my manager, Francois Descamps, has told me, Mr. A. F. Bettinson (the manager of the National Sporting Club of England), following Driscoll's marvellous exposition in the ring, called for the practical sympathy of sportsmen so that the "old mas" would know more the ups and downs of life, "money flowed like water," and in a twinkling $10,000 was put in the hands of the gentleman whom we in France have learned to call "Peggy."

Thus was started a movement—maybe unconsciously—that should lead to the greatest thing in sport—the foundation of an Academy of Boxing, out of whirh will come many separate branches, and so bring into being a world's school at which the noble art may be taught.

Driscoll—Ideal Boxing Master

I do not know, but I have an idea that although my country is very much the baby in boxing, her people concentrate, perhaps, more than the British or Americans do upon the teaching of the glorious game. If you could come with me I could take you to at least half a dozen boxing academies in Paris.

The desire to learn the art of boxing in France is tremendous; and I feel it is the same in Amercia and England, but the British are more conservative than we are; they seem to be content to remain in a groove.

Descamps had a long talk about the foundation of a boxing academy in London, and he agreed that if Driscoll could be put in charge a great and most necessary work would be done.

It should be easy for the United States to have a national school of boxing, for already you have the organization. It should only be for your army, navy and civilian board to make a definite move, and the rest would be easy.

In Driscoll, for instance, the English would have the ideal boxing master. When I was in the army I heard reported stories of his greatness as a teacher and I can well believe that when he was at Aldershot he was the best instructor ever.

But the sugestion of creating a definite centre or university of boxing had not to do with any particular individual only. It is true that Driscoll, by his unexampled cleverness shaped the idea, but surely the time arrived long ago when the question of harnessing the ability of old champions the world over to some practical thing invited consideration.

I am not yet personally acquainted with the qualities of many of your American fighters, but I have long had opportunities of watching the British ring men. I have often thought of Billy Wells in this connection. Believe me, out of the ring he could teach more about boxing than most men. Some years ago before I had my first fight in England, I trained in his camp and I am free to confess that he taught me much that I know now. In the gymnasium he has a perfect style; it is a style all prettiness, and as you watch him and remember his almost phenomenal reach—and, for a heavyweight, extraordinary speed—you wonder how it is that he is not a world's champion.

The Tragedy of Old Puglists.

Now, it is my firm belief that Wells as a fighter will never come into his kingdom. He is not tempermentally fitted for a world-beater, but undoubtedly he has it in him to be one of the greatest teachers of this or any other age. And wouldn't it be a pity if he were allowed to drop out and be obliged to earn his livelihood at something for which he is not peculiarly fietted?

There is Pat O'Keefe, too, to my thinking, there is no rarer personality than this Irishman. He has not the grand manner of the bombardier, but he has got a perfect fighter's headpiece and given the opportunity he would do splendidly as a teacher.

It has long been my impression that there is no tragedy so poignant as to come across a boxer who, when young, was petted and fussed over, and who in the early winter of his life had to jog along anyhow.

From time to time there have come to Paris in the capacity of seconds Britishers whose names to me suggest many of the brightest pages in boxing history. When they were young they did not need to have a care. Their fighting days over, they are, from the point of view of the non-thinking public, mere hangers-on.

Training Schoolboys as Boxers.

My heart has bled when I have known that for a handful of francs it were possible to have them as your valet. It is enough for the general public to remember that at one time or other they were names to conjure with.

I know the English National Sporting Club well. Often have I wished that we had some such institution in France. Myself and the boxers of my country, from our earliest youth have had for our ambition a fight at the National Sporting Club. Generally speaking, our fighting is done in a haphazard fashion; at least, it is just an entertainment, just a show; something—apart from the boxers themselves—to amuse.

I have thought and do think deeply of my profession, and I have always clung to the belief that some day France will have its regular and recognized home of boxing, as in England.

America has something like the National Sporting Club in the various boxing commissions, but it seems to me the thing could be centralized to better effect.

But to get back to the idea of a national boxing academy. If there were such an institution, it should have for its purpose the teaching of the schoolboy. To have a nation of boxers able to hold its own against the world you must get hold of the boy. I read the other day that your colleges were taking up boxing as an inter-collegiate sport, and that perhaps next year all the colleges will have their own championships.

Splendid! But why not carry this same idea into the schools. I have already discussed the project with many French sportsmen, and they agree that it is a noble idea, and one which they will strive to have carried out in France. It is a fact that the young men of my country are wholly dependent upon the various little academies for their boxing lessons. Our schools have yet to have practised boxing, as many of your schools do. Of course we have our clubs; but they are not fashioned or carried on as yours are.

Occupations for Past Champions.

Considering the disabilities under which the French youth labors, it is astonishing that France has got so many boxers. The war was responsible for the immense liking for the game which we now have, and it is no exaggeration to say that there are but few boys in my country who do not wish to box like the English and Americans.

This liking for boxing must be turned into practical account, and I am hoping that, now a National Boxing Academy promises to become a result, we in France will set out to create one. For such an institution would not only teach the young idea, but of a certainty it would see to it that the great and undeniable abilities of such men as Driscoll are counted a substantial marketable article.

Only very few pugilists can hope to become champions, but every one of us who embraces the ring as a profession should have the sure knowledge that it can be made into a calling worth following. The old boxer should be found employment, and not, as most times happens, be allowed to drift and drag and develop into an unemployable.

Great and distinguished men have paid eloquent tribute to boxing during the war, and now it is over cannot the "scrapper" be made to feel that he is still wanted.

If there comes a National Academy of Boxing, the greatest game of all, the most natural game for men, will take its place with all sports that enter so closely into the scheme of things which we call life.

Peterboro bowlers roll in Toronto tournament on Thursday and the boys are getting into good shape. The five-men team will compose of: J. Maynard, A. Gillian, T. Pratt, J. Perry, H. Ballard. They will also roll in doubles and singles. T. Barrette and Jake Solomon will also roll in double and singles.

LOUIS YEOTES IS IN THE MARKET FOR A OUIJA BOARD—FLIES FROM THE DIAMOND—A VICTORY FOR THE LADIES.

Talking about the high cost of existing, how would you like to operate a baseball club minus the support of a tag day. Sporting goods have reached tremendously high prices and dealers are behind in supplies. The baseball to be used by the local leaguers cost $2.50 and new supplies will cost more. An ordinary fielder's mit commands a five dollar note, and the big mit to be used by the backstop of the Canadian General team brought $17.00.

Report says Finnigan Hill, a pitcher at Port Hope, is moving northward and may stop off at Peterborough.

The order has gone forth that the athletes must not play games on the parade grounds at the armouries.

Although Bob Ross has not yet signed a certificate the chances now are, he will play with the C.G.E., not with the Veterans as intimated some days ago. The Vets have uncovered another good backstop, who like Ross made a name for himself when the Canadians played the game across the pond.

Canadian Woollens seem to be enjoying the perplexities of the downtown dopesters over the silence of the spinners and weavers. One of their supporters said last night: "Mum's the word; but we'll be there with a team." Jack Muthall, a member of Peterborough's Midland League teams of bygone but not forgotten days; is giving his assistance to the city league nine.

Louis Yeotes has returned from Toronto, and is trying to figure out where he's at. The Thistles owner wants to call in a Ouija board.

Women won another victory last night, as a result of which they will lawn bowl this summer. A facetious bowler at the Bowling Club's meeting suggested that the invitation to the fair sex might be made more alluring if the membership fee was marked down to $2.98.

Unless the weather man upsets things too much, Riverside Park diamond will be ready for play at the end of this week.

Canadian Woollens football squad are hard at practice at Nicholls Oval, and promise to produce a real team, and a big crowd of supporters for their opening game with Canadian General on Saturday afternoon.

Herb Belleghem, the former Peterborough boy, who was seen here last season with the Moose ball team, is now with the Classics of Toronto.

The G.W.V.A. City League team will practice at the King Edward school grounds to-morrow (Thursday) evening at 6 o'clock. All players who wish to try out with the G. W.V.A. are invited to attend this practice.

BELLEVILLE CHAMPS HAD WORK OUT.

Ontario: The fine weather has started the ball-tossers around the city agoing. They are now anxious to get the winter kinks out of the system, and they will start practising with a vengeance. The G. T. R. champions expect their first 1920 initiation this week. The real drawback now appears to be the securing of a manager. This must be settled very soon so the team can get the right kind of a start. All newcomers will be given a fair trial this year, and any ball players who desire to play are urged to turn out.

Already about fifteen have signified their intention of getting out, among them several new faces who will seek places. Although they will have some job to get their places, we are sure that when the season opens, the best team available will represent the Bay City.

Y.M.C.A. BOWLING.

George street defeated St. Paul's in two out of three games last night and thereby won the second round of the Church Bowling League. The second game was sensational St. Paul's team finished strong with three double strikes in the last frame and every man with a mark. The game looked like St. Paul's by 1 G. Robertson, the George street captain upset things by finishing with 304 pins with 6 strikes in the last 4 frames. The play off has been arranged one week from Thursday night.

LOCAL FOOTBALL GOSSIP

THE REFEREES FOR SATURDAY'S GAMES—FIXTURE CARD—ADMISSION PRICES.

For the opening games of football that will be played on Saturday, 24th April, the football executive have appointed Mr. Bates to referee the Canadian Woollens vs. C. G. E. and Mr. Roberts to referee the Caledonians vs. Great War Veterans.

To give the game impetus, the executive have made a rule that all games must start punctual at 3 o'clock each Saturday and Thursday evening at 6.30 prompt. Any team violating this arrangement shall be fined $1.00 for every five minutes—but what is the penalty to be enforced upon the referee who is late?

A large fixture card has been prepared by Mr. Fred Sutcliffe, assistant secretary of association, so as to be distributed throughout the city and is now being printed in the Examiner Job Department. Watch for it!

A very noticeable absentee from the list of registered players is Dick Evans of De Laval. Stay with the game, Dick, and be an example to the younger players!

To the sporting public—the Football Association would remind them that the general admission to the games of football is free, and the only financial support they ask is voluntary. So come along and enjoy the sport.

6th Line and 8th Line of Otonabee Will Meet on Saturday.

A match game has been aranged at the Water street Alleys between the 6th and 8th lines of Otonabee and the way the out of town boys are bowling it would take a hard team from the city to beat them.

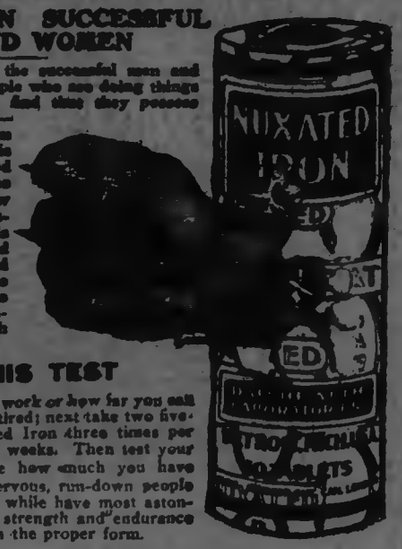
NUXATED IRON
A DRIVING FORCE
BEHIND KEEN SUCCESSFUL MEN AND WOMEN



When you think of the successful men and women you know—people who are doing things worth while—you will find that they possess force, vim and energy—the kind that simply brim over when the blood is filled with iron. Nuxated Iron by enriching the blood and creating new red blood cells, strengthens the nerves, rebuilds the weakened tissues and helps to instill renewed force and energy into the whole system. Three million people use it annually as a tonic, strength and blood-builder.

MAKE THIS TEST

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form.

WEEKLY MUSIC PROGRAMME FOR THE CHILDREN.

Why should not every church throughout Canada in which there is a good organ and which has a competent organist open its doors freely to children between the age of eight or nine to seventeen or eighteen for one hour every week at such time as may be most convenient for the largest number of children within its reach and arrange for its organist to render for the children the best music in their best style? Sometimes the organ music might be varied by orchestra and singing, but it should never partake of the nature of a lesson for the children. It should never appear to be in any way didactic, nor should any music low or trashy in its nature be included in the program.

The music period should never be more than an hour. The program should be arranged for the young people. The older people should, of course, be admitted, but as the guests of the children. Children should be permitted to come and go quietly. If ushers are provided to help them find seats there will be little danger of their becoming noisy or disorderly. All children, the rich and poor alike, should be invited and made to feel welcome. They should not be expected to dress for the occasion. There should be about the occasion no formality that might tend to keep any children away. It should be easy for newsboys, messenger boys, shop girls, boys and girls from the factories and children at play on the streets to go immediately from their occupations, listen to the music for all or a portion of the hour and return directly again to their occupations or play.

MUSIC ENSURES REAL CIVIC PROGRESS.

The man who is a musician should be just as much of a man as he is a musician; perhaps a little more will be all the better for him.

This means that he is to bear a part in the work of upbuilding the community in which he lives. If a movement is inaugurated of a public spirited character he should be associated with it; if political conditions are important he should make himself felt in the contest, certainly not abstain from voting as some do; if the local Board of Trade has no representative of the music profession he should try to convince the officers that a musician is a desirable member; if the local papers take little or no notice of music affairs he should make himself a committee of one to change the condition for the better; if the schools do not recognize the claims of music as a subject for credit he should endeavour to place the matter before the proper authorities in such a way that they will support the movement; in his own immediate circles and in the larger companies in which he may mingle he should so conduct himself that every one will think of him not only as a specialist who moves in a narrow field, but as a man and a citizen who is ready to bear a full part of the burdens of the community and to contribute of time, thought and money to insure real civic progress.

SING IN ENGLISH.

We all now want to sing well in English. It has been a good result of the war that singers have turned more and more to the compositions of our own composers—new and old. They have found that audiences have been pleased to be presented with vernacular texts; which—depending upon the capacity of the singers—they could or could not understand. Audiences have appreciated the new spirit, even if the execution has not been all it should be. For as a whole we are unaccustomed to singing English and do not vocalise or pronounce it well. English consonants and vowels are not the most singable. But we should sing them.

BIG MONEY IN TRAPPING.

Indian Makes as Much as Bank President.

(Canadian Press.)

VICTORIA, B.C., April 21.—Profits to be earned in the north by trappers are shown by the experience of Gun-a-noot, the Kiplox Indian who was acquitted from a charge of double murder at the assizes last fall. He recently returned from six weeks' trapping with furs which sold to dealers for $870. Before facing trial last year he trapped beaver for five weeks and made $1,285 to keep his family while he interviewed the judge and jury.

MANUFACTURER SAYS SHOES TO COST MORE

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, April 21.—One of the largest firms of shoe jobbers in this district received a letter from a well-known Canadian firm of boot and shoe makers, stating that the price of shoes is bound to go considerably higher in a short time in this country. Figures supporting this belief are given.

The letter reads in part: "We believe shoes will go higher. We do not think any manufacturer has been figuring leather at replacement prices, but averaging it with what they had on hand. At least that is what we have been doing.

"Vici kid we have figured in at $1.35. It now costs $1.40 in the United States, plus 15 per cent. duty and 10 per cent. New York exchange, or $1.75. You will receive a revised list of chocolate kids which now cost $4.60 instead of 90 cents a foot.

"Leather cutters are now getting 55 cents an hour. They are asking $1 an hour. Other operators are asking a similar advance. If we have to give in it will mean an advance of $1.25 on the price of men's shoes (mentionnig a certain trade variety) on the labor of making alone."

The above statements should weigh with the Peterboro public just now, who are being offered a reduction of from $2.00 to 50c off all adult footwear purchased up to the 1st of May at either of H. G. White's two stores—the "Walk Easy," and "The Peterborough Shoe Store."

FREAK CHICKEN

Not the Kind that Walks Along Peterboro's Great White Way.

A most unusual freak of nature was shown to the Examiner this morning by Rev. M. Leigh of Fraserville. The freak displayed in a cardboard box was a four legged barred rock chicken that first saw the light of day on Saturday last. It only lived two days, passing away on Monday.

The eggs were not unusual in any way and this little four legged feathered friend was the only freak in the whole setting. All the other chickens being quite normal.

The body of the tiny chick was considerably longer than an ordinary chicken. The right front leg is normal but the left leg is bent back. The two hind legs are curiously turned the opposite direction. "It might have been able to walk both ways", said a passer by who saw the freak.

CHILD FELL OFF WHARF.

Little One Went Down For the Second Time Before Rescuer Appeared.

(Special to The Examiner.)

KINGSTON, April 21. — While a group of children were playing on the wharf owned by A. W. Benjamin at Yarker, one little girl, the daughter of Geo. T. Ruscott, 3 years old, accidentally fell into about six feet of water and had gone down for the second time, when the screams of the children gave the alarm. Mr. Benjamin ran out and jumped into the cold water just in time to save the little one from a watery grave.

DID NOT THINK IT WAS POSSIBLE

MISS PARENT COULDN'T BELIEVE MEDICINE COULD DO WHAT TANLAC DID FOR HER.

"For four months before taking Tanlac I was almost an absolute wreck, but now I am well and strong again," said Miss Marie Parent, of 1367 Notre Dame Street East, Montreal, when seen by the Tanlac representative at her home recently.

"For a long while I have suffered from indigestion. After eating I had the sensation of a big lump in the pit of my stomach, and I would be seized with such spells of nervous coughing that I could not retain my food, and would almost suffocate. I had spells of dizziness when my eyesight became so affected that I seemed to be standing in a cloud of smoke. My circulation was very poor and whenever I went out in the cold my fingers would become numbed and as white and cold as marble. I finally lost all desire for food, and became as weak as a girl can possibly be. I had to sit or lie down most of the day, and was almost afraid to cross the room by myself, for fear I would fall. My joints used to get so stiff that I was afraid I should lose the use of them altogether. At night when I did have a chance for a little rest my sleep was disturbed by the most dreadful nightmares.

"It was father who read in the papers the remarkable way Tanlac was helping people, and one day he brought a bottle for me. I never would have believed it possible for a medicine to do what Tanlac has done for me. Why, very soon I had a surprisingly big appetite, and could eat meals that I never thought I should ever touch. I soon found that I could digest my food perfectly. I no longer suffered from the cold when going out, and my sleep at night is as restful as a child's. I never thought I should be as strong as I am to-day, and instead of having to be waited on I am able to work like my other sisters. I can now take my share of attending to the younger ones. Many of my relatives and friends have tried Tanlac and are all enthusiastic about it. No one who has not used it can have an idea what a remarkable medicine it is."

Tanlac is sold in Peterborough by W. B. Warne Drug Co., Ltd., in Havelock by A. C. Denike, in Lakefield by Tanner Drug Co., Ltd., in Fowlers Corners by W. A. Hunter, in Gelert by A. J. Scott, in Westwood by G. Pringle & Son.

BEATING THE BANK OF ENGLAND

"Glyka's got a rush on," said a stockbroker's clerk, jerking his head towards an undersized, sallow-faced man who was darting across the road in the direction of the Bank of England.

"Like those foreigners," growled the other. "Always rushing for something, generally money. He gets £15 a month at Vagliano's, and yet he's playing with millions. He has £1,200,000 outstanding on a single private account I know of."

Meanwhile, Glyka—Anthony Isidor Glyka in full—had gained the entrance to the Bank. Arrived there he gradually moderated his pace till at last on entering the bill office he was deliberation personified. And it was with the utmost composure that he presented a bill for £3,000, stating that he would take it "over the counter."

Three thousand pounds over the counter, and not, as usual, through a bank. The clerk remembered how a solicitor had, in the unclaimed dividends department, applied for £8,000 standing in the name of Miss Slack, of Northampton, of whose death proof had ben lodged; how he had refused to take notes, but asked for the whole amount in gold; how a clerk was so much tickled at the idea of somebody walking off with 180 lb. in his pockets that he related the incident to some visitors; and how one of the party stated that he knew Miss Slack, who was, in fact, still alive!

In a thoughtful mood, then, the clerk attending on Glyka picked up the bill, and going behind a partition consulted a colleague. Paper, printing, endorsements, signatures—everything was in order. Besides had not Messrs. Vagliano Bros. advised that the bill would be presented? So it was cashed in notes.

A few days later Glyka again did a conventional thing in an unconventional way. Having no copy in a press-copying book a letter advising a certain foreign firm of the state of their account, he first placed over the figures in that document a scrap of paper bearing other figures. And the difference between the two was exactly £3,000.

Months passed. Then Mr. Vagliano was handed in the usual course of business a bill which did not bear the name of the drawer. Fatal oversight! It was a forgery, and the game was up.

As the dabbler in millions was leaving the bank—no doubt with the intention of fleeing the country—he was seized by the arm, and a stern voice said: "Anthony Isidor Glyka, I arrest you for forgery!"

Gone at once was the audacity he had displayed in a long series of frauds. He immediately admitted his guilt and subsequently gave a full account of his amazingly daring and skilful operations.

"I forged altogether," he said "twenty-seven letters of advice purporting to come from an Odessa firm and forty-two bills. On six or seven occasions I went to the Bank myself and at other times I sent somebody to receive payment and bring back the money in notes. The messengers were clerks of brokers with whom I speculated."

And the defalcations, it was found, amounted in all to £71,500. A clerk with a salary of £180 a year had indulged in Stock Exchange "flutters" to the extent of £10,000 a month!

Clever, remarkably skilful, incredibly daring—these and other tributes were paid to Glyka at his trial, and not a few glances of admiration were bent on him as he disappeared from view to begin a sentence of ten years' penal servitude.

Then arose a problem which convulsed the City for months. On whom was the loss of the £71,500 to fall—Messrs. Vagliano Bros. or the Bank of England? Judgment was given against the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street, and this was confirmed by the Court of Appeal. In the end, however, the House of Lords reversed it.

Will Relieve the Pain.

The pain may come from strained, weakened ligaments and muscles—from the swelling and inflammation from a dislocation—from bruise, cut, boil, abscess, run-around—from hands and feet swollen from Rheumatism—from a stiff neck—from sore throat or tonsilitis—from toothache or headache.

"ABSORBINE JR." will give quick relief, wherever the pain. It makes the afflicted part thoroughly aseptic—destroys disease germs—yet is harmless to the most sensitive tissues and may be used, diluted, as a mouth wash.

It has a pleasant odor and does not stain or leave a greasy residue. It is more than a liniment—it is a vegetable germicide that is absolutely safe.

VICTORIA, B.C., April 21.—To remove any temptation which excessive insurance on a child's life might give, a bill prohibiting the writing of life insurance on any child under 12 months of age; and limiting the amount on children of 2 years to $32; three years, to $40; four years, $48; and up to $260 for a child of ten; has been introduced in the provincial legislature.

MALE CHORUS HAS BEEN ORGANIZED

A DEVELOPMENT OF CHOIR MR. RENWICK ASSEMBLED.

The men's section of the choir that sang under Mr. J. H. Renwick's baton last night will become the nucleus of a male chorus the promoters of which hope to make permanent and to embrace all the men of the city who are capable singers. The first steps towards organization were taken recently and Mr. C. B. Adair was appointed chairman of the committee. It is believed that a chorus of seventy five men can be built up without much difficulty. Many of the men of the city are eager for an opportunity of this kind, and have been dissatisfied with the limits of church work. In the broader field of music their desires may find full scope, and their united efforts should soon be felt in the musical affairs of the city.

The new organization will be non-denominational, and it is understood that Mr. Renwick will be the musical director. By his musical intentions and comprehension he is well qualified for the post, and in addition he has the essential faculty of attracting and holding singers, of securing a basic harmony of interests without which any degree of permanency is impossible.

'The Battle With Tuberculosis And How to Win It," which has found a place in our military hospitals. The inscription of this volume, 'Gratefully and affectionately dedicated to my wife and to my brother,' speaks for itself.

"I have only to add that as I look back upon those years of war, so full of poignant suffering for the whole of mankind, I cannot but experienec a sense of gratitude that in that world ordeal it was given me to share in so intimate a way the sufferings of others, and, with it all, so large a measure of opportunity to do my duty, as God gave it to me to see my duty, at that time."

"The relationship which I had with the Rockefeller Foundation, and to which I shall allude in a moment, neither required nor demanded in any way my absence from Canada; nor did it, as a matter of fact, occasion my absence, except in the most transient degree," he continued.

"More than that, at present and for some considerable time past, I have had no business connections with any commercial, financial or business interest either in the United States or in Canada. I have had none such since I was honored with the position of Leadership of my party in August last. I have refused consistently since that time even to entertain the acceptance of a retainer or fee for any work, in order that I might devote to the public duties which devolve upon me my entire time and attention.

Tells of Rockefeller Foundation.

"Now, sir, let me explain the considerations of the Rockefeller Foundation to the public generally. First of all, the foundation is not in any sense of the word a business or commercial enterprise. It is a philanthropic association chartered, unde the laws of the State of New York in the year 1913. It exists in order to maintain and use its funds for the purpose of furthering the well-being of mankind throughout the world. During the war its activities were for the most part in the nature of co-operative work in war effort, and it was the first organization in the United States to come to the relief of Belgians in the matter of food and clothing. It not only assisted the Belgians, but rendered aid to the French, the Poles, the Serbians and the Roumanians at the time of their greatest need. It gave millions of dollars in assistance to Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. work in the communities, and fitted out hospitals, having maintained the well-known hospital at Campagne, with Dr. Alexis Carroll and his staff, who carried on such admirable work. It also accomplished other forms of war work throughout the whole of that trying period. Apart from the war, however, its activities relate very largely to medical education in regard to the public health administration in different parts of the world. It is carrying on its operations in China, in France, in India, in Egypt and, indeed, throughout Christendom, and its work is exclusively, as I have indicated, one for the furtherance of the welfare of mankind generally. My duties in connection with the Rockefeller Foundation were to make a study of the problem of industrial relations, with a view to ascertaining if it were possible to contribute in any way toward the solution of that large and important problem. I was no more in the employ of the Rockefeler interests or of Standard Oil interests in my association with the Rockefeller Foundation than the librarian of the Carnegie Library could be said to be in the employ of the late Andrew Carnegie, or than the recipient of a pension from the Carnegie Foundation could be said to be related to any steel corporation," he continued.

About the Medical Gift.

"Within the last few months, as an illustration of international goodwill, the Rockefeller Foundation has made to the universities of this Dominion a gift of $5,000,000, to be used for research work in connection with the medical departments. The young men or professors who study under that particular gift will be occupying a position precisely similar in its relation to any Rockefeller interests to that which I filled when I was appointed and acted as one of the members of that foundation to make a study of this question of industrial relations.

"May I point out further that my connection with the Rockefeller Foundation was formed before the war commenced. It was made in the spring of the year, before the war was thought of. At the time it was made I was nominated and in the position of the candidate of the Liberal party in the constituency of North York. When I was asked if I would undertake that study for the foundation I pointed out that if it meant any change of residence from Canada it would be impossible for me to consider it. I was told that I could pursue my researches anywhere I wished, that there was no obligation."

General Denial Not Enough.

The speaker said that his selection by the Rockefeller Foundation had been owing to the experience he had had with industrial problems, both as Deputy Minister of Labor and subsequently as Minister of Labor in this country. He apologized for having to make reference to some of the work he had done, but explained that a general denial would not be satisfactory under the circumstances. While engaged in this research work, he had written a book, "Industry and Humanity," based on research done in Canada. He thought probably the rumors of his conection with the Rockefeller interests may have resulted from his presence, in the early years of war, in Colorado, where he was accompanied by John D. Rockefeller, jun. His visit there was in connection with the research work for the foundation, and a desire to demonstrate in the industrial war in progress there at that time the application of certain principles to the relation of employers and employees.

"I am not going to refer to the work done in that connection," said Mr. King. "It was public work, and honorable members can find out for themselves, if they are sufficiently interested in so doing, what was the significance and what was the extent of the work carried on there.

"All that I wish to state at the moment is that for that service—or whatever measure of service it was possible to render in the State of Colorado— I received nothing from any interest or from any individual, directly or indirectly concerned with any of the companies with which I had to deal. I undertook that work entirely in the spirit of work given me by the Rockefeller Foundation to do, and I carried it out wholly in that spirit."

OBITUARY

JOHN CURTIS.

Port Hope's grand old man, John Curtis, died yesterday morning after an illness extending over two months.

The late Mr. Curtis was born in England and came to this country with his parents when eight years of age and settled at Perrytown. When he was eighteen years of age his father died and Mr. Curtis assumed the responsibilites of the farm work and was very successful. In 1878 he moved to Port Hope and started in the pork business.

About the year 1880 hogs were purchased throughout the country at live weight by the incoming packing interests, and Mr. Curits then started in the grocery business. He was a shrewd business man and met with a full measure of success, and to-day it is the leading grocery business in Port Hope.

Upright in all his dealings, Mr. Curtis won the esteem of the public and his store was the first to abolish the old system of requesting the farmers to take trade for their goods. Although in his eightieth year Mr. Curtis rarely missed a day from business until his illness four months ago. He was a great reader and followed the affairs of the country with a keen interest. He was a member and regular attendant of the Methodist Church and was a real Liberal of the old school.

His one ambition was to see Port Hope advance and any movement for the betterment of the town's interests always received his hearty support. He served for several years on the Council Board and was one of the oldest members of the Board of Trade.

The funeral service will be held at the family residence, Brown street on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. E. B. Lanceley of Toronto, a former pastor in the Methodist church here and an intimate friend of the family will assist with the service.

Mr. John Curtis is the father of Mrs. W. J. Kent of this city. Mrs. W. J. Kent has been in attendance at her father's beside for some time. Mr W. J. Kent is in Port Hope, the drug store being closed in his absence and it will remain closed tomorrow out of respect for Mr. John Curtis.

DAVID DROPE.

The death of David Drope of 787 Water street, this morning, after a very short illness, has caused expressions of regret from his many friends in this city, and it will be read with deepest regret by his wide circle of friends in Alnwick township, near Roseneath, where the deceased was born and resided until three years ago, when he came to Peterborough.

David Drope was born in Alnwick township 69 years ago, and in farming found his chosen calling. Three years ago he retired to this city, where he has won many friends by his kindness, his good will and outstanding Christian character. In religion an Anglican, he ever took a keen and intimate part in church work and during his residence in this city has been a regular attendant at St. Luke's Anglican church.

His wife predeceased him five years ago. He leaves two brothers, W. J. Drope, formerly of Peterobrough, now of Grimsby, and Thomas of Roseneath. A sad feature of the death is that his brother, James Drope, was buried only yesterday at Harwood. The sisters are Mrs. D. T. Cuffe, of Peterborough, Mrs. Williams, Toronto, Mrs. Coyle, Roseneath, Mrs. McConnell of Plainville. Four daughters, Mildred and Mamie at home, Mrs. Mickle of Pruax, Saskatchewon, and Mrs. Curel of Hastings, and one son, P. C. Drope of Picton, survive.

The funeral will be held on Saturdaw morning from the family residence, 787 Water street, to the G. T.R. station, where the remains will be sent to Hastings for burial in Roseneath cemetery. Rev. White of St. Luke's church, will conduct the service at the house.

TO-NIGHT'S SPECIAL SERVICES

The third of the very special prayer meetings to be held at the S. A. Temple this week will be under the leadership of oCrps Cadet Guardian Mrs. Lang, with her Cadets. The interest is deepening in these services and every soldier in the corps is requested to make a special effort to be present.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. Patrick Coursey desires to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Gordon Matthews and his Father for the kindness they have shown him in his recent bereavement, and also wishes to thank the employees of the Canadian Packing Company and his friends and neighbours for their many kindnesses.

Great interest has been shown by the members during the games as on several occasions it was touch and go as to who would win.

The growth of the S.O.E. in membership this year has been remarkable. Englishmen in Peterboro are joining at every meeting. The S.O.E. are holding a concert on St. George's day which will certainly be worth while attending as some of the finest artists in the city have promised to take part. St. George's Day is celebrated wherever the English tongue is spoken and on Friday night the S. O.E. Hall should be the rallying point of all who honour England and her patron saint.

OVERALL CRAZE HITS PETERBORO

G.T.R. OFFICE EMPLOYEES FALL IN LINE TO-MORROW.

A most unusual sight for Peterboro will be witnessed to-morrow morning when the ten employees of the G. T. R. freight shops will officially adopt the costume that is fast becoming popular throughout Canada and United States —a set of overalls and smock.

To-night the clerks propose to invade the downtown clothing emporiums and exchange fgrom $4 to $6 for an outfit worthy of anyone. To-morrow morning for the first time they will grace their figures with the garb and do their share to bring down the high cost of clothing.

The G. T. R. Office employees have taken the initiative it only remains for other offices to follow their example.

Mr. McNab local agent when interviewed by the Examined this afternoon, stated that no steps had yet been taken by the other G. T. R. employees to line up with their comrades in the freight office.

IN MEMORIAM

LEAL—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Pte. Douglas Leal, killed in action, 2nd Battalion, April 23rd 1915.

The midnight stars are gleaming
On a marked and lonely grave,
Far away in Flanders,
Lies one we could not save,
In dreams we see his dear sweet face;
One we loved so well.
And whispered as we loved him then
We love his memory still.
Gone but not forgotten by his Parents, Sister, and Brothers.

LABOURITES DISCUSS NEW LEGISLATION

ONTARIO SYSTEM OF EDUCATION DENOUNCED—OTTAWA IS THE NEXT STOP.

PRESS EULOGIZED

The banner of the Independent Labour Party was in good hands last evening and flaunted full in the faces of the grand old parties and governments when Dr. Stevenson, M.P.P. for London, Mr. C. Swayzie, M.P.P. for Niagara, Mr T. Tooms, M.P.P. for West Peterboro and Mrs Hector Prenter addressed an audience of one hundred interested hearers at the G. W.V.A. hall on pertinent matters facing the people of Canada, of measures before the legislature of the work of the Labour group and the aims and objects of this group representing the Independent Labour Party.

Mr. Tooms Presided

Mr. T. Tooms as chairman welcomed his colleagues to the city and said the meeting had been held in conjunction with the policy of the labour group to keep the citizens well informed on the progress of the house.

Dr. Stevenson the first speaker spoke briefly. In speaking of the Peterboro member he referred to his endeavours to do the right thing by his electors sparing neither time nor labour. The fine building of the G. W.V.A. was praised highly by the speaker.

He outlined the election on the labour platform after 20 years experience in municipal affairs in London. He disclaimed any revolutionary tendencies of the Labour Party. "All we wish to do is to make life and conditions better for the workers. The work already accomplished by the Legislature was dwelt on. The bill for the abolition of property qualifications which has just passed its third reading in the house was explained in detail. Every British citizen over 21 years of age of sound mind would have the right to vote and contest municipal elections.

Protect Rights.

"The Labour party will protect the rights of all of the people." he said. He emphasized the necessity of more development of th ehydro and the can als . The St. Lawrence canal to enable sea going craft to reach; the head of navigation bringing coal and iron from Nova Scotia and Cape Breton on the return trip should be constructed, he contended to enable us to be independent of United States and, to sell coal cheaper. It would also be valuable as a source of electrical energy. "The Province of Ontario will become as great a steel producing country as United States if it is gone through," he said

"Why should not the police get into politics, everyone else is in it?" said Dr. Stevenson referring to Mr. Toom's bill which had been well received and was expected to pass.

Sunday Street Cars.

The Sunday street cars for cities of over 15,000 was highly commended. Marriage licenses should be under the control of the City Clerk he claimed for the benefit of the community and all concerned. The scheme for Mother's Pensions received no little praise and in conclusion Dr. Stevenson guaranteed the Labour group to protect the interests of the citizens and in Mr. Tooms assured them they had a representative ready to give everyone a square deal as well as the community.

The chairman expressed pleasure with the address of Dr. Stevenson. "I don't think many people realized that there was a provincial house in Toronto until the Labour group got in", he said The meeting was held to arouse the interest of the citizens in the work of the legislature. Mr. Tooms stated.

Mr. C. Swayzie.

The second speaker, Mr. C. Swayzie M.P.P. for Niagara Falls, is a keen forcible speaker and his address was straight from the shoulder leaving a most favourable impression on all who heard it.

"I am not a union man," he said, and continuing told of his conviction years ago that something was wrong with the political life of the country. "The greatest religion in the land today is political economy which means that the country is managed for the good of the people. Mr. Swayzie is in the I. L. P. fighting for the rights of the people."

Educational System.

The educational system of Ontario was denounced in no uncertain terms. The rottenest educational system in the world was the words used. Ninety two per cent. of public school graduates never enter a high school

SHOPKEEPERS DO NOT LIKE OVERALLS

Want "Sacre Bleu" Barred From Fashionable Street.

(United Press.)

... NEW YORK, April 22nd—Modistes, tailors and just plain shop keepers on Fifth avenue made so strenuous complaint against "The "Overall Parade" invading their exclusive thoroughfare on Saturday, that police cut the "avenue" out of the paraders line of march.

"Sacre Bleu Overalls", they are for factories not for the most fashionable street in America', moaned the merchants.

The committee arranging the parade said to-day more than 10,000 applications for enlistment in the march were received.

EMPLOYEES GOT INTO OVERALLS

CLERKS IN G.T.R. OFFICE LED THE WAY.

The honour of being the first Peterboroughite to don the overalls, goes to Mr. William Prendible, of the G.T. R. freight office, who shortly after 11 o'clock this morning walked out of a George street store proudly wearing a blue set of overalls. Mr. Prendible carries away the laurels for the other boys were unable to get their outfits last night and it was decided to wait until noon to-day.

In the meantime Mr. Prendible slipped up and made sure of his. A little modest in his first purchase he did not indulge in a smock, wanting to see what the other fellows did.

At noon true to their word, five of the employees purchased their overalls and smocks and marched proudly down George street, causing no little interest. The colors embrace several shades from light gray to blue, and are the regulation overall without any frille. Their ranks will be supplemented by several more of the retiring clerks to-night and it is expected that in a few days the entire office will be "overallised."

AN INQUIRY FOLLOWS THE INDICTMENT

MARKOE SLAYER TO BE HURRIED TO MATTEAWAN—RECTOR PICTURES TRAGEDY:

A PREMONITION

NEW YORK, April 22.— Thomas W. Simpkin, the demented printer, who shot and killed Dr. James W. Markoe, the distinguished surgeon, in St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church, Stuyvesant Square, on Sunday, was arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Simpson, in the Yorkville Court, and held without bail for further examination. The charges were homicide, felonious assault and violation of the Sullivan law.

Benedict Dineen, Assistant District Attorney in charge of the Homicide Bureau, said he would present the evidence to the Grand Jury on Thursday, so that an indictment for murder in the first degree could be returned. The court will then be asked to appoint a lunacy commission, and efforts will be made to have Simpkin committed to the Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane. The witnesses before the Grand Jury will be Dr. George E. Brewer, whose leg was grazed by one of the bullets fired by Simpkin; Herbert L. Satterless, who saw the shooting, and Patrolman Burns of the East Tweaty-second Street Station, who took Simpkin into custody.

It developed yesterday that it was not Dr. Markoe's custom to pass the collection plate in the aisle in which he was shot, but that on last Sunday he had taken the place of Wolcott G. Lane, a lawyer and a vestryman, who was out of town.

Had Premonition.

Dr. Rolland told friends that he had a premonition on Sunday, just before the shooting, that "something was wrong," and that several persons asked him why he was nervous during the service. The rector, who was an eye-witness of the shooting, in telling his story of the tragedy yesterday, for the first time, said:

"I had ordered a taxicab to wait for me at my home. (The rectory is next door to the church on East Sixteenth Street.) I had announced that I was going away for a five-day vacation to my summer home. My secretary notified me that the taxi was outside.

"My wife had a feeling that something was wrong and decided to remain in the church until I was ready to leave. She had intended leaving before the services were over, but several people, including Mr. Jones (J. Morgan Jones, an usher, whose cheek was grazed by a bullet), told her that something was wrong with me and that I was nervous.

Had a Feeling 'Something Was Wrong.'

"In fact, Mr. Jones had come up to me during the service and asked what the trouble was. I couldn't tell him, but I had a feeling within me that something was wrong, a premonition you might call it.

"I waited for a moment to hear George Bagdasarian, the young Armenian tenor, sing the offertory anthem, 'Seek ye the Lord.' I wanted to hear him sing the first two bars.

"Suddenly I heard a shot. I thought maybe it was an automobile at first. Then I thought it might be some Bolshevik who had come into the church to get somebody. There was a second shot, bang, like that, and then I heard the collection plate fall. It made a noise like crashing glass. The third shot I thought was a bomb.

"I jumped up and looked down the aisle and saw the door open and a man run out. Then I realized that someone had been shot. Safford, the organist, stopped playing for an instant. I motioned him to continue and waved to the little boys and girls in the choir to keep on singing. I ordered my four assistants to remain behind and continue the service. Bagdasarian was a trump. He kept right on singing.

"Then I threw my Bible into the pulpit and leaped the chancel rail and started down the centre aisle after the man. Several women had arisen in their seats. One had reached the aisle. I don't know who she was, but I do know that I ran into her and knocked her into the pew. I hope she was not hurt.

"I shouted to several of the ushers at the head of the aisle, 'Get that man!' They told me several men were after him. Then I turned my attention to Dr. Markoe who was being brought up the aisle by four men, among whomh were George Earl Warren, Vice President of the Columbia Trust Co. and Frank Lawrence Stratton. Mr. Warren was the first man to reach Dr. Markoe after he was shot. He had been seated two pews back of the man who fired the shot. He

THE DAY

Contributed.

All of our readers know, or ought to know, that to-morrow, the 23rd of April, is St. George's Day, the Patron Saint of England, and we might add, of the British Empire.

To display the Red Rose on St. George's Day is a very old custom, and perhaps, there never has been a time, when Britishers, and especially Canadians, should have made a more prominent display of this emblem of unity—the Red Rose—than the present.

22nd of April.

To-day, the 22nd day of April, the eve of St. George's Day, should most certainly be commemorated in some way or another by our fellow citizens, for to-day is "St. Julien Day," the anniversary of that great battle, where the Canadians barred the way of the Germans to the channel ports.

Lord French said, in his despatch of the Canadians at this battle, "The Canadians saved the day." This battle was fought on April 22nd, 1915.

And to-morrow, the 23rd of April, which is St. George's Day, another great battle was fought—that of Zeebrugge— where the Canadians once more showed that they were men not to be trifled with. This battle was fought in 1918.

These two great battles, where the Canadians so gloriously distinguished themselves, should be kept in memory by every true and loyal Peterborian.

Perhaps we can have no other way of keeping in memory the wonderful exploits of our fellow citizens on these dates this year, than by displaying prominently on our breasts to-morrow, "The Red Rose of Old England," which, we understand, will be sold in our streets as on former years.

MARK STREET CHURCH NOTES

"Hello Stranger! Can you tell me the location of Mark Street Methodist Church?" "Well, do you live in this city, and have to ask such a question as that, why, everybody knows Mark Street Church." "Yes, but I've just been here about a week and I'm a stranger. But nearly everyone I meet is talking about a concert to be held there on Friday evening next, and I feel like going, but I don't know the way." "Well, my friend, you had better take in that entertainment, for if there is anything that will cure the "Spring Fever" or homesickness the coming concert will do the business. Just you hear the boys and girls of that church, in the coming entertainment, and it will knock out all your loneliness, homesickness, nervousness, and blues, take my word for that "Well, where's the place?" "Now, see, that company of Boy Scouts is just about to march off, and they are going to the concert, you follow them, and you'll be all O.K. for it' the 'Church of the "Straight Message" and the "Big Welcome." Swing in and have a good time, they're a happy bunch over at Mark street." "Thanks, I like the way you put things. I'll be there." "So will I, but I may be a little late."

THE WEATHER

Yesterday's rain was a typical "April shower," which the poet says will "bring forth May flowers." It amounted to one-third of an inch. Already the grass is beginning to feel its influence, and is growing rapidly with the fresh green hue of early growth, a tint different from that prevailing later in the season. Have you noticed also the effect of a gentle rain after a period of drought in summer? Where copious watering with the hose had little effect, the rain brought immediate beneficial results. The rain in its descent brought down nitrogen from the atmosphere, which the water from the hose largely lacked.—W. P.

INSURGENT INDUSTRIAL UPRISINGS

TOM MOORE DEALS WITH SUBJECT IN AN ADDRESS TO THE TRADES CONGRESS.

BLAMES EMPLOYERS

(Special to The Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 22. — That insurgent strikes or strikes by the rank and file of labor without sanction of officials were the result of employers exploiting the desire of labour officials to solve industrial problems by negotiations, was one of the statements made to-night by Tom Moore, President of the Trades Congress of Canada, when addressing a final gathering of the Trades Council. Siding strongly with Internationals with regard to Provinces of Canada possessing the sole right to deal with industrial problems by legislation, Moore stated that the Trades Congress of Canada, head of International unionism on this side of the boundary, was strongly in favour of unification of labor legislation and would go so far as to stand for the surrendering of these rights by provinces and their being vested in the Federal government. Moore said the Trades Congress of Canada was opposed to political action and he made the point decisively that in this matter the Canadian section of Federation was absolutely independent. Speaking of the Winnipeg labor conditions, Moore said that he was well satisfied with the change in the spirit animating the members of International trade unions here. One year ago he said they realized their power, but owing to the great number of new members they failed to appreciate the responsibility in administering this power. At the present time, he said, the spirit engendered by this responsibility is appreciated by all members of the International trade union movement in Winnipeg. While unions were not nearly so strong as one year ago, Moore thought that as strength was recovered the sense of responsibility would grow.

NEW MILL WAS STARTED TO-DAY

PETERBORO CEREAL COMPANY HAS CAPACITY OF 1,500 BARRELS.

The Peterborough Cereal Company's new flour mill addition was operated to-day for the first time. Owing to the increased demand for Reindeer Flour of late years it became imperative to increase their capacity, and to do this it was necessary to add three new stories to the original building and construct ten new concrete elevators. Since last October a large staff of millwrights have been employed installing the mill machinery and fitting up the new plant, with the result that the Peterborough Cereal Company have to-day one of the most improved and modern flour mill plants in Canada. The new addition enlarges the daily capacity of the mill by 650 barrels, raising the capacity of the flour mill to 1,500 barrels, besides cereals, special feeds and products manufactured by this company.

The Peterborough Cereal Co. enjoys a most unique position in the milling industry because of the recognized quality of Reindeer flour by the largest bakers in the large centres who use this brand almost exclusively owing to its very great yield. The Delight pastry flour, also manufactured by this company, has met with the success it well merited because of its high grade quality. A branch flour mill at Campbellford is operated by this company, with a capacity of 300 barrels a day, and is meeting with justifiable success.

The new addition to the flour mill necessitate an increase in the staff immediately. Ten travelling salesmen re present the company on the road, and the commendations of their flour, heard on every side by these men, is gratifying indeed to the company, whose one endeavour is to ever maintain and improve the quality of their products.

The entire credit for the growth of this company is due to Mr. J. W. Myers, the general manager, who has devoted his whole time and energy in its interests.

The funeral will take place Friday morning from the 8.30 G.T.R. train and will proceed to St. Peter's Cathedral for mass at 9 o'clock and thence to St. Peter's cemetery.

MRS. JAMES G. THOMPSON.

FEAR BIG WHEAT SHORTAGE

Europe's Demands Will Increase, Says American Official.

WASHINGTON.—Indication of a world-wide shortage of wheat this year and a corresponding increase in demand was reported by the American Agricultural Commissioner at London, who said bread was selling in England at what was generally considered the highest price the workingman would tolerate without grave disorders.

With Russia still in a chaotic state, there is little to be expected from that country, and Europe naturally turns to the United States, Canada, Australia, India and Argentina.

Some European countries will be compelled to import much larger quantities of wheat than in pre-war days.

The British Government has announced the maximum price for the 1920 crop to be the average price of imported wheat of similar quality, provided the price so paid the home grower shall not exceed $2.89 a bushel.

PILES Do not suffer another day with itching, blind, bleeding or protruding Piles. No surgical operation required. MUCH DIFFICULTY OVER PASSPORTS

CANADIANS BOUND FOR EUROPE SHOULD GET THEM IN THIS COUNTRY.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Many Canadians travelling to Europe through this port have experienced difficulty in connection with their passports. This has been due to ignorance of the passport regulations on the part of the travellers, and has caused a great deal of extra work for the officials here and considerable trouble and delay for the travellers themselves.

At the office of the British Consul-General it was stated that many Canadian citizens apparently are not aware that passports should be secured at the travellers' place of residence. Canadians bound for Europe who leave Canada without a passport can only be given emergency certificates good for a single voyage. Another regulation of which many Canadian travellers appear to be unaware, it was said, is that all passengers must secure an income tax receipt from the United States Custom House. Canadians are not excepted from this regulation. They must visit the Customs House and secure a clearance paper showing they are not liable to taxation in the United States.

Recently a great many Canadian soldiers bound for the Old Country have been arriving in New York from Canadian points under the impression that their discharge certificate would be accepted in lieu of a passport. As the discharge certificate carries no photograph of the bearer, it is not a valid passport. Canadian ex-soldiers must secure passports before starting from Canada, it was stated, as under the regulations it is impossible for them to travel on discharge certificates.

When you are "wide awake as an owl" at night, and can't "keep your eyes open" in the daytime you certainly need

THURSDAY, APRIL 22ND, 1920.

ST. JULIEN DAY.

Five years ago to-day began the first great test of the valour of the Canadian forces in France. On April 22nd, 1915, began the battle of St. Julien, or the 2nd battle of Ypres as it is better known, an engagement in which the 1st Canadian Division, gathered from the factories and the offices and the schools and the farms of Canada, men with only a smattering of military training, were called upon to meet the flower of a highly trained European army under circumstances all in favour of the enemy. The situation caused by the surprise gas attack of the Prussians, which demoralised the French native troops on the left of the Canadians, was a desperate one. The Maple Leaf division, with their flank in the air, battered by the overwhelming mass of the German artilery, facing an enemy that had ten bayonets for every bit of steel the Canadians could show, hurled themselves into the breach, and fighting doggedly and desperately, stayed the German advance and blocked the way to the channel ports. Sir John French's official report of the battle declared that "the gallantry and determination of the Canadians undoubtedly saved the day."—There could be no finer tribute than that, and the anniversary of the battle should ever be a memorable date in the annals of Canada.

PLAYING THE PRESS.

At last night's meeting under the aspicesu of the Independent Labour Party there were many things not of a complimentary nature said about the press. Attacking the newspapers seems to be a favourite pastime of labour orators, and a great deal of the criticism is not only malicious but foolish. For instance the statement made last night that the local newspapers had mentioned the fact that Mr. Tooms, M.P.P., was absent from a recent caucus of the labour wing, merely in an attempt to injure the member for West Peterborough in the eyes of his constituents. It seems hardly necessary to deny that allegation. It is sufficient perhaps to point ot tuhat the item complained of was not only printed in the local papers, but in all the principal journals of the province, having been sent out as a legitimate piece of news by a press service. The caucus in question was an important one, and it was regarded as an interesting bit of information that there should have been two or three absentees among the small labour representation, hence the telegraphing of the paragraph. It was not printed with an eye on local conditions at all, but as an ordinary piece of news, regarded as sufficiently interesting to be transmitted to all the Ontario newspapers. The idea that the paragraph was pubished in Peterborough for the purpose of reflecting upon Mr. Tooms is wholly erroneous, but not any more so than many other charges that are laid against the newspapers.

IMPORTANT CHANGES.

It is to be imagined that there will be general agreement throughout the province with the amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act that are to be introduced into the Legislature by Hon. Walter Rolfo, Minister of Labour. The most notable feature of the changes is the amendment raising the rate of compensation to disabled workman. The scale in Ontario hitherto has allowed an injured employee 55 per cent. of his average weekly wage during the time that he was unable to work. It has been contended that the rate, although more generous than that allowed in some of the American States, was not high enough to enable a workman to meet expenses, and accordingly the Drury government has decided to increase the allowance to 75 per cent. of the average wage, with a minimum of $12.50 a week.

A more generous provision for the widows and dependents of men who lose their lives in industrial accidents is also being made. During last session of the Legislature the pension in such cases was raised from $20 a month for the widow and $5 a month for each child to $30 a month for the widow and $7.50 for each child. For some unaccountable reason this increase was applicable only to those who became pensioners after the change was made, the others being left to struggle along on the old rates which were utterly inadequate to cope with the increase in the cost of living. This injustice is to be removed by an amendment to the Act providing for a general increase for all widows and dependents who will hence forth receive $40 per month in the case of the widow and $10 per month for each child.

Still another important feature is to be provided for in the stipulation in the amended bill that injured workmen are to be furnished free of cost with artificial arms or eyes.

DAYLIGHT SAVING.

The friends of daylight saving and there are hundreds in Peterborough, will have their last opportunity tonight of impressing upon the City Council the desirability of the local adoption of summer time for the four months commencing May 1st. There is a special meeting of the Council to-night and if anything is to be done it would have to be done at this session. Representaives of the City Football League are, it is understood, to wait upon the Council to urge the adoption of day light saving, and the baseball enthusiasts and other citizens who favour the new time should co-operate with them. In this connection an expression of opinion on daylight saving, taken from London, England Daily Telegraph, will be of interest.

England has had four years' experience with summer time, so that the plan has passed the experimental stage in the old land. Here is what the Daily Telegraph says of daylight saving:

"It has fulfilled, and more than fulfilled, the promise of its original advocate in improving the health and increasing the happiness of townsfolk. Their hours for rest and recreation were arithmetically just as valuable under the old system, but in fact the new system created for many their first opportunity of daily outdoor exercise throughout the months of fine weather. The simple truth is that for a great part of our urban population summer time has established a new order of life; it has made open-air games and open-air work a possession forever. That is the case for it, and if anyone now proposed its abolition his task would not be enviable. There are, indeed, sturdy opponents, as our columns have this year borne witness. They may be divided into two classes, the stern, unbending Tories who will forever maintain that any change is bad, who point to the undeniable fact that summer time is a mere fiction, and exhort us to be guided by truth and the real. If we want to get up earlier, they argue, then let us say we are going to get up earlier, and do it if we can. To which, if course, the answer is that the weakness of human nature is such that we cannot be sure other people will do their parts, and that in this complex world we must all get up harmoniously, or everything will be in a muddle. Then there are the farmers, who from time to time protest that putting on the clock is an operation which has no effect upon the milch cow or the dewy hay, since those objects demand attention at the times decreed by the laws of Nature, and do not acknowledge the Acts of Parliament. Part of this plea seems to be just, and part a confusion of thought. Farm work, which is independent of other people's hours, such as harvest work, can be conducted as of old by real and not by summer time. Those departments, such as milking and fruit-picking, which have to be arranged with one eye on the urban markets, are certainly inconvenienced. To their workers summer time means getting up in the dark and beginning work in the dark during a part of the year when they used to enjoy daylight. Night workers, it is generally admitted, deserve all the consideration the community can give. But some night workers there must be."

INSULATED HOUSES

Cold Conditions Will Hope Become Practical Proposition.

(Canadian Press)

SASKATOON, Sask., April 21.—Insulated houses are attracting attention in Saskatoon, and University Drive will have another of the same type as that built by H. Chauvin, of Saskatoon, last year. The first one was the subject of a recent article in The Literary Digest as a model type of cold resisting scientific construction.

HIGH PAY TO HIRED MAN

A wheat harvest labor conference has been called to meet at Hutchinson, Ks., May 3 to discuss a standard wage. Other matters relating to the harvest labor problem will be brought up at the conference. The meeting was called by Senator A. L. Lapper through the extension division of the Kansas State agricultural college.

Every agricultural organization in each county of the State is invited to send at least one representative, but the voting will be by county units, the voting strength determined by the acreage of wheat in each county.

The standard wage set last year was 50 cents an hour for a 10-hour day, with extra for overtime. Records in the county agent leader's office here indicate, however, that as high as $7.50 was the average daily wage for a few counties in the central western part of the State, while as low as $3.50 a day was paid in a few eastern and western counties. The other counties fluctuated between these two extremes. In one community the high mark of $15 a day was reached.

An effort will be made to iron out these difficulties at the coming conference. Kansas City employment bureaus quote common labor 5 to 7½ cents higher this year than last, indicating that a higher standard harvest labor wage may have to be agreed upon by the wheat growers.—Kansas City Star.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

A DINNER IN THE COUNTRY.

CHAPTER CIII.

I cried myself to sleep. Why, after one of Everett's unusual emotional considerations of me I should always have to refer to Leola, his first wife, I cannot explain. I had been jealous of Irma Barton—would be jealous of anyone whom Everett showed a liking; but far more jealous of the woman who once had occupied my place in his home and in his affections. And Rose's unconsidered speech had made me still more sensitive. For, as he held me closely in his arms there had flashed thru my mind: "Just so he held her, just so he once told her of his love, just so he kissed her." I indulged in a perfect orgy of self pity before I finally slept.

But in the morning I felt differently. He had held me in his arms, he had told me of his love, and had kissed me. I would not let even the thought that he had given his first wife the same tokens of affection, spoil my happiness. In this mood I went down to breakfast.

Everett looked keenly at me.

"Did you sleep well, Sandra, he asked as he gave me my good-morning.

"Yes, thank you. After I did get to sleep I didn't waken until Hetty told me my bath was ready."

"I am glad, because I have planned a nice afternoon's motor trip and a dinner in the country. I have asked Barrett Edmonds to join us," this last to Rose.

After he left, Rose said:

"I shall have to get Walter Kemp on the telephone."

"Why?"

"I promised to meet him again this afternoon for tea. Of course I can't now," she looked so disappointed that I asked:

"But wouldn't you rather go for the ride and dinner as long as Barrett is to be along, than just to have tea with Mr. Kemp?"

"No indeed I would rather spend half an hour with him, than hours with anyone else."

"Bad as that?" I laughingly replied thinking Rose was simply voicing one of her usual exaggerations, not dreaming she was in earnest.

"Yes, bad as that!" she replied as she went to the telephone.

Naturally I heard part of the disjointed conversation— just enough to know that they had impressed one another enough to prefer being together than with others. Rose said:

"You know I would!" Then: "Indeed I will,—no, I'll not let anything prevent. Of course I'd rather be with you," etc., proving plainly that my premise was correct.

I said nothing, however, to Rose. Yet I couldn't help feeling sort of shut out, as if I wasn't wanted. Rose was my guest, yet she was making all sorts of plans which did not include me. I never thought that had it not been for Everett's training in my conventions, I would probably have thought it all right. It was only because he had made me understand what my duties were as a social factor, that I understood Rose's faux pas.

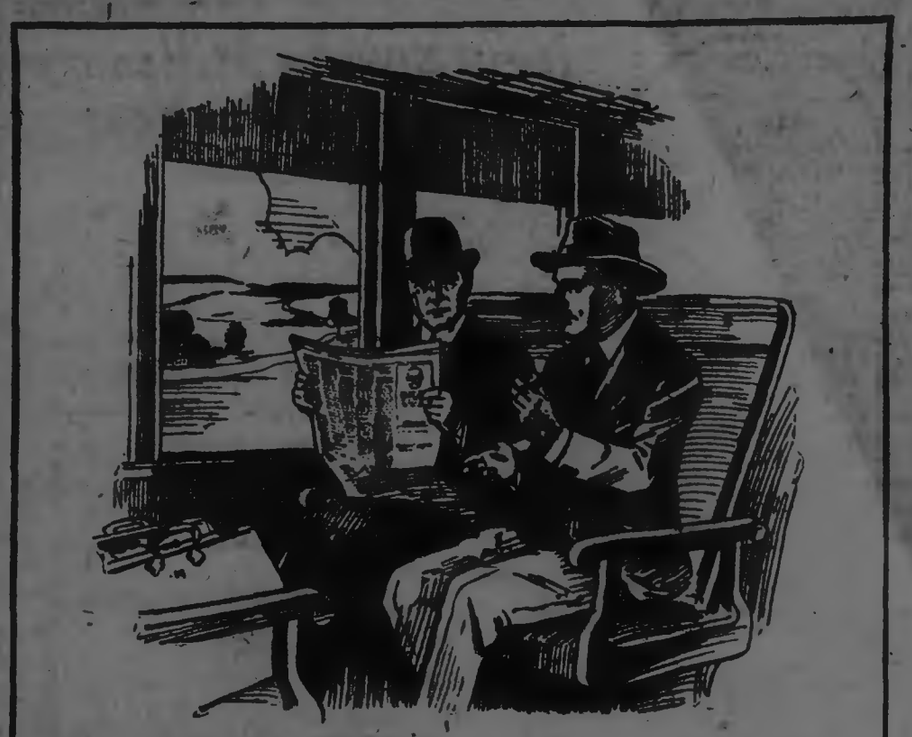
We had a delightful ride and Rose was charmingly devoted to Barrett Edmonds. But he didn't seem entirely to respond, which rather pleased me. Everett was the perfect host. As usual I was very proud of him, yet kept thinking of what Rose had said about his age.

Thoughtless people can cause a great deal of trouble, and while what Rose had said was childish, much of it even silly; it kept recurring to me until we reached the roadhouse where we were to dine. Then the perfect smoothnesswith which we were served and the attention given Everett, consoled me for having an "old man" for a husband. The dinner was perfection. Everett had ordered it by telephone so no ugly paper menus were passed around and there were no long waits between the courses.

The music was delightful. Everett danced with both Rose and me, and smilingly told me that for once he would waive his objections to my dancing in public with anyone but him. So Barrett and I had a wonderful dance. If Barrett made love to me—a little,—it did not make it the less enjoyable.

I have heard that open confession is good for the soul. So I am confessing that I liked the admiration, the compliments. Barrett Edmonds gave me that evening.

To-morrow—Rose Makes Remarks That Hurt.



"He Told Me About How He Got Strong After the 'Flu'"

"I MET this man on the train on the way home from the coast and he began telling me about having the 'flu' very badly and how he regained strength by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

"Then he took a box of the Nerve Food out of his grip and was so enthusiastic about it that I said, 'You are not selling Nerve Food, are you'."

"Oh, no," he said, "I am not selling it, but I am recommending it. When I find a good thing I believe in telling others about it. I was on my back for two weeks with the 'flu' and when I got up I was so weak that I did not get out of the house for ten days. I started out on the road but did not have the energy to sell goods."

"What seemed to be the matter," I asked.

"The doctor said my nerves were in bad condition," he said, "I could not sleep nights and after talking to a customer I seemed to be all in. There was so little nerve force in my system that I went all to pieces with a little exertion."

"I did not get right," he continued, "until I had used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for about two weeks. By that time my appetite was good and I began to feel like myself again."

"For a month I scarcely missed a dose of the Nerve Food and am now feeling fine. I eat and sleep well, and take the same old pleasure in my work that I always did when in good health. I thought for a while that I would have to quit the road entirely but I never felt better than I do now."

"He left the train then but I thought I never heard a stronger recommendation for any treatment than he gave for Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

LETTER FROM MR. BURNHAM

The following letter from the pen of Mr. J. H. Burnham appeared in the Ottawa Citizen:

THIS SOUNDS LIKE PROTECTIONISM.

Editor, Citizen:—At this critical moment when success is knocking at our doors we must not falter. Let us remember those of former times who in the fervor of their religious zeal burned at the stake thousands, nay millions, of other people. I can smell the burning flesh yet. Is it a joy to my nostrils? Fighting against the divine right of others they recognised their own divine right only. The truth they taught,—and we must not be behind them in that—is that the divine plan without our improvements is a fizzle. People just run wild under it. It is up to us to put things right and save the world. Should we imitate Christ and teach by His example? Certainly not! Why should we suffer? This is a business. Therefore I propose as follows:

TO THE PEOPLE OF CANADA.

The request of the Rev. Dr. Chown, superintendent of the Methodist Church of Canada, that the Presbyterian Church of Canada make haste to accomplish the union which has been in the air for some time has set men thinking. Why stop at Protestant union? Why not let all Canada unite under the banner of one great glorious church? The reasons for complete union are just as strong as for partial union. In fact they are stronger. There is no real union at all unless it can be complete and unless it comprises all bodies. It is true that objections have been raised to all forms of union. It has been said that Christian union cannot be maintained in its entirety and that union followed by disunion again would be worse than no union at all. That also is true. But we have laws in this country and can have more. The great union of hearts and hands of all creeds and persuasions in the glorious work of prohibition shows us clearly what to do. We must invade the home. Some have held out against prohibition in some provinces, but they will be compelled to come into the prohibition fold because it is for their good. They must obey a good law, and if a prohibitory law is a good law in the case of alcohol it is infinitely better in the case of religion. It was the benefit to humanity that justified the one and it will justify the other. The old idea of the liberty of the individual has passed. He has a right to just so much liberty as he may have consistently with the general benefit of the community. A union embracing all creeds and a creed embracing all the Christian verities will be the greatest advance since the great disruption that we are now getting ready in a partial way to repair. Ontario hitherto has been the chief stumbling block. That grand province has seen the error of her ways. She sees that individual liberty is not compatible with highest good, and that if a civil law regulating liquor is permissable, so surely is a civil law regulating private conduct regarding religion. Let the heads of all the churches, Catholic and Protestant, come together and arrange a union which we can then enforce by civil law. The law may be made the same in every respect as the prohibitory law governing the consumption of alcoholic liquor, using the words that refer to religion instead of those that relate to liquor. The obstacle heretofore has been the time-honored prejudice in favor of freedom of private conduct so long as it was compatible with decency and the liberty of others. That prejudice is now about to disappear and the submission of the people to a higher law obtained. Let us, everywhere with one accord, take up and carry out this logical and most desirable consumation and the world is saved. Is Christ a prohibitionist or a penalist? Are we with Him or are we infidels and believers only in ourselves? Was Christ's plan a failure?—J. H. BURNHAM, House of Commons.

Careless Shampooing Spoils The Hair

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Mulsified Cocoanut Oil Shampoo (which is pure and greaseless) and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonsful will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff, and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo at any pharmacy; it's very cheap and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

WEARING APPAREL MAY FEEL BURDEN OF AN EXCISE TAX

MINISTER OF FINANCE CONTEMPLATES LEVY SIMILAR TO THAT ACROSS LINE.

OTTAWA, April 2.—The imposition of an excise tax on luxury lines by which individuals purchasing goods or articles in excess of a certain price, shall be compelled to pay a percentage toward the Treasury, is said to be in contemplation by the Minister of Finance. Such a tax is in force in the United States at the present time, and is said to act not only as a revenue producer, but as a restriction upon extravagant tastes.

Under the measure, if it is introduced, certain lines of articles would be stipulated, including wearing apparel, boots and shoes, etc., and it would be provided that a percentage be added to each individual article costing above a certain amount. A record of transactions would be kept by dealer and the proceeds from the tax on sales turned in to the Receiver-General.

EFFICIENCY OF VACCINATION

TORONTO, April 22.— The efficacy of vaccination is demonstrated by the following study of the 127 smallpox cases reported in Toronto during March:

Never vaccinated	87
Not vaccinated within 10 years	31
Vaccinated too recently to be effective (within two weeks)	6
Total	124

This leaves only there cases where people vaccinated within nine years took the smallpox.

NEW YORK, April 22. — Something sensational is promised as the after-climax of the romance of Helen Elizabeth Oliver, former cabaret singer, daughter of poor parents and now the wife of Sir Hugo Cunliffe-Owen, tobacco magnate, one of the wealthiest men in England. Sir Hugo is sued for $500,000 by Marvelle C. Brice, a well-known song-writer, who married Helen Oliver in 1914, when she was 18 years old She divorced him in 1918, charging unfaithfulness, and six weeks after the decree was granted, became the wife of Cunliffe-Owen. The nature of the suit is secret so far. Sir Hugo and his wife have recently landed in New York.

DO YOU EXPECT TO LIVE LONG?

The facts are against you. In one Life Insurance Company during three months, Sixteen died of OLD AGE, 2,736 died at PREMATURE AGES, and each one was sound when the Insurance was issued.

Each one had just as good a right to expect to live to old age as you have.

Another Insurance Company shows that out of Claims paid last year, 6.8 per cent. died the FIRST YEAR, and 72.5 per cent. died INSIDE OF TWENTY YEARS.

Note well that the Men and Women who died the first year left approximately fifty times as much to their heirs as if they had "saved" the premium.

There's More to Good Clothing Than the Fit

There's workmanship and material. If you want clothes that will last you must have these. But why not have perfection of style, workmanship and material all in one? To secure clothing of this class is what makes the clothing business a difficult one these days. It is easy to get shoddy materials. The market is full of them. But to secure good fabrics that have been carefully tailored, it is necessary to look through piles and piles of samples and pick and choose with the greatest care.

We represent at least half a dozen different manufacturers and we have selected the best of what they had to offer. Such distinguished makers as: W. H. Leishman and Co., Society Brand Clothes, Ltd., Style Clothes, Ltd., Randall & Johnson (Makers of Broadway Clothing), etc.

Light Weight Overcoats

No man feels he can buy a coat recklessly to-day; therefore, when you are ready to get a coat it will pay you to investigate our new ones. They are well tailored and have the 1920 touches. One of these coats are an extraordinary good investment, when quality and service are considered.

Some are double-breasted, others have fly fronts, many are form-fitting and you can have a loose-fitting wrap or a Chesterfield. The materials are mostly tweeds and covert cloths. Of course there are others, but these named are the most popular. They are priced from $20.00 to $45.00.

Suits—For Slights, Standards and Stouts

A great feature of our clothing service is that we pay particular attention to all figures, from the slimest to the stoutest. The materials are gathered from the staple products of Canadian mills, with a sprinkling of the better English and Scotch worsteds and tweeds. The colours are fancies, plain browns, greens, navy, shadow and hair line stripes and neat tartan and overchecks. In price we begin where we can supply legitimate merchandise. The models are what the well-dressed men of to-day demand. The prices commence at $30.00 and go slowly upward to $52.00.

Sizes for stout men from 40 to 52.

No Need to Stand on One Foot and Then the Other, Wear a "Just Wright" Shoe

They're made so that you can stand with both feet squarely on the ground. The lasts are designed by one who is a student of foot ailments. He knows the why and wherefore of every little irregularity of the bones of the foot. The result is that he puts common-sense into his shoes and gives them graceful lines as well. We think so highly of them that we speak of them in glowing terms, for we know they justify every statement.

Oxfords

An English brogue of tan calfskin. It has the usual perforations, a square toe and Goodyear welted soles. It is priced at $16.50.

A dark chocolate of kangaroo in the "London" last has a shapely round toe and is priced at $15.00.

A black calfskin with a recede toe is priced at $13.00.

High Shoes

The "Swift" is a last with a recede and can be had in either black or tan. It is priced at $16.50. In Tan and Black at $15.00.

The "London" last can be had in either black or tan. It has a graceful rounded toe that is quite different. Priced at $16.50.

BEARS RAIDED MARKET DURING THE SECOND HOUR THIS MORNING

MARKET TURNED THE CORNER SHORTLY AFTER ELEVEN O'CLOCK AND SCORED A NUMBER OF RALLIES—TO-DAY'S MARKET NEWS.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 22nd. — The stock market opened hesitatingly, but with a show of strength to-day, after its heavy slump in the final hour yesterday.

American Hide and Leather opened at 21 1-2, up 1; Studebaker 107, off 1-2; U. S. Rubber 100, up 1 1-2; Lackawanna Steel, 81 1-2, off 1-2; American Smelting 63, off 3-4; Corn Products 97 1-2, up 1 1-2; Texas Co., 145 1-4, up 1-4; Crucible 234, up 2; Republic Steel 67, unchanged; Pan-American Petroleum 97 1-2, up 1-2; Mexican Petroleum 173, off 4; International Paper 77 1-4, up 1-2; General Motors 260, up 5.

U. S. Steel opened at 98 3-4, unchanged. Sinclair Cons opened at 35, off 1-4; American Woollen 119, up 3; Baldwin 116, up 1.

The market this morning did not know exactly what struck it yesterday, and no adequate explanation was offered. In general it was said that the strained credit situation throughout the world was affecting the stock and commodity markets. Money rates were comparatively easy and bankers could not explain the exact cause of the selling wave. There has been heavy selling by professionals during the last two or three days, but apparently there was nothing in the news to account for the severity of the decline either in the stock or commodity markets. In a general way the financial situation in Japan, which has heavy balances in the United States and Great Britain, is believed to have affected American financial interests, but bankers assert there is nothing in that situation to create a panic.

(United Press.)

NEW YORK, April 22.—The stock market rallied sharply to-day after a bear drive during the second hour. After a cautious opening, which indicated that the traders did not know which way the market was heading, there were some advances, which were lost during the early part of the second hour, and new loans were recorded, especially in the industrial group.

About 11.30, however, the market turned sharply, and advances from 1 1-2 to 6 points were scored by active stocks. This advance continued into the third hour. The Schwab Ryan stocks were in particular demand by short interests, and this caused an advance in Replogle Steel to 74 up 14 from Wednesday's low.

General Motors sold up to 200, or 17 points higher than the low of yesterday.

Call Money.

Call money was available in reasonable quantities at 7 per cent.

Foreign exchange was easier, the demand sterling reacting at noon to $3.89 1-4. Franc cheques, marks, and other foreign quotations were slightly lower. There was a rumour in the foreign market exchange that Japan is disposing of some sterling bills in the New York market in connection with her financial crisis, which accounted for a decline in sterling.

The recovery of the market was aided by a favourable financial statement from the Bethlehem Steel Co., which announced to-day earnings for the quarter were at the rate of $3.00 a share annually for common stock.

It was stated in Wall Street, and carried on the Wall Street ticker, that bearish literature had been circulated throughout the country since the market closed last week, and as a result stock that had been out away in safe deposit vaults was taken out and thrown into the market late yesterday, and during the bear drive early to-day.

The cotton market, after a second decline during the second market hour, showed advances at 1 p.m. of about 26 to 50 points on heavy short coverings and Liverpool buying.

Cotton Sold Off.

The early market absorbed overnight selling orders in fairly good shape. Steel Common, after opening unchanged, first dropped 1-4 to 98 1-4, but later went below 98. Lackawanna went below 80. While some excellent buying came into the market late on Wednesday, and was continued this morning, there was enough of forced selling during the first hour to hold prices down. Much of this forced selling was said to have come from wire houses with western connections.

The cotton market, which was under a heavy drive late on Wednesday, but which recovered slightly just before the close, sold off again to-day.

Liberty Bonds were again off, and showed no rallying power.

Drive Resumed.

The bear drive which was started on the stock exchange yesterday was resumed during the second hour of trading to-day.

The entire industrial list was forced below the Wednesday's low. U. S. Steel sold at 96 1-2 compared for the high for 1920 of 109. Pan-American went to 49 1-2, Crucible to 224, Mexican Petroleum 170, U.S. Realty 54 3-4. Shortly after 11.30 there was a fair recovery.

On this rally, Baldwin advanced about four points, Studebaker over three points, and Crucible six points. U. S. Steel recovered to 97 1-2.

There was apparent this morning a distinct connection between the break in the commodity markets and the falling market in Wall Street.

Bears on the stock exchange insisted commodity prices must come down and that no bull market could be sustained on falling commodity prices. The breaks in cotton and on the grain market in Chicago were used as a bear argument.

THE CORN MARKET.

(Canadian Press.)

CHICAGO, April 22.—Sharp new breaks in corn market took place to-day right at outset. Heaviest fall was in May delivery, which in some cases exhibited sheer descent of six cents bushel since last night Renewed weakness developed in New York securities and was responsible for decline here.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Foreign exchange was easier at the opening to-day. Demand Sterling opened at $3.90 1-4, off 1 1-2; Franc Checks 16.42, off 5 centimes; Lire Checks 22.52, up 10. Marks demand were slightly lower at $.0164. Marks cables $.0166. Canadians dollars were $0.9150.

Turkish Problem

LITTLE HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED AT THE CONFERENCE OF ALLIED PREMIERS.

(United Press.)

SAN REMO, April 22.—The third of the conferences of the Allied Premiers was completed last night, and apparently little had been accomplished. So far, the Premiers have spent practically all their time discussing the Turkish question.

The official statement last night said:

"The conference this afternoon resumed a discussion of the clauses of the Turkish Treaty. It heard naval and military experts on technical points, and examined certain territorial questions."

The settlement of the Adriatic question, which the Italians had hoped would be effected during the present conference, apparently has been postponed to the May meeting in Paris, or later.

The Jugo-Slav delegation, which arrived here from Paris to-day, denied a report that M. Radovitch, the Jugo-Slav conferee, in the recent Italian-Jugo-Slav negotiations, was coming to San Remo from Belgrade.

Premier Nitti of Italy, however, probably will inform the conference of the results of the recent negotiations, and read the memorandum brought by the Adriatic cities' representatives, urging for "economic, sentimental, and military reasons" that integral execution of the pact of London would be wholly desirable to them. These cities include Sebanico Zara, and Spalato.

THE REFERENDUM VOTE TO-NIGHT

SMALL MAJORITY ANTICIPATED FOR ORIGINAL RESOLUTION.

(Canadian Press.)

TORONTO, April 22.—Word was received at Queen's Park to-day of the death at Carleton Place of Mrs. H. McCrearey, wife of the member for North Lanark, whose referendum is now before the legislature. The debate on the measure will be continued in the house to-day, however and it is expected that a division will be reached to-night. A small majority is anticipated for the original resolution. An amendment moved by R. L. Breakin, Liberal member, for West Kent, calling for submission of stated case to courts, will receive support from a majority of liberals and from several labor men but farmers and conservatives are expected to voite solidly against it. S. P. Hills amendment calling on the government to take full responsibility for temperance legislation, is likely to receive only Conservative support.

CATTLE MARKET

LIVER TROUBLE AND HEARTBURN

All liver diseases of whatever character are diseases of the highest importance and demand close attention.

The liver is the largest and one of the most important organs of the body. Its duty is to prepare and secrete bile and to serve as one of the filters of the body, cleaning it from all impurities and poisons. Therefore when the liver gets out of order it is the starting of trouble in nearly every part of the body.

Keep the liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn, constipation, biliousness, sick or bilious headaches, dull, yellow eyes, brown blotches, sallow complexion, coated tongue, jaundice, catarrh of the stomach, or the painful, protruding, internal or bleeding piles.

Mrs. John Kadey, Chipman, N. B., writes: "I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for some times and can recommend them to anyone suffering from heartburn and liver trouble. I tried other remedies but they only relieved me for a short time. I always recommend Laxa-Liver Pills to all sufferers as I think they are a valuable remedy."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

TWENTY-SIX CANDIDATES CONFIRMED IN ST. LUKE'S CHURCH LAST EVENING

BISHOP REEVE OF TORONTO CONDUCTED THE CEREMONY AND PREACHED A STIRRING SERMON ON THE PRESENT DAY AIMS AND OBJECTIVES.

Last evening in St. Luke's church, His Lordship Bishop W. D. Reeve, Assistant Bishop of Toronto, administered the holy rite of confirmation to twenty six candidates, ten women and girls, and sixteen men and boys, presented by Rev. W. H. White, the Rector of St. Luke's. The service was conducted by the Rector, assisted by Archdeacon J. C. Davidson.

In a short address to the candidates for confirmation, His Lordship quoted two passages from Holy Scriptures, Matthew 3:15, "Thus it becometh us to fulfill all righteousness," and Heb. 6:1, "Then let us go on to perfection."

Bishop Reeve spoke first of the objections people in Ontario are to-day voicing against baptism, which they say is a dead and gone ceremony, claiming that to-day what they are concerned with is spiritual baptism. In answer to this we may look to the origin of baptism, when our Lord told the disciples to go into the world not only to prepare it but to baptise the people. The same people will tell us the Lord's Supper is a dead institution—a reminder of death—while they would have something to remind them of life; so putting aside what the Lord instituted they have instituted a morning meal representing the breakfast our Lord took on the Sea of Galilee.

The Bible teaches us that Christ over ruled John's objection to His Baptism, when John told him that he had nothing to repent of.

Make up your mind, His Lordship said, to do the right thing and not to let the objection of others turn you aside.

What your church expects, and what you have proof in the Scripture is right. Let us go on to completion fulfilling what is expected of us as Christians, as members of Christ and His followers.

A Forward Movement.

In addressing the entire congregation His Lordship reminded them that confirmation is a forward movement—not a completion, rather a fresh step. Instead of being finished, the real part is only begun.

During the past war the boys of Canada raised the Dominion to a great height amongst the nations, but she will have to maintain this height to which she has been brought through her own efforts. We cannot depend upon the boys who have come back from the front but must take up the burden ourselves and each must do his or her part. There must be a spiritual uplift among the nations. If this is to be done we must each do our part striving to become closer followers in His footsteps. Our objective must be, "Oh, let me see Thy footsteps," and in that way only may we raise our Dominion to a higher level. Righteousness uplifteth a nation, his Lordship reminded the people and we must look after the spiritual uplift of Canada.

Doubtless here in Peterboro, the same as in Toronto, there are thousands who never enter church. You each may carry on the Forward Movement he said by helping your clergyman to reach the objective, to bring life into the dry bones.

In the church to-day there is plenty of thought and plenty of organization, but what is needed is real life, which can come alone through the breath of God. If we want to see Canada raised to a higher pinnacle we must do something ourselves watching ever for the right time for personal endeavor. Let the non-church goer see by our life and conduct that we are getting something from the church. Precept, he said, is good, but example is far better.

Confirmation.

In again addressing the candidates for confirmation His Lordship explained that the main thought of confirmation is a forward movement, in which all are enabled and strengthened to go forward. With the ceremony the outward and visible part will be over, but the real confirmation must go on. The purpose of confirmation is to enable one to go forward. He impressed the candidates with the need of daily and earnest prayer. We may not expect he concluded, the visible sign of the Holy Ghost, nor to hear His voice, but you may realize both by consecrating yourself wholly to Christ.

BAD COLD LEFT HIM WITH BRONCHITIS

However slight a cold you have you should never neglect it; if you do it can have but one result. It leaves the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

Bronchitis is one of the most common affections of a neglected cold, and neglected bronchitis the most general cause of consumption.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is just the remedy you require to cure the bronchitis. It does this by loosening the phlegm and mucous, and stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts and thus prevents it becoming chronic.

Mr. R. P. Sundblad, Francis, Sask., writes:—"I had a very bad cold which left me with bronchitis. I tried several cough remedies and oils of all kinds, but they all failed. At last I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and after using two bottles I have never had a sign of bronchitis since. I therefore can honestly recommend it for coughs and colds."

Don't accept a substitute for Dr. Wood's. The genuine is put up in a yellow wrapper: 3 pine trees the trade mark; price 25c and 50c. Manufactured by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LOCAL OFFICER ON STILL HUNT

REVENUE OFFICER WILLIAM BULLER MAKES ONE CAPTURE.

While in Kinmount on business, a few days ago, License Inspector Thornbury accompanied Inland Revenue officer Buller of Peterboro, into the wild woods on a still hunt.

Nearing a ranch owned by a Lindsay man and which is situated on the shore of Salmon Lake, in Cavendish township, Peterboro, they met the rancher, a Kinmount resident, on his way to the village. He declined a pressing invitation to accompany them back to the house on a plea of approaching meal time, but told the men that all was open and waiting for them to inspect.

On arriving at the ranch house they found contrary to his advice that all was locked up. Having gained admittance they proceeded to search the house and soon came across a good sized whiskey still, which was not then, but had recently been in operation. Several large and small barrels were found about the place. Although none of the moonshine was found, according to the inspector, a sniff of the atmosphere was as good as a drink.

Later the man when found at Kinmount denied nothing and evinced a desire to have the affair settled quietly, if possible.

DUKE GOES IN FOR REAL ESTATE

LONDON, April 22.—The Duke of Bedford has been offered $10,000,000 for his London property by the University of London. A London despatch says: 'A luxuriant growth of cabbage adorns the estate, but the Duke has learned that, owing to the central location of his estate and despite the increased cost of living, rentals are worth more than $165,000 a year. Therefore he has decided to abandon gardening immediately for real estate.

THIN, NERVOUS PEOPLE NEED BITRO-PHOSPHATE

Guaranteed to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Weak, thin people—men or women—are nearly always nervous wrecks; thus conclusively proving that thinness, weakness, debility and neurasthenia are almost invariably due to nerve starvation. Feed your nerves and all these symptoms due to nerve starvation will disappear.

Eminent specialists state that the best nerve food is an organic phosphate known among druggists as Bitro-Phosphate, a five-grain tablet of which should be taken with each meal. Being a genuine nerve builder and not a stimulant or habit-forming drug, Bitro-Phosphate can be safely taken by the weakest and most delicate sufferer, and the results following its use are often simply astonishing.

Weak, tired people regain strength and vigor; thinness and angularity give way to plumpness and curves; sleep returns to the sleepless; confidence and cheerfulness replace debility and gloom; dull eyes become bright, and pale, sunken cheeks regain the pink glow of health. Bitro-Phosphate, the use of which is inexpensive, also wonderfully promotes the assimilation of food, so much so that many people report marked gains of weight in a few weeks.

CAUTION:— While Bitro-Phosphate is unsurpassed for the relief of nervousness, general debility, etc., those taking it who do not desire to put on flesh should use extra care in avoiding fat-producing foods.

SAFE AND EFFICIENT HOME TREATMENT

Many Weak and Ailing People Who Have Been Helped Strongly Recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

There is only one way to build up a run-down system if the blood is pale and thin. Many diseases are caused by thin blood. Other diseases such as influenza and rheumatism cause the blood to become thin, and the wasting effect of these disorders cannot be combatted successfully until the blood is restored to its normal condition.

Pallor nervousness, indigestion, sleeplessness, headaches, dizzy spells, shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart, these are a few of the symptoms of an anaemic bloodless condition. Some of them are not naturally associated with thin blood, but the quickest way to overcome them is to make the blood rich and red.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do one thing and do it well. They build up the blood, increasing the number of red corpuscles. As this is done, the blood becomes richer red and is able to carry more oxygen, the great supporter of human life. As the blood improves in quality the tissues of the body are better nourished and the functions of the body are better performed. The glands of the stomach are stimulated and the first sign of improvement is usually a better appetite and better digestion.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pils have been used for years as a bloodmaking tonic and system builder with such good results that in every community there are many people who are recommending this remedy to their friends and to others who are afflicted.

Here is the statement of one person among thousands who have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to their own great advantage. Mrs. A. Veniot, Hemford, N.S., says: "For about two years I was a great sufferer from indigestion, which seemed to carry with it a complication of other troubles. Every meal I took brought with it misery, as it was followed by pain, and sometimes nausea and vomiting. At other times gas would form in the stomach to such an extent that my heart would palpitate at an alarming rate. These conditions brought on extreme nervousness and irritability, and I found my general health so much affected, that the least exertion would tire me and I slept but poorly. I had been doctoring for several months, with no result beyond slight temporary relief, when I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I decided to follow this advice, and got half a dozen boxes. Good results soon began to show from this treatment, and the further continued use of the pills have made me a well woman. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to similar sufferers."

The purpose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is to build up the blood. They do this one thing and they do it well. They are an invaluable remedy in diseases arising from bad or deficient blood, as rheumatism, neuralgia; after effects of the grip and fevers. The pills are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any harmful drug and cannot injure the most delicate system.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

RANEY BILL CLIPS KING'S PREROGATIVE

TORONTO, April 22.—It is not often that Provincial legislation 'speaks right out in meeting'" and announces its intention of taking rights away from the King, but Hon. W. E. Raney's Bill to abolish appeals to the Privy Council says in part:

'The authority of the Judicial committee of His Majesty's Privy Council to grant leave to appeal to His Majesty in his Privy Council from any such judgment, decision or order, and the prerogative of His Majesty to hear such appeals, are hereby abrogated."

LABOURITES DISCUSS NEW

or get any more education having to go out and earn their bread and butter. He upheld that a better handling of the natural resources without any graft would provide and educational for any child as far as he wanted to go.

The amending of the Workmen's Compensation Act, the Widow's Pensions bill and the bill for providing vocational training for any men injured in his work and unable to return to it were explained. The last bill was especially dwelt on and the necessity for it, the good that will accrue out of it.

"They say these bills are radical. They are decent that's all." he commented.

Speaking on the pressing housing problem, he said. "There is enough timber rotting away in New Ontario to build towns but they can't get it out"—sarcastically.

A Good Outlook.

"We want no revolution in this country." In 20 years if we keep on we will have the finest land the sun shines on. The grafters and feelers have broken all laws for decency and everything else. Oppression has always been the greatest trouble in the world. In conclusion he urged them to keep political action in mind and prepares for a Labour representative in Ottawa.

The ideals of Labour Mr. Swayzie said were to build up a democracy on citizenship and service with greed and exploitation the common enemy of all.

The four important bills before the house the Peterboro member expected to do much to remove the curse of poverty which "we realize want you to realize is not a necessary evil," he said. Mr. Tooms emphasized these measures.

Mrs. Hector Prenter.

Following Mr. Tooms, Mrs. Hector Prenter vice president of the I.L.P. gave an address which was inclined to wander but lacked neither vivacity forcibleness, nor humor and gave a glimpse of the ability of this most remarkable speaker. Mrs. Prenter spoke at great length which necessitates but a passing glance and a review but her address in spite of its drifting tendencies, to detract nothing from the other addresses was the most interesting of all. "I was a Canadian suffragette before I became a Canadian citizen," she began, continuing giving a resume of woman's uplifted status in late years. It is a great comfort she said for a woman an ordinary housekeeper to come on the platform without an apology. She designated the I. L. P. as the only party for women and intelligent people and she handed out laurels a-plenty to this party." We know what is the matter with the world Whether it is ruled by a king or a kaiser makes little difference as long as it is ruled by a few it will eventually be robbed by them," she stated.

Industrial Unrest.

She termed the attempts made to quiet the present industrial unrest as childish and disgusting. The overall garb to defeat the high cost of clothes she termed an insult to the intelligence of the working man. There is something deeper she contended and in the I.L.P. and the Labour U. F. O. government are found the only classes who give the matter any serious thought.

Twenty three times she said she appeared before the old governments seeking care for the feeble minded and mother's pensions only to be turned down. Now this government has taken them up. "There is a humanness in the legislature now that was never there before was a cutting remark for the old parties.

Class and Creed.

We must combat prejudice. We should not be divided by class or creed The days of long ago were contrasted with conditions to-day. "Everything that controls human minds has been taken out of the hands of the individuals to be controlled by a few. The land monopoly of England, the industrial monopoly and finally the monopolization of politics were reviewed by Mrs. Prenter. The time for a come back has arrived and by constitutional means the control must be taken from the few. "Canada is in a critical position," she said outlining the poverty and struggles to eke out a meagre existence in the cities." The I. L. P. stands for raising the status of the whole race. It is not merely a matter of the payroll", she said.

"Ottawa next stop" was the gist of her advice to the I.L.P. along this line. "We have brains and ballots." All women are urged to get in the Labour movement to guard against the propaganda of Mrs. Pankhurst and her backers.

Charity was discounted by Mrs. Prenter as the obstacle labour was fighting against and to use a slang expression they want it "out out". Better salaries for teachers were favoured by the speaker where the child is passing through the most important period of its life. Her last message was an appeal for the women to line up with the I.L.P. colours and forget there were ever such things as a Liberal or Conservative party.

"Conquest of Peru".

Dr Stevenson in a few words urged the reading of "The Conquest of Peru" a book describing a Utopia of by gone centuries that flourished in Peru and from which a few ideas of value to Canada might be derived. The Australian plan to pay off the war debt in one year by a few cents increase on the price of wool was particularly emphasized to the War Veterans.

We only appeal for justice," said Mr. T. Tooms after referring to the excellent addresses and asking for the assistance of all.

Mr. Peter McArthur bitterly denounced the local press in its attitude to Labor in a few scathing remarks on a last week's news item and his cue was taken up by Mrs. Prenters who told of an alleged similar malady in Toronto.

TENDER GUMS —A WARNING

Beware of gum tenderness that warns of Pyorrhea. Four out of five people over forty have Pyorrhea—many under forty also. Loosening teeth indicate Pyorrhea. Bleeding gums, too. Remember—these inflamed, bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infecting the joints or tonsils—or causing other ailments.

Forhan's positively prevents Pyorrhea, if used in time and used consistently. As it hardens the gums the teeth become firmer.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's. It cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean.

If gum-shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

LINDSAY HAS ITS EAR TO GROUND

IT IS ALLEGED THAT PORT HOPE BALL PLAYERS DO NOT GO TO SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Rumors are always prevalent, and baseball circles are no exception. But the latest rumor is of vital interest to baseball fans in the Central Ontario Baseball League.

It has been whispered about that Port Hope is going after the championship of the league this season, with all sails set to the breeze, and that "Sandy" Lockington's team will not rely on "Finnegan' Hills alone to do the twirling, nor on Moyes or Baxter to do the short-stop work. Dame rumor says that a pitcher from London, Ont., and a short-stop from Toronto have been working in the Lakeshore town for some time past and that they will strengthen the Port Hopers at least 101 per cent.

Of course dame rumor is sometimes wrong and we hope so in connection with the report that Port Hope ball tossers had a good work out on Sunday. We have been of the opinion that Sunday ball was tabooed in Canada.—Lindsay Warder.

LACROSSE CLUB OUT TO PRACTICE

STICKS HAVE ARRIVED AND EVERYTHING IS ALL SET.

Every man, young and old, is expected to turn out. If you don't play come and boost and encourage the young fellows.

MEETING CALLED FOR IN LINDSAY

Lindsay Warder: All baseball players desirous of catching a place on the Central League team, or even interested in their welfare are requested to bear in mind that a meeting will be held in the Town Council Chamber Friday night of this week to discuss matters of vital importance, and get lined up for the first practice.

It is time the boys were being rounded up for initial inspection, and time the diamond committee prepared plans for making ground improvements.

Lindsay has the nucleus of a good team this year, with nearly all of last year's players available, and a few new ones from the town league.

All players are urged to attend this meeting, which has been called by the president, James Anderson.

DE LAVAL FOOTBALL TEAM PRACTICE

A PIPE BAND FOR THE CITY

THE CALEDONIANS HELD A MEETING LAST EVENING.

At a well attended meeting of the Caledonian Club in the Woodmen of the World Hall, last evening, the usual monthly business was transacted. Mr. Ed. G. Hardie, president, occupied the chair.

The proposition of a pipe band in the City of Peterboro was fully discussed by the members of the Caledonian Club, and those present thought it was advisable that the pipe band should be a separate organization in association with the Club. Eventually, five members were appointed as a band committee, Mr. A. McArthur, Mr. Thom, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Thomson and Mr. Leith, for the purpose of securing all the necessary information to inaugurate a band, also the the prospective players.

The committee will send in a report at some future date. There is in all probability, if all goes well, the likelihood of a few more pipers coming to the city from Scotland, but no definite word has been received as yet.

Football Games.

Mr. Dick, president of the Caledonian Football Club, gave the members a hearty invitation to attend the opening games of football at the exhibition grounds on Saturday.

A Big Dance.

The Ladies' Committee made their final arrangements for the big dance to be held on Friday evening, April 30th, in the Woodmen of the World Hall.

DE LAVAL OUT OF CITY LEAGUE

WILL HELP TO CLEAR THE AIR IN BASEBALLDOM.

Manager Ruiter of the De Laval Baseball Club notified President Matthews this morning that De Laval would not be represented in the City League this season. This leaves four teams for the organization, and De Laval's action may have something to do towards clearing the muddle that has existed in baseball for some time. Probably the other clubs will now be in a better frame of mind to deal with the problem of representation in the Ontario Association. Anyway, Manager Ruiter showed good judgment in not loading the state with a poor team. Early in the season he had good reason to believe that Ray and Larnie Rose and Dugan would be with the team, but these players have since thrown in their lot with the Canadian General, almost completely wrecking the prospects of the Separator crowd.

And now they won't let Peter Trivoulidas, the winner of the Boston Marathon, compete with the American citizen, which makes him ineligible for the team.

Looks as though certain pitchers in the majors will be tripping to the well once too often. Alexander is one of the old Romans who has been pounded badly. Some of the new comers who are discounted, are winning their games.

Count another for Jimmy Wilde. His bout last night won him a few more thousand and he will return to England with a wad of $30,000, most of it garnered from Uncle Sam.

The Veterans will practice at King Edward school grounds this evening, and a number of fans will watch the performance. The feeling is growing that LeBarr's 1920 performers will be dangerous.

Free admission to the Exhibition Park on Saturday afternoon for the football games, should have a place beside the denim crusade. It's a good move. After watching the excitement the fans won't mind dropping their silver into the hat.

In spite of the advance dope handed out by one Toronto sport critic that the team looked weak, Mooney Gibson's Pirates are riding along in first place. Yesterday the Pittsburg crowd stopped Pat Moran's Reds right on their own lot.

IMPROVEMENTS AT G.T.R. STATION

LAWN HAS BEEN CLEANED UP AND TREES TRIMMED.

The lawn at the G.T.R. station will present an appearance this year that will be a credit to the company and the city. It has been filled in and rolled, raked and put in as good shape as a tennis court so that all it needs now is the seeding. The axe and pruning hook has been used unsparingly on the trees bordering the small island of green so old Sol could get an occasional glimpse of the little oasis, and one tree has been sacrificed to bring about this end. The flower beds, planned so carefully for this year, will be held over for another year.

THE "OUTLAWS" ARE STILL OUT

ALL OVERTURES FOR PEACE HAVE BEEN REJECTED.

(Canadian Press.)

NEW YORK, April 22.—With all overtures on their behalf for peace rejected, members of the so-called "outlaw" union of the railroad workers of America still on strike in New York district, met in Jersey city to-day to decide on the course of future action. Strikers anxiously awaited a report from E. A. McHugh, chairman of the union's executive committee, on results of his negotiations at Washington. Some improvement in the movement of freight was reported by all lines in the district to-day, but it was admitted that the absence of switchmen and yardmen was hampering complete resumption of traffic. Passenger service was declared to be almost normal.

THIRTY DAYS FOR THOMAS KNIGHT

Thomas Knight, a young man from Toronto, found the aftermath of a stolen ride on the C.P.R. from Montreal to Toronto in this morning's police court, when he was fined $5 and $2.10 costs, with the option of 30 days, for a contravention of the Railway Act. The accused said that he went to Montreal with a load of horses, but spent his money in riotous living, and like the prodigal son, wanted to return home, so took advantage of the early morning passenger train west to catch a ride.

The C.P.R. constable at Havelock, R. McMaster, intervened in the little excursion and brought the lad to Peterborough this morning.

He took the 30 days.

jumped into the aisle and caught Markoe before he touched the floor.

Sent Emergency Call.

"The men carrying Dr. Markoe asked, "Where shall we take him?" "Take him to the Lying-In Hospital," I said. I had been to the hospital many times to visit Dr. Markoe and he had explained to me the emergency call.

"I ran ahead, still in my vestments, and gave the emergency call. By the time the elevator reached the ground floor they were carrying Dr. Markoe into the entrance. The elevator man asked: 'Who is it?' 'It's Dr. Markoe,' we said.

"'My God,' said the man. 'He's my friend.'

"We took him into the operating room on the fourth floor. It was the very same room in which Jim had performed an operation above my left eye, in the very spot where he was shot.

"Dr. MacPherson came in. He asked who it was. We said it was Jim Markoe. He looked at him and said he was dead. A few minutes later Mrs. Markoe came in. They told her he was dead. The poor woman collapsed.

'Then I felt like killing the man because I thought he was some Bolshevik. I was relieved to learn that he was an insane and irresponsible person. I returned to the church and found the choir still singing. I had been gone four or five minutes. I concluded the service.

"I have been thinking over the whole affair and I have come to the conclusion that what happened in the church took thirty-two seconds, so swift was the tragedy from the moment the first shot was fired to when Dr. Markoe was carried out."

A NUMBER OF UNIQUE DANCES IN "FI-FI OF THE TOY SHOP"

Over 200 people will take part in the local production of "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop," which is to be produced here under the auspices of the Belmont Club, and they are practicing daily for the big event. Besides the principals who have singing parts and lots of comedy work to train for, there are many groups used in the dances and spectacular features of the play. All are becoming proficient in dialgoue, steps, and songs.

"Fi-Fi" has become a familiar word in Peterobrough during the last week. The cast are all enthusiastic and are working hard so that the production will merit all the interest taken in it by the city in general. The dances in "Fi-Fi" are unique. People in a position to know say they are the best ever seen here. The China Dolls will compose one group that is sure to make a hit. They go through a most graceful dance, and the serious-faced clowns who work with them should amuse the audience for many minutes.

Another interesting group of young ladies do a very dainty dance called the "Dance of the Paper Dolls." These girls are pretty and graceful, and when dressed in apropriate costumes will be worth seeing. The "Colonial Dance of the Bridesmaids" is beyond doubt the most intricate and interesting dance ever attempted by amateurs. This is a flower garland fantasy and in the pretty and effective Janice Meridith costumes this group of women will represent a garden full of real Beauties. "The Dance of the Winds" is a pretty serpentine dance and with the other groups make a play that will be liked by all.

The musical extravaganza "Fi-Fi of the Toy Shop" will be given under the auspices of the Belmont Club on April 29 and 30.

THRILLS COME FAST IN FARNUM PICTURE

Standing room only was the rule at the Allen showing of the William Farnum de luxe production "The Last of the Duanes," yesterday at the Allen Theatre. The most ardent admirers of the famous William Fox star were not disappointed by their idol for he gave a wonderfully forceful portrayal of Buck Duane in this stirring story by Zane Grey. From the moment the first scene was flashed on the screen until the exciting finish, the audience was held spellbound by the intense dramatic situations that followed one another in rapid succession. Mr. Farnum never has been seen in a finer character role.

COPPEN IS INDIFFERENT.

TORONTO, April 22. — There are only 15 more days until May 5th, the date set for the execution of George Coppen, sentenced to death for slaying his wife. So far no word has come from the Appeal Court as to their decision for a new trial for Coppen. His indifferent manner is unchanged.

DO NOT KNOW WHAT OCCURS IN COMMITTEE

LABOUR MEMBERS PUZZLED OVER VANISHED CLAUSE IN POLICE COMMISSIONS ACT.

TORONTO, April 22. — Labor members of the Municipal Committee of the Legislature, judging by what they were saying yesterday after the committee had concluded its sessions for the day, felt that, somehow, some thing had been put over them.

At the prior meeting of the committee a bill was under consideration ,introduced by Mr. T. Tooms of Peterboro', to make Police Commissioners elective. Opposition to this arising in committee, the supporters of the bill say they decided to accept, as a compromise, that the Commission should consist of the Mayor, an Alderman and the Magistrate.

The bill came up again yesterday and the clerk of the committee read a draft of a clause placing the estimates of Police Commissions under the control of the City Council. The clerk said that he understood that was what the committee wished done

Undecided as to What Happened.

Hon. H. C. Nixon, Chairman of the committee, had to leave, and his place was taken by Edgar Watson (North Victoria). A most animated discussion arose as to what really happened at the prior meeting. One portion of the committee held that the clauses relating to the change of personnel in Police Commissions had been defeated. Another portion held that it had not been defeated, but that a redraft was to be brought in, as well as the redraft actually presented.

Somebody called for the minutes, but the minutes were not there, and apparently could not be produced on such short notice. Finally, after much objecting and cross-questioning, the committee voted in favor of the clause presented and adjourned.

After the meeting some of the Labor members said that they were certain that the clause changing personnel had not been defeated, and they promise to do some interesting speaking the next time the bill comes before the committee, if it comes at all, which some doubt.

At any rate the fight will be transferred to the floor of the House, and Labor men, from what they said yesterday, will make a determined effort to get it through in its original form.

Dr. Stevenson, M.P.P. for Lindsay. Mr. C. Swayzie, M.P.P. for Niagara Falls, and Mrs. Hector Prenter, of Toronto, registered at the Empress Hotel yesterday.

WEDDING BELLS

WOOD—ROY.

On Tuesday morning, 20th April—Rev. J. F. Chapman officiating—the wedding was quietly solemnised in St. James' Methodist Parsonage of Clarence Wood and Zella Roy, both of this city. After a two weeks' honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Wood will return to Peterborough, where they will reside.

WRIGHT—BRENNAN.

A pretty wedding took place at the Church of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Hastings, when Rev. Father McCarthy united in holy bonds of matrimony Miss Hazel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Brennan, of town, and Mr. Norman Wright, of Barrie. After the ceremony the wedding party had breakfast at the home of the bride, The Armstrong House, and then left on the 6.40 express for their future home at Barrie, where the groom is employed on the staff of the Bell Telephone Co. The bride looked charming in her travelling suit of midnight blue, with black hat, and she carried a beautiful corsage bouquet of orchid sweet peas. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Brennan, sister of the bride, was smartly attired in sand silk poplin trimmed with red beads, and she carried pink roses. The groomsman was Mr. Douglas Brennan, brother of the bride. The bride received very many beautiful and valuable presents, among them being substantial cheques from her parents and her uncle, Mr. Charles Armstrong. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a beautiful gold pendant and to the groomsman a pair of gold cuff links.

Among the guests who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Armstrong, of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bound and children, of Peterborough, and Mrs. Guernsey Brennan, of the Queen's Hotel, Porquois Juctn., Ont.

CAMPBELL—TURNER.

The marriage of Miss Mary Victoria Turner, daughter of Mrs. E. McKay Turner, to Mr. Norman H. Campbell, son of the late Senator Archibald Campbell, and Mrs. Campbell, took place quietly at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, at Grace Church-on-the-Hill, the Rev. James Broughall officiating. The bride who was given away by Mr. Douglas A. Campbell, wore a tailored suit of navy glue gabardine, a navy blue hat with roses, and she carried sweet peas and roses. Mrs. Douglas Campbell was matron of honour in navy blue serge with crinoline straw hat and bouquet of roses. Mr. James Bell was the best man. After the honeymoon which will be spent in Southern Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell will reside in the Lonsdale Apartments.

Mr. Campbell was formerly manager of the Peterboro branch of the Campbell Flour Mills.

To the uninitiated it means merely the business of encasing a picture in wood and glass, etc.

Nevertheless it is an art, and is understood by comparatively few people.

VOL. XLVI NO. 96 — PETERBOROUGH, FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1920 — PRICE TWO CENTS

UNSETTLED CONDITION IN GERMANY

PROGRESS OF THE SAN REMO CONFERENCE—ALLIES DISAGREE ON PEACE TREATY.

TURKISH TREATY

(United Press.)

SAN REMO, April 23.—The Council of Premiers yesterday afternoon continued discussion of the territorial clauses of the treaty of peace with Turkey, defining her European boundaries and later resumed discussion of Armenia, hearing Bogus Nubar Pasha on the Armenian section,—the official statement last night said.

Early in the session, it was learned, the Council examined again the military clauses of the Turkish treaty, especially those concerning the straits and approved them. Disposition of the Caucusus also was discussed. The German note asking an army of 200,000 instead of 100,000 allowed by the Treaty of Versailles, pointed out that Germany, not being a member of the League of Nations, did not have the advantage of the League provision to protect members from external aggression, and that Germany must have an army adequate for her internal needs.

It reviewed at length the unsettled conditions in Germany, declaring the established government must remain complete master of affairs, with ability to compel rebels to disarm if it was to stand.

With an army of 100,000 the Germans argued the government could not possibly stand should the Bolshevist elements start a new revolution.

Egyptian Delegation.

The Egyptian Nationalist delegation which arrived here late yesterday announced last night it would present demands for complete independence to the Council of Premiers.

Six delegations of peoples anxious to obtain favorable decisions from the peace conference arrived during the day. Representatives of Galicia said they would ask revision of the Treaty of Versailles to change the decision granting Poland a 25 year protectorate over part of Galicia.

Revise Treaty.

(Canadian Press.)

LONDON, April 23.— The Times to-day confirms the Paris reports of yesterday that Premiers Lloyd George and Nitti had urged that German representative be summoned to San Remo for the purpose of revising the Versailles treaty, but that the proposal collapsed owing to Belgian and French opposition. The newspaper adds: "We understand that any attempt to revise the treaty without consulting the United States will be resented by America who will consider England responsible for any complications that may ensue."

DAYLIGHT SAVING PASSED THE BOARD

Special to the Examiner:

TORONTO, April 23.—Daylight saving passed the Board of Control this morning. The motion calls for daylight saving to go into effect on May 2nd at 2 a.m., and continue in force until midnight, September 25.

FIRE DESTROYS A DOURO HOME

Between 3 and 4 a.m., early on Tuesday morning, the home of Mr. Michael Ryan, on the 9th Concession of Douro, was totally destroyed by fire in spite of the efforts of the neighbors to combat the flames. So quickly did the fire spread that practically nothing was saved.

Mr. Ryan received severe burns in his efforts to save his little daughter, and Mrs. Ryan was also burned. A small amount of insurance covered the house but will not begin to equal the loss.

ASKS CITY TO PAY FOR HIS $18 TROUSERS.

Sherbrooke Street Man Fell Over Obstruction on Busy Street.

The H.C.L. is finding its way into the damage claims against the city. W. H. Green, Sherbrooke street, fell over an air pipe in the sidewalk in front of Banks' garage, tore his trousers so badly that he had to buy a new pair at a cost of $18. Mr. Green does not seek compensation for the pain he suffered for three or four days, and for his lameness, but he contends that the city should pay for the new trousers for the reason that air pipes and such obstructions should not be set up in the sidewalk endangering the clothes and the limbs of pedestrians.

A Big Increase in the Canadian Trade

EXPORT FIGURES SHOW A BIG INCREASE OVER THE PREVIOUS YEAR—END OF FISCAL YEAR.

(Canadian Press.)

OTTAWA, April 23. — The figures for the fiscal year ending March 31, show an increase in the grand total of Canadian trade amounting to $163,980,200, when compared with the figures for the previous year.

The total value of the goods exported and imported during the year was $2,351,174,886, an increase of approximately two hundred millions over the previous year.

The export figures show a great increase during the past two years in the value of agricultural food products, animal products and wood and paper products over the eyars 1918-1919.

On imports its figures show that dutiable goods came into the country during the year just ended to the value of $693,643,211, an increase of more than 160 million dollars.

W. H. MOORE PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING

WAS ACTIVELY ASSOCIATED WITH THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE CITY.

This morning comes the passing of a man who has for over fifty years accepted and taken on and discharged most consistently and thoroughly a full share of civic duty and responsibility. His death removes one of the "Old Guard", identified with the intimate affairs of the town and afterwards city, a man to be referred to and consulted in implicit confidence that personal integrity and capability would indicate that which was for the civic weal. A most worthy example and representative of a passing generation that it will be difficult to replace in confidence and general respect.

At the ripe age of seventy-eight years William Henry Moore has gone. It was generally known and commented on during the last few weeks that his tenure on life seemed precarious. The end was not unexpected, an attack of pneumonia with its calls on bodily vitality proved to be more than could be overcome. He passed away this morning shortly before six o'clock.

He came of pioneer stock. His father William Henry Moore, the senior, was a native of Dublin, Ireland, and who after education entered the British Navy and served on the outbreak of the second Anglo-American war. This closing out, he acted as manager on a sugar plantation in the West Indies, and further on came to Canada and settled in the Township of Smith, on Lot 9, Concession 3, known as a "Clergy Reserve Lot". There the late Mr. Moore was born, his mother being a daughter of Francis Page, who taught the first school in Smith, on the 4th line, erected about 1824 or 1825.

Mr. Moore was educated at the schools of the township and at the old Union and Grammar schools of the town. Further on he was articled in the profession of law with Hon. Sidney Smith, writing and reading law in the office, now a part of the city building, and which has given shelter to nearly all the older members of the profession. Going to Toronto he was with George Morphy, Barrister, for one year. He was called to the bar in 1868 and practiced for a short time at Hamilton and at Petrolia, Ont. He removed to Peterborough in the end of 1869, and was in partnership with C. W. Sawers for four years. In recognition of his abilities as a barrister, he was created a Kings' Counsel in 1908. He had followed the practice of the profession, alone, until in recent years he associated with him, Mr. J. Wearing, under the firm title of Moore & Wearing.

Civic Service

His civic service speaks his worth in that the confidence of the citizens has been expressed. He was a valued member of the Town Council for eight years and a member of the City Trust Commission since 1893. He was elected as a director of the Little Lake Cemetery Co., in 1902, and was Chairman for eight years. Following the institution of the Civic Water Commission in 1902, he became a member in 1904, and remained in office during the taking over of the electrical services of the city and since, being selected as Chairman of the Utilities Commission January 1st 1920. Truly he died in the harness. He gave of service in the interests of many local activities including the Horticultural Society.

In political life he was a staunch Conservative. Honored and respected alike by friend and opponent, he was the efficient President of the West Riding of Peterborough Conservative Association, for many years, no political contest taking place without his wise and efficient counsel and guidance.

In addition to his activities in municipal affairs he had written able and informative articles on civic government, discussing Commission Government, and which writings had been received as most valuable contributions to discussion, throughout the Dominion. In religion he was a Presbyterian.

Two brothers survive him: Mr. F. D. Moore, of Lindsay, Barrister and County Police Magistrate, County of Victoria, Mr. J. K. Moore, of Smith, living on the old homestead farm, now in the hands of the second generation.

Of the immediate relatives that survive there is: Alan Moore, manager Union Bank, Chairesholm, Alb., Capt. Cyril Moore, of Santa Barbara, Cal., Mrs. Foster Ambery, Toronto, Mrs. W. L. Allen, Cobourg, Mrs. Guy Whitaker, City. All of these were with the father before he passed away with the exception of Capt. Moore, he being at considerable distance.

The deceased gentleman married Miss Emma Sawers, daughter of A. Sawers, a prominent man in the early history of the town.

The funeral is announced for Monday next, 26th inst., and at 2.00 p.m. from the residence, 310 London street.

2ND BATTALION HOLDS RE-UNION

PETERBORO MEMBERS OF THE IRON SECONDS TO FORM AN ASSOCIATION.

The original members of the 2nd Battalion, C.E.F., residing in Peterborough, held a very enjoyable re-union dinner at the Empress Hotel last night, at which it was decided to proceed with the organization of a 2nd Battalion Club in this city. The re-union was in commemoration of the 2nd Battle of Ypres, and many interesting reminiscences of the memorable day five years ago were exchanged. Speeches were made by Capt. Winterbottom, Lieut.-Col. Mills, Pte. A. White, Orderly Sergeant J. Allen and others, while a musical programme of much merit was given by the Hartshorn brothers. Sergt.-Major Nicholls and O. M. S. Wood also contributed enjoyable songs.

An excellent dinner was provided by the Empress staff.

The presence of relatives of some of the Peterborough men who gave up their lives at Ypres was a feature of the gathering. They included Messrs. W. Ackerman, Curtis, Carpenter, Hartshorn and White. Other guests were Messrs. Staunton and Cockburn, original first contingent men; while the 2nd Battalion members present were Lieut.-Col. J. Mills, Capt. Winterbottom, Lieut. A. B. Mills, Lieut. O. Brooks, Sergt.-Major E. Nicholls, Q. M. S. Wood, Orderly Sergt. J. Allen, Sergts. Griffin, S. Garrett, H. Kelsey, Ptes. H. Rogers, Green, Underwood, Pellow, Cole, White, Richardson, Simmons, Cummings and Mockett.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE PASSED

COUNCIL TO DRAPE PICTURES OF DEPARTED ALDERMAN.

Resolutions of condolence were passed by the Council last night to the families of the late Alderman Phelan, ex-Ald. Weir, and R. A. Morrow, who was a member of the Council years ago.

Acknowledgment of the Council's sympathy was received from R. M. Neill and Mrs. C. R. Winch. It was remarked last night that the resolutions of condolence at the regular meeting early this month were all moved by the late Ald. Phelan.

Upon Ald. Gainey's suggestion, the photographs of Mr. Phelan and Mr. Weir will be draped for thirty days, as a mark of respect and regret.

Bank Accepts.

C. C. Abbott notified the Council of the acceptance by the Bank of Montreal of the city's account on the same conditions as those given to the Bank of Toronto.

Trade With C. P. R.

The C.P.R. turntable east of George Street is built partly on city property, the strip widening from a point to twenty feet. The company owns a small gore immediately north of the Lundy Shovel factory, which the Raybestos Company want for the site of their boiler-house. Negotiations to trade these parcels have been proceeding between the city and the C.P.R., and were finally closed last night.

"My eyes are strong. I can read anything," is the boast of many suffering from a form of eyestrain which, if permitted to go unchecked, develops into a serious case of poor vision. An optical specialist can tell when you need glasses. See W. H. Lacey, 410 George street.

KENORA "GIN" IS CONSIDERED DEADLY

(Special to the Examiner.)

WINNIPEG, Man., April 23.—Government inspection of liquor shipped into Manitoba from Kenora and Dryden, Ont., and regulations restricting the sale of wood alcohol, bay rum, Florida water and other forms of ginger was advocated to-day by Coroner McConnell as a means of reducing the large number of fatalities due to excessive and improper use of spirits, recorded in this city this month. Kenora "gin" is said to be particularly deadly.

Sentence Imposed

THREE YEARS FOR FORMER PREMIER CAILLAUX.

(Canadian Press.)

PARIS, April 23.—Sentence of three years imprisonment was imposed to-day upon former premier Caillaux convicted by the High Court yesterday of commerce and correspondence with the enemy. The time during which the ex-premier was under arrest will be deducted however, leaving him but one month to serve.

One feature of the penalty which will be inflicted upon Joseph Caillaux former premier of France, who was convicted yesterday of "commerce and correspondence with enemy" will be loss of his right to vote and eligibility to hold office. This was decided by the Senate when it resumed sessions this morning to discuss the text of the verdict. It was agreed he should not lose other civic rights.

CITY ENGINEER ORDERED OFF THE WILSON ACRES

A newspaper item on Monday reporting the Railway Board's order authorizing the city to enter upon Mr. Allan Wilson's farm in Otonabee to prepare for the construction of the sewage disposal plant, evidently settled Mr. Wilson, for he forthwith ordered City Engineer Parsons off the premises. Mr. Parsons and Mr. Wilson are personal friends, and on the strength of that relationship Mr. Parsons was given access to the grounds to sink test pits and make borings. Then appeared the Railway Board's edict, but City Solicitor Widdifield advised Mr. Parsons not to trespass further, believing that the order did not carry plenary privileges and powers.

And the City Engineer must have his plans exact by a week from Friday for a final review by the Railway Board.

"What am I to do about it?" Mr. Parsons asked last night and probably meant what was the Council going to do.

"I'm going on that land," he stated.

"We'll get you out if you're arrested," Ald. Gordon assured him.

Ald. Gordon suggested that Mr. McIntyre, chairman of the Board, would extend the two weeks under the circumstances. He offered to telephone him to-day and explain the cause of any delay that might ensue.

"Mr. Wilson is peeved over the continued delay of the Council. They have had this work before them for years and even now they have no definite arrangement with Mr. Wilson," Mr. Parsons said.

Ald. Gordon considered Mr. Wilson's price of $19,000 extortionate, but Ald. White house moved, seconded by Ald. Copping, that Mr. Wilson be invited to meet the Council and discuss the value of the land and the area to be purchased. This motion passed.

In the meantime Mr. Widdifield will prepare a by-law to expropriate the Wilson farm for the site of the disposal plant, as an evidence of the Council's intention of securing possession.

A Sewer Problem.

Mr. Parsons outlined a problem for the Board of Works. Asphaltic concrete for pavements will cost $8 a yard, and the Engineer proposes that the by-law covering the work be extended to secure prices on other forms of paving. George street, between Westcott and Romaine streets, should not be paved until a new sewer is constructed in the block. The present one, he said, was too deep. Besides, there is no sewer between King Edward and Princess street and from Prince street to Lansdowne street. These services should be built before the street is paved. There is also the permanent problem of Romaine street, between George and Aylmer streets. Mr. Parsons doubted that this sewer was now operating. It was desired that changes be made in order that the pumping station could be dispensed with. The question of finances enters into the problem, which the Board of Works will consider shortly.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH.

Special services will be held in the Free Methodist Church this evening commencing at eight o'clock.

Voting Delayed on Dry Resolution

REFERENDUM QUESTION TO BE VOTED ON IN LEGISLATURE ON TUESDAY—HON. MR. RANEY'S VIEWS.

TORONTO, April 23. — Expectation of a division on the Mc McCreary resolution were shattered in the Legislature last evening when the leaders of the various groups, satisfied that it would be impossible to get to the end of the list of speakers by midnight, agreed to postpone the wind-up of the debate and the voting until Tuesday, when the whips will have every member in his place. The debate was late in starting yesterday, and fewer members were heard than upon the first day.

Replying to the charges that bringing in the resolution calling for a referendum by a private member was not an act of responsible government, Hon. W. E. Raney, Attorney-General, challenged anyone to try a vote of want of confidence and see if the Government was responsible. He also gave it as his opinion, and the opinion of his department, that it would be 1921 at least, and probably 1922, before the province could get a decision on a test case as to whether Bill 26 applies to Ontario.

Conservative Favors Resolution.

There were few surprises in the attitude of any of the members, except that of a Conservative, J. R. Cooke, (North Hastings), who declared that he would support the resolution. A. M. Rankin (Frontenac), said that, failing the Hill amendment, he would support the resolution. The only two Liberal members to speak yesterday, John O'Neill (South east Toronto), and Capt. Ramsden (Southwest Toronto), lined up behind the Brackin amendment. Capt. Joseph Thompson (Northeast Toronto), said he would support both amendments. M. M. MacBride, the only Labor speaker of the day, will support the Brackin amendment. The other two speakers were Hon. W. E. Raney and Hon. H. C. Nixon, the Provincial Secretary. But put up a strong case for the resolution. Dr. Forbes Godfrey (West York) is against a referendum and will support the Hill amendment only.

With Mr. Cooke for the resolution the number of supporters is on the increase. The Liberal members favoring the resolution are standing solid. But it goes over another week-end. It would seem that most members of the House wish to explain their attitudes, as well as indicating it by a vote. The galleries were crowded last night in expectation of a vote.

Mr. Raney Heckled.

Hon. Mr. Raney, who was really making his maiden speech in the House, as his previous utterances have been brief explanations, was heckled considerably. He dealt effectively with the Opposition criticism.

He was interrupted at the outset, because he almost turned his back on the speaker when he spoke. Opposition members wanted to know to whom he was speaking. He appealed to the Speaker and was allowed to proceed in his own way.

HUNTER STREET BRIDGE PROGRESS

FORMS HAVE BEEN REMOVED FROM THE APPROACHES.

Unusual activity is apparent at the new bridge these days, and the work is going through with a real and push that ensures a successful conclusion if it continues as it is now. The forms on the first two arches on the east side were removed several days ago, and the cement, to all appearances, is in good condition, the usage of the cold and snow of the winter leaving little effect on the bridge. To-day the form on the most easterly arch was being removed by a large staff of carpenters. There is an immense amount of lumber in these forms, and it is no small job to remove them, so securely and firmly are they constructed. The eastern abuttment forms are under erection by a large corps of carpenters.

On the western side the forms for the arches are under way, while the excavation for the abuttment has passed the initial stage, and is now down about twenty-five feet, with an equal distance to go yet. A derrick is in course of erection, and the real excavating will begin as soon as this is in working condition.

The activity now will be nothing compared to that of a few weeks away, when the work on the long span will commence.

THE FALCONS PLAY TO-MORROW NIGHT

WILL MEET THE CZECHO-SLOVAKIA TEAM.

(Canadian Press.)

ANTWERP, April 23.—Canada's hockey representatives, the Falcons, of Winnipeg, will meet the Czecho-Slovakia team in the opening round of the Olympic Games here in the hockey tournament to-morrow night.

The Canadian and United States teams are favourites, with the Belgian enthusiasts, while the Czechos are third best.

Sweden and Belgium meet to-night, the United States and Switzerland to-morrow afternoon, and the Canadians and Czechs to-morrow night.

France drew a bye, and will meet the winners of the Swedish-Belgian game on Sunday afternoon.

The winners of the other games will meet on Sunday evening.

BUILDING BY-LAW MADE BY COUNCIL TO BE FLOUTED

William Tinker, 504 Aylmer Street, knows the weakness of the City Council that makes many thoughtful citizens hesitate to give them such powers as control over the Police Department.

Mr. Tinker wished to build a garage of galvanised iron, but under the building by-law, because he lives within the central fire area, the materials should be either brick or stone.

His first communication drew a reply from the City Clerk, simply quoting the regulation. He then requested that his request be forwarded to the Council, and last night he was given permission to build the garage of galvanised iron.

ENTENTE ARREST PROMINENT TURKS

TROUBULOUS TIMES REPORTED IN THE TURKISH CAPITAL.

(United Press.)

LONDON, April 23. — Anatolia has formed an independent government under the presidency of Mustapha Kemal, leader of the Turkish Nationalist forces in Asia Minor, according to a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, filed at Constantinople on Wednesday.

WAS ARRESTED.

(Canadian Press.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 23. — Izzet Pasha, the former Turkish Grand Vizier, was placed under arrest by the Entente authorities here on Wednesday.

General Alirza Pasha and several other prominent Turks were also apprehended.

Damad Ferid Pasha, the Grand Vizier, has taken charge of the War Office, because disaffection there has embarrassed the government in sending assistance to Anzevour Pasha, Chief of the Sultan's forces in Asia Minor. He discharged a number of the officials who are charged with being responsible for trouble.

Twelve hundred adherents of Mustapha Kemal are reported to have been arrested and many are being jailed daily.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT ON AT TURNBULL'S

At Turnbull's store during the past week the Welch's grapelade exhibition has attracted an unlimited amount of interest amongst the shoppers in the store, and has added, through the concrete proof of its merits, large numbers to the already large ranks of the users of the most delicious of all breakfast foods. Miss Salisbury, who is in charge of the exhibit at Turnbull's, has given all who have been sufficiently interested in pure foods to try grapelade, a cordial reception at her counter, and has found that "to try is to buy" with the intelligent Peterborough people. She is ready and glad, not only to furnish a generous sample of grapelade, but to explain all points of the food, which is composed of concord grapes and granulated sugar, from which all acid is entirely absent.

THE UNDER SECRETARY TO RESIGN

PART OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT POLICY TOWARDS IRELAND

LIFE IN DANGER

(Canadian Press.)

"Sir John," says newspaper, "has for years been power behind thone at Dublin Castle, and his life has been constantly in danger. He was always guarded by detective and it is reported that he had not left castle in six months until he was given months leave of absence recently. This leave may be prolonged indefinitely".

Mrs. Duncan Walker, the representative of the Daughters of the Empire on the Provincial Executive, will attend the meeting of that body to be held in London on April 26th.

TRYING TO CORNER THE COPPER MARKET

RUMOUR CONCERNING VALUE OF 1914 COPPERS.

Considerable interest has been aroused in the city in the last few weeks by a rumour in circulation that all 1914 coppers were to be called in by the Government, and the banks were to pay 85 cents a piece for them. The rumour has not been confirmed by any of the local banking houses, and the Examiner has not met anyone yet who has got 85 cents for one. Nevertheless, many enquiries have been made at the banks and places where coppers are much in use by people trying to create a corner on them.

NIGHT RIDERS ON PARLIAMENT HILL

To the category of tales of wild night rides must be added that of a peculiarly spectacular stunt on parliament hill in the late hours of Sunday night. A high powered and well trained automobile, driven at a pace of fifty miles an hour, was run up the western driveway and right up the steps near the house of commons entrance, whizzed around the walk and off down town again. The steps, but not the car, suffered. The tracks were plainly in evidence yesterday, and moreover, an M.P., who was star gazing, was an eye witness to the performance. The car was fairly full and it is suspected that the occupants also were in like condition. The police would like to get their number.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How to Treat.

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestents are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acids and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur With It to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

THIRSTY FARMERS.

(Canadian Press.)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 22.—Farmers in Kentucky who have been accustomed to quenching their thirst with hard cider may be classed as "moonshiners" under the McLellan Law which goes into effect on July 1. Under the state-wide dry announcement, adopted by the people last Fall, any person having a beverage containing more than one-half of one per cent. alcohol, including cider or home-made wine, on their premises, may be haled into court to show whether they manufactured it with or without a permit.

Kentucky in thus assuming "concurrent jurisdiction" with the government of the United States in enforcing prohibition puts more teeth into the Volstead Enforcement Act and makes every peace officer in the state responsible for keeping the commonwealth "bone dry."

Thirty-four other states and the District of Columbia have state law measures as follows: Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wyoming. Ohio has not adopted a complete code, three codes having been passed by the legislature and held up by the popular referendum.

Eleven states which so far have not passed law enforcement codes are: Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Louisiana and Wisconsin. Three of the eleven, Rhode Island, New Jersey and Wisconsin have ratified the Eighteenth Amendment. The Wisconsin legislature, in enacting a two and one-half per cent. law provided that if the United States Supreme Court sustains the Volstead Act, the statute shall not go into effect. Rhode Island will license places selling beverages containing not more than four per cent. of alcohol by weight on the ground that it is non-intoxicating. New Jersey in legalising the manufacture, sale and transportation of three and one-half per cent. beer awaits the formal declaration of peace and the end of the war prohibition.

Maryland wet legislators proposed a three and one-half per cent. beer bill, which was passed by the House but defeated in the Senate. A three and one-half per cent bill is now pending in the Massachusetts and New York legislatures. Delaware is considering an amendment to the state prohibition code providing for the sale of liquor for "medicinal purposes" in harmony with the federal code. The drys oppose it on the ground that it nullifies much of the state enforcement law

The real people for whom music was intended are the workers. They deserve the joys of fine harmonies. They can gain much more than any one else because they are in need of recreation.

Principles!

TO forego all desire to accumulate money or chattels for personal advantage.

TO live decently, to have sufficient food, clothes, and shelter, but to ask no reward in this life.

TO dedicate their lives solely to the work of helping others, and bringing them to Christ.

TO spend their lives in consecrated ministry to the physical and spiritual needs of the poor, hopless, needy, fallen and stricken.

THESE are the principles that govern the lives of the Salvation army Officers.

BY their deeds ye shall know them.

NEW GILLETTE CREATES INTEREST

Called the "Big Fellow"—and Looks It.

An interesting announcement has been made regarding a new style of Gillette Safety Razor set.

To the general public, it might have seemed that the line was pretty complete as it was, with the leather case sets, the picket editions and the plated cases.

But the Gillette Safety Razor makers have heard the claim of the men with big hands and the muscular grip that calls for something stouter to handle than the standard Gillette Safety Razor.

The "Big Fellow" has been designed and will shortly be on sale all over the coutry. The "Big Fellow" looks like the standard Gillette and takes the standard Gillette blade, but the handle is larger and thicker and heavier, and the case is of polished Gum Tree Wood, oil-finished.

Because of the publicity which is being given to the new set through the newspapers, the "Big Fellow" will be known from one end of the country to the other in less than a month's time—an achievement that would take years without the aid of advertising.

Always keep umbrellas rolled when not in use.

SOME MORE HORRID HEADS

(By H. F. GADSBY)

Union Government, like all things mortal, is born to trouble as the sparks fly upward. For instance there are the bye-elections. One by one they raise their horrid heads. They will go on raising their horrid heads for some time to come and always with the same results. East Elgin will raise its horrid head somewhere in June—that being the six months limit for vacancies fixed by the new law. East Elgin will elect a farmer of course. The horrid head will bear a U.F.O. countenance. But neither it nor any other horrid head will Union Government look in the face. It expects to tire all the horrid heads out.

The two latest horrid heads are St. James, Montreal and Temiskaming—the one an unregenerate Laurier Liberal, the other a Labor-Socialist—the latter perhaps the more startling.

Macdonald of Temiskaming will be the first honest-to-God Workingman—with a capital W — who has ever graced the House of Commons. Parliament has seen labor leaders before, indeed has one or two of them now, but these were fellows who worked with their mouths, and if any of their muscles stood out like iron bands it was muscles of the jaws which wagged double shifts and never asked for off-time. Macdonald is not that sort. He is the real thing in horny-handed sons of toil and he never had a bossing mob in his life. He has been a day-wage man all his life and he has done the roughest kind of work. For many years he was a miner, still is in fact, but he has given up underground work and is employed now only in surface operations, building frames and the like. He is a genuine soldier of labor and the hardships have had their effect even on his rugged health. There is little reason to believe that a life of the hardest sort of toil has softened Macdonald's opinions which are perhaps more advanced in the direction of communism than anything the House of Commons has yet heard of.

It may be that Ottawa will give him milder lights, that he will shade down, say, to the socialization of national resources, which is Gould of Assinboia's point of view, but there is room for doubt. It will take more than two or three sessions, at Ottawa to ease Macdonald's convictions. Meanwhile he is a new and somewhat alarming phenomenon—a sort of hawk among the parrots.

A great deal of anxious talk centres around the election of an old-time Laurier Liberal, Fernand Renfret in St. James division, Montreal. As one jubilant French Senator said to me: "So long as we we the solid Quebec, we don't give a damn what else happens." Evidently he accepted the St. James election as a proof that the Solid Quebec is a lasting entity. It is no secret that the Conservatives are looking forward to the time when Laurier's memory will have lost its magic and Quebec will go about fifty-fifty as it did in Sir John Macdonald's day, or perhaps sixty-forty as might be expected from a province which becomes more and more a manufacturing community. The St. James election seems to indicate that the consummation so devoutly wished by the Unionists, and their prospective successors the high-tariff Liberal-Conservative party is still some distance off.

It Will Not Down.

Another horrid head that refuses to be bashed in is the Returned Soldier. The gratuity is not the sorest point—the Government has again refused to distribute money that it can't get short of confiscating our bank accounts—but the fact that the Returned Soldier threatens to become a solid political bloc. Sir George Foster—perhaps rightly —declines to shake hands with Private Harry Flynn ,but the movement Flynn represent grows in political strength, if not in financial prospects.

This movement has advanced from an attempted rail by about ten per cent. of the Canadian Expeditionary Force on the Dominion Treasury to something much more menacing— a get-together campaign by all the returned soldiers to form a political party. The G.W.V.A. has opened its doors to all the soldiers who care to join and there is every reason to believe that this enlargement of boundaries will soon show results. At any rate Union Government views it with increasing alarm and is disposed to believe that it has an external stimulus from some of the big but disgruntled brains in the old Conservative party. The soldiers, they apprehend, did not do this thing themselves. There is an old hand in it that they recognize, a clever organizing head with all the old tricks and a few new ones, whetted by an earnest desire for vengeance. I cannot mention names, but it will look straight at him. One of his most trusted aides is Colonel John Currie, M.P. Enough said.

This massing movement which is to bring a united soldiers' vote directly to bear on the issues of the day is good strategy. It is strategy which is strangely familiar to the members of Union Government and it does not lessen their alarm that it is now being used against them by the same man who once played it on their side.

The soldiers may not get their gratuity—at least not while Union Government holds office—but they stand to win something, a great deal better, a predominating influence in public life. I don't know just what percentage of the total vote five hundred thousand is, but it is enough to use as a big club on uneasy politicians. The gratuity may be an unreasonable demand, but it will always have something to hang an argument on so long as waste, extravagance, and pull prevail in the Militia Department. The pay roll is cluttered up with hangers-on who should have been demobilized long ago. They are mostly of the officer class. Some of them have not fifteen minutes of real work to do in a day. Soft snaps are still plentiful —snaps that became soft and should have eben discontinued as soon as the war ceased— other soft snaps that have been made for pets since the armistice was signed—a multitude of soft snaps in fact and no effort made by the Government to cut them off. No such reluctance was shown in stopping the pay of the rank and file. Private Flynn and his crowd may well ask "Where is this discrimination going to end" and find a certain sympathy among the taxpayers at large. The war having ended a year and a half ago it would seem about time to end the cushy jobs at Ottawa which help to make demobilization the biggest bill we still have to face.

If the Government will show the same courage in pruning these hangovers from the war establishments as Mr. Ballantyne did in lopping off the navy all may yet be forgiven. But it shows a curious reluctance to do so. Sooner than "hurt anybody" it would have recourse to a counter-organization of war veterans mostly officers, who would reason with the gratuity hunters and teach them the error of their ways. This counter organization is said to be already afoot and it behooves Mr. Flynn and his army to beware of flank attacks.

The war spirit, which was so useful six years ago, and which was invoked again in 1917 to win the election for Union Government, is now much deplored. Only a few enthusiasts keep it up in the House. The Government would like to forget it. Even Mr. Rowell agrees that the war has ended and that the dead past ought to bury its dead. There is nothing in the war now for Union Government except trouble and it is quite willing to consider it over if the soldiers will only consent. This ebbing of the war spirit has a good effect on the Franchise Act, which promises to be not so hard on active resisters of the Military Service Act, as was apprehended.

DENIKIN REACHES ENGLAND, WEARY OF RUSSIAN STRIFE

LONDON,—General Denikin, former commander of the anti-Bolshevist army in South Russia, reached London from Constantinople. He told interviewers that he was tired and worn out and that he would like to find a litle house where he could rest for three months or so.

With him were the son and daughter of General Korniloff, former Russian Commander in Chief and leader of the revolt against the Russian Provisional Government in the early Fall of 1917, who was killed later.

General Denikin's visit to England is unofficial.

BATTLEFIELD MEMORIALS.

Public sentiment will undoubtedly strongly endorse the erection on the battlefields of France and Belgium, where the Canadian Division distinguished itself, of suitable memorials. The details of the matter and the determining of the general policy have been entrusted to a special committee of the House of Commons, and Canadians generally will be pleased to know that the gallant fighting of the Maple Leaf troops is to be permanently commemorated. Sites have been selected for the monuments to be erected, and the battles of St. Julien, Paschendeale, St. Eloi, Vimy Ridge, Arras, Courcelette and Amiens will all be recalled by memorials setting forth the fact that the Canadian troops played a no mean part in these engagements. The money votes for the work have already been passed, and it is hoped that the erection of the monuments will be proceeded with as soon as the special committee has made its report.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY.

To-day is St. George's Day—the anniversary that every Englishman honours. If there is not the display of red roses in evidence in the button-holes of the citizens to-day as there has been on other St. George's Days, it is not because the hearts of the people are less loyal but because the cost of the outward symbol of their loyalty has become prohibitive— to many at least, who would have liked to have worn a rose. On April 23rd, of all days in the year, Canadians should look across the seas with admiration and love to that wonderful litte seagirt country that carried the biggest burden of the greatest war in all history, and that in spite of the grievous losses in men and material that she suffered, is leading the world in getting back to peace conditions and the activities of normal times. Not all the Canadians are of English descent, but whatever their origin they can unite to-day in honouring St. George's Day and in respect and esteem for old England.

NO DAYLIGHT SAVING.

After having had two successful years' trial of daylight saving, Peterborough will have to get along this summer on standard time. The last hope of the summer time advocates was killed last night, when at a special meeting of the Council the report of the Committee of the Whole recommending that no action be taken in the matter of daylight saving, was adopted, the fact that the fact that the railways will operate this year on standard time being assigned as a reason. Other centres, including Ottawa and Welland, have decided to put up with the inconvenience of a difference between railway and city time, believing that the benefits gained by the mass of the people will far more than balance the difficulty that may be caused a few citizens, and it was hoped by many that the Peterborough Council would show a similar progressive spirit. The hope has not been realized and the friends of daylight saving, among whom the Examiner has been glad to enrol itself, will have to submit gracefully to the judgment of the city fathers.

OVERALLS FOR THE POLICE.

This overall club idea, as a protest against the high cost of clothing may be all right in principle, but like everything else, it can be overdone. For instance the newspapers yesterday contained a paragraph from Chatham to the effect that the Police Commissiners of that city were seriously considering the advisability of clothing the police force in overalls as a measure of economy. Horrors! A policeman in overalls! Banish the blue uniform and the brass buttons and you banish fifty per cent. of the majesty of the law. Imagine a "bobby" with a pair of denim overalls suspended from his manly shoulders and with a straw hat concealing his chaste features, trying to direct tarffic. The first motorist that came along would either take him for a street cleaner or be so overcome with laughter than an accident would be the result. No, such infringements upon the dignity of the police department must not even be thought of. Let the police magistrate wear overalls if he wants to, let the commissioners don the denim if they see fit, but hands off the policemen. A constable might be able to do without a revolver, he might possibly carry on without his baton, there have been reported cases of policemen who even got along without brains, but strip him of the brass buttons of authority and send him out in blue overalls and he is as helpless as a child. The Chatham report may be exaggerated, but at all events may this iniquitous idea find no favour in Peterborough. We have no longing to see the 44 inch chests of the local finest expanding a denim smock.

CALLS IT A JOKE.

Under the heading, 'Another of Mr. Burnham's Little Jokes,," the Christian Guardian says:

Mr. J. H. Burnham, M.P., has announced that he will give $25 to the first Methodist minister who will dare to say that when Noah got drunk God should have prohibited wine. We suppose the same amount will be paid if any preacher will dare to say that when the first man died from rattlesnake bite God shoud have prohibited rattlesnakes; or when the first man got poisoned by eating toadstools God should have prohibited toadstools; or when the first M.P. made a fool of himself God should have prohibited M.P.'s. Oh, no, friend Burnaby, your $25 is perfectly safe. The Methodist minister isn't nearly as big a fool as the M.P. for West Peterborough thinks he is. We are at a loss to know why Mr. Burnham waxes so wrathy over the question of prohibition ,as he does not figure very prominently, so far as we know, in the Liberty League. And we are at a still greater loss to know why he singles out the Methodists as special objects of his denunciation in reference to prohibition. Does he not know that the great Presbyterian body to which, we understand, he is attached more or less closely, has also declared itself the uncompromising foe of the liquor traffic? We do not see how Mr. Burnham could expect anyone to take his challenge seriously, and so we suppose he was joking, although the humor is rather of the elephantine variety. If Mr. Burnham wants to discuss the matter of prohibition seriously he will find, probably, lots of men who will be willing to discuss it with him, either privately or in public, either in the press or on the platform. But with the cost of living as high as it is at present, we would suggest to our good friend that he be not too careless in flaunting his $25 bills before the public. But no doubt he considered the matter long and carefully, and was quite sure that his money wa ssafe before he issued his challenge.

THE HYDRO SITUATION.

On the 28th of this month representatives of the municipalities of Central Ontario will meet here to consider the proposal to transfer the power systems in this section of Ontario from the Hydro-Electric Commission to the municipalities along the lines that have been adopted in the western part of the province by which the municipalities will eventually become the full owners of the power systems. The matter has been discussed at several meetings and has met with considerable approval.

Down Kingston way, however, there seems to be some misunderstanding as to the project. For instance, the Kingston Whig sees in the proposal a plan that will take the control of the power system within the city limits of Kingston from the hands of the local commissioners and give it to the Provincial Hydro Commission.

"Now it is proposed, says the Whig, "to have the Central Ontario municipal systems managed by the parent commission at Toronto, and enable all the municipalities to become full owners after thirty years.

"Over three years ago, Kingston entered into an agreement with the provincial commission for a supply of power. The agreement is for twenty years. Kingston has it sown plant and lines within the city limits and also to Barriefield and Portsmouth, and all the provincial commission does is to supply Kingston with a stated amount of electrical energy from the Trent. At this stage, Kingston has no desire to turn the management of its electrical plant over to the Beck commission when it is so efficiently operated by its own public utilities commission, and it is hardly likely that this city would be forced into such a scheme by the government if the other central Ontario municipalities voted to enter. Kingston wants hydro power and lots of it, but Robert F. Elliott and his commission are able to manage the local plant just as well, if not better than could be done by Sir Adam Beck's experts. In fact, the latter are agreed upon that."

The Whig's conception of the plan is wrong. There is no intention of making any change in so far as the management of the systems within the various municipalities is concerned. They will be operated under the management of the local commissions just as they are now, and if the new plan meant the abandonment of such control there would probably not be a municipality in Eastern Ontario that would favour a change.

REAL CANADIANS.

One of the most interesting events in the history of Canadian sport was the departure recently of the Winnipeg Falcons, winners of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Championship. This team is on its way to compete for the world's championship at the Olympic Games. Against whom they are going to try their skill is not quite clear, as it does not occur to us at the moment that hockey has made any great strides in other countries besides Canada, but the fact that this team will represent Canada is of more than passing interest, for two reasons. The first reason is that the team is composed entirely of boys of Icelandic descent, and the second reason is that all the players served as volunteers with the Canadian Army in France.

These young men are representative of the first generation of Icelanders to be born in Canada. Their parents all came to Canada towards the close of the last century. The facts that this team is now the foremost hockey organisation in Canada and that it is composed entirely of veterans are startling evidences of the progress made by the Icelanders in Canadian citizenship. The Icelanders came to this country in order to establish permanent homes here. They came with the intention of becoming a part of the Dominion. They put up no cry for special privileges or concessions in the way of teaching their language in their schools or exemption from all the responsibilities and duties of citizenship. They established schools in which the English language alone was taught. They did this, not at the sacrifice of their national characteristic or language, for the Icelanders realized that the perpetuation of their language and their ideals was not a public matter, but a private affair, and the rising generation was instructed in Icelandic language and history in their homes. They acted on the belief that if they were to become Canadian citizens, they must consider that result first and the idea of preserving their national character second.

The people who came here from Iceland understood that not only was it desirable to bring up their children in a complete knowledge of Canadian language and laws, but they also would benefit by trying to make themselves a part of the country, with the result that, contrary to the conditions found among other bodies of immigrants, within a few years of their arrival in Canada, practically all the adults were in possession of a fair acquaintance with the English tongue. The result of this policy of trying to make their adopted land their own has been little short of amazing. The Canadian-born men of Icelandic origin volunteeredalmost to a man in the Canadian Army; that is, those who were of military age. Men whose fathers and mothers came from the little island in the Northern Atlantic occupy high and honoured positions in the life of the Canadian West. They are to be found in the Legislatures, in the professions, in the upper strata of the business and commercial fields. They are Canadians in every sense. The wonderful team of hockey players, Icelanders all by descent, is a truly Canadian team of which Canada is justly proud. —Turner's Weekly.

PURITY - QUALITY - ECONOMY

With the increased cost of labor and materials due to war conditions, it is not reasonable to suppose that a really first class baking powder can be made and sold at the old prices. Rather than sacrifice the quality of we found it necessary to make slight increases in price during the war period. Even though Magic Baking Powder may cost a few cents more than the ordinary kinds it is still by far the most economical baking powder on the market to-day when purity, strength and leavening qualities are taken into consideration.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS

ROSE MAKES REMARKS THAT HURT

CHAPTER CIV

"I am having such a good time!" Rose declared to Everett. I looked at her in amazement. She had told Walter Kemp she didn't want to go, she had lied him —and me— to think she was going to be bored. That Rose was a born coquette, I had not realized.

"So am I," he replied genially. He and Rose had just danced a fox trot. "You dance very well," he added.

"Not so well as Sandra," she returned, "She always danced better than any of us."

I almost held my breath so that I might hear Everett's reply: "Sandra is very graceful. Naturally she would dance well."

My cheeks burned, and I knew they were flushed with pleasure. Everett was so chary with his compliments that one of them meant more than twice as much said by another. He never told me he thought me graceful, altho he had said I danced well.

"Indeed she is!" Rose answered emphatically. "I only wish I were as graceful."

"You do very nicely as you are," he returned gallantly.

It seemed to me that Everett always said just the right thing when others were around—I mean in a complimentary way. Yet so seldom did he say them about me, that I always blushed and showed my pleasure. So now Rose laughingly said:

"You should say nice things about Sandra often, Mr. Graham. See her blush."

Everett just glanced at me, but made no remark, and Rose chatted gayly thru the remainder of the meal. We had a lovely ride home, and I thanked Everett for giving us such a nice evening. I went into the room Rose was occupying to chat with her a bit while Everett read his evening papers.

"The idea of your thanking your own husband for taking you out. I'll bet a nickel his first wife didn't!"

"I don't see why I shouldn't thank him. He gave his entire evening up to entertaining us."

"He knows how to order a dinner, all right, but I wouldn't be so meek, Sandra. Number one wasn't."

"What do you know about it?"

"Oh, Walter Kemp told me all about the merry chase she led Mr. Graham! How she did everything she wanted to do, and that he loved the very ground she walked on. Men don't like namby pamby women; they like us to have some spunk, and demand our rights."

"Perhaps." I didn't know what to say. I was amazed that Rose and Kemp had discussed me, my affairs.

"There's no 'perhaps' about it. That's what I meant when I said I didn't see why you should thank your own husband for taking you out. It's his duty." Then, after a moment: "I don't believe your mother or mine ever thought of such a thing as saying 'thank you' when our fathers took them anywhere."

"Life is rather different in a big town, Rose", I said for want of something better. "Men have more demands upon their time, men who have big business to manage. Then, since I have been married to Everett I have learned a lot of things I never knew of before, and one is that courtesy—politeness to each other—makes things easier all around. Everett is always courteous even when displeased."

"I'd rather he'd be a little more loving if he were my husband, and a little less polite. At times I should fear he was not married to me if I were you."

"What a notion! Seriously, Rose, I would not change Everett if I could. I am terribly proud and fond of him. I don't know anyone I would change places with." I had to say something to assure Rose of my love for Everett. I did not want her to talk to Kemp about me—as if I cared nothing for my husband because he was older and was strict with me.

"I am awfully glad if you are happy at last with him, Sandra. You weren't very happy when I was here before, you know. But I would assert myself a little more if I were in your place. If you have to be number two you might as well take advantage of what number one did to have a good time From what I hear she didn't miss a trick."

"What a dreadful expression," I replied laughing in spite of myself at Rose's slang. Everett saved me from making any other reply by calling to me that it was late, and time to retire.

To-morrow—I Worry Over Rose and Walter, Kemp.

PLAY JOKE ON LLOYD GEORGE

Women Clerks Send Him a Host of Housekeepers.

LONDON, April 22. — Premier Lloyd George has been besieged at his official residence, 10 Dowing street, by a large number of would-be housekeepers attracted there as the result of a joke with a moral perpetrated by an organization of women clerks and secretaries.

Hundreds of members of the organization have been dismissed from Government offices as post-war activities have ceased. They have protested vigorously through delegates who have tried unsuccessfully to interview Lloyd George. In answer to their last communication the Premier had the following addressed to them:

"The Prime Minister says there can't be very much in this talk of women finding it hard to find employment. He has been trying for some time to get a housekeeper for No. 10, and he can't find one who wants the situation."

The proposition appealed to many applicants at the agencies and soon the austere doorman at the official residence stations of life reduced to servitude.

The Prime Minister has not yet obtained a suitable housekeeper, however.

SLAM FOR POLICEMAN

Judge O'Leary, formerly of Lindsay, chairman of the Police Commission of Fort William, Ont., said some members of the police force of that town, "did not work like policemen, or look like policemen. They are asleep standing up on street corners."

Voice Of The People

To the Editor, Examiner,
Dear Sir:—

As a reader of your paper I noticed a letter of slander to a certain picture shown (Cleopatra) and let me say if any picture be passed by the board of censors then why should any individual make protest.

If the party has anything to say regarding dislikes for a certain picture, why write to the film corporation explaining the dislikes for it and perhaps they could have it removed. As for closing play houses and dance halls, so as to keep the young people at home, well, we hope such laws never come to deprive us of two such fine places of enjoyment. Motion pictures have done a great deal to educate the world and many people have seen the war pictures shown and the great deeds of war have been brought home so as we all can have some idea as to what our boys went through, and now to have such places closed where we can enjoy ourselves is what we would expect had we lost the war. But cheer up we won the war and only living in the twentieth century.

Faint and Dizzy Spells

Weakness and Shortness of Breath

You can generally tell when the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.

Many men and women becomes rundown and worry out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness.

No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy and normal condition as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. C. A. S. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes:—"I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully as I have improved very much."

TO SAVE THE ARMY OF GEN. DENIKINE

Britain Has Sent Another Note to the Soviet Government.

LONDON, April 22.—The British government has sent a second communication to Russia, asking what the soviet government intends to do with the adherents of General Denikine in the Crimea, and pointing out again that Great Britain would view with disfavor any attempt to persecute the remnants of his defeated army.

So far as can be learned, the note is no way in the form of an ultimatum, but it states that Great Britain considers she has a moral right to intercede, at least diplomatically, in favor of these unprotected people.

British officials are considerably annoyed at the Moscow government's answer to the first British note in which Russia mentions several things she desires, including the release of the members of the Hungarian soviet —our foster alley, as the soviet communication phrases it.

Although a wireless dispatch from Moscow says Russia is ready to acquiesce in Great Britain's request for amnesty for the Denikine forces in question if her proposals are agreed to by the British, the official view here is that the promise is too vague to be considered a binding one.

Winston Spencer Churchill, secretary for war, explained in the house of commons that negotiations with the Bolsheviki were undertaken for the purpose of securing, if possible, the liver of a large number of soldiers and officers, women and children and refugees who are huddled together in Crimea. Great Britain, said the secretary, would do all in its power thru its mission in Crimea to prevent that territory being overrun, and all those people massacred before the negotiations were completed.
